COUGARS TO PLAY DUCKS IN LAS VEGAS BOWL

No. 19 BYU (10-2 overall, 8-0 Mountain West Conference) will travel to Las Vegas to participate in its second consecutive Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl. The Cougars will take on Oregon (7-5, 4-5 Pacific-10) in Sam Boyd Stadium. The game will be televised nationally on ESPN at 5 p.m. (PST). The game will mark the second consecutive season BYU has qualified for--and played in--a bowl game. Previously, the last time the Cougars played in bowl games in consecutive seasons was in 1998 (Liberty Bowl) and 1999 (Motor City Bowl). BYU has not won a bowl game since the 1996 Cotton Bowl when the Cougars beat Kansas State to set an NCAA record for most wins in a season (14). Since 1996, BYU has played in four bowl games.

The Cougars are currently riding a nine-game winning streak, good for third longest in the nation (Ohio State and Boise State). BYU is coming off one of the most exciting games in the programs' history that saw the Cougars come from behind to beat Utah on the last play of the game--a play that took over 10 seconds before quarterback John Beck found Jonny Harline alone in the end zone with no time on the clock.

A LOOK AT THE DUCKS

Oregon started the season winning five of its first six games, including a 34-33 victory over No. 15 Oklahoma. The Ducks, who were ranked as high as 11th in the nation this season and remained in the top 25 for three months, finished their season 7-5 overall and 4-5 in league play. The program has been selected to play in 10 bowl games during Bellotti's 12 years as head coach and this year's trip will mark the 20th bowl game in school history. The first-ever Pac-

10 team to appear in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl, Oregon defeated Air Force 41-13 on Dec. 20, 1997.

The Cougars will be matched against a familiar face when the two teams meet in Las Vegas. Oregon's offensive coordinator Gary Crowton served as the head coach at BYU from 2001 through 2004. During his four-year tenure, Crowton produced a 26-23 overall record, including a 12-2 clip and a Mountain West Conference Championship during the 2001 season.

COUGARS ON NATIONAL TELEVISION

All totaled, the Cougars have played in a total of six nationally televised games this season. BYU has played on TBS (Arizona), ESPN2 (Boston College), VERSUS (TCU and Air Force) and CSTV (Wyoming and Utah). Interestingly, BYU played in the first nationally televised games on ESPN (1985), TBS (1982) and VERSUS (2006). All three were victories. The Cougars will be playing their first game on ESPN this season. BYU has a 4-2 record this season on national TV.

SERIES INFORMATION

The Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl will mark the sixth meeting between the two teams, dating back to the 1964 season. Oregon owns a 3-2 record over the Cougars, including a 32-16 victory in the last meeting between the two teams 16 years ago. The following are recaps of each BYU/Oregon game:

Sept. 19, 1964--Oregon 20, BYU 13 at Hayward Field in Eugene, Ore.

Despite outgaining Oregon, 270 total yards to the Ducks 260, BYU lost to Oregon, 20-13, in the two teams' first match up. The Cougars' Virgil Carter completed seven-of-17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns. The game was tied at 13 heading into the fourth quarter when Bob Berry completed a 35-yard touchdown pass to Ray Palm to give the Ducks a 20-13 lead with 12:46 remaining in the fourth quarter. BYU's comeback fell short when the Cougars fumbled on the Oregon 37-yard line. The Ducks ran out the clock for the win.

Oct. 2, 1965--Oregon 27, BYU 14 at Hayward Field in Eugene, Ore.

BYU suffered its first loss of the 1965 season at the hands of Oregon, 27-14. The Cougars never led in the game and were out-gained 489 total yards to BYU's 140. The Cougars gave up 224 yards rushing. After Oregon jumped to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, the Cougars tied the game at seven when Virgil Carter found Kent Oborn for a 37-yard touchdown connection. The Ducks scored 20 unanswered points to build a 27-7 lead early in the fourth quarter. Carter found Phil Odle for a 22-yard pass late in the fourth quarter.

Oct. 14, 1978--BYU 17, Oregon 16 at Autzen Stadium in Eugene, Ore.

Behind Jim McMahon, BYU got its first win in program history over Oregon, a 17-16 come-from-behind victory for the Cougars. Behind 16-3 going into the fourth quarter, McMahon replaced starter Marc Wilson and led BYU to score 14 unanswered points and escape Eugene with a victory. McMahon completed 10-of-19 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown in just over one quarter of play. With BYU down 16-3 midway through the fourth quarter, Oregon's punter Mike Babb dropped the snap and was tackled at 21-yard line. The next play McMahon found Todd Thompson for a touchdown. Three minutes later, Doug Williams plunged into the end zone to give the Cougars a decisive touchdown in the 17-16 win.

Nov. 4, 1989--BYU 45, Oregon 41 at Cougar Stadium in Provo, Utah

BYU got its second consecutive win in the series as the Cougars won a back-and-forth game over Oregon in the first--and only---game the teams have played in Provo. The Cougars outscored the Ducks 24-8 in the final quarter to record a 45-41 victory. Sophomore quarterback Ty Detmer completed 29-of-47 attempts for 470 yards and three touchdowns in the game. With 7:14 remaining in the third quarter, Oregon's Derek Loville scored on a one-yard touchdown run to give the Ducks a 33-14 lead. The Cougars stormed back, outscoring Oregon 31-8 over the final 21 minutes of the game to take home the victory. Detmer found Jeff Frandsen three times for touchdown passes including a 15-yard touchdown connection that gave BYU its first lead of the game with 1:01 remaining in the fourth quarter. Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave fumbled on the Ducks' final possession and the Cougars recovered to seal the victory.

Sept. 24, 1990--Oregon 32, BYU 16 at Autzen Stadium in Eugene, Ore.

Oregon handed #4 BYU its first loss of the year in Ty Detmer's 1990 Heisman Trophy season. Detmer threw for 442 yards while completing 33-of-57 passes and two touchdowns. However, Oregon's defense sacked Detmer five times and forced five interceptions. The Cougars never led against the Ducks as Oregon jumped to an early first-quarter lead and never looked back. BYU was held to -47 yards rushing in the loss. Oregon's Bill Musgrave had an efficient outing, throwing for 286 yards and three touchdowns.

COMPLETE BROADCAST PLANS

TELEVISION: The game will be broadcast nationally on ESPN. It will be the first time the Cougars have appeared on ESPN this season. Brent Musburger will do the play-by-play with Bob Davie and Craig James offering commentary and Lisa Salters reporting from the sideline.

ANOTHER BOWL SELLOUT

The 15th annual Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl was sold out before any teams were invited. This year's sellout marks the second consecutive season the bowl has sold out.

Adding to the excitement of enjoying its first-ever, sold-out crowd, the 2005 Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl also drew a huge television audience on December 22. The 14th annual game drew a 2.40 national rating on ESPN and ESPNHD, which ranked an impressive seventh among the 20 bowl games broadcast during season by the ESPN networks. The number represented a 24 percent increase from the 2004 game that drew a rating of 1.94 rating when Wyoming downed UCLA.

An estimated 22,000-25,000 BYU fans attended the game in Las Vegas.

OREGON CONNECTIONS

- The most obvious connection between BYU and Oregon is Oregon's offensive coordinator, Gary Crowton. Crowton served as head coach at BYU for four seasons (2001-2004). During Crowton's first season, BYU got off to a 12-0 record and posted a perfect 7-0 Mountain West Conference record. In his first year, Crowton led BYU to its last outright MWC Championship. BYU led the nation in total offense (542.9 yards per game) and scoring (44.1 points per game). The Ducks lead the Pac-10 with an average 189.17 yards rushing per game. Oregon ranks eighth nationally and leads the Pac-10 in total offense, producing 436.42 yards per game.

"I acknowledge that there will be an interest in Coach Crowton's relationship to our program," BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. "I have the deepest respect for Coach Crowton. I admire him and his family at the highest level. He is a dear friend and I am grateful for the opportunities he has provided me throughout my coaching career. I'm thrilled and not surprised by the success Oregon's offense is having under Coach Crowton's direction."

- Bronco Mendenhall has coached with Gary Crowton on two occasions: at Louisiana Tech (1997) and BYU (2003-2004). Crowton was the offensive coordinator at Snow College (Ephraim, Utah) when Mendenhall was playing his junior college football for the Badgers. BYU's inside linebackers coach Paul Tidwell was the defensive coordinator of that team.
- BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall will be coaching against Oregon for the first time as a head coach. As a player, Mendenhall played for Oregon State. Mendenhall's Oregon State teams were 0-2 in his two years against the Ducks. As a graduate assistant at Oregon State, Mendenhall's teams were also 0-2 against Oregon.
- Antwaun Harris, a former receiver for BYU in 2004 is listed as a transfer to Oregon in the Ducks' media guide. Harris had 17 receptions for 149 yards when he played for BYU in 2004.
- Two other Oregon players with Utah ties are wide receiver Ryan Mattice, who played junior college ball at Dixie State (St. George, Utah) and defensive end Victor Filipe, who hails from Salt Lake City and prepped at Highland HS.
- BYU secondary coach Jaime Hill was the defensive coordinator at Portland State University from 1993-1996. Hill was 0-1 (1994) against Oregon while he was at Portland State.
- BYU's outside linebackers coach Barry Lamb got his bachelor's degree at Oregon in 1978. Lamb coached the interior line (offensive and defensive) and the outside linebackers from 1977-1980.
- Three BYU players are from Oregon: linebacker Rex (Woodburn), quarterback Sam (Canby) and linebacker Shawn (Canby) Doman.
- Oregon head coach Mike Bellotti will be facing the Cougars for the first time in his head coaching career. Bellotti was the offensive coordinator for the Ducks from 1989-1994. During his time as offensive coordinator under head coach Rich Brooks, Bellotti was 1-1 against BYU.
- The two teams had one common opponent: Arizona. BYU lost to the Wildcats Sept. 2 on a last-second field goal in Tuscon. BYU had a second-half touchdown wiped away by a controversial offensive pass interference call in the end zone. Arizona beat Oregon 37-10 in Eugene.

MENDENHALL NAMED REGION 5 AND MWC COACH OF THE YEAR

The American Football Coaches Association today announced BYU head football coach Bronco Mendenhall has been named the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year.

Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 10-2 overall record, including a perfect 8-0 mark in league play to collect the team's first outright Mountain West Conference title since the 2001 season.

Throughout the season, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars' nine-game win streak marks the third longest active streak in the country and is only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars have recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Region 5 includes 19 different schools from both the Pac-10 and the Mountain West Conference. Other division honorees include Wake Forest's Jim Grobe (Region 1), Arkansas' Houston Nutt (Region 2), Michigan's Lloyd Carr (Region 3) and Boise State's Chris Petersen (Region 4). The AFCA began recognizing district coaches of the year following the 1960 season. In 1983, the award was changed to recognize regional winners instead of district winners.

BECK NAMED MWC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The Mountain West Conference announced the 2006 all-conference football teams and individual award winners today as selected by the nine head coaches and media panel. BYU quarterback John Beck was a unanimous choice for the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year.

Beck led the league in nearly every passing category. The native of Mesa, Ariz., led the league in passing yards per game (319.1), total offense per game (316.0), passing efficiency (173.3), completion percentage (70.4) and touchdown completions (30). During the season he had four games with over 300 yards passing, including 10 games with over 250 yards passing. He completed at least 65 percent of his attempts in 10 of the 11 games he played during the season and had three or more touchdown completions in seven games, including five games with four TD's.

Beck set a Mountain West Conference record after being named the league's Offensive Player of the Week seven different times during the season.

HEAD COACH BRONCO MENDENHALL

After 16 seasons as an assistant coach, including two years as the defensive coordinator for the Cougars, Bronco Mendenhall was named the 14th head football coach at Brigham Young University on December 13, 2004 by University President Dr. Cecil O. Samuelson.

Since that time, Mendenhall (40) has held fast to the vision of restoring BYU to national prominence by requiring a higher level of commitment on and off the field through accountability, effort and discipline. Equally significant in the restoration process, Mendenhall has emphasized the importance of honoring the coaches and players who have established a proud football tradition at BYU—a program of national prominence. Finally, by implementing a mission statement that outlines core values, Mendenhall has turned the tide at BYU by embracing tradition, spirit and honor.

In his first season, Mendenhall took a program that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001 and compiled a 6-5 regular-season record, a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference standings and earned a trip to a bowl game for the first time in three seasons.

“We are excited to represent the Mountain West Conference in a bowl game,” Mendenhall said at the end of the 2005 season. “But, we want to come back next year as conference champions.”

Building on the success of his first-ever season as a head coach, Mendenhall and the Cougars posted a 10-2 record in 2006, winning the outright Mountain West Conference Championship with a perfect 8-0 record. As a result, BYU returned to the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl to represent the MWC—this time, as conference champions.

Along the way, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars’ nine-game win streak was the third longest in the country and marked only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars had recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region V Coach of the Year. In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

Under Mendenhall’s direction, the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 319.3 yards per game. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fifth in the country in total offense, producing an average 458.6 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked sixth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.7 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 171.16.

Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging +1.17 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 19th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (107.84) and 16th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.3 points per game.

BYU outscored its opponents during the season by an average 36.7 to 15.3 (+21.4). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, Mendenhall and the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did BYU win each of its home games, it did so in record fashion. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominant team in the nation, but also they finished as the most dominant home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished the season behind the Cougars in 2006, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin.

In his first season, the Cougars finished second in the Mountain West Conference with a 5-3 record. Mendenhall and his staff coached an offense reminiscent of BYU’s glory days, ranking second in the MWC in scoring and sixth in the nation in passing.

During his first season in Provo, Mendenhall engineered the nation’s 14th-ranked defense, holding opponents to just 307 yards per game. Under Mendenhall’s direction, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing defense, giving up just 176.17 yards per game.

Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master’s degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos’ 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL’s Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico’s all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team’s most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple have three sons: Cutter, Breaker and Raeder.

YOUNG GUN

While Mendenhall has 16 years of assistant coaching experience, he is now in his second year as a head coach for the first time in his career. Despite his extensive experience, he is the eighth youngest coach in NCAA Division I-A football at the age of 40.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The BYU coaching staff leads the Mountain West Conference with five members of its coaching staff who have played football in the National Football League or the old USFL. Associate Head Coach and running backs coach Lance Reynolds was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1978 and also played at Philadelphia. Offensive coordinator Robert Anae was drafted in the third round by the New Jersey Generals of the USFL. Quarterbacks coach Brandon Doman was drafted by the San Francisco 49'ers in 2002 and also played with the Washington Redskins. Jeff Grimes and Steve Kaufusi also have NFL experience.

PLAYER AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

John Beck - MWC Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 16 vs. Boston College)

Beck completed 38-of-59 passes for a season-high 436 yards in BYU's double-overtime 30-23 loss at Boston College. He also threw one touchdown pass and added a rushing touchdown in the game. Beck's passing yardage is his highest output since posting a Mountain West record 517 yards against TCU last season.

John Beck - MWC Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 28 vs. TCU)

For the second time in three weeks--and the fifth time in his career--BYU quarterback John Beck has been named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week. The Davey O'Brien Award candidate helped lead the Cougars to a convincing 31-17 victory over 15th-ranked TCU on Thursday in Fort Worth, ending the Horned Frogs' nation's leading 13-game win streak.

The 6-foot-2, 216-pound senior completed 23-of-37 attempts for 312 yards and three touchdowns, avenging last season's 51-50 overtime loss to TCU in Provo. The victory also gave the Cougars' their first road victory over a ranked opponent since 1997--the same year Beck quarterbacked the Mountain View High School (Mesa, Ariz.) junior varsity squad as a sophomore.

John Beck - MWC Offensive Player of the Week (Oct. 7 vs. San Diego State)

For the third time in four weeks, and the sixth time in his career, BYU quarterback John Beck has been named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Cougars to a 47-17 win over San Diego State on Saturday. With his four touchdown completions, Beck broke the MWC career touchdown completions record, improving to 59 TD's throughout his career.

Beck, a 6-foot-2, 216-pound senior from Mesa, Ariz., completed 16-of-21 attempts for 267 yards and a season-high four touchdowns in under three quarters of play. The Davey O'Brien Award candidate finished the game with a career-high efficiency rating of 245.9, marking the highest rating by a BYU quarterback since Steve Sarkisian posted a 260.8 rating against Rice in 1996.

Nate Meikle - National Scholar-Athlete Semifinalist

The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame has announced BYU receiver Nate Meikle has been named a candidate for the NFF 2006 National Scholar-Athlete Awards and a semifinalist for the 2006 Draddy Trophy, presented by HealthSouth.

A senior at Brigham Young University, Meikle maintains a 3.8 cumulative grade-point average. The Idaho Falls, Idaho, native will graduate in December with a degree in business. Prior to coming to BYU, Meikle graduated Summa Cum Laude from Snow College in Ephriam, Utah with a 4.0 grade-point average. Last season, Meikle received second-team Academic All-America honors by CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine.

John Beck - MWC Offensive Player of the Week (Oct. 28 vs. Air Force)

Beck led BYU to a 33-14 victory at Air Force, completing 23-of-31 pass attempts for 258 yards and three touchdowns. Beck posted a completion percentage of 74 percent en route to his fifth three-touchdown performance of the season, including his fourth straight game with three or more touchdown completions. BYU had a total of eight drives during the game. The Beck-led offense engineered points in six of the eight drives, including a 14-play, 81-yard drive to mark the fourth straight game BYU has scored on the opening drive.

Cameron Jensen - MWC Defensive Player of the Week (Nov. 4 vs. CSU)

Senior linebacker Cameron Jensen led BYU with nine tackles (seven solo), including a season-high two sacks for 15 yards, in the 24-3 win at Colorado State. The Jensen-led defense held Colorado State to just 151 yards of total offense, including just 26 yards rushing. Jensen's first sack came with Colorado State facing a third-and-two from its own 17 yard line. Jensen sacked Caleb Hanie for a 10-yard loss, forcing the Rams to punt from their own seven. His second sack of the night was a five-yard takedown of Hanie on a second-and-10 at the CSU 35 yard line.

John Beck - MWC Offensive Player of the Week (Nov. 9 vs. Wyoming)

Beck had a completion percentage of 76.9, connecting on 20-of-26 attempts for 313 yards in BYU's 55-7 victory over Wyoming. Beck also had two touchdown completions and two rushing touchdowns to help the Cougars secure at least a share of the MWC title. Beck became the Mountain West Conference all-time passing leader with 9,807 yards, surpassing the 9,684 yards by Casey Bramlet during his career at Wyoming (2000-03).

John Beck - MWC Offensive Player of the Week (Nov. 18 vs. New Mexico)

Beck completed 28-of-48 passes for a season-high 464 yards and accounted for five touchdowns as BYU defeated New Mexico, 42-17, to secure its first outright Mountain West title since 2001. Beck connected on touchdown passes of 20, 71, 9 and 4 yards as the Cougars improved to 9-2 overall and 7-0 in the MWC. Beck also rushed for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to cap off the day.

John Beck - Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week (Nov. 25 vs. Utah) and MWC Offensive Player of the Week

Beck, a native of Mesa, Ariz., completed 28-of-43 attempts for 375 yards and four touchdowns, including a game-winning, 11-yard pass with no time remaining to complete the comeback. After completing 8-of-9 attempts for 178 yards and a touchdown in the first quarter, Beck completed just five attempts through the second and third quarters as Utah took a 24-14 lead into the final quarter. In the final 15 minutes, Beck completed 15-of-20 attempts for 156 yards and three touchdowns to overcome a 10-point, fourth-quarter deficit. Beck owns the MWC record for Player of the Week Honors with seven earned this season.

Dan Coats, who added six receptions for 80 yards, including a critical two-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter, said Beck was confident and poised as the Cougars began their game-winning drive.

"He came in the huddle and said, 'We're going to get this done. We are going to go down and score.' He was just cool, calm and collected. John Beck was a man in there."

3,000 AND 1,000 IN THE SAME SEASON

Curtis Brown needs just 110 yards to reach the 1,000-yard mark. If he gets 110 yards against Oregon, John Beck and Brown will become the only duo to throw for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice in their respective careers. Last season, Beck and Brown became the first Cougar duo to pass for over 3,000 yards and rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season since 2001. The last time two players combined to reach that mark were Brandon Doman and Luke Staley in 2001. John Walsh and Jamal Willis are the only other duo to achieve the 3,000-1,000 plateau in the same season, which they accomplished in 1994. Following lists the duos and their yardage totals:

Year	Players	Yards	Total Yards
2005	John Beck/Curtis Brown	3,709/1,123	4,822
2001	Brandon Doman/Luke Staley	3,542/1,582	5,124
1994	John Walsh/Jamal Willis	3,712/1,042	4,754

Although there were several teams that had a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2005, only three schools featured a 3,700-yard passer and an 1,100-yard rusher: USC, Notre Dame and BYU. Brown would also become the first running back in BYU history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

CAREER 300-YARD GAMES

In BYU history, 22 different Cougars have thrown for 300 yards in at least one game. All totaled, BYU quarterbacks have hit the 300-yard mark a combined 190 games. Senior John Beck has made a contribution of 16 games to that list. Beck entered his senior campaign with 11 300-yard games. Beck is now in fourth place for most 300-yard games. Ty Detmer tops the list with 34. Beck has thrown for more than 300 yards in three consecutive games for the first time in his career (Wyoming, 313; New Mexico, 464; Utah, 375) . Cougars with 300-yard passing games:

Player	300-yard Games	Player	300-yard Games
Ty Detmer	34	Sean Covey	5
Jim McMahon	17	Ryan Hancock	4
John Walsh	17	Brandon Doman	3
John Beck	16	Bob Jensen	3
Robbie Bosco	15	Steve Lindsey	3
Marc Wilson	13	Virgil Carter	3
Steve Young	13	Bret Engemann	2
Steve Sarkisian	12	Charlie Peterson	2
Kevin Feterik	11	Jason Beck	1
Gifford Nielson	9	Matt Berry	1
Gary Sheide	5	Marc Lyons	1

CAREER 100-YARD GAMES

Curtis Brown picked up his 14th 100-yard rushing game of his career and third of the season against New Mexico, the same game he broke he all-time school rushing record. With 153 yards against Utah in 2005, Brown registered the 11th 100-yard rushing game of his career, the most in BYU history. He tied the record at 10 with 153 yards against Wyoming. Last season Brown recorded six 100-yard rushing games, including 110 yards against Eastern Illinois, 104 yards versus New Mexico, 147 yards against Colorado State, a career-high 219 yards versus Air Force and 153 yards in the Utah and Wyoming games. Cougars with five-or-more 100-yard rushing games:

QUARTER-BECK NOTES

BYU senior quarterback John Beck broke the Mountain West Conference single-season and career record for most player-of-the-week honors after being selected as the league's offensive player of the week for the seventh time this season and the 10th time in his career. Beck led BYU to a two-point, come-from-behind victory over rival Utah on Nov. 25, passing for 375 yards on 28-of-43 attempts and four touchdowns. Beck, who picked up his 21st career victory, led BYU to a fourth quarter comeback over the Utes. In BYU's final drive, Beck marched the Cougars 75 yards in 10 plays capped by a touchdown reception to Jonny Harline on a miracle throw. The game marked the 10th time this season Beck had a completion percentage over 65 percent and the fifth time he has thrown for over 300 yards.

Beck helped lead the Cougars to BYU's greatest home season ever. With a perfect 6-0 record in Edwards Stadium, the Cougars averaged 47.16 points at home through six games, beating opponents by an all-time record average 35.17 points per game.

OF NOTE

- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks second nationally) with a 70.35 completion percentage.
- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks fourth nationally) averaging 319.09 yards per game.
- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks fourth nationally) averaging 316 yards of total offense per game.
- Leads all seniors nationally, (ranks third nationally) with a responsibility for 19.09 points per game.
- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks second nationally) with an efficiency rating of 173.3.
- Has passed for over 10,000 yards in his career.
- Ranks 26th all-time in NCAA history with 10,646 passing yards. He is 47 yards shy of tying Matt Leinart for 25th all-time.
- Has the highest touchdown-to-interception margin (+24) since Brandon Doman (+25) in 2001.
- Has an MWC record 77 career touchdown completions.
- Has a MWC career record 10,646 yards passing.
- Has a MWC career record 10,658 yards of total offense.
- Recorded his 21st career victory in a 33-31 victory over Utah.

COMPARING SENIOR QUARTERBACKS

- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks second nationally) with a 70.35 completion percentage.

- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks fourth nationally) averaging 316 yards of total offense per game.
- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks third nationally) with a responsibility for 19.09 points per game.
- Leads all senior quarterbacks, (ranks second nationally) with an efficiency rating of 173.3.

GOOD GRIEF, CURTIS BROWN

Against New Mexico, Curtis Brown's date with the BYU record books came early and in style. On Brown's second carry on the Cougars' first drive, he blew straight through the middle for a 49-yard touchdown run to become BYU's career rushing record holder. The 49-yard run was Brown's longest rush since going 64 yards for a touchdown against Utah on Nov. 19, 2005. Brown finished the night with 124 yards on 13 carries and one touchdown run. He also had five receptions for 44 yards with a touchdown reception from quarterback John Beck. Brown needs just 110 yards to reach the 1,000-yard plateau for the second consecutive season. He would be the first running back in BYU history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

CAN'T MOVE THESE GUYS...OFF THE FIELD

BYU's Jake Kuresa and Dallas Reynolds have started or played significantly in every game that they have dressed in their respective careers. Kuresa, a senior, has played all three offensive line positions this year. He has started in 46 of 47 games but has played in all 47 games. Reynolds, who plays left tackle, is in his sophomore season and has started 24 consecutive contests.

ALL-PURPOSE BACK

Curtis Brown has been all over the field for BYU in its 12 games. In addition to leading the team in rushing yards and receptions, he has returned kickoffs for the Cougars. Brown returned a kick for 48 yards against San Diego State.

DEFENSIVE NUMBERS GAME

Prior to Spring practice, Bronco Mendenhall announced BYU would be implementing a 3-4 defensive scheme to replace the 3-3-5.

"We feel like we've assembled the best coaching staff possible," Mendenhall said. "After reviewing our defensive personnel, there are players on our team who we can design scheme elements around to make sure we get our best 11 football players on the field. We believe the coaching assignment changes are in direct alignment with the strengths of our returning defensive personnel."

While the Cougars will be going away from the 3-3-5 scheme, Mendenhall said the principles of the new scheme will not change.

"The principles are very similar to what we have already done," he said. "We will continue to emphasize pursuit and gang tackling."

The change has paid off for the Cougars, as they currently rank 16th in the nation in scoring defense, giving up only 15.3 points per game. The 15.3 points per game is nearly half (29.25) of what BYU's defense surrendered in 2005.

BOWL MOMENTUM

In seasons following a trip to a bowl game, the Cougars have recorded a combined 212-84-2 (.715) record (including 10-2 in 2006, bowl pending). Of the 24 seasons following a bowl game, the Cougars have averaged nearly nine (8.8) wins per season. BYU has had only one losing season following a trip to a bowl game. (In 2002, BYU went 5-7 after playing in the Liberty Bowl in 2001.)

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS

The Cougars own the third longest winning streak in the country. Ohio State leads with a 19-game win streak, followed by Boise State with 12 consecutive victories. BYU's nine-game win streak is the longest since the 2001 season and only the seventh time in the program's history the Cougars have had nine or more consecutive wins in a single season. Interestingly, when BYU wins nine or more straight games in a season, it has won four of six bowl games. Below are the longest current winning streaks in the country:

Team	Streak
Ohio State	19
Boise State	12
BYU	9
Wisconsin	8

EVERY FIVE YEARS...

BYU is on a five-year cycle of fielding top-10 teams. Five years ago, the Cougars started the 2001 campaign 12-0 in Gary Crowton's first season. The BYU squad averaged 44.1 points per game and was ranked as high as eight going into the Hawai'i game.

Five years prior, the 1996 Cougars team, led by quarterback Steve Sarkisian went 14-1. BYU set NCAA records for wins (14) and games played (15) in a season. The Cougars 14-1 record ended in a WAC Championship and a Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State. After BYU's Cotton Bowl victory, the Cougars finished the season ranked No. 5.

Although BYU has not been ranked in the top-10 this season, the Cougars have earned their highest ranking heading in to the bowl game since the 2001 season, five years ago.

IT'S AUTOMATIC ... ALMOST

BYU, known traditionally for its high-octane offenses, rarely gets shutout. Until the Cougar's 3-0 loss to the University of Utah to end the 2003 season, BYU had scored in 361-consecutive games, which remains an NCAA record, dating back to the 1975 season. The Cougars started a new streak in 2004, and have scored in every game, extending their streak to 35 games. Since October 3, 1975, BYU has scored in 396 of 397 games.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

The following is a list of BYU's future non-conference schedules:

2007: Arizona, at UCLA, at Tulsa and Eastern Washington

2008: Nevada, at Washington, UCLA

2009: at Arizona State, Florida State

2010: Washington, at Florida State

2011: at Washington, Arizona State

AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

BYU's 31-17 victory over TCU Sept. 28 was the first win against a ranked opponent since beating No. 23 Colorado State, 34-13, on Sept. 16, 1999. Previous to the victory over TCU, the Cougars were 0-12 against ranked opponents, including a record of 0-3 at Edwards Stadium. Interestingly, BYU's victory over TCU was the first on the road against a ranked opponent since beating Arizona State, 13-10, on Sept. 20, 1997.

CALLED TO SERVE

There are currently 61 returned missionaries (59 percent) on the BYU fall camp roster who have served full-time, two-year missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in over 25 different countries around the world. All totaled members of this year's team have served missions in Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, England, France, Germany, Ghana, Hong Kong, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Nicaragua, Philippines, Portugal, Russia, Samoa, Spain, Switzerland, Taiwan, Tonga, United States and Venezuela. Members of this year's team can communicate fluently in at least 10 different languages.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints operates more than 330 missions around the world with approximately 56,000 missionaries.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

In addition to English, there are 32 BYU football players that fluently speak a second language. Senior safety Aaron Gordon leads the Cougars with five languages: English, Samoan, Tongan, Italian and Hualapai. Other languages spoken by current BYU players are Spanish, Portuguese, Japanese, Chinese, Russian and German.

FAMILY MEN

There are 31 BYU players on the current roster who are married. Six current players have children.

TO THE DATE...

BYU will play in this year's Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl on Dec. 21, 2006. The game falls on same date, 22 years later, as the 1984 Holiday Bowl. The Cougars beat Michigan, 24-17, to wrap up a perfect 13-0 season and claim the 1984 National Championship.

DEFENSIVE EFFORT

Against Utah State, BYU's defense recorded its first shutout since 1999 when the Cougars beat UNLV 29-0. BYU's defense surrendered only 122 passing yards which is the fewest the Cougars have given up since 2003.

BYU's defense shut out Air Force's triple-option attack in the first half and held the Falcons to just 229 yards of total offense.

Against Colorado State the Cougars rolled again, holding the Rams to just three points while allowing just 151 yards of total offense.

BYU has shut out its opponents in 22 quarters, nearly half of all quarters played this season (48). The Cougars have also shutout their opponents in five halves this season.

HOME FIELD DOMINANCE

Since it was built in 1964, the Cougars have fielded several dominating teams. This season, BYU averaged 47.16 points per game at home while limiting its opponents to just 12. The margin of difference has the Cougars beating their opponents by an average of 35.16 points. The 35.16-point differential is a BYU record in scoring margin in the stadium's 42-year history (and the program's 84-year history):

BEST HOME TEAM IN THE COUNTRY

The Cougars finished the 2006 regular season as the most dominant home team in the nation. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old record of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished second behind the Cougars, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin:

Team	Scoring Off.	Scoring Def.	Margin
BYU	47.16	12	+35.16
LSU	40.63	8.75	+31.88
Boise State	46.16	15.5	+30.66
Ohio State	37.85	10.57	+27.28

IN THE TOP-25

Following a come-from-behind victory on Saturday over rival Utah, BYU climbed to No. 19 in the Associated Press top-25 poll and No. 20 in the USA Today/Coaches Poll. The Cougars also remained at No. 19 in the Harris Interactive poll and now sit at No. 20 in the final BCS rankings. The rankings are the highest for the Cougars, who have won nine consecutive games, since the 2001 season.

VARIETY OF RECEIVERS

All totaled, 13 different receivers have at least one reception for the Cougars this season. Curtis Brown leads all receivers in receptions (55). Jonny Harline leads BYU in receiving yards (754) and touchdown receptions (11).

SCORING DEFENSE

In the 12 games of the 2006 season, BYU has allowed just 183 points. With an average of 15.3 points per game, the Cougars currently ranked 16th in the country in scoring defense. BYU's current average is nearly half (29.25) of what it averaged last season through 12 games. BYU's current average is the lowest scoring defense mark over the first 12 games of a season since allowing just 14.2 points per game back in 1985.

TOUCHDOWNS: TAKE YOUR PICK

BYU has scored 58 touchdowns this season (one against Arizona, seven against Tulsa, two against Boston College, five against Utah State, four against TCU, seven against San Diego State, seven against UNLV, four against Air Force, three against Colorado State, seven against Wyoming, six against New Mexico and five against Utah). All totaled, 14 different Cougars have found their way to the end zone for including Fui Vakapuna (RB), Jonny Harline (TE), Matt Allen (WR), Manase Tonga (RB), Daniel Coats (TE), Curtis Brown (RB), Zac Collie (WR), John Beck (QB), Harvey Unga (RB), Justin Robinson (CB), Michael Reed (WR), Dustin Gabriel (S), McKay Jacobson (WR) and Mike Hague (RB). Vakapuna and Harline lead the Cougars with 11 touchdowns apiece.

PERFECT MWC RECORD

With BYU's victory over Utah the Cougars finished the Mountain West Conference schedule with a perfect 8-0 record, marking the best league record for the Cougars since the 2001 BYU team went a perfect 7-0. BYU is the only MWC team to have gone undefeated against conference opponents twice in the league's history.

ONE QUARTER AT A TIME

After outscoring Utah in two of four quarters on Saturday, BYU has now outscored its opponents in 35 of 48 quarters this season, including 22 shutout quarters. The Cougars have trailed only once since the Boston College game.

PRE-GAME FIRESIDES

BYU has started a new tradition by putting on LDS firesides the day prior to each game (home and away) of season. All that wish to attend are welcome to do so. The remaining firesides for the bowl game will be held at the following LDS church buildings:

Dec. 17 7:30 p.m.

Black Mountain Stake Center
801 Arrowhead Trail, Henderson, NV

Dec. 20 6 p.m.

Redrock Stake Center
10550 West Alta, Las Vegas, NV

SCORING ON DEFENSE

Dustin Gabriel's 38-yard interception touchdown against San Diego State marked the second home game BYU has recorded a defensive touchdown. Justin Robinson had a 64-yard interception return against Utah State. This season marks the first time BYU has scored two defensive touchdowns since 1998.

UNDEFEATED AT HOME

BYU finished the season with a perfect 6-0 record at home. The last time BYU had a perfect record at home was 2001 when the Cougars went 6-0 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Since the stadium was built in 1964, BYU has gone undefeated at home 13 times:

- 2006: 6-0
- 2001: 6-0
- 1998: 6-0
- 1996: 7-0
- 1991: 6-0
- 1990: 6-0
- 1988: 6-0
- 1984: 6-0
- 1983: 5-0
- 1980: 6-0
- 1979: 5-0
- 1977: 5-0
- 1967: 5-0

WHERE'S THE BEEF?

The Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl will showcase two of the largest offensive lines in the country. Oregon's line weighs an average of 320 pounds per man. BYU's line averages 316.8 per man. Oregon's and BYU's offensive lines rank among the largest (per player average) interior lines in the country (by average weight):

School	Avg. Ht	Avg. Wt.
New Mexico State	6-3	326
Oregon	6-5	320
Wisconsin	6-6	319
Arizona State	6-5	318.4
BYU	6-4	316.8
New Mexico	6-3	316.4
Texas Tech	6-5	316
Iowa State	6-4	316
East Carolina	6-5	315.8
Arkansas	6-4	315.8
Auburn	6-4	310.6

FIRST HALF DOMINANCE

BYU took a 14-10 halftime lead against Utah. BYU has led at half in every one of its games this season. The Cougars have won every game in which they enjoyed larger than a one-point lead at the break. BYU has averaged a 16.16 point advantage at halftime this season. The Cougars have been ahead by at least 21 points at the break in six of their 12 games.

FIRST QUARTER DOMINANCE

BYU held a 14-0 first-quarter lead over Utah, marking the 12th straight game this season the Cougars have led after the first quarter of play. On the season, BYU has held its opponents scoreless in the opening quarter in eight different games. Overall, the Cougars are outscoring opponents 138-15 (an 11.5-1.25 average advantage) in the opening quarter of play, including a 93-6 advantage at home. BYU has allowed just one first-quarter touchdown all season (at Boston College).

BALL SECURITY

BYU is currently third in the nation in turnover margin. The Cougars are coming off a game against Utah where there was no turnovers. In addition to holding on to the ball, the Cougars have found a way to force 25 turnovers. The Cougars have a +1.17 (per game) turnover margin heading into the bowl game. With only 11 turnovers lost on the season, BYU is second in the nation in turnovers lost (Michigan, 10).

A big reason for the Cougars ability to hang on to the ball is star offensive players John Beck and Curtis Brown. Beck has thrown just six interceptions in 371 pass attempts. Beck's touchdown to interception ratio is 30 to six. Brown has not fumbled all season in 184 carries. In fact the last time Brown put the ball on the turf was Sept. 10, 2005 in the second half of BYU's 45-10 victory over Eastern Illinois. Since that fumble, Brown has carried the ball 375 times without coughing it up. With 101 receptions and 13 kick returns, Brown has touched the ball 489 times without a fumble.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Not only is BYU fourth in the nation in turnover margin (+14 total and +1.17 turnovers per game), the Cougars are taking advantage of their turnovers. BYU has scored a total of 76 points off 25 turnovers. The Cougars are averaging 6.33 points off turnovers per game. BYU was held without points off turnovers in only three games (Boston College, Colorado State and Utah). The game the Cougars scored the most off turnovers was UNLV when BYU scored 24 points off six turnovers.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

BYU has now won 22 league championships, dating back to its first league title in 1965. BYU won a total of 10 straight conference championships from 1976-1985. Since the 1965 championship season, the Cougars have won 13 outright league titles. All totaled, BYU has recorded six seasons with a perfect league record (1979, 1983, 1984, 1996, 2001, 2006.)

A FAMILY TRADITION

“BAND OF BROTHERS”...LITERALLY

In addition to this years’ players who have family members that have once played at BYU, there are currently seven sets of brothers on this season’s roster:

- Rex (LB) and Sam (QB) Doman
- Erik (OL) and Ryan (OL) Freeman
- Braden (OL) and Brock (TE) Hansen
- Hala (DL) and Temana (DL) Paongo
- Manase (RB) and Matangi (DL) Tonga
- John (QB) and Andrew (WR) Beck
- Jeff (DB) and Tom (OL) Sorensen

There are several Division IA schools that have brothers on their active rosters:

School	Brother “combos”
BYU	7
Army	4
UCLA	4
Baylor	3
N.C. State	3
Virginia Tech	3
Four Schools	2

In addition to the seven combos currently here, there are five additional sets of brothers that have one brother on the current roster and one serving an LDS mission.

- Zac (WR) and Austin (currently in Argentina) Collie
- Dallas (OL) and Matt (currently in Germany) Reynolds
- Dan (DL) and Nick (currently in Argentina) Alletto
- Aaron (LB) and Jadon (currently in Colorado) Wagner
- Saia (WR) and Spencer (currently in California) Hafoka

TEAM EFFORT

The 2006 BYU team has used full team efforts to lead the Cougars to first place in the Mountain West Conference. Below are various team statistical categories where the Cougars are ranked in the top-25:

Defensive Stats:

Scoring Defense: 16th (15.3 points per game)
Passing Efficiency Defense: 19th (107.84)
Interceptions: 15th (16)

Offensive Stats:

Scoring Offense: 6th (36.67 points per game)
Total Offense: 5th (458.58 yards per game)
Passing Offense: 4th (319.25 yards per game)
Punt Returns: 11th (13.64)
Sacks Allowed: 18th (1.33)

SCORING EARLY

When Manase Tonga bulled into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run early in the first quarter against Utah, it marked the 11th consecutive game BYU has scored first. The only game in which BYU did not score first was in the Cougars season opener at Arizona. The Wildcats jumped to a 3-0 lead in that game.

113-GAME STREAK ENDS

McKay Jacobson’s 77-yard punt return for a touchdown against Wyoming was the first punt return for a touchdown in 113 games for the Cougars. The last Cougar to return a punt for a touchdown was Jaron Dabney on Oct. 18, 1997 in BYU’s 17-3 victory over Hawaii. Jacobson was 10 years old when BYU last returned a punt for a touchdown. More impressively, it was Jacobson’s first-ever punt return.

BYU came up two yards shy of its first kickoff return for a touchdown in 101 games. The Cougars’ Nate Meikle returned the opening kickoff 84 yards, getting knocked out of bounds at the two-yard line. Non-broadcast replay angles appeared to show that Meikle’s return should have been a touchdown.

ON THE AIR

The exclusive radio home of BYU Football and flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is KSL Newsradio, 1160 AM and 102.7 FM in Salt Lake City. The “Voice of the Cougars” is Greg Wrubell, now in his 6th season as play-by-play commentator. Joining Wrubell is game analyst and former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, who enters his 26th year on the air. Former BYU receiver and kick return specialist James Dye begins his second season on the sidelines, while Jeff Austin debuts as studio host.

KSL’s gameday coverage begins two hours prior to kickoff with the “Cougar Countdown Show.” The “Cougar Pregame Scoreboard Show” starts the second hour of the broadcast, with the “Cougar Pregame Coach’s Show” 35 minutes before kickoff, followed by the “Cougar Kickoff Show.”

After the game, KSL presents the “Cougar Postgame Scoreboard Show,” followed by the “Cougar Lockerroom Show,” “Cougar Postgame Coach’s Show,” and “Cougar Call-In Show.” “Cougar Replay” concludes the broadcast with a play-by-play recap of the day’s biggest plays.

Greg Wrubell hosts the hour-long “Bronco Mendenhall Show” Wednesday nights at 7:00pm. KSL’s in-week programming also includes the “Coach’s Corner” with Greg Wrubell and head coach Bronco Mendenhall, heard Mondays and Thursdays at 8:45am, and the game preview feature “Cougar Matchup,” Thursdays and Fridays at 8:15am and 4:15pm.

KSL also presents BYU Football-related programming online at ksl.com, including “Cougar Radio” Tuesdays and Thursdays live from 1:00-2:00pm. The weekly “Bronco Mendenhall Press Conference” airs live online at noon every Wednesday. In addition, Greg Wrubell provides a weekly look at Cougar Football on “Cougar Tracks” every Monday. All online programs are archived and can be downloaded or formatted for podcasting.

AN MWC FIRST

The 2006 season marks the first time in Mountain West Conference history two league teams have recorded 10 or more wins in a season. League champion BYU finished the regular season with a 10-2 record, while TCU defeated Air Force on Dec. 2 to improve to 10-2 on the year. BYU defeated TCU in head-to-head competition, knocking off the then-15th-ranked Horned Frogs, 31-17, in Fort Worth. The Cougars won the MWC Championship with a perfect 8-0 record, while TCU finished second with a 6-2 mark in league play.

MOST IMPROVED TEAMS

BYU is among the most improved teams (in terms of total wins) this season. The Cougars (10-2) have won four more games than they did in 2005. The two BYU losses this season came down to the last plays of the game. Below is a list of the most improved teams in the nation:

Team	2005	2006 (to date)	Increase in wins

LAST YEAR'S LAS VEGAS BOWL

CALIFORNIA 35, BYU 28

After trailing by 21 points in the fourth quarter, BYU rallied but came up on the short end in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl Thursday night, losing to California, 35-28, in front of a bowl record 40,053 at Sam Boyd Stadium.

"Cal played an excellent game today and they deserved to win," BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall said. "The end result is we played good enough to lose by seven. The disappointing aspect is it was a loss. The positive aspect is that we exhibited resiliency. We know we could have won that game. We fell short for a number of reasons, but I believe this was a solid beginning to what's to come for this program. And I look forward to getting right back to it after Christmas."

Cal's Marshawn Lynch ran for 194 yards on 24 carries and had three touchdowns to lead the Golden Bears, while DeSean Jackson added six receptions for a game-high 130 yards and two touchdowns.

"He's fast, athletic and talented," Mendenhall said of Lynch.

BYU's John Beck set three Las Vegas Bowl records during the game with 35 completions, 53 attempts and 353 yards passing. He also had three touchdown passes.

Nathan Meikle lead all BYU receivers with 12 receptions for 93 yards. Senior receiver Todd Watkins also added 93 yards on five receptions, including a nine-yard touchdown to cut the California lead to just seven points with 5:35 remaining in the fourth quarter.

"I want to give BYU a lot of credit," California head coach Jeff Tedford said. "Their offense did a good job of spreading the field. They played very well and they have a physical defense."

After starting on the 35 yard line following the opening kickoff that went out of bounds, Cal opened its first possession with a 22-yard pass from Steve Levy to Marshawn Lynch. BYU helped the Golden Bears down the field by committing two penalties inside their own 20 yard line and after eight plays Cal brought the drive full circle with a three-yard touchdown run by Lynch.

The Cougars couldn't get things going on offense, and they punted out of their first possession. However, Cal returned the favor from the first drive with a roughing the kicker penalty and gave BYU a fresh set of downs. The offense failed to capitalize and punted away again.

Following a defensive stop, the Cougars took over on their own eight yard line and took control of the clock as well. BYU ate up 6:04 as they marched 92 yards in 15 plays and capped off the drive with a 19 yard touchdown pass from John Beck to Curtis Brown to knot the score at seven. The touchdown was Brown's 16th of the year, the second most touchdowns scored by a player in a season in BYU history. It was the second longest scoring drive for the Cougars in terms of yardage and plays on the season.

Cal didn't take nearly as much time to answer back, going 52 yards on four plays in 2:08 on the subsequent drive. The Bears used another Cougar defensive penalty, pass interference on Kayle Buchanan, to put them deep into BYU territory. On the next play, Lynch crossed the goal line for the second time in the game on a 23-yard touchdown scamper to put the Golden Bears on top 14-7.

After a Beck interception, which was his first in 157 attempts and 16 quarters of play, and two defensive stops by BYU, the Cougars took over on their own 9 yard line with 3:53 remaining in the half. This time BYU went a long way in a short amount of time, 91 yards on seven plays, courtesy of a 52-yard bomb from Beck to Todd Watkins. Three plays later the Cougars tied the score 14-14 on a three yard run by Fahu Tahi with :38 to go in the first frame.

Had the score stayed the same, it would have been the first time this season the Cougars went into the locker room with the scored tied, but Cal had other plans. They retaliated quickly, taking only 27 seconds and three plays to go 58 yards, topped off by a 42 yard Steve Levy to DeSean Jackson touchdown pass. Cal led at the break 21-14.

Coming out of intermission, Cal stopped BYU cold and then put together another quick strike on offense. The Bears marched 65 yards in 2:01 behind 45 rushing yards on three carries, including a 35-yard touchdown by Lynch to put Cal up 28-14. The touchdown was Lynch's third of the game.

The Bears stopped the Cougars again and continued the quick-strike trend. Starting the possession on its own four yard line, Cal pushed the ball down the field in 2:55 with three plays of 20 yards or more. They completed the drive on the second Levy to Jackson hook-up of the night, a 22-yard diving catch in the back corner of the endzone which put them up 35-14.

BYU finally got the ball rolling as the third quarter drew to a close, and in the opening minute of the fourth quarter got on the board again. Jonny Harline caught a screen pass in the flat and ran seven yards to the endzone, bringing the Cougars within 35-21 with 14:14 to go in regulation.

The defense followed suit for the Cougars, forcing Cal to punt and giving the ball back to the Cougar offense with sufficient time left on the clock. BYU had to start from its own four yard-line, which was no problem, as they had already engineered scoring drives of 91 and 94 yards on the night. The offense made its way down the field, using two catches by Nathan Meikle for 31 yards, two personal fouls on Cal and two fourth down conversions to its advantage. The second fourth-down conversion came on fourth-and-nine from the nine yard line, when Beck connected with Todd Watkins for a touchdown, bringing the Cougars within seven points at 35-28.

Cal drove down the field and faced fourth-and-six with 2:23 remaining. Instead of punting the ball, Cal head coach Jeff Tedford decided to try a 50-yard field goal. Tom Schneider's kick fell considerably short of the uprights, and with 2:20 remaining in the game BYU took over on its own 40 yard line. However, BYU's hopes of a comeback died when Beck was hit by Phillip Mbakogu while attempting to throw to Watkins. The pass was intercepted by Daymeion Hughes. The turnover allowed Cal's offense to take the field, run out the clock and leave with a 35-28 victory and the Las Vegas Bowl trophy.

"I thought we were going to win it. We've been in two-minute drives, and stuff happens. It didn't go our way this time."

With the loss, the Cougars finished the season with a 6-6 record, while the Golden Bears improved to 8-4.

"We appreciate the hospitality we have been shown this week," Mendenhall said. "This has been a great experience and I want to thank the Pioneer PureVision Bowl for a great week. We have every intention to return next year."
