MEMO TO PRESS

PRESS PASSES—Requests for working passes should be made directly to Sports Publicity Office a week prior to the game. Women are not allowed in the press box, and the area is reserved for those actually covering the game. Drivers, and others who may accompany those covering the game will be asked to sit elsewhere. Comp seats will be made available, if the requests are made in advance.

PRESS BOX—The new BYU press box, which is located at the top of the east stands, is just inside the main entrance to the stadium. A parking area just north of the main gates is reserved for working press, and passes will be supplied by request.

BROADCASTING BOOTHS—Four radio booths are available, including one reserved for the visiting station which is designated the official station by the visiting team.

SERVICES—Complete game statistics—lineups, play-by-play, scoring and yardage reports—will be supplied at the end of the game.

UNIFORMS—The Cougars will wear royal blue uniforms at home and white uniforms on the road.

PASS RECEIVING: R. K. Brown, 9th, with 192 yards on 14 caught.

HAROLD W. KOPP

Less than three years ago a tall, determined-looking New Englander left the head coaching post at Rhode Island and came to the Rockies to take over the slumping football fortunes at BYU. Harold W. Kopp's announced goal was to produce football teams that were competitive and a recognized force on the gridiron. This year should find Hal and his crew moving a step closer to the big objective.

To a great extent BYU's football teams, reflect the head mentor; they are unrelenting, uncompromising and play the game at full throttle. This is just the way Big Hal coaches football.

If Kopp hates to lose, it's probably because he knows the fruits of victory. While at Rhode Island his teams won or shared the Yankee Conference crown in 1952, 1953 and 1955. As we near the 1958 Skyline campaign Kopp and his boys find themselves among the contenders. In seven years of head coaching Hal Kopp has been named "coach of the year" four separate times.

Kopp's career began at Western Maryland where he played ball and later graduated in 1933. He started coaching at Northeastern University in 1937 as linecoach. Latter he coached at Brown, then served four years in the Army infantry in England, Scotland and Africa during World War II.

Returning to New England football after the war, he coached the varsity line at Harvard from 1946 to 1948, and then moved to Yale under the late Herman Hickman. Two years later (1950) he accepted the Rhode Island job, and his coaching was interrupted the same year when he was recalled to duty during the Korean conflict.

When he became head man at Rhode Island the Ram football program was in feeble shape. Under his command they bounced back to life, defeating their state rival, Brown, three out of four times in his stay there. The Rams were undefeated his last year at RI, and his record for his last four seasons was 25-5-2.

He has coached the single wing, T-formation, and split-T.

STEVENS-DIXON

TALLY STEVENS, SENIOR ASSISTANT

Fans as well as players take pride in members of the coaching staff such as Tally Stevens, senior assistant who was the first coach Hal Kopp added to the new staff in 1956.

Perhaps the most successful high school coach in Utah history, Tally enjoyed phenomenal success as coach at East High School (Salt Lake City). In his last four seasons as head man at East, Tally racked up a 33-3-1 record and three state Class "A" titles. His overall record with prep teams was glossy 49-11-3.

A native of Evanston, Wyo., he played one year of ball at University of Utah before going into service. He played some ball with the Fourth Air Force, then returned to Utah where he won conference honors as one of the finest ends ever developed at Utah. He graduated from Utah in 1949, is great recruiter and public relations man.

OWEN DIXON, LINE COACH

BYU's line play, which is as rugged as any in the conference, is due in good measure to Owen Dixon, line coach for the Cougars. Owen, a former all-conference guard at BYU during post-war years, entered the coaching ranks first at B. Y. High School and later joined the football staff in 1954.

A native of Provo, Dixon is regarded as one of the finest guards the school has produced. He won honors before and after a stint in the service, and he was respected throughout the conference for his play.

Owen graduated from BYU in 1946 and the same year joined the coaching staff at B. Y. High. His teams were always in the running, and they won the regional title in 1952. They advanced to the state playoffs, losing the title by one point. He was named freshman coach at BYU in 1954, joined the varsity staff in 1955.

DAVIS-TOLBERT

ALLAN DAVIS, BACKFIELD COACH

In his third year as backfield coach for the Cougars is Allan Davis, very capable young coach who masterminds much of the BYU attack. A former quarterback under Ike Armstrong at University of Utah, Allan was building prep football champions at Murray High (Utah) when he joined the staff at Catville in 1956.

Davis coached at Murray for seven seasons, and he always had the Spartans ranked among the state's best. In his last three years at Murray his teams compiled a 27-4 record, and they snared the state crown in 1954. The following year the Spartans were reclassified an "A" school, and they reached the state finals where they were beaten by East High, a team coached by Tally Stevens.

A native of Salem, Allan played ball for Payson High and was studentbody president there. He capped three years of quarterbacking for the Redskins with all-conference mention, graduated in 1948.

MAX TOLBERT, ASSISTANT COACH

For the past two years the job of coaching BYU's freshman teams has fallen to Max Tolbert, who this year joins the varsity staff. Max will leave the Gatos with an impressive record of seven victories in eight games in two seasons.

Flamboyant and talkative, Max is a native of Fayetteville, Pa., where he was letter winner in four sports. He came to BYU in 1948, won three football letters, and in his junior year saw 456 minutes of play with Cougars. Max was offensive All-Conference end as senior.

Following graduation, Tolbert coached baseball and assisted with football at Murray high for three years. He joined BYU football family in 1955, and took over freshman chores in 1956 when Kopp arrived, has done considerable scouting and recruiting since then.

VANNOY-KIMBALL

JAY VANNOY, FROSH COACH

Latest addition to the staff is Jay VanNoy, one of the finest athletes Utah has ever produced. Although Jay's main job is that of baseball coach, he will also assist with the frosh gridders.

A native of Garland, Utah, he was all-conference halfback for the Aggies for four consecutive seasons, and he was Little All-American (1st string) and All-American (2nd and 3rd strings) selection his senior year. He also played varsity basketball for the Aggies.

His baseball team won division, Skyline, and district NCAA crowns last spring.

ROD KIMBALL, TRAINER

Veteran member of the staff is Trainer Rod Kimball, who has served all but one of the last 21 years in this position. Long in experience and know-how, Rod is among the most popular men on campus.

A native of Jordan, Utah, Rod was an outstanding athlete and student leader at Jordan High. He won letters in two sports at Utah State and BYU in his college days, and in 1937 he was chosen as trainer for Cougar teams. Since then he has traveled countless miles with BYU teams, conditioning athletes and attending their ills.

PROSPECTUS

In the Spring of 1956 when Hal Kopp first set foot on campus as head coach, he had BYU's football program pretty well outlined. The staff, he said, would have to recruit two good freshman teams back to back before the Cougars could be expected to join the Skyline contenders.

This fall the players recruited in '56 will be suiting up as juniors, and the second crop, last year's freshmen, will be joining the varsity as sophomores. And now, to nobody's surprise, the Cougars are ready to at least make a bid for the championship.

Since Brigham Young University has never won a football title in the Skyline, or any other conference for that matter, this must be regarded as a most ambitious undertaking, especially with a team of juniors. Reference to a "team of juniors" stems from the fact that there are only ten seniors on the team, and the sophomores, good as they are, have yet to play in a varsity game.

On paper the squad looks promising, for these reasons:

Only three regulars from last year's second place team will not be returning for 1958. In all the Cougars lose 11 lettermen.

A total of 28 lettermen of varying shades of experience and talent are returning, which means that every position will have at least one, perhaps two, lettermen.

There is a large, impressive group of sophomores reporting, plus three or four mission returnees and one transfer.

All this would add up to a real rosy picture for the Cougars, if it were not for the unknown elements that often alter the best laid plans. The fact that there may not be enough experience on the 1958 squad to go the distance is another distinct possibility.

In the key quarterback spot BYU will have the services of Wayne Startin, senior co-captain, who looked very good in the spring game. Gary Dunn, a fine triple-threat, will also fit into the signal-calling with Ron Startin and Bud Belnap, although the three are shy experience.

There are one or two soft spots in the line and backfield, but some shifts in personnel and additional grooming could fortify these positions by the time the season is underway.

The 1958 schedule, too, should break a little better for the Cougars this year. Where last year's team had to meet Arizona, Kansas State, Utah and Wyoming on the road in the first half of play, the Cats have only to face, Utah, College of Pacific and CSU away from home over the same period.

OPPONENTS

No. 1 -- FRESNO STATE

Sept. 20 — 8:05 in Provo

Location Fresno, California
 Enrollment 5,500
 Nickname Bulldogs
 Colors Cardinal and Blue
 Conference California Athletic Assn.
 Stadium Bulldog Stadium (15,000)
 Offensive System Wing-T
 Head Coach Clark VanGalder (LaCrosse '32)
 Athletic Publicity Director Ed Piston

OUTLOOK—Despite loss of fullback Dean Philpott, Little All-America back, the Bulldogs are favored again to win CAA title. Coach Van Galder has plenty of veteran material with big line, solid backfield. Seventeen lettermen returning from last year's team which beat Cougars handily.

SERIES HISTORY— This series began in 1956, and the Cougars are still looking for that first victory. FSC won 26-13 game in '56, came back last year to win 27-14. Bulldogs had a 5-5 record in 1957.

No. 2 -- UTAH

Sept. 27 — 8:05 in Salt Lake City

Location Salt Lake City
 Enrollment 9,000
 Nickname Utes, Redskins
 Colors Crimson and White
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium University Stadium (30,000)
 Offensive System Straight-T
 Head Coach Ray Nagel (UCLA '50)
 Athletic Publicity Director Harry James

OUTLOOK— Despite loss of 18 lettermen from '57 championship team, the Utes aren't singing the blues. Lee Grosscup, passer delux and All-American quarterback, leads 17 returning lettermen. Going won't be easy, but new coach, Ray Nagel, expects to bolster squad with transfer talent.

SERIES HISTORY—This is a history? In 33 games since 1922 the Utes have won all but one game (1942, 7-12), which must make this most lopsided in nation. Utes easily blanked Cats, 27-0 last year. Record now stands at 28 wins for Utah, one for BYU, four ties. Utes blanked BYU, 49-0, in first game played in 1922, and things haven't improved much since then.

OPPONENTS

No. 3 -- COLORADO STATE

Oct. 4 — 8:05 in Fort Collins

Location Fort Collins, Colorado
 Enrollment 5,500
 Nickname Rams
 Colors Green and Gold
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium Colorado Field (14,000)
 Offensive System Split-T
 Head Coach Don Mullison (CSU '50)
 Athletic Publicity Director J. R. Allred

OUTLOOK—Reports say last season's mediocre season and mediocre frosh team promise little for 1958. But spring game gave strong hint of power. Ten lettermen lost, 19 returning; even so, depth lacking. Rams not to be taken lightly on any account, particularly on their field.

SERIES HISTORY— This series began in 1922, and Rams hold a commanding lead with 15 wins, five losses. Only tie was two years ago, 0-0, at Ft. Collins. BYU won, 26-9, last year in Provo. Biggest margin of series was 35-0 CSU win of 1955.

No. 4 -- COP

Oct. 11 — 8:05 in Stockton

Location Stockton, California
 Enrollment 1,500
 Nickname Tigers
 Colors Orange and Black
 Conference Independent
 Stadium Pacific Memorial (35,975)
 Offensive System Spred T-formation
 Head Coach Jack (Moose) Myers (UCLA '48)
 Athletic Publicity Director Carroll R. Doty

OUTLOOK—Experts still regard the Tigers as the best independent football team in the West. Coach Myers lost star passer, Tom Flores, so the accent may be from passing to running with left halfback Dick Bass spearheading the attack. If Bass can stay off injured list this season, the Tigers will really roar. A total of 14 lettermen returning, 11 in line.

SERIES HISTORY—This is first meeting on football field of these two schools. Most forecasters are willing to grant COP a healthy edge in this game, because of experience and home field advantage.

OPPONENTS

No. 5 -- NORTH TEXAS STATE

Oct. 18 — 1:30 in Provo

Location Denton, Texas
 Enrollment 6,212
 Nickname Eagles
 Colors Green and White
 Conference Missouri Valley
 Stadium Fouts Field (20,000)
 Offensive System T-formation
 Head Coach Odus Mitchell (W. Texas St. '25)
 Athletic Publicity Director James L. Rogers

OUTLOOK—A hardluck squad last year (5-5) record, the Eagles look to better things this year. With 21 lettermen returning, there's a good chance for some fierce battles for the starting positions. NTS has excellent starting backfield, but remains weak in some line positions, particularly at end. Coach Mitchell's boys finished second in Missouri Valley, should be strong in 1958.

SERIES HISTORY—First meeting between the two schools.

No. 6 -- MONTANA

Oct. 25 — 1:30 in Missoula

Location Missoula, Montana
 Enrollment 3,000
 Nicknames Grizzlies, Silvertips
 Colors Copper, Silver, Gold
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium Dornblaser Field (10,000)
 Offensive System Single-Wing
 Head Coach Ray Jenkins
 Athletic Publicity Director Bob Gilluly

OUTLOOK—Ray Jenkins, former assistant at Colorado, replaces Jerry Williams as head coach, and the Grizzlies will change systems also; single wing with multiple offense. Twenty-seven letter men returning, including All-American candidate Stan Renning. Earl Keeley, great passing prospect, has left for the pros. They should be able to improve on 2-7-0 record of '57.

SERIES HISTORY—First game between two schools was in 1941, and Cougars now hold slight 6-4 edge in series, winning last year, 20-7, at Provo. Scores, like series, have been very close.

OPPONENTS

No. 7 -- UTAH STATE

Nov. 1 — 1:30 in Logan

Location Logan, Utah
 Enrollment 5,100
 Nickname Aggies, Farmers
 Colors Navy Blue and White
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium Romney (9,500)
 Offensive System Split-T
 Head Coach Ev Faunce (Minn. '48)
 Athletic Publicity Director Karl W. Klages

OUTLOOK—Aggies expect to jump from last place finish in '57 to first division position in '58. Ten lettermen are returning, and weak positions will be at center and quarterback, consequently may rely on running game. All-Conference boys coming back are Gary Kapp (LE) and Overton Curtis (LHB).

SERIES HISTORY—Utah State holds series edge with 19 wins, 11 losses, three ties. Teams met for first time in 1922, and these have been some lop-sided scores since then. Wagon wheel is big trophy in this one, and the Cougars brought it back to campus last year with 14-7 win in snow storm at Provo.

No. 8 -- NEW MEXICO

Nov. 8 — New Mexico in Provo
(HOMECOMING)

Location Albuquerque, New Mexico
 Enrollment 5,000
 Nickname Lobos, Wolfpack
 Colors Cherry and Silver
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium Zimmerman Field (11,500)
 Offensive System T-formation
 Head Coach Marvin Levy (Coe '50)
 Athletic Publicity Director George McFadden

OUTLOOK—Nobody wants to hazard a guess, after the way the Lobos collapsed at mid-season last year. There are 19 lettermen returning, including All Conference halfback Don Perkins, best running back in Skyline. Marv Levy replaces Dick Clausen as head coach.

SERIES HISTORY—BYU balanced the series score last year with close 14-12 decision in Albuq. Record now stands at 3-3-1. Lobos walloped the Cats, 34-0, in first meeting in 1951 to launch an exciting series.

OPPONENTS

No. 9 -- DENVER

Nov. 15 — 1:30 in Denver

Location Denver, Colorado
 Enrollment 5,500
 Nickname Pioneers
 Colors Crimson and Gold
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium Denver Stadium (27,500)
 Offensive System Split-T
 Head Coach John Roning (Minn. '35)
 Athletic Publicity Director Don Smith

OUTLOOK—An optimistic John Roning admits "We definitely will be a very good football team . . . a contender for the 1958 championship." Total of 24 lettermen returning from third place team of '57, plus 11 transfer candidates. Experienced hands in every position. Consequently, the experts feel this is the team to beat for the title. Outlook the brightest in years.

SERIES HISTORY—First meeting was in 1933, and the series now stands at 14-5 for the Pioneers. Two years ago the Cats were humiliated, 58-34, at Denver, came back last year at homecoming to win, 25-6. Title could be determined in this one.

No. 10 -- WYOMING

Nov. 22 — 1:30 in Provo

Location Laramie, Wyoming
 Enrollment 3,500
 Nickname Cowboys
 Colors Brown and Yellow
 Conference Skyline
 Stadium War Memorial (18,000)
 Offensive System Multiple Offense
 Head Coach Robert Devaney (Alma '39)
 Athletic Publicity Director Wiles Hallock

OUTLOOK—Transfers join 17 lettermen, promising crop of sophomores to form what some believe to be best team in the league. Good defense, improved offense will put the Cowboys among the contenders.

SERIES HISTORY—The Cougars hold ever-so-slight edge with 13-11-3 record in series than began in 1922. Recent games have been very close, and last year's game in a snow storm at Laramie was a scoreless tie. It's been ten years since the Cougars last beat Wyoming.

OFFENSE: Blanked twice in '57, Cougars should roll better, longer this season. Enough single-wing talent (tailbacks Gary Dunn and Keith Hubbs) to toss in few surprises. Running game stronger, passing might vacillate.

DEFENSE: Generally, should be improved over last year. Good, strong line with depth, but passing defense a question mark.

EXPERIENCE: Believe it or not, experience could be soft spot. Half team (sophomores) have yet to play in a varsity game. While there is a large number of lettermen returning, experience is spread thin.

SIZE: While line poundage will be going up, the majority of the backs are light again this year. Nyle McFarlane and Dean Christensen are only big (close to 190) halfbacks.

DEPTH: Very good . . . on paper. Every position has one letterman, and in some positions the competition will be fierce.

SPEED: Backs will be as fast, maybe faster, in '58. Line speed about average. A few linemen very fast for size.

RUNNING: Wide assortment of runners. Lewis, McGinn, Hubbs, Chamberlain for speed; Ringwood, McFarlane, Christensen and fullbacks for power.

PASSING: Wayne Startin, with two years experience, looks like good bet. Gary Dunn, Ron Startin and Bud Belnap must prove themselves, although Dunn pitched well in frosh games.

KICKING: Punting chores in good hands with Dunn, Wayne Startin, Belnap. Kickoff and PAT assignments not jelled as yet.

GAME BROADCASTS

For the seventh consecutive season Radio KSL of Salt Lake City will team with Phillips Oil in broadcasting all of the Cougars' football games at home and on the road.

Western radio audiences will head play-by-play accounts of each game as described by Dean Bennett, veteran sportscaster for Utah's 50,000-watt station (1160 on the radio dial).
