BULL'S 33RD VICTORY SETS BYU SINGLE-SEASON MARK IN 8-0 WIN OVER UVU

PROVO, Utah – Sophomore pitcher McKenna Bull earned a single-season record 33rd win as BYU softball took the final game of the series 8-0 in five innings against cross-county foe Utah Valley Tuesday night at Gail Miller Field.

“Thirty-three wins in one season is phenomenal,” BYU head coach Gordon Eakin said. “McKenna’s had a terrific year; she’s been the cornerstone of our team. We’ve worked her every weekend really hard and she’s held up well. Sydney Broderick had a huge home run in the first to set the tone for this game tonight. We’re going to miss playing here at home for the rest of the season. This is a great environment to play in.”

Bull threw her 27th complete game of the season while breaking the tie with former Cougar pitcher Paige Affleck for most wins in a single season. The Ogden, Utah, native held the Wolverines to just one hit in the game while striking out eight and pitching her eighth shut-out of the year.

“It feels good,” Bull said of the outing. “It was double sweet that I did get the record and that I also got to pitch a good game against a team I had struggled against early on in the season.”

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

SANTA CLARA, Calif.-The BYU softball team earned the West Coast Conference regular season title behind a doubleheader sweep of Santa Clara in Santa Clara, California.

The Cougars (36-10, 11-0 WCC) topped the Broncos (15-34, 4-10 WCC) 4-0 and 5-0 to secure their seventh straight championship and their 11th consecutive NCAA tournament berth.

"I'm proud of the team for finding ways today to get the job done," BYU head coach Gordon Eakin said. "Even though we didn't play our best ball offensively, we found ways to manufacture runs and our pitching was exceptional."

McKenna Bull notched her 31st victory of the season with the shutout win, allowing three hits in seven innings while striking out nine. In the bottom of the fourth she recorded her 214th strikeout of the season, passing Paige Affleck for the most strikeouts in a season by a BYU sophomore.

Fellow sophomore Ashley Thompson (4-1) followed with a three-hit shutout of her own for her best outing of the season. She also led all Cougar hitters with a 3-for-6 performance on the day.

Eakin is entering his 13th season as the Cougars' head coach and his 16th season at BYU overall.

Eakin was named head coach in July 2002 after working as an assistant coach since the softball program's inception in 2000. Since that time he has led the Cougars to five Mountain West Conference championships, one Western Athletic Conference tournament championship, one West Coast Conference championship and 10 NCAA tournament appearances.

The 2014 WCC Coach of the Year has coached 12 All-Americans, eight conference players of the year, four conference freshmen of the year and two MWC Pitchers of the Year during his tenure.

In 2010, Eakin guided the Cougars to 46 wins, the most in school history, as BYU advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time ever with wins over East Carolina and host Texas before ending its season at national runner-up Arizona. The Cougars finished second in the country in batting average, seventh in scoring and ninth in slugging percentage as a team.

Known as one of the best hitting coaches in the country, Eakin has helped BYU finish in the top-ten nationally six times in slugging percentage, six times in home runs per game, four times in batting average and four times in scoring.

In addition to his duties at BYU, Eakin was also an assistant coach and hitting coach for the USA National Team in 2009. In the summer of 2010, Eakin helped guide the National Team to a 17-2 record as USA won the World Championship in Venezuela, the World Cup in Oklahoma and the Japan Cup championship in Sendai, Japan.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Eakin was a successful baseball and softball player. After playing collegiate baseball at the University of Utah, Eakin signed with the Oakland Athletics organization where he played for three years.

Eakin went on to join the United States All-Star team, playing in three U.S. Olympic sports festivals in 1986, 1993 and 1994, winning bronze, silver and gold, respectively. While on the team, Eakin was honored on the ISC All-World First Team and was an ASA All-American. He would later go on to play shortstop on the internationally ranked Larry H. Miller Toyota Fast Pitch team, eventually earning induction into the Utah Fast Pitch Hall of Fame in 1998.

Eakin is a native of Holladay, Utah, and graduated from Granite High. He currently resides in Sandy, Utah, and is married to Barbi. They are the parents of three children (Alicia, Ryan & Parker) and have five grandsons.
