February 4, 2020

MALIBU, California — The #8 Pepperdine men's volleyball team begins defense of its 2019 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation title with a pair of road matches at #13 Stanford and #2 BYU.

MATCH #6 — Thursday (February 6) at Maples Pavilion in Palo Alto, California: #8 Pepperdine (3-2, 0-0) at #13 Stanford (4-4, 0-1) at 7 p.m.

MATCH #7 — Saturday (February 8) at Smith Fieldhouse in Provo, Utah: #13 Pepperdine at #2 BYU (10-0, 0-0, hosts UCLA on Thursday) at 5 p.m. MT / 4 p.m. PT.

WATCH/ONLINE — Stanford will stream Thursday's match through the Pac-12, while BYUtv will air Saturday's match. Links to broadcasts and/or live stats can be found at PepperdineWaves.com.

OPPONENTS — Pepperdine is 57-27 all-time against Stanford and has won five in a row and eight of the last 10. The Waves have won five straight matches at Stanford ... Pepperdine is 36-32 all-time against BYU. Pepperdine won two of the three meetings last year. The Waves' last victory in Provo came in 2016.

LAST WEEK — The Waves were off last week, but in their last match on January 25, they suffered a four-set loss to defending national champion Long Beach State on a night that the Beach raised the championship banner. Ben Weinberg had 14 kills and Diego Perez had 11 digs. The Waves were outthit .318 to .262.

NEW LOOK — After graduating the bulk of last year's lineup, the Waves have a much different look in 2020. 73.8% of the kills so far have been recorded by players not in last year's lineup, and 51.9% of have been made by players in their first year on the court for Pepperdine (including redshirts and transfers).

50 SEASONS — This is the 50th season for Pepperdine men's volleyball — which began in 1971 — and the program's rich history will be celebrated throughout this spring's schedule. All Pepperdine men's volleyball alums will be welcomed back for the March 15 match vs. Harvard. The Waves will also celebrate each decade at various matches, beginning with the 1970s on February 12 vs. Concordia. The others are February 26 vs. UCSB (1980s), March 11 vs. Jamestown (1990s), March 21 vs. NJIT (2000s) and April 11 vs. Stanford (2010s).

NEXT — After more than a month without a match in Firestone Fieldhouse, the Waves finally get to play in front of the home crowd next week against #14 Concordia (Wednesday, February 12) and USC (Friday, February 14).

* — Pepperdine vacated all wins (66) and one loss from the 2008 through 2011 seasons, as well as one MPSF Tournament championship (2008) and one NCAA Tournament appearance (2008), as a result of NCAA sanctions against the University. Records marked with an asterisk do not reflect this.

2020 HONORS — Diego Perez was named MPSF Defensive Player of the Week on January 20 after averaging a team-best 2.18 digs/set in the Waves' three-match East Coast trip.

ROSTER NUMBERS — Pepperdine returns three starters from a year ago. Setter Rob Mullahey earned AVCA All-American honorable mention status, and Noah Dyer and Spencer Wickens were co-starters in a two-libero setup.

The Waves graduated five starters: two outside hitters, two middle blockers and the opposite, three of whom earned All-American acclaim. The Waves' seven returning letterwinners account for 3% of last year's kill total.

Pepperdine's roster consists of two seniors, three juniors, six sophomores, four redshirt freshmen and six true freshmen.

MULLAHEY — Senior setter Rob Mullahey is eighth all-time in assists (2,154) at Pepperdine. Next on the list is John Mayer (2,885). The 2019 AVCA All-American honorable mention selection has led the MPSF in assists each of the last two seasons. He's been named to the 2020 Lloy Ball Award watch list (for the nation's top setter) by Off the Block.

AVCA POLL — Pepperdine opened the 2020 season at #9 in the AVCA rankings. The Waves have been as high as #8, where they stand this week. Last season, they stayed between #6 (where they started) and #3 (where they finished) the entire year.

MPSF — The Waves were picked fourth in the MPSF preseason coaches poll. The order went as follows: BYU, UCLA, Stanford, Pepperdine, USC and Grand Canyon (tied), and Concordia.

2019 SEASON — The Waves enjoyed their best season in a decade and advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time since 2008, where they reached the semifinals. Pepperdine won both the MPSF regular-season title (its first since 2014, and its first outright since 2007) and the MPSF Tournament title (its first since 2008). Four Waves were named All-Americans, including David Wiczorek, who made the first team and repeated as MPSF Player of the Year. Pepperdine finished 23-7 overall, 9-3 in the MPSF, and with a final ranking of #3 by the AVCA.

PEPPERDINE VOLLEYBALL — Pepperdine has won five NCAA men's volleyball championships, second only to UCLA. Coaching legend Marv Dunphy stepped down after the 2017 season. He won four of the NCAA titles, plus 612* matches over his 34 years with the Waves. Pepperdine has won 16* regular-season or tournament conference titles. The Waves have finished in the top six in the final AVCA poll in 18 of the last 23 seasons, and in the top 10 in 22 of the last 23 years. A Pepperdine alum has competed at the Olympics every time since 1984 (Sean Rooney was the most recent to medal, winning gold in 2008).

ABOUT PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY — Pepperdine boasts a one-of-a-kind athletic department with unprecedented success for a school of its size. The Waves have won NCAA Division I championships in five different men's sports — one of just 18 schools to have accomplished this feat — and nine overall. Of this elite group, Pepperdine has the smallest undergraduate enrollment, is the only school without football and is the only university that has not been affiliated with a "major" conference. The Waves have won a total of 25 team or individual national championships in their history. Pepperdine has also earned the Division I-AAA All-Sports Trophy, an award based on postseason success that's given to the top non-football school, three times (most recently in 2011-12). Located in scenic Malibu, California, the university overlooks the Pacific Ocean and its campus and athletic facilities are regularly voted among the nation's most beautiful. Pepperdine, which is affiliated with the Church of Christ, ranks #50 overall on U.S. News and World Report's list of America's best colleges.

COMPETING WITH PURPOSE — The Pepperdine University Department of Athletics is committed to Christian values, to the academic well-being of all our student-athletes and to competing for championships. The Competing With Purpose campaign highlights the commitment to our core values. Learn more about our exceptional student-athletes on the Competing With Purpose blog at www.PepperdineWaves.com/purpose.
