Hermann Trophy Candidate Update

All-American Katie Larkin has again been selected as a Hermann Trophy Candidate for 2008. The Hermann Trophy is NCAA soccer's equivalent to football's Heisman Trophy, and recognizes the best overall player in the sport at the collegiate level. In 2007, Larkin and Jessica Carter were selected as Hermann Trophy Candidates.

Larkin also spent the majority of the summer with the U.S. U-23 Women's Soccer team and participated in the prestigious Nordic Cup in Sweden.

Larkin scored two goals in the first thirteen minutes of the Cougars' 5-0 win over Utah on 10/4. She has six goals, 30 shots, and 13 points in 2008.

In 2007, Larkin led the team with 15 goals, 5 assists, and 72 shots.

Cougars Awards Watch

Hermann Trophy Award Watchlist

All-American Katie Larkin has again been selected as a Hermann Trophy Candidate for 2008.

Lowe's Senior CLASS Award Watchlist

Senior defender Jessica Harmon and senior forward Katie Larkin have been announced as candidates for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

SoccerBuzz Elite Team of the Week

Junior defender Andrea Willis was named the SoccerBuzz Elite team of the week for the week of Sept. 15. Willis, from Riverside, Calif., scored one of BYU's two goals in its 2-0 win over previously undefeated Michigan State on Sept. 19.

Mountain West Conference Player of the Week

Defensive

Freshman goalkeeper McKinzie Olson was named as the MWC Defensive Player of the Week for the week of Sept. 15. Olson, a Cottonwood Heights, Utah, native, tallied her second and third shutouts of the season against No. 19 Miami (Fla.) and Michigan State.

Offensive

Freshman forward Lauren Anderson was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the week of Sept. 29.

Anderson, a native of Danville, Calif., tallied six points, including two goals and two assists in the Cougars' two wins over the weekend. In the 2-0 victory vs. Utah State, the forward assisted teammate Kassidy Christensen on the first score of the game and later received a pass from Christensen to find the back of the net. In the 5-0 victory over Utah, Anderson's goal and assist propelled the Cougars to their biggest win over the Utes since a 6-1 victory on Nov. 4, 2000.

Mountain West Conference Honors
4 Selected to Conference All-Decade Team

To celebrate the upcoming 10th anniversary of the Mountain West Conference, league officials, school representatives and fans voted on 'All-Decade' teams for each of the sports participating in the conference. BYU lead all teams with four players selected:

- Maren Hendershot - 1996-1999 - Forward
- Katie Larkin - 2005-2008 - Forward
- Aleisha Cramer-Rose - 2000-2003 - Midfielder
- Jamie Rendich Beck - 2002-2005 - Midfielder

MWC Preseason Coaches Poll

For the third consecutive year* the Cougars have been selected by coaches as the favorite to win the Mountain West Conference. Last year, BYU beat UNLV 2-0 to claim the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship. BYU finished second during the regular season with a 4-3 record.

*In 2007 BYU and Utah received the same number of votes and tied for the pre-season number one selection.

Jennifer Rockwood NCAA Coaching Records:

All Divisions

No. 30 All-Time winning percentage (10 years minimum coaching)

Division 1

- No. 12 Winningest active coach by percentage (5 years minimum)
- No. 21 Winningest active coach by victories
- No. 10 Winningest coach all-time by percentage (10 years minimum)
- No. 27 Winningest coach all-time by victories

Under Rockwood's tutelage, a long list of All-American soccer players has emerged from BYU's program. These athletes include Katie Larkin, Aleisha Rose, Shauna Rohbock, Maren Hendershot, Sara Reading and Staci Reynolds. Rohbock, Hendershot, Reading and Reynolds each went on to play in the Women's United Soccer Association.

Prior to becoming the head coach, Rockwood led BYU's highly successful club soccer team for seven years. In that time she amassed an overall record of 128-25-9, and the final two years she took her teams to the Western National Collegiate Club soccer Association (NCCSA) title and placed second in the NCCSA National Championships.

The Lake Oswego, Ore. native was a four-sport athlete in high school playing soccer, softball, basketball and track. After one year at Ricks College (now BYU-Idaho) on a basketball scholarship, she transferred to BYU where she became a four-year starter at center midfield on the Cougars' club soccer team and graduated in finance, business management. Rockwood has also coached the Utah ODP, youth club programs and the high school level.

2007 Season Review

The 2007 BYU soccer season was one for the record books. Highlighted by the team's tenth trip to the NCAA tournament in 11 years and a number of new school records set, the 2007 campaign will be remembered as both a high point in history and a launching pad for successful teams to come.

Among the records set were career saves (261) and shutouts (40) as well as shutouts in a single season (13) by senior goalkeeper Erika Woodbury, the most shutouts in a row by a single team in school history with eight to start the season, and both the team's and head coach Jennifer Rockwood's 200th victory, which is the most in Mountain West Conference history.

Defensively, the team allowed only 11 goals for the second year in a row. A total of 14 shutouts were recorded, which is a new school record. Harmon-Carter, a junior defender, was a Hermann Trophy candidate, sophomore defender Andrea Willis was awarded First-Team All-MWC honors, and Woodbury earned Second-Team All-MWC honors as well. Harmon-Carter and Woodbury each earned MWC Defensive Player of the Week honors once during the season, and Willis was named to the Soccer Buzz Elite Team of the Week once as well.

Offensively, junior forward/midfielder Katie Larkin was also a Hermann Trophy candidate and First-Team All-MWC selection. She earned MWC Offensive Player of the Week and Soccer Buzz Elite Team of the Week honors three times each, as well as Soccer America Team of the Week honors twice. She also led the team in shots (72), goals (15), and assists (5).

On her heels was freshman forward Kassidy Christensen who also was named First-Team All-MWC and earned one MWC Offensive Player of the Week honor during the season. She scored seven goals on the season and tied for second on the team with junior forward Katie Fellows with 48 shots.

When all was said and done, the team finished with a 17-4-2 record, taking Rockwood's record to 210-65-20.

At the end of a remarkable regular season during which the team spent every week in the national polls, the Cougars entered the MWC Championship Tournament on their home turf as the No. 3 seed. BYU knocked off No. 6 seeded TCU, 2-1, and No. 2 seeded SDSU, 2-1, on its way to a championship match against the No. 1 seed, UNLV.

UNLV had beaten BYU in Las Vegas 0-1 in double overtime in the final match of the regular season to squelch the Cougars' hopes of a regular season title. It was only fitting, then, that the same two teams would meet again to determine who would take home the MWC Tournament trophy and earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. In a flash of brilliance and a two-goal performance from Fellows, the Cougars brought the trophy home with a 2-1 win at South Stadium.

Fellows earned MWC Championship Tournament Most Valuable Player honors, and Swenson, Larkin, and Willis joined Fellows as All-Tournament selections.

The Cougars headed to College Station, Texas the week after winning the MWC Championship to face No. 11 Texas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The team was excited to play on Texas A&M's home field because it had played there in previous spring seasons, but knew the task would be a difficult one. Despite outshooting the Longhorns 25-12 with a number of near misses in the contest, the Cougars fell in a heartbreaking 0-2 loss.

Despite the disappointing loss in the tournament, Rockwood's hope for future success has not diminished. She said her program has an extremely bright future, and she's never been more excited to get back out on the field. The team will be returning all but three starters and a highly touted incoming class of freshmen. All in all, 2007 was a remarkable season, and will prove to be a spark for the Cougar women's soccer teams to come.
