SETTING THE TABLE

- Miik Yarbrough is one of four student-athletes in the country to rank inside of his conference's top five in points, rebounds, and assists. (page 4)
- The Redbirds are 79-20 at home during head coach Dan Muller's tenure at Illinois state. (page 5)
- Illinois State has six games this season being played on Tuesday, which is the second-highest such total in program history. Only the 1936-37 team's seven games on Tuesday is higher. (page 4)
- ISU head coach Dan Muller is in fourth in the school's record books in career wins, just ahead of Kevin Stallings. Stallings was Muller's coach during both his playing career, and was the head coach while he was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. (page 5)
- ISU's 127-82 record over the last six-plus years is the best record in the state of Illinois during that span. (page 7)
- Miik Yarbrough has been named to the Lou Henson Award watch list, the award given to the top mid-major player in the country. (page 5)
- Just six of 31 total scheduled games feature teams that are currently below .500 on the season, with five of those standing just one game under .500 this year. (page 6)
- Dan Muller's 127 victories are the ninth most among active head coaches who are currently coaching at their alma maters. (page 6)
- Illinois State is one of three schools in the country to have two assistant coaches who had won National Titles as student-athletes, joining Duke and Washington. (page 4)
- Illinois State's opponents average a possession length of 18.2 this season, which ranks as the 313th-longest in the country. The shortest possession length by an opponent stands at 13.3 seconds. In six of the seven seasons under Dan Muller, the Redbirds rank at least 300 or more in the category. (page 5)
- Miik Yarbrough's season averages of 16.9 points, 8.3 rebounds, and 4.3 assists have him as one of 10 student-athletes since 1992-93 to average those numbers. (page 5)
- Each of the last five seasons, Illinois State has out-performed its preseason MVC preseason predictions, including last season when the team was picked to finish fourth and ended third. (page 6)
- This season Illinois State is playing in eight games in the month of November, tied for the most games in November in program history. As such, ISU's five December games are tied for the fewest in the month since the 1942-43 season in which the Redbirds played four games in the calendar month. (page 5)

SCOUTING THE COUGARS

BYU comes into the mid-week meeting having dropped its last game, 76-62 at home against Houston.

In the game, TJ Haws scored a game-high 25 points, making 9-of-19 shots from the field and half of his 12 three-point attempts. Yeoli Childs added 16 points and a game-high nine rebounds. Two players, Dalton Nixon and Zac Seijaas each dished out four assists.

For the year, Childs averages a double-double with 20 points and 12 rebounds per game, and is second on the team with 22 assists. Haws averages 15.7 points, and makes 41 percent of his tries from long range (16-of-39). Jashire Hardnett also averages in double-figures, putting up 11.4 points per contest.

Behind Childs' rebounding average, the Cougars out-rebound their opponents by 3.7 per game. Haws has dished out 36 assists, and BYU has a 123-to-62 assist-to-turnover ratio over the seven games of the season.

PAIR OF NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Illinois State is one of three schools in the country (along with Duke and Washington) to have multiple coaches on its staff to have won national titles as student-athletes. Both Brian Reese (North Carolina, 1993) and Chris Duhon (Duke, 2001) played in their respective seasons' National Championship games.

GOING UP ON A TUESDAY

This season Illinois State has six games that are played on Tuesdays, the second-most Tuesday games in a season in program history. The record for Tuesday games in a season came during the 1936-37 season, where the team played in seven Tuesday games. Below are the top-five most Tuesday games in a season in school history

COACHING UP THE RECORD BOOKS

Illinois State head coach Dan Muller has a 127-82 record in his seventh season with the program. That win total is the fourth-highest career win total in program history. With his 124th win he moved into sole possession of fourth place in the school coaching record book, ahead of Kevin Stallings, his former head coach from his time as a student-athlete and the head coach of Vanderbilt while he was an assistant coach with the Commodore basketball program.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Illinois State senior Miliik Yarbrough has been named as one of 50 student-athletes announced to the mid-season Lou Henson Award watch list, announced on Nov. 12. The award is presented annually to the nation's top mid-major player in Division I College Basketball. The 2019 Lou Henson Award will be presented at the College Insider awards event in April at the site of the men's Division I National Championship in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

SHORT DECEMBER

In conjunction with the long November, December is unusually short. In fact, ISU's five games in the final month of the calendar year are tied for the fewest such games since the 1942-43 season where Illinois State had four games in the month. Seven other times between 1942-43 and 2018-19 the Redbirds played in five games during the month.

ALL-TIME SERIES WITH BYU

The meeting in Normal is the second game of a home-and-home between the two programs, as BYU secured an 80-68 win in Provo last season.

ELITE COMPANY

Illinois State's Miliik Yarbrough stands as one of 10 student-athletes in the NCAA since 1992-93 to average at least 16.9 points, 8.3 rebounds, and 4.3 assists per game. Four of those on the list, Yarbrough, Matt Rafferty (Furman), Tres Tinkle (Oregon State), and Ethan Happ (Wisconsin) are all averaging that stat line during the current season.

NOVEMBER RAINING GAMES

In a mix of the basketball season starting earlier than any time in NCAA history, and a Thanksgiving tournament, the 2018-19 season sees the Redbirds play eight games in the month of November. It is tied for the most November games in a season in program history, with the 2015-16 season which also saw ISU play eight games in the 11th month of the calendar year. That season the Redbirds went 3-5 in the month.

FIRST YEAR HEAD COACHES

Through four games in the 2018-19 season, Illinois State will have faced off against three coaches that are in their first season at their current schools, with two of those coming in the opening season of their head coaching career. Florida Gulf Coast debuted Michael Fly as head coach to open the season. The second game of the season saw ISU face off against 33-year veteran Rick Byrd and Belmont, as the next two games saw Chicago State's Lance Irvin, in his first season as head coach - and Tom Crean, who is in his first season at Georgia.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

In each of the last five seasons, the Illinois State men's basketball team has surpassed its preseason coaches poll prediction, including last season in which the Redbirds were predicted to finish fourth, and finished in a tie for third place overall. Below are the most recent 24 years of prediction, and actual finish, in the Missouri Valley Conference, with the 17 times the Redbirds exceeded the preseason poll in gray.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Illinois State senior Milik Yarbrough was no stranger to the Illinois State basketball program when he laced up his shoes for ISU at the beginning of last season. His father, Del Yarbrough, played for the Redbirds from 1976-80, and ranks 27th in career points (1,191), and 10th in career rebounds (750) in program history.

FINAL FOUR SCHEDULING

Since Dan Muller has taken of the reigns of the program, he has made a concerted effort in putting together a difficult non-conference schedule. As part of the scheduling this season is Loyola Chicago, who advanced to the NCAA Final Four last season. Starting during the 2012-13 season, Illinois State has had seven games against teams that played in the Final Four the year before: Louisville (2012 Final Four), Wichita State (twice, 2013 Final Four), Kentucky (2015 Final Four), South Carolina (2017 Final Four), and Loyola Chicago (twice, 2018 Final Four).

BEST IN THE STATE

Over the last seven-plus seasons, there has been one NCAA Division I school in the state of Illinois to have a winning record six times - Illinois State. During current head coach Dan Muller's tenure, the Redbirds have experienced a level of success that is unrivaled among the other 13 Division I schools within the state. ISU is 127-82 over the last six-plus seasons, and the next best program's record - Loyola - is 119-90. (as of games on Nov. 22)

NOT TURNING IT OVER

Over the last two games of Illinois State's Cayman Islands Classic games, the Redbirds committed single-digit turnovers. The back-to-back single-digit total ties the longest-such streak during Dan Muller's tenure. The last time Illinois State had three consecutive single-digit turnover games was during the 2012 MVC Tournament. Below are the five two-game single-digit turnover stretches under Muller.

ILLINOIS STATE HEAD COACH DAN MULLER

Dan Muller, the 2017 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, has proven his ability to win an MVC championship. After his sixth year as Illinois State's head coach, Muller has led the Redbirds to a share of the MVC regular-season title (2017), which was the program's first since he helped ISU win the Valley championship as a player in 1998, and has led the program to three MVC Tournament Championship Game appearances.

Muller was named the 19th men's basketball coach in school history May 8, 2012, and since then, he has led Illinois State to a better MVC record and higher conference finish each year. In 2016-17, Muller guided the Redbirds to program bests in MVC wins (17-1, en route to the Valley title), regular-season victories (25) and overall triumphs (28).

Through his first six seasons, Muller amassed a 122-80 record and coached the Redbirds to four victories over Top-25 programs, three postseason appearances (2017 National Invitation Tournament, 2015 NIT and 2014 College Basketball Invitational), four postseason wins, and victories against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and the American Athletic Conference. Muller is the first coach in Illinois State basketball history to beat four Top-25 teams in his first four seasons, and his four Top-25 victories are also tied for the most ever recorded by a Redbird head coach.

Muller has guided ISU student-athletes to 13 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections (three first team, seven second team and three honorable mention), six MVC All-Defensive accolades, five MVC All-Newcomer honors and one MVC All-Freshman accolade. Additionally, three Redbirds have garnered All-MVC Scholar-Athlete recognition under Muller's tutelage.

Last season (2017-18) the Redbirds battled injuries all season, and had just one player appear in every game. The team's 18-15 record was deceiving; however, as it included wins over the SEC's South Carolina and Ole Miss, and the American Athletic Conference's Tulsa (twice). Muller helped coach junior guard/forward to MVC Newcomer of the Year honors and a spot on the All-Conference First Team, as the team battled its way to the championship game of the MVC Tournament.

The 2016-17 Illinois State men's basketball program teamed up to win a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship while setting program records in total victories (28), regular-season wins (25) and MVC triumphs (17). After finishing second at the State Farm MVC Tournament, ISU earned a No. 1 seed in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The Redbirds won their NIT first-round matchup before bowing out in the second round.

As a fourth-year coach (2015-16), Muller and the Redbirds faced one of the toughest non-conference schedules in program history, ranked No. 7 in the nation at the end of the regular season, according to the Collegiate Basketball News Report. The Redbirds finished the 2015-16 campaign with an 18-14 overall record and tied for second place with a 12-6 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference, signifying ISU's highest league finish and most conference wins since 2007-08. Illinois State's upset victory over No. 21 Wichita State (Feb. 6) on Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena marked Muller's fourth Top-25 win in as many seasons.

Illinois State's individual accolades in 2015-16 included: DeVaughn Akoon-Purcell: All-MVC Second Team; Paris Lee: MVC Honorable Mention Team, All-Defensive Team; MiKyle McIntosh: MVC Honorable Mention Team,

Most-Improved Team (team captain); Nick Banyard: All-Bench Team; Justin McCloud: MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team.

In his third season with the Redbirds (2014-15), Muller guided ISU to a 22-13 overall record, marking ISU's most victories since 2009-10. Illinois State tied for third place in the Missouri Valley Conference with an 11-7 mark. As the MVC Tournament's fourth seed, the Redbirds upset No. 8 Wichita State in the semifinals, marking a Redbird win over ISU's highest ranked opponent since 1978. Illinois State also became just the second MVC team to beat Wichita State in more than two years.

After falling to No. 11 Northern Iowa in the tournament championship game, the Redbirds earned an at-large bid to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) for the 13th time in program history. Fourth-seeded ISU advanced to the NIT second round by beating fifth-seeded Green Bay at home (March 18).

Along with Illinois State's team success, ISU earned seven individual MVC honors under Muller's guidance: Akoon-Purcell: Newcomer of the Year, All-Newcomer Team; Daishon Knight: All-MVC Second Team; Reggie Lynch: All-MVC Second Team, All-Defensive Team; Lee: All-Defensive Team; Bobby Hunter: All-Bench Team. Knight and Lynch were additionally named to the MVC All-Tournament Team. The Redbirds also excelled in the classroom, establishing a team grade-point average record in the fall of 2014 with a 2.99 GPA, breaking the previous mark by 0.13 points.

During his second season as Illinois State's head coach (2013-14), Muller was charged with leading the most inexperienced team in NCAA Division I basketball. With just two-and-a-half years of returning experience, Muller guided ISU to another 18-win season, including marquee victories over a Top-25 program (vs. No. 25 Dayton, Dec. 7), a Big Ten team (at Northwestern, Nov. 17), a BIG EAST opponent (vs. DePaul, Dec. 22) and an SEC foe (vs. Texas A&M, March 24). ISU had never before earned wins against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST and the SEC in the same season.

The Redbirds also tied for fourth place in the final Missouri Valley Conference standings, with a 9-9 record. Illinois State played particularly well on Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena, where the Redbirds went 14-3 with a dominant 8-1 record against Valley foes. ISU advanced to the postseason by earning a spot in the 16-team College Basketball Invitational (CBI) field. Muller led the Redbirds to two victories in the CBI which tied for the most-ever postseason wins by an ISU team.

Under Muller's guidance, newcomers Knight and Lynch both earned All-MVC accolades, as Knight was named to the All-MVC Honorable Mention Team and the All-Newcomer Team, while Lynch was placed on the All-Newcomer Team and the All-Freshman Team. Nick Zeisloft was also named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team in 2013-14.

In his first year at Illinois State (2012-13), Muller led the Redbirds to an 18-win season, with at least one victory against eight of the Missouri Valley Conference's nine opponents. Muller also guided ISU to the Valley Tournament semifinals.

During the regular season, Illinois State earned a marquee win at No. 16 Creighton, 75-72, in front of a sell-out crowd of 18,494 at CentryLink Center Omaha. The Bluejays went on to win the Valley regular-season and tournament titles. The victory was ISU's first over a nationally ranked team on the road since topping No. 17 Tulsa in 1985.

Under Muller's tutelage, ISU was awarded two All-Missouri Valley Conference selections for the first time since 2010, as senior forward Jackie Carmichael received All-MVC First Team recognition, and senior guard Tyler Brown garnered All-MVC Second Team accolades. Additionally, Carmichael earned All-MVC Tournament and All-Defensive Team honors, and he was named to the 2013 Lou Henson (mid-major) All-America Team. Muller also helped sophomore guard Johnny Hill land a spot on the MVC Most-Improved Team.

For Muller's first-year efforts, he was named one of 10 national finalists for the 2013 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

Before becoming Illinois State's leader, Muller spent 12 years as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. Under former Illinois State head coach Kevin Stallings, Muller was regarded as one of the top assistant coaches in the country. As Vanderbilt's recruiting coordinator, Muller spearheaded the program's recruiting efforts beginning in 2006, which were the highest-rated recruiting classes in the history of the program.

Since 2006, the Vanderbilt men's basketball program signed six four-star recruits and Rivals 150 Prospects, in addition to five-star recruit John Jenkins in 2009, the nation's leading high school scorer and a PARADE and Reebok All-American.

During Muller's tenure, Vanderbilt had 18 players named to the All-Southeastern Conference First and Second teams and a player named to the All-SEC Defensive Team three consecutive years (2010, 2011 and 2012).

Since Muller joined the Vanderbilt staff in 2000, the staff and team accomplished seven 20-win seasons. Starting in 2003, Vanderbilt was recognized nationally as a Top-25 team in the Associated Press Poll for a total of 51 weeks. In 2007-08, Vanderbilt was ranked in the AP Top-25 for the most consecutive weeks in school history.

Muller's efforts, both on and off the court, helped propel the Commodores to the 2012 SEC Tournament Championship, the Commodores' first league tournament title since 1951. In addition, Vanderbilt appeared in six NCAA Tournaments, including five in the last six seasons, and posted two Sweet 16 appearances during Muller's tenure.

Along with his recruiting, scouting and on-court responsibilities, Muller directed the student-athletes' academic progress. During that time, Vanderbilt collected a 100 percent senior graduation rate and one of the highest APR's in NCAA Division I college basketball.

As a player, Muller guided Illinois State to two regular-season and Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championships and four postseason appearances, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons (1997 and 1998).

Muller ranks 11th in career scoring with 1,445 points, while leading the Redbirds to a 91-37 overall record, and he still owns the school record with 128-consecutive starts (every game of his career). Muller was also a two-time MVC Defensive Player of the Year and was named the MVP of the Valley Tournament as a senior. In 2009, he was inducted into the Illinois State Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame.

Off the court, Muller was just as successful. He was a two-time GTE Academic All-American and a recipient of the NCAA's Post-Graduate Scholarship. He also was named a Bone Scholar, the highest academic honor at ISU, and he is the only men's basketball student-athlete to earn the award.

After playing for the Redbirds, the Lafayette, Indiana, native spent two years playing professionally, including a stint with the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies.

Muller is a 1998 graduate of Illinois State and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in organizational leadership. He later earned his master's in business administration from Florida in 2003. He is married to Melissa Muller and has one stepson, Sib.

NOTES

- Named to the Preseason All-MVC Second Team leading into the 2018-19 season.
- Named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week on November 20.
- Earned the team's Most Improved Award by playing in 35 games and averaging 5.8 points, 2.0 assists, and 1.5 rebounds per contest as a sophomore.
- Fort Lauderdale is the county seat of Broward County, and is a principle city of the Miami metropolitan area.
- Among the other notable people that hail from Fort Lauderdale include Helio Castroneves, Anthony Rizzo, Scottie Pippen, Mitch Richmond, Isaac Bruce, Michael Irvin, Brian Piccolo, Marilyn Manson, and David Cassidy.
- The Sagemont School is a private school in Weston, Florida, which was started in 1996. Among the other notable Sagemont School alumni include actor Carlos Pena Jr., and former professional basketball player Fab Melo.
- His father (Tracey Evans) played college basketball at Hawaii Pacific University, where he was a two-time NAIA Honorable Mention All-America selection, and the College Sports Magazine 1994-95 Player of the Year. His 517 assists and 195 steals are still second-most in program history, while his 284 assists and 113 steals over a single season, and his eight steals in a game remain program records.
