SERIES INFORMATION

BYU is 10-1-1 all-time against Arizona. The Cougars last won 1-0 in Tucson in 2012. BYU won 2-0 in the last meeting in Provo in 2011.

BYU vs. Arizona At a Glance

No. 19 BYU women's soccer hosts Arizona on Saturday, August 15 at 7 p.m. on South Field. The Wildcats were picked to finish eighth in the Pac-12 by the coaches and held their Red-Blue Scrimmage last Friday. The Cougars had the Blue/White scrimmage on Tuesday night and the Blue team won 3-0 off goals from Nadia Gomes, Michele Murphy Vasconcelos and Elena Medeiros. Arizona is the first of six Pac-12 teams BYU will face this season, including each of the next four games and five of the next six. This is the first exhibition against another Division I side since the Cougars beat Colorado College in 2011.

Notes and Storylines

- BYU's three straight WCC titles are the fifth time a team has won three straight and first since Portland won four straight from 2007-2010. Santa Clara and Portland have each won three straight and four straight dating back to 1994. The third straight title is also the second time BYU has done it in program history. They won four straight from 1999 to 2002 in the Mountain West Conference.
- BYU was picked to win its fourth consecutive WCC title in the WCC Preseason Coaches Poll. The Cougars received eight of nine possible first place votes. It is the second straight year BYU was chosen to win the conference title.
- Since joining the West Coast Conference in 2011, BYU has not only won three straight conference titles, but the Cougars have also led the nation in attendance over the past four seasons with 140,324. BYU and Texas A&M are the only two programs to average at least 25,000 fans a season. The Cougars, Aggies and Portland Pilots are the only three programs to surpass 100,000 fans in total over those four seasons. Only Portland and BYU have averaged 3,000 fans per game for a whole season since 2011.
- In 2014, BYU had three of the 15 highest attended games in the country and four of the 25 highest attended regular season games.
- The only streaks carried over from 2014 are the seven-game home win streak, 13-game home conference win streak and a 14-game home conference unbeaten streak.
- Junior forwards Ashley Hatch and Michele Murphy Vasconcelos were voted to the WCC Preseason All-WCC Team. Both were All-WCC First Team honorees in 2014 and it is the second Preseason All-WCC selection for both, as well.
- Ashley and Brianna Hatch could become the first pair of sisters to play in the same game at BYU since Michelle Jensen Peterson and Janet Jensen both played against Santa Clara on Nov. 18, 2000.
- The Hatch sisters are the sixth sibling duo at BYU. Sophomore Stephanie Ringwood is the younger sister in the fifth duo. The sisters include the Hatches, Stephannie and Jessica Ringwood, Christina Cramer and Aleisha Cramer Rose, Michelle Jensen Peterson and Janet Jensen, Amber Anderson Johnson and Nicole Anderson and Melissa Robbins Jolley and Karen Robbins Wunderli.
- Over the summer, Ashley Hatch participated in the U-23 Women's National Team Camp for the United States. Sophomores Carla Swensen and Bizzy Phillips won the WPSL Elite championship with the RSL Women semi-pro club. Freshman Madie Siddoway's club team La Roca made it to the national semifinal of the US Youth Soccer National Club Championships.
- 2014 All-WCC Preseason selection Paige Hunt returned from the Indianapolis Indiana mission. She last suited up for the Cougars during the 2013 season, where she played every game at center back.
