SAINT MARY'S SNIPPETS

Last-Second Shot Eeks San Diego Past Gaels

BYUtv

Sydney Raggio hit a game-tying 3-pointer from the right wing with six seconds left on the clock Saturday, but San Diego's Cori Woodward dribbled the ball coast to coast and sank an 18-foot jumper as time expired, beating the buzzer and sending the Toreros to a 73-71 win at Jenny Craig Pavilion. It was the second buzzer-beater to down the Gaels this year after UC Davis did it on Dec. 11.

Thursday's 74-59 win over LMU was Saint Mary's sixth straight WCC opening win. Coincidentally, it was a streak that started exactly five years ago with a win at LMU on Dec. 29, 2011.

Searching For A Leader? Find One In Raggio

When Sydney Raggio leads the Gaels statistically this season, they do well. SMC is 5-0 when the sophomore leads in rebounds, 2-0 when she's the leading scorer and 1-0 with her as assists leader.

Saint Mary's has improved its ball handling o the last three games. The Gaels have gone th straight games with fewer turnovers than their ponent after only having two such games in th previous 10. Oddly, SMC is only 1-4 this sea when holding onto the ball better than its oppone

Missing McDonald

SCOUTING REPORT

The Cougars (7-6, 1-1 WCC) were just one first-place vote and one total point behind Gonzaga for the top spot in this season's WCC preseason poll. But that didn't matter Thursday when the Cougars fell 64-63 at Santa Clara. BYU recovered Saturday and beat LMU at home. The Cougars have lost three of their last five but have won two of their last three at home – the lone loss coming versus then-No. 9 Washington.

The Cougars have used the same starting lineup all year. Cassie Broadhead leads the team with 17.1 points per game. Kalani Purcell is just shy of averaging a double-double with 12.1 points and 9.2 rebounds per contest. BYU has been outrebounded this season 39.1 to 35.8. The Cougars' 62.8 points allowed and 37.7 percent opponents FG percentage are second-best in the WCC.

Never Bored On The Boards

Saint Mary's has been as active as can be when it comes to rebounding this season. SMC has outrebounded (or tied) its opponent in 12 of 13 games. The Gaels are 16th in the NCAA in rebounding margin (+10.4) and among the top-105 in both total rebounds (548) and rebounds per game (42.2).

Doing Well With The Strengths...

Saint Mary's has consistently been among the WCC's best this year in a number of categories. The Gaels are the best rebounding team in the conference (42.2 rpg, +15.8 rebounding margin) and the best shooting team (45.6 percent). They also share the ball well at 15.8 assists per game (3rd in WCC).

Need To Work On The Weaknesses...

The Gaels' struggles this year have also been consistent. Saint Mary's ranks at the bottom of the WCC in turnovers per game (18.9) and turnover margin (-4.38). Its 0.84 assists-to-turnovers ratio is seventh in the WCC. The Gaels also rank third-tolast (8th) in free-throw percentage at 67.9 percent.

Mauldin Not Undone In The Clutch

Shannon Mauldin was not fazed by the pressure at the free-throw line Saturday at San Diego. The fifth-year senior put down four straight free throws in the final 46 seconds to keep Saint Mary's close. She also made one from the charity stripe at the 3:47 mark. For the season, Mauldin is 6 for 7 shooting free throws with less than 5 minutes to play, including a perfect 4 for 4 with less than two minutes on the clock.

Paul Thomas Earns 200th SMC Win

With a 75-65 victory over Northern Colorado on Dec. 16, head coach Paul Thomas earned his 200th win at the helm of the Saint Mary's women's basketball program. Thomas began his tenure with the Gaels in the 2006-07 season. Now in his 11th year with Saint Mary's, Thomas' teams have made seven straight postseason appearances, posted six 20-win seasons, and boasted 14 all-WCC awards.

Since 2014-15. SMC has had its most success against California opponents. The Gaels are 35-12 versus schools from the Golden State, including 18-6 on the road.

McKay Goes For Double Double-Doubles

Megan McKay logged back-to-back double-doubles during the Thanksgiving weekend's Hilton Concord Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. She scored a career-high 26 points and tied a career high with 12 rebounds in the opener. The next day she scored 15 and pulled down 10.

Plenty of Experience Returning

On top of returning four of five starters from a year ago, the 2016-17 Saint Mary's roster features five players with a redshirt year under their belt. Redshirt freshman Jasmine Forcadilla, and redshirt seniors Devon Brookshire, Devyn Galland, Shannon Mauldin and Samira McDonald all have extra training time in their careers.

Saint Mary's Chosen Third In Preseason WCC Poll

After finishing second a year ago with its fifth straight 20-win season, Saint Mary's was selected third in the 2016-17 West Coast Conference Preseason Poll with one first-place vote, and Stella Beck was named to the All-WCC Preseason Team.

Saint Mary's earned 66 points in the poll, just nine points behind 2015-16 regular season champion BYU (75 points, four first-place votes). Gonzaga was narrowly chosen as the conference favorite, earning 76 points with five first-place votes.

Following four years playing college basketball with Saint Mary's, now-departed Lauren Nicholson signed with the Brydens Sydney Uni Flames. Nicholson returns to Sydney after a stellar college career at Saint Mary's, where the guard was a two-time All-West Coast Conference first team selection.

Nicholson was part of the Flames squad from 2009-11 before making the move to the United States. After being mentored by current WNBL player and fellow Sutherland junior Kate Gaze for her first two seasons at Saint Mary's, Nicholson emerged as a leader in her own right in her final two years. Averaging 17 points per game in her senior campaign, Nicholson was exceptional at both getting to the line and hitting free throws.
