BYU averages 23.3 points per game, while allowing 21.5. The Cougar offense has averaged 338.7 yards of total offense through 10 games with 199.8 coming through the air and 138.9 on the ground. Opponents have been able to throw for 194.2 yards and run for 135.0 to average 329.2 yards of total offense each game.

The Cougars offense has seen a pair of quarterbacks each play in six games, splitting the starts. Across the team, BYU has played 27 freshmen this season, including 17 true freshmen. There have been 11 different freshmen that have started games for the Cougars, including five true freshmen. Against Hawai'i, BYU started seven freshmen, including six on offense. Only Minnesota has started more freshmen on offense in a game (7). Freshmen have accounted for just shy of half of BYU's total scoring this year (116 of 233 total points - 49.8 percent).

LAST TIME OUT

The New Mexico State football team welcomed Alcorn State to Aggie Memorial Stadium for the final home contest of the season on Saturday, Nov. 3. The Aggies sent their veterans out right on senior day dominating the Braves from the game's opening kickoff en route to a 52-42 victory.

NM State (3-7) wasted no time getting on the board to open the game. Alcorn State (7-3) sent the opening kickoff to the edge of the end zone and Aggie returner Jason Huntley took off for a 99-yard score that gave the Crimson & White a 7-0 lead just 13 seconds into the game.

The Aggies then capitalized on their next drive after forcing a three-and-out for the Braves. The scoring series was set up by a 35-yard rush from Christian Gibson to give the team a first down at the Alcorn 15. Then on a 3rd & Goal from the six, quarterback Josh Adkins found senior Royce Caldwell in the back corner of the end zone to put the Aggies on top 14-0.

The second half opened with a punt for each side, before Alcorn was able to cut into the NM State lead. The Braves moved down into the red zone and then used a five-yard pass to the flat for the score that made the Aggies lead 35-21.

Then the Crimson & White looked to answer on the next possession. A third-down completion moved the ball to the Alcorn side of the field at the 43. Then on 4th & 2 from the 15-yard line, Gibson moved the ball ahead for a first down. The new series of downs again came to fourth down, but the Aggies were able to see a 30-yard field goal increase their advantage to 38-21 heading to the fourth quarter.

The Aggies looked to quiet any idea of a comeback on one of their final possessions, moving quickly into the red zone. A pass to Huntley set the Aggies up with a first down at the Alcorn 11-yard line. Then on a 3rd & 8, Huntley got the carry and rushed in for six. The extra point gave NM State a 45-35 edge.

Looking to add a little insurance, the Crimson & White did so on a long touchdown play. Looking at a 2nd & 20 from their own 40, Adkins connected with Huntley who broke off for a 60-yard touchdown reception that expanded the team's lead to 52-35.

Alcorn was able to find the end zone once more on a 12-yard pass to cut into the deficit late in the game. However, the onside kick was recovered by the Aggies and the team was able to run the clock out for a 52-42 win over the Braves on senior day.

NOTABLES: LAST GAME

- John Graves III recorded the first sack of his Aggie career on his first play in the opening quarter versus Alcorn State.
- Johnathan Boone's pair of touchdowns gave the receiver his first two-touchdown game of the 2018 season and first since doing so at Kentucky on 9/17/16.

- NM State had its best first half of the season offensively, scoring on five of the team's first seven drives.
- Tymon Locklin registered a career-high 11 tackles.
- Jason Huntley scored a career-high four touchdowns versus Alcorn State, topping his previous high of three done against Georgia Southern on 10/20/18.
- Leon McQuaker registered a new career-high in tackles with 22.
- Johnathan Boone set a new career-high in receiving yards with 92, topping his previous high of 90 he put up against Louisiana on 10/13/18.

UP NEXT

Following the matchup at BYU, the New Mexico State squad remains on the road for its final game of the 2018 season heading to Lynchburg, Va. to take on Liberty for the second time this year on Saturday, Nov. 24, at 12 p.m. MT. The first contest between the Aggies and the Flames saw the Crimson & White come out on top in an offensive shootout with a 49-41 victory inside of Aggie Memorial Stadium on Oct. 6.

IF YOU AIN'T FIRST, YOU'RE LAST

In New Mexico State's road game against Louisiana on Saturday, Oct. 13, junior Jason Huntley had a breakout game on the ground, through the air and on special teams. The Arlington, Texas native racked up 85 yards rushing, 112 yards receiving and 176 kick return yards.

These 373 all-purpose yards for the Aggie have been recognized nationally as they are good for first in the NCAA during the 2018 season. Huntley also etched his name into the NM State record book recording the second-highest total of all-purpose yards, just behind Taveon Rogers who put up 412 (166 receiving/246 kick return) versus Fresno State at Aggie Memorial Stadium on 11/12/11.

UNCHARTED

New Mexico State fans looking to get an inside look into the Aggies preparation for the 2018 season following a historic 2017 can check out just what it takes in the four-part web series 'Uncharted' that can be found on YouTube. The series chronicles the start of the season for NM State all the way back to training camp with a lead in to the season opener and beyond.

STARTING FROM SCRATCH

New Mexico State is the only school in the Football Bowl Subdivision to enter the 2018 campaign without its leading passer, rusher, receiver and tackler from the previous season.

TCU was the only exception with two players sharing the leading receiver title – one returns while the other graduated. The Horned Frogs also returned their leading rusher, but lost their leader in rush attempts from 2017. Seven teams – Appalachian State, Georgia State, Hawaii, Houston, UCLA, USC and UTSA - have lost three of the four statistical leaders.

Senior Nick Jeanty, junior college transfer Matt Romero and redshirt freshman Josh Adkins currently vie for the starting quarterback role. In the backfield, the Aggies retain the elusive Jason Huntley, who had 1,317 all-purpose yards and five touchdowns last season, and see the return of a key 2016 asset in Royce Caldwell. The receiving core lost Jaleel Scott to the NFL but returns its remaining starters in Jonathan Boone, Anthony Muse, DJ Clark and Anthony Muse who combined for 138 receptions and 10 touchdowns in 2017. The defense returns nine of its 11 starters and looks to build on an already impressive record-breaking 2017, led by linebacker Terrill Hanks.

WATCH OUT!

The national spotlight is starting to get set on the NM State football squad following a successful 2017 season. A pair of Aggies, Jason Huntley and Jamin Smith, were named to national preseason watch lists heading into 2018.

Huntley was named to the 2018 Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List, as announced by SPORTyler and the Tyler Area Chamber of Commerce, and to the Paul Hornung Award Watch List.

The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award recognizes the nation's college offensive player of the year who was either born in Texas, graduated from a Texas high school and/or played at a Texas-based junior college. The player must also exhibit characteristics that define Earl Campbell, including integrity, performance, teamwork, sportsmanship, community and tenacity.

The Paul Hornung Award, now in its ninth season, is given annually to the most versatile player in major college football by the Louisville Sports Commission, and football legend and Louisville native Paul Hornung.

A threat both in the backfield and on special teams, Huntley finished the 2017 season with 1,316 all-purpose yards and five touchdowns. This saw the Arlington, Texas native rush for 420 yards on 70 carries and add 39 receptions for 363 yards out of the backfield. Huntley also returned two kickoffs for touchdowns over the final four games of the season. His 100-yard kickoff return touchdown in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl tied for the longest in program history.

Smith was recognized for his stout play on the gridiron and valuable contributions to the community as he was named to the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List.

The Wuerffel Trophy, known as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented annually at the All Sports Association's Awards Banquet in Fort Walton Beach. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Danny Wuerffel from the University of Florida, the Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player that best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

Home Crowds

Below is a breakdown of the largest crowds to visit Aggie Memorial Stadium for an NM State football game.

MOVEMENT ON THE STAFF FRONT

The NM State football staff added a few new faces on the sidelines and in the booth for the 2018 season. The team welcomed on Ronnie Pentz as the defensive ends coach and co-special teams coordinator, former Aggie quarterback Chase Holbrook has moved from working with the tight ends to now serving as the team's quarterbacks coach, Chili Davis was promoted to a full-time coach in charge of tight ends and two new graduate assistants have made their way to the City of Crosses.

Ronnie Pentz (Def. Ends/Co-Special Teams)

Pentz joins NM State after spending the last five seasons at San Diego as the special teams and tight ends coach. During his tenure with the Toreros, the special teams unit has been ranked consistently in the top-25. Prior to USD, he spent four seasons on the staff at Southern Utah University, with the last three as special team's co-coordinator, and two seasons as tight ends coach.

Chase Holbrook (Quarterbacks)

Chase Holbrook, who played for NM State from 2005-08, enters his second season as a coach at his alma mater in 2018. After spending the 2017 season as the tight ends coach, Holbrook will coach the quarterbacks in 2018. Holbrook returned to his alma mater in 2017 after spending the 2016 season working under Mike Leach at Washington State as a quality controls coach.

Chili Davis (Tight Ends)

Chili Davis begins his first season as a full-time assistant with the program in 2018. Davis will coach the tight ends this season. Davis was elevated to a full-time assistant coaching position after serving as the offensive graduate assistant working primarily with the wide receivers alongside assistant coach Cory Martin.

Jacob Lemming (Defensive Graduate Assistant)

Jacob Lemming joins the New Mexico State football staff as a defensive graduate assistant for the 2018 season. Lemming comes to the City of Crosses after a pair of coaching stints that followed an FBS football career. He recently served as the tight ends coach at Benedictine

DOUG MARTIN

SIXTH SEASON

Doug Martin is entering his sixth season at the helm of the NM State football program in 2018.

Martin was officially announced as the Aggies' 34th head football coach on Feb. 1, 2013, after the departure of former head coach DeWayne Walker to the NFL. Martin was no stranger to the NM State program as he was the Aggie offensive coordinator under Walker in 2011.

In 2017, Martin etched his name into Aggie lore when he guided the Aggies to their first bowl game in 57 years and then captured the 2017 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship in front of 25,000-plus Aggie fans at Arizona Stadium on Friday, Dec. 29, 2017.

The season was capped off with a storybook ending as Larry Rose III rushed in the winning touchdown in overtime for the 26-20 victory over Utah State – the last opponent NM State defeated in 1960 when it last appeared in a bowl game. Rose III was named the offensive MVP while Leon McQuaker took home defensive MVP honors.

Rose III's game-winning touchdown also saw him tie James "Preacher" Pilot for the most rushing touchdowns in program history with 37.

At season's end, the team finished the regular-season 7-6 and 4-4 against Sun Belt opponents. These victories included a sweep over NM State's rivals UTEP and New Mexico for the first time since 2002. The win in 2017 over UNM was the second win in as many years.

The Aggies' head coach helped guide the offense to average 453.8 total yards of offense per game, including a Sun Belt-best 352.6 passing yardage. Martin led quarterback Tyler Rodgers to a conference-leading 3,825 yards with 26 touchdown passes. Wide receiver Jaleel Scott also posted a standout season as the senior led the team with eight touchdowns and 1,042 total yards. For his efforts Scott received an invitation to the Senior Bowl, a first for an Aggie since 1978.

The strong season led Scott to being selected in the fourth round (132 overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2018 NFL Draft. Scott, a First Team All-Conference selection in the Sun Belt, became the first Aggie chosen in the draft since the Jacksonville Jaguars took Jeremy Harris in the seventh round in 2013. The wideout was the highest Aggie taken in the draft since Davon House was selected in the fourth round, pick 131, by the Green Bay Packers in 2011.

NM State finished 2016 with a record of 3-9 for the second straight year, including a 32-31 rivalry win in the second game of the season against New Mexico. In conference play, the Aggies collected a 37-31 home win against Louisiana and cruised by Texas State, 50-10, at home.

Martin coached seven players that earned All-Sun Belt postseason honors, which was the most by NM State since joining the SBC in 2013. Linebacker Rodney Butler was named first-team all-conference after leading the country in tackles with 165. Butler, who concluded his career fourth in school history in tackles with 378, was named a Phil Steele All-American at the end of the season. Butler became the third Aggie to lead the country in tackles for a single season.

Martin helped lead the Aggies to an average of 414.7 yards of total offense per game, including 244.92 through the air. Martin guided quarterback Tyler Rodgers to a strong campaign with 16 touchdown passes and 2,603 passing yards. Meanwhile, the Aggie backfield, led by Larry Rose III, averaged 169.8 yards per game on the ground. Rose III paced the ground attack with 935 yards on the season.

The Aggies concluded the 2015 season with a 3-9 record, which is the best record for the program since 2011. In conference play, NM State defeated Idaho 55-48, Texas State 31-21 and UL-Lafayette 37-34 to collect three victories in a row. This was also the first time the team won three in a row since 2004.

As the offensive coordinator, Martin guided sophomore Larry Rose III as he broke the NM State single-season rushing record in just 10 games. Overall, Rose III had 1,651 rushing yards to finish the year ranked No. 6 all-time in the conference. For his accomplishments, Rose III earned Associated Press All-American Third Team honors and was named the Sun Belt Conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

Overall, the Aggies won five conference Player of the Week awards. Rose III won back-to-back honors, while Andrew Allen and Parker Davidson both won after leading the team to victory against UL-Lafayette. Jaden Wright was named Defensive Player of the Week at the beginning of the season.

NM State went 2-10 for the second year in a row in 2014. During Martin's second year, the Aggies began the season 2-0 for the first time since 1999. After topping Cal Poly in a 28-10 victory, NM State defeated Georgia State, 34-31, in its first Sun Belt Conference game.

The Aggies also faced I-10 rival UTEP, Rio Grande rival New Mexico and No. 17 LSU in 2014. Under Martin's tutelage, Allen became the first freshman to rush for over 100 yards against LSU since 2011. Later in the season, Rose III rushed for 229 yards against UL-Monroe to become the first NM State player to rush for over 200 yards since 2003 when Eric Higgins ran for 218 yards. This feat ranked Rose III as No. 7 all-time for single game performances.

With Martin guiding him, Rose III amassed 1,102 yards over the season to become the first 1,000 yard rusher since Kenny Turner in 2011. This was also the first time a freshman rushed for over 1,000 yards since Denvis Manns in 1995.

As a team, the Aggies averaged 420.9 yards of total offense per game after amassing 2,252 rushing yards and 2,899 receiving yards through 12 games. Defensively, NM State had two players amass triple-digit tackling on the season as Rodney Butler racked up 119 tackles and Derek Ibekwe accumulated 102 tackles. In addition, 21 student-athletes garnered double-digit tackles on the season. In all, the defense had 1,028 tackles, fivesacks, 11 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries.

NM State went 2-10 in 2013 during Martin's first season as head coach after playing one of the toughest schedules in the school's history. The Aggies faced five teams that had participated in a bowl game the previous season while also playing two teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation.

NM State kicked off the 2013 season with a trip to Austin, Texas, to face the 15th-ranked Texas Longhorns and also made a trip to Los Angeles during the season to play No. 13 UCLA. The Aggies' home schedule included games versus Minnesota, which was the first school out of the Big Ten to play at Aggie Memorial Stadium, and Boston College, which was the first school out of the Atlantic Coast Conference to make a trip to Las Cruces.

The Aggies averaged 20.9 points per game and 382.2 yards per game in 2013, including 141.8 yards per game on the ground and 240.5 yards per game through the air. The team had a season-high 224 yards rushing against Abilene Christian on Oct. 26 and a season-high 380 yards passing and receiving versus Boston College on Nov. 9.

Martin's influence and system began to take shape during the final five games of the season as NM State went 2-3 in those games and had fourth-quarter chances for a win in two of the three losses.

Martin would start making an impact on the squad as soon as he accepted the head coaching position. Before the season began, the Aggies had four players placed on six different preseason watch lists, the most for any NM State football team in the school's history. NM State also had 12 players honored on the College Sports Madness Independent Preseason All-Conference team and 11 players on the Phil Steele College Football Preview All-Independent team.

During the season, senior safety Davis Cazares was nominated as a Bulsworth Trophy finalist, honoring the most outstanding collegiate football player who began his career as a walk-on. Linebacker Clint Barnard would be named to the Capital One Academic All-District VII first team. The Aggies would also pick up three FBS Independent Player of the Week nods in 2013 under Martin, Cazares and Barnard on the defensive side and punter Cayle Chapman-Brown on special teams.

At the conclusion of the 2013 season, NM State would place five players on the All-Independent Football team including Cazares, Trashaun Nixon, Austin Franklin, Andy Cunningham and Davonte Wallace.

In 2012, Martin left his offensive coordinator position at NM State to take the same position for Boston College out of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles ranked 47th in the nation in passing offense, as Martin guided wide receiver Alex Amidon and offensive tackle Emmett Cleary to All-ACC honors.

As the offensive coordinator for the Aggies in 2011, Martin helped NM State rank 47th in the country in total offense and 26th in passing offense. He helped guide the Aggies to a win over Minnesota, the program's first win against a team from the Big Ten.

With seven seasons under his belt as the head coach at Kent State University and eight as the offensive coordinator, Martin was instrumental in building a true football program at the university. A total of 20 Golden Flashes earned All-Mid-American Conference accolades from 2007-10, including Eugene Jarvis, who was atop the active Football Bowl Subdivision running backs list with 3,722 career yards on the ground, and Brian Lainhart, whose 17 career interceptions was also tops among active FBS players.

In 2010, Roosevelt Nix was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year under Martin's watch. Also with Martin's help, four players were selected in the NFL draft including Jameson Konz (2010 - 7th round, Seattle Seahawks), Usama Young (2007 - 3rd round, New Orleans Saints), Jack Williams (2008 - 4th round, Denver Broncos) and Julian Edelman (2009 - 7th round, New England Patriots).

Martin is widely regarded as one of the nation's premier quarterback mentors. His list of protégés includes three-time All-Conference USA selection and current NFL passer David Garrard, record-setting CFL quarterback Marcus Crandell and other pros Richard Alston and Joshua Cribbs, who both played quarterback in college under Martin before switching positions in the NFL.

In Martin's first season, the Golden Flashes posted a 5-6 overall record, winning their final four games for the program's longest winning streak since 1976. The team also finished in fourth place in the MAC East Division with a 4-4 mark while producing three All-MAC players and two honorable mention All-Americans.

Martin was named the school's 19th head coach on March 1, 2004, replacing Dean Pees. Martin joined the Kent State staff in January 2003 as offensive coordinator. After just one year on the staff, Martin made an instant impact on the Golden Flashes' offense. In its first season under Martin's system, Kent State averaged 26.8 points per game, the second-highest in the previous 30 years for the program.

Martin arrived at Kent State following 11 seasons at East Carolina University, the last seven of which he was in charge of the team's offense. He was at ECU for all of Steve Logan's tenure there, serving as the tight ends coach and special team's coordinator for two seasons (1992-93), then another two years as wide receivers coach (1994-95) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1996.

Prior to joining the staff at East Carolina, Martin was a graduate assistant at the University of Kentucky, his alma mater, from 1986-87 and then spent the 1988-91 seasons at East Tennessee State University.

Martin was a four-year letterwinner at Kentucky from 1981-84. A native of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Martin earned a bachelor's degree in history from Kentucky in 1985.

Martin and his wife Vicki have a daughter, Molly, and two sons, Cory and Bobby. Cory is on staff as a wide receivers coach.
