SCOUTING BYU

BYU enters the week with a 23-10 record. Last week, the Cougars toured the state of Oregon, where they fell to No. 3 Oregon, 1-0, but swept a doubleheader at Oregon State. BYU's season was highlighted by a nine-game winning streak, before dropping three-straight to UCLA and Oregon. The Cougars have been in and out of the national top-25 rankings several times this season, currently ranked 22nd in the USA Today/NFCA Division I Coaches Poll and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Softball Poll. Wednesday marks the last non-conference game before the Cougars begin West Coast Conference play.

BYU returns eight starters and 14 total letterwinners from last year's roster, a team that went 36-21 on the year, finishing first in the WCC with a 12-3 league record. Sophomore outfielder Lexi Tarrow is leading the BYU offense, as she is batting .365 (31-of-85) on the season. Senior McKenna Bull leads the Cougar pitching staff with a 1.73 ERA and a 16-4 individual record. In all, BYU has allowed 188 hits and 99 runs on the year, while striking out 199 batters and walking 98. As a team, BYU is batting .292 (244-of-836), scoring 166 runs with 153 RBIs. Gordon Eakin is in his 15th season as the head coach at BYU, where he has an overall record of 581-267.

BYU is Utah State's third-most faced opponent in program history. The Cougars lead the all-time series, 40-32. Utah State's last win over BYU came on April 4, 2006, in an 11-7 eight-inning victory in Provo. The teams typically play a home-and-home series each year, but only got one game in last season due to weather. The Cougars won the meeting in Provo, 4-1.

SCOUTING FRESNO STATE

Fresno State makes the trip to Logan with a 24-13 overall record, while going 5-4 in Mountain West play. Last weekend, the Bulldogs hosted Nevada, dropping two of the three contests (W 9-1, L 8-4, L 7-4). Fresno State has won its conference series against San Diego State and Boise State, both 2-1.

Defending Mountain West champions, Fresno State returns five starters and nine letterwinners from last year's team that went 42-12-1 overall and 22-1 in conference play. Sophomore outfielder Morgan Howe leads the Bulldogs at the plate, batting .446 (41-of-92) on the season. Sophomore Kamalani Dung is the top pitcher for Fresno State, as she leads the group with a 15-8 record and a 2.41 ERA. As a team, Fresno State is batting .296 (291-of-982), scoring 223 runs with 206 RBIs. The pitching staff has a combined 3.20 ERA, allowing 265 hits and 158 runs, while tallying 176 strikeouts and 126 walks. Linda Garza is in her first season as the head coach at Fresno State, joining the staff after four seasons as the head coach at UC Riverside.

The series between Utah State and Fresno State dates back to the 1978 season, while the teams have played in the same conference through the Big West, Western Athletic Conference and now the Mountain West. Fresno State leads the all-time series, 40-11. The Bulldogs swept the conference series in Fresno last year. The Aggies have defeated the Bulldogs just once since joining the Mountain West, doing so during the 2015 season.

AROUND THE BEEHIVE STATE

Wednesday's game will be the fourth of seven meetings against an in-state rival this season. The Aggies have already played two games each against Utah Valley and Southern Utah this year, with additional games still to come against Weber State and additional meetings against UVU and BYU. All-time, Utah State is 207-187 against the seven other softball programs in the state of Utah. The Aggies have winning records against four of those teams, while USU has the most meetings against Utah, with 148.

AGGIES AGAINST THE BEST

At No. 22, BYU will be the first ranked opponent the Aggies have faced this season. Since 1991, when ranking distinctions were made in the season records, USU has defeated 27 Top-25 teams. Utah State's last win over a ranked opponent came in the 2010 season, when the Aggies upset top-ranked Washington, 7-4, in the first game of the Campbell/Cartier Classic in San Diego, Calif.

THREE'S COMPANY

Three weeks into the Mountain West portion of the 2017 season, Utah State has won all three league series, 2-1. USU is the only team in the conference to win all three series thus far. This is the first time since 1991 that the Aggies have won their first three conference series. That year, Utah State took three Big West series to start conference play against New Mexico State (4-0), UC Santa Barbara (3-1) and Long Beach State (3-1). The Aggies look to continue their winning ways with five Mountain West series left on the schedule. The 1992 and 1993 Utah State teams each won a program-record six conference series.

A FEW GOOD FRESHMEN

With Utah State's 6-3 win over Nevada last Saturday, freshman pitcher Kellie White became the first member of the USU pitching staff to reach double-digit wins. She is the first Utah State freshman pitcher to record 10 or more wins since 1995, when Tara Thompson went 14-14 on the season. Additionally, White is one of just five freshman pitchers in the NCAA to have double-digit wins. Overall, she ranks 46th nationally in total wins. This year, White leads the Aggie pitchers with a 12-3 record and a 1.92 earned run average.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Freshman shortstop Devan Sperry made her first-career start last week, in Utah State's 17-5 win over Nevada. On the day, she was a perfect 4-for-4 at the plate, tying the school record for hits in a single game. Her hits included a double and a home run, both of which were the first of her collegiate career. Additionally, she tallied seven RBIs on the day, setting a program single-game record. Sperry scored two runs and added one defensive assist in the win. Sperry was named the America First Credit Union Utah State Student-Athlete of the Week.

LEAVING A LEGACY

As her collegiate career winds down, senior 2B/3B Victoria Saucedo is ranked on several Utah State record lists. She holds the all-time runs record, with 105 in her four years. She is also currently second in home runs (31), tied for second in RBIs (112), third in total bases (307), tied for fourth in doubles (33) and seventh in hits (181). With eight home runs already this season, she needs just one more to add her name to the single-season home run record for a second time. She is tied for the single-season record, as she had 12 out-of-the-park hits last season.

LAST TIME OUT

Utah State posted a 2-1 Mountain West record at Boise State last weekend, as the Aggies posted back-to-back wins (4-1, 7-3) before closing the weekend in a 4-2 loss. USU utilized two pitchers on the weekend, with freshman Kellie White leading the team with a 2.69 ERA and nine strikeouts in her two complete games. Freshman outfielder Riley Plogger led the Aggie offense, as she batted .556 (5-of-9), while scoring two runs and adding two RBIs. Senior first baseman Paxton Provost was tops defensively, tallying 27 putouts.

UP NEXT

Utah State returns to the road for a three-game Mountain West series at Colorado State next weekend. Due to the Easter holiday, the Aggies and Rams will open the series on Thursday, April 13, at 4 p.m. The teams will continue action on Friday, April 14, at 4 p.m., with the series concluding on Saturday, April 15, at 11 a.m.

STEVE JOHNSON

Head Coach Fourth Season Wartburg College '97

USU Record: 86-106 (.448)

Career Record: Same

Steve Johnson is in his fourth season as the head coach of the Utah State softball team, after being named the ninth head coach of the Aggie program on June 26, 2013.

Johnson led the 2016 team to the program's best record in 20 years. The Aggies finished the year with a 26-25 record, the best team record since 1996, while going 12-12 in Mountain West action. The Aggies' 12 Mountain West wins are the most conference victories since the 1996 team posted a 17-15 Big West record. Utah State finished tied for third in the conference, their highest finish since joining the Mountain West and the highest overall conference finish since 1992. This is also the first time since the 1996 campaign that Utah State finished with a record above .500.

Over the course of the 2016 season, the Aggies set new program records in runs scored (281), doubles (86), home runs (50), total bases (701), RBIs (259), slugging percentage (.492) and on base percentage

(.383). On an individual level, three players set or tied single-season records. Outfielder Sarah Chow hit a program-best eight triples on the year, while outfielder Jazmin Clarke shattered the stolen base record with 25 during the season. Third baseman Victoria Saucedo tied the home run record, hitting 12 during her junior season.

Three Aggies earned all-Mountain West honors in 2016, as Clarke, Saucedo and outfielder/pitcher Alleyah Armendariz were each named to the second team. Additionally, 12 members of the USU roster earned academic all-conference honors and five were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes.

In 2015, Johnson coached the Aggies to a 19-36 record, going 11-13 in Mountain West action. The Aggies ended the season on a three-game winning streak in a sweep over Boise State.

Overall, the Aggies hit .254 on the year, ending the season with 439 hits and 252 runs scored. The Aggies also saw an increase in doubles from 58 in 2014 to 81.

As a team, Utah State set two then-records from the plate in 2015, with 229 RBIs and 40 home runs. Individually, outfielder Hailey Froton bested her own single-season RBI record (48), while claiming the career record (132), while Armendariz tied the single-season home run record, hitting 12.

Four Utah State players earned all-Mountain West honors following the 2015 campaign, as Froton and pitcher Noelle Johnson earned first-team honors and Armendariz and Chow were named to the second team. The four all-conference recognitions are the most for a Utah State team since 1993, when four players earned all-Big West honors. Off the field, five student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while three were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes.

In his first season at Utah State in 2014, Johnson led the team to an 18-37 record. Included in that record was a 6-18 conference record in Utah State's first year in the Mountain West.

In his USU debut, Johnson coached Saucedo to Mountain West Freshman of the Year and first-team all-conference honors, while helping Noelle Johnson to break the USU single-season strikeout record (218). Johnson also coached Froton to the then-single-season RBI record with 41.

The Aggies ended the 2014 season with a .251 batting average, improving from .237 the previous year. USU hit 32 home runs while advancing to 537 total bases.

Along with Saucedo's all-conference honors, nine players earned academic all-Mountain West accolades, while four were named Mountain West Scholar Athletes.

Johnson took over the Utah State program after five years at Auburn as the assistant head coach. Working primarily with the Tigers' hitters, slappers and infielders, Johnson helped Auburn advance to three Southeastern Conference Tournaments and NCAA Regional appearances in four years. In 2011, Auburn was ranked in both the ESPN and NFCA top 25 polls, spending 12 weeks in the NFCA poll and reaching a high of No. 21. Auburn also registered its first-ever series win over a top-five team, taking two-of-three games from No. 4 Georgia. The 2012 Tigers hit the most home runs (46) since the 2005 squad hit a program-record 68.

At Auburn, Johnson coached five players who earned all-SEC honors, and four players who earned SEC all-freshman team accolades, including tying a school record with two in 2013. In 2011, Auburn set program top-five marks in batting average (.279), runs scored (272), RBI (235), doubles (97), triples (8) and walks (160).

Johnson made his head coaching debut at the Division II level, spending the 2003-08 seasons at UNC Pembroke, where he compiled a 153-164 record.

Johnson led the Braves to a 46-14 overall record in 2008 and the Peach Belt Conference Championship, going 17-1 in league action. He also led UNC Pembroke to the program's first ever NCAA Regional appearance in 2008, earning NFCA South Atlantic Region Coaching Staff of the Year honors in 2008. That season, the Braves set or tied 33 school records, including most wins in a season (46) and most conference wins (17). UNCP players earned a total of six all-region awards and three All-America honors under Johnson's tutelage in 2008.

While at Pembroke, Johnson's teams broke 73 school records and had 39 players earn Peach Belt Academic Honor Roll accolades.

Prior to his stint at UNC Pembroke, Johnson served as an assistant coach at South Dakota State from 2000-02.

Johnson began his professional coaching career as the head coach at Kennedy High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa from 1997-2000.

Johnson earned his undergraduate degree in U.S. history and secondary education from Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa, graduating cum laude in 1997. Johnson earned a graduate degree in athletic administration from South Dakota State University in 2002.

A native of West Des Moines, Iowa, Johnson is married to the former Heather Wesemen and the couple has one daughter, Collette (2).
