Notes and Storylines

- › Sophomore forward Ashley Hatch became the sixth fastest Cougar to 10 career goals, as she scored her ninth and 10th goals on Saturday against Long Beach State. Hatch accomplished the feat in 28 games, one quicker than Sara Reading did in her sophomore season of 1998. Hatch is also the 27th BYU player to score 10 goals and is currently tied for 23rd on the all-time goals list. She is second in active career goals behind senior Jaiden Thornock's 12.
- › Hatch's brace against Long Beach State was the first time a Cougar had scored twice in the same game since Rachel Manning doubled up on goals against Cal State Fullerton at home on Aug. 23, 2013.
- › The Cougars are under .500 this late in the season for the first time since 2008 when BYU was 3-4-0 through seven games. The 2008 team finished 18-5-1 after winning 15 of their next 16 games.
- › BYU has used five different starting lineups through seven games this season. Sixteen different players have started so far this season.
- › Senior goalkeeper Katherine Snyder recorded her first solo shutout on Saturday as she played the full 90 minutes for the first time as well.
