BYU VS. CAL

Five touchdown passes and more than 400-yards passing by quarterback Christian Stewart, including two touchdowns each to Jordan Leslie and Mitchell Juergens, led BYU to a 42-35 victory over Cal in Berkeley.

Up 42-35 after a 38-yard touchdown catch by Leslie, BYU played tough defense during Cal's final drive. The Bears converted on fourth down with a 12-yard pass to Harper, but Robertson Daniel and Michael Davis both stopped potential touchdown passes to hold onto the lead and win the game 42-35.

With 11:49 left in the game, Stewart found Leslie for an 83-yard reception to go up 35-28. It was BYU's first lead since going ahead 14-7 in the first quarter, but Cal answered right back with a 23-yard reception by Trevor Davis to tie it back up at 35-all with 9:17 left.

Algeron Brown caught a 22-yard touchdown in the third quarter with 9:12 left to tie the game again at 21-21. He powered through three defenders to make his way to the end zone. Stewart kept the drive alive by finding Terenn Houk for a 13-yard reception to convert on the third down.

MEMPHIS VS. UCONN

The University of Memphis football team claimed at least a share of the fifth conference championship in school history with its 41-10 rout of UConn on Saturday afternoon at the Liberty Bowl. The Tigers (9-3) pick up their ninth win of the season and most in a single regular season since 1963. UConn falls to 2-9 and 1-6 in American Athletic Conference play as the Blue and Gray even the all-time series 1-1.

The Blue and Gray capped off the balanced offensive approach with 178 rushing yards and 194 passing yards while the defense stymied the Huskies for the majority of the evening, allowing 107 rushing yards and 162 yards through the air.

The Blue and Gray broke the seal of the end zone just before halftime when Malone hauled in a Lynch pass to give the Tigers a 13-0 lead.

After a first half riddled with mistakes for both teams, Memphis poured it on in the second half, finding the end zone on four separate occasions despite running eight plays for 16 yards on its first two possessions after the break.

INDEPENDENCE: YEAR FOUR

The 12-game independent slate featured teams from 10 states and seven conferences, including the American Athletic, Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Pac-12, Conference USA, Mountain West and Mid-Eastern Athletic.

The Cougars played six home games and six road contests in 2014. BYU faced teams that hailed from Connecticut, Virginia, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Idaho, Nevada and California, including seven programs—Texas, Houston, Utah State, Central Florida, Boise State, Middle Tennessee and UNLV—that qualified for a bowl game last season.

FLAG BEARERS

BYU has a tradition of selecting a player before each game to run the team flag and alumni flag. The team selects a former Cougar to carry out the alumni flag, along with the chosen current player who runs out with the current team flag. The team flag has been signed by each member of the team, while the alumni flag has been signed by former BYU payers. In 2011, the team added a special teams flag, donned by a vintage BYU logo adopted by the special teams, following the same protocol as the team flag with an exemplary special teams player being chosen to carry it each week.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Selected by their peers, quarterback Taysom Hill, running back Paul Lasike, safety Craig Bills and defensive lineman Remington Peck have served as team captains for the 2014 season.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

LaVell Edwards Stadium with its 63,470-seat capacity is home to BYU football. Originally Cougar Stadium, it was built in 1964 and seated 30,000. It was expanded in 1982 to seat 65,000 permanent seats before official capacity became 64,045 after refurbishing the middle of the east section. The capacity now sits at 63,470 due to accommodations for wheelchair access. For the 2012 season the stadium featured new video walls and LED ribbons on the north and south end zone stands. BYU's 2012 average attendance of 61,161 ranked No. 3 in the West behind only USC (87,945) and UCLA (68,481).

Stadium record: 225-69 (.765)
2014 stadium record: 4-2 (.667)
Under Mendenhall: 49-11 (.817)

MISSIONS

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics.

Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served. The Church operates missions around the world in 145 nations speaking 164 languages. More than 88,000 missionaries representing the Church are serving proselytizing missions in 406 missions around the world. Seventy-five percent of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 18 and 26. A substantial number of young women and older couples also serve proselytizing missions. Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years (or 18 months for women and couples)—teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

Eighty-eight members of the 2014 team have served church missions. Members of the team have served in 28 countries and six of the seven continents around the globe.

FIRESIDES

The BYU football team will participate in hour-long devotionals prior or team service activities the night before each game this season. The team will conduct devotionals before eight games. These devotionals are referred to as "firesides" and are intended to help players, coaches and those who attend strengthen or gain a knowledge of our purpose here on earth. Firesides typically include a musical number from members of the team and talks from selected players, along with coach Bronco Mendenhall.

26th year

In his 10 seasons as head coach at Brigham Young University, Bronco Mendenhall has restored the great tradition of BYU football while helping the Cougars achieve marked success on and off the field. Taking over a BYU team that in 2005 was coming off three consecutive losing seasons, Mendenhall has guided his teams to 10 straight bowl appearances, two outright conference championships before football independence in 2011, and been nationally ranked during eight of 10 seasons.

Under Mendenhall's leadership, BYU has earned a 90-38 record to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams over the past 10 seasons. Mendenhall also ranks 12th in winning percentage (.703) among active coaches with at least five years of FBS experience, and he is ranked No. 9 among coaches who have served 10 or more years at the helm.

With BYU's matchup against Memphis in the Miami Beach Bowl, the Cougars are one of only 12 programs to earn a bowl invitation for a 10th-straight season. Only Florida State (7) has achieved more than BYU's six bowl victories over the prior nine seasons. The Cougars set a program record with four consecutive bowl wins from 2009-12, helping Mendenhall become the first BYU head coach to win six bowls in a seven-year span.

Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU football history to take his first 10 teams to a bowl game and has the opportunity in Miami to equal the seven bowl victories achieved by Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. Mendenhall's .667 postseason winning percentage is tops in school history and his overall success rate is on pace with the legendary Edwards with Mendenhall achieving 90 wins and Edwards 92 in their first 128 games leading the Cougars. As a program, BYU has averaged 8.8 wins per season over the last 40 years to rank No. 5 nationally in total victories with 354. Mendenhall's teams have improved upon that standard, averaging 9.0 victories per year over the past 10 years.

BYU's success under Mendenhall is evident in the national rankings and NCAA statistics. BYU has been ranked in the top 25 in the various national statistical categories 146 times in his 10 seasons (54 offense, 62 defense, 28 special teams, 2 misc.). Another hallmark of Mendenhall's program has been the emphasis on balance and priorities in the many other facets of life outside of football. Reflecting that emphasis, the Cougars are tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-America citations over the past 10 years and BYU tops all FBS programs for the most selections to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society (recognizing players finishing eligibility with 3.2 GPA or better over college career) since the program began in 2007.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the Ethics Committee. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oregon State. He later coached at Snow College, Northern Arizona, became the youngest defensive coordinator in the Pac-10 at Oregon State, and then went to Louisiana Tech and New Mexico before coming to BYU as a defensive coordinator in 2003. He was promoted to head coach in 2005.

2014 SEASON REVIEW

BYU football achieved a 3-0 record against Power 5 conference schools and overcame a rash of midseason injuries to key players to finish with four-straight wins and an 8-4 record en route to a 10th-straight bowl appearance. In doing so, BYU became one of only 12 programs to earn a bowl invitation each of the last 10 years.

The Cougars bring a national brand of football and a storied tradition to the Miami Beach Bowl. BYU comes to Miami ranked No. 19 in scoring offense (36.2 points/game), No. 25 in total offense (462.5 yards/game), No. 15 in first downs (303), No. 14 in rushing defense (117.5 yards allowed/game) and No. 11 in net punting (41.08).

Early in the season BYU exploded out of the gate for its first 4-0 start since 2008, reaching No. 18 nationally with the stellar play of Heisman hopeful quarterback Taysom Hill.

BYU defeated then-No. 25 Texas 41-7 in front of 93,463 fans in Texas Memorial Stadium to improve to 4-1 all-time against the Longhorns and hand Texas its worst home loss since a 66-3 loss to UCLA in 1997. Heisman candidate Hill ran for 3 touchdowns in the victory.

The Cougars later defeated Virginia for its second Power 5 win with a balanced ground and air attack along with BYU's first kickoff return for a touchdown since 2011 when Adam Hine ran back a 99-yarder for the team's final score of the 41-33 victory.

The Cougars dropped four games in a row as they suffered an onslaught of injuries to 22 players this season who were starters or significant contributors. The team was forced to adapt after season-ending injuries to wide receiver Nick Kurtz, right guard Brock Stringham, 1,233-yard rusher Jamaal Williams, cornerback Jordan Johnson and Heisman candidate quarterback Hill, who went down against Utah State in BYU's first loss of the season.

Due in part to the injuries, 19 players made their first FBS start in 2014, including five freshmen making a combined 31 total starts. By contrast, BYU freshmen made a combined four starts in 2013.

Taking over after Hill's season-ending injury, senior quarterback Christian Stewart started the final seven games, throwing for 2,101 yards and 22 touchdowns with only three interceptions in those games. He threw for three or more touchdowns in five of his seven starts. On the year Stewart totaled 2,273 yards, 22 passing touchdowns, four rushing touchdowns and just six interceptions and gave BYU two 400-yard passing games for the first time since 2006.

The Cougars finished the last third of the season on a four-game victory streak that culminated in a win at California. BYU outlasted the Bears 42-35 in the highest combined score total between BYU and a Pac-12 opponent under the tenure of head coach Bronco Mendenhall. Stewart had five touchdown passes, including an 83-yarder to Jordan Leslie—BYU's longest play from scrimmage this year—and the 38-yard go-ahead TD pass to Leslie with 2:39 left in the game.

The Cougars bring a 6-3 bowl record under coach Mendenhall to the Miami Beach Bowl matchup with the American Athletic Conference Champion Memphis Tigers (9-3). Only Florida State with seven bowl wins has topped BYU's six postseason victories during the past nine seasons.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. – Taysom Hill scored a career-high five touchdowns, three through the air and two on the ground, as BYU football rolled past Connecticut 35-10 at Rentschler Field Friday night.

Hill was 28 for 36 with 308 yards in the air and added another 97 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Hill spread the wealth around, with nine BYU players catching at least one pass. Mitch Mathews led the way with five catches for 62 yards and a touchdown. Terenn Houk caught four passes for 58 yards and a score, while Adam Hine also caught the first receiving touchdown of his career.

BYU received the opening kickoff and the offense got things started right away with a 75-yard touchdown drive in 15 plays. Hill ran the ball in from seven yards out on second down to put the Cougars up 7-0. The drive saw the Cougars convert on fourth down at the UConn 31-yard line to keep the scoring drive alive.

Husky running back Max DeLorenzo took the first carry of the game for UConn and fumbled. BYU linebacker Jheremya Leuta-Douyere met him at the line and put his helmet right on the ball and forced a fumble that Bronson Kaufusi recovered, setting up BYU with great field position.

On the first play after the turnover, Hill dropped back and hit Mathews on a perfect 26-yard strike down the middle to put the Cougars up 14-0.

With UConn driving inside BYU territory, Husky quarterback Casey Cochran was hit as he lofted a pass to the BYU 10-yard line, which safety Craig Bills intercepted.

With 9:13 left in the second quarter, Hill passed to Hine for a seven-yard touchdown to cap a 46-yard drive.

With the Cougars driving, Hill completed a pass to Mathews, who fumbled near midfield and the Huskies recovered. UConn used the momentum to mount a 52-yard drive that Josh Marriner finished with a one-yard touchdown run, making it 21-7 for BYU with 2:33

The Cougar offense went into two-minute mode and marched down the field. Hill scrambled around and found Houk for a 35-yard touchdown pass. Houk tight-roped down the sideline and dove in for the score to put the Cougars up 28-7 heading into halftime.

UConn took the opening kick of the second half and drove right down the field before facing fourth down inside the red zone. The Huskies lined up for a field goal but decided on the fake. The Cougars weren't fooled and forced the holder out of bounds for a turnover on downs.

After forcing UConn to punt, the BYU offense took over and started driving the field. Algernon Brown took a handoff and was hit by Graham Stewart and fumbled, with Rueben Frank scooping up the loose ball for the Huskies.

UConn converted the turnover into a field goal, cutting BYU's lead to 28-10.

After a three-and-out from the BYU offense, UConn drove down the field to the BYU 10-yard line where the Cougar defense tightened and forced an incomplete pass on fourth down for the turnover on downs.

After the turnover, the offense went on a 90-yard drive that finished with Hill scampering in from 26 yards for his second rushing touchdown of the game.

After another UConn drive inside the BYU 10-yard line, the defense tightened up and forced another turnover on downs with a minute left to seal the 35-10 win for the Cougars.

BYU plays Texas on Sept. 6 in Austin, Texas, at 6:30 p.m. CDT on Fox Sports 1.

AUSTIN, Texas – Quarterback Taysom Hill's three rushing touchdowns led BYU football to a 41-7 domination of revenge-thirsty Texas on the Longhorns' home field Saturday.

Hill made sure to remind the Longhorns of his 2013 performance by rushing for 99 yards and passing for 181 yards.

"Once it became really clear what Texas' plan was defensively—which was a very strong plan—and we were able to identify what they were doing, it was apparent that Taysom on a few different types of looks could carry the ball more," BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. "So we targeted him to do that. We already know what kind of capable runner he is. Schematically we made some adjustments to make sure that could happen."

Senior transfer Jordan Leslie led the receivers with seven receptions for 85 yards. Jamaal Williams rushed for 89 yards on 19 carries, while Adam Hine rushed for 29 yards and two touchdowns.

Dallin Leavitt led the Cougars with seven tackles, followed by Robertson Daniel and Zac Stout with six tackles apiece. The defense held Texas to 2.1 yards per carry and a total of 82 rushing yards on 35 carries. Hill and Williams both out-rushed the entire Texas team.

"Going all the way back to Monday and the first look we had at this opponent, we thought we matched up really well," Mendenhall said. "We thought we had a great chance to have a good win, and we thought we had a really good chance to win convincingly."

Up 6-0 at halftime, Cougar offense turned the tide to start the second half and scored touchdowns on four consecutive drives. Hill completed the first drive with a 30-yard touchdown run after hurdling a Longhorn defender on the 5-yard line. After the defense forced a quick three and out, an acrobatic catch by Leslie set up a 16-yard touchdown run by Hine.

BYU's defense forced another quick three-and-out, and Mitchell Juergens returned the ensuing punt to the Texas 29-yard line. The short field set up a quick scoring drive for the Cougars, as Hill rushed for his second touchdown from a couple yards out. The Cougars proved they were not done on the subsequent kickoff, with Michael Alisa forcing a fumble that was recovered by Harvey Jackson on the Texas

The offense hit its first snag of the half in the fourth quarter when Hill lost a fumble at midfield, but the defense recovered momentum when Alisa intercepted Tyrone Swoopes and returned it 30 yards into Texas territory. Hine took advantage, scoring his second touchdown of the game from eight yards out. The interception was Alisa's first, which brought BYU's streak of consecutive games with an interception to 12 to tie the longest streak in Mendenhall's tenure.

The first quarter brought a defensive struggle, as BYU was the only team to score on a 21-yard field goal from Trevor Samson. Williams set up the field goal with a 31-yard rush to the Texas 16-yard line.

The Cougar defense showed physical dominance throughout the first half, forcing two punts and a missed field goal. In his first start, Texas quarterback Swoopes completed his first seven pass attempts for 72 yards, but BYU's rush defense only allowed 21 yards on the ground.

Defense continued to be the theme in the second quarter, with Daniel stripping the ball from a Texas receiver and recovering the ball on the 50. The Cougar offense couldn't capitalize on the turnover and was forced to punt the ball back to Texas. On the first play of Texas' next drive, linebacker Jheremya Leuta-Douyere forced another fumble, recovered again by Daniel at the Texas 23-yard line. Samson connected on a 29-yard field goal to take the score to 6-0.

BYU is now 4-1 against Texas and returns to Provo for its first home game of the season against Houston Thursday at 7 p.m. MDT. The game will be broadcast live on ESPN and the Cougar IMG Sports Network.

PROVO, Utah – Juniors Taysom Hill and Jamaal Williams combined for a gritty ground attack in No. 25 BYU's 33-25 victory against Houston in the 2014 home opener Thursday at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Williams paced the offense with 139 yards rushing on 28 attempts and two touchdowns. Hill led the assault with 160 yards rushing and 200 passing yards on 21-for-34 attempts with one pass and one rushing touchdown as BYU began the season 3-0 for the first time since 2008.

The junior quarterback became the 14th FBS quarterback in NCAA history to throw for 4,000 yards and run for 2,000 yards by their junior season, joining the ranks of Robert Griffin III, Colin Kaepernick, Johnny Manziel and Tim Tebow.

The offensive attack was balanced with 11 different receivers recording receptions. The corps was led by Jordan Leslie's six catches for 79 yards and Mitch Mathews' four receptions for 22 yards and one touchdown. The defense was led by Craig Bills' seven tackles along with Alani Fua's seven tackles and one tackle for loss.

Striking first on the scoreboard was the BYU defense as linebacker Zac Stout smothered the run in the backfield in the end zone for the safety.

On the ensuing drive on third down and five, Hill hit Leslie for a gain of 35 yards to the Houston 24-yard line. A facemask penalty moved the ball forward to the 11-yard line, after which Williams capitalized with an 11-yard run around the left side for his first score of the night, making the lead 9-0 after the PAT.

The red Cougars were forced to punt and the blue Cougars took over at the 6:07 mark in the first quarter for another BYU scoring drive. Williams had 16 yards rushing and Hill went 3 for 4 with 32 passing yards and 19 rushing yards. The drive culminated in a touchdown on a five-yard keeper as Hill arrived untouched in the end zone to extend the lead 16-0.

BYU capitalized as Hill led the offense down the field for its third trip to the blue zone, ending in its third touchdown in as many chances. The 87-yard drive saw Hill hit four different receivers with Mathews hauling in a six-yard touchdown reception as he ran across the end zone toward the southwest corner.

With BYU leading 23-0, John O'Korn rallied the red Cougars with a 17-play drive for 82 yards, but the blue Cougar defense held strong, forcing a Houston 29-yard field goal to cut the score to 23-3.

Following the kickoff, BYU was intercepted on the first play of the drive with 3:05 left in the half. Houston's Daniel Spencer pulled in the reception on the next play for a 28-yard gain to the BYU 1-yard line. After penalties on both sides, the away Cougars eventually broke into the end zone on a 7-yard pass to narrow the score 23-9.

The home Cougars took over with 1:08 left in the half. Hill then pushed the offense up field with 21 rush yards and a 38-yard pass to Mitchell Juergens up the left sideline.

After Juergens' reception, Houston forced a fumbled and returned it 28 yards to the BYU 45-yard line. With three seconds left on the game clock for the half, O'Korn heaved a Hail Mary pass that was caught by Spencer for the 45-yard touchdown, sending the game to halftime with a 23-15 margin.

The blue Cougars held the advantage in the third quarter.

BYU steadily marched down the field on the legs of Hill and Williams. The 15-play, 53-yard drive ended with Trevor Sampson's 26-yard field goal to extend the lead to 26-15. It was the longest scoring drive of the season, taking 6:15 off the clock.

The fourth quarter began with Houston's drive stalling and Devon Blackmon returning the punt 16 yards to the BYU 44-yard line. Once again the blue Cougars employed their ground game, producing a quick 8-play drive capped by a 2-yard touchdown run through the middle for Williams' second of the game. Hill and Williams each carried the ball four times for 39 and 17 yards, respectively, on the drive to stretch the lead to 33-15.

PROVO, Utah – Juniors Adam Hine and Taysom Hill electrified the crowd as No. 21/23 BYU overcame an early deficit to notch a win over Virginia, 41-33 at LaVell Edwards Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Hine's 132 kickoff return yards, including a 99-yard return for a score in the fourth quarter, proved to be a necessary buffer to preserve the victory. Hill added two passing touchdowns and 17 carries for 72 yards and one rushing touchdown to energize the offense.

Junior running back Jamaal Williams helped pace the offense with his 68 yards on 13 carries and a touchdown while senior receiver Jordan Leslie had four receptions for 41 yards and a touchdown. Sophomore receiver Mitchell Juergens chipped in with two catches for 53 yards and a touchdown.

On the defensive side of the ball, senior Craig Bills tallied 10 tackles, 0.5 tackle for loss and one pass breakup. Senior Robertson Daniel notched four tackles, an interception and two pass breakups. Seniors Skye PoVey and Alani Fua each contributed with eight and nine tackles, respectively.

Beginning the third quarter down 16-13, the Cougars were forced to punt on their first possession. Scott Arellano notched a season-long 65-yard punt down to the Virginia 5-yard line. The BYU defense stalled Virginia.

With 10:45 left in the third quarter, the Cougar offense manufactured a 49-yard drive to take the lead for the first time in the game. On second down and 11 yards to go, Hill rushed to the right side, stiff-arming his way around and dragging a Virginia defender into the end zone for the 20-16 lead.

On the subsequent drive and after a 20-yard Virginia completion, the BYU defense ratcheted down to force fourth and inches. On the Cavaliers' conversion attempt, the Cougars forced and recovered a fumble.

The teams then exchanged punts before BYU renewed its ground attack on the next drive with 4:28 left in the third quarter. The Cougars issued a 10-play drive to stretch the lead to 27-16. The drive featured 25 yards on the ground for Hill and 29 yards and a touchdown for Williams.

Virginia countered with a drive starting from its own 25-yard line. The drive stalled due in part to three tackles for loss by the Cougars. The Cavaliers then kicked a 46-yard field goal to cut the lead to 27-19 with 12:14 left in the game.

After Hine's 33-yard kickoff return to the BYU 33, the Cougars struck again to make the score 34-19. The offense moved the ball to the 50-yard line on five plays. Hill then completed a pass to Juergens who bolted down the right sideline for a 50-yard touchdown, the first of his career.

Virginia took over at the 10:17 mark and countered again, this time with a touchdown to narrow the lead to 34-26. Sophomore backup quarterback Matt Johns passed for 51 yards while Khalek Shepherd rushed for 24 yards and the touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hine received it at the 1-yard line and sprinted up the middle of the field for a 99-yard return for the touchdown, upping the score to 41-26. It was the first BYU kickoff return for a touchdown since Cody Hoffman's in 2011 against Central Florida.

The Cougar defense forced a Virginia turnover on downs to take over possession at 5:53 left in the game. The offense was forced to punt, and Arellano pinned the Cavaliers at the 2-yard line and inside the 20-yard line for the fourth time in the game.

Virginia marched down and scored after a 98-yard drive ended with a touchdown pass to Kyle Dockins from Johns, cutting the lead to 41-33. BYU secured the win as Fua successfully held on to the onside kick.

BYU	7	7	3	3	20
UTAH ST.	7	21	7	0	35

PROVO, Utah – In its first home loss to Utah State since 1978, No. 18/19 BYU football fell 35-20 in the annual in-state matchup Friday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Cougar quarterback Taysom Hill led the offensive effort with a rushing touchdown and a career-high 178.3 efficiency rating on 8-of-11 passing for 99 yards and one passing touchdown. The junior left the game due to a season-ending fractured left leg, injured late in the second quarter.

Picking up the slack for BYU was running back Jamaal Williams, who rushed for 99 yards on 17 attempts. Jordan Leslie led the receiving corps with 135 yards on four receptions, while Mitch Mathews bolstered the team with 117 yards receiving on eight receptions and a touchdown. It was the first time any receiver passed the century mark this season.

On the first play of the game, Hill completed a 53-yard pass to Leslie up the right sideline for the second-longest reception of the season. After a four-yard reception to Leslie and a seven-yard run by Williams, the BYU quarterback found the end zone as he sprinted around the left side, turned up the field and jumped over an Aggie defender for the first score of the game. The drive took 1:16 off the clock for the fourth-quickest touchdown drive on the season.

With 50 seconds left in the first quarter, Utah State assembled a touchdown drive to knot the game at 7-7. Aggie quarterback Darrell Garretson connected for 56 yards through the air, including the completion to Devon Robinson for the score.

The BYU offense then took the field for a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive. The quarter began by stringing together three consecutive long runs. Hill converted for a first down on a keeper for 12 yards before Williams took the ball for two runs of nine yards each. The drive ended in Mathews' 25-yard touchdown catch on the left side.

With the score 14-7 in favor of the Cougars, the Aggies then took 8:20 off the clock with a 13-play, 88-yard touchdown drive. The score came on Garretson's dive into the end zone.

Following the kickoff, BYU fumbled the handoff on the first play of the drive, and Utah

State recovered it at the BYU 22-yard line.

Garretson then threw a touchdown pass to

Robinson as he ran toward the right corner of the end zone, making the score 21-14 after the PAT.

Before halftime and after the Hill injury, the Aggies converted on a 72-yard deep pass for the quick score, stretching their lead to 28-14.

Coming out of the break BYU held Utah State to a punt. BYU then marched down the field 82 yards before being intercepted at the Utah State 2-yard line. The Cougars then forced an Aggie punt and capitalized on the field position with a 41-yard field goal, cutting the lead to 28-17 with 4:28 left in the third quarter.

Utah State struck back with a 76-yard drive to go up 35-17 with 1:49 left in the third.

For the final score of the game, BYU chipped away at the lead with a 52-yard drive ending in a 24-yard Trevor Samson field goal with 8:39 left in the game, bringing the score to 35-20.

The last time the Cougars lost to the Aggies in Provo was when Jim McMahon was quarterback for BYU. McMahon's jersey was retired at halftime of Saturday night's game. McMahon was also recognized for his induction into the BYU Hall of Fame with four other former Cougars. For more on the Hall of Fame inductions, read the official release.

The Cougars make a quick turnaround next week as they head out to Orlando for a matchup against Central Florida. The Thursday night game will be broadcast at 7:30 p.m. EDT on ESPN.

ORLANDO – Injuries to key players plagued BYU football, as the Cougars (4-2) fell 31-24 in overtime to UCF (3-2, 1-0) Thursday night at Bright House Networks Stadium.

In overtime, the Knights broke the 24-24 tie with a four-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Justin Holman to running back William Stanback, putting UCF up 31-24. BYU was unable to respond, with a fourth down pass sailing incomplete past senior receiver Jordan Leslie.

Replacing injured quarterback Taysom Hill, senior Christian Stewart threw for 153 yards and three touchdowns for BYU. Algernon Brown and Paul Lasike, sharing the rushing load after Jamaal Williams sustained an early injury, combined for 132 yards on the ground on 29 carries. Safety Kai Nacua, who saw increased action due to injuries suffered by defensive backs Jordan Johnson and Craig Bills, intercepted a pass late in the game for the Cougars.

BYU began the game without Hill, defensive back Dallin Leavitt, linebacker Alani Fua, receiver Terenn Houk and offensive lineman Brayden Kearsley—all of whom sustained injuries last week against Utah State.

UCF received the opening kickoff and scored on its first possession, using 13 plays and 79 yards for a touchdown and 7-0 lead. After BYU's ensuing three-and-out, the Knights tacked on a field goal to increase their lead to 10-0.

The first quarter came to a close with the Cougars trailing 10-0. Johnson and Bills both sustained injuries in the first quarter. Medical personnel drove Johnson away from the field in an ambulance for X-rays on his arm and team doctors diagnosed Bills with a concussion.

BYU's first score of the game came 5:12 left in the first half, as Stewart and the offense carved out 41 yards on 10 plays, setting up a 32-yard field goal for senior kicker Trevor Samson. With the field goal, the Cougars closed the deficit to 10-3.

After allowing 130 yards in the first quarter, BYU surrendered only 51 yards to UCF in the second quarter. True freshman linebacker Sione Takitaki snuffed out a late first-half drive by the Knights, forcing UCF's Holman to fumble on the BYU 28-yard line and diving on the ball to give the Cougars possession with 35 seconds left in the half. BYU stayed within a touchdown (10-3) entering halftime.

The Cougars scored a touchdown on their first drive of the second half, driving 64 yards on 10 plays to even the game at 10-10. Stewart connected with sophomore receiver Colby Pearson for the score. The play marked Stewart's first passing touchdown at BYU, as well as Pearson's first career receiving touchdown.

BYU took its first lead with 9:18 left in the third quarter, as Brown recovered a Cougar punt that deflected off the leg of a UCF player at the Knight 25-yard line. Two plays later, BYU took a 17-10 lead, punctuating the short drive with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to senior tight end Devin Mahina. The touchdown was Mahina's first of the night, as he scored again on a 14-yard reception 13 seconds later, following an interception by senior safety Skye Povey. Mahina's second touchdown opened up the Cougars' lead to 24-10.

UCF answered with an eight-play, 37-yard touchdown drive after Rannell Hall returned BYU's kickoff 58 yards. Knight running back Stanback punched it in from two yards out to cut BYU's lead to 24-17 with 5:37 left in the third.

The Knights struck again with 10:17 left in the fourth quarter, connecting on a 37-yard touchdown pass from Holman to receiver Josh Reese to even the score at 24-24.

After the teams traded scoreless possessions, UCF had two shots for a game-winning field goal, muffing a snap on a second-down, 43-yard attempt with 12 seconds left. On third down, kicker Shawn Moffitt's 50-yard attempt with nine seconds left was blocked by BYU receiver Mitch Mathews. Stewart took a knee on the next play, sending the game to overtime and setting up the Knights' victory in extra time.

BYU next hosts Nevada (3-2, 1-0) Saturday, Oct. 18 at Lavell Edwards Stadium in Provo.

PROVO, Utah – Nevada scored 29 unanswered points in the second half to hand BYU football its third-consecutive loss as the Cougars fell 42-35 Saturday night at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU senior quarterback Christian Stewart had career highs in completions (39), attempts (63), passing yards (408) and touchdowns (4). The BYU offense looked good early as Mitch Mathews had career highs with 16 catches and 182 receiving yards while catching two touchdowns. Junior running back Nate Carter replaced an injured Algermon Brown and had a career-high 87 rushing yards.

The Wolf Pack took its first lead of the second half on quarterback Cody Fajardo's 25-yard touchdown run to put Nevada up 35-28 with 7:34 left in the game, and the Wolf Pack led the rest of the game.

After giving up a first down on a roughing-the-passer penalty and a long screen pass on the first drive of the game, the Cougar defense stiffened and forced Nevada to settle for a 44-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead.

After forcing a Nevada punt, BYU took over from its 3-yard line. A quick strike to Devin Mahina got the Cougars out of the shadow of their own end zone. Facing a fourth down in Wolf Pack territory, Stewart stood in the pocket and delivered a strike to Mathews to keep the drive alive inside the blue zone. On third-and-goal from the 1-yard line, senior captain Paul Lasike took the handoff and dove across the goal line for his first touchdown of the season to give BYU a 7-3 lead. The run capped a 12-play, 97-yard drive and was BYU's longest scoring drive of the season.

Lasike scored his second touchdown of the night and first receiving touchdown of his career on a 20-yard pass from Stewart to finish off a 14-play, 72-yard drive to put BYU up 14-3 early in the second quarter.

Fajardo found running back Don Jackson on a 66-yard screen pass down to the BYU 9-yard line. Freshman James Butler took care of the rest and dove into the end zone on the next play to cut BYU's lead to 14-10.

BYU's offense continued to click on the following drive as Stewart found Mathews for a 20-yard touchdown to extend BYU's lead to 21-10.

The Cougars were able to punch it in one more time with a minute left in the first half when Stewart found Mathews for an 11-yard touchdown to give BYU a 28-13 lead going into halftime.

After a missed field goal from BYU kicker Trevor Samson early in the third quarter, the Wolf Pack marched 74 yards in 13 plays capped by a 1-yard Fajardo touchdown run making the score 28-20 BYU.

After forcing a BYU fumble Nevada used an 11-play, 48-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Richy Turner, and Hasaan Henderson caught the two-point conversion to tie the game at 28 with 11:18 left in the fourth quarter.

After recovering a Stewart fumble, Butler put the Wolf Pack up 42-28 on a 6-yard touchdown run with 5:54 remaining in the game.

BYU marched 75 yards in 15 plays to get within seven when Stewart found Keanu Nelson for his first touchdown as a Cougar on a 7-yard pass, making the score 42-35 in favor of Nevada.

BYU's offense had one more chance to tie the game, but a Stewart fumble in Wolf Pack territory sealed the upset win for Nevada.

The Cougars next travel to Boise, Idaho, to take on Boise State (5-2, 3-1) at Albertsons Field Friday. The game will kickoff at 7 p.m. MDT and be televised on ESPN.

BOISE, Idaho – BYU gave up 637 yards to Boise State as the Cougars dropped their fourth game in a row Saturday night in Boise, 55-30.

“I was really encouraged that we made a stop and forced a field goal early, but really Boise State controlled the game from the opening kickoff,” BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. “They were better prepared and the better executed team tonight in every phase than we were.”

Boise State (6-2, 3-0) jumped out to a 20-0 lead with 13:31 left in the first half. In the first quarter, the Broncos used a field goal on their first possession and 12-yard touchdown rush from quarterback Grant Hedrick to gain a 10-0 advantage. After kicking another field goal on the first play of the second half, Boise State used a 78-yard touchdown pass from Hedrick to receiver Thomas Sperbeck to give the Broncos a 20-point advantage.

BYU (4-4) scored its first touchdown with 9:12 left in the half, keying on plays from running backs Jamaal Williams and Paul Lasike. Williams ran it in from 17 yards out to put the score at 20-7.

On the following drive, a trick play from Boise State resulted in a 49-yard touchdown completion from Hedrick to receiver Shane Williams-Rhodes. The touchdown increased the Broncos’ lead back to 20 with 8:05 on the second quarter clock.

The Cougars responded with a one-play drive—an 81-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Christian Stewart to receiver Colby Pearson. The Cougars cut Boise State’s lead to 27-14 with Pearson’s second career touchdown.

The Broncos subsequently drove 77 yards on nine plays, punctuating their drive on a 3-yard touchdown run from running back Jay Ajayi.

Following a Scott Arellano punt that put the Broncos on their own 5-yard line, BYU defensive lineman Logan Taelle brought down Ajayi in the end zone for a safety.

Leading 34-16, the Broncos intercepted Stewart after the free kick, and scored another touchdown on a 19-yard pass from Hedrick to receiver Troy Ware. Boise State took its 41-16 lead into halftime.

On Boise State’s first possession of the second half, BYU freshman linebacker Fred Warner intercepted a pass in the flat and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. With 11:54 left in the third quarter, the Broncos led 41-23.

Boise State added two touchdowns in the fourth quarter before BYU’s Stewart called his own number, scoring on a 2-yard rush with 5:11 left in the game. Stewart’s touchdown made the score 55-30. From there, the Broncos converted on a few first downs and ran out the clock.

BYU stays on the road for the Nov. 1 matchup against Middle Tennessee. The game starts at 2:30 p.m. CDT and will be televised on CBS Sports Network.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – A Christian Stewart touchdown rush gave BYU football a 27-7 victory against Middle Tennessee Saturday, snapping a four-game losing streak.

"It's a long way to come to play a football game, however our team came with nice resolve," BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. "The running game took over, gave us some more balance. The defense played a wonderful game. It was fun to see."

Stewart completed a 33-yard pass to Kurt Henderson to put the ball on the 1-yard line, giving himself the chance to run in on the next play for the final score and his first win as a starting quarterback.

The win put the Cougars (5-4) one game away from bowl eligibility.

Stewart finished with 316 passing yards, his second most as a Cougar. He passed to 10 players during the game.

Mitch Mathews led the receiving corps with 60 yards on six catches, while Jamaal Williams led in rushing with 49 yards on 16 carries. Skye PoVey had the most tackles with eight.

The Cougars started their first drive of the second half with 12:44 on the clock after Teu Kautai sacked Grammer, caused a fumble and forced Middle Tennessee to punt. A series of short plays put BYU on the 19-yard line. Scrambling, Stewart launched the ball to Jordan Leslie who stumbled into the end zone to break the tie and put BYU back in the lead 14-7.

Williams made his longest catch of the season on BYU's next scoring drive, but went down after a hit to the legs with a knee strain. The 28-yard catch set up the Cougars to score on a 2-yard Paul Lasike rush in the final minute of the third quarter. BYU led 21-7 going into the fourth quarter.

The BYU defense held Middle Tennessee scoreless with only 35 offensive yards in the third quarter, while the Cougar of-fense tallied 163 yards.

Jordan Preator opened the final quarter picking off a deep throw from Grammer. When the Cougars couldn't capitalize, punter Scott Arellano pinned the Blue Raiders on the 13-yard line with a career-long 81-yard punt, the longest in BYU history.

"I love standing in the end zone and just going after it," Arellano said. "I don't have to think about anything. I knew the wind was going that way, so I knew it was a good opportunity. I just hoped that guy wouldn't catch it, and he didn't."

BYU converted a 4th-and-1 situation on the opening drive of the game as Stewart rushed for 5 yards to the BYU 45. Stewart and Colby Pearson put BYU on the board first on a 37-yard touchdown reception with 12:36 left in the first quarter. The touchdown reception was Pearson's third of his career and the team's third-longest scoring play of the year.

Defensive lineman Tomasi Laulile picked off a pass attempt from Middle Tennessee quarterback Austin Grammer with 5:12 in the first, but the offense wasn't able to score off the turnover.

A BYU fumble with six minutes left in the second quarter set up Middle Tennessee on its 40-yard line. The Blue Raiders marched down the field, scoring on a 22-yard catch to tie the score 7-7 with four minutes until halftime.

BYU has a bye week before hosting UNLV Nov. 15.

PROVO, Utah – Paul Lasike recorded a career-high three touchdowns while leading BYU football to a 42-23 blowout win over UNLV Saturday at Lavell Edwards Stadium.

“I’m really pleased with the win,” BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. “This has not been an easy season, and the games aren’t easy, but I believe we’ll finish strong. It was a nice football game for our team. A lot of good things and certainly a lot we’ll try to work on. I’m looking forward to the next two games of the regular season to improve our team and culminate it with a bowl game.”

Lasike totaled 70 yards and two touchdowns on the ground along with one reception for 26 yards and a touchdown. Christian Stewart passed for 325 yards and three touchdowns, completing 18 of 32 passes. Mitch Mathews led all receivers with six catches for 120 yards and a touchdown.

The Cougars broke the game wide open in the third quarter, scoring three touchdowns. The first score came on BYU’s opening drive capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Devin Mahina.

Later in the quarter, Lasike scored his third touchdown of the game when Stewart faked a handoff in the backfield and found Lasike down the seam for a 26-yard scoring strike to extend the Cougar lead to 35-16.

Mathews scored BYU’s third touchdown of the quarter on an 8-yard reception from Stewart that was set up one play earlier by a 35-yard pass to Jordan Leslie.

“It’s really humbling to get a career-high three touchdowns,” Paul Lasike said. “I didn’t really do much. They were kind of walk in touchdowns. Most of the credit goes to the offensive line.”

Both teams started slowly to begin the game. BYU got on the board with 1:43 left in the first quarter when Leslie scored on a rush after a lateral pass from Stewart. The touchdown tied the longest rushing touchdown of the year for BYU.

Lasike extended the lead to 14-3, taking a handoff from Stewart and rushing off-tackle for an 8-yard touchdown. After another touchdown and field goal from UNLV, BYU closed the half with a 5-play, 65-yard drive and another Lasike touchdown to lead 21-13.

The Cougars totaled 592 total yards of offense with 325 through the air and 267 on the ground.

Bronson Kaufusi led the defense with 9 tackles including two sacks. His two sacks marked the third game in a row he has recorded at least one sack. Kai Nacua forced a turnover when he picked off the UNLV quarterback for his second interception this season.

BYU’s last home game of the season will be next Saturday, Nov. 22, against Savannah State. The game will kickoff at 1 p.m. MST and will be broadcast live on BYUtv and KSL 1160/102.7.

PROVO, Utah – Senior quarterback Christian Stewart accounted for six touchdowns and junior Nate Carter rushed for a career-high as BYU beat Savannah State 64-0 on Senior Day Saturday at Lavell Edwards Stadium.

"I think our team did a nice job just during the game staying together and staying focused," BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. "I think our team showed maturity and pulled for each other. I was really encouraged by the sideline. Those who don't get to play that much had an opportunity. They were genuinely happy for each other, and that's really good to see as a coach."

Stewart completed 12 of 17 passes for 194 yards and four touchdowns while rushing for two more touchdowns. Junior receiver Mitch Mathews caught four passes for 110 yards and two touchdowns for his third career multi-touchdown game at BYU. Stewart also connected with receivers Jordan Leslie and Terenn Houk for touchdowns.

Carter anchored BYU's ground game with 20 carries for a career-high 116 yards and a touchdown. Sophomore AJ Moore added 62 rushing yards and a touchdown.

The Cougars (7-4) scored promptly after receiving the opening kickoff, using a four-play, 85-yard drive for a touchdown. Receiving the snap from the BYU 29, Stewart dropped back, rolled right and found Mathews slanting deep over the middle. Mathews escaped the grasp of a Savannah State (0-12) defensive back and sprinted to the end zone for a 71-yard touchdown.

BYU's defense forced a punt on the Tigers' first possession. Eight plays and 80 yards later, Stewart faked a handoff and ran left for a 16-yard score.

After forcing another punt, the Cougars struck again, with Stewart hooking up Mathews with another touchdown reception—this time from 16 yards out. Mathews' grab in the corner of the end zone gave BYU a 21-0 lead with 3:32 left in the first quarter.

Savannah State failed on a fake punt on its first possession of the second quarter, giving the Cougar offense a short field. Stewart found Houk in the middle of the endzone for a 9-yard touchdown pass.

On the ensuing Tiger possession, BYU senior line-backer Alani Fua intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards to the Savannah State six. Stewart ran for a 6-yard touchdown on the offense's first possession, increasing BYU's lead to 35-0.

The Cougars repeated their previous feat with another one-play touchdown two minutes later, when the Tigers muffed a punt attempt, and BYU sophomore safety Kai Nacua dove on the football at the Savannah State one. Stewart faked a handoff, rolled left and found senior receiver Jordan Leslie for the score. The ensuing extra point put the Cougars up 42-0, with Stewart accounting for all six touchdowns.

Seeing their first career snaps, freshmen McCoy Hill and Hunter Moore took over the reigns at quarterback with just over eight minutes left in the first half. They combined for a 10-play, 59-yard touchdown drive, with junior running back Nate Carter punching in a run from two yards out.

With 2:19 left in the half, BYU sophomore receiver David Kessler blocked a Savannah State punt. With the ball rolling back into the Tiger endzone and Kessler bearing down on it, Savannah State punter John Barron booted it out the back of the endzone for a safety, giving the Cougars a 51-0 lead, which they held at the half.

BYU kicker Trevor Samson made a 31-yard field goal at the beginning of the fourth quarter to give BYU a 54-0 lead. Two minutes later, Samson hit a 32-yard field goal to further increase the Cougars' lead.

Moore scored BYU's final touchdown, a 6-yard score on the ground with just over two minutes left in the game, giving BYU the 64-0 victory.

The Cougars' final game of the regular season is next Saturday against California in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, California – Two touchdowns each from Jordan Leslie and Mitchell Juergens led BYU to a 42-35 victory over Cal in Berkeley on Saturday.

“I’m so happy for our team—the few, we lucky few,” BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. “We knew this was a really tough opponent, it was going to take at least 30 points to win, and it played out exactly as we planned it.”

Christian Stewart threw five touchdowns on 23 of 38 for 433 yards and one interception. BYU’s wide receivers came up big against Cal, as Juergens had two touchdowns and 107 yards (a career-high), and Leslie had 155 yards and two touchdowns. Paul Lasike led the running backs with one touchdown and 63 yards.

Up 42-35 after a 38-yard touchdown catch by Leslie, BYU played tough defense during Cal’s final drive. The Bears converted on fourth down with a 12-yard pass to Harper, but Robertson Daniel and Michael Davis both stopped potential touchdown passes to hold onto the lead and win the game 42-35.

Three Cougars recorded double-figure tackles, with Kai Nacua collecting a team-high 14 tackles. Skye PoVey recorded 11, and Harvey Jackson had a career-high 10.

With 11:49 left in the game, Stewart found Leslie for an 83-yard reception to go up 35-28. It was BYU’s first lead since going ahead 14-7 in the first quarter, but Cal answered right back with a 23-yard reception by Trevor Davis to tie it back up at 35-all with 9:17 left.

Algeron Brown caught a 22-yard touchdown in the third quarter with 9:12 left to tie the game again at 21-21. He powered through three defenders to make his way to the end zone. Stewart kept the drive alive by finding Terenn Houk for a 13-yard reception to convert on the third down.

With 8:25 left in the third quarter, PoVey intercepted Jared Goff and returned it 27 yards. Juergens had a 29-yard reception to get BYU within a yard of the end zone. Stewart fumbled the ball on the 1-yard line, which was recovered by Cal’s Stefan McClure for 22 yards. The Bears took advantage of the turnover with Tre Watson scoring a 9-yard rushing touchdown to go up 28-21 with 4:12 left in the third quarter.

The Cougars bounced back and rushed the ball up the field for a touchdown. Lasike avoided four Cal defenders for a 28-yard reception, which put Stewart in position to find Juergens for a 9-yard touchdown reception to even the score at 28-28 with 1:08 left in the third quarter.

BYU scored on the first drive of the game. A couple of penalties against Cal kept the drive alive for BYU. Lasike powered over the Bears’ defense to score the first touchdown of the game and put the Cougars up 7-0 with 12:18 left in the first quarter.

Cal answered right back with a touchdown of its own in its first drive. Goff threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Kenny Lawler in the end zone to tie the game 7-7 with 7:37 left in the first quarter. Bryce Treggs caught two passes for a total of 20 yards in this drive.

Juergens caught his second touchdown pass of the season to put BYU up 14-7. He caught a 47-yard pass from Stewart with 1:04 in the first quarter. Brown kept the drive alive when the Cougars went for it on fourth down and he rushed for the first down. BYU was 3 for 3 on fourth downs.

The second quarter saw two touchdowns from Cal. Lawler caught two touchdown passes in the second quarter alone. The first was a 16-yard pass from Goff deep in the end zone with 13:44 left in the half to tie the game up at 14-14.

Stewart threw an interception to Caleb Coleman to set up the Bears’ second scoring drive of the quarter. BYU’s defense almost stopped the second touchdown after holding the running game for two downs, but Goff found Lawler to convert on third down and score to go up 21-14 with 7:29 left in the second quarter.

The Cougars will participate in the Miami Beach Bowl on Dec. 22 at 2 p.m. EST.
