ON DECK FOR UTAH VALLEY

The Wolverines will next head on to Reno, Nevada, this weekend to close regular-season play in a three-game non-conference series at Nevada. The two teams will play a doubleheader on Saturday, May 5 beginning at 1 p.m. MT/noon PT and a single game on Sunday, May 6 at 1 p.m. MT/noon PT. Following the series, UVU will head to Las Cruces, New Mexico, for the 2018 WAC Tournament next week. The Wolverines will enter the tournament as the No. 2 seed and will face either No. 3 Seattle U or No. 6 UMKC on Thursday, May 10 at 1 p.m. MT in their opening game.

UTAH VALLEY POSTS SECOND-PLACE FINISH IN WAC PLAY

UVU posted its highest Western Athletic Conference regular season finish this season by placing second in conference play with a 10-4 league record. The Wolverines won eight of their last nine WAC games on the season, which included road sweeps at both UMKC and CSU Bakersfield to post the second place finish and earn the No. 2 seed and a first-round bye for the upcoming WAC Tournament. UVU also won its first series in program history over the regular-season champion New Mexico State Aggies by taking two-of-three from NM State at home on April 20-21. Utah Valley also split two games against Grand Canyon and took one-of-three from Seattle U.

UVU'S ANDERSEN BECOMES ALL-TIME LEADER IN HBP

After getting hit by a pitch in Saturday's WAC regular-season finale at CSU Bakersfield, senior shortstop Kirsten Andersen became UVU's all-time leader in being hit by the pitch. Andersen has now been plunked a total of 17 times in a Wolverine uniform to pass current teammate Taleigh Williams and former UVU great Breezy Roth, who are both tied for second in the UVU record books with 16.

SKYLAR COOK IS A PERFECT 22-FOR-22 IN STOLEN BASES

With two more steals last week, Utah Valley junior outfielder Skylar Cook is now a perfect 22-for-22 in stolen bases on the year. The 22 stolen bases are second best in the WAC and also ranks her second in the UVU single-season record books behind Morgan Summers Smith's record of 24 (24-for-25) in 2016. Cook's 22 stolen bases are also the most stolen bases that a Wolverine has ever achieved without being caught.

ANGULO HELD 11-GAME HITTING & 17-GAME REACHED STREAKS

After having her hitting streak snapped at 11 games three week's ago, freshman utility Peyton Angulo had a 17-game reached base safely streak come to a close on March 20. During the streak, Angulo -- who leads the team with a .384 batting average on the season -- hit .444 with seven doubles, three home runs, nine walks, 13 RBIs and 11 runs scored. She also held a .517 on-base percentage and an .800 slugging clip during the streak. Sophomore catcher Basia Query too has posted an 11-game hitting streak on the season, but had hers come to a close this past week against GCU.

UTAH VALLEY BREAKS SINGLE-INNING RUN RECORD

UVU's offense exploded in a 14-1 victory over in-state foe Southern Utah on Feb. 25 in St. George, Utah. The Wolverines tallied an impressive 14 hits on their way to scoring 14 runs against the T-Birds. UVU started the contest with a bang by scoring 13 first-inning runs, which included sending 18 batters to the plate that frame. The output was not only the most total runs that UVU has scored since March 14, 2017 when it defeated Maine, 14-3, at Wolverine Field, but the 13 first-inning runs was also a single-inning school record for the Wolverines. The 18 batters in the inning was also single-inning school record. In the record-breaking inning, the Wolverines recorded 11 total hits, four extra-base hits, and a grand from senior Taleigh Williams.

FRAILEY SPENDLOVE & MORRIS TABBED PRESEASON ALL-WAC

The 2017 WAC Pitcher of the Year and the 2017 WAC Freshman of the Year are both back this year for UVU this season in senior pitcher Lauren Frailey Spendlove and sophomore outfielder/utility Caragh Morris. Frailey Spendlove went 13-9 with a 3.59 ERA in the circle a year ago for UVU, while Morris posted the second-best batting average on the team by hitting .357 with eight doubles, three homers and 28 RBIs. Both Frailey Spendlove and Morris were named preseason all-WAC a week ago and Frailey Spendlove was a first team all-WAC performer in 2017, while Morris earned second team honors.

WOLVERINES SELECTED TO FINISH FOURTH

A year removed from tying for third with a program best 7-8 WAC record, the Wolverines were tabbed to finish fourth in the conference's preseason poll with 14 points. Grand Canyon, who tied for first with New Mexico State in 2017, was picked to win the league this season with 24 total points and four first-place votes, while NM State was picked second with 22 points and two first-place votes. Seattle U just edged out the Wolverines for third place with 16 points, while UMKC was tabbed fifth with eight points and CSU Bakersfield rounded out the poll for sixth place with six points.

UVU RETURNS SEVEN STARTERS, 13 LETTERWINNERS

Second-year head coach TJ Hubbard will welcome back seven starters and a total of 13 letterwinners to this year's squad. Senior pitcher Lauren Frailey Spendlove and sophomore outfielder/utility Caragh Morris lead the way as they were both named preseason all-WAC, while UVU also returns five more returning starters in infielders Kirsten Andersen, Lyndsay Steverson and Taleigh Williams, outfielder Eryn Sustayta and catcher Basia Query.

WAC SOFTBALL

The Western Athletic Conference has a six-team softball league with all six of its softball members coming from all-sport institutions (CSU Bakersfield, Grand Canyon, UMKC, New Mexico State, Seattle U and Utah Valley). All six teams will advance to the 2018 WAC Tournament (May 9-12) at the NM State Softball Complex in Las Cruces, N.M., where the winner will receive the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

ABOUT UVU ATHLETICS' NCAA HISTORY

Until 2003, Utah Valley University competed as a NJCAA athletic program. The 2003-04 season was the school's first competing at an NCAA Division I level. In the summer of 2009, UVU's provisional status was lifted and the program became a full member of NCAA Division I on July 8, 2009. Until then, UVU teams and individuals were not eligible to compete in NCAA championship events.

TJ HUBBARD

Head Coach | 2nd Season | Oklahoma Wesleyan '02

Utah Valley University Director of Athletics Vince Otoupal has announced the hiring of TJ Hubbard as the new head coach of Wolverine softball. Hubbard becomes the fifth head coach in UVU's NCAA Division I history.

"We are thrilled to have TJ Hubbard as our new head softball coach here at Utah Valley University. He comes highly recommended with outstanding credentials and is a great fit for us," Otoupal said. "TJ won the job not only through his conversations with the team and UVU administration, but also with his goals for this and his past proven successes. He truly has a passion for the game, and we are excited to see what TJ and Wolverine Softball can do."

Hubbard comes to Utah Valley with an impressive resume, as he's held stops at Kansas, Louisiana and North Texas. Following a six-year head coaching gig at North Texas (2008-13), he then spent two years as an associate head coach for the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns (2014-15) before spending the 2016 season as an assistant for the Big 12 Jayhawks.

"I want to thank Vince Otoupal and Megan Kennedy for this wonderful opportunity. I am very excited to be in a position to lead this program in a new direction," Hubbard said. "We have a great group of young student-athletes eager to compete at a high level and who are willing to accept the challenges that lie ahead."

Hubbard most recently served as KU's hitting coach where helped lead the Jayhawks to a 31-20 overall record and a fourth-place finish in the Big 12 Conference standings with an 8-9 league clip. Prior to his stop in Lawrence, the new Wolverine head man helped guide the Ragin' Cajuns to a pair of deep runs in the NCAA Tournament in both 2014 and 2015.

In 2015, Hubbard aided in Louisiana returning to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament. On the year, Louisiana hit .346, which was among the top 10 batting averages in the nation, while recording 116 home runs, 68 doubles and 398 RBIs. Hubbard assisted with the Ragin' Cajuns offense that led the country in home runs per game (2.15) and finished the season second in scoring (8.15 runs per game) and slugging percentage (.652).

In his first season with the Ragin' Cajuns, he helped the squad advance to their sixth Women's College World Series with a 49-10-1 mark, sweeping the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles. In the NCAA Tournament, No. 6 Louisiana took down Texas Southern and Texas in the Lafayette Regional before defeating national power Arizona in the Lafayette Super Regional for its first trip to Oklahoma City since 2008.

At North Texas, Hubbard led a Mean Green program that became one of the top teams in the Sun Belt Conference before their departure following the 2013 season. He finished his career at North Texas with a 161-161-1 record, setting program records in both wins and winning percentage.

In his initial campaign leading North Texas (2008), Hubbard set a school-record 27 wins and helped his team to its best finish at the Sun Belt Conference Tournament in program history. He would later break that record twice, winning 29 games in both 2010 and 2013.

Under his tutelage, 19 North Texas players were named All-Sun Belt, including a school-record three players in his final season. He coached 10 All-Sun Belt selections and one All-Central Region First Team selection (Mariza Martinez) in his six years at the head of the program.

Hubbard was named the head coach at North Texas in 2008, after serving the previous four years as an assistant coach for the Mean Green. Prior to his time at North Texas, he was an assistant coach at Seminole State College in Seminole, Oklahoma. As an assistant, he helped lead Seminole State to a 64-16 record in 2004, a NJCAA Region II championship and a third-place finish in the NJCAA National Championships.

A 2002 graduate of Oklahoma Wesleyan University in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Hubbard received a bachelor's degree in exercise science and sports management. At OWU, he was a three-year letterwinner for the baseball team as a second baseman.
