THE TIP-OFF

- Gonzaga and BYU will meet for the 25th time in program history and the 10th time in Provo. Gonzaga holds a 15-9 advantage in the series, but the Cougars carry a 5-4 advantage in Provo. This game will be the 19th time the two squads meet as WCC opponents; BYU joined the conference during the 2011-12 season.
- The Zags are currently on a 12-game win streak, the longest so far of the season. The Bulldogs longest win streak in program history is 23 games, a feat they accomplished from Dec. 10, 2004 to March 6, 2005. The longest recent streak is 15-straight victories which occurred between Dec. 17, 2017 and Feb. 8, 2018.
- With its 5-0 start to WCC play, Gonzaga has now opened conference play with a 5-0 record nine times in program history. Two of those seasons (2004-05; 2009-10), the Bulldogs went on to have undefeated 14-0 conference records before the addition of BYU and return of Pacific to the WCC. Currently, the Zags hold the record for conference wins with 17, a feat they accomplished last season after posting a conference-best 17-1 record.
- The Zags continue to stretch their best start in program history as they carry a 16-1 overall mark following their 97-71 win over Portland on Jan. 12. Previously, their best start was an 8-2 mark, most recently during the 2013-14 season.
- Gonzaga is ranked for the sixth-straight week after entering the polls at

INSIDE THE SERIES

Overall: 25th meeting, Gonzaga leads 15-9 In Spokane: 9-2 | In Provo: 4-5 | Neutral: 2-2 Current Streak: Gonzaga, Won 2

Last Meeting: Gonzaga defeated BYU 62-37 in Spokane on Feb. 24, 2018.

Series Notes: Gonzaga and BYU meet for the 25th time in program history and the 10th time in Provo. The series dates back to the 1983-84 season when the Bulldogs hosted the Cougars as part of the Bulldog Invitational in Spokane. BYU claimed the edge in the first meeting, 80-63, but Gonzaga won the next meeting during the 1993094 season, a 75-67 victory. Neither team has completely dominated the series, but Gonzaga claims the longest win streak of four games when the Bulldogs won four-straight from the 2012-13 season through the 2013-14 season.

- Throughout the series, Gonzaga has averaged 67.5 points per game while limiting BYU to 61.5. Gonzaga has not given up more than 80 points in the series and has limited BYU to as few as 37 points.
- In the last meeting, Gonzaga dominated BYU from the tip, sending the Bulldogs' seniors out with a victory, 62-37. It also set the single season WCC wins record with 17 as the Bulldogs finished the 2017-18 season with a 17-1 mark in WCC play. The Cougars netted the first basket of the game but went scoreless over the final 9:25 of the first quarter as the Bulldogs claimed a 16-2 advantage after the first 10. Three players finished in double-figures as Jill Barta, Emma Stach and Zykera Rice each scored 11 points. Laura Stockton and Chandler Smith were close behind with nine points.

SCOUTING BYU:

- The Cougars are 14-3 overall on the season with an unblemished 6-0 mark in WCC play. Currently, BYU averages 67.2 points per game shooting 41.6 percent from the floor and 33.5 percent from long range.
- Through the first three weekends of conference play, BYU leads the league in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.1) and rank second in four categories: scoring defense (60.5 ppg), scoring margin (+6.6), field goal percentage defense (37.1), and assists (15.4).
- As of Jan. 15, BYU has the second-highest RPI in the WCC (Gonzaga leads at 11th). The Cougars have held steady at No. 28.
- During the nonconference slate, BYU posted an 8-3 record with losses to California, at Southern Utah and at Utah to finish 4-1 at home and 2-2 on the road with a 2-0 neutral record. Through the first six games of conference play, the Cougars have won four games on the road, including two last weekend that went down to the wire. At Pacific on Jan. 10, BYU made free throws down the stretch to secure the 77-74 win on the road. At Saint Mary's on Jan. 12, BYU led by 13 points early in the fourth quarter, yet a late Saint Mary's surge cut the lead to six (74-68) with 2:13 to go. Saint Mary's scored five unanswered to cut the lead to one point with 22 seconds remaining, but the Gaels missed a last-second three point attempt to give the Cougars the 74-73 win.

- BYU is one of the tallest teams in the conference, with eight players six feet or taller (with the tallest coming in at 6-foot-7), with 11 players listed as 5-foot-10 or taller
- Three players average double-figures for BYU, led by Shaylee Gonzales at t17.6 points per game. Paisley Johnson adds 14.2 while Brenna Chase averages 12.5 points per game.
- Gonzales also leads the team in rebounding with 5.6 rebounds per game. Jasmine Moody also grabs at least five boards a game as she averages 5.4.
- BYU relies heavily on its top five for minutes as three players average over 34 minutes per game (Chase, 36.8; Johnson, 35.1; Gonzales, 34.2), while Moody and Shalae Salmon add 23.4 and 22.9 minutes per game, respectively.

FLYING HIGH WITH CAREER NIGHTS

Jan. 12 against the Pilots was a career night for five Bulldogs, led by Zykera Rice with a career-high 28 points off 11-of-13 from the floor to go along with seven boards, three assists, one block and one steal. Laura Stockton also finished with a career-high scoring total, tallying 19 points six rebounds, six assists and two steals. Stockton's six assists catapulted her to fourth-all time in career assists, surpassing Jazmine Redmon with 401 career assists. Katie Campbell added a career-high three assists in the win to go along with a career-high tying seven rebounds while both Jessie Loera and Melody Kempton finished with career-high tying marks. Loera dished out nine assists and five rebounds, matching her career highs in both catgories, while Kempton added two steals, also her current career high.

#CLUTCHMOMENTS: BUZZER BEATERS

Though the Zags have not been in a position to have a game-winner as time expired, they have hit several shots this season as the buzzer sounded. Already this season, the Zags have hit a shot with less than four seconds on the clock, and nine different players have scored during those time frames. Rice, Chandler Smith and Jill Townsend have two buzzer-beaters on record this season, while LeeAnne Wirth, Jenn Wirth, Stockton, Kempton, Campbell and Loera have each converted one.

BULLDOGS KEEP ON CLIMBING

Gonzaga's recent jump to No. 13 in the AP Top 25 Poll marks its highest ranking ever and back-to-back record-setting rankings following GU's jump to No. 14 on Jan. 7. Previously, the Zags had been ranked as high as No. 15 in the Associated Press poll, a feat they accomplished March 20-27, 2010 (That same week, Gonzaga did reach a No. 14 ranking in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll). That season (2009-10), Gonzaga entered the Top 25 poll at No. 24 on Feb. 6, 2010 following a 93-53 win over San Francisco. The Bulldogs continued to move up in the poll through WCC play, moving up to 22nd, 21st, 19th, 17th and finally 15th. The Bulldogs posted a 20-game win streak and advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen that season.

MOVING ON UP

Laura Stockton dished out six assists in GU's 97-71 win over Portland to surpass Jazmine Redmon on the all-time career assists list. Stockton now has 401 career assists to rank fourth all-time in GU history. She is 39 assists short of third place; former Zag Amy Simpson claims the third spot with 439 career assists. Currently, Stockton leads the team and ranks eighth in the conference with 4.1 assists per game. If she continues at that rate, it will take her less than 10 games to move into third all time.

KEEPING THE STREAK ALIVE

Katie Campbell is currently on a 15-game streak with at least one three-point field goal. Through the first 17 games, Campbell is 34-71 from long range and is shooting 47.9 percent to lead the Zags. Campbell's 47.9 percent also leads the WCC and ranks eighth in the nation.

ON TOP OF THE CONFERENCE

Through the first 16 games, Gonzaga leads the WCC in six statistical categories: scoring defense (56.6 ppg), scoring margin (+15.8 ppg), rebounding defense (32.8 rpg), rebounding margin (+6.8), steals (10.3) and turnover margin (+3.7). The Bulldogs also rank second in six statistical categories: free throw percentage (.767), field goal percentage defense (.366), three-point percentage (.369), three-point percentage defense (.286), blocked shots (4.1 bpg) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.0). The Bulldogs also lead the the WCC in RPI (currently ranked 11th in the nation). BYU is the next closest WCC school, ranked 38th in the latest RPI rankings.

- 1. Increased her scoring average by 7.1 points per game: $11.7 \cdots > 18.8$
- 2. Increased her shooting percentage by 21 percent: .420 $\cdots >$.630
- 3. Picked up back-to-back WCC Player of the Week honors

NEARLY PERFECT

The Bulldogs are capitalizing on their opportunities at the line as they average 76.7 percent from the charity stripe through the first 16 games. Seven players are shooting at least 75 percent from the line, led by Stockton. Stockton has only missed two free throws all season (32-34), and is currently shooting 94.1 percent from the line to lead the WCC. Currently, Stockton averages 2.0 made free throws per game; national statistics require 2.5 made free throws per game to qualify. Katie Campbell is currently perfect from the line (18-18), but is only attempting 1.1 free throws per game. Chandler Smith has attempted the second-most free throws on the squad (46), and she is currently shooting 80 percent from the line (37-46).

SHOOTING HER WAY INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

Zykera Rice posted a program best 11-of-12 performance from the field at Pepperdine on Dec 31. She shot 91.7 percent from the floor, which marks a new program record for field goal percentage in a single game (with at least 10 made field goals since 1999). Her 91.7

field goal percentage is the also the best single-game field goal percentage in the WCC this season. Rice also matched her own career-high in points with 23.

SECOND HALF SPURT

For the first time this season, the Zags netted 50+ points in a half. After scoring a combined 23 points in the first half at Loyola Marymount on Dec. 29, the Bulldogs exploded for 55 points in the second half. It marks the first time since March 2, 2018 that the GU had scored 50+ points in a single half. Previously, the Zags scored 53 points against Pepperdine in the first half.

DECEMBER: THE GIFT OF UNSTOPPABLE OFFENSE

Through the first four games of December, the Bulldogs have produced their top-three offensive games of the season: 88 points (vs. Idaho, 12/20); 79 points (vs. then No. 8/7 Stanford, 12/2); and 76 points (vs. Washington State, 12/9). Through the first four games of December, Gonzaga has averaged 78.25 points shooting 47.8 percent from the floor and 51.2 percent from long range. In addition, the Zags have dominated the glass, posting a +13.8 rebounding margin while hauling in an average of 42.0 rebounds per game.

SPREADING THE SCORING WEALTH

Similar to the entire non-conference, the first four games of December saw multiple Zags reach double-figures with a different high-scorer each game. Three players have averaged double-figures in December games: Chandler Smith (13.5), Zykera Rice (10.8) and Jenn Wirth (10.5); while three players average over nine points a game: Katie Campbell (9.8), Jill Townsend (9.8) and Jessie Loera (9.5). Impressively, eight players on the roster average at least seven points per game.

LET'S GET DEFENSIVE

Statistically speaking, through the first 11 games the Bulldogs are the best defensive team in the WCC. Gonzaga leads the league in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 56.5 points per game. That mark also ranks 47th nationally. GU ranks second in turnover margin, forcing an average of 17.2 turnovers per game for a +2.9 turnover margin, and it ranks second in blocked shots with 3.7 per contest. The Bulldogs also rank second in rebounding defense, limiting opponents to just 33.7 rebounds per game.

BEST START IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Gonzaga's 9-1 start is the best 10-game start in program history. Previously, the Bulldogs' best 10-game start was 8-2, a record they had posted on eight different occasions, most recently in 2016-17.

PAC-12 DOMINANCE

With the Zags' win over Washington State on Dec. 9, the Bulldogs have won two-straight games over Pac-12 opponents. It's only the fourth time in program history that Gonzaga has defeated two or more Pac-12 opponents in a single season. Previously, the Bulldogs accomplished the same feat during the 2016-17 season (def. Stanford 68-63; def. Washington State 79-61), the 2010-11 season (def. WSU 67-65; def. WSU 80-62, def. UCLA 89-75) and in 2009-10 (def. USC 70-58; def.

Washington 81-52). GU's back-to-back Pac-12 wins marks the second time in program history the Bulldogs have defeated two-straight Pac-12 opponents. The Zags also accomplished the feat during the 2009-10 season defeating then Pac-10 opponents USC and Washington in back-to-back games on Nov. 19 and Nov. 22. Both of those games were also played at home.

SHARING THE SCORING RESPONSIBILITY

Through the first 10 games, Gonzaga has done well to share the scoring responsibility. In all but two games, the Bulldogs have finished with at least two players in double-figures and have twice finished with five players in double-figures: against Western Kentucky (Nov. 24) and against Washington State (Dec. 9). No one has scored more than 20 points in a single contest, and only one player averages double-figures (Zykera Rice, 11.1). Only Rice has been the lone leading scoring in consecutive games (vs. Notre Dame, 11/22; vs. Rutgers, 11/23); otherwise a new player has claimed top scoring honors every game.

OWNING THE BOARDS

Since losing the rebounding battle in two of their first five games, including a lopsided 50-33 advantage in favor of Notre Dame, Gonzaga has dominated the glass. As of Dec. 10, nn their previous five games, the Bulldogs have posted a +11.0 rebounding margin, winning all five games on the glass. Gonzaga has limited four of its last five opponents to under 30 rebounds, including a season-low 24 against Stanford on Dec. 2.

BULLDOGS KEEP CLIMBING THE POLLS

With its second-straight Pac-12 win, Gonzaga moved up three spots to No. 21 in the AP Poll (Dec. 10). The Zags also jumped in the USA Today Coaches Poll, moving up one sport to No. 21. It's the highest ranking for the Zags in both polls since March 2014. Gonzaga was ranked No. 18/16 March 11-23.

ZAGS CRACK AP TOP 25

Gonzaga found itself inside the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2016 as they were voted No. 24 on Dec. 3 in the Week 5 poll. The Bulldogs received 93 votes after defeating then No. 8/7 Stanford 79-73 Sunday afternoon in the McCarthey Athletic Center.

SMITH PICKS UP WCC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Chandler Smith picked up her first career WCC Player of the Week honor following her 20-point performance against Stanford on Dec. 2. Eight of her 20 points came in the final 3:56 of the fourth quarter including a clutch jumper and two free throws to seal the win in the final 13 seconds. The Brewster, Wash., native went 6-of-10 from the floor and 8-of-9 from the charity stripe to finish with a game-high 20 points, her second 20-point effort of the season. Smith added three boards, three assists, one block and one steal in the win.

SHOOTING FOR THE WIN

Gonzaga posted its best shooting performance of the season against Stanford, sinking 26-of-48 attempts as a squad to shoot 54.2 percent. It was the first time this season that a team shot over 50 percent against the Cardinal and only the third time since the 2016-17 season.

TIDBITS FROM THE TOP 10 WIN

Gonzaga's win over then No. 8/7 Stanford marked the:

- 15th win in program history over a ranked opponent
- Fifth win over a Top 10 program in history
- Highest-ranked opponent the Bulldogs have defeated; the previously highest-ranked opponent the Zags had defeated was No. 8/9 Miami on March 19, 2012 in the NCAA Second Round.
- · First win over a ranked opponent since Nov. 18, 2016. Coincidentally, that win was also over Stanford; the Bulldogs defeated the No. 11/8 Cardinal 68-63 in Stanford, Calif., marking just the eighth loss at home for Stanford since 2007.

CAPITALIZING AT THE LINE

Following GU's win over No. 8/7 Stanford, the Bulldogs were one of the best free-throw shooting teams in the nation as it ranked 20th overall shooting 77.5 percent from the charity stripe through the first nine games. The Bulldogs ranked second in the WCC in free throw percentage but led the conference in free throws made (117) and ranked second in free throws attempted (151). Laura Stockton leds the WCC with a spectacular 95.2 percent shooting (20-for-21). Following GU's win over Stanford, Stockton had made 10-straight free throws, the longest streak on the squad.

ATTENDANCE CAPACITY AMONG NATION'S BEST

Through nine games, Gonzaga ranks second in the entire nation in attendance capacity at 89.92 percent. The Bulldogs trail only Notre Dame as the Fighting Irish are averaging 93.23 percent capacity this season. UConn (73.28 percent), Iowa State (66.73 percent) and Mississippi State (66.14 percent) round out the top five.

CAMPBELL WITH THE HOT HAND

Through the first nine games, Katie Campbell is shooting 55 percent from long range to lead the Zags. Her average has more than doubled from last season as she finished 12-for-50 from long range to shoot 24 percent in 2017-18. Currently, she's 22-for-40 from long range. Campbell's 55 percent ranks second in the West Coast Conference and 10th in the nation. She also ranks 11th in the WCC in field goal percentage at 50.8.

ZYKERA CONTROLLING THE PAINT

Zykera Rice has been a force for the Zags inside, averaging a team-best 8.4 rebounds per game while leading the Zags with 12.1 points per game. Currently, she ranks fourth in the WCC in rebounds per contest, and she's 18th in the league in scoring. Rice's dominance inside has helped the Zags post a 254-210 points in the paint advantage through eight games.

JENN WIRTH RETURNS

After sitting out the first seven games with a broken finger sustained during the preseason, Jenn Wirth returned to the lineup Wednesday against Colorado State. The sophomore finished with two points and four rebounds in 12 minutes of play.

STARTING STRONG

With a 6-1 record to start this season, the Zags are off to their best start in Lisa Fortier's tenure. The last time the Bulldogs opened the season 6-1 was during the 2013-14 season. That year, Gonzaga posted an 8-1 record before suffering their second loss, a 73-45 loss at No. 6/4 Stanford. That season, Gonzaga collected wins against Big 10 foes Ohio State and Wisconsin in addition to wins over Idaho, UT-Martin, EWU, Colgate, Fairfield and Portland State.

CONSISTENT-Z

- Zykera Rice has been a consistent contributor for the Zags during the Vancouver Showcase. The senior has averaged 16.0 points per game, 6.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 steals through two games.
- Against both Notre Dame and Rutgers, Rice was hot for the Zags. Thursday against the Fighting Irish, the senior netted eight straight points, helping the Bulldogs to an 8-4 lead. Friday against the Scarlet Knights, Rice had seven of GU's first 10 points.

MELODY THE MACHINE

Melody Kempton has been the team workhorse inside the key. The freshman has tallied 25 boards on the season for an even 5.0 per game, and she's been a defensive force on the inside. She leads the Bulldogs with seven blocks in the season; three of those came against Notre Dame.

STOCKTON DISHING IT OUT

- Laura Stockton currently ranks tied for 36th in the nation with 24 total assists on the season. She's recorded at least five assists in three games so far this season and dished out seven assists two consecutive games: at UNLV and vs. Notre Dame.
- Stockton continues to move up the all-time career assists list. Following GU's 81-65 loss to No. 1 Notre Dame, Stockton ranks sixth all-time with 356 career assists.

RECORD AGAINST No. 1's

This will be the fourth time in program history that Gonzaga has faced an opponent ranked No. 1. So far, the Zags are 0-3 all-time against No. 1's, starting with a 79-65 loss to then No. 2/1 Tennessee on Nov. 25, 2005 at a neutral site game in the U.S. Virgin Islands as part of the Paradise Jam tournament. The Bulldogs also fell 96-73 to No. 1 Tennessee on Dec. 16, 2007 in Knoxville. The last time the Zags face a No. 1 was against Stanford on Dec. 2, 2012. The Bulldogs fell to the Cardinal 69-41 in Spokane.

REBOUNDING IS KEY

Head women's basketball coach Lisa Fortier has challenged her team to improve its rebounding. At UNLV, a team that boasts eight players six-foot or taller, Gonzaga won the rebounding battle 37-36, and Fortier said she thought it was a much better effort from her team.

"When you watch the film [vs. UNLV], a lot of times we have people double-teaming rebounders, trying to make sure that even if they don't get the rebound, someone on our team will tip it to themselves or go clean it up," Fortier said. "That's an area that we need to continue to work on, especially as we play this week; there are going to be bigger teams with more post players and more physicality. That was an area of growth that we needed to make. I thought we did a nice job there; we only beat them by one on the glass, but I thought a much better effort."

Through Nov. 19, Gonzaga has four players rank among the top 16 in rebounding in the WCC, with three players in the top 10. Zykera Rice leads the rebounding effort with 8.3 per game (4th in WCC), while Chandler Smith and Jill Townsend are tied for 10th with an even 6.0 per game. Melody Kempton rounds out the top 16 with 5.3 rebounds per contest. As a squad, the Zags rank second in the WCC in rebounding offense with 40.2 boards per contest; in addition, they also rank second in offensive rebounds with 13.8 per game.

TURNOVER CHAIN

So far this season, the Zags have been relentless in forcing turnovers. Between their full-court press to their scrappy half-court defense, the Bulldogs collect an average of 12.7 steals per game while forcing an average of 21.33 turnovers per game. Through three games, the Zags lead the WCC in turnover margin (+7.7) and rank fourth in steals.

DOWN LOW DOMINANCE

Gonzaga has been nearly unstoppable inside, outscoring its first three opponents 102-62 in the key. That's an average of 13.3 points per game. The Bulldogs have also asserted themselves on the glass, posting a +3.7 rebounding margin through the first three games.

BENCHIN' IT

The Bulldogs have been seeing a lot of production from their bench so far this season. GU's bench has outscored its opponent every game by an average of 21.6 points per game. Jill Townsend and Katie Campbell have both been sparks off the bench for the Zags, averaging 11.0 and 10.3 points per game, respectively, while Melody Kempton has shown her ability inside with 4.3 rebounds per game and 1.0 blocks per contest. Louise Forsyth has showcased her range for the Zags, coming in against Eastern Washington to hit a deep baseline three to spark a second-half run. She's shooting 42 percent from the floor so far this season.

TOWNSEND ON THE RISE:

- Sophomore Jill Townsend has had a strong start to her sophomore campaign. The Okanogan, Wash., native is averaging 12.0 points per game through two contests and 8.0 rebounds; both marks are above her previous career-highs of 11 points and six rebounds. Against Eastern Washington, Townsend came off the bench to post a double-double of 10 points and 10 rebounds. She's the first Zag to come off the bench and post a double-double since teammate Zykera Rice in 2016. Rice came off the bench to score 16 points and grab 10 rebounds in GU's 102-38 win over UC Irvine on Nov. 13, 2016.

DEFENSIVE PROWESS:

The Bulldogs are setting the defensive standard early. The Zags lead the West Coast Conference and rank 27th in the nation in steals with 28, and the Bulldogs rank second in the conference in field goal percentage defense at 32.5. GU also ranks second in the WCC in turnovers forced with 22.5 per contest. Both Katie Campbell and Chandler Smith lead the squad and share the WCC lead with seven steals each, good for 3.5 per contest. Defense was key in Gonzaga's recent 63-51 road win at Eastern Washington as the Zags forced 24 turnovers including three in the final 3:40 to seal the win.

SHARING THE RESPONSIBILITY:

Though Gonzaga has just one official game under its belt this season, it has become clear early that the Bulldogs are embracing the idea of team basketball. Four Zags scored in double-figures in their season-opener: Jill Townsend (14); Katie Campbell (13); Laura Stockton (13) and Zykera Rice (11). The Bulldogs are also sharing the rebounding effort as every Zag that played at least 15 minutes had two boards. Rice led the rebounding effort with nine while Chandler Smith and Townsend each has six. Another shared stat is minutes played; no Zag saw the floor more than 29 minutes on Wednesday, with Jessie Loera logging a team-high 29. Having a deep bench and solid reserves will help the Zags maintain their endurance throughout the season.

NATIONALLY RANKED ATTENDANCE:

 Following Gonzaga's home-opener against Montana on Nov. 7 that saw 5,472 strong in the McCarthey Athletic Center, the Zags rank sixth nationally in average attendance.

6. Gonzaga	WCC	5,472
5. Purdue	Big Ten	6,185
4. Mississippi State	SEC	6,373
3. Montana State	Big Sky	6,772
2. Baylor	Big 12	9,444
1. Pittsburgh	ACC	9,657

HOME OPENERS: A LOOK BACK

- \cdot The Zags are 27-5 all-time in regular-season home openers and have won the last 13.
- The Bulldogs last loss in a home opener was in 2003, a 73-57 loss to Oregon. The Zags have never lost a home opener inside the McCarthey Athletic Center.
- The Zags have never faced Montana in their regular-season home opener.

EXHIBITION EXCITEMENT

After over four weeks of practice facing just each other, the Bulldogs finally had a chance to stretch their legs against an opponent other than themselves in an actual game environment. In front of 5,370 strong, the Bulldogs rolled Carroll 86-43 on Nov. 2 in the McCarthey Athletic Center. Gonzaga shot 55.7 percent from the floor and a staggering 46.7 percent from long range while scoring nearly at will inside with a 32-18 advantage in the paint. The Zags were relentless on defense, forcing 21 turnovers with 13 steals for a 35-9 advantage in points off turnovers. Five Zags finished in double-figures led by Chandler Smith's 23. Katie Campbell finished with 13, Jill Townsend added 12 and Zykera Rice chipped in 11. Freshman Melody Kempton nearly finished with a double-double in her first appearance as a Zag as she finished with 10 points and a game-high nine rebounds, five of which were offensive.

BULLDOGS PICKED TO REPEAT AS WCC CHAMPS:

For the sixth straight season, Gonzaga was selected as the favorite to win the 2018-19 WCC crown. The Zags, which have won 13 of the last 14 regular-season WCC title and set the WCC record with 17 conference wins a season ago, received seven of 10 first place votes for 79 points. Saint Mary's was selected second while BYU rounded out the top three in third place.

TRIO OF ZAGS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-WCC:

- Seniors Chandler Smith, Zykera Rice and Laura Stockton were all named Preseason All-WCC. Smith and Rice earned the honor for the first time while Stockton picked up her second-straight Preseason All-WCC nod.
- Smith appeared and started in all 33 games for the Zags a season ago, averaging 9.4 points per game to rank third on the team. She also led GU and was fifth in the league with 1.9 steals per game. Smith earned Second Team All-WCC last season.
- Rice is the top returning scorer for the Zags as she averaged 11.7 points a season ago (second on team, 17th in WCC). Rice also led the squad in field goal percentage at 49.7 percent. Rice was also named Second Team All-WCC in addition to being named WCC All-Tournament.
- Stockton has led the Bulldogs in assists each of the last two seasons and ranked eighth in the WCC in assists last year with 3.8 per game. She also carried a 1.6 assist-to-turnover ratio last season, good for seventh in the conference.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE:

- The Bulldogs' upcoming slate features two NCAA tournament teams, five WNIT teams, seven opponents with at least 20 wins and a 30+ win opponent. Gonzaga will be tested early with a matchup against defending national champions Notre Dame and a rematch against the Stanford Cardinal who defeated the Zags 82-68 in the NCAA First Round last season.
- Nonconference foes UNLV, Missouri State, Colorado State and Idaho all advanced to the WNIT, as did WCC opponnent Saint Mary's.

A LOOK AT THE ROSTER:

 The Zags return three starters and eight letter winners from last season's squad that finished 27-6 overall with a conference record 17-1 mark in WCC play. Rice, Smith and Stockton return as starters for the Bulldogs, and all three were named Preseason All-WCC.

- The Bulldogs also add 6-5 transfer Anamaria Virjoghe and freshmen Melody Kempton and Kylee Griffen.
 Virjoghe will redshirt the 2018-19 season per NCAA transfer rules.
- Gonzaga features a sizeable frontcourt with Jenn and LeeAnne Wirth, each at 6-3, who return for their sophomore campaigns. Rice, who stands at 6-1, will look to replace some of the lost scoring power from Jill Barta; Barta elected to forego her senior season and was selected as the 32nd overall pick in the 2018 WNBA Draft.
- There are seven players on the current roster that appeared in 30 or more games a season ago; Rice (33), Smith (33), Loera (32), Townsend (32), Wirth, J. (32), Wirth, L. (30) and Stockton (29).

McCarthey's New Security Measures

- In order to provide its fans with the safest venue environment, Gonzaga Athletics is implementing additional security measures at events at the McCarthey Athletic Center beginning this upcoming season.
- Security measures include metal detection technology at all entrances and a clear bag policy, which both keep safety and security a priority. These security measures will be in effect beginning with Kraziness in the Kennel.
- With the entry process possibly increasing the time it takes to enter the building, Gonzaga Athletics encourages all fans to arrive early or utilize the designated express lanes that are intended for patrons that don't have any bags or large metals items such as cameras or tablets.
- People entering the arena will be screened via walkthrough metal detectors or by utilization of hand wands when needed.

After spending much of the last decade as a member of the Gonzaga University women's basketball staff, including seven as an assistant, Lisa Fortier was named the program's head coach on April 14, 2014, and has rattled off a series of firsts in her first our seasons at the helm.

In 2017-18, Fortier took a young group with just one senior on the court, and posted the winningest season in her tenure at 27-6, the program's 10th 25-win season in 11 years. The Zags went 17-1 in conference play, the first WCC team ever to do that, claiming the regular-season crown. Fortier was named WCC Coach of the Year for the third time in her first four years, the first coach to do that in conference history. GU won the WCC Tournament as well, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time, the third time in coach Fortier's tenure, also the first coach to do that in program history. WNBA Draft pick Jill Barta became only the third Zag to be named First Team All-WCC three times in her first three seasons.

In her third season, 2016-17, Fortier's Zags swept the West Coast Conference reguhistory to 50 wins en route. At 26-7, they advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in nine years, and ninth time overall. Her 2016-17 squad set program records in three-pointers made with 224 and free throw percentage at 77.4 percent, along with breaking the single-game made three-pointers mark three times, finally settling at 17. Barta became only the second sophomore in the Division I era to score 1000 points at GU.

In her first season as a head coach in 2014-15, Fortier oversaw one of the nation's more efficient offenses. The Bulldogs outscored opponents by 10.0 points per game. As a team, the Zags broke seven team records, including a program-best 77.4 percent from the free-throw line that season, which was also fourth-best in the country. GU made 534 free-throws and 211 three-pointers that season, both new program records.

Fortier was the 2015 recipient of the WBCA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year Award. Fortier had the best first season any head coach in Gonzaga women's basketball history has ever had. Her 26 wins and 76.5 winning percentage were both top of the list among first year finishes for any GU women's basketball coach.

Fortier led Gonzaga to a 26-8 finish and its seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. GU made its fourth appearance in the Sweet 16, after a pair of upsets in the first and second rounds as an 11-seed.

Fortier was named the West Coast Conference co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Zags to their 11th straight conference regular season title. During the season, Gonzaga won 16 straight games, the fifth-longest win streak in program history.

Gonzaga advanced to the postseason for the 10th consecutive year during Fortier's second season. The Zags ended their schedule in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Jill Barta became the first freshman to be named First Team All-West Coast Conference in eight years.

Fortier first came to Gonzaga in 2004, spending two years as the coordinator of basketball operations. She then spent one season as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Colorado before returning to GU in 2007.

In her seven years as a Gonzaga assistant, the Bulldogs produced an overall record of 196-43. The Zags dominated the West Coast Conference during that span, compiling a 98-8 mark to go with seven consecutive WCC regular-season championships and five WCC Tournament titles.

After a second-round appearance in the WNIT in Fortier's first season as an assistant, the Zags qualified for the NCAA Tournament the next six years, which included a stretch of three straight Sweet Sixteens from 2010-12. The highlight was an Elite Eight run in 2011, in which the Bulldogs upset three higher-seeded teams.

In addition to serving as Gonzaga's recruiting coordinator, Fortier has been responsible for coordinating GU's defense. She also spent time coaching Gonzaga's guards. She has mentored two WNBA draftees in Courtney Vandersloot and Katelan Redmon as well as Haiden Palmer, a 2014 draft hopeful. She also coached Taelor Karr, the 2012-13 WCC Player of the Year.

A native of Grass Valley, Calif., Fortier played collegiate basketball at Butte (Calif.) Community College before transferring to Cal State Monterey Bay. Fortier graduated Magna Cum Laude from CSUMB in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in human communications. Fortier earned her master's degree in sport and athletic administration from Gonzaga in 2006.

Fortier, who spent two years as the Assistant Coaches Representative on the WBCA Board of Directors, is married to Craig Fortier, who joined the Gonzaga staff as an assistant coach in May of 2014, after previously serving as the associate head men's basketball coach at Eastern Washington University. They welcomed their first son, Marcus, in 2010. Their second son, Calvin, was born in 2012, and they welcomed a daughter, Quincy, in July, 2014.

Under his tutelage, Kiara Kudron was also selected First Team All-WCC in 2017 and finished 10th all-time at Gonzaga with 651 career rehounds with 651 career rebounds.

Prior to Gonzaga, Fortier acted as associate head coach of Eastern Washington's men's basketball program, and he helped direct the Eagles' defense, which, in 2013-

14, finished in the top three in the Big Sky in three different categories, including blocked shots (1st; 4.3), field goal percentage defense (2nd; 44.6) and three-point field goal percentage defense (3rd; 34.5). The Eagles also had the top three seasons in school history in lowest turnovers per game, averaging 12.0 in 2013-14, 13.4 in 2012-13 and a school-best 11.8 in 2011-12.

He also coached three Big Sky All-Conference players while at Eastern Washington, including the 2011-12 Newcomer of the Year.

Prior to his time at EWU, Fortier spent four seasons as an assistant men's basketball coach at Whitworth University. During his four years with Whitworth, the Pirates won 98 of 116 games for a winning rate of 84.5 percent. He helped develop 10 all-conference performers, three conference Player of the Year winners and one National Player of the Year. All four seasons the Pirates advanced to the NCAA Tournament and won the Northwest Conference Tournament title.
