Head Coach: Jeff Judkins
Overall Record: 225-111/10
2011-12: 20-3, 8-1

Head coach Jeff Judkins enters his 11th season at the helm of the BYU women's basketball program. Last season he guided the Cougar team to a 25-9, 15-1 record, clinching a third MWC Regular season title, and advancing to the Sweet Sixteen of the postseason WNIT. The year marked his fifth 20-plus wins and the second best total wins in his 10-year tenure.

With the 15-1 conference record also came Judkins' third MWC Coach of the Year citation. Several players also received numerous honors from the league. Senior guard Mindy Bonham was named the MWC Defensive Player of the Year, while junior Kristen Riley garnered the Sixth Player of the Year award, marking the second straight time that a Cougar received that honor. Bonham was also named First Team All-MWC and made the All-Defensive Team. Teammate Coriann Fraughton was named Second Team All-MWC while co-captain Haley Hall picked up Third Team All-MWC accolades with Riley and senior guard Jazmine Foreman receiving Honorable Mention All-MWC. The team concluded the season with an 8-0 record at home finishing 14-2 overall in the Marriott Center.

During the 2009-10 campaign he guided the Cougars to a 23-10 overall record, marking his fourth 20-plus season, his third best during his tenure. The team also finished second (11-5) in the MWC regular season race after being selected to finish fifth. During conference play, the team went 7-1 at home, and concluded the season with an 11-2 record in the Marriott Center.

Six players garnered 11 postseason MWC accolades. For the second straight year, junior Mindy Bonham was named to the All-MWC Second Team. She and teammate Jazmine Foreman were named to the All-Defensive Team. Junior Coriann Wood picked up the league's first ever Sixth Player of the Year award. Wood added her second conference citation being named Honorable Mention All-MWC. Co-captain Haley Hall, and forward Kristen Riley were also Honorable Mention All-MWC.

For the fifth time, the BYU team participated in the postseason WNIT as the automatic qualifier from the MWC. The team had an impressive run in the tournament, advancing to the quarterfinal round (Elite Eight) before losing to eventual champion California. After a 62-58 home victory over Pepperdine, BYU embarked on a six-day, three game schedule where they grabbed victories over ASU, and league foe Wyoming. The postseason appearance was the 12th overall for the school.

Judkins and his staff also guided the Cougar team to back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances in 2006 and 2007.

With the second youngest Division I women's basketball roster, he guided the 2008-09 squad to an 18-11, 8-8/t-fifth record with junior Mindy Bonham (Nielson) garnering two MWC honors on the All-Conference Third Team and on the All-Defensive Team. Graduating seniors and co-captains Shawnee Slade and Cassie King were named Honorable Mention All-MWC. King was also named to the CoSIDA ESPN The Magazine Academic District 8 University Second Team.

The Cougar team recorded back-to-back MWC Regular Season Titles in 2006 and 2007 with players Ambrosia Anderson and Dani Wright being named MWC Co-Players of the Year those same seasons.

During Judkins' fifth season, the 2005-06 campaign, the Cougar squad compiled its best finish in school history with a 26-6 record, clinched its first MWC regular season title since 1992 and received a no. 7 seed in the NCAA tournament, the highest seed for any BYU program.

For the first time since the 2002-03 season, the 2005-06 squad and its 13-1 record to start the year, broke into the women's basketball collegiate polls, ranked no. 23 by the AP Poll and the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Coaches Poll. They would move up the poll to as high as 18 and 16 in the two respective polls, finishing the year at no. 20. In that same season Judkins picked up his 100th win, a 69-67 victory over CSU on Mar. 2, the same time the team clinched the league's regular season title.

Under Judkins tutelage the women's basketball program has had consistent success with four postseason appearances including three NCAA Championships, guiding the team to its first ever Sweet Sixteen finish in 2002. In 2005, the 19-11 team played in the first round of the WNIT.

Judkins has also coached two All-Americans in Erin Thorn and Ambrosia Anderson. Both have gone on to play in the WNBA. Thorn has been with the New York Liberty team for five years while Anderson completed one season with the Liberty team.

The longtime University of Utah coach and player came to Provo with a proven record of success dating back to his high school days at Highland High School in Salt Lake City. An all-state selection in basketball, football and baseball, Judkins went on to play for the University of Utah from 1974-78.

While playing at Utah, Judkins helped lead the Utes to one conference championship and two berths in the NCAA tournament. He was a second-team academic All-American and three-time District VII academic selection. He also earned three First Team All-WAC honors and was a member of the 1977 United States World Games team that captured the gold medal.

Judkins also played five years in the NBA for the Boston Celtics, Portland Trailblazers, Detroit Pistons and Utah Jazz. He was a second-round pick of the Celtics in 1978, the same year the Celtics selected Larry Bird with the sixth pick overall.

After his NBA career, he returned to Utah in 1989 and was an instrumental part of the program's success during his 10 years with the program, recruiting such players as Keith Van Horn, Andre Miller, Mike Doleac, Hanno Mottola, Alex Jensen, Trent Whiting, Garner Meads, Jeff Johnsen and Britton Johnsen.

Judkins, graduated from the University of Utah in 1978 with a degree in physical and health education.

He and his wife Mary Kaye are the parents of five children: Jessica Paul, Jordan, Jenna {Whitney Neves}, Jaime {Matt Weeks}, Jaxson. They have two grandchildren.

THURSDAY WCC OPPONENT

PEPPERDINE

Entering the week of Jan. 30, Pepperdine is in fourth place in the WCC standings with a (10-10, 5-4) mark. Most recently the Waves lost on the road to San Diego 70-39. Pepperdine has three players that are scoring double digits in points led by 15.2 from Jasmine Jackson who also grabs a team high 5.1 boards a game. Next is Lauren Bell who contributes 12.4 points and gets 3.5 rebounds a contest. She's followed by Katie Menton who tallies 12.2 points while grabbing 4.8 rebounds per game. The Waves are averaging 61.1 points while shooting 36 percent from the field, 28 percent from behind the arc and 72 percent at the free throw line. Jackson has the most assists on the squad with 40 and teammate Bell gets the most steals with 58 to date. Head coach Julie Rousseau is in her eighth season at the helm of the women's basketball program.

Last Meeting

In the first matchup between these two new WCC foes, the Cougars picked up the 80-56 victory in Provo on 1/12/12. The win gave coach Judkins his 220th career win making him the winningest coach in BYU women's basketball history. BYU senior Haley Steed set a career high with 14 assists, collecting her third career double-double with 11 points in addition to four steals and three rebounds. Freshman guard Lexi Eaton had a team-high 15 points, to go with three steals, two blocks and a career-best seven boards.

Tied 15-15 early, an initial 9-0 run helped BYU jump out to an early 24-15 lead behind strong play by Steed. After a steal and jumper in transition, Steed assisted on two-straight 3-point baskets first by Stephanie Vermunt and then by Eaton. The Cougars went into halftime up by 10 points, 37-27, thanks to Eaton's hot hand. The freshman netted nine of BYU's last 16 points before halftime over the final seven minutes of the first period.

The Cougars turned to center Jennifer Hamson off the bench in the second half, using the sophomore to bury the Waves with a 13-2 run to take a decisive 58-38 lead with 12:16 remaining. Hamson scored the first nine points of the run on layups and BYU held Pepperdine to a single field goal over the final nine minutes for the victory. Hamson finished with 13 points and five blocks in 19 minutes of play and was joined by Vermunt's 12 points on 3-for-3 shooting from beyond the arc in giving the Cougar bench a 30-4 margin over their Pepperdine counterparts.
