UNIVERSITY & ACADEMICS

BYU provides an opportunity for athletes to grow mentally, physically and spiritually. BYU's honor code requires a drug and alcohol-free commitment from its students, helping them to focus on academic and athletic endeavors. Year after year BYU leads the Mountain West in the number of national and conference academic honors.

SCHEDULE & OPPONENTS

BYU traditionally schedules one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country. In the last 15 years BYU has earned victories over Miami (Fla.), Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Oregon, Washington, Penn State, Cal, Texas A&M, Virginia, Arizona State and Kansas State. Upcoming opponents include: Florida State, UCLA, Arizona State, Arizona, Washington.

30 YEARS OF CHAMPIONSHIPS

For BYU football, the past 32 years have been packed full of championships, bowl games and national honors. Since 1974 BYU has played in 25 bowl games, won one national championship and 21 conference championships and earned 15 national top-25 finishes, including four top-10 finishes. Cougar football has a long-established tradition of winning.

NATIONAL TV EXPOSURE

With 35 nationally and regionally televised games over the last six years, BYU football is in the spotlight. Thanks to a strong national following, winning tradition, and the Cougars' high-profile schedule in upcoming years, the national exposure of BYU Football is sure to increase. BYU also has four of the top-10 largest audiences in ESPN history.

BYU—A PLACE FOR WINNERS

BYU is home to 62 All-American honorees, the 1990 Heisman Trophy winner, the 2001 Doak Walker Award winner, four Davey O'Brien Award winners, two Outland Trophy winners, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy winners, and a two-time National Coach of the Year winner. Truly, BYU is a place for winners.

FAN & COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Few universities have a fan base as loyal, dedicated and die-hard as BYU. Cougar fans are some of the greatest fans on earth. Since 1982 BYU has consistently ranked among the top five in attendance in the West (63,333 per game). Thanks to its affiliation with the LDS Church, BYU has a strong national following bringing thousands to away games.

TRADITION & NATIONAL HONORS

Since the 1970s, BYU has established itself as one of the top football programs in the West. The Cougars have won nearly 80 percent of their conference games and 70 percent of all their games since 1972. Off the field, the Cougars have also excelled. BYU has earned 26 Academic All-American citations and consistently lead the MWC in academics.

FACILITIES

BYU has invested millions over the past five years to upgrade its football facilities. Upgrades include: a new weight room, indoor practice facility, football offices and team meeting rooms, athletic training facilities, FieldTurf practice field, football hall of fame, and new locker rooms at both 64,045-seat LaVell Edwards Stadium and in the new Student Athlete Building.

PRO FOOTBALL PREPARATION

BYU football is a great place to launch an NFL career. Over the past 20 years BYU has had 57 players taken in the NFL draft, including 28 players over the past 11 years. BYU also has had nine first-round draft picks. This year 24 former BYU players are on NFL rosters—that's one of the most by any college team in the west once again.

STYLE OF PLAY

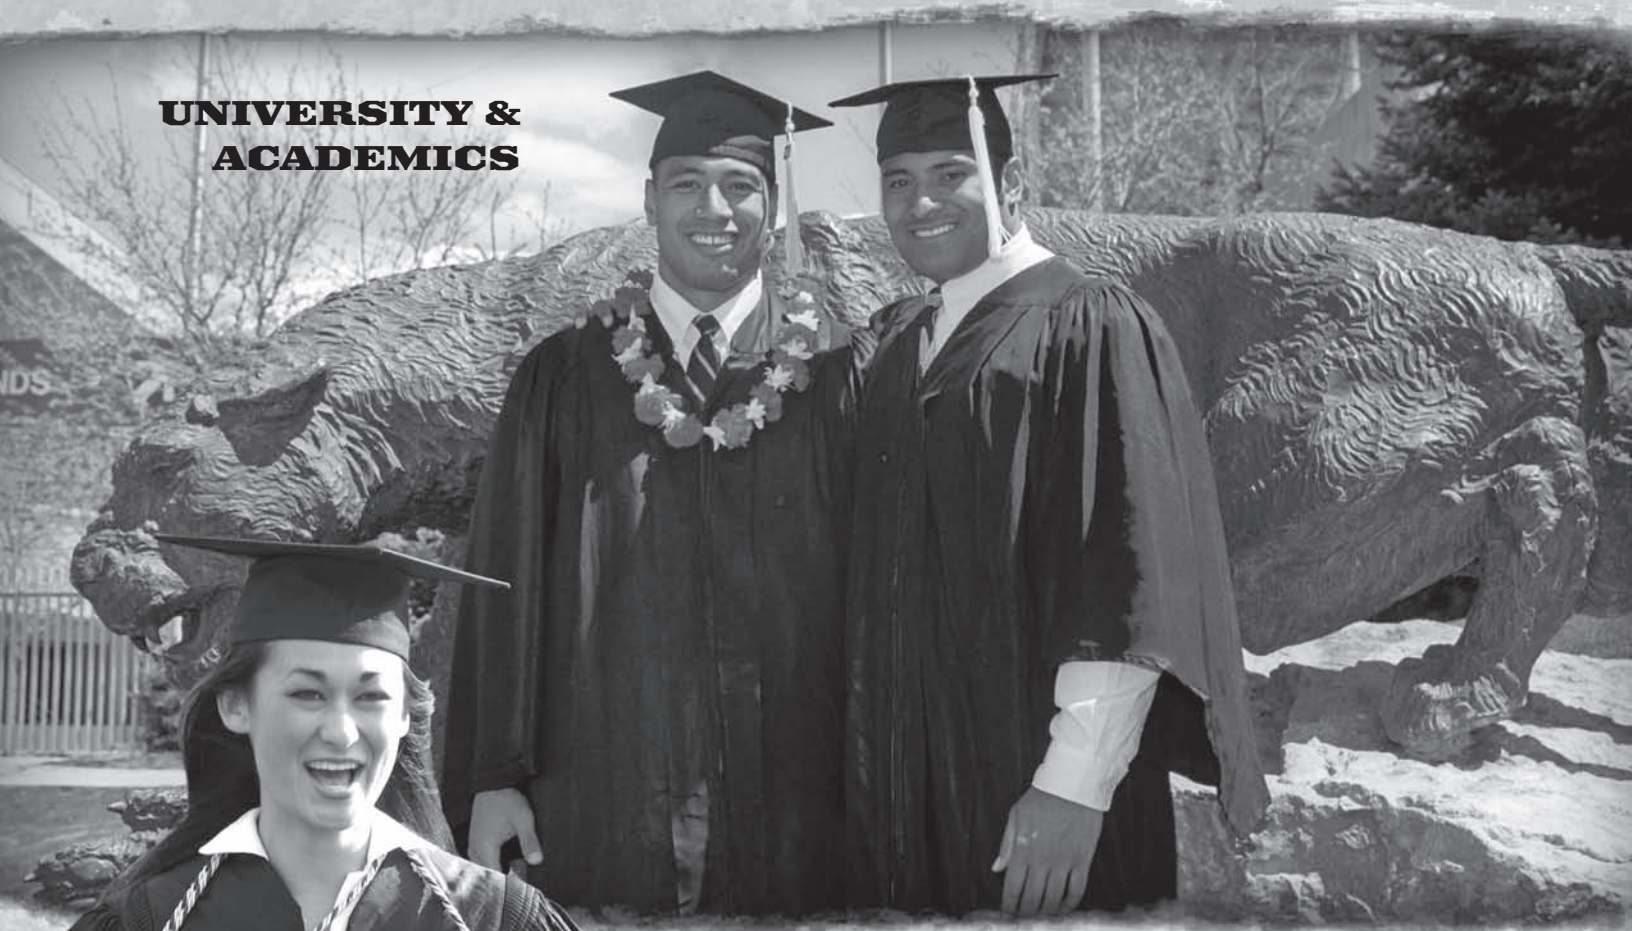

Cougar football plays the style of football that fans love to watch and players love to play. Wide-open, fast, furious, high-energy offense and defense are trademarks of BYU football. According to head coach Bronco Mendenhall: "We will continue to have an aggressive defense, along with an up-tempo, high-powered offense. Our goal is to be as exciting and competitive as any team in the country."

RAISING THE BAR IN 2007

2007 COUGAR FOOTBALL SEASON PREVIEW

DALLAS REYNOLDS

Coming off a Mountain West Conference championship season that included a 38-8 victory over Oregon in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl and the nation's second longest active win streak at 10 straight games, the 2007 BYU football team will no doubt enter the season with high expectations. Why else would this year's team theme be "Raise the Bar."

In 2006, the team finished with an 11-2 record, went undefeated at home and in conference play, and won the Mountain West Conference Championship for the first time since 2001. The offense was ranked fourth in the country and the team finished with a No. 15 ranking in the national polls. It was a season that saw senior running back Curtis Brown break BYU's all-time rushing record and senior quarterback John Beck moved into second place statistically amongst the many BYU greats in school history.

Hearing that many have declared "BYU is back," head coach Bronco Mendenhall isn't quite ready to call last season's success enough to declare the program's restoration complete. According to Mendenhall, consistency is the key, not just one winning season.

"There have been many that have claimed that BYU football is back, and our program has returned," Mendenhall said. "We're just beginning. Our current program, in relation to what it once was, will be viewed as matching or being similar once consistency is established. That comes with repeated championships, with sustained success, and with performance at a very high level over time. So, our goals and our objectives are now to provide consistency to the program at the current level at which we're playing."

Mendenhall believes one winning season isn't enough, and has asked the players and coaching staff to prepare and play at a higher level.

"Now that we have been 11-2, now that we have a 10-game winning streak, now that we were No. 15 in the country, now that we have been undefeated at home, the team has been asked to play at a higher level," he said. "While this year's record may not be identical and the results might not be identical, we don't intend to be satisfied with the level of play, so I have asked for more. Raising the bar is what the theme will be for this upcoming year, and has been since the off-season."

On paper, achieving that higher level of play may be challenging for the 2007 Cougars after losing both team captains in Beck and linebacker Cameron Jensen, along with Brown, Jonny Harline, Jake Kuresa, Nate Meikle, Daniel Coats, and a number of other major contributors. However, Mendenhall and his staff are confident that, despite the losses, the team is ready to meet the challenge head-on.

"I think you now start to talk about program maturity," Mendenhall said. "Is a program defined by its individuals or is the program defined by how it develops players? This will be a great test as to where exactly we are. We believe we have great, young talent. We believe we have great existing young talent at quarterback, at running back, at tight end, at H receiver, and eight of 11 returning on defense. What will be scrutinized and what will be evaluated is if the program is ready to just simply plug in new players that have been developed, that have been taught, that have been directed towards leadership and just need experience and an opportunity."

OFFENSIVE PREVIEW

The 2006 Cougars skillfully put together one of the most potent offensive schemes in the nation. The team posted an average of more than 36 points a game, which was fifth best in the nation, and outscored its opponents by more than 22 points a game. BYU ranked fourth in total offense (465.46 ypg), fourth in passing offense (323.5) and second in turnovers lost (13).

Although key players from the 2006 Mountain West Conference championship team are gone, including the likes of Beck, Brown, Harline, Coats and Kuresa, Mendenhall and his staff are optimistic about offensive production in 2007.

"This offense is very difficult to stop, makes plays in critical situations and is coached at a very high level," he said. "The offensive staff functioned at the highest level of any staff that I have ever seen in my years of coaching."

In 2007, the Cougars will have to reload at several skill positions in order to enjoy the success they experience in 2006 -- a task Mendenhall says may be less difficult than it appears because of the way the offense is designed.

"There are new faces at several positions," Mendenhall said. "We have an existing scheme that is proven to work regardless of talent."

QUARTERBACK

Beck left big shoes to fill for the 2007 quarterback position. Beck started games in all four of his playing seasons and moved into second place in BYU history in passing yards (11,021) and total offense (11,059) during the 2006

"There have been many that have claimed that BYU football is back, and our program has returned," Mendenhall said. "We're just beginning. Our current program, in relation to what it once was, will be viewed as matching or being similar once consistency is established. That comes with repeated championships, with sustained success, and with performance at a very high level over time. So, our goals and our objectives are now to provide consistency to the program at the current level at which we're playing."

season. However, sophomore quarterback Max Hall has been tapped as Beck's successor and will look to continue the Cougars' offensive momentum.

Hall signed with Arizona State out of Mountain View High School in Mesa, Ariz. He redshirted his freshman season in Tempe before serving a church mission. Hall sat out the 2006 season to satisfy NCAA transfer rules, gaining a valuable year of experience, learning the high-powered BYU offense.

Junior college transfer Brenden Gaskins will enter Fall Camp as the No. 2 quarterback. Gaskins originally signed with Nevada out of high school and redshirted his freshman season in Reno; however, after returning from a church mission, he elected to play at Glendale CC. Gaskins was a second-team all-league performer for Glendale, leading the Gauchos to a 9-2 record as an Academic All-America performer.

Other quarterbacks competing for action include redshirt freshman Sam Doman, sophomore Kurt McEuen and incoming freshman Jason Munns.

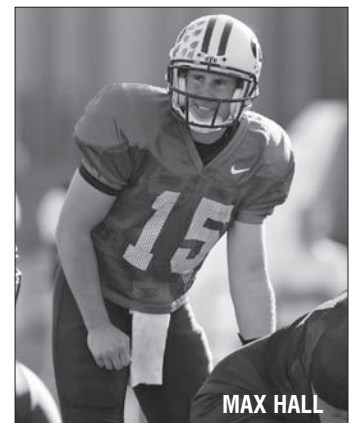

RUNNING BACK

Brown became the all-time leading rusher in 2006 with 3,193 career-rushing yards. He also leaves after having led the offense with 62 receptions, kick returns (22.2 avg.) and all-purpose yards (143.4 ypg), which was good for eighth in the nation. The hole he leaves in 2007 will be yet another opportunity for a younger player to step into the limelight and under the microscope. The core of young backs on the Cougars' roster is still experienced and promising.

Fan-favorite Fui Vakapuna will likely anchor the back position as Brown did in previous years. He scored eight touchdowns in 2006 and averaged 4.8 yards a carry as a principle backup to Brown in 2006. The Cougars also return Harvey Unga from injury, Wayne Latu, who redshirted last season, Manase Tonga, who Mendenhall said was the most consistent rusher in 2006, and fullback Joe Semanoff.

MICHAEL REED & MATT ALLEN

Add to the mix incoming freshman J.J. Di Luigi, who led his team to a California state championship and the Cougars still appear loaded at the position.

"I like who we have at running back," Mendenhall said. "I think we're capable and I think we won't miss a beat, even though we are losing the school's all-time leading rusher."

WIDE RECEIVER

Zac Collie, McKay Jacobson and Nate Meikle were three of BYU's top receivers in 2006 that are off the 2007 roster due to either a mission or graduation. With the trio leaving the Cougars lose a combined 75 receptions and 1,288 yards.

FUI VAKAPUNA

However, the receiver position is one of the few on the offensive side that returns a number of starters and high-level producers. Michael Reed (25 catches, 339 yards) and Matt Allen (27 catches 420 yards) return to support a new Cougar quarterback along with Bryce Mahuika off of injury and Austin Collie off a mission.

Collie will look to make an immediate impact after two years away. He was a Freshman All-American in 2004 prior to leaving on his mission. He led the 2004 Cougars with 53 catches and eight touchdown receptions while racking up 771 receiving yards.

"Wide receiver is also a place that you could view as a strength," Mendenhall said. "Mike Reed and Matt Allen provide us with some great experience at the position. The other contributing players will fill in as they battle through spring, but it is a position that has to be viewed equally to what it was last year, which I thought was a solid performance."

BRYCE MAHIKA

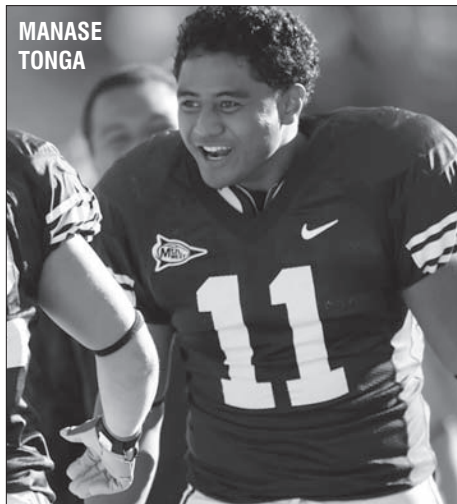

Allen played all 13 games at wide receiver and caught three touchdowns on an average of 15.6 yards per reception in 2006. Reed played in 12 games and also caught three touchdown passes in 2006.

TIGHT END

The tight end position has been one of the deepest position on the Cougar roster in recent years with Jonny Harline and Daniel Coats both providing scoring opportunities for BYU on a regular basis. In fact, BYU was the only school in the NCAA to send two tight ends to the NFL combine prior to the NFL draft.

Harline, an All-American in several publications, led the 2006 Cougars with 935 receiving yards and 12 receiving touchdowns and was named MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl. Coats is a four-year significant contributor both as a blocker and a receiver.

Returning to fill those spots for the blue and white are Dennis Pitta coming off a mission, Vic So'oto, who redshirted last year, and Andrew George, who played a limited role last year behind Harline and Coats. Pitta led all BYU tight ends with 17 receptions in 2004 prior to leaving on his mission.

The Cougars also added significant talent through recruiting this season. BYU signed prized recruits Braden Brown, Kaneakua Friel and Devin Mahina.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Three of last year's starters on the offensive line return for BYU in 2007. Jake Kuresa and Eddie Keele are gone from the tackle positions, but the middle three of Sete Aulai at center and Ray Feinga and Travis Bright at the guards are back to provide stability in the front. Also back is tackle David Oswald who had three starts and significant playing time in 2006. Not only are the three starters in the middle back, Mendenhall believes that the offensive line is the deepest position on the 2007 roster.

VIC SO'OTO

"If I were to say where is the most talent, where is the most experience, where is the most depth on this year's offensive football team, it is at the offensive line," Mendenhall said. "We believe we have between 11 and 13 players that will compete for playing time. "

Some of those other players include Garrett Reden, Walter Kahaialii and Nick Alletto from last year's team. The team has also added R.J. Willing returning from his mission. Willing started nine games as a true freshman in 2004. Junior college transfer Levi Mack and Tom Sorensen, a transfer from Vanderbilt who redshirted last season after suffering an ACL tear in Fall Camp, will compete for playing time.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

The 2006 Cougar defense was one of the most efficient defenses in the nation. Only three teams in the nation had better turnover ratios than BYU (Minnesota, Boston College, and Kentucky) and the team was ranked 10th in scoring defense at the end of the season. Although Jensen, the defensive captain and anchor of the linebacker squad, was lost to graduation, the defense still returns seven starters and Mendenhall is confident in the defense he constructed.

"The only thing that the defense needs is more experience in the system," he said. "We believe, much like the offense, we can improve in fundamentals, we can improve on position mastery, and we can improve on execution."

In 2006, the Cougars gave up over 30 points on only two occasions (Boston

"Now that we have been 11-2, now that we have a 10-game winning streak, now that we were No. 15 in the country, now that we have been undefeated at home, the team has been asked to play at a higher level. While this year's record may not be identical and the results might not be identical, we don't intend to be satisfied with the level of play, so I have asked for more. Raising the bar is what the theme will be for this upcoming year, and has been since the off-season." "

— Bronco Mendenhall, BYU Head Coach

Judd Anderton and Kyle Luekenga also return after seeing significant time on the field last season. The Cougars will also have junior college transfer Mosese Foketi, who redshirted last season, and Brett Denney, who saw action in eight games.

"I think our second tier of Judd Anderton, Kyle Luekenga, Mosese Foketi, and Brett Denney are all quality players and their roles will be increased from what they were a year ago," Mendenhall said.

LINEBACKERS

The primary reason motivating Mendenhall to switch from the 3-3-5 defensive alignment to the 3-4 defense was talent at linebacker. Even with the loss of All-MWC performer and College and Utah) and did not allow more than 31 in any one game during the season. With a 38-0 victory over Utah State, the defense picked up its first shutout victory since 1999. The Cougars held offensive powerhouse Oregon to a season-low eight points in a 38-8 Las Vegas Bowl victory to end the season.

"I was very pleased to address in year one what we considered most important, and that's points," Mendenhall said. "The defense was designed specifically with that in place and that is what it produced."

BYU's defense ranked 10th in the nation in scoring defense, giving up only 14.7 points per game in 2006. With increased experience in most positions and a plethora of talent returning, the Cougars are likely to have another successful season keeping their opponents out of the end zone.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive line was young in 2006, but they are experienced in 2007. The Cougars had five different linemen playing on the first and second team defensive line last season.

BYU loses one of two defensive linemen who started every game in Hala Paongo. The Cougars return Freshman All-American Jan Jorgensen, who tied Paongo for the team lead in sacks with four.

Also returning this season is Ian Dulan, who played in seven games and started five before being sidelined for the rest of the year with a broken leg. Russell Tialavea, who earned the starting job midway through the season, also returns at nose tackle.

"The defensive line, I would view as a strength also," Mendenhall said. "We were young starting freshman last year, other than Hala Paongo."

team captain Jensen, the Cougars are still loaded at the linebacker position.

"Linebacker is still our strength," Mendenhall said. "It is still the most athletic position and still the deepest position on the defense."

Stepping in for Jensen at the middle linebacker position will be Kelly Poppinga. Poppinga recorded 36 tackles, two sacks and two interceptions in 2006 while playing outside linebacker.

"We're moving Kelly to mike linebacker to replace Cameron Jensen," Mendenhall said. "He's a fantastic leader with a very similar skill set as Cameron. We think he is a great heir apparent to that spot."

The Cougars will also have experience in the middle with Markell Staffieri and Shawn Doman. Staffieri, who was hampered all season with a nagging hamstring injury, recorded 18 tackles in a limited roll. Doman saw action in 12 games last season.

BYU has plenty of talent, leadership and experience at the outside linebacker positions as well. Senior Bryan Kehl and junior David Nixon add speed and the ability to disrupt plays and get into the opponents' backfields. Kehl is the leading returning tackler from last season. He had 70 tackles on the season, three sacks and eight tackles for a loss of 33 yards. Kehl also made his presence felt on pass defense as he had six pass breakups on the season. Nixon led the team last year with 10.5 tackles for a loss and added three sacks. Chris Bolden and Dan Van Sweden also return with experience from last season.

"The reason we changed from 3-3-5 to 3-4 was our talent at linebacker and our ability to recruit players at that position over time, which has been proven before and as we look forward," Mendenhall said.

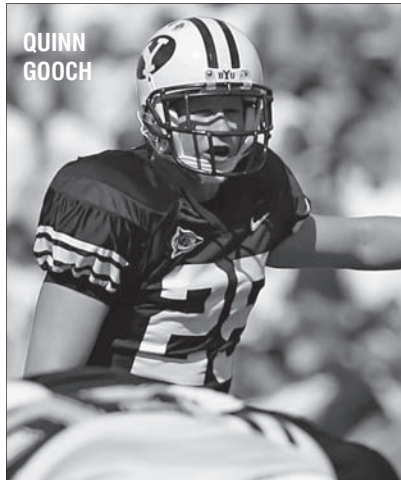

Mendenhall said. "With only one year in the system we expect to take a substantial jump again in year two."

SPECIAL TEAMS

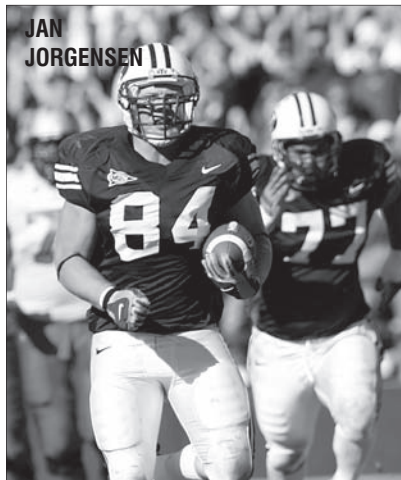

Both of BYU's kickers from 2006 are gone as both Derek and Jared McLaughlin graduated. Expected to fill both the punter and place kicker positions is redshirt freshman Mitch Payne, younger brother of former BYU punter/kicker Matt Payne.

KELLY POPPINGA

SAFETY

Very little change will occur at the safety position as the Cougars transition from 2006 to 2007. Returning starters Quinn Gooch and Dustin Gabriel are back with plenty experience behind them. Gooch led all defensive backs with 66 tackles and was named Second Team All-MWC. Gabriel had 37 tackles and an interception returned for a touchdown.

Reserves Corby Hodgkiss and David Tafuna saw action in most of the BYU games last season. Add redshirt Kellen Fowler and two newly recruited freshmen in Jordan Pendleton and Stephen Thomas and the Cougars will have plenty of depth at the safety position.

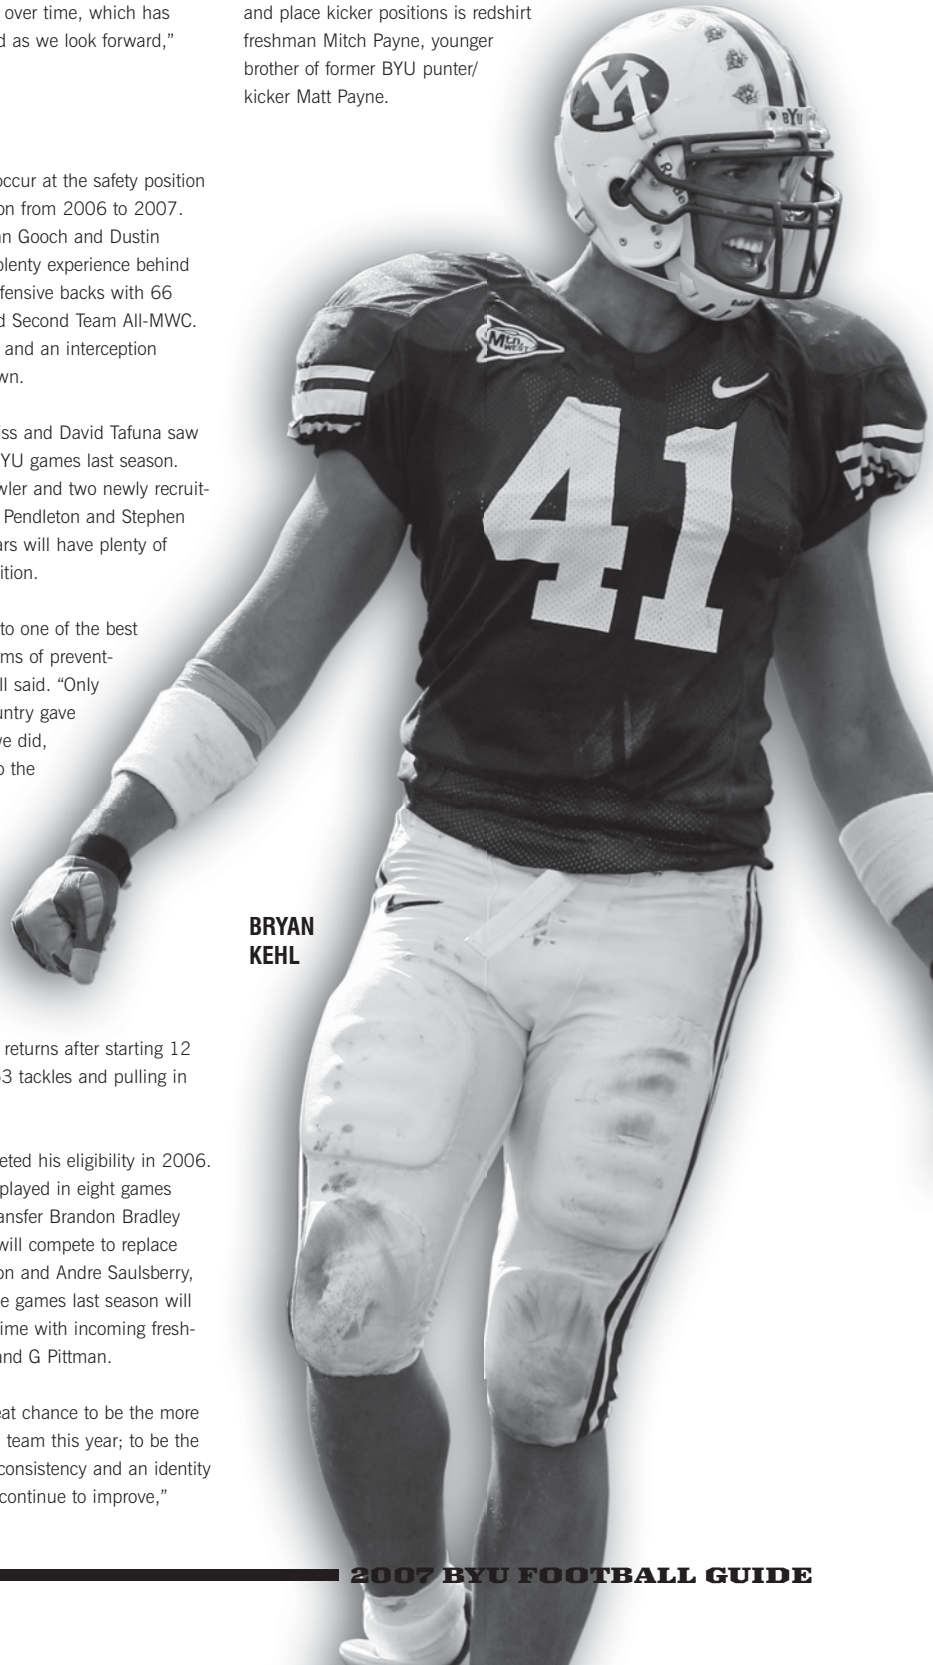

"We return all but one to one of the best units on the field in terms of preventing points," Mendenhall said. "Only nine schools in the country gave up fewer points than we did, and we attribute that to the secondary."

CORNERBACK

Walk-on Ben Criddle was arguably the most pleasant surprise of the 2006 defensive contingent and he returns after starting 12 games and recording 53 tackles and pulling in two interceptions.

Justin Robinson completed his eligibility in 2006. Kayle Buchanan, who played in eight games in 2006, along with transfer Brandon Bradley and Brandon Howard will compete to replace Robinson. Scott Johnson and Andre Saulsberry, who saw action in three games last season will also battle for playing time with incoming freshmen Brannon Brooks and G Pittman.

"The defense has a great chance to be the more experienced part of the team this year; to be the team that will provide consistency and an identity to our program and to continue to improve,"

"We have confidence in Mitch Payne in terms of his kicking ability, both place kicking and punting, going into the spring and we'll need to because he's our man," Mendenhall said.

The long-snapper position was one that the team found hard to fill in fall camp of 2006, but that problem has also been remedied coming into the 2007 spring camp.

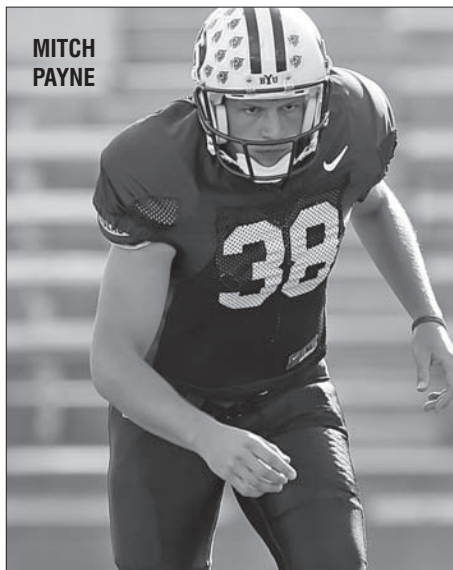

"We return all but one to one of the best units on the field in terms of preventing points. Only nine schools in the country gave up fewer points than we did, and we attribute that to the secondary."

— Bronco Mendenhall, on his defensive secondary

BYU'S STINGY DEFENSE

"We believe we have a young walk-on in our program that can be an exceptional long snapper," Mendenhall said. "We have Brett Denney, who's a defensive lineman, as a backup."

BRONCO MENDENHALL

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY'S 14TH HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Since being named the head football coach at BYU in December, 2004, Bronco Mendenhall has held fast to the vision of restoring BYU to national prominence by requiring a higher level of commitment on and off the field through accountability, effort and discipline. Equally significant in the restoration process, Mendenhall has emphasized the importance of honoring the coaches and players who have established a proud football tradition at BYU. Finally, by implementing a mission statement that outlines core values, Mendenhall has turned the tide at BYU by embracing tradition, spirit and honor.

In his first season, Mendenhall took a program that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001 and compiled a 6-5 regular-season record, a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference standings and earned a trip to a bowl game for the first time in three seasons.

Building on the success of his first-ever season as a head coach, Mendenhall and the Cougars posted an 11-2 record in 2006, winning the outright Mountain West Conference Championship with a perfect 8-0 record. BYU returned to the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl to represent the MWC—this time, as conference champions.

Along the way, BYU climbed the national polls by winning 10 straight games, including a dominating victory over Oregon in the Las Vegas Bowl. As a result, the Cougars finished the season ranked 15th in the USA Today Coaches Poll and 16th in the Associated Press Poll. At the conclusion of the regular-season, BYU was ranked 19th in the Harris Interactive Poll and 20th in the BCS rankings. The Cougars' 10-game win streak currently ranks second longest in the country and marked only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars had recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year.

In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 323.54 yards per game. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fourth in the country in total offense, producing an average 465.46 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.7 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 167.08

Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging +1.08 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 16th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.23) and 10th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 14.69 points per game -- the lowest per-game average for the Cougars since the 1985 season.

BYU outscored its opponents during the season by an average 36.7 to 14.69 (+22.01). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season. Improving its win total from six games in 2005 to 11 games in 2006, the Cougars ranked sixth in the nation with a five-game turnaround.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, Mendenhall and the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did BYU win each of its home games, it did so in record fashion. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominant team in the nation, but also they finished as the most dominant home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished the season behind the Cougars in 2006, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin.

In his first season, the Cougars finished second in the Mountain West Conference with a 5-3 record. Mendenhall and his staff coached an offense reminiscent of BYU's glory days, ranking second in the MWC in scoring and sixth in the nation in passing.

During his first season in Provo as defensive coordinator, Mendenhall engineered the nation's 14th-ranked defense, holding opponents to just 307 yards per game. Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing defense, giving up just 176.17 yards per game.

A native of Alpine, Utah, Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple has three sons: Cutter, Breaker and Raeder.

“If that’s how his (Bronco Mendenhall) teams are going to play in his tenure here, they are going to have some great football teams.”

- Gary Patterson, TCU Head Football Coach

“Coach Mendenhall is a great coach. All he preaches is excellence. All he preaches is ‘100 percent’ all of the time,”

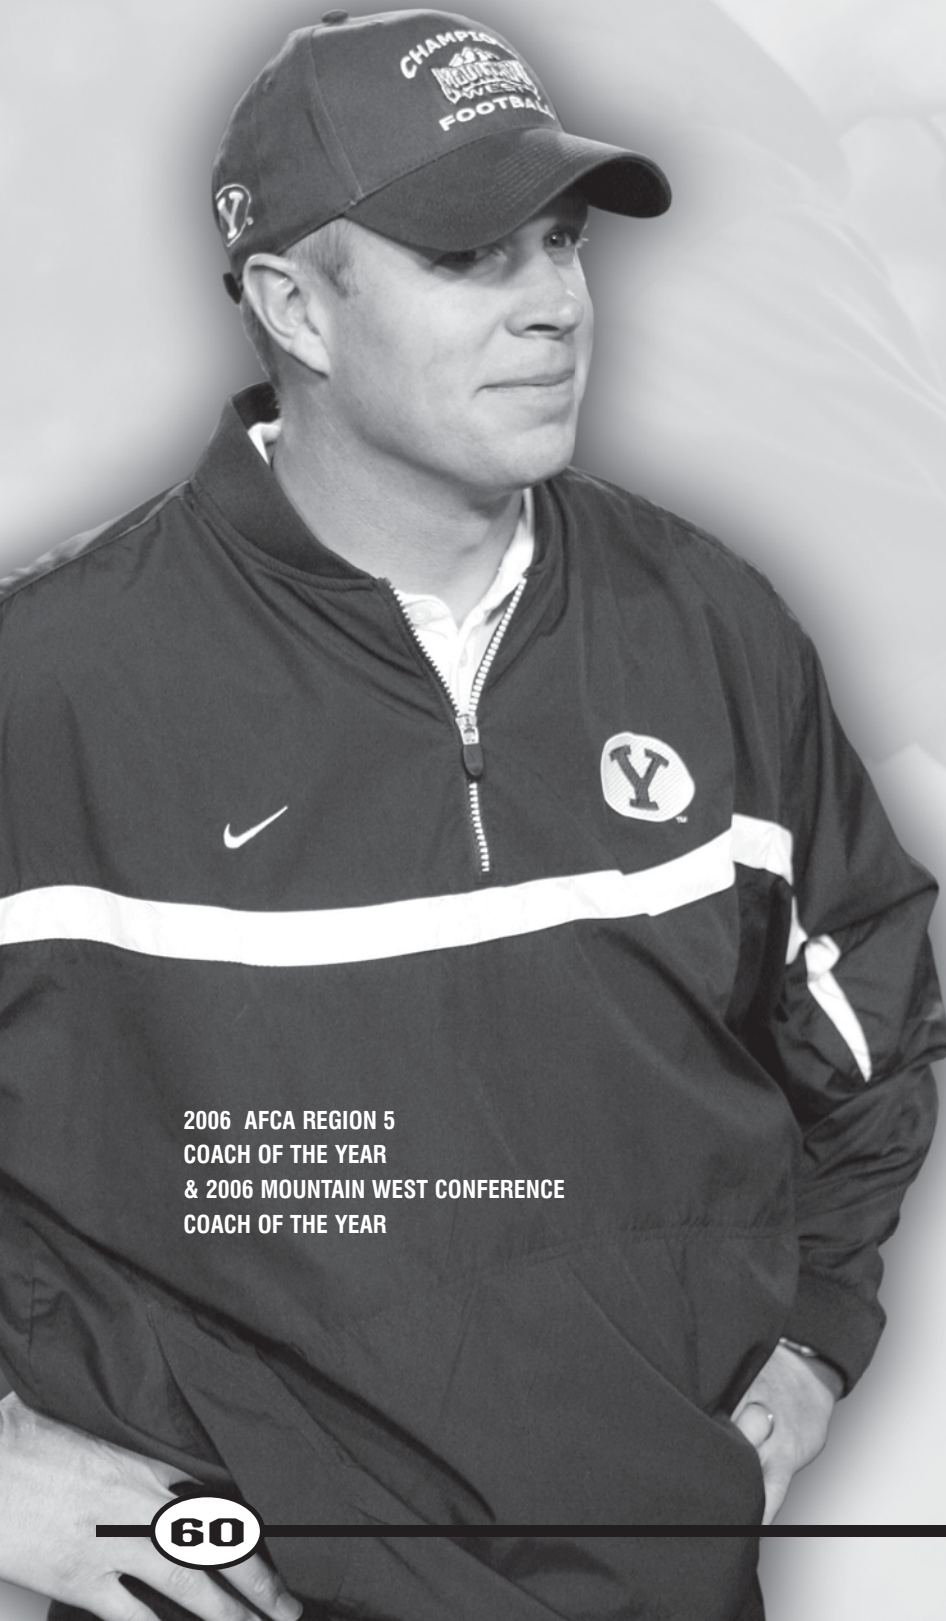

- Justin Robinson, former BYU Cornerback

“Coach Mendenhall doesn’t underestimate us. He wants to bring out the best.”

- Fui Vakapuna, current BYU RB

“He communicates exactly what the expectations are for his team. It’s very uncommon. A lot of coaches will tell recruits what they want to hear.”

- Tom Holmoe, BYU Director of Athletics

She was there for eight years before moving to football. She was the recipient of a President's Appreciation Award in 1990.

MountainWest Sports Network

ly and seasonal analysis and wrap-ups. The mtn. also takes fans off the court and behind the scenes with coverage of the latest stats, press conferences, coaching developments and more.

In addition to comprehensive coverage of the 19 MWC men's and women's sports, the mtn. features education and lifestyle content and other original programming from member institutions.

In its first year of existence in 2006-07, the mtn.'s programming schedule included coverage of more than 300 events, including 36 football games, 150 men's and women's basketball games, and more than 200 men's and women's Olympic sports contests, including conference championships. National broadcasts on CSTV and the VERSUS network enhance the league's visibility and make MWC sports even more accessible to fans. As the mtn. expands its distribution channels and as CSTV's national presence grows along with its top-10 sports Web site, www.cstv.com, the MWC, its teams and student-athletes will continue to gain even more national exposure across a variety of platforms. Together, CSTV and the mtn. will showcase the passion and pageantry of the Mountain West Conference, while delivering unparalleled 24/7 coverage to fans across the nation.

"This partnership has been years in the making," said MWC Commissioner

Craig Thompson. "From inception, the backbone of Mountain West Conference coverage has been programming on our own regional network. We are thrilled to offer this unprecedented exposure to our fans."

CSTV Networks, Inc., the new 24-hour power in college sports, is the nation's leading digital and cable programming company dedicated to college sports. CSTV, part of CBS Corporation, connects more fans to more college sports than any other company and is now available to more than 65 million households across the nation.

Building upon a successful inaugural season of MWC football in 2006, CSTV will broadcast more than 14 MWC football games this year. In addition, CSTV offers a variety of original programming and studio shows featuring expert analysis and in-depth coverage of the Mountain West Conference, in addition to the entire landscape of college football.

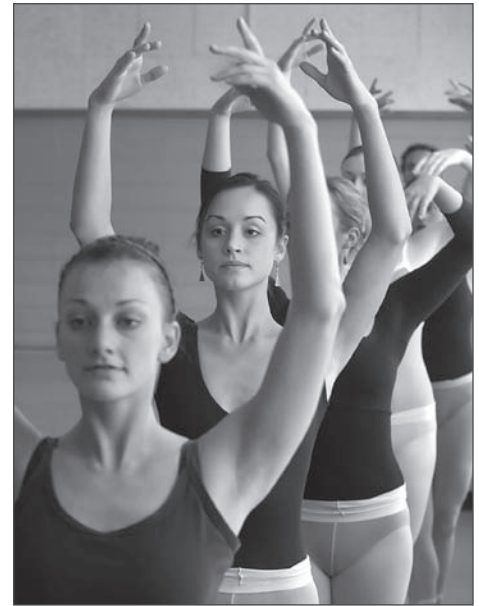

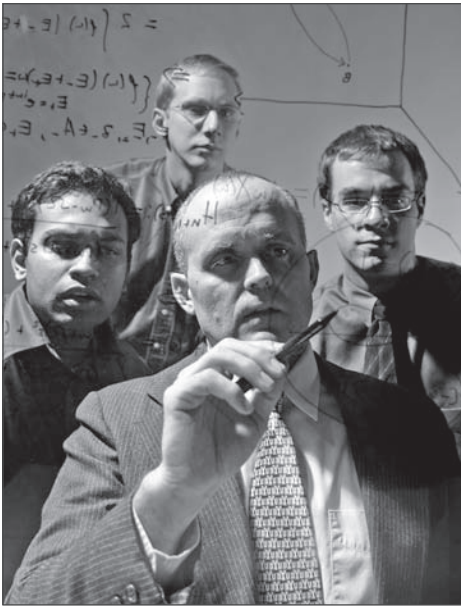

CSTV is constantly innovating and growing, and the Mountain West Conference, its teams and student-athletes, will continue to gain even more national exposure across CSTV's many platforms, which include CSTV.com and its network of nearly 215 official athletic sites, CSTV's All Access/XXL broadband services that provides live audio and video of more than 10,000 events

tive gene. The 2007 MWC Football on VERSUS schedule kicks off September 1 with a doubleheader showcasing the MWC against the country's top conferences. In total, VERSUS will carry eight college football telecasts featuring MWC schools. VERSUS celebrates real competition in all its forms. Now in more than 72 million homes, the network is the national cable home of the National Hockey League (NHL) and the Stanley Cup Playoffs as well as best-in-class events like The Tour de France, the America's Cup, the Professional Bull Riders (PBR), World Extreme Cagefighting (WEC), Professional Boxing, the Boston Marathon and Davis Cup. The network also offers collegiate sports from top conferences such as the Mountain West, Big 12 and Pac-10. VERSUS features the best field sports programming on television and is a destination for sports fans, athletes and sportsmen to find exclusive, competitive events that audiences can't find elsewhere. VERSUS, a wholly owned company of Comcast Corporation, is distributed via cable systems and satellite operators throughout the United States.

In the fall of 2006, CSTV Networks and the MWC kicked off an unprecedented 14-year relationship to offer the most in-depth coverage ever centered around one Division I-A conference. The centerpiece of this historic relationship is the launch of the mtn. ("The mountain")—MountainWest Sports Network, the first-ever sports network serving a collegiate athletic conference 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. On July 19, 2006, Comcast was named an equity partner in the mtn.

The mtn. delivers more access to MWC sports coverage than has ever been offered before and brings fans more coverage of the teams, rivalries and action of the MWC. In addition to live game coverage, fans get a comprehensive array of news, features and analysis about their favorite MWC teams and players. The mtn.'s anchors and reporters provide viewers with extensive pregame, halftime and postgame coverage as well as week-

THE BYU HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into 560 acres and 97 academic buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being 1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

“Our education should be such as to improve our minds and fit us for increased usefulness; to make us of greater service to the human family.” - Brigham Young

EXCEPTIONAL ACADEMICS AND OPPORTUNITIES

BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS SETTING

Located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City, Provo, Utah, is a city of more than 115,000 situated 4,500 feet above sea level. The campus sits at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains, part of the Rocky Mountain Range. Surrounded by mountains, Provo is at the heart of Utah Valley with a combined population of more than 440,000. Utah Valley is framed by the 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west and 11,750-foot Mount Timpanogos on the east.

BYU has several other campuses serving an additional 12,000 students in La'ie, Hawaii; Rexburg, Idaho; and Salt Lake City, Utah.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and broad ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regular called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

Nearly half of these scholars have lived outside the United States, and three-fourths are fluent in at least two languages. The variety of cultures and backgrounds, coupled with an institutional commitment to the gospel of Jesus Christ, adds to an already rich academic experience that challenges the mind while feeding the spirit.

Students come to BYU from all 50 states and more than 120 countries.

INTERNATIONAL STUDY AND LEARNING

BYU is a Center for International Business Education Research (CIBER), a program designed to promote the competitiveness of United States business through an integrated international curriculum, faculty and student international research and outreach programs. BYU's David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies provides support to colleges and departments in pursuing their international interests.

More than three-fourths of BYU students speak a language other than English -- 107 languages in all. Six percent of the student body is from outside the United States. Additionally, 82 percent of the men and 13 percent of the women at BYU have served missions for

"This Institution is remarkable. It is a continuing experiment on a great premise that a large and complex university can be first-class academically while nurturing an environment of faith in God and the practice of christian principles."

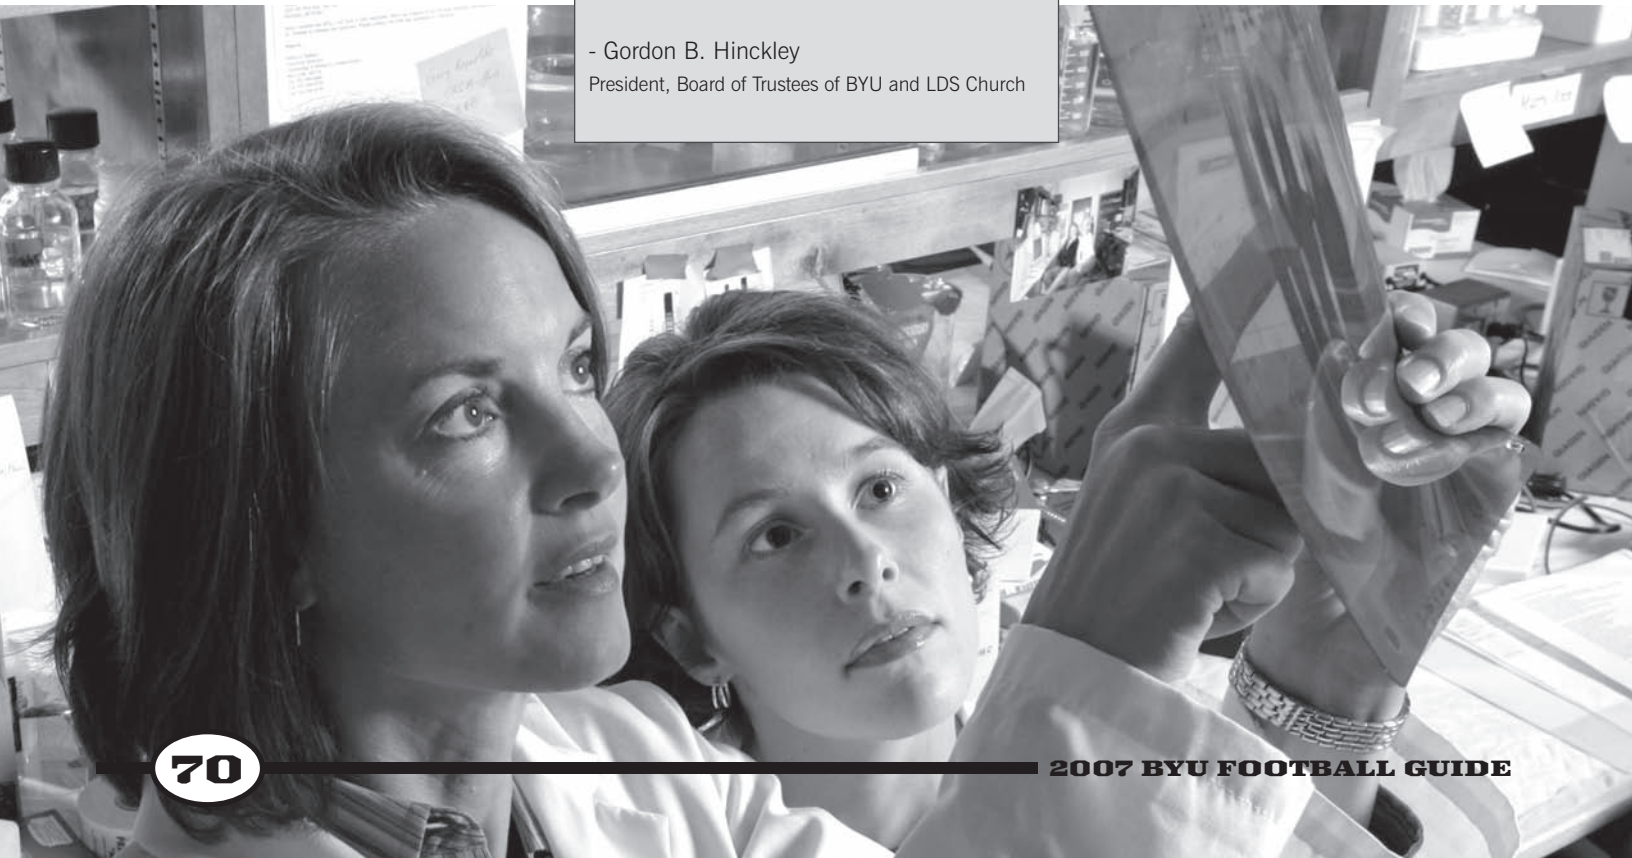

- Gordon B. Hinckley

the Church, often gaining fluency in a second language from the experience.

Regular classes are offered in 43 languages, with an additional 23 available with sufficient student interest -- among the most offered anywhere in the country. The prior experience of many of the students allows for a higher standard of instruction, using the language to teach other ideas -- literature, history, culture -- and to enhance their opportunities outside the lab and classroom.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University--founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints--is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

THE WORLD IS OUR CAMPUS

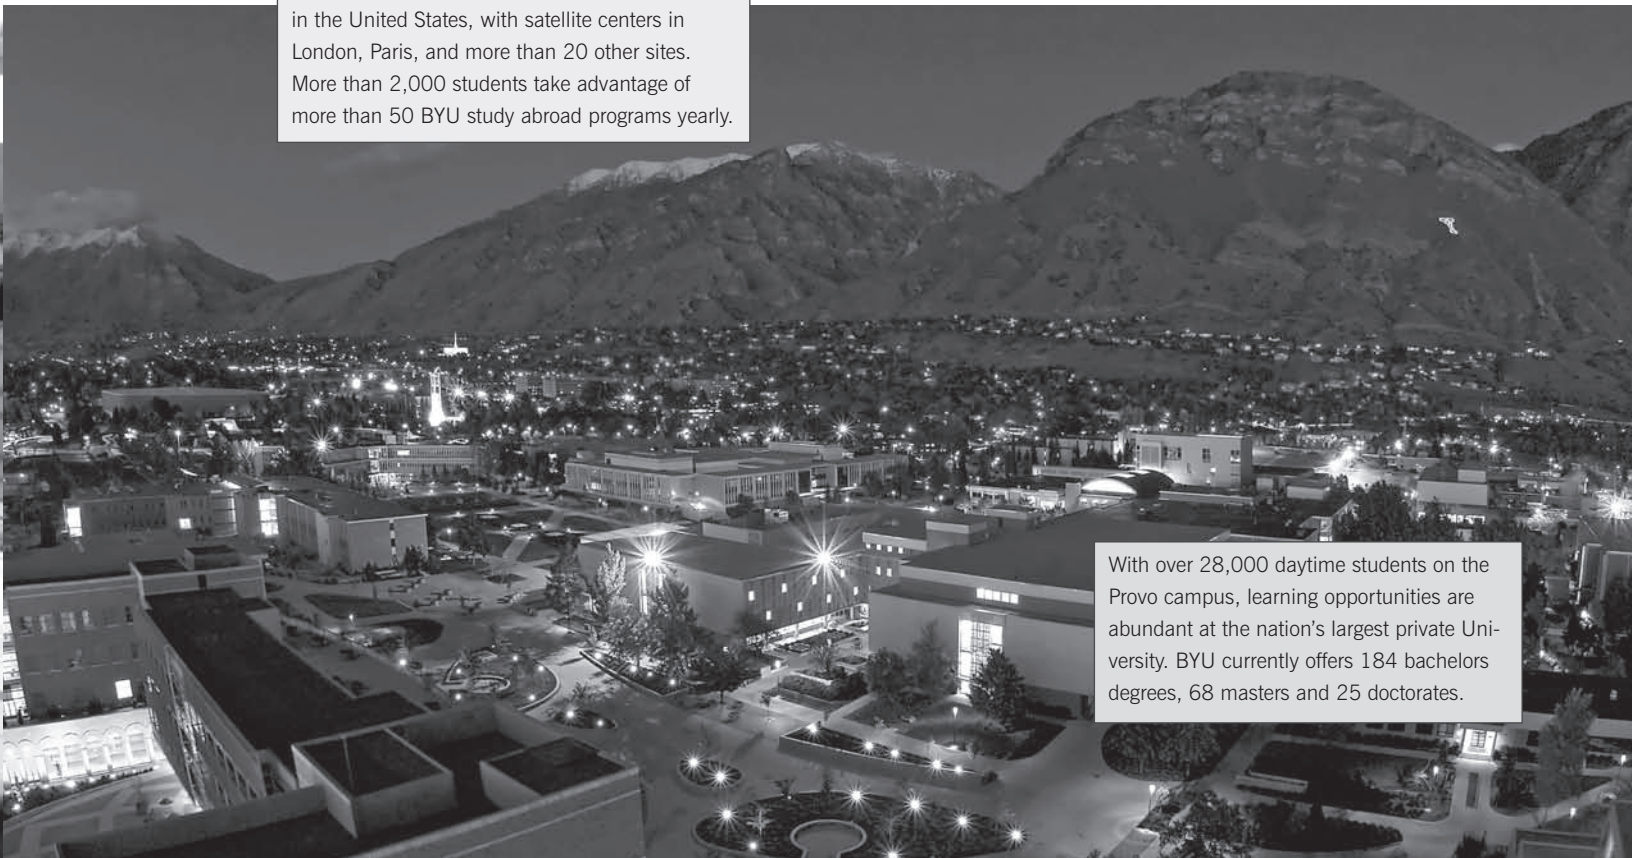

BYU operates the largest study abroad program in the United States, with satellite centers in London, Paris, and more than 20 other sites. More than 2,000 students take advantage of more than 50 BYU study abroad programs yearly.

BYU's faculty, staff, students and administrators should be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

With over 28,000 daytime students on the Provo campus, learning opportunities are abundant at the nation's largest private University. BYU currently offers 184 bachelors degrees, 68 masters and 25 doctorates.

One of the first questions Bronco Mendenhall was asked after becoming the head coach at BYU was what he thought about the missionary program, and if he felt it helped or hurt the BYU football program.

"Serving missions is what makes this team, this university and the church unique," Mendenhall said. "These unique characteristics are based upon sound principles and values. Why would we not embrace them?"

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates 347 missions around the world in 145 nations and speaking 164 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

More than 53,000 missionaries, representing the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, are serving proselytizing missions in 330 missions around the world. Seventy-five percent of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 19 and 26. A substantial number of young women and older couples also serve proselytizing missions.

Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years, or 18 months for women and couples—teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

In addition, about 5,100 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries and/or their families donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. When his or her assignment is completed, the missionary returns home to pursue vocational, academic or other personal goals. Aside from their brief orientation at a missionary training center, missionaries receive little formal training for their ministry. Missionary preparation comes primarily from personal study and, in many cases, from examples taught in the home from childhood.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With over 13 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world, and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ.

AMONG THE VERY BEST

BYU's 10 NCAA team championships, 1,060 All-Americans and 296 conference championships have created a tradition of excellence. The Cougars consistently rank among the nation's top-25 athletic departments in the nation, according to the NACDA Director's Cup standings which measures the overall performance of athletic departments. BYU's 21 athletic teams continually establish themselves among the top teams in the nation.

TO BE A CHAMPION?

FOOTBALL

Cougar football fans had plenty to cheer about with an MWC championship, bowl victory and a top-15 national ranking to end the 2006 season. Led by NFL second-round draft pick John Beck, the Cougar offense was one of the most potent in the nation, winning 10 straight games.

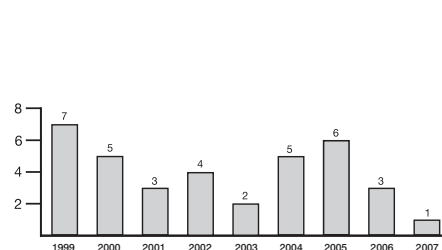

BYU TEAMS IN NATION'S TOP 25

NINE YEARS OF SUCCESS

BYU's 21 athletic teams consistently rank among the best in nation. The past nine years have brought numerous successes in Cougar athletics. BYU teams have finished their respective seasons ranked in the nation's top-25 on 89 occasions and in the nation's top-10 on 36 different occasions. During that span, BYU averages 9.9 top-25 finishes and four top-10 finishes. BYU has also produced six national champions in the last decade. In the eight-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 80 of 151 conference championships. That is 53 percent of all championships, or more than all other conference schools combined. In 2000-2001, BYU won all but three conference championships (16 of 19). BYU also dominated the Western Athletic Conference from 1962-1999, winning more championships than any other WAC school. In fact, during the last three decades in the WAC, the Cougars won 60 percent of the WAC Championships. For the fifth straight season, BYU teams claimed at least eight MWC Championships.

CROSS COUNTRY

Josh Rohatinsky culminated a stellar BYU cross country career by taking home the National Champion title at the 2006 NCAA cross country championship. Women's All-American Kassi Andersen had another outstanding performance with a sixth-place finish at the Championships.

TRACK AND FIELD

Niklas Arrenius was a NCAA champion in the discus in 2007 while also leading BYU to its 10th consecutive MWC title. The Cougar women earned their sixth national top-25 finish in the last eight years.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

Yosleyder Cala, Ivan Perez, and Russell Holmes all earned All-America honors leading BYU volleyball to a final regular-season ranking of No. 3 nationally. BYU volleyball has won three national titles (1999, 2001, 2004).

TENNIS

BYU's nationally-ranked women's tennis team has won three of the last four MWC titles and has had four straight NCAA tournament appearances including a second round appearance in 2007.

GOLF

Led by All-American Rachel Newren, BYU women's Golf had outstanding season finishing 17th at the NCAA Championship. On the men's side, Danny Summerhays finished fourth individually in the NCAA Tournament and was named First-Team All-America in 2007.

SOFTBALL

Led by MWC Player of the Year Jodi Norton, the Cougars had another outstanding season, winning the MWC Championship and nearly advancing out of the NCAA Regional.

EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the off season.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Sponsored by Dynatronics, this area features a rehabilitation room and a hydro area with a cold pool, a hot tub with power jets, a treadmill pool with two cameras and a doctor's office. Trainers provide electrical stimulation and ultra sound treatments as well as bikes, treadmills and Cybex machines.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

Most of the Strength and Conditioning Center's equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. Among the features are 12 full power racks with platforms, seven half racks, three jerk racks, Sorinex hurricane racks, reverse hypers, Agaton Fitness Systems, an outdoor mondo plyometric warmup area, two super leg drive sleds, two different dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. The first floor also has a nutrition area sponsored by Pharmanex. The second floor is the speed development area has six Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, five Nordic Track incline trainers, three Versaclimbers, two Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, a turf agility drill area with resistance and a testing area.

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

Tutors and mentors work through these offices. Athletes have access to 42 computer stations, an interactive classroom, 10 small study areas and one large quiet room. Also on staff are a sports psychologist and a nutritionist.

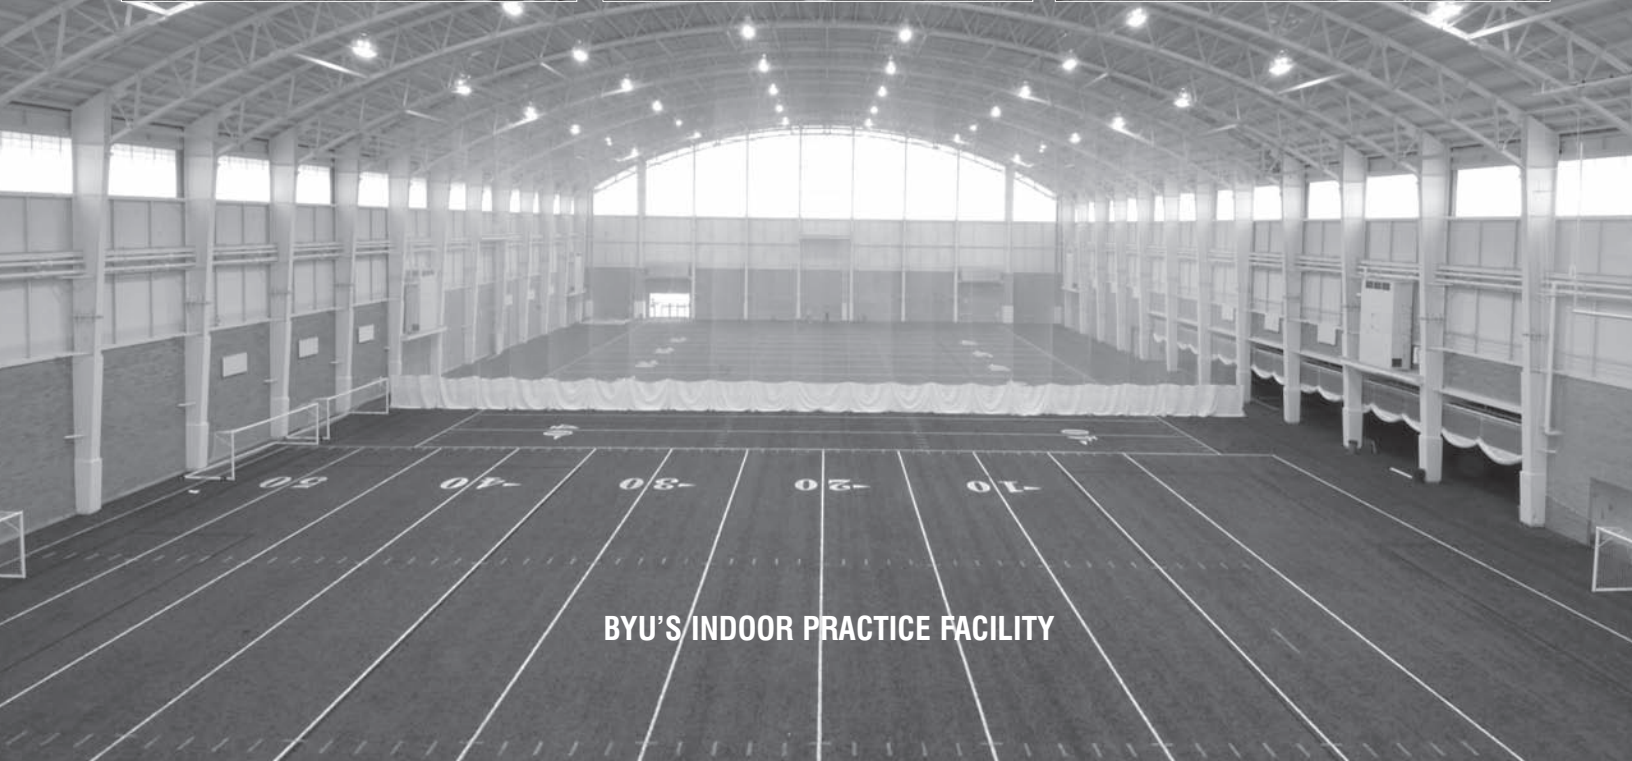

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view 11 plasma TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

With its 64,045-seat capacity, huge video scoreboards and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top-25 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

LAST EXPANSION

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045.

PRESS BOX

In 1982, 1988 and 1997, the Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "outstanding press box working area." Rising over 10 stories high, the four-level press box is located on the west side of the stadium and runs the entire length of the stands. Levels one and two of the press box contain 42 private loges, each equipped with 12 padded chairs, a television, radio, telephone, refrigerator, sink and game programs. The BYU President's box, which includes 163 padded chairs, five television sets and a buffet area, is also located on the first floor. Level three is reserved for the print and electronic media along with all the game operators. The statistics, public address, sound and scoreboard controls are all located on the third level. Altogether, approximately 300 people work on the third level during games. Level four is primarily used for television game filming.

VIDEO SCOREBOARD

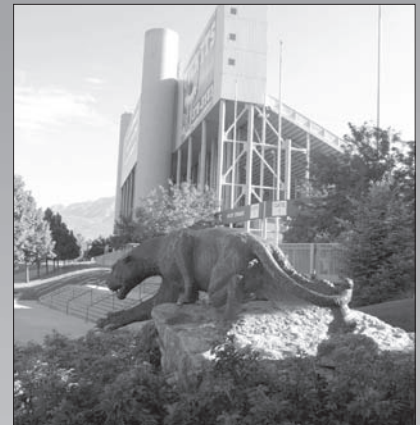

In 1996, a 23 x 31 foot video scoreboard wall, showing both live action and instant replays, was added above the stands on the south end zone. A new animation board and sound system was also added to the scoreboard above the north stands.

COUGAR ROOM

The BYU Athletic Hall of Fame in the Cougar Club Room is located in Edwards Stadium. The room is used for pre- and post-game activities as well as for meetings and banquets during the year. In addition to the many office areas, Edwards Stadium stores campus surplus furniture and maintenance vehicles.

THE EDWARDS STADIUM EXPERIENCE

Hours before kickoff, fans gather across the street from LaVell Edwards Stadium for food and soft drinks, sharing stories of past football heroics and anticipating another triumphant victory. With the Wasatch Mountains serving as a picturesque backdrop, the stadium is filled with 64,045 of some of the nation's best fans, young and old alike. The BYU marching band entertains the blue and white clad crowd with spirited tunes and the Cougar Fight song, amplified by the voices of BYU fans. The BYU cheerleading squad, Cosmo the BYU mascot, and halftime shows with the Cougarettes, the defending national champion dance team, all help make LaVell Edwards Stadium one of a kind. The offense is high-powered and the fans await the boom of the Army ROTC cannon after every scoring play.

“Probably the loudest and best stadium is whenever things are going good for BYU, and their fans start beating on the metal bleachers. That can be a very tough place to play.”

— Former Air Force head football coach Fisher DeBerry on why Edwards Stadium is one of the toughest places to play in the West.

“Running out of the tunnel before every game ... The first time I ran out, I felt like Rudy. You get the chills, you get the butterflies, you’re running with the band and the fans are cheering. That’s something that is special. And to be running with your brother is something else that’s special and that’s something that’ll be remembered.”

Preparations for placing the initials BYU on the mountainside began in April of 1906 when president George H. Brimhall commissioned surveyors for the letters "B," "Y" and "U." The letter "Y" was first laid out to ensure that the initials were properly centered on the mountain. Beginning in the early morning, students formed a line that zigzagged up the mountain. Standing eight feet apart, each student would carry a load up to the next and then return for another.

The project, which many expected to be completed by 10 a.m., lasted until 4 p.m. and only the "Y" was covered. After such a laborious day of work, plans to fill in the other two letters were scrapped. Covered with a thin layer of lime powder, the letter was in need of constant repair. Hoping to make it more permanent, a layer of rock was added in 1907. The next year, 20,000 pounds of sand and cement were carried up the mountain to form a three-foot high wall around the letter to hold it together. Several years later the letter underwent a facelift as the blocks, or serifs, were added to it to give it its current appearance.

A nationally recognized symbol of BYU, Y Mountain is a featured shot of almost every Cougar game broadcast on television. Located about half a mile east of campus and halfway up the mountain, the "Y" looks out over the valley and is one of its most prominent features.

COSMO

The cougar, chosen as BYU's mascot by former coach Eugene L. Roberts in the early 1920s, has undergone a tremendous evolution since its inception to become what is now known as the feline phenomenon of Cosmo the Cougar. Beginning in 1924 when BYU purchased a pair of cougar cubs for 50 cents each to excite BYU fans at athletic events, live cougars prowled the sidelines of BYU games on a regular basis through the late 40s and on special occasions through the 60s.

The original cubs were housed on the south side of campus until 1929 when they managed to break out of their cage, kill two dogs and began stalking livestock on nearby farms. Both were recaptured later the same day. Three weeks later, one cougar died and the other was taken to the old Salt Lake Zoo. BYU procured its mascots from nearby zoos and local bounty hunters but never owned its own cougars again.

Cosmo the Cougar, the brainchild of pep chairman Dwayne Stevenson, made his first official appearance before BYU fans on October 15, 1953. At a cost of 73 dollars for the costume, Daniel T. Gallego, Stevenson's roommate, became the first man under the fur. The name given the big cat was derived from BYU's diverse student body.

"BYU was a very international, cosmopolitan school and that is where we got the name Cosmo," said Gallego.

With over a half-century of service to the BYU community, Cosmo has become an icon of Cougar sports to fans and foes across the country. Through Cosmo's Kids Club and Cosmo's Corner, he is helping raise another generation of BYU fans. Prowling the sidelines for the Cougars, his antics add to the experience of game day at BYU. THE BEEHIVE BOOT

First instituted in 1971, the Beehive Boot is the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah. The idea for the rotating trophy originated with Dave Schultness, former Sports Information Director (SID) of BYU, and was agreed upon by SIDs from Utah, Utah State and Weber State. As the trophy would represent dominance within the confines of the Beehive State, it was decided that the trophy should be symbolic of the people Utah was built by—the Mormon pioneers.

Finding a suitable pioneer boot for use as a trophy proved to be a difficult task. As pioneers wore their boots until there simply wasn't much left of them, there weren't many pioneer boots lying around. After an arduous search that included numerous personal calls and radio announcements, Tom Beasley, an antique dealer living in Cache Valley donated a pair of boots for use as the trophy. Estimated to be 100 or more years old, the Beehive Boot is an authentic piece of Utah History.

Awarded to the team with the best record against in-state opponents, the Beehive Boot lived its first four years at Utah State University. BYU then began a dominant run as it ascended into the realms of football's elite, claiming the Boot 19 times in the past 30 years. Utah has won the boot nine times. The longest streak in the history of the Beehive Boot is a five-year span from 1983 to 1987 by BYU. After a four-year stint in Salt Lake, the Boot was brought back to Provo in 2006. The Cougars look to bring it back home this season.

If Utah's teams should end the season with identical records against in-state opponents, a winner is chosen by vote of the in-state media who covered the schools' games. This situation has occurred twice in the history of the boot (1973 and 1997) and Utah State was given the trophy each time.

THE VICTORY BELL

The original Y bell traveled across the plains with the early pioneers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was used to call meetings among the saints and to announce any deaths in the community. Donated to the Brigham Young Academy in 1875, it was used to begin and dismiss classes until it was destroyed in a fire in 1884. The Academy went without a bell for the next 28 years, using instead a variety of instruments as a class bell.

Rung after each BYU victory, the bell was quieted in 1949 after a basketball win over rival Utah. Several overzealous students climbed the tower and vigorously beat upon the bell until it cracked. Repaired with a bronze patch in 1954 by Frank Hemingway, the bell was removed from the education building and mounted on a trailer so it could travel with BYU's teams to away games.

Its mobility proved its downfall as it was stolen in 1958 to be found six months later in nearby Springville. The theft prompted the construction of a bell tower on BYU's upper-campus overlooking the Smith Fieldhouse. Dedicated in 1959, the tower served well until 1973 when the bell fell while ringing in the dedication of the Marriott Center. The supporting yoke above the bell was broken and the bell shattered. The bell was soon repaired by Ray Mortenson of the BYU Maintenance shop using electric welding—miraculously maintaining its previous tone—and was remounted in the tower.

In 1978, the bell was moved to its current home on the southwest corner of the Marriott Center. The open arch tower was designed by BYU landscape architect Boyd Dawler and is made of the same cast stone as the exterior pillars of the Marriott Center. Although the old bell tower above the Smith Fieldhouse no longer stands, the massive steel I-beams that supported the tower have now been converted into the strongest park benches in the Intermountain West.

Over the years, the ringing of the bell has come to represent honor, achievement and spirit, and has inspired several poems and songs from BYU faculty and alumni. Clyde D. Sandgren, who composed the Cougar Fight Song, penned a verse that was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower. As BYU victories have become more and more commonplace in recent decades, the ringing of the "Y bell" after each win has renamed it the "Victory Bell."

THE COUGAR FAN

Be it a home game or a distant rival, BYU fans prove faithful to the Cougar cause. Rain or shine, the blue and white cheers faithfully on through the best fans collegiate sports has to offer.

THE COUGAR FIGHT SONG

Brigham Young University
By Clyde D. Sandgren, '32

Rise all loyal Cougars and hurl your challenge to the foe.
We will fight, day or night, rain or snow.
Loyal, strong, and true Wear the white and blue.
While we sing, get set to spring. Come on Cougars it's up to you. Oh!

Chorus: Rise and shout, the Cougars are out along the trail to fame and glory.
Rise and shout, our cheers will ring out
As you unfold your vict'ry story.
On you go to vanquish the foe
for Alma Mater's sons and daughters.
As we join in song,
in praise of you, our faith is strong.
We'll raise our colors high in the blue
And cheer our Cougars of BYU.

Conditioning encompasses all facets of physical performance. From speed and quickness, to cardiovascular endurance and brute strength, BYU's strength and conditioning head coach Jay Omer creates programs designed to increase them all. Training programs are sport-specific and position-specific within each sport, allowing athletes to focus on what they need to succeed in their individual competitive endeavors.

In no sport is the need for strength more evident than in football. Each game, each play, can be decided by who tires first. Week in and week out, players give and take a beating and are expected to come back for more of the same the next week. Less than a year after his arrival in 2001, Omer's subjects were seeing huge returns on their investment. Most players had increased their personal lifts 15-25 percent. Mike Tanner, a line-backer who was bench-pressing 330 pounds when Omer arrived, was lifting 400 at summer's end.

Conditioning also increases the production of athletes as it helps to prevent injury. Although football is a contact sport where injuries are common, proper conditioning can help to avoid major injuries and reduce the recovery time of minor injuries. An athlete in top condition tends to recover faster and be better able to withstand the rigors of physical activity.

Not only does the conditioning program improve each player as an individual, but it also improves the team as a whole. Working and sweating with each other in the weight room helps bring the players together. Seeing each person sacrifice and succeed in the off-season builds a camaraderie that carries over to the field as players work to make each other and the team better.

"He (Omer) has brought us a feeling of team chemistry, working out together and being accountable," said Teag Whiting, a former offensive lineman. "There's nothing we're going to see on the football field this season that's any tougher or harder than we're facing in our workouts. It makes us close."

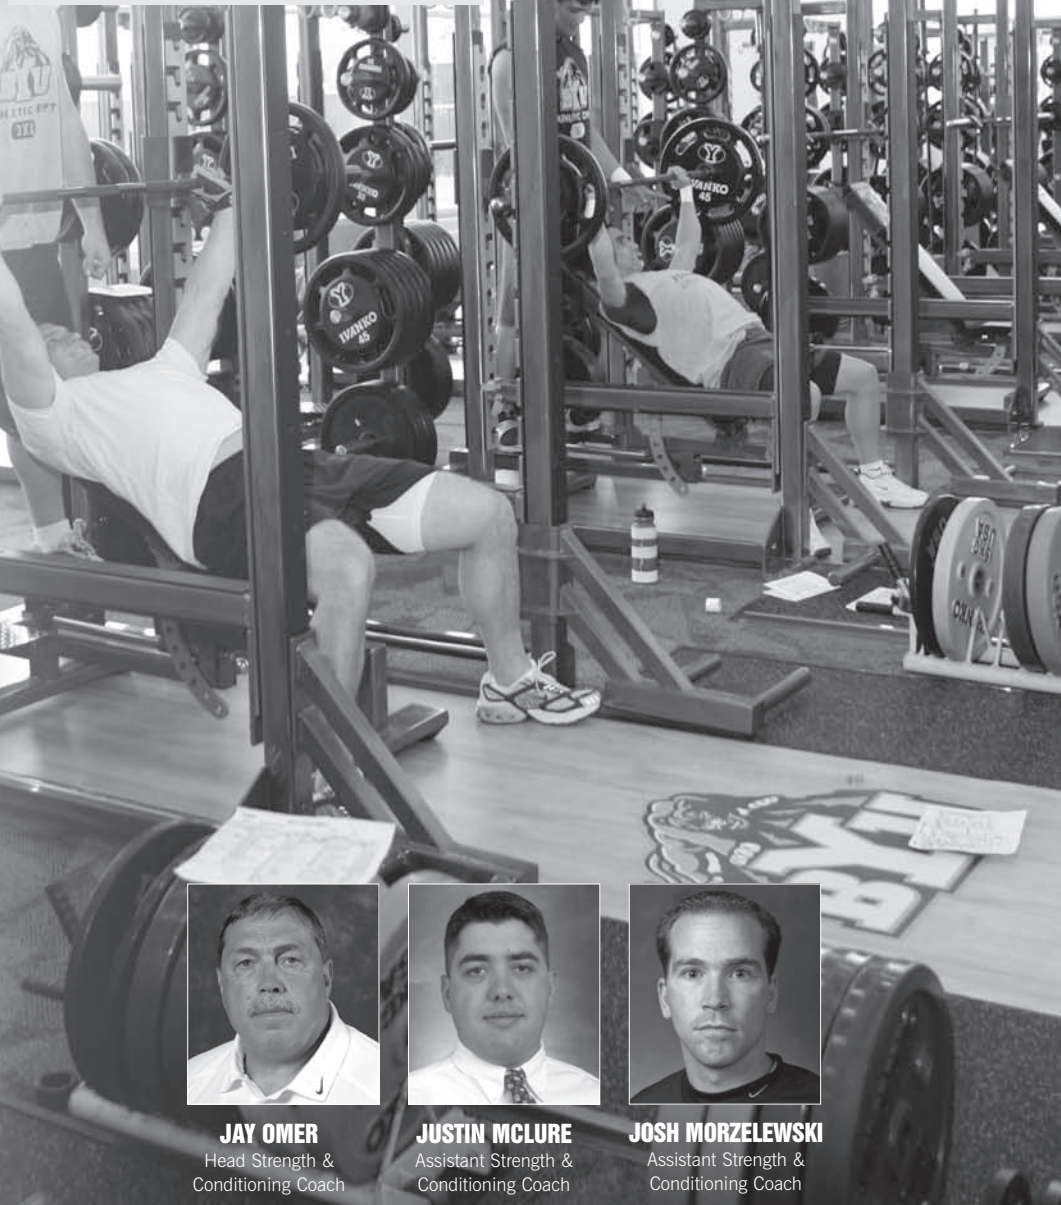

The results BYU players have realized have come from dedication and sacrifice. It's a time-consuming and often painful process in which athletes push themselves to higher levels of performance, and Omer is there to watch over them the whole time.

"The man is a sadist," said former offensive guard Jason Scukanec, "[but] you find yourself doing it. You find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

Each fall when the Cougars take the field, they carry with them the hopes of BYU fans across the nation. With each passing week and after every win, those hopes get bigger and weigh more on the players. Arriving at the gym before most people are out of bed and staying until long after most people have gone home for the night, Jay Omer takes those hopes very seriously. It's his job to make sure the players are strong enough to carry those hopes to one more victory, one more title, one more bowl.

"I like to see kids work hard, make something of themselves and improve their abilities. That's the joy of this job. I'm also on the same page with coach Mendenhall. We believe a team can only be successful if it prepares well and has team chemistry. You can have a team of super stars, but I'd rather have a team of less talent that works hard, cares about each other, has team chemistry and will go to war because they believe in each other. That's what it's all about and that's what we're trying to get done here."

BYU student-athletes are seeking to excel academically, athletically, and are preparing for life after they graduate. The transition into university life can be challenging for any student. This is especially true for student-athletes who are expected to be good students and outstanding athletes. They are also under obligation to understand and comply with a variety of NCAA rules and regulations in order to be eligible to compete. The Student Athlete Academic Center was created to provide a place where student-athletes can receive support and resources as they pursue their goals.

One of the main priorities of the Center is to assist student-athletes as they transition into the BYU culture and the world of college athletics. Student-athletes are assigned an academic advisor to help them register for classes and monitor their progress toward graduation. The advisor is the contact person for student-athletes who have academic or eligibility questions and concerns. The advisor also helps student-athletes make connections with other campus resources such as the Counseling and Career Center, Multicultural Student Services, University Accessibility Center and College Advisement Centers.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

The main focus of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to help student-athletes graduate on time. To achieve this goal, academic advisement is provided to all student-athletes. Advisors are available to help student-athletes register for classes, monitor athletic eligibility, secure tutorial help, and provide on-going support and encouragement. The academic advisors assist student-athletes by having them set weekly and semester goals, teaching them time management and academic success strategies and helping them communicate effectively with their professors. Advisors also assist the coaching staff in monitoring the day-to-day progress of student-athletes who struggle academically.

TUTORING

Personal tutors are provided for athletes through the Student Athlete Academic Center with funds made available by the Cougar Club. Tutors are hired to tutor multiple subjects. To obtain a tutor, student-athletes may contact their academic advisor.

MENTORS

Mentors are available for any student-athlete through the Student Athlete Academic Center. Incoming freshmen will be assigned a mentor for their first semester. Mentors are most often fifth-year student-athletes or graduate students. Mentors provide time management help, study skills, test taking tips, help adjusting to college, etc. To obtain a mentor, see the academic advisor assigned to your team.

COMMITMENT TO ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

A primary goal of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to ensure that every student-athlete graduates with a Bachelor's degree in their chosen field of study. To achieve this goal, the Center provides a team advisor as part of the comprehensive academic support program. Each athlete has regular visits with his/her team advisor who assists with registration and monitors progress toward graduation. Tutoring is also available for every student-athlete. The Student Athlete Academic Center is conveniently located on the third floor of the new Student Athlete Building.

COMMITMENT TO PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

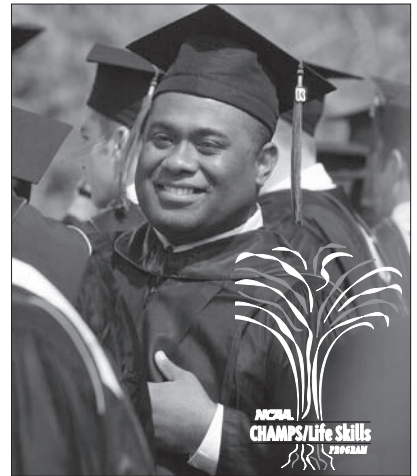

Student Athlete Academic Center personnel are also active in teaching classes designed to promote leadership, emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills. Student-athletes are taught about some of the unique issues they face in the world of college athletics and how to thrive in the university setting and beyond.

COMMITMENT TO CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A career specialist is available to assist student-athletes with a variety of career issues. They receive help in choosing a major, building their resume, establishing a career network and preparing for their transition from college athletics into the world of work. These services are available through individual consultation, workshops, computer programs and University courses. Career exploration and career transition classes are highly recommended to all student-athletes. Internship and employment opportunities are also made available through the Career Network, which is made up of Varsity Club and Cougar Club members.

SERVICES AVAILABLE IN THE STUDENT ATHLETE CENTER INCLUDE:

- Academic Advising
- Career Counseling and Testing
- Community Service Opportunities
- Computer Lab
- Group Study Sessions
- Laptop Computers
- Leadership Opportunities (Cougar Council)
- Mentoring
- Sport Psychology
- Study Facilities
- Tutoring

CECIL SAMUELSON
University President

Cecil O. Samuelson, who is in his fifth year as president of Brigham Young University, was inaugurated on September 9, 2003.

Dr. Samuelson is a Salt Lake City native who served at the University of Utah as professor of medicine, dean of the School of Medicine and vice president of health sciences. Prior to his call as a full-time General Authority of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he was senior vice president of Intermountain Health Care. He holds a bachelor of science degree, a master's degree in educational psychology and a medical degree from the University of Utah.

He fulfilled his residency and held a fellowship in rheumatic and genetic diseases at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. He has received numerous scholastic honors and is the author or co-author of 48 original publications, eight books or chapters of books and 13 abstracts. He also has served as a director, officer or member of several national medical and hospital organizations.

Dr. Samuelson was called in 1994 to serve the Church of Jesus Christ as a member of the First Quorum of the Seventy. At the time of his assignment to BYU, he was a member of the Presidency of the Seventy. He has served the Church of Jesus Christ also as a regional representative, stake president, stake high councilor, branch president and missionary. He has served as president of two areas of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints: the Utah North Area and the Europe North Area. He and his wife, Sharon Giauque Samuelson, have five children and seven grandchildren.

K. FRED SKOUSEN
Advancement Vice President

Dr. K. Fred Skousen is in his tenth year as advancement vice president of Brigham Young University. Previously, he was Dean of the Marriott School of Management and Director of the School of Accountancy at BYU. He earned a Bachelor's degree from BYU and Masters and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Illinois.

Dr. Skousen has been a consultant to the Financial Executive Research Foundation, the Controller General of the United States, the Federal Trade Commission and to several large companies. During the summer of 1969, he was a Faculty Resident on the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, D.C. During the summer of 1973, he was a Faculty Fellow with Price Waterhouse & Co., in Los Angeles. Dr. Skousen currently serves on the board of directors of several corporations.

Dr. Skousen taught at the University of Illinois and the University of Minnesota prior to joining the faculty at BYU. Professor Skousen was appointed to a nine-member National Commission on Professional Accounting Education in 1982. Dr. Skousen held the J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott Chair of Management at BYU from 1989-1998. Dr. Skousen is the author or co-author of more than 50 articles, research reports and books, including: "An Introduction to the SEC," "Intermediate Accounting," "Accounting: Concepts and Applications," and "Financial Accounting." Fred and his wife, Julie, have five sons, one daughter and 24 grandchildren.

TOM HOLMOE
Director of Athletics

On March 1, 2005, President Cecil O. Samuelson announced the appointment of Tom Holmoe as Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University. Holmoe is the 12th athletics director in school history and the first to oversee both the men's and women's sports programs.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletic Director of Development. A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He became a starter as a sophomore in 1980 and led the Western Athletic Conference with seven interceptions. Holmoe went on to earn first-team Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL draft by the San Francisco 49ers. During his five years at BYU, the Cougars won five straight WAC titles. In his seven-year NFL career, Holmoe played on three Super Bowl teams with the San Francisco 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989. In addition, he won a fourth title as the 49ers' secondary coach in 1994.

After retiring from pro football, Holmoe entered the coaching ranks, returning to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards in 1990 and 1991. Holmoe then accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. The Cardinal was PAC-10 tri-champions in 1992 with a 10-3 overall record, including a win over Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. In 1994, Holmoe returned to the 49ers, serving as George Seifert's defensive backfield coach for two seasons. Two years later in 1996, Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator under Steve Mariucci. Following Mariucci's departure to the NFL, Holmoe assumed duties as head coach of the Golden Bears' football program from 1997 until resigning after the 2001 season.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in zoology in 1983 and received a Master's degree from BYU in athletic administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, live in Provo with their four children.

TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MWC continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its ninth year, the MWC has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West) and the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of the MWC's newest member, TCU.

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions —

Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from the former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Five of the MWC's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV entered the fold in 1996 and TCU began its first year of competition in 2005-06, completing the membership in the MWC as it stands today.

The MWC enjoyed a successful 2006-07 campaign. The league sent a record-tying four teams to bowl games and posted a 3-1 mark in those contests. The 2006 season also marked the first time in MWC history two teams recorded 11 or more wins in a season and finished the year in the top-25 polls. League champion BYU and runner-up TCU each finished the regular season with identical 11-2 records and were ranked No. 16/15 and No. 22/21, respectively, by the Associated Press and USA Today Top 25 polls.

The two teams also finished the season ranked among the top four in the nation in win streaks at 10 and eight, respectively. Seventeen football student-athletes earned all-America honors, while another dozen were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft.

On Aug. 26, 2004, College Sports Television (CSTV) and the Mountain West Conference announced a visionary partnership that revolutionized the college sports landscape. The landmark agreement was the first NCAA Division I football and men's basketball conference-wide deal for CSTV. The advent of the new television model gives the fastest-growing independent cable network exclusive rights to all Conference events, including cable and satellite television coverage, national over-the-air and satellite radio, video-on-demand and online broadcast rights. The CSTV/MWC partnership has guaranteed greater levels of television exposure for all MWC sports and has resoundingly met the fundamental goals of more exposure, preferred start times and competition on select days of the week.

A succession of events since the fall of 2004 have improved the new television model, including the CBS purchase of CSTV, and the merger with Comcast to create The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network. The relationship with Comcast also delivered a new national broadcast partner in VERSUS. The MWC was the first exclusive college programming provider for the Comcast-owned entity, with football and both men's and women's basketball games, and is in more than 72 million homes.

In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was the launch of The Mtn. – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. The Mtn. provides sports fans blanket coverage of MWC athletics across multiple sports, including football, men's and women's basketball, and men's and women's Olympic sports. The Mtn. features more than just live games and has added its own original programming. Fans get a comprehensive array of news, features and analysis about their favorite MWC teams and players. In 2006-07, more than 250 MWC events were shown live on The Mtn., CSTV and VERSUS. CSTV is currently available in over 65 million homes, while VERSUS is in more than 72 million households. With a "fans first" focus, each television partner ensures MWC constituents see more MWC sports at more convenient times and in more media platforms than ever before.

A LOOK AT THE 2007 SCHEDULE

The 2007 Mountain West Conference football schedule is comprised of 72 games, including 36 Conference match-ups. The non-conference slate features 16 contests against teams that earned bowl berths in 2006, including BCS Bowl participants Louisville, Notre Dame and Boise State. Additional non-conference opponents who earned bowl bids this past season are Arizona State, California, Cincinnati, Hawai'i, Houston, Navy, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon State, Texas, Tulsa, UCLA and Wisconsin. Eight of the non-conference opponents were ranked in last season's final polls. BYU and TCU also finished the 2006 season ranked 15th and 21st, respectively, in the USA Today Coaches poll.

- ACC: Virginia
- Big 12: Baylor, Colorado, Texas
- Big East: Cincinnati, Louisville, Syracuse
- Big Ten: Wisconsin
- C-USA: UTEP (2), SMU, Tulsa
- MAC: Ohio
- Pac-10: Arizona (2), Arizona State, California, Oregon State, Stanford, UCLA (2), Washington State
- WAC: Boise State, Hawai'i, New Mexico State, Nevada, Utah State (2)
- Independent: Army, Navy, Notre Dame
- Non-DIA: Eastern Washington, Portland State, Sacramento State, South Carolina State, Georgia Southern

The Mountain West Conference is made up of nine Universities from seven Western states. TCU was added to the conference on 2005.

COUGARS LEAD MWC IN HOME ATTENDANCE

BYU, which boasts the largest on-campus home stadium in the Mountain West Conference, has led the MWC in home attendance in all six years of the league's existence, averaging 60,524 in 2006 (26th best in the nation). In fact, Edwards Stadium has been the site of the league's all-time top-10 crowds.

RETURNING STARTERS

Colorado State and New Mexico lead the MWC with 20 returning starters heading into the 2007 season. Below is a breakdown of key returnees for each MWC team.

WINNING STREAKS

BYU enters the 2007 season with the second-longest active win streak at 10. Boise State heads the list with 13 straight wins. TCU ranks fourth on the list with eight consecutive wins, one behind Wisconsin with nine. On the right is a list of the current win streaks in the NCAA.

In the eight-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 100 of 239 conference championships. That is nearly 50 percent of all championships awarded by the conference. In 2006-07, BYU won a championship in all but five conference sports (14 out of 19).

Since 1999, the MWC has posted an 14-12 bowl record. Below is a list of bowls that have a tie-in with the Mountain West Conference in 2007.

LAS VEGAS BOWL

The Pac-10 and the Mountain West meet in the "Entertainment Capital of the World" Las Vegas on December 22 at Sam Boyd Stadium. Last year, BYU dominated Oregon on its way to the Cougars most lopsided bowl victory in school history. The BYU vs. Oregon game also set an attendance record for the up-and-coming bowl game while also breaking the attendance record for a team sporting event in the state of Nevada. The Mountain West Conference has a 4-4 record against the PAC-10 in the Las Vegas Bowl.

POINSETTIA BOWL

The San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl kicks off at 6 p.m. (PST), Thursday, December 20 at Qualcomm Stadium. The game pits a team from the Mountain West Conference against a bowl-eligible Navy or an at-large opponent. The 2nd annual game featured a 37-7 TCU Horned Frogs victory over the Northern Illinois University Huskies in front of 29,709 fans and an ESPN 2 national television audience.

ARMED FORCES BOWL

The Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl, an ESPN Regional Television (ERT) owned-and-operated event, will be played in Fort Worth, Texas on December 31, and will be aired at 11:30 a.m. (CT) on ESPN, live from Amon G. Carter Stadium. This year's contest will feature teams from the PAC-10 and Mountain West Conferences.

NEW MEXICO BOWL

Owned by ESPN, the New Mexico Bowl game enters its second season. San Jose State edged New Mexico, 20-12 in the inaugural game. The 2007 game promises to be just as thrilling—as teams from the Mountain West and WAC will battle on Dec. 22 (2:30 pm MT / 4:30 pm, ET, on ESPN) at University Stadium in Albuquerque, NM.

2007 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

- January 1 – Sugar Bowl
- January 1 – Rose Bowl
- January 2 – Fiesta Bowl
- January 3 – Orange Bowl
- January 7 – BCS National Championship (New Orleans)

THE MWC AND THE BCS

With the addition of a fifth BCS bowl game in 2006, Bowl Championship Series officials announced modifications to the at-large qualification requirements. Instead of having to finish in the top 12 of the final BCS standings, teams finishing in the top 14 will now be eligible for a BCS game.

- Any Division I-A team is eligible for at-large consideration.
- Automatic qualifiers: No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the final BCS standings. Big East, Big Ten, SEC, PAC-10, Big 12 and ACC champions and Notre Dame (if it finishes in the top eight).
- A non-automatic qualifying BCS team that finishes in the top-12, or in the top-16 if they're ahead of a BCS champion.

VS.

The BYU vs. Utah rivalry has become one of the most-heated and most-anticipated match-ups in the nation. The Utes and the Cougars have met 80 times since 1922. Utah dominated the rivalry until 1965 when the Cougars began to hold the advantage over the Utes. Since 1965 BYU is 27-15 against the Utes. Except for 2004, the last seven meetings in this rivalry have been decided by seven points or less including three last-minute comebacks by BYU in 2000, 2001 and 2006.

“I think people from the South and from the Midwest ought to see this. This is a big-time football rivalry.”

— Bill Curry, ESPN College Football Analyst

It all started on October 14, 1922. Well, according to BYU, anyway. Utah claims the first meeting between the schools was on April 6, 1896, when BYU was still Brigham Young Academy.

It's just one of many things the two schools don't agree on. The Academy played Utah six times between 1896 and 1898, before Provo could officially boast its own full-fledged university. Each team won three games.

The Cougars and the Utes have built a strong tradition of intense competition in the 83 years of the rivalry. With the exception of the war years from 1943-45, the two schools have faced each other every year since 1922.

The Utes dominated the series early on, avoiding defeat until 1942, when the Cougars finally won, 12-7, in Salt Lake City behind Coach Floyd Millet. The success was short-lived, however, as it took BYU another 16 years to win another contest, 14-7, again in Salt Lake City in 1958. In all, Utah won 34 of the first 40 contests, four of which were ties.

In 1965, the momentum began to turn in BYU's favor. The Cougars took three in a row from the Utes from 1965-67, and although Utah won the next four, the competition had become much more interesting.

In 1972, the series took on an entirely different feeling with the arrival of LaVell Edwards as BYU's new head coach. He took on a program that had gone 5-38-4 (.149) against its fiercest rival and proceeded to post a 22-7 (.757) record against Utah in 29 years, including wins in 15 of his first 16 meetings with the Utes. In the Edwards era, the Cougars outscored the Utes an average of 34.9 to 20.9 per contest. Coach Edwards' career included winning streaks of nine (1979-87) and six (1972-77) games against Utah.

The annual showdown generates considerable interest throughout the state, making it a virtual certainty that whatever stadium the teams play in will be sold out well in advance. In all, seven of Utah's top ten home crowds before the expansion of Rice-Eccles Stadium were for games against BYU.

Meanwhile, 45 miles south in Provo, the grudge match has accounted for five of the 20 largest crowds in the history of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

One of the more memorable moments in the rivalry was the 1989 contest in which the Cougars pasted the Utes, 70-31, in Provo. It was a game in which the home team scored touchdowns in each of its first seven possessions and in all eight with Ty Detmer as quarterback. In a move of mercy, Detmer was replaced by backup Sean Covey late in the second quarter.

Then there were the infamous back-to-back, 34-31, losses at the hands of the Utes in 1993 and 1994, giving rebirth to a rivalry that had become ridiculously lopsided in the 80s and early 90s. In all, the Utes won three in a row (1993-95) under coach Ron McBride.

The Cougars responded to the new aggression in 1996 with a dominating, 37-17, victory in Salt Lake City. BYU employed an extremely unconventional approach, gaining 376 yards in 63 attempts on the ground and attempting only 12 passes.

In 1998, a well-placed ESPN microphone picked up an audible “clank” as the potential game-winning kick bounced off the right goal post and BYU escaped with a, 26-24 victory. BYU let the Utes back into the game after having seemingly put the game away in the fourth quarter, allowing Utah to set up a 32-yard field goal to win the game. Mysteriously, the short chip shot hooked right at the last possible moment, giving the Cougars reason to celebrate.

In 2000 LaVell Edwards worked his magic for the last time as Brandon Doman's touchdown with 23 seconds remaining finished an amazing last minute comeback to send the legendary BYU coach out a winner.

Lately home field advantage seems to have become less of a factor, as the Utes won three straight at Edwards Stadium (1995, '97, '99) and the Cougars won three in a row in Salt Lake City (1996, 1998, 2000).

In 2001, BYU changed the trend in a miraculous, come-from-behind victory in Provo. With less than four minutes left in the game and down 11 points, BYU's hopes for a perfect season seemed dim. But Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown. Lance Rice led Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jernaro Gilford stepped in front of a Rice pass and intercepted the ball to seal the game.

In 2002 Utah beat the Cougars for the first time since 1994 in Salt Lake. The 13-6 Ute victory was not without controversy. BYU quarterback Lance Pendleton was stripped of the football on the goal line, but replays later showed that his knee was down before the strip.

In 2003 BYU held Utah to just three points on a snowy day in Provo. Only problem was, BYU was without offensive threat Reynaldo Brathwaite and its top three quarterbacks. BYU's offense sputtered and the Utes gave BYU its first shutout since 1975 (Ending an NCAA record 361 consecutive games without a shut-out). Meanwhile the win also gave Utah its first outright league championship since 1957. In 2005 BYU erased a 21-point halftime deficit and forced the game into overtime only to come up just short. John Beck's fourth down pass just missed the fingertips of Michael Reed as BYU fell 41-34 in OT.

2006 may have been one of the greatest games in the history of the rivalry. With the lead switching hands several times in the final minutes, BYU drove 75 yards in 10 plays in the last 1:19 to win the game, responding to a nine-play, 83-yard Utah drive. All-American John Beck connected with wide open tight end Jonny Harline in the end zone on the game's final play in what has been deemed “the 13-second miracle” for Cougar fans. The 33-31 victory sealed a perfect league record for BYU and their first victory over Utah since 2001.

BRANDON DOMAN, 2000

In 2000 the Cougars led throughout the game only to fall behind 26-27 on a Matt Nickel TD reception with 2 minutes to play. Behind the heart of Brandon Doman and a little fate, BYU converted on a 4th down conversion with less than a minute to play. Then Doman connected with senior Jonathan Pittman along the sideline before Luke Staley took the ball inside Utah's 10-yard line. From there Doman scored with 23 seconds remaining on a quarterback sweep right to give BYU the miraculous come-from-behind victory (photo above).

2007 OPPONENTS IN BOLD

McKay Jacobson's 77-yard punt return for a touchdown against Wyoming snapped BYU's 113-game streak without a punt return for a touchdown. Jacobson was 10 years old when BYU last returned a punt for a touchdown. More impressively, it was Jacobson's first collegiate punt return.

2006 SEASON IN REVIEW

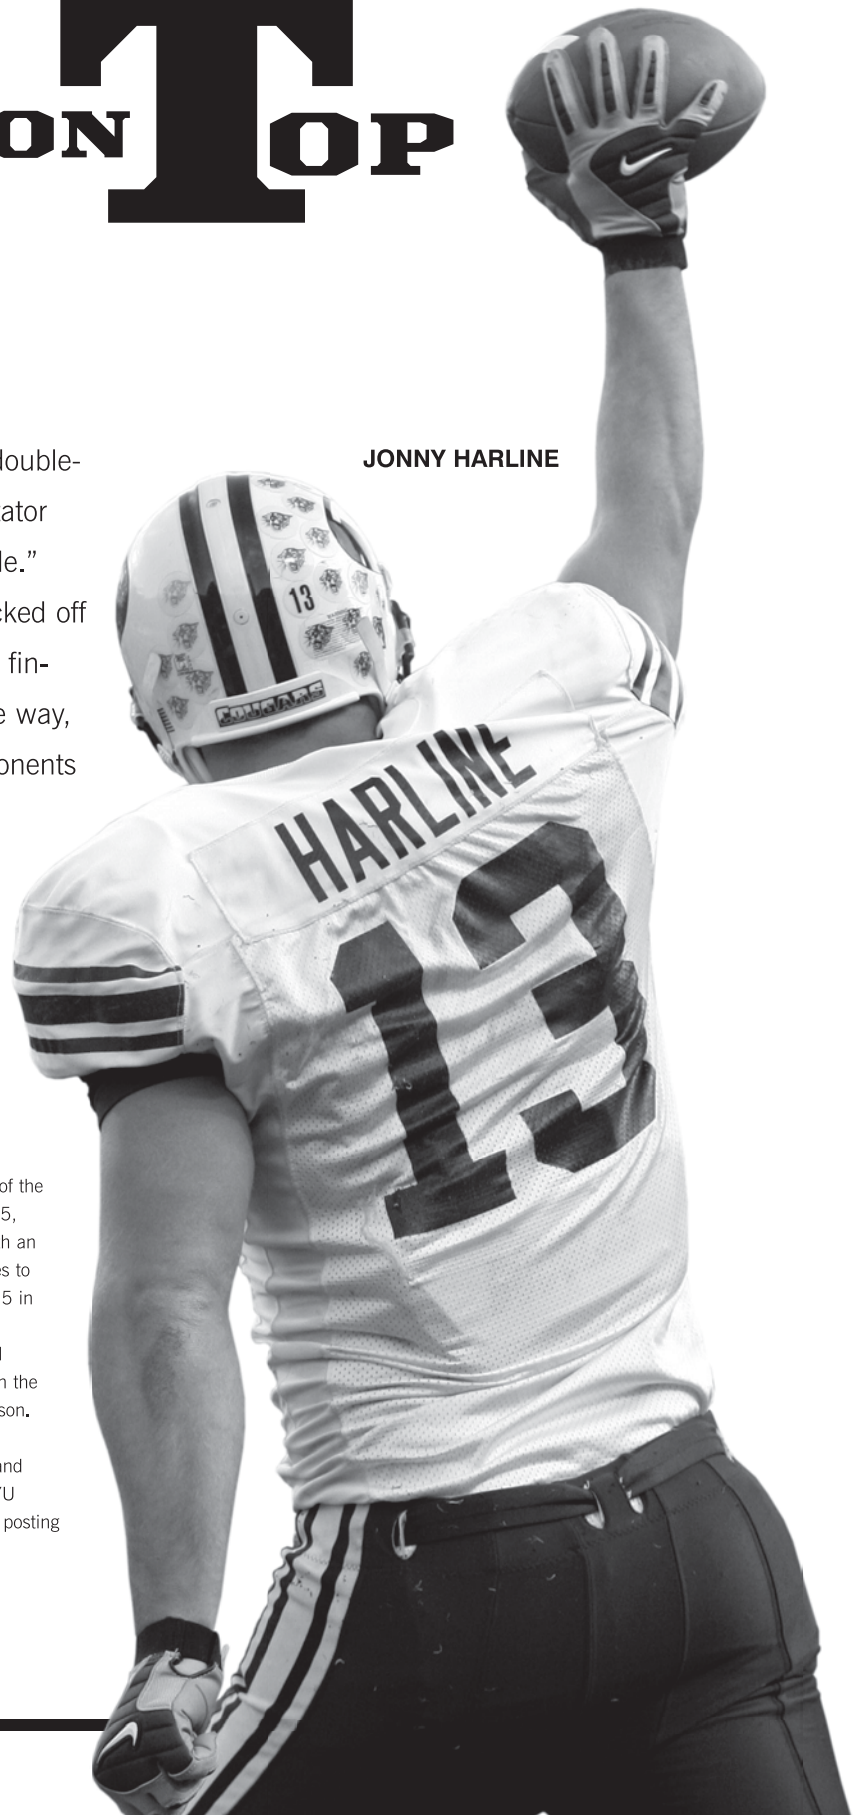

After watching BYU take No. 23 Boston College to double-overtime early in the season, ESPN2 color commentator Chris Spielman said the Cougars would “run the table.” Spielman’s prediction proved prophetic as BYU knocked off 10 straight opponents over the next three months to finish the 2006 season with an 11-2 record. Along the way, the Cougars tallied a perfect clip against league opponents to win their first outright Mountain West Conference Championship since the 2001 season. The Cougars went on to dismantle Oregon, 38-8, in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl.

With 10 straight wins, the Cougars currently own the nation’s second longest winning streak. BYU’s 10-game win streak marks the longest since the 2001 season and only the seventh time in the program’s history the Cougars have had nine or more consecutive wins in a single season.

After winning four straight, including a 31-17 win over No. 15 TCU in Fort Worth, the Cougars started to receive national attention. Over the final five weeks of the regular season, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. With an impressive win over the Ducks in the Las Vegas Bowl, and a myriad of superlatives to prove the Cougars worthy in every category, the national voters ranked BYU No. 15 in the final poll of the season.

Under head coach Bronco Mendenhall—the Mountain West Conference and AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year—the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 323.5 yards per game during the regular season. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fourth in the country in total offense, producing an average 465.5 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.8 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 167.08.

COACH OF THE YEAR:
BRONCO MENDENHALL

Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging +1.08 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 16th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.23) and 10th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 14.7 points per game.

BYU outscored its opponents during the regular season by an average 36.8 to 14.7 (+22.1). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season.

After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominant home team in the nation, but also finished as the most dominant home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished the season behind the Cougars in 2006, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin.

MENDENHALL NAMED REGION 5 AND MWC COACH OF THE YEAR

The American Football Coaches Association named BYU head football coach Bronco Mendenhall as the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year. Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 10-2 overall record, including a perfect 8-0 mark in league play and earned the team's first outright Mountain West Conference title since the 2001 season.

Throughout the season, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars' 10-game win streak marks the second longest active streak in the country and is only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars have recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Region 5 includes 19 different schools from both the Pac-10 and the Mountain West Conference. Other division honorees include Wake Forest's Jim Grobe (Region 1), Arkansas' Houston Nutt (Region 2), Michigan's Lloyd Carr (Region 3) and Boise State's Chris Petersen (Region 4). The AFCA began recognizing district coaches of the year following the 1960 season. In 1983, the award was changed to recognize regional winners instead of district winners.

BECK NAMED MWC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

BYU quarterback John Beck was a unanimous choice for the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year as selected by the nine head coaches and media panel.

Beck led the league in nearly every passing category. The native of Mesa, Ariz., led the league in passing yards per game (319.1), total offense per game (316.0), passing efficiency (173.3), completion percentage (70.4) and touchdown completions (30) during the regular season. During the season he had five games with over 300 yards passing, including 11 games with over 250 yards passing. He completed at least 65 percent of his attempts in 10 of the 12 games he played during the season and had three or more touchdown completions in seven games, including five games with four TD's.

Beck set a Mountain West Conference record after being named the league's Offensive Player of the Week seven different times during the season.

BEST HOME TEAM IN THE COUNTRY

The Cougars finished the 2006 regular season as the most dominant home team in the nation. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old record of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished second behind the Cougars, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin:

Team	Scoring Off.	Scoring Def.	Margin
BYU	47.16	12	+35.16
LSU	40.63	8.75	+31.88
Boise St.	46.16	15.5	+30.66
Ohio St.	37.85	10.57	+27.28

BYU finished the season with a perfect 6-0 record at home. The last time BYU had a perfect record at home was 2001 when the Cougars went 6-0 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Since the stadium was built in 1964, BYU has gone undefeated at home 13 times:

- 2006: 6-0
- 2001: 6-0
- 1998: 6-0
- 1996: 7-0
- 1991: 6-0

- 1979: 5-0
- 1977: 5-0
- 1967: 5-0

FIRST HALF DOMINANCE

BYU led at half at every one of its games last season. The Cougars also won every game in which they enjoyed larger than a one-point lead at the break. BYU has averaged a 16.16 point advantage at halftime last season including a 17-0 lead against Oregon in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Cougars were ahead by at least 21 points at the break in six of their 13 games.

TOUCHDOWNS: TAKE YOUR PICK

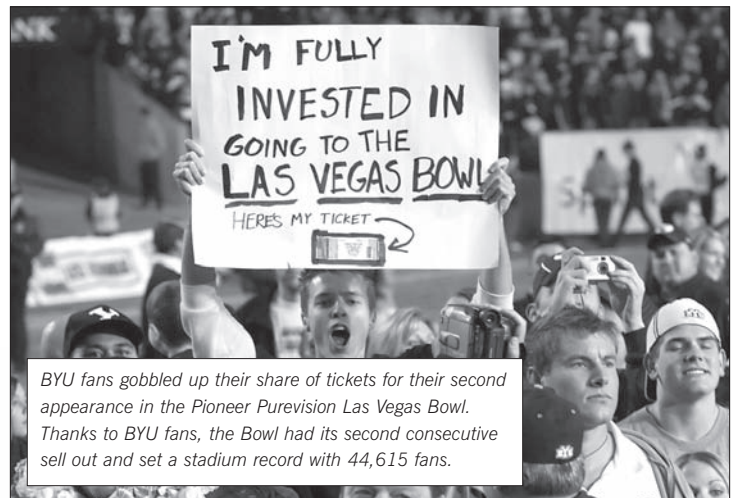

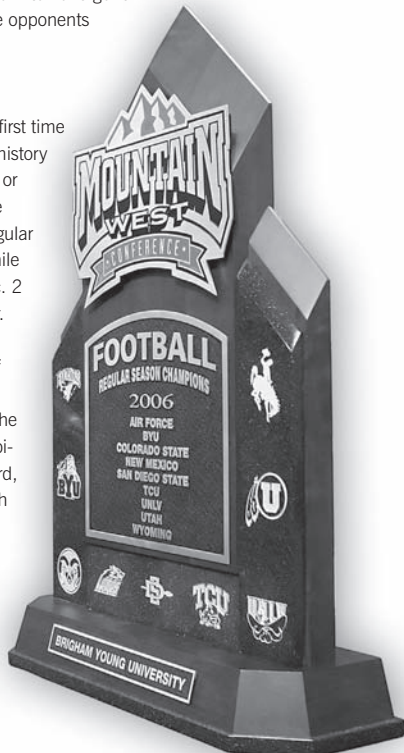

BYU scored 63 touchdowns this season (one against Arizona, seven against Tulsa, two against Boston College, five against Utah State, four against TCU, seven against San Diego State, seven against UNLV, four against Air Force, three against Colorado State, seven against Wyoming, six against New Mexico five against Utah and five against Oregon). All totaled, 14 different Cougars found their way to the end zone including Fui Vakapuna, Jonny Harline, Matt Allen, Manase Tonga, Daniel Coats, Curtis Brown, Zac Collie, John Beck, Harvey Unga, Justin Robinson, Michael Reed, Dustin Gabriel, McKay Jacobson and Mike Hague. Harline lead the Cougars with 12 touchdowns on the season.

PERFECT MWC RECORD

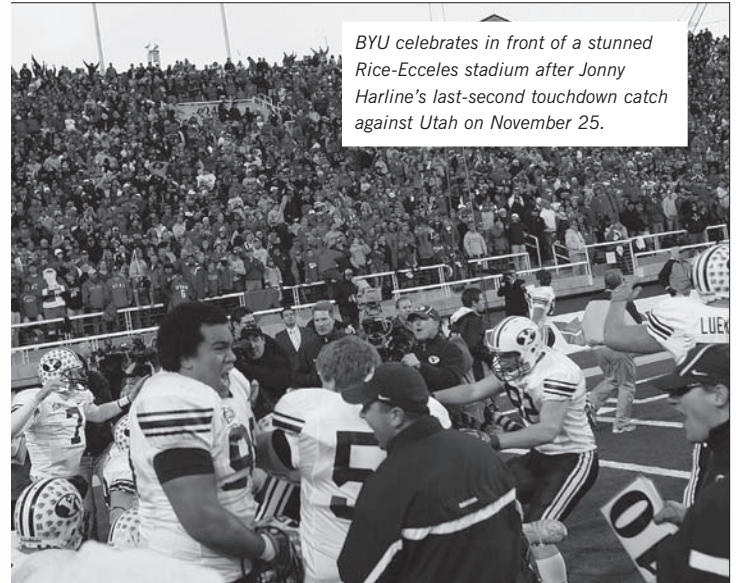

With BYU's victory over Utah the Cougars finished the Mountain West Conference schedule with a perfect 8-0 record, marking the best league record for the Cougars since the 2001 BYU team went a perfect 7-0. BYU is the only MWC team to have gone undefeated against conference opponents twice in the league's history.

AN MWC FIRST

The 2006 season marked the first time in Mountain West Conference history two league teams recorded 10 or more wins in a season. League champion BYU finished the regular season with a 10-2 record, while TCU defeated Air Force on Dec. 2 to improve to 10-2 on the year. BYU defeated TCU in head-to-head competition, knocking off the then-15th-ranked Horned Frogs, 31-17, in Fort Worth. The Cougars won the MWC Championship with a perfect 8-0 record, while TCU finished second with a 6-2 mark in league play.

BYU fans gobbled up their share of tickets for their second appearance in the Pioneer Purevision Las Vegas Bowl. Thanks to BYU fans, the Bowl had its second consecutive sell out and set a stadium record with 44,615 fans.

BYU celebrates in front of a stunned Rice-Eccles stadium after Jonny Harline's last-second touchdown catch against Utah on November 25.

2006 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year
 John Beck led the league with 323.1 yards of total offense per game. He was a unanimous MWC Player of the Year selection and was a Jonny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Davey O'Brien Award candidate.

The Cougar defense held Arizona to just 253 total yards, allowing just 67 yards rushing and 186 yards passing, but the Wildcats had the last say as they connected on a game-winning, 48-yard field goal with just one second left in the game.

BYU VS. ARIZONA GAME RECAP

Despite out-gaining Arizona by 60 total yards and holding a halftime lead, BYU dropped a heartbreaker, 16-13, to the Wildcats at Arizona Stadium. Arizona's Nick Folk hit three field goals, including a decisive 48-yarder with six seconds remaining to seal the victory for the Wildcats. BYU had a third-quarter touchdown negated by a controversial offensive pass interference and missed another opportunity with a special teams miscue in the third quarter. Behind 3-0 the Cougars got the ball back at the 34 yard line with 4:49 left in the first quarter. BYU marched 34 yards in five plays scoring on a five yard pass from John Beck to Daniel Coats. The big play on the drive was a 20-yard completion to Michael Reed as he caught a short slant, broke a pair of tackles and nearly took it the distance. In the second half BYU's offense began firing on all cylinders. Beck completed a 25-yard pass to Coats and drove the ball down to the two yard line. Beck then hooked up with Matt Allen on what appeared to be a two-yard touchdown pass. The play was negated due to a controversial offensive pass interference call. BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal off the foot of Jared McLaughlin to extend its lead to 10-6. Arizona answered with a nine-play, 80-yard drive. The Wildcats' big play on the drive was a 54-yard rush by Chris Henry. Willie Tuitama hooked up with Anthony Johnson on third down for the touchdown. After BYU added a field goal to tie the game at 13, the Wildcats were able to get just enough on their final drive, getting in Folk's field goal range. Folk drove home the 48-yard attempt, and time expired on the kickoff.

BYU's high-powered offense found its form against Conference USA's Tulsa as six different Cougars found the end zone. Curtis Brown ran for 125 yards and had 82 yards receiving, including a 62-yard touchdown run (above), to help BYU pick up a 49-24 win over Tulsa.

BYU VS. TULSA GAME RECAP

BYU's high-powered offense was back to form Saturday as six different Cougars found their way into the end zone, leading the team to its first win of the season, 49-24, over the Tulsa Golden Hurricane. BYU had put the game away long before a 53-minute lightning scare threatened to end the game with six minutes still remaining in the fourth quarter. Offensively, BYU racked up 467 total yards including 240 passing yards from quarterback John Beck. The Cougars took advantage of their scoring opportunities going 4-for-4 in the Blue Zone. Running backs Curtis Brown, Fui Vakapuna, Manase Tonga, Harvey Unga and wide receivers Zac Collie and Matt Allen each scored touchdowns in the victory. Brown (21 carries, 125 yards) and Vakapuna (11 carries, 96 yards) combined for 32 rushes and 221 yards for the game. Down 10-7 in the second quarter, the scoring continued as BYU notched another 14 points on the scoreboard with sophomore running back Manase Tonga's 6-yard touchdown run with just under four minutes to play and Allen's 3-yard touchdown reception three minutes later. BYU's Brown opened the scoring one minute and two seconds into the second half with a 62-yard touchdown reception. Brown broke four tackles and eluded six defenders during the impressive run, just the third play of the third quarter. The game was interrupted by a lightning delay late in the fourth quarter. Each team scored once after the delay, giving the Cougars a 49-24 victory.

BYU VS. BOSTON COLLEGE GAME RECAP

Missed opportunities plagued BYU as the Cougars dropped a 30-23 decision in double overtime against No. 23 Boston College. BYU amassed 547 total yards to Boston College's 471. John Beck was 38-for-59 for 436 yards and a touchdown. Curtis Brown had 54 yards rushing and 94 yards receiving. After the Cougars defense held Boston College to a three-and-out, BYU's offense gave the ball back on a fumbled snap. The Eagles made the Cougars pay, scoring on an 11-play, 62-yard touchdown drive. With a successful two-point conversion, Boston College took its first lead at 20-13. BYU responded with a monster drive of its own. The Cougars traveled 96 yards on eight plays and scored on a seven-yard, Beck-to-Vakapuna connection. BYU got a huge completion from Manase Tonga to convert a third-and-six and keep the drive alive for the Cougars. The teams traded field goals to tie the game at 23. BYU's defense held strong for both teams, not allowing a score over the final 10 minutes. BYU came close to scoring, driving the ball deep into Boston College's territory midway through the fourth quarter. McLaughlin's 44-yard field goal attempt hit the left upright and the game remained knotted at 23. The drama resumed in the overtime session. After the Cougars failed to score in their first overtime, the defense held strong and blocked Boston College's field goal attempt. Russell Tialavea extended the game for BYU blocking a field goal. In the second overtime, the Eagles wasted no time getting the ball in the end zone. A scrambling Matt Ryan hooked up with Tony Gonzalez for a 25-yard TD connection to put the Eagles ahead 30-23. The Cougars marched the ball to the 15-yard line before a tipped Beck pass fell into the arms of Jamie Silva to end the game. Originally ruled an incomplete pass, a replay showed there was visible evidence to overturn the ruling on the field.

Sophomore running back Fui Vakapuna ran for three touchdowns in the first half, helping BYU to a 38-0 victory over Utah State. The 38-0 victory over the Aggies marked the first time BYU has recorded a shutout since beating UNLV, 29-0, in 1999.

BYU VS. UTAH STATE GAME RECAP

BYU improved to 2-2 on the season with a shut out victory over Utah State at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The 38-0 victory over the Aggies marked the first time BYU has recorded a shutout since beating UNLV, 29-0, in 1999. With starting quarterback John Beck sitting out to nurse injuries, backup Jason Beck (no relation) stepped in and held his own in his first career start. The senior completed 20 of 28 passes, throwing for 305 yards, one touchdown and an interception. Among Beck's targets were Jonny Harline, who finished with five receptions and 75 yards and Curtis Brown, who had 43 yards on four receptions. Wide receivers Matt Allen (61 yards receiving) and Zac Collie (51 yards receiving) each caught three passes combining for 112 yards. Utah State had no answer for BYU running back Fui Vakapuna, who gave another strong performance rushing for 73 yards on 13 carries and scoring three touchdowns. Brown added an additional 59 yards on 17 carries. BYU finished with 441 yards of total offense, while the Cougar defense held USU to a meager 242 yards of total offense while forcing three Aggie turnovers.

In its Mountain West Conference opener, BYU defeated the defending conference champs TCU on their home turf in Texas. The Cougars celebrated their first road victory over a ranked opponent since 1997 after knocking off the No. 15 Horned Frogs.

BYU VS. TCU GAME RECAP

It was a day of streak-breaking for BYU as the Cougars broke TCU's nation's longest winning streak (13) while breaking their own losing streak against ranked opponents (13). BYU upset No. 15 TCU 31-17. John Beck, who played injured, came up huge for BYU completing 23-of-37 passes for 321 yards and three touchdowns. The Cougars did not turn the ball over on the day. BYU got off to an early lead for the fourth consecutive game. After the Cougars went three-and-out on their initial possession, the defense held TCU without any points. BYU then engineered a 15-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a Jared McLaughlin 21-yard field goal to put the Cougars ahead, 3-0. The scored remained 3-0 through the remainder of the first quarter. In the second, TCU marched down the field and got inside the Cougars' 20. David Nixon got free around the end and plastered TCU's quarterback Jeff Ballard, who fumbled the ball. Russell Tialavea jumped on the ball for the Cougars. BYU capitalized on the Ballard fumble, going 82 yards for another score. This time, the Cougars got into the end zone on an eight-yard Manase Tonga run. BYU came up with a big conversion on fourth-and-one when John Beck hooked up with Matt Allen for a 16-yard gain. In the second half the Cougars offense wasted little time extending their lead. BYU marched 67 yards on nine plays to score another touchdown. The majority of the yards came on a 40-yard touchdown pass from Beck to Michael Reed. The play came on a third-and-nine. After TCU scored a touchdown, Beck led BYU back on another scoring drive. The drive covered 68 yards on six plays and was capped by a 26-yard Beck touchdown pass to Allen. Beck led BYU on its ensuing drive down the field and hooked up with Harline on a pretty touchdown connection to take a commanding 31-10 lead in the fourth quarter.

John Beck threw to four touchdown passes, spreading the ball among eight different targets, as BYU jumped out to a 40-0 halftime lead and never looked back. Senior receiver Zac Collie hauled a 29-yard pass from Beck in the first quarter to help the Cougars jump out to a early lead. On the day Beck became the new MWC career touchdown pass leader with 59.

BYU VS. SAN DIEGO STATE GAME RECAP

BYU remained undefeated in Mountain West Conference play and extended its winning streak to three games, as the Cougars mauled San Diego State 47-17. BYU quarterback John Beck continued to add to his record-chasing season, passing for 267 yards and four touchdowns in just three quarters. Beck now has 59 career touchdown passes, a new MWC career record. His efficiency rating of 245.85 was a career-high and the highest for a Cougar quarterback since Steve Sarkisian posted a 260.8 mark against Rice in 1996. Beck's final touchdown pass, an 18-yard fling to Manase Tonga with 9:41 left in the third quarter, sealed a dominating day for Beck and the Cougars. The score put BYU up 47-10, a cushion comfortable enough to allow BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall to rest Beck for the entire fourth quarter. San Diego State started the game with a trick play by opening with an onside kick. The gamble did not pay off for the Aztecs, as BYU senior Andrew Stacey made a heads up play by signaling for a fair catch and was subsequently hit by an Aztec defender. The ensuing penalty placed BYU on San Diego State's 43-yard line to begin its opening drive. From there, the rout was on for the Cougars as BYU jumped to a 40-3 halftime lead.

The BYU defense forced six Rebel turnovers (four interceptions, two fumbles) in a 52-7 rout of UNLV on homecoming day in Provo. Freshman All-American Jan Jorgensen returned a Rocky Hinds fumble 48 yards (above) to set up BYU's fifth touchdown of the game in the third quarter.

BYU VS. UNLV GAME RECAP

For the third consecutive homecoming game Curtis Brown rushed for more than 140 yards, as BYU defeated UNLV 52-7. Brown got 141 of his 148 rushing yards in the first half, pushing him past Jeff Blanc and Lakei Heimuli into second place on BYU's all-time rushing list with 2,717 career yards. The senior running back needs 253 yards to surpass Jamal Willis as the Cougars' all-time rushing yards leader. With just over five minutes to go in the third quarter, BYU freshman Jan Jorgensen ran back a Rocky Hinds fumble 48 yards to set up BYU's fifth touchdown of the game, a five-yard John Beck-to-Jonny Harline connection -- their second scoring hook-up of the day -- that made the score 35-7. Just 4:28 later, a scrambling Beck found freshman McKay Jacobson in the left corner of the end zone for a 20-yard touchdown reception, putting an early end to Beck's day for the second week in a row. BYU kicker Jared McLaughlin chipped in a 34-yard field goal with 8:12 left to play, and freshman running back Mike Hague broke free for an 87-yard rushing touchdown, his first career touchdown, nearly five minutes later to seal the Cougars' victory. Beck kept his team undefeated in Mountain West Conference play with an 18-23, 250-yard performance. The senior quarterback also threw for four touchdowns and one interception on his way to surpassing Steve Young for third place on BYU's career total offense list. Beck now has 8,949 career yards of total offense. As a team, BYU racked up 574 yards of total offense while holding UNLV to just 308 yards of total offense and forcing six Rebels' turnovers (four interceptions, two fumbles).

AIR FORCE 14

MWC Offensive Player of the Week John Beck completed 23-of-31 attempts for 258 yards and three touchdowns to improve the Cougars to 6-2 overall and 4-0 in league play. Beck posted a completion percentage of 74 percent en route to his fifth three-touchdown performance of the season, including his fourth straight game with three or more touchdown completions. The Beck-led offense engineered points in six of the seven drives he played on the day, including a 14-play, 81-yard drive to mark the fourth straight game BYU scored on its opening drive.

BYU VS. AIR FORCE GAME RECAP

A balanced offensive attack and stingy defense led BYU to a 33-14 victory over Air Force. With the victory, the Cougars improve to 6-2 overall and maintain the conference lead with a 4-0 record against Mountain West opponents. The win was the fifth consecutive victory for the Cougars who become bowl eligible for the second consecutive year with their sixth win on the season. It is the first time BYU is bowl eligible for two straight years since the 1998 and 1999 seasons. BYU rushed for 153 yards while John Beck had another efficient outing, completing 74 percent of his passes for 258 yards and three touchdowns. For the fourth straight game, BYU got on the scoreboard on its first possession, marching 81 yards on 14 plays to put the Cougars ahead, 7-0. BYU's drive ate 7:07 off the clock and was capped when Fui Vakapuna bulled into the end zone from six yards out. BYU converted a big third-and-eight on a 10-yard pass from Beck to Vakapuna. After the Cougars were stopped on their second drive, the BYU defense came up with another big play. Air Force quarterback Shaun Carney dropped back for a pass and was drilled by Bryan Kehl as he threw the ball. The ball popped up into the air and was brought down by BYU's Aaron Wagner. The Cougars capitalized on the second Air Force turnover, marching the ball 44 yards on five plays before Beck hit Michael Reed on a quick slant for an eight-yard touchdown connection. In the second half, BYU's offense went 94 yards on 12 plays and scored when Beck scrambled and found Vakapuna just before he was hit. Vakapuna ran the ball in to give the Cougars a 30-7 lead. The Cougars added a fourth-quarter field goal to push the lead to 33-7. Air Force scored its final touchdown with :27 seconds remaining.

On the road against Colorado State, BYU displayed one of its best defensive efforts of the season helping the Cougars win their sixth straight. BYU's defense completely shut down the Rams, holding them to just 151 yards of total offense and three points. The win put BYU in the national rankings for the first time since 2002.

BYU VS. COLORADO STATE GAME RECAP

Defense propelled BYU, as the Cougars ensured themselves a winning season for the first time since 2001 by beating Colorado State, 24-3. The Cougars held the Rams to just 151 total yards while sacking the Colorado State quarterback five times in the victory. Meanwhile, BYU had 402 yards of total offense. John Beck had another efficient day passing, completing 73 percent of his passes (22-of-30) for 290 yards. BYU got on the scoreboard first for the eighth consecutive game when Manase Tonga plunged into the end zone from three yards out. The Cougars' seven-play, 50-yard scoring drive was the eighth consecutive game in which BYU scored first. Colorado State held the Cougars to a punt on BYU's first drive which marked the first time the Cougars were held out of the end zone on their initial drive since TCU held BYU to a three-and-out earlier this season. The Cougars' defense got a quick start, holding the Rams without a first down on CSU's first two possessions. BYU's Cameron Jensen got his first sack of the season on a third-and-short to force a Colorado State punt. BYU struck at the end of the half, marching 76 yards on 14 plays and scored when Fui Vakapuna fought his way into the end zone to put the Cougars ahead, 14-3. Vakapuna was initially ruled down on the play. After an instant replay review, the play was ruled a touchdown. Defense ruled the early part of the second half as neither team was able to move the ball effectively early on. On the Cougars third possession of the second half, the running game emerged. Curtis Brown, Tonga and Vakapuna led the BYU rushing attack down the field with Vakapuna finishing the drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

BYU's offense completely dominated Wyoming 55-7 in a game featuring the top two teams in the Mountain West Conference standings. Michael Reed's incredible touchdown reception (above) capped off a 21-0 first quarter that dashed any hopes the Cowboys had of an upset.

BYU VS. WYOMING GAME RECAP

No. 25 BYU guaranteed itself at least a share of the Mountain West Conference title, and its senior quarterback guaranteed his place in BYU history, as the Cougars kept their MWC-undefeated season alive with a 55-7 win over Wyoming (5-5, 4-2). A win against either of BYU's final two opponents (New Mexico on Nov. 18 or Utah on Nov. 25) will give the team its first outright conference title since 2001. John Beck surpassed former Cougar-great Jim McMahon in both career passing and career total offense with a 20-for-26, 313-yard performance. The highly acclaimed quarterback threw for two touchdowns and rushed for two more. Beck now has 9,805 career passing yards and 9,810 career yards of total offense, marking him as BYU's second most prolific in both categories. Wyoming came into LaVell Edwards Stadium holding its opponents to an average of 140 passing yards per game this season. At halftime, Beck had already thrown for 269 yards. Beck leap-frogged McMahon on the career passing list fairly early when he connected with sophomore Michael Reed for a 36-yard reception on a third-and-one in the first quarter. The toss gave Beck his 9,540th career passing yard, four more than McMahon's 9,536. Later, in the second quarter, Beck moved into second place all-time in total offense twice; once after a 22-yard completion to Nate Meikle and a second time after a 13-yard completion to Jonny Harline. Beck was sacked for a seven-yard loss between the two plays. McKay Jacobson returned a punt 77 yards into the end zone with 7:44 remaining in the fourth quarter, giving BYU its first punt return for a touchdown since 1997 when Jaron Dabney did it against Hawaii. It also gave BYU a 55-0 lead, putting a stamp on a dominating night for the Cougars.

Behind 464 yards passing and four touchdowns from senior quarterback John Beck and 124 yards rushing from senior running back Curtis Brown, the Cougars clinched their first outright Mountain West Conference championship since the 2001 season. The conference championship is BYU's 22nd title and third MWC crown. With BYU's 42-17 win over New Mexico, the Cougars outscored their opponents 283-72 at home during the 2006 season.

BYU VS. NEW MEXICO GAME RECAP

No. 23 BYU completed its season-long, home-field dominance the best way it possibly could--a 42-17 victory over New Mexico to clinch the outright 2006 Mountain West Conference championship. Not only did the win give the Cougars its 22nd overall conference championship, it marked BYU's first undefeated home season since 2001. During the MWC trophy ceremony following the game, Executive Bowl Committee representative Rueben Herrera invited BYU to participate in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl on Dec. 21. For the seniors, the game was their last at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Fittingly, John Beck and Curtis Brown saved their best for last as Brown broke BYU's all-time rushing record, and Beck threw for 464 passing yards--the most he's thrown this season--and four touchdowns. Not least among this day of milestones was Brown's record-breaking rush in the first quarter. On a second-and-10 in the game's opening drive, Beck took the snap, skipped to his left and handed it off to Brown. Brown found the hole straight up the middle and scurried untouched for a 49-yard touchdown carry. The run moved Brown past Jamal Willis into first place on BYU's all-time rushing list. Brown finished the day with 124 rushing yards on 13 carries. He now has 3,056 career rushing yards, giving him the distinction of being the only 3,000-yard rusher in BYU history.

In one of the most memorable plays in BYU football history, John Beck found Jonny Harline (above) all alone in the end zone as time expired, giving No. 21 BYU a 33-31 come-from-behind victory over rival Utah. Jonny Harline hauled in three touchdowns on the day but none were bigger than his final TD as time expired. The late-game heroics also gave BYU an unblemished conference record of 8-0.

BYU VS. UTAH GAME RECAP

In possibly one of the most exciting games in the storied rivalry history, the Blue/Red Bowl went down to the last play--a play that seemed to last an eternity--before John Beck found Jonny Harline all alone in the end zone as time expired, giving No. 21 BYU a 33-31 come-from-behind victory over Utah. The Cougars outscored the Utes 19-7 in the fourth quarter. BYU drove 75 yards in 10 plays in the last 1:19 to win the game, responding to a nine-play, 83-yard Utah drive. Beck finished the regular season going 28-for-43 for 375 yards and four touchdowns in his final regular season game. Harline finished with seven catches for 118 yards and three touchdowns. Down 24-20, the Cougars put together a drive, marching 90 yards on 13 plays while eating 6:37 off the clock. BYU capped the drive when Beck found another tight end in Daniel Coats for a two-yard touchdown pass. Beck's senior leadership showed as he completed 6-of-7 passes on the Cougars' scoring drive. On Utah's ensuing drive the BYU defense held the Utes to a fourth down and two from the Utes' 25-yard line. Ratliff got six yards and a first down to extend Utah's drive. Ratliff then found Casteel on two big pass plays, the second a 19-yard screen play good for a Utah touchdown. The senior leadership persevered through the last drive as the Beck-to-Harline tandem came up huge on several occasions, including the game winning touchdown. On fourth-and-four Beck found Harline to convert the first down. Five plays later, the two hooked up one last time to win the game.

The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. Senior tight end Jonny Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown.

NO. 19 BYU VS. OREGON GAME RECAP

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28-of-46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

One of BYU's marquee victories came in 1990 when the Cougars opened the season by stunning top-ranked Miami in Provo. After the victory, fans stormed the field to celebrate another major victory for the BYU football program.

BYU's winning tradition was built by legendary Cougar head coach LaVell Edwards. After taking over the program in 1972, Edwards erected an offensive powerhouse that rewrote the record books and established itself among the nation's elite football programs. Edwards, a two-time NCAA National Coach of the Year and the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history, taught his players and the nation what a passing offense truly was. The Cougar offense passed 103,562 yards (about 59 miles) throughout Edwards' 29 seasons as head coach, and now BYU's football stadium is branded with a namesake worth a lifetime of amazing stories. Since 1972 the Cougars have won 20 conference championships, a national championship in 1984 and 23 postseason appearances.

1972 LaVell Edwards, defensive coordinator for the Cougars, is named head coach in January... had been a member of the BYU staff since 1962... halfback Pete Van Valkenburg wins NCAA rushing title beating out All-Americans Greg Pruitt and Otis Armstrong with a 138.6 yards-per-game average... the Cougars also lead the league in defense against the rush.

1973 The Cougars begin to move offensively... quarterback Gary Sheide is runner-up in NCAA passing and third in total offense... teammate Jay Miller leads the nation in pass receiving (100 receptions for 1,181 yards)... Cougars finish second nationally in passing and eighth in total offense... Miller sets an NCAA record for most pass receptions (22) in one game... running back Steve Stratton is named the first Academic All-American in school history.

1974 Team ranks high in two NCAA statistical categories: seventh in passing offense, third in rushing defense... Gary Sheide is runner-up in passing for the second year in a row (behind Steve Bartkowski of California) ... Sheide's career completion percentage is fourth all-time.. Bartkowski's final pass completion edged Sheide (182-181) for title... LaVell wins first WAC championship and a trip to the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma St.—BYU's first bowl.

1975 A year of adjustment: the Cougars falter through the first part of the season, then win six of their last eight games... Gifford Nielsen, a sophomore reserve, comes off the bench in the fourth game (New Mexico) to spark a come-from-behind victory... Nielsen sets WAC record with 10-of-12 passing... becomes starter... Cougars finish 10th nationally in team passing.

1976 Gifford Nielsen places fourth in NCAA completions per game (18.8) with only one-tenth completion separating him from Jack Thompson (Washington State) in second place... Nielsen finishes second to Tommy Kramer (Rice) in total offense... Cougars finish first in passing (307.8), sixth in total offense (424.4) and eighth in NCAA scoring (31.9)... Nielsen voted first team All-American... BYU ties for WAC title and plays Oklahoma State in the Tangerine Bowl.

1977 Gifford Nielsen unexpectedly exits scene with injury in fourth game (Oregon State) and Marc Wilson takes over... by the end of the year, the two have combined for 40 TD passes, 3,585 yards passing and a .605 completion percentage... Wilson finishes eighth in passing and third in total offense... Cougars lead nation in passing (341.6), finish second in scoring (39.4) and third in total offense (470.2)... BYU's 341.6 yards passing per game was third highest in NCAA history, and 41 TDs was second... Cougars top the nation in takeaways (fumbles recovered or interceptions) with a total of 56... Cougars tie for first in WAC and make a post-season trip to play two Japanese all-star teams.

1978 Both Marc Wilson and sophomore Jim McMahon see action in 10 games as they share quarterback duties... Cougars are eighth in passing and fourth in fumble recoveries... Cougars win the WAC, play their final regular-season game in Yokohama, Japan, against UNLV, and meet Navy in the first Holiday Bowl.

1979 With two all-conference quarterbacks to choose from, Edwards decides to redshirt McMahon and play senior Wilson... Cougars upset Texas A&M in season opener and go on to record 11 straight wins ... Wilson leads the nation in total offense (325.5) and is fourth in pass efficiency (147.1)... finishes the year as consensus All-American with 10 NCAA records to his credit... Cougars lead the nation in four categories: passing (368.3), total offense (521.4), scoring (40.6) and kickoff returns (26.3)... Cougars are 12th in scoring defense (11.4) and sixth in punting (40.1)... BYU becomes first Division I school to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season... LaVell receives the Bobby Dodd Coach-of-the-Year award... Cougars win the WAC and play Indiana in Holiday Bowl II.

Jim McMahon was named the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year, with Marcus Allen, after an amazing 1981 season. McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a consensus All-American and was third in the Heisman balloting.

1980 The school's first 12-win season... BYU leads the nation in three statistical categories: total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8)... quarterback Jim McMahon is named to the Kodak All-America team along with tackle Nick Eyre... McMahon is the first Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season (4,571)... sets or ties 26 NCAA records, most in total offense and passing... pass efficiency (176.9) was the highest ever... also led the nation in total offense (385.6)... after losing the first game to New Mexico, BYU wins 12 straight ... Cougars win WAC and defeat SMU in Holiday Bowl III by scoring 21 points in the final four minutes.

1981 Another 11-win season for the Cougars... have a 17-game win streak and rank eighth in the polls before losing to Nevada-Las Vegas... BYU leads the nation in passing for the third consecutive year... McMahon earns All-America honors and finishes his career with 70 NCAA records and sets record with all-time high in career pass efficiency (156.9) ... McMahon wins the first Davey O'Brien Award ... Cougars win WAC and play Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV... LaVell coaches West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl... also coaches in the Japan Bowl... Edwards' 86-32-1 record ranks among top 10 in the nation.

1982 BYU expands Cougar Stadium to 65,000 seats and sells out each game... loses home opener to Air Force (39-38) but comes back to win seventh straight WAC title and plays Ohio State in Holiday Bowl V... Gordon Hudson is named consensus All-American... BYU finishes third nationally in total offense... Steve Young is named WAC Offensive Player of the Year.

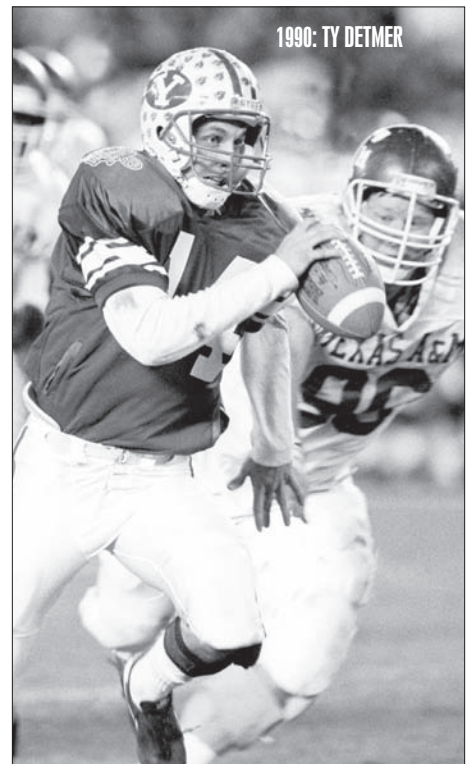

1983 Another 11-win season... Cougars are ranked seventh in final polls, highest ever for a BYU team... quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson both named consensus All-Americans... after losing to Baylor in the opening game, BYU wins final 11 games... BYU leads the nation in passing and total offense and is second in scoring... Cougars set NCAA total offense record with 584.2 yards per game... BYU wins eighth straight WAC title and defeats Missouri in Holiday Bowl VI... Edwards surpasses the 100-victory milestone... Young wins the Davey O'Brien Award and finishes runner-up for the Heisman.

1984 Cougars win the National Championship by becoming only the third team in NCAA history to win 13 games in a season... win streak is extended to 24 games... quarterback Robbie Bosco leads the nation in passing and finishes second to Doug Flutie in pass efficiency (151.8)... defensive back Kyle Morrell named first team All-American... team leads the nation in passing (346.2) and total offense (486.5)... defensively, Cougars finish 10th in scoring defense... another WAC championship and a victory over Michigan in Holiday Bowl VII... Edwards named NCAA Coach of the Year by most organizations ...Bosco is runner-up for the Davey O'Brien Award and third in the Heisman.

1985 Cougars' defense of the National Championship begins with win over Boston College in the Kickoff Classic... that game plus a bowl and playing at Hawaii allows BYU to become the only collegiate team to play 14 games in a season... defensive tackle Jason Buck is named third team All-American and WAC Defensive Player of the Year... Mark Bellini earns second-team All-America honors... a tie with Air Force for the WAC championship... quarterback Robbie Bosco ranks second in total offense and seventh in pass efficiency... finishes third in the Heisman Trophy balloting... BYU defense ranks 19th against the rush and 18th overall... Cougars lose to Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl and end the season ranked 16th in both polls.

1986 Edwards passes Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC football history... Jason Buck becomes only the third player in the Western United States to win the Outland Trophy and is named consensus All-America ... Shawn Knight is also named to several All-American teams ... Lakei Heimuli comes on strong toward the end of the season to break Jeff Blanc's record for career rushing yards... Cougars fail to win WAC championship for the first time in 11 years but post an 8-5 record and play UCLA in the Freedom Bowl.

1987 BYU defense leads the nation with 50 takeaways (28 interceptions and 22 fumble recoveries) with Troy Long getting the most defensive points... after offensive line is decimated in pre-season camp, Cougars bounce back from 1-2 start to win eight of final nine regular season games... Cougars come within a two-point conversion of another WAC title... Chuck Cutler begins the first of two years as a GTE Academic All-America first teamer... Leonard Chitty sets career records for consecutive conversions (42) and for field goals (34)... Cougars rank ninth nationally in passing offense and 22nd in scoring offense... Cougars win Gridiron Bowl (the final regular-season game against Colorado St.) in Melbourne, Australia, but injuries prove costly in the All American Bowl versus Virginia.

1988 Cougars win seven straight but drop to third in WAC race... punter Pat Thompson named All-America and finishes second nationally while team is first in punting and net punting... behind quarterbacks Sean Covey and Ty Detmer, BYU is fourth in passing, 13th in total offense and 13th in scoring... BYU plays second-ranked Miami even for three quarters... Bob Davis is a finalist for the Butkus Award as the country's top linebacker... 11th straight bowl trip (Freedom Bowl) is 20-17 upset over Colorado.

1989 BYU returns to the top of the WAC after a three-year absence... offensive lineman Mohammed Elewonibi becomes the second BYU player in four years to win the Outland Trophy and is consensus All-American... Bob Davis and Chris Smith are named to several All-American teams ... Fred Whittingham is first team Academic All-America... sophomore Ty Detmer breaks 11 NCAA records and ties two others... Cougars make 12th straight bowl appearance but drop a tough game to Penn State in the Holiday Bowl.

1990 Ty Detmer, a consensus first team All-American, becomes the first player in the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy...also wins the Davey O'Brien Award...finishes with 5,188 yards passing—the most ever—and increases his NCAA records to 47... Chris Smith also is consensus All-American and has more reception yards (1,156) than any tight end in history... Andy Boyce gains more yards receiving (1,241) than anyone who has played at BYU... Matt Bellini breaks the career record for catches with

1994: Mike Ulufale and the No. 10 ranked BYU Cougars

204... BYU shocks the nation by upsetting top-ranked Miami but loses a shot at being number one with a loss at Oregon... BYU wins the WAC and goes to its 13th straight bowl.

1991 Cougars go undefeated in the final 10 games as Ty Detmer finishes his incredible career with 62 NCAA records, including an amazing 15,031 yards passing and a career passing efficiency of 162.7 (nearly five points above Jim McMahon's previous record)... BYU ties seventh-ranked Iowa, 13-13, at the Holiday Bowl, its 14th straight bowl game... Shad Hansen sets a school record with 325 career defensive points... Peter Tuipulotu winds up with the best career rushing average (5.5)... Detmer repeats as the Davey O'Brien Award winner.

1994: COUGARS DEFEAT NOTRE DAME IN SOUTH BEND

1992 Cougars are forced to use three different quarterbacks (and a fourth in the bowl game) but finish fifth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense... 23rd in rushing defense... among the highlights were beating powerful Penn State (30-3 until the closing minutes), a first-ever game against Notre Dame, finally taking the series lead against Utah State and the 19th win by Coach Edwards in 21 games against Utah... Ryan Hancock finishes third in total offense and passing... BYU wins WAC title and goes to the Aloha Bowl...BYU's 15th straight bowl.

1993BYU ties for the WAC title and goes to the Holiday Bowl (16th straight bowl game), nearly beating Big Ten co-champ Ohio State...Cougars win all four league games in September before injuries hit and team loses four games in October... BYU gains 20th straight non-losing season... team ranks second in passing and ninth in total offense and John Walsh is fifth in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency... freshman Alan Boardman finishes ninth nationally in punting and Eric Drage sets career records for touchdown receptions (29) and yardage (3,066)... BYU's NCAA record of 53-straight games with a touchdown pass ends at CSU, but Cougars extend the nation's longest streak without being shut out to 236 consecutive games.

1994 It's a historic season with victories over Notre Dame and Oklahoma to finish 10th in the final CNN/USA Today poll... five players are drafted, the most ever... Cougars win their first bowl game since 1988... BYU dedicates Copper Bowl effort to graduate assistant coach John Farley, who was sidelined in August with heart trouble and died in December... Cougars are third nationally in passing with John Walsh fifth in total offense... Jamal Willis becomes the all-time leading rusher and breaks the record for touchdowns...David Lauder sets a career record for consecutive PATs with 53.

1995 A first-ever multi-year contract for a BYU coach is given to Edwards... the string of 17 consecutive bowl games comes to an end... Cougars finish number two in NCAA in punt returns at 18.9, while James Dye is number one at 21.9... Steve Sarkisian is the first junior college player since 1973 to start as a BYU quarterback ... BYU finishes in a four-way tie for first in the WAC.

1996BYU completes the longest season in Division I college football history and plays in its first ever New Year's Day bowl game with a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State... BYU finishes the season with a 14-1 record and a No. 5 national ranking in both polls, its highest ranking since 1984...QB Steve Sarkisian leads the nation in pass efficiency with a 173.6 rating...the Cougars finish sixth in the nation in total offense with 478 yards per game... the defense leads the WAC in rushing yards allowed (124.6), total yards allowed (316.3) and points allowed (18.7)...James Dye finishes second in the nation in punt returns with a 17.6 average...BYU wins the inaugural WAC Championship game with a 28-25 victory over Wyoming in Las Vegas, Nevada...BYU goes undefeated in the WAC, giving LaVell Edwards his 18th career title.

1997: Kevin Feterik leads BYU over Arizona State.

becomes the school's all-time leading scorer, picking up 90 points on the season to give him a career total 247 ... a six-game winning streak in the middle of the season has BYU ranked as high as No. 12 in the USAToday/CNN Coaches' Poll ... running back Luke Staley is named Freshman All-American and conference Freshman of the Year, leading the nation's freshmen in scoring average with 78 points in eight games ... Rob Morris returns from a four-game absence to earn All-America status ... Morris is picked in the first round with the 28th overall pick by the Indianapolis Colts ... The Cougars finish the season ranked first in the conference in total offense and rushing defense, as well as eighth in the nation in passing offense and 14th in the nation in rushing defense ... BYU makes its first-ever Motor City Bowl appearance against Marshall ... Edwards concludes the season with his 20th career conference title and 22nd bowl appearance in 28 years.

Steve Sarkisian raises the 1996 WAC Championship trophy after an amazing come-from-behind, overtime victory against Wyoming in the WAC Championship game.

and set BYU single-season records for points scored, touchdowns scored and rushing yards ... injuries took Staley out of the Cougars final two games which resulted in loses at Hawaii and in the Liberty Bowl against Louisville ... BYU climbed the national polls to as high as No. 7 on Nov. 25th and finished the season ranked No. 24 in both polls ... First-Team All-MWC defensive end Ryan Denney was named to the Academic All-America team and was drafted in the second round by the Buffalo Bills ... All-MWC tight end Doug Jolley was also selected in the second round of the 2002 NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.

1997 BYU finishes fifth in the WAC's Mountain Division with an overall record of 6-5 (4-4 in the WAC)... Cougars fail to receive a bowl bid for only the second time in 20 years... Drew Miller becomes first ever true freshman to start at quarterback for BYU... starting QB role is never quite locked up as three different quarterbacks see considerable playing time throughout the season... Brian McKenzie becomes only the fourth Cougar to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season and moves into sixth place on BYU's career rushing list with 1,954 yards.

1998 BYU runs up a 7-1 conference record (9-5 overall) to win the WAC Pacific Division title ... The Cougars meet Tulane in their first-ever Liberty Bowl appearance ... BYU's season is highlighted by its defense, ranked No. 5 in the nation, allowing only 91.2 rushing yards and 273.9 total yards per game ... After a slow start, the Cougars won seven games in a row ... Season highlights included a 26-6 thumping of Arizona State, a 13-0 shutout of San Diego State and a 26-24 victory over Utah ... Rob Morris, John Tait, Brian Gray and Daren Yancey were all named to the All-WAC first team ... John Tait was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft (14th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs ... Sophomore kicker Owen Pochman set a school record by connecting on 62 consecutive PATs.

1999 Won the first-ever Mountain West Conference Championship with an 8-4 season record (5-2 conf.) ... A 27-20 win over Air Force marks LaVell Edwards' 250th victory as head coach of the Cougars ... junior kicker Owen Pochman

2000 BYU won its last two games, including a memorable thriller at Utah, to send coach LaVell Edwards out with a 6-6 record in his 29th and final year as a head coach...Playing one of its toughest schedules in history, the Cougars played Mississippi State, Syracuse, Virginia and national power Florida State in the Kickoff Classic...Against Utah, BYU trailed by one point but went 80 yards on nine plays, including two dramatic passes from quarterback Brandon Doman to wide receiver Jonathan Pittman, for the come-from-behind victory...Owen Pochman, Setema Gali, Jr., Justin Ena and Aaron Edmonds were all named to the All-Mountain West Conference first team... Pochman and Tevita Ofahengaue are both selected in the NFL draft with Ofahengaue being "Mr. Irrelevant" as the last player selected in the draft.

2001 In his first season after taking over the BYU football program Gary Crowton led the Cougars to 12 consecutive victories and an outright Mountain West Conference title thanks to a dramatic come-from-behind victory over rival Utah in Provo ... Luke Staley was named a consensus All-American and became BYU's first Doak Walker Award winner for the nation's top running back ... Staley led the nation in scoring at 15.45 points per game and was third nationally in rushing at 143.82 yards per game ... The Cougars led the nation in scoring offense with 46.77 points per game and in total offense with 542.85 yards per game ... BYU was the first MWC school to go undefeated in conference games and boasted eight players being named as first-team all-league ... Staley was named Offensive Player of the Year in the Conference

2002 For the first time since 1973 the Cougars finished the regular-season with a sub-.500 record ... coincidentally, the '73 season was the second under legendary coach LaVell Edwards ... his replacement, Gary Crowton, just completed his second season at BYU...for the first time in the four-season history of the MWC, BYU failed to win a conference road game, going 0-3 ... the Cougars combined to post a 9-2 conference road mark through the league's first three seasons ... Matt Berry was the first redshirt freshman quarterback to start at BYU since Ty Detmer in 1988...Brady Poppinga led the MWC with eight sacks for minus 52 yards .. he averaged 0.67 sacks per game, with all of his sacks being solo stops...BYU attempted fourth-down conversions a MWC leading 42 times this season. The Cougars converted 17 times and ranked sixth in the league with a 40.5 percentage...Matt Payne led the country with a punting average of 47.6 yards.

2003 BYU posted back-to-back losing seasons for the first time since 1970-71 before LaVell Edwards took over the reigns of the program...John Beck became only the second true-freshman to start at quarterback for BYU when he started against Stanford ... Running back Reynaldo Brathwaite recorded the longest run from scrimmage in Cougar history against San Diego State. Brathwaite, who also had an 89-yard run against New Mexico, scampered for a 95-yard score against the Aztecs on his way to 144 yards rushing on the night ... Freshman tight end Daniel Coats was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-America team after posting 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns...The Cougars' NCAA-record scoring steak ended at 361 after being shut out 3-0 against Utah in the final game of the season. The last time BYU was shut out was when Arizona State blanked the Cougars 20-0 on September 27, 1975.

2004 BYU posted its third-consecutive losing season, the longest such streak since the Cougars were sub-.500 from 1959-64 ... Despite the losing 5-6 record, BYU finished third place in the Mountain West Conference at 4-3 ... The Cougars' schedule was one of the most difficult in team history, including games against Notre Dame, the defending national champions USC, then-undefeated Boise State and an undefeated University of Utah team ... John Beck and newcomer receivers Todd Watkins and Austin Collie combined to create one of the most potent passing attacks in the league ... Beck threw for 2,563 yards while Watkins, a transfer from Grossmont Junior College caught 52 passes for 1,042 yards and six touchdowns ... Collie, a true freshman, caught a team-high 53 passes for 771 yards and eight touchdowns ... Matt Payne finished his career as second on BYU's all-time scoring list with 312 and set an NCAA record for most consecutive field goals between 40-49 at 14, dating back to the 2002 season ... he also set the school record for most consecutive PATS with 67, dating back to 2002 ... Gary Crowton resigned at the end of the season and replaced by Bronco Mendenhall.

2005 Under the direction of first-year coach Bronco Mendenhall, the Cougars finished the 2005 regular season at 6-6, the first time BYU finished at .500 or better since 2001 ... The Cougars were 6-5 overall in the regular season and finished tied for second in the Mountain West Conference at 5-3 ... BYU earned an invitation to the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl and played California ... The Cougars fell to California, 35-28 ... Mendenhall revamped the coaching staff prior to the season, adding Robert Anae (offensive coordinator), Brandon Doman (quarterbacks coach) and Patrick Higgins (wide receivers coach) ... BYU also switched back to the traditional uniforms, while maintaining the navy blue, worn by all of the great BYU teams with the traditional Y logo on the helmets ... John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown led an offensive attack that was BYU's most potent since 2001, averaging 33.0 points per game (second in the MWC and 24th in the nation) and 462.4 yards of total offense per game ... Beck led the conference and was fifth in the nation in passing yards (309.1 per game) and led the conference in touchdown passes (27) ... Brown also added six 100-yard rushing games to give him 11 for his career, the most in BYU history ... Harline led the team and ranked among the top tight ends in the nation with 63 receptions for 853 yards and five touchdowns ... Beck, Brown and Harline were all named to the All-MWC First Team Cameron Jensen led the team in tackles for the second-consecutive year by recording 84.

2006 BYU knocked off 10 straight opponents, currently the second longest winning streak in the nation, over the final three months to finish the 2006 season with an 11-2 record ... The Cougars tallied a perfect clip against league opponents to win their first outright Mountain West Conference Championship since the 2001 season ... BYU went on to dismantle Oregon, 38-8, in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl ... The Cougars' 10-game win streak marked the longest since the 2001 season and only the seventh time in the program's history the Cougars have had nine or more consecutive wins in a single season ... BYU earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings ... With an impressive win over the Ducks in the Las Vegas Bowl, and a myriad of superlatives to prove the Cougars worthy in every category, the national voters ranked BYU No. 15 in the final poll of the season ... Under head coach Bronco Mendenhall—the Mountain West Conference and AFCA

Region 5 Coach of the Year—the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 323.5 yards per game during the regular season. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fourth in the country in total offense, producing an average 465.5 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.8 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 167.08 ... Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging +1.08 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 16th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.23) and 10th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 14.7 points per game ... BYU outscored its opponents during the regular season by an average 36.8 to 14.7 (+22.1). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season. After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominant home team in the nation, but also they finished as the most dominant home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished the season behind the Cougars in 2006, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin.

Larry Moore anchored a powerful offensive line in 1995-96 before heading to the NFL.

Ronney Jenkins' 1,307 yards rushing helped BYU win the 1998 Pacific Division WAC Championship.

Aaron Francisco helped lead a Bronco Mendenhall defense in 2003 that ranked 14th in the nation.

BYU'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

After posting a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars were awarded gold national championship rings after winning the 1984 National Championship.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. They won the Grantland Rice Trophy and the MacArthur Bowl. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan in the White House.

The dream season featured plays like wide receiver Adam Haysbert's deep touchdown catch at third-ranked Pittsburgh, safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center on a goal-line stand at Hawaii, tight end David Mill's catch with a clouded eye against Wyoming and running back Kelly Smith's winning TD catch against Michigan, who had been ranked second earlier in the season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, junior quarterback Robbie Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the second quarter with an ankle injury and returned taped to play shotgun late in the second quarter. The 24-17 victory over Michigan was the first time a No. 1 team played in a non-New Year's Day bowl. Other injuries throughout the season were offensive lineman Craig Kozlowski, who came through time and again.

The Cougars ascended to the number one spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then second-ranked South Carolina.

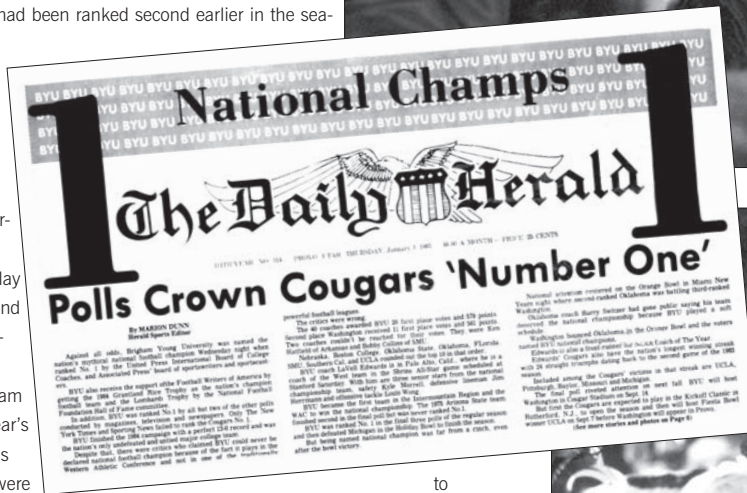

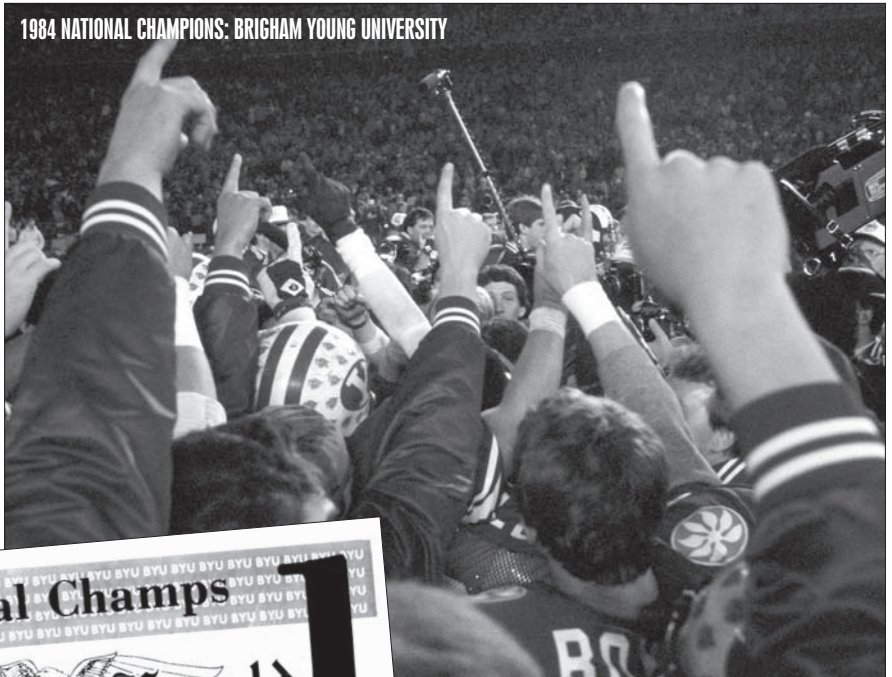

The Cougars rose from no ranking to 12th, sixth, fourth, down to eighth, to fifth for two weeks, back to fourth, then third, back to fourth, again to third and then first in the 1984 campaign. Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, whose team lost at BYU 47-13, in game two, was the first to cast a No. 1 vote for the Cougars.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer, accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule.

Fifteen players from the 1984 team were drafted by the National Football League. Seven different teams held the No. 1 spot in 1984, but in the end it belonged to undefeated BYU.

TY DETMER: 1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

“He had me running around like a chicken with my head cut off. We didn’t play that bad, Detmer is just that good.”

—PENN STATE LINEBACKER ANDRE COLLINS (1989 HOLIDAY BOWL)

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawaii. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, “Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU,” — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations “necktie” campaign for Ty, the 6-0, 175, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame’s Raghib “Rocket” Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman ballot in 1991.

“Winning the Heisman was a great honor,” said Detmer. “There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU.”

Detmer’s portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU'S TWO OUTLAND TROPHY WINNERS

BYU is one of only 11 schools to have two Outland Trophy winners, joining the likes of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas.

JASON BUCK • 1986

Transfers Jason Buck, a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi, an offensive guard, won the Outland in 1986 and 1989, respectively.

Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI • 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

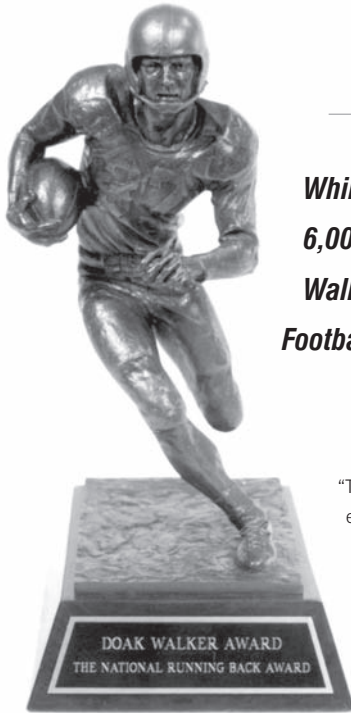

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

LUKE STALEY • 2001 DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawaii, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley is the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNSI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The sixth-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the Xs and Os while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them.

He treats everybody well." Former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said. "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback in the past 22 years to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Krammer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Steve Walsh (1988), Jeff George (1989), David Klingler (1990), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995), Ryan Leaf (1997), Daunte Culpepper (1998), Chad Pennington (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), David Carr (2001), Kliff Kingsbury (2002), B.J. Symons (2003), Matt Leinart (2004), Brady Quinn (2005), Colt Brennan (2006). BYU has more Sammy Baugh winners than any other university in the nation.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

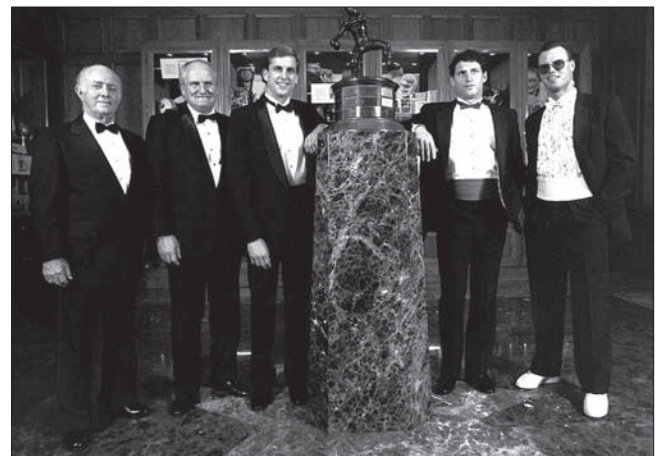

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996. Others who have won the award include: Todd Blackledge (1982), Doug Flutie (1984), Chuck Long (1985), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Dan McPherson (1987), Troy Aikman (1988), Andre Ware (1989), Gino Torretta (1992), Charlie Ward (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995 & '96), Peyton Manning (1997), Michael Bishop (1998), Joe Hamilton (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), Eric Crouch (2001), Brad Banks (2002), Jason White (2003 and 2004), Vince Young (2005), Troy Smith (2006). STEVE SARKISIAN SPOTLIGHT: After tutoring a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and winning a national championship at USC, the former Sammy Baugh Trophy winner and BYU signal caller continues to excel in the football world. In 2004 he was the quarterbacks coach for the NFL's Oakland Raiders before returning to USC as the offensive coordinator, replacing former BYU assistant Norm Chow. While at BYU, Sarkisian had a record-setting two-year (1995-96) career. Sarkisian completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the seventh best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and a second-team All-American. As a junior, he was All-WAC and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2 percent)

EVER SINCE GARY SHEIDE IN 1973, BYU HAS PRODUCED AN ASSEMBLY LINE OF OUTSTANDING QUARTERBACKS IN PROVO THAT HAVE EARNED UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS IN THE MARKET OF COLLEGE AND PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates.

Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in recent years, and several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list. In the last 20 years, two different BYU quarterbacks (more than any other school) have led their teams to NFL championships (Jim McMahon and Steve Young).

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top five career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars have led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times. In 2006 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year quarterback John Beck was the No. 4 passer in the nation as he helped lead a resurrection of the storied BYU offense of old.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse, rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU has won or tied for the WAC or MWC championship 20 times, played in 24 post-season bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

FACTOID:

Taking Turns: From 1978 to 1984 — seven straight years — a BYU quarterback was named first-team All-Western Athletic Conference. McMahon got the ball rolling in 1978 as a sophomore. Wilson followed as a senior in 1979, then McMahon twice (1980, 1981), Young twice (1982, 1983) and finally Bosco in 1984.

FACTOID:

Rewriting the NCAA Record Book: From Wilson in 1978 to Detmer in 1991 BYU quarterbacks broke or tied an amazing 165 NCAA records. McMahon led the way with an unheard of 70 records.

BYU's football program has tapped into the Pacific Islands to find players since 1951 when Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawaii transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55; father of current BYU Offensive Coordinator Robert Anae), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963); John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL.

Since 1951, over 100 Polynesian players have suited up for BYU, including 23 that will don the blue and white in 2006. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's second all-time rushing leader Lakei Heimuli. Eight former BYU Polynesian players are currently on NFL rosters.

Of the more than 100 Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian as are two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards. Since 1982, nine of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

A list of other Polynesians who excelled on the gridiron for BYU include: Mekeli Ieremia (1974-1977), Wally Molifua (1972-1973), Pili Saluone (1970-71), Charles Ah You (1973-74), Keith Uperesa (1974-77), Pisa Finai (1975), Marcus Kanahele (1975-76), Pulusila Filiaga (1979-81), David Aupiu (1979-82), Allen Salanoa (1982), Brad Anae (1980-81), Louis Wong (1982-84), Robert Anae (1982-84), Lakei Heimuli (1983-1986), Kurt Gouveia (1983-85), Ladd Akeo (1984-86), Andy Kato (1984-1987), Steve Kaufusi (1983-86), Thor Salanoa (1985-87), Chris Bisho (1986-1987), Alema Harrington (1986-88), Tau Harrington (1988-1990), and Sim Tiatia (1988-90), Tom Tuipulotu (1983-85), Peter Tuipulotu (1989-91), Wayne Faaluafua (1981-1982); Fotu Katoa (1989) Rich Kaufusi (1989-90); Chris Matau (1985-1986);

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. With BYU's tradition of wide-open offenses, the tight end position has thrived in its offensive scheme.

Tight ends have thrived in the BYU offensive system for years. Like no other school in the nation, BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in BYU's wide-open offense. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, eight BYU tight ends have earned All-American status. Since 1976, 10 Cougar tight ends have received 16 First-Team All-Conference citations. Five current BYU tight ends are playing in the NFL. Doug Jolley (A second-round NFL pick) is now with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers while Gabriel Reid is coming off a Super Bowl appearance in 2006-07 and entering his fourth season with the Chicago Bears. After stellar careers with BYU, All-American Jonny Harline and four-year contributor Daniel Coats signed free agent contracts with the Indianapolis Colts and Cincinnati Bengals, respectively. Two former BYU tight ends Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers.

In 2006 BYU once again turned to its tight ends with tremendous success. Harline led the team in receiving yards (935), touchdowns (12) while ranking second on the team in total receptions (58). Harline was named to the All-Mountain West Conference First Team and earned several All-America citations. Even with the departure of Harline and Coats, the Cougars return a

The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana has honored five of BYU's Football Greats. The fifth Cougar to be inducted into this prestigious hall is legendary BYU coach LaVell Edwards. Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All-America selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12-member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Indiana and is open year round. For more information visit <http://collegefootball.org/>.

A coaching icon, whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU--a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17 straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans--not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL.

BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

Inducted: 2001

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Steve Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks en route to setting 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors.

In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and his 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games is among college football's all-time greatest career numbers.

A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community -- a tradition he maintains today with the successful Forever Young Foundation.

Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to the Super Bowl Championship in 1995, earning most-valuable-player honors. Young will be inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

JIM MCMAHON

Inducted: 1998*

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 First Team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned First team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU.

McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

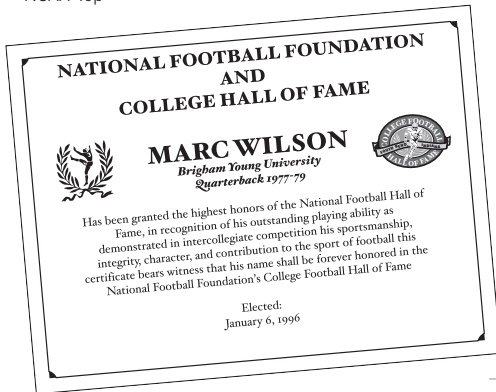

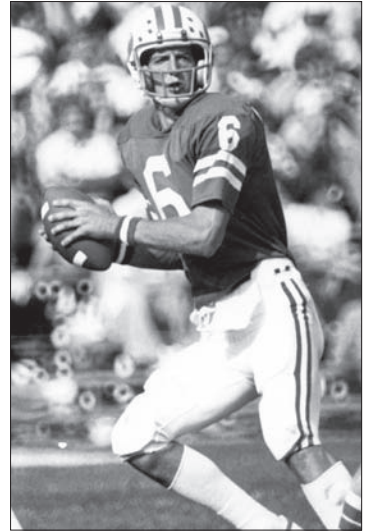

MARC WILSON

Inducted: 1996*

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set ten NCAA records. The 6-5, 204 pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the Five Award and its Post Graduate Scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots.

Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Washington with their four children.

BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes.

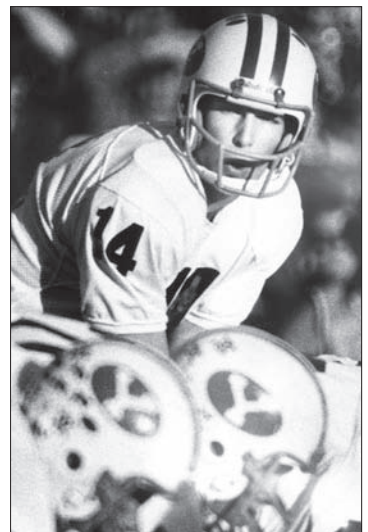

"From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior, in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-American. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked.

"It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. He left a mark, however. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game.

Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He is currently a broadcaster in Houston. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

In 1984, BYU solidified its position among the nation's elite by defeating Michigan 34-17 in Holiday Bowl VII to claim the national championship.

A game that helped establish BYU's place in college football history was a 28-21 victory over No. 1 Miami on national television on Sept. 8, 1990.

BYU running backs Brian McKenzie, Mark Atuaia and Ronney Jenkins helped the Cougars to a 19-15 win over Kansas State in the 1997 Cotton Bowl. The victory gave the Cougars their 14th win of the season and a No. 5 ranking in the final polls.

In 2000, BYU fans said goodbye to LaVell Edwards, who lifted BYU Football to new heights in his 29 years at BYU. When he departed he was the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history.

After 28 consecutive seasons without a losing record, BYU endured three straight losing seasons under Gary Crowton. Crowton's former defensive coordinator, Bronco Mendenhall, became BYU's 14th head coach and has led BYU back into the nation's top 20. In Bronco's second season as head coach, he led BYU to a bowl victory over Oregon, a Mountain West Conference championship and a final season ranking of No. 15 after an 11-2 season.

 OSU – Bain 40-yard pass from Thompson (kick failed)

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

THE CATCH:

Clay Brown (85) pulled down a Jim McMahon Hail Mary pass to complete one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA history.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

- OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal
- BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
- OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spanglerr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia Coach George Welsh led Navy to a 23-16 win over BYU in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

- Iowa – Saunders 5-yard run (Skillett kick)
- BYU – Tuipulotu 9-yard pass from Detmer (kick failed)
- BYU – Anderson 26-yard pass from Detmer (Kauffman kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

- KU – Hilleary 1-yard run (Hilleary run)
- KU – Eichloff 48-yard field goal

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard-line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard Hail Mary pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when Freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. Chapman, to cap off his MVP performance, scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return of the opening kickoff.

Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone twice more themselves. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining but John Beck was intercepted after he was hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35-of-53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahii scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

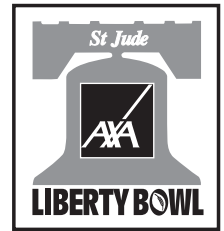

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28-of-46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

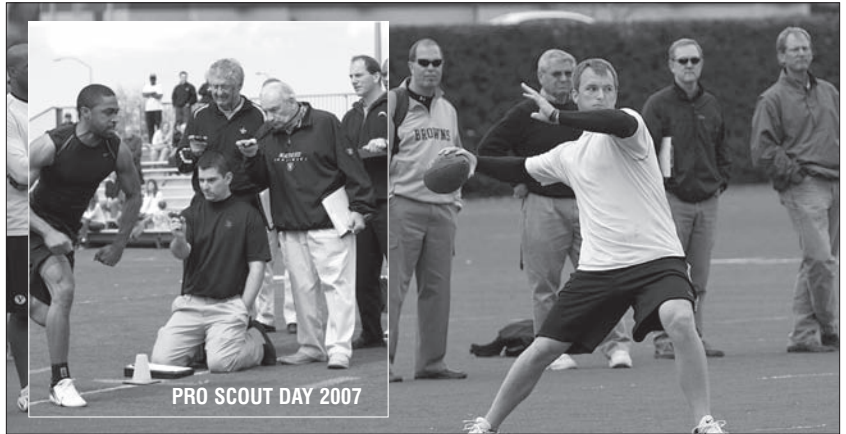

- The Cougars have had 10 players selected in the first round of the draft, including eight different players who were drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft and one player selected in the first round of the CFL Draft.
- Last year's Super Bowl featured two former BYU first-round draft picks Rob Morris of Indianapolis and John Tait of Chicago. Both were former roommates at BYU and started for their respective teams.
- BYU has had 63 players drafted over the past 22 years, including 35 players over the past 16 years.
- Four members of the BYU coaching staff were selected in the NFL Draft, including Lance Reynolds (1978, Pittsburgh Steelers), Robert Anae (1985, New England Patriots), Steve Kaufusi (1988, Philadelphia Eagles) and Brandon Doman (2002, San Francisco 49'ers.) Additionally, two BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco).
- Over the past 21 seasons, 35 offensive players from BYU have been drafted, as well as 26 defensive players and two special teams players.
- In 2007, John Beck became the first BYU quarterback drafted since current QB coach Brandon Doman was picked in the fifth round by the San Francisco 49'ers in 2002. He is also the first Cougar to be selected in the second round since Doug Jolley was picked in the second round by Oakland during the 2002 draft. Beck's second-round selection marks the highest draft position by a BYU quarterback in the NFL Draft since Jim McMahon was picked in the first round of the 1982 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

John Tait proved why he was a first-round draft pick and one of the NFL's best in 2003 as he helped pave way for RB Priest Holmes to set the NFL single-season TD record while totaling 1,420 rushing yards for the NFL's top scoring offense (Kansas City). In 2006 he help lead the Chicago Bears to the Super Bowl as the starting left tackle.

TOP OF THE CLASS: BYU's rich football tradition has bred some of the top football minds in the country. Three former BYU players and coaches are currently successful coaches in the NFL. Former BYU tight end Brian Billick led his Baltimore Ravens to the Super Bowl title in 2001 while former BYU offensive lineman Andy Reid led the resurgent Philadelphia Eagles into Super Bowl in 2004. Former BYU assistant coach under LaVell Edwards, Mike Holmgren, has also won a world championship when he led his Green Bay Packers to the 1997 Super Bowl title.

BYU's football influence also extends to other football leagues. In 2003, former BYU linebacker Todd Shell was named Arena Football's Coach of the Year. Shell is the head coach of the New York Dragons in the Arena Football League (AFL).

PRO SCOUT DAY: Every year a large contingent of NFL scouts converge on the BYU campus to get an up close look at BYU's future NFL hopefuls. Every year more than 60 NFL personnel, representing every NFL team, visit Provo.

TRUE BLUE COUGARS: Chris Hoke (Steelers), Ryan Denney (Bills), and Brett Keisel (Steelers) were once teammates at BYU and now they are making an impact in the NFL. Heading into 2007, 24 Cougars are on NFL rosters. Seven NFL teams have multiple Cougars on their rosters with the Pittsburgh Steelers leading the way with three.

The 2005 BYU Football Media Guide has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, videotapes or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We sincerely appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent on company letterhead to: Jeff Reynolds, Associate Director; Athletic Communications; 30 SFH; Provo, UT 84602. Fax requests may be sent to (801) 422-0633.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game. Requests received later than noon on the day prior to the game will not be accepted. Credentials for working media, including print and electronic (radio & television) media outlets, are restricted in accordance with BYU, Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules and guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PRESS BOX

Working press box credentials shall be issued only to accredited newspaper, radio and television reporters only. Requests from other media sources shall be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. Reporters representing newspapers with next-day editions, daily editions, national magazines, wire services, live television and radio broadcasts and television and radio stations covering for nightly news shall be given priority. Spouses, dates, children and other non-working persons will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines.

Credentials must be displayed prominently throughout the game, including pre- and post-game coverage. Pre-game interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstances. Properly credentialed media representatives shall be allowed field access with four minutes remaining on the game clock. Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired. Individuals or organizations violating this policy may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment, are not eligible for sideline credentials, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office.

All Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yardlines. Sideline supervisors will patrol both sidelines to make certain all rules are enforced. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, post-game quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference. BYU Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall and selected players will be available in the media room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media.

Several courtesy telephones (with campus extensions) will be available in the working area of the press box, while a limited number of phones will be available in the media room. All phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Phone lines can be purchased for your organization's exclusive use on a season-long basis. Collect or credit card calls can be made from each of these telephones.

The BYU press box is also equipped with high-speed internet access, including ethernet connections and wireless access.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

During the season, all player and coach interviews must be scheduled through Jeff Reynolds in the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. Interview requests must be made 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players and coaches may be conducted following selected practices during the week. Practices will be closed to media on Thursday and Friday prior to a Saturday game. Interview schedules will be adjusted for Thursday or Friday games. Players and coaches will not be available for interview prior to practice. Telephone interviews, for out-of-town media, can be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. Interviews with players on the day prior to the game, as well as game day, are not permitted. No player interviews will be conducted during regular class hours.

WEB SITES

To have access to athletes, coaches, practice, games, etc., Internet sites must be held to the same professional standards required of traditional media. Website personnel must show caution, restraint and professional judgment in covering potential student-athletes and the recruiting process. Websites covering BYU recruiting must be familiar with and follow all NCAA rules. Proper judgment and an understanding of NCAA rules must be displayed at all times. Access will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Failure to adhere to the standards and regular media policies established by the BYU Athletic Communications office may result in the loss of privileges. Live, real-time updates will not be permitted. Websites interested in seeking credentials or access should contact the Athletic Communications office for specific rules and guidelines.

SPORTS RADIO

All interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will not facilitate the broadcast of live guests during regular class hours. All interviews for sports talk radio must be conducted with players after practice or during the weekly media luncheon. Radio stations will be responsible for attending practices and for providing their own equipment (i.e. tape, digital recorders, telephones, etc). All sports talk radio stations will be issued one credential per home game.

WEEKLY MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Each Monday, Coach Mendenhall and selected players will be available for interview purposes from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. in the Student Athlete Building. All live electronic interviews are for credentialed media only and must be arranged in advance with the Athletic Communications office. Coach Mendenhall will participate in the MWC weekly teleconference on Tuesdays, beginning at 11:12 p.m. (MT).

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

MEDIA ATTENTION

From national publications to live television broadcasts, BYU football is one of the more visible programs in the country. Since its first national television appearance in 1974, BYU has posted a 52-40-2 record while playing in front of a national audience, including a 24-17 mark on ABC and a 27-23-2 mark on ESPN. Dating back to 1980, the Cougars have appeared on national television an average of three times per season. The Cougars have played at least five games on national TV over eight different seasons, including the 2004, 2003, 2002, 2001, 2000, 1998, 1996, 1988 and 1985 seasons. Since 1980, BYU has played in at least one nationally-televised game per season. On Sept. 1, 1984, Robbie Bosco (right) led BYU to a 20-14 victory over Pitt in the first live ESPN College Football broadcast. Three out of the top 10 largest television audiences ever to watch a college football game on ESPN were BYU football games. In 2006, BYU was also the featured team in the first college football broadcast on Versus, another upcoming cable sports network. In that game BYU upset No.15 TCU 31-17 in front of a national television audience.

CSTV & THE MTN.

This fall, CSTV Networks and the Mountain West Conference continue an unprecedented 14-year relationship that offers the most in-depth coverage ever, centered around one Division I-A conference. The centerpiece of this historic relationship is The mtn. ("the mountain")—MountainWest Sports Network, the first-ever Super Regional Sports Network serving the Mountain West Conference 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The mtn. is the first network completely dedicated to an NCAA Division I athletic conference. Founded by CSTV Networks and the MWC, the mtn. is built upon the passion surrounding the Mountain West community and features comprehensive coverage of the 19 MWC men's and women's sports, education and lifestyle content and original programming.

Every Mountain West Conference football game this fall will be broadcast on a variety of outlets including CSTV, The mtn., and broadband. The mtn., which is powered by CSTV, will also offer localized studio programming, news and information and original programming surrounding the games including an extensive roster of coaches' shows, press conferences and innovative coverage of Media Day events. The Mountain West Conference puts the fans first, which is why The mtn. will primarily broadcast football on Saturday afternoons at fan friendly kickoff times.

In addition to football, The mtn. will feature coverage of every Mountain West Conference sport, including men's and women's basketball, women's volleyball, soccer, softball, baseball, and much more.

POWERED BY

CSTV is the 24-hour college sports network owned by CBS Corporation. It covers more college sports and more schools, across more platforms than any other network. CSTV is a national network built to connect passionate college sports fans to their favorite sports and teams. During the 2007 season CSTV will air a comprehensive slate of 19 MWC football games to its audience of millions. In addition, CSTV offers a variety of original programming and studio shows featuring expert analysts and hosts that provide in-depth college football coverage and also examine the entire landscape of college sports bringing fans the latest news, highlights and stories.

As CSTV's national presence grows along with its Top Ten sports Web site, www.cstv.com, the Mountain West Conference and its teams and athletes will continue to gain even more national exposure across a variety of platforms. Together, CSTV and The mtn. will showcase the passion and pageantry of the Mountain West Conference while delivering unparalleled 24/7 coverage to fans across the nation.

RADIO

The exclusive radio home of BYU Football and flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is KSL Newsradio in Salt Lake City. The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, now in his 7th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU alum, Wrubell is in his 16th year on the broadcast crew, having served as the sideline/lockerroom reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell's on-air partner and game analyst is former Cougar quarterback Marc Lyons, a 26-year veteran of BYU Football broadcasts. Record-setting Cougar kick returner James Dye is in his third season reporting from the sidelines and lockerroom, while Jeff Austin enters his second season as studio host.

In addition to its comprehensive gameday coverage, KSL broadcasts the "Bronco Mendenhall Show" Wednesday nights at 7:00pm throughout the season. Additional BYU Football coverage can be heard exclusively online at ksl.com, which also streams every BYU game live to a growing worldwide audience.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Mountain West Conference football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its nine member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

TV/COACHES SHOW

Brigham Young University and KSL-5 Television continue their rich tradition of bringing the very best from BYU Football to our community. Highlighted by "BYU Football with Coach Bronco Mendenhall" each and every Sunday night during the season as a part of SportsBeat Sunday with Tom Kirkland at 10:35 p.m. The halfhour show promises the very latest on the Cougar Football team with comprehensive coverage of all Cougar home and road games. Highlights of the latest game, insights from Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall on that game, a lookahead to the next BYU Football game, features on Cougar players and Bronco responds to viewers email questions. Plus, the weekly blasts from BYU's storied past on "Cougar Classic". On The number one rated SportsBeat Saturday there's the 'all-access' magic of CougarBeat bringing you practically right into the huddle. SportsBeat's experienced lineup features Tom Kirkland, Rod Zundel, Kathy Aiken and Jeremiah Jensen.
