BYU FINISHES EXHIBITION PLAY WEDNESDAY AGAINST BRYANT UNIVERSITY

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 5, 2007) – The BYU men's basketball team completes exhibition play Wednesday at 7 p.m. when the Cougars host Bryant University in the Marriott Center.

Located in Smithfield, R.I., about 20 minutes from Providence, R.I., and an hour from Boston, Bryant University's men's basketball team has developed into one of the region's top Division II programs. Under the direction of seventh-year coach Max Good, Bryant has advanced to four straight Division II NCAA tournaments, including a trip to the NCAA Championship game in 2005. Last year, the Bulldogs reached the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the third time in four years. Two starters and eight letterwinners are back from last year's team that went 21-11 overall and 14-8 in the Northeast-10 Conference.

The Bulldogs played at Connecticut Sunday in an exhibition outing, falling to the Huskies at Hartford Civic Center, 100-65. Jon Ezeokoli scored 15 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Bryant, while Ryan McLean added 10 points and five boards. The Bulldogs shot 32.8 percent from the floor and turned the ball over 17 times in the game. The Huskies, led by Jerome Dyson's game-high 27 points, led 51-38 at the half and shot 50 percent from the floor. After facing BYU Wednesday, Bryant opens its 2007-08 season on Nov. 17 at the University of Bridgeport.

KSL Newsradio will stream the game live online at KSL.com via the KSL X-Stream. Greg Wrubell will call the play-by-play action with former Cougar player and assistant coach Andy Toolson providing game analysis.

COUGAR QUICK HITS

- Two-time reigning MWC Coach of the Year Dave Rose helped make BYU the second-most improved program in the nation in his first season with a 20-9 record and guided the Cougars to the outright MWC title and a top-25 ranking in his second campaign in Provo as the Cougars went 25-9 last season.
- BYU has been picked in the preseason poll to finish first in the MWC race this year by the league's media.
- BYU went 17-0 at home last year and enters the 2007-08 season with the nation's second-longest active home victory streak at 31 games.
- This year's BYU squad returns two starters among seven lettermen from last year's outright league leaders (13-3 MWC record) as well as returned missionary Chris Miles, who made six starts as a freshman in 2004-05. Headlining BYU's top returners in 2007-08 are MWC Player of the Year candidate Trent Plaisted, a two-time All-MWC Second Team selection in his first two seasons; versatile junior guard Lee Cummard, who earned All-MWC Third Team honors one year ago; and sophomore sharpshooter Jonathan Tavernari, who followed Plaisted's lead the prior season by being named the MWC Freshman of the Year in his first campaign as a Cougar.
- Eight newcomers join the roster in 2007-08, including junior college transfers Lamont Morgan, Jr. (5-10, Jr., G) out of Saddleback Community College (Mission Viejo, Calif.) and Archie Rose (6-5, Jr., G) from Lee College (Baytown, Texas). Six freshmen becoming Cougars are Jimmer Fredette (6-2, G) from Glens Falls, N.Y., Michael Loyd, Jr. (6-1, G) out of Las Vegas, Chris Collinsworth (6-9, F) and Matt Pinegar (6-0, G) from Provo, Utah, James Anderson (6-10, F/C) from Page, Ariz., and Nick Martineau (5-11, G) from Fruit Heights, Utah.

BRYANT UNIVERSITY

Bryant University, located in Smithfield, R.I. (7 miles NW of Providence), is a Division II school with an enrollment of 3,200. On October 17, 2007, Bryant officially accepted an invitation by the Northeast Conference (NEC) to join the league and will formally begin a four-year transition to Division I. Bryant will officially become a member of the Northeast Conference in the fall of 2012. Bryant will become the 12th member of the conference for all sports. This will be the final year of competing as a member of Division II and as a member of the Northeast-10 Conference. Bryant will play its first Division I schedule starting in the 2008-09 academic year.

A LOOK AT THE BULLDOGS

Under the direction of seventh year coach Max Good, the Bryant men's basketball team has developed into one of the region's top Division II programs. Good came to Bryant after spending the 2000-01 season as the head coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. He led UNLV to a 13-9 record after taking over the program from former head coach Bill Bayno. Good was in his second season as an assistant coach with the Runnin' Rebels when he was elevated to head coach. Good has led Bryant to four straight Division II NCAA tournaments, including a trip to the NCAA Championship game in 2005. Last year, the Bulldogs reached the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the third time in four years before falling to rival Bentley College in the regional championship game played in Waltham, Mass. Two starters and eight letterwinners are back from last year's team that went 21-11 overall and 14-8 in the Northeast-10 Conference. Leading scorer Chris Burns has graduated after leading the team last year with a 15.5 ppg scoring average and 113 made three-point field goals. Second-leading scorer Jon Ezeokoli (South Orange, NJ) is back for his senior season. The third-team all-conference selection averaged 15.1 points per game and made 60 threes on the season. Ezeokoli, a 6-foot-3 guard, led the Bulldogs with 5.4 rebounds per game. Junior Jerrann Wright (Cincinnati, OH) is back after starting 29 of the team's 32 games. The 6-foot-7 forward averaged 6.9 ppg and 5.2 rebounds per contest as a sophomore. He'll be joined up front by 6-foot-7 junior Ryan McLean (Plymouth, Mass.) and 6-foot-6 junior Nick Pontes (New Bedford, Mass.). McLean was a regular off the bench last season, averaging 3.6 ppg and 3.1 rpg while playing an average of 13.8 minutes per game. Pontes, who has a nice scoring touch down low, averaged 6.0 ppg and 3.5 rpg. In the backcourt, the Bulldogs will look to sophomore Chris Birrell (Scituate, R.I.) to run the offense while junior Orlando Baeza (Palmdale, Calif.) recovers from an ankle injury suffered this summer. Baeza had a strong showing in last year's NCAA tournament, scoring 25 points on 9-of-15 shooting from the field in a first-round win over Adelphi. He had 16 points the previous outing in a loss to Bentley in the conference championship game. He's one of the team's better free-throw shooters, converting 37 of 44 (.841) from the line last year.

BULLDOGS FALL VS. UCONN SUNDAY

The Bulldogs played at Connecticut Sunday in an exhibition outing, falling to the Huskies at Hartford Civic Center, 100-65. Jon Ezeokoli scored 15 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Bryant, while Ryan McLean added 10 points and five board. The Bulldogs shot 32.8 percent from the floor and turned the ball over 17 times in the game. The Huskies, led by Jerome Dyson's game-high 27 points, led 51-38 at the half and shot 50 percent from the floor.

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Bryant is a very well-coached team. Max Good is a terrific coach who has some experience coaching in our league after being at UNLV. They like to play an up-tempo style and push the ball. They're very athletic and will guard us and pressure us. It will be a good experience for our guys."

"We really want to be more consistent and execute better. We've got to have a more consistent effort and be able to keep that effort for a full 40 minutes. After you get over that first night apprehension when you're playing in a new environment for a lot of these guys, then you settle into it and you get more consistent."

PLAISTED LEADS FOUR PLAYERS IN DOUBLE FIGURES AGAINST LAVAL

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 2, 2007) – The BYU men's basketball team opened exhibition play with a 91-60 win against Canada's Laval University on Friday in the Marriott Center. Junior Trent Plaisted led four Cougars in double figures with 18 points. Sam Burgess and Jonathan Tavernari contributed with 15 points each, and Lee Cummard added 11. Tavernari also recorded a game-high eight rebounds. BYU held Laval to a .368 field-goal percentage and scored 28 points off of turnovers. The opening tip went the Cougars' way and from there the team never looked back. Despite being unable to convert on its first possession, two steals by Lee Cummard and Sam Burgess gave the Cougars the early lead, which they would never lose. Burgess and Plaisted combined to score BYU's first nine points. Newcomer Jimmer Fredette's first touch of the game resulted in a turn-around jumper to give the Cougars a 19-8 lead. Burgess scored his third three-pointer with 9:30 to play in the first half, increasing BYU's lead to 10 points. The physical play of both teams came to a head when Murdock and Fredette collided on the floor. Murdock received three stitches to his forehead, and Fredette received 13. Though Murdock returned to the game, the coaches chose to hold Fredette out, but he is expected to play again on Wednesday. BYU's good defensive play and two three-pointers by Tavernari put the Cougars up 35-22. However, plagued by constant traveling calls and turnovers, both teams were unable to establish a run despite BYU having a 42-29 lead going into the half. The Cougars opened the second half with a forced Laval turnover and dunk by Cummard. Momentum began to shift in BYU's favor after Plaisted went 2-for-3 from the free-throw line in two trips, and Cummard recorded his second dunk of the night with less than 17 minutes to play in the game. Not wanting to be left out of the dunking action, Plaisted knocked one down to put the Cougars up 52-34. He went on to score 10 points in BYU's 18-5 scoring run to begin the second half. Two breakaway lay-ins by Burgess and Michael Loyd Jr. increased the BYU lead to 28 points. Tavernari recorded his first block of the night with 6:10 to play in the game and continued his contributions with a three-pointer on BYU's next possession. Vuk Ivanovic tipped in a missed attempt by Burgess from beyond the arc, while Loyd scored two after forcing a Laval turnover. BYU's 34 point lead, its largest of the night, came with 2:35 left in the game.

TAVERNARI HELPS WHITE TEAM CLAIM VICTORY AT COUGAR TIPOFF

PROVO, Utah (Oct. 24, 2007) – The BYU men's basketball team gave Cougar fans a glimpse of what to expect from its 2007-08 squad when the team split in half to participate in a full-length scrimmage on Wednesday at the annual Cougar Tipoff. 2007 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year Jonathan Tavernari led the White team to a 77-64 victory with a game-high 27 points and 12 rebounds. "I'm pleased with Jonathan [Tavernari]," said head coach Dave Rose. "He shot the ball well." Other players for the White team included recently returned-missionary Chris Miles, Sam Burgess, Ben Murdock, Archie Rose, Nick Martineau, Matt Pinegar and Gavin MacGregor. The Blue team consisted of returning starters Lee Cummard and Trent Plaisted along with newcomers Jimmer Fredette, Chris Collinsworth, Lamont Morgan Jr., Michael Loyd Jr. and James Anderson. A three-pointer by Burgess gave the White team its first points of the night to start the scrimmage. Collinsworth answered on the opposite end of the floor on the Blue team's next possession. The threes continued to fall for the White team, however, totaling eight in the first half alone and giving the team a 38-29 lead going into the locker room. The White team continued to dominate in the second half with its largest lead of 17 coming with 13:49 to play in the game. With just under nine minutes to play, the Blue team attempted its comeback, fueled by a three-pointer by Loyd. Fredette would go on to score the Blue team's next 14 points, bringing the score to 66-58. "Jimmer [Fredette] really settled down in the second half and played with more confidence," said Rose. "I like our competitive spirit. We have some talented offensive players that can score baskets." The Blue team's efforts would fall short, coming to within only six points.

BURGESS, CUMMARD, PLAISTED NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

BYU men's basketball head coach Dave Rose has announced that senior Sam Burgess and juniors Trent Plaisted and Lee Cummard have been selected to serve as captains on this year's team. "Each of our captains have qualities we really want in all of our players," Rose said. "Sam is a hard worker and tough competitor who leads by example. Trent and Lee have proven their leadership ability both on and off the court over the past two years." Both Cummard and Plaisted are two year starters who received all-conference accolades last season after helping the Cougars win their first outright league title since 1988 and achieve their first national ranking since 1993. A two-time All-MWC Second Team selection and Freshman All-American, Plaisted was second on the team last year in both scoring (12.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.2 rpg). The junior forward/center from San Antonio scored in double figures 21 times while posting three double-doubles on the year in 33 starts. Cummard was named to the All-MWC Third Team last season after starting every game for the Cougars. He averaged 9.4 points, third on the team, on a team-best .553 shooting mark from the field. The junior guard from Mesa, Ariz., also led the team in steals and minutes, was second in assists and blocks and was third in rebounds with 5.6 per contest. He ranked among the top 15 in the conference in seven statistical categories. After redshirting the 2005-06 season, Burgess provided a spark off the bench for the Cougars last year, playing in 31 of 34 games and averaging 3.6 points and 1.5 rebounds in 10.2 minutes of action. The senior guard from Alpine, Utah, came on especially strong during BYU's run to the conference championship, playing double-digit minutes in eight of the Cougars' last 12 outings. The best-conditioned perimeter player on the team the past two seasons, Burgess averaged 15.0 points and 5.2 assists per game while shooting .615 from the floor during BYU's successful tour of France over the summer.

Team honors one year ago, and sophomore sharpshooter Jonathan Tavernari, who followed Plaisted's lead the prior season by being named the MWC Freshman of the Year in his first campaign as a Cougar.

The 6-foot-11 Plaisted was the team's second-leading scorer (12.6) and rebounder (6.2) and top shot blocker (1.4) as a sophomore in 2006-07. He scored in double figures 21 times, topping 20 points in six games, while posting three double-doubles. Cummard started all 34 games as a sophomore after earning 14 starts his freshman season. The 6-foot-7 wing's value to BYU's 25-win success last year is evidenced by his logging more minutes than any Cougar as his fill-the-stat-sheet style of play was hard to not have on the floor. The team's top perimeter defender, Cummard led BYU in steals (1.5) and averaged 9.4 ppg, 5.6 rpg, 2.7 apg, 0.9 bpg while shooting .553 from the field, .435 on threes and .794 from the line with three double-double outings. Tavernari led all MWC freshmen in scoring last year, averaging 6.5 points in 12.3 minutes, and set the MWC freshman record for single-game three-point percentage (.857) when he went 6-for-7 from behind the arc against TCU. Capable of scoring in bunches, the 6-foot-6 forward is a tough competitor and solid rebounder who has the potential to play a much larger role for the Cougars in his second season in Provo.

A trio of seniors also return from last year's title team, including shooting guard Sam Burgess, point guard Ben Murdock and forward/center Vuk Ivanovic. Burgess shot 55.7 percent from the floor, including 48.4 percent from behind the arc, coming off the bench last year. Murdock and Ivanovic both saw action off the bench in their first seasons on the floor for BYU. Murdock backed up Austin Ainge at the point during the team's run to the outright conference title while Ivanovic saw time behind Plaisted in the post. The 6-foot-10 Serbian will add the European Championships to his experience this summer after earning a spot on the Serbian National Team. The Cougar post also returns 6-foot-10 junior Gavin MacGregor and the 6-foot-11 Miles, who returned in August from two years of missionary service for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Miles averaged 2.7 points and 2.3 rebounds while logging 13.6 minutes with six starts as a freshman in 2004-05.

Eight newcomers join the roster in 2007-08, including junior college transfers Lamont Morgan, Jr. (5-10, Jr., G) out of Saddleback Community College (Mission Viejo, Calif.) and Archie Rose (6-5, Jr., G) from Lee College (Baytown, Texas). Six freshmen becoming Cougars are Jimmer Fredette (6-2, G) from Glens Falls, N.Y., Michael Loyd, Jr. (6-1, G) out of Las Vegas, Chris Collinsworth (6-9, F) and Matt Pinegar (6-0, G) from Provo, Utah, James Anderson (6-10, F/C) from Page, Ariz., and Nick Martineau (5-11, G) from Fruit Heights, Utah.

POINT

The Cougars will be without the services of All-MWC honorable mention point guard Austin Ainge this year but return senior Ben Murdock, who saw action as the back-up point guard last season. Murdock, who averaged 1.0 assist in 7.3 minutes per game in 2006-07, averaged 9.4 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists while shooting a team-best .474 from behind the three-point arc during the team's five-game foreign tour in August. He is expected to compete with newcomer Lamont Morgan, Jr. for playing time. One of two junior

SEASON PREVIEW—BYU LOOKS TO DEFEND MWC TITLE

After completing one of the most memorable seasons in program history in 2006-07, this year's BYU men's basketball team is ready to once again make some national noise. The reigning Mountain West Conference Champions, who finished last season ranked No. 24 in the final AP Poll, have all the pieces in place to defend their title and return to the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08.

The Cougars compiled a 25-9 record last year that included the program's first outright league championship since 1988, its first national top-25 ranking since 1993, its first season sweep over rival Utah since 1994 and its first NCAA Tournament invitation since 2004, including its highest seed since 1995. On the record books at BYU, only two teams (1951 - 28 wins; 1988 - 26 wins) won more games in a season than the 25 victories achieved by the Cougars in 2006-07.

This year's squad returns two starters and five lettermen from last year's outright league leaders (13-3 MWC record) as well as returned missionary Chris Miles, who made six starts as a freshman in 2004-05. Headlining BYU's top returners in 2007-08 are MWC Player of the Year candidate Trent Plaisted, a two-time All-MWC Second Team selection in his first two seasons, versatile junior guard Lee Cummard, who earned All-MWC Third

Two-time reigning MWC Coach of the Year Dave Rose helped make BYU the second-most improved program in the nation in his first season and guided the Cougars to the outright MWC title and a top-25 ranking in his second campaign in Provo.

PLAYERS TO WATCH IN 07-08Trent Plaisted • Jr. • F/C • 6-11 • 245

- All-MWC Second Team in 2005-06 and 2006-07.
- Team's second-leading scorer (12.6) and rebounder (6.2) and top shot blocker (1.4) as a sophomore in 2006-07.
- Scored in double figures 21 times, topping 20 points in six games, while posting three double-doubles in 2006-07.
- MWC All-Tournament Team in 2006-07 and MWC Freshman of the Year in 2005-06.

Lee Cumnard • Jr. • G • 6-7 • 185

- All-MWC Third Team and MWC All-Tournament Team in 2006-07.
- Started all 34 games as a sophomore after earning 14 starts his freshman season.
- Led BYU in steals (1.5) and averaged 9.4 ppg, 5.6 rpg, 2.7 apg, 0.9 bpg as key overall contributor in 2006-07.
- Shot .553 from the field, .435 on threes and .794 from the line with three double-double outings in 2006-07.

OF NOTE

- BYU owns the nation's second-longest active home victory streak at 31 games. The Cougars went a perfect 17-0 at home in 2006-07.
- Dave Rose was named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in as many seasons, becoming the first-ever BYU men's basketball coach to win back-to-back league coach-of-the-year honors.
- BYU men's basketball head coach Dave Rose announced Wednesday, Oct. 10, that senior Sam Burgess and juniors Trent Plaisted and Lee Cumnard have been selected to serve as captains on this year's team. "Each of our captains have qualities we really want in all of our players," Rose said. "Sam is a hard worker and tough competitor who leads by example. Trent and Lee have proven their leadership ability both on and off the court over the past two years."
- Athlon Sports and Lindy's are among those picking BYU to win the 2008 Mountain West Conference. Trent Plaisted was picked preseason first-team All-MWC by both publications. Lindy's calls Plaisted the 10th-best center in the nation this season and ranks BYU 38th overall. CollegeHoops.net picks the Cougars 37th nationally and No. 1 in the MWC while giving Plaisted preseason third-team High Major All-America accolades.

college transfers on this year's roster, Morgan is an extremely quick player with good ball-handling and leadership skills. He helped Saddleback Community College advance to the state semifinals last year while starting every game at the point and averaging 4.4 assists per game. Freshmen Michael Loyd, Jr. and Jimmer Fredette, both recruited as combo guards, could also factor in at the point guard position along with walk-on additions Nick Martineau and Matt Pinegar.

WING

After getting some good experience as a freshman, Lee Cumnard broke out with a strong sophomore season last year that made the 6-foot-6 guard one of the Cougars' most valuable players. As a junior, he has the potential to be among the most valuable players in the Mountain West Conference. A top perimeter defender, he could significantly add to the 9.4 points, 5.6 rebounds, 2.7 assists, 1.5 steals and 0.9 blocks per game he averaged last year. During the team's five-game trip to France in August, Cumnard recorded three double-double outings and nearly posted a triple-double while averaging 14.4 points and 9.8 rebounds. He added 4.6 assists per contest while shooting 60.9 from the floor. Senior Sam Burgess will help fill the void left by the graduated Jimmy Balderson. Burgess, who averaged 3.6 ppg last season while shooting .557 from the floor, is an excellent shooter and good defender. He connected on 48 percent of his three-point attempts, including a season-best three triples against Final Four qualifier UCLA and Portland. In France this summer, he took advantage of increased playing time by scoring in double figures in every contest, including 22 points on 10-of-12 shooting to lead the team in its last game. Burgess averaged 15 points, 3.6 rebounds and a team-leading 5.2 assists while shooting .615 from the field and .421 from long range during the trip. Sophomore Jonathan Tavernari also took advantage of more playing time during the team's summer tour. He paced the team in the scoring column, pouring in 21.4 points per game, while making a team-high 15 triples. He added 5.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. Last season he saw most of his minutes at power forward while being recognized as the top freshman in the MWC. A scorer with deadly range from behind the arc, the 6-foot-6 Brazilian should play a bigger role on the perimeter this season after averaging 6.5 points in 12.3 minutes last year. Three newcomers should also be in the mix on the wing as Archie Rose, Fredette and Loyd make their Cougar debuts. Rose is an excellent shooter who averaged 12.2 points at Lee College (Baytown, Texas) while leading the team with 46 three-pointers in his last season on the court in 2005-06. The 6-foot-5, 205-pounder shot .428 from the field and was second on the team with 6.1 rebounds per contest while chipping in 1.9 assists per game. Fredette averaged 28.8 points last year while leading Glens Falls High School to a 25-2 overall record and the state title game. A two-time first-team all-state selection, the 6-foot-2 combo guard is known for his outside shooting and playmaking ability. A solid overall performer, Loyd brings his 6-foot-2 combo guard skills from Palo Verde High School in Las Vegas where he led the Sunset Northwest League in steals and assists, ranked second in scoring and three-pointers made, finished third in blocks and was fifth in rebounds. Among all players in Nevada he ranked in the top 10 in steals, top 20 in scoring and top 25 in assists.

POST

While replacing MWC Player of the Year Keena Young in the post will be difficult, the Cougars have the fortune of returning Young's potential successor as the league's top player in junior Trent Plaisted. The 6-foot-11 forward/center has already earned Freshman All-America honors and twice been tabbed a second-team All-MWC pick. With his combination of athleticism and size in the post, he will be a central figure in all the Cougars do this season after averaging 12.6 points and 6.2 rebounds last year, second only to Young in both categories. In France this summer, Plaisted averaged 20.6 points over the first three games before an injury-shortened (ankle sprain) outing dropped his average 17.5 points for the trip. He converted a blazing 65.1 percent of his field-goal attempts and pulled down a team-best 10.3 rebounds per game. The Cougars also return 6-foot-10 senior Vuk Ivanovic and 6-foot-10 junior Gavin MacGregor in the post while gaining the services of 6-foot-11 sophomore Chris Miles, who averaged 2.7 points and 2.3 rebounds in 13.6 minutes with six starts as a freshman for BYU in 2004-05 before departing on a two-year Church mission. He is an excellent shot-blocker and defender who runs the floor well. MacGregor brings a tough inside presence (10.0 ppg, 8.2 rpg, team-high .710 shooting in France) while Ivanovic (2.2 ppg, 2.2 rpg in 7.8 minutes last year) earned a spot and played on the Serbian National Team this summer. Freshman James Anderson out of Page, Ariz., adds his 6-foot-10 shot-blocking size to the mix as the Cougars boast some tall timbers. Anderson has also served a two-year mission since completing his first-team all-state prep career in Arizona, where he set the state record with 14 blocks in a game. Freshman four-man Chris Collinsworth out of nearby Provo High School has a strong outside game and the size at 6-foot-9 to be a contributor in his first season. Collinsworth, like Tavernari, is a tough competitor at power forward with outstanding range on the perimeter. An athletic player known for his versatility and soft shooting touch, Collinsworth was named the Gatorade Utah Boys' Basketball Player of the Year last season.

2007 All-MWC Third Team pick Lee Cumnard returns for his junior season in 2007-08.
