BYU Capsule

BYU women's basketball (10-4, 1-0) begins the second week of West Coast Conference action with two games, one on the road and one at home. The Cougars were selected to finish first in conference play as voted by the league's coaches. Last year BYU finished second with a 12-4 record, winning their first WCC championship and representing the league as the automatic qualifier in the NCAA tournament.

BYU has outrebounded its opponents in nine of the games played, including the last seven. In all but two contests (at Boston College and at Washington State) the Cougars dished out more assists than their opponents. BYU has enjoyed a halftime lead in all but two games to date (vs. Seattle and at Washington State). Entering WCC action, the BYU bench has outscored the opponent's bench 279-186. When comparing points in the paint, the Cougars have scored 392 points to 330 from opponents.

In the team's first league win over San Francisco, five players scored in double figures, a first on the year. In 2011-12 there were two games where five players put up double digits in scoring.
