UConn Head Coach Bob Diaco

UConn head coach Bob Diaco will be making his UConn and collegiate head coaching debut on Friday night vs. BYU. Diaco served on the Notre Dame coaching staff as the defensive coordinator for the past four years and the assistant head coach for the past two. He was the 2012 winner of the Frank Broyles Award, given to the top assistant college football coach in the country and was the first Irish assistant to receive the prestigious award. He was a semifinalist for the award in 2011. Diaco joined the Notre Dame staff in 2010 as defensive coordinator and inside linebacker coach, took responsibility for the entire linebacker position in 2011 and added responsibilities as associate head coach in 2012. His 2012 Irish defense ranked among the top 10 in the Football Bowl Subdivision in 12 different categories as the school played in the BCS National Championship Game and posted an overall record of 12-1. Diaco has an impressive coaching resume as he served at Virginia (2006-08) as the linebackers and special teams coordinator and Cincinnati (2009) as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach before joining the Notre Dame staff. A native of Cedar Grove, N.J., and a 1995 Iowa graduate, Diaco began his coaching career in 1996-97 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. He then served on the staffs of Western Illinois (1999-2000) as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach, Eastern Michigan (2001-2003) working with the same positions and Central Michigan (2005) as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He was a two-time All-Big Ten selection at Iowa as a linebacker under Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry and was named the team's co-MVP in 1995, starting in all 23 games over his junior and senior seasons.

BYU Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall

Bronco Mendenhall is entering his tenth season in charge of the BYU program and has led the Cougars to bowl games in each of his seasons in Provo. Last season, BYU went 8-5 and played in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl against Washington. Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 10-3 record in 2011, including a win over Tulsa in the Armed Force Bowl and a final national ranking of 25th in country by the Associated Press. Prior to becoming head coach at BYU, he was the defensive coordinator for the Cougars from 2003-04 and also had coaching stints at Oregon State (1989-90 and 1995-96), Snow College in Ephraim, Utah (1991-92), Northern Arizona (1993-94), Louisiana Tech (1997) and New Mexico (1998-2002), where he served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. THE GAME

UCONN VS. BYU HISTORY

Friday's game will be the first-ever meeting between UConn and BYU in the sport of football. UConn will travel to BYU next season on October 31, 2015. BYU is one of two independents that UConn is playing this year as the Huskies take on Army at Yankee Stadium on Nov. 8. UConn has an all-time record of 6-7 against the four teams currently playing as an independent: 1-0 vs. Notre Dame (win in 2009), 4-1 vs. Army and 1-6 vs. Navy. Navy joins the American Athletic Conference next season as a football-only member.

UCONN-BYU CONNECTIONS

UConn does not have any Utah natives on its roster nor does BYU have any Connecticut natives, however senior defensive back Jordan Johnson is from nearby Springfield, Mass.

RENTSCHLER GAMEDAY/FAN ACTIVITIES

There will be a number of new fan experiences for UConn football games this season:

- There will be a pep rally on Thursday, August 28 for the game with the UConn football team, marching band and cheerleaders. The rally will take place starting at 6:30 p.m. on the Storrs campus at the top of Fairfield Way – across Hillside Road from the Husky Dog Statue. The team and head coach Bob Diaco walk from The Burton Family Football Complex to the pep rally location and arrive there at approximately 7:00 p.m. The team will then walk to the Nathan Hale Inn, where the team will now be staying on nights before home games.
- There is a new route for the Husky Walk as the team arrives for games at Rentschler Field this year and fans get a chance to greet the team as they get off their buses and make their way to the stadium. The Husky walk, which takes place approximately, two hours and 15 minutes before kickoff, will now start in the Gray Parking Lots and the team will makes its way to the large tunnel near Gate B.
- The UConn team will now do its pregame warmup in front of the UConn student section on the South End of the stadium – a change from previous seasons. The Huskies will enter the stadium for pregame warmups on the concourse of Rentschler Field and go through the student section.
- The break between the third and fourth quarter will feature "Coach D's Playlist" as fans during the game will get to select a song to play based on a list they saw earlier in the game.
- The team and staff will sing the "UConn Husky" fight song in front of the student section along with the UConn Marching Band following each game.

Aug. 29 vs. BYU Game Notes

- Once again, FanFest takes place starting four hours before kickoff up until 30 minutes before the game between Gates A and B outside the stadium gates. The offerings change each game, but activities typically include inflatable games for children, live bands, promotional vehicles and UConn student-athletes from various teams signing autographs.

SQUAD NOTES

THE HUSKY CAPTAINS

Redshirt senior wide receiver Jeremy Davis (Lawrenceville, Ga.), redshirt senior cornerback Byron Jones (New Britain, Conn.), redshirt senior center Alex Mateas (Ottawa, Ontario) and redshirt junior linebacker Marquise Vann (Cincinnati, Ohio) will captain the Huskies for the 2014 season. The captains were decided by a team vote.

Davis is coming off one of the most prolific seasons for a receiver in program history, hauling in 71 receptions for 1,085 yards in 2013. He became the first receiver in UConn's FBS era to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards and added three touchdowns. His finest performance came on a record-setting day against Memphis at Rentschler Field on Dec. 6. In a 45-10 win, Davis recorded 15 receptions for 207 yards and a touchdown. The 15 catches are a single-game program record, and the 207 yards rank fifth-most in a game in UConn history.

The 6-3 receiver was named to Biletnikoff Award Watch List in July.

Diacio on Davis: "Jeremy Davis is big and strong and has an incredible catch radius. He gets open with body control and body position. He's an explosive player and he's a big player. Off the field, he's kind and a person with incredibly high character and a very good man. He's a college graduate and an incredible ambassador for the University."

Jones is a three-year starter in the secondary, starting all 12 games at cornerback last year after starting at safety in 2011 and 2012. Last year, he led the Huskies with three interceptions and finished tied for third on the squad with 60 total tackles. Jones has played in all 36 games of the last three seasons and has 199 career tackles, 14 pass break-ups and six interceptions.

Diacio on Jones: "Byron Jones is intangibly a gifted player. He possesses the speed both short and long. He has both vertical explosiveness and vertical quickness of an elite small-bodied corner, but he's really big. So he moves like a little guy, but he's six-foot. He's a B-plus student in one of the more hard and challenging curriculums that we have at this top 20 public university in the country. He's a great community guy and great person. He's so charismatic and commutative and pensive. I've joked I could see him be the governor of the state. He's that special."

UConn's most experienced returner on the offensive line, Mateas started all 12 games at center in 2013 and has played in 20 overall games over the last two seasons. He was named to the Rimington Award Spring Watch List in May.

Diacio on Mateas: "Alex Mateas has built himself into a player. He's worked on his body. He's always been athletic, with his soccer background. He was a competitive soccer player as a youngster. We see him as one of our 'key' starters. I know I have used that term a little bit. He's another guy that is very helpful and a demonstrative communicator. He doesn't mind snatching a guy up and he leads from the front so he's got his teammates respect."

Vann has played in 20 games over the last three seasons, and made three starts at linebacker last season. He has totaled 21 tackles in his career, including a career-high five stops against No. 18 Louisville last season. Vann made a splash playing in his hometown last year when he returned a fumble 40 yards for a touchdown in an Oct. 19 contest at Cincinnati.

Diacio on Vann: "As a younger guy, but so mature, he's got a different kind of way about him from the others. He's not necessarily a rah-rah cheerleader type of guy, but he is vocal and demonstrative. He's a really good person and very kind, but he also can flip the switch on the field. He can live in the two worlds pretty well. It's a prerequisite and critical as an inside linebacker. He can be an

OFFENSE NOTES

COCHRAN NAMED THE STARTER AT QB, WHITMER SECOND

Diaco announced on Monday, August 18 that redshirt sophomore Casey Cochran (Monroe, Conn.) will be the starting quarterback for the Husky football team against BYU. Redshirt senior Chandler Whitmer (Newnan, Ga.) will serve as the No. 2 quarterback on the depth chart.

"This was a long hard choice," said Diaco. "It was an incredible and fierce battle dating all the way back to winter conditioning. Winter conditioning went into the process of the evaluation. Spring football went into the process of the evaluation, summer conditioning and then camp. Nothing was left out.

"Casey Cochran will be the starter for the fall 2014 and I say that specifically because I have said this before in the past in here. We have key starters, starters, key backups, backups and squad men. Those are our evaluation levels. We do not have a key starter at the quarterback position. We have a starter and a key backup.

"By the staff's estimate, and it was negligible in all categories, Casey has improved his physical traits to try to catch up to the physical traits of Chandler Whitmer. Chandler is still better in those areas. In terms of just being a player and what that means, you would have to give the edge to Chandler Whitmer. In the intangible area, leading, communicating, mobilizing energy, creating unit power and team power over the course of time, Casey Cochran has edged out Chandler in that area. It is an exceptional trait that Casey has, and through the work in Chandler's life, in his maturity and his growth it has made that an intangible difference.

UConn's other quarterbacks are sophomore Tim Boyle (Middlefield, Conn.), who started four games last year, and redshirt freshman Bryant Shirreffs (Jefferson City, Ga.). Shirreffs is a transfer from North Carolina State, who will sit out this season due to NCAA rules.

Cochran played in eight games 2013, starting the final four and posting a 3-1 record. He finished the year 111-for-175 in the air with 1,293 yards and 11 touchdowns against four interceptions, adding a rushing touchdown as well. He set the UConn single-game record for passing yards with 461 against Memphis (Dec. 7). Cochran was 36-of-54 with four touchdowns in that game, finishing with the second-most completions and third-most attempts in a game in UConn history.

Whitmer started all 12 games for UConn in 2012 and started the first four games of the 2013 season. He has thrown for 3,560 career yards as a Husky and 14 touchdowns.

Aug. 29 vs. BYU Game Notes

THREE FOR 300

Whitmer, Boyle and Cochran each started games last year and all three of them have had a game of 300 or more passing yards. Cochran set the school single-game record for passing yards with 461 against Memphis in the season finale and also had 311 vs. Rutgers, which is 32nd.

Whitmer started the first four games of the season and passed for 349 yards vs. Maryland, which is the 12th highest in school single-game history. Whitmer also passed for 333 yards against Western Michigan in 2012 – which is 20th in school history.

Boyle passed for 310 yards in his first collegiate start vs. USF last season, which is 33rd.

UConn never had a season with three 300-yard QBs and three seasons with two 300-yard QBs – 1990 (Cornelius Benton and Matt DeGennaro), 1991 (Benton and Tom DeSarno) and 1998 (Brian Hoffmann and Shane Stafford).

WHITMER IN UCONN RECORD BOOKS

Whitmer's name started to appear in the UConn record books early in the 2013 season. Here's a summary: 12th in career total yardage with 3,258 yards; 10th in career pass completions with 279; ninth in career passing yards with 3,560; fourth in career yards per game with 222.5; and second in career yards per attempt with 7.27. His 361 pass attempts in 2012 were sixth in single-season history and his 208 completions were seventh while his 2,664 passing yards were fifth.

DAVIS CLIMBING THE LADDER TOO

Jeremy Davis is also starting to appear in the Husky record books. He's ninth in career receptions with 121 while Kashif Moore (2008-11) is eighth with 126. Davis is tenth in career receiving yards with 1,771 while Brian Kozlowski (1989-92) is ninth with 1,788 while Moore is eighth is 1,799. Davis' 71 receptions last year were fifth in single-season history while his 1,085 yards were sixth. His 15 receptions vs. Memphis were a school record, while Deshon Foxx had 11 vs. the Tigers to tie for eighth.

DEFENSE NOTES

SEASONED SECONDARY

All four of UConn's projected starters in the secondary have made multiple career starts to bring plenty of experience back to the unit. Jones leads the way at one of the cornerback spots, starting all 12 games a year ago and having played in all 36 contests during his UConn career. The other cornerback is redshirt sophomore Jhavon Williams (Wellington, Fla.), who made five starts in his 10 appearances last season. At one safety spot, redshirt sophomore Obi Melifonwu (South Grafton, Mass.) started all 12 games in 2013 and earned national recognition, as he was named a Freshman All-America Honorable Mention by Scout.com. Melifonwu finished second on the squad with 70 tackles and added two interceptions and two forced fumbles. Redshirt junior Andrew Adams (Fayetteville, Ga.) is slotted to take the other safety spot and has played in 20 games over the last two years.

ON THE NOSE

Redshirt junior Julian Campenni (West Pittston, Pa.) has cemented himself as the starting nose guard in Diaco and Poindexter's multiple front defense. Campenni has started 13 games over the last two years and played in 22 overall contests at defensive tackle, but Diaco has sung his praises in his conversion to the nose tackle spot. Also returning as a starter on the defensive line is redshirt senior Angelo Pruitt (Cincinnati, Ohio), who has started 19 career contests on the defensive line and has 10 tackles for loss under his belt.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

NEW FACES IN KICK GAME

UConn will have a pair of new faces in both the kicking and punting department this season with the graduation of PK Chad Christen and P Cole Wagner. Wagner is second in UConn career punting average with 40.7 yards.

Redshirt sophomore Bobby Puyol (North Palm Beach, Fla.) will be the starting kicker this season after redshirting in 2013. In 2012, he kicked in the season finale vs. Cincinnati and hit on the only FGA of his career – a 40-yarder. He also had two PATs.

Redshirt sophomore Justin Wain (Wilmington, N.C.) will be the starter punt and has not seen any game action.

Both Wain and Puyol were members of the 2013 American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team.

Freshman Chase Briley (Hartford, Conn.), who played at Capital Prep High School, will be the backup at both kicker and punter.

THE RETURN GAME

Senior Deshon Foxx (Lynchburg, Va.) will be at both the punt and kickoff return spot. He has 26 career KO returns for 266 yards (19.0 average). Redshirt freshman Josh Marriner (Chesapeake, Va.) will also return kicks while sophomore Brian Lemelle (Harrisburg, Pa.) will be involved in punt returns.

STADIUM/ATTENDANCE NOTES

RENTSCHLER FIELD

The Huskies moved into Rentschler Field in East Hartford for the 2003 season and UConn begins its 12th season of play there on Friday. Located within miles of Interstates 91, 84 and 384, the home of the Huskies lies on 75 acres of land donated to the State of Connecticut from the historic Pratt & Whitney Airfield. The stadium, like the former airfield, is named for that company's founder, Frederick Rentschler. The stadium boasts a capacity of 40,000 with 38 luxury suites.

UConn has an all-time record of 48-23 at Rentschler Field and a 25-10 mark in non-conference games. UConn has played to 90.6-pct. of capacity all-time there, drawing 2,574,072 fans, or an average of 36,254 per game.

UConn set a new all-time single-game attendance record at Rentschler Field on Sept. 21 against Michigan with a crowd of 42,704. That capacity was achieved with extra bleachers brought in for that game.
