HOLIDAY CHEER

For both home games this weekend, Utah State Athletics is sponsoring a holiday toy drive. Fans who bring a new, unwrapped toy to donate will receive $1 admission to the game.

SCOUTING THE WOLVERINES

Utah Valley comes to Logan for its only game of the week with a 3-8 record. The Wolverines are on a two-game winning streak, having defeated Southern Utah on the road (70-64) and Denver at home (72-58).

Utah Valley returns two starters and six total letterwinners from last season's squad that went 16-15 overall and 8-6 in Western Athletic Conference play. Junior guard Mariah Seals leads the Wolverine offense, averaging 14.1 points per game. Junior forward Sam Lubcke is tops defensively, averaging 7.0 rebounds per game. As a team, Utah Valley is shooting 39.3 percent (234-of-596) from the field, 33.8 percent (71-of-210) from the 3-point line and 67.0 percent (132-of-197) from the free throw line. The Wolverines are averaging 61.0 points per game, while allowing an average of 71.4 points from its opponents. Cathy Nixon has spent the entirety of her 22-year head coaching career at Utah Valley, where she has compiled an overall record of 349-297.

Utah State leads the all-time series against the Wolverines, 7-3, including a 4-1 advantage in games played in Logan. The Aggies have won the last two meetings against Utah Valley, including a 76-72 victory in Orem last season.

SCOUTING THE COUGARS

Like the Wolverines, BYU plays just the Aggies this week. The Cougars make the trip to Logan with a 5-4 record. BYU's last game was at Utah, where the Cougars fell to the Utes, 77-60. This season, BYU has posted wins over Utah Valley (68-50), St. Joseph's (71-56), Tulsa (71-56), UNLV (63-54) and Weber State (73-64).

BYU returns three starters from last year, when the team went 26-7 overall and 16-2 in West Coast Conference play. The Cougars won the WCC title, advancing to the NCAA Tournament, where they fell to Missouri in the first round. Junior guard Cassie Broadhead leads the Cougars offensively, averaging 15.2 points per game. BYU has three players averaging double-digit scoring games. Senior forward Kalani Purcell is the top rebounder for the Cougars, averaging 8.9 boards per game. Overall, BYU is shooting 41.1 percent (206-of-501) from the floor, 28.3 percent (47-of-166) from the 3-point line and 65.0 percent (115-of-177) from the free throw line. Jeff Judkins is in his 16th season as the head coach at BYU, where he has an overall record of 336-154.

The series against BYU dates back to the 1973-74 season, spanning nearly the entire history of the Aggie women's basketball program. The teams spent time in two of the same conferences, playing each other in the Intermountain Athletic Conference and the High Country Athletic Conference. BYU leads the series, 34-3, having won the last 27 meetings. Utah State won the first two meetings in 1974, and has not defeated the Cougars since Dec. 7, 1978.

THEY COME FROM THE LAND DOWN UNDER

Between the three teams competing this weekend, there are six players from Australia and another three from New Zealand. The Aggies have four Australian players on their roster in Rachel Brewster (Melbourne, Victoria/Rowville Secondary College), Shannon Dufficy (Preston, Victoria/Our Lady of Mercy College), Eliza West (Mount Martha, Victoria/The Peninsula School) and Olivia West (Launceston, Tasmania/Templestowe College). Utah Valley has two Australia natives on its roster in Sariah Wi Neera (Hastings, Victoria/Helensvale State HS) and Sam Lubcke (Murray Bridge, South Australia/Unity College). BYU has the New Zealand ties with Kalani Purcell (Hamilton/John Paul High School), Shalae Salmon (Porirua/Wellington Girls College) and Khaedin Taito (Hastings/Palm Beach Currumbin).

AGGIES AGAINST THE STATE

This week's games are the fourth and fifth of five games the Aggies will play against in-state opponents this season. USU opened the season in a 72-49 home win over Westminster and fell to Southern Utah at home, 70-54. Last week, the Aggies fell to Utah, 65-58, in the only in-state road game of the season. Additionally, the Aggies played an unofficial closed preseason scrimmage against Weber State. All-time, Utah State is 38-96 against in-state opponents. The Aggies lead the all-time series against Utah Valley (7-3), Westminster (3-0) and Southern Utah (5-3), while trailing against BYU (3-34), Dixie State (0-1), Weber State (16-23) and Utah (4-32).

LONG-TIME FOES

Through program history, BYU is one of Utah State's most-faced opponents. The Aggies and Cougars have met on the court 37 times, with BYU holding the series advantage, 34-3. Weber State is Utah State's most-played opponent with 39 past meetings. After BYU, the Aggies' longest-running series include 35 meetings against New Mexico State and 30 against Boise State.

START 'EM YOUNG

With three freshmen and two sophomores in the current starting five, Utah State currently has the youngest starting lineup in the country. USU is one of four NCAA teams that has three freshmen in its starting corps right now, joining Air Force, Maine and UAB. Joining the freshmen, UAB starts one sophomore and a junior, Maine has a sophomore and a senior and Air Force adds two juniors. This is the second season in a row that the Utah State has utilized its youth, starting two freshmen, two sophomores and a senior for the majority of its games in the 2015-16 season.

HOLDING STRONG

The Utah State defense has performed particularly well this season, holding opposing teams to the lowest field goal and 3-point field goal percentages in the Mountain West. On the year, the Aggies have forced teams to shoot 34.2 percent (153-of-448) from the floor, including just 27.6 percent (43-of-156) from behind the arc. Additionally, Utah State is ranked second in the league in both blocks and steals, averaging 6.8 and 10.4 per game, respectively.

TELL ME ABOUT THAT RPI

The first RPI and strength of schedule rankings were released this week, including games played through Dec. 11. As a conference, the Mountain West is ranked ninth on both lists. As a team, Utah State is ranked 189th in RPI and 183rd on the strength of schedule list. The SOS ranking is the fifth-highest of any Mountain West program, while the RPI ranking is sixth among conference opponents.

SULTANS OF SWAT

The Utah State defense continues to have a dominant performance this season. The Aggies lead the Mountain West in blocks, averaging 6.8 per game as a team. Individually, four USU players are ranked in the top-15 among conference players. Sophomore center Deja Mason ranks second, averaging 2.4 per game. Behind her, freshman forward Dee Moore and senior forward Antoina Robinson are tied for seventh, averaging 1.1 per game, while freshman guard Hailey Bassett is 11th with 0.9 blocks per game. In the game against UC Irvine, the Aggies tallied 13 blocks, just one shy of tying the program record for blocks in a single game. Robinson had a career-high four blocks against the Anteaters, while Mason has had two four-block games, doing so against Montana State and at Montana.

PRESEASON EXPECTATIONS

Utah State women's basketball was picked ninth in the Mountain West women's basketball preseason poll as voted on by a panel of the league's 11 head coaches and media representatives. Colorado State, the 2015-16 regular-season and tournament champion, was picked to finish first in the conference with 283 points, including 17 first-place votes. Boise State was tabbed second with 271 total points and 11 first-place votes, while Fresno State, came in third with 225 points. UNLV was selected fourth with 201 points, followed by San José State (197 points) and New Mexico (176 points). San Diego State was slated seventh (126 points), with Wyoming coming in eighth (123 points). The Aggies held the ninth-place spot with 97 points. Nevada (66 points) and Air Force (28 points) rounded out the poll in 10th and 11th, respectively.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Utah State is set to play seven of its 11 non-conference games in the friendly confines of the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum this season. This is the most home games the Aggies have had in the preseason schedule in head coach Jerry Finkbeiner's tenure. It also marks the most home games in non-conference play since the 2011-12 season, when USU also had seven home contests during the preseason. The Aggies opened the season with a five-game homestand, not playing a road game until Thanksgiving weekend at the Montana-hosted Lady Griz Classic.

UP NEXT

Utah State will wrap up the non-conference portion of its season on the road next week. The Aggies play at Arizona (6-1) on Wednesday, Dec. 21. The game is the first of a scheduled home-and-home series, with the Wildcats coming to Logan in the 2017-18 season.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Utah State home women's basketball games will be issued through the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office for working press only. We urge all members of the media to send their credential requests to Megan Allen, Assistant Media Relations Coordinator well in advance to ensure the availability of credentials. If desired, credentials can be left at the Will Call booth at the main entrance of the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

GAME DAY SERVICES

The Utah State University Athletic Media Relations Office provides pregame notes, statistics and scorecards prior to each home game. A complete box score will be available approximately five minutes after the conclusion of each game. Power outlets are located throughout the main working area of press row. Those members of the media with special utility needs should contact the USU Athletic Media Relations Office well in advance in order to complete the arrangements. A courtesy telephone line is available for "official" visiting radio crews on a reciprocal basis. All other stations requesting broadcast space must pay a rights fee to the Utah State University Athletics Department.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Practices are held daily from approximately 3-6 p.m. at the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum. Practice is generally open to the media, but media personnel wishing to attend workouts need to contact Megan Allen at 435-797-5547 or megan.allen@usu.edu, prior to practice.

RADIO INFORMATION

All Utah State women's basketball games can be heard live on 107.7 KLZX in Logan and on the USU website at www.UtahStateAggies. com with Craig Hislop calling the play-by-play.

DIRECTIONS TO LOGAN

Logan, Utah is home to Utah State University and is located approximately 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. From Salt Lake International Airport: Take I-80 East out of the airport to 215 North, which will run into I-15 North. Follow I-15 North to exit 362 (Highway 89-91) at Brigham City. Follow Highway 89 into Logan, where it becomes Main Street. Stay on Main Street until you reach 1000 North and turn right. Follow 1000 North east until it runs into the campus.

Despite out-shooting the opponent, Utah State was dealt its second loss of the season Saturday, falling to in-state rival Utah, 65-58, at the Jon M. Huntsman Center.

Freshman forward Shannon Dufficy led the Aggies with 11 points Saturday. She was joined in double figures by sophomore guard Rachel Brewster, who tallied 10 points despite fouling out halfway through the third quarter. Brewster and senior forward Antoina Robinson were the top rebounders for the Aggies, adding five apiece. Four of Utah's five starters scored in double-digits to help the team to the win.

With the loss, Utah State falls to 6-2 on the season, while Utah remains perfect and improves to 7-0.

The Aggies won the tip and first possession, but it took until the second time with the ball to score. That didn't hold up the team though, as Utah State jumped out to a quick 13-7 lead at the first media timeout. The Utes came out of the timeout strong, going on to take their first lead of the day at the 2:49 mark. The teams traded baskets and the lead over the final minutes of the quarter, with Utah ending the period on top, 20-19, on a last-second putback.

Back on the court after the quarter break, the Utes held all control. While Utah missed four-straight 3-point shots in the early minutes of the quarter, it held the Aggies scoreless until the media stop. Utah State scored its first point of the quarter as freshman guard Eliza West went 1-for-2 at the free throw line at the 4:49 mark. The Aggies added a pair of field goals, while holding Utah to just two free throws for the final three-and-a-half minutes. The first half ended with Utah leading, 33-28.

Several Aggie players made contributions early in the third quarter, with five different players scoring before the media timeout. Brewster fouled out early, taking her fifth at the mid-point of the third quarter. Without the team's leading scorer, the Aggies still managed to stay in the game. Utah State closed the quarter on a 5-1 run, with all five points coming from Robinson.

The Aggies refused to give up through the fourth quarter, continually bouncing back any time the Utes built up a lead. A 3-pointer from freshman guard Jessie Geer at the 2:24 mark cut the deficit to three points, which would be the closest USU got during the final period. Dufficy had the final basket for the Aggies with 42 seconds to play, but Utah got the last word with a pair of free throws to secured the 65-58 win.

Overall, Utah State shot 43.1 percent (25-of-58) from the field, including 16.7 percent (2-of-12) from the 3-point line, and was 85.7 percent (6-of-7) from the free throw line. Utah shot 37.9 percent (22-of-58) from the field, 25.0 percent (5-of-20) from behind the arc and 66.7 percent (16-of-24) from the free throw line.

Utah State 69, Idaho State 56 December 1, 2016

Behind career-best performances from sophomore guard Rachel Brewster and freshman guard Olivia West, Utah State basketball opened its weekend of competition in a 69-56 win over Idaho State.

Brewster led all scorers with 22 points on the night, for the second 20-point game of her career and topping her previous career-high of 20. West was next with 15 points, her second double-digit game of the season. Freshman forward Shannon Dufficy led the team with eight rebounds. The Bengals had three players in double figures with two 13-point performances and a double-double from Grace Kenyon with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

With the win, Utah State improves to 6-1 on the season, the first time the Aggie women have done so since the 1978-79 season. Idaho State falls to 2-4 with the loss.

The Aggies started the night with a very balanced offense, as the first five field goals were scored by five different players. Despite getting the early lead at the media timeout, the Aggies were held without a field goal for nearly three minutes. At the end of the first, Utah State got back in the scoring column, where a 3-point shot from freshman guard/forward Hailey Bassett gave the Aggies the 18-17 lead to end the quarter.

Idaho State was first to score in the second quarter, taking the lead back momentarily. However, the Bengals would not score again until the 1:05 mark. The Aggies also struggled to score down the stretch, going three-and-a-half minutes without scoring before Brewster ended the skid. Brewster's score added to an 11-0 run for the Aggies before ISU snapped the run with a pair of free throws. A trey from freshman guard Jessie Geer gave the Aggies their first double-digit lead of the night, but the Bengals added one last layup before time ran out. Utah State ended the half with a 32-24 lead.

Idaho State opened the second half with back-to-back shots, before Dufficy added the first Aggie points of the quarter at the 6:30 mark. With two free throws, Dufficy was the only Utah State player to score before the media timeout. Sophomore guard Katie Toole joined her later, converting a three-point play. The teams traded shots back-and-forth over the remainder of the quarter, but USU held onto its lead, up 43-41.

The Bengals were first to score in the final quarter, seeing their first tie score since the 3:18 mark of the first quarter. Three free throws between Geer and Toole put Utah State back ahead at the final media stop of the night. Directly out of the timeout, both teams combined for seven turnovers before either could score again. West drained four deep 3-pointers over a three-minute period, with the third bringing the Aggies' lead back to double figures momentarily. Despite missing a late free throw, Utah State remained in possession as the final minute started. With a strong performance at the free throw line over the final minutes of play, the Aggies continued to build up their lead. Brewster added one final layup to hit a new career-high, finalizing the score and result for the team.

Overall, Utah State shot 39.3 percent (24-of-61) from the field, including a season-high 58.3 percent (7-of-12) from the 3-point line, and was 58.3 percent (14-of-24) from the free throw line. Idaho State shot 34.0 percent (18-of-53) from the field, 27.3 percent (6-of-22) from behind the arc and 70.0 percent (14-of-20) from the free throw line.

them in double figures with points. Anchling also led defensively with a career-high nine rebounds.

The teams opened Thursday's game evenly, trading baskets back-and-forth. The Aggies then took off on an 8-0 run to jump ahead, 11-6 at the first media timeout. Out of that break though, the Wolverines caught back up while the UVU defense held the Aggies to just 3-of-10 over the last four minutes of the quarter. The Aggies hung on though, leading 18-14 at the end of the first.

Throughout the second quarter, Anchling continued her hot streak, setting a new career-high with six minutes remaining in the first half. By the media timeout, the Aggies had extended their lead to 25-19. The offensive pace slowed drastically out of the stop, as both teams encountered 3-minute scoring droughts. The Aggie defense held the Wolverines to 2-of-10 in the last stretch of the quarter, not allowing UVU to score for the final four minutes. With a 3-point shot from Nakkasoglu at the buzzer, Utah State took a 34-21 lead into the locker room.

The Aggies lost some speed coming out of the break, as it took three-and-a-half minutes before Nakkasoglu picked up the first points of the half, allowing five UVU points in the meantime. Roles reversed in the next stretch as USU made four-straight baskets to go into the media stop with a 42-27 advantage. The Aggies went on a 6-0 run to close the half, but a Wolverine trey cut into the lead. With 10 minutes to play, USU led 52-41.

In the first three minutes of the final quarter, the Wolverines chipped away at the Aggies' lead, out-scoring USU 12-5 to force a USU timeout. Utah Valley got within seven early in the quarter, the closest score since the end of the first. The momentum continued for UVU, but free throws kept the Aggies ahead. Away from the charity stripe though, USU shot just 1-of-6 to go into the final media timeout up 62-57. Utah State continued to take advantage of late fouls, as it took all 17 free throws of the game in the second half, scoring on 12 of them.

With 27 seconds to play, the Aggies led by one when Nakkasoglu drew a foul, going 1-for-2 at the line. The Wolverines had the ball with the shot clock off, but missed the layup and drew the foul instead, taking junior forward Antoina Robinson out of the game. A miss on the second free throw led to a USU rebound as the Aggies took their final timeout. Freshman guard Katie Toole headed to the free throw line, getting a third attempt after a lane violation. A turnover on the inbound play gave the ball to freshman guard Victoria Price who ended the night with a layup at the buzzer for the first road win of the season.

Overall, Utah State shot 46.2 percent (30-of-65) from the field, 30.8 percent (4-of-13) from the 3-point line and 70.6 percent (12-of-17) from the free throw line. Utah Valley shot 40.7 percent (22-of-54) from the field, 38.1 percent (8-of-21) from behind the arc and 62.5 percent (20-of-32) from the free throw line.

AGAINST THE COMPETITION - BYU

Last Meeting - Nov. 24, 2015 BYU 81, Utah State 69

Despite five double digit scorers, Utah State women's basketball opened the road portion of its season Tuesday, falling to in-state rival BYU, 81-69.

With the loss, Utah State falls to 2-2 on the year, while BYU improves to the same record with the victory.

Freshman guard Rachel Brewster was the leading scorer for the Aggies Tuesday, with a career-best 17 points. Joining her double figures were freshman guard Katie Toole with 12 and freshman guard Victoria

Price, junior center Antoina Robinson and senior forward Tijana Djukic with 10 points apiece. Freshman center Deja Mason was the top rebounder with seven.

The game opened fairly evenly with the teams trading buckets back-and-forth. Four minutes into action, Nakkasoglu was taken down with an injury. With Nakkasoglu out of the game, the Cougar offense went on a run, finishing the first quarter making six of seven shots. At the end of one, BYU led 27-18.

Nakkasoglu returned to the team bench prior to the start of the second quarter, but did not see any further action. Throughout the early minutes of the second quarter, the Aggies took advantage of BYU turnovers, turning them into points on the other end of the court. A 3:32 scoring drought for the Aggies resulted in a 10-0 run for the Cougars, finding their biggest lead of the half. Junior forward Antoina Robinson ended the scoring skid for the Aggies before cementing the half with a final shot. BYU got the last word of the half, however, sending the game into the halftime break with a 50-34 advantage, the Aggies' biggest halftime deficit of the season.

The Aggies clawed back a bit early in the third quarter, but several stops by the officials slowed momentum. Over a stretch, the Utah State defense held the Cougars to 2-of-13 shots, but roles reversed as the Aggies then hit a scoring skid with several turnovers. A 3-point shot from senior forward Julianne Anchling was the final score of the quarter, which concluded in a 71-49 lead for the Cougars.

Utah State kept up the fight through the fourth quarter, led by Brewster and Djukic. The Cougars hit a 2:41 scoring drought, ended only by a free throw. The Aggie defense again held BYU to limited scoring in the final period, as the Cougars shot 2-of-14 in the final 10 minutes. As the clock ticked down, nether team made a field goal for more than four minutes as the teams combined for 12-straight missed attempts. Toole finally ended the skid for both teams with a 3 as time hit the one-minute mark. The Cougars maintained their double-figure lead, however, with a layup scored at the buzzer.

Overall, Utah State shot 41.7 percent (25-of-60) from the field, 20.0 percent (3-of-15) from the 3-point line and 59.3 percent (16-of-27) from the free throw line. BYU shot 41.6 percent (32-of-77) from the field, 26.3 percent (5-of-19) from behind the arc and 66.7 percent (12-of-18) from the free throw line.

HEAD COACH JERRY FINKBEINER

JERRY FINKBEINER

Head Coach Fifth Season Southern Nazarene, '80

USU Record: 61-72 (.462), 5 years Overall Record: 535-314 (.638), 28 years

Jerry Finkbeiner is in his fifth season as the head women's basketball coach at Utah State.

Finkbeiner (pronounced Fink-by-ner) was named the ninth head coach in USU program history on April 26, 2012. He is the second male coach in Utah State history, joining Bob Corbin, who was the Aggies' coach from 1984-86. Finkbeiner is only the second USU coach since the reinstatement of the program in 2003 when Raegan Pebley took over.

Overall, Finkbeiner has a 529-312 (.629) record in 27 years as a collegiate head coach, including his time at Utah State, Oral Roberts (1996-2013) and Southern Nazarene (1991-96). He also ranks 24th in the nation among active coaches with his 529 career wins.

Finkbeiner coached the 2015-16 squad to a 14-17 record, including an 8-10 Mountain West ledger. The Aggies finished seventh in the league, advancing to the second round of the conference tournament. Guard Funda Nakkasoglu earned first-team all-Mountain West honors, while guard Rachel Brewster was named to the all-Freshman team.

Off the court, seven Aggies earned academic all-Mountain West honors with another six being named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes.

In 2014-15, Finkbeiner coached the Aggies to an 8-23 record, going 5-13 in Mountain West play. That year, Finkbeiner led guard Funda Nakkasoglu to the Mountain West Freshman of the Year award. Additionally, Nakkasoglu earned honorable mention all-conference accolades. At the conclusion of the season, senior forward Franny Vaaulu became the second of Finkbeiner's players to sign a professional contract, playing for the Wolfpack in Wolfenbüttel, Germany.

In the classroom, four players earned academic all-Mountain West honors, while three were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes.

During the summer of 2015, Finkbeiner took the Aggie women on an eight-day trip to the Yucatán Peninsula of Mexico. On the trip, the team played against local club and university teams, hosted coaches and children's clinics and toured the sights.

In the 2013-14 season, Finkbeiner led the Aggies to a 15-16 overall record, while going 8-10 in league play in their first year in the Mountain West. The team advanced to the quarterfinals of the Mountain West Championships, falling to Colorado State.

That year, Finkbeiner coached guard Jennifer Schlott to several accolades and records. Schlott finished the year third in the nation in scoring with 26.2 points per game. She was named the Mountain West Player of the Year and became USU's first-ever AP All-American, earning honorable mention accolades. She became the all-time leading scorer at Utah State, ending her career with 1,556 points. Schlott was invited to a WNBA training camp with the Indiana Fever, before signing a professional contract to play for Tapiolan Honka in Finland.

Off the court, the 2013-14 Aggies also succeeded academically. Six student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while two were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes

In Finkbeiner's debut season in 2012-13, the Aggies achieved an 18-14 record. USU finished second in the Western Athletic Conference standings for the second-straight season with a 14-4 mark. Under the direction of Finkbeiner, Utah State advanced to the postseason for the third-straight season, as the Aggies played in the Women's Basketball Invitational. USU finished the season second in the nation in free throw percentage with a school and WAC record 80.1 percent. Three players were honored by the WAC as Devyn Christensen earned first-team honors, while Jennifer Schlott and Jenna Johnson earned second and third-team honors, respectively.

The Aggies also found success in the classroom under Finkbeiner as five players earned academic all-WAC honors.

Finkbeiner came to Utah State from Oral Roberts in Tulsa, Okla., where he spent 16 years as head coach. During his tenure at ORU, the Golden Eagles averaged 17 wins per season and advanced to postseason play eight times with five trips to the NCAA Tournament and three appearances in the WNIT.

As the head coach at Oral Roberts, Finkbeiner led the Golden Eagles to seven Summit League regular season and tournament titles and six 20-win seasons. At ORU, Finkbeiner coached five All-Americans, eight conference players of the year, five conference newcomers of the year and 26 all-conference selections. He was named conference coach of the year twice during his ORU tenure.

In his six years prior to ORU, Finkbeiner led Southern Nazarene to three-straight NAIA national titles and a combined 99-4 record from 1994 to 1996. Finkbeiner posted a 186-20 record in six seasons at SNU. During his career at Southern Nazarene, Finkbeiner coached nine NAIA All-Americans and a two-time NAIA Player of the Year, while five of his players went on to play professional basketball overseas

During his tenure at Southern Nazarene, Finkbeiner's coaching achievements did not go unnoticed, as he was named the NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1994, 1995 and 1996. He was also named as the College Sports Magazine and Converse National Coach of the Year in 1995. Finkbeiner was named the NAIA District 9 Coach of the Year in 1993 and the Sooner Athletic Conference Coach of the Year from 1992 to 1996.

Finkbeiner, a native of Southern California, attended Southern Nazarene in Oklahoma City, Okla. from 1975-80, where he was a four-year letterwinner. In that time, he was selected as a Christian Collegiate All-American in 1978. Finkbeiner graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in physical education and completed his master's degree in physical education at Northwest Missouri State University. Along with coaching at SNU, Finkbeiner also worked as a professor in the kinesiology and sports management department.

Finkbeiner and his wife, Reva, have five children and two daughters-in-law, Isaac (Angela), Ben (Alycia), Corban (Nathan), Micha (Tommy) and Bethany. His son, Ben, is an assistant coach for the Aggies.
