Last Week: New Mexico (L 13-7)

NEW MEXICO LOBOS

2011 Record: 18-21, 4-5

Last Week: Colorado State (W 13-7)

COUGAR QUICK HITS

— BYU has won its last nine games in a row and has come out on top in 21 of its last 22 dating back to a win over No. 9 California on Mar. 17. Notre Dame is currently the only other school in the country with a comparable run. The Cougars have outscored their opponents 167-25 in the last 22 games.

— Dating back to the last seven home games of 2010, BYU currently owns an 19-game win streak at Gail Miller Field with a 12-0 record at home this season. BYU has won nine-straight at home against conference opponents and 34 in a row against non-conference foes.

— For the third-straight week BYU claimed both the MWC Player and Pitcher of the Week awards. Senior catcher Jessica Fitu won her third award of the year while Affleck took her second in the last three weeks.

— BYU is currently in sole possession of first place atop the Mountain West Conference standings with a 7-1 conference record.

— BYU is 3-0 against Colorado State and New Mexico this season, winning 15-0 and 8-0 versus CSU and taking an 11-3 decision versus the Lobos in Provo.

— The Cougars have already claimed two wins earlier this week, a 6-3 margin over North Dakota State at home and an 11-0 victory at Utah Valley.

OPPONENTS SERIES NOTES

The last time BYU visited Fort Collins, the Cougars dropped a 7-3 decision in mid-April 2010. The Cougars have not allowed a run to Colorado State so far this year, winning two games in Provo on two shutouts.

Brittany Palish leads the team with a .305 batting average. Caitlan Stem is first on the Rams squad with 38 hits, including 10 doubles, and 26 RBI. From the circle, CSU regularly brings out three pitchers, led by Alexa Cash with a team-low 10.45 ERA. Kelsey O'Brien leads the team with three wins on the year, while Desiree Laswell has a team-high 31 appearances.

Traveling to a two-game series in Albuquerque, BYU has not lost a game at New Mexico since 2003, going 13-0 since that time. The Cougars have won 10 straight games over the Lobos, including an 11-3 victory earlier this season. The Lobos' three runs were the most given up by BYU pitcher Paige Affleck in the senior's last 11 appearances.

heJessica Garcia has proved to be one of the top hitters in the MWC this year, currently boasting a .434 batting average. Garcia leads New Mexico with 31 runs, 56 hits, 14 doubles, 12 home runs, 108 total bases and a slugging percentage of .837. Pitcher Kaela DeBroeck started against BYU the last time the two teams played; she is tops on the team with a 4.79 ERA and an 8-12 record.

SAN DIEGO STATE (W, 4-2)

PROVO, Utah (April 28, 2011) - Senior Kristin Delahoussaye and junior Tiffany Messerschmidt teamed up to begin two different rallies in the BYU softball team's 4-2 win over San Diego State on Thursday at Gail Miller Field.

With the win and UNLV's victory over Utah earlier in the day, BYU moves into sole possession of first place in the Mountain West Conference with a record of 6-1 and 30-15 overall. San Diego State dropped to 5-3, 29-17 overall.

Delahoussaye scored two runs while Messerschmidt had two bunt-singles and scored a run. Senior Jessica Fitu supplied the power going 2-for-3 with the go-ahead two-run double.

Senior pitcher Paige Affleck improved to 19-10 on the season, picking up her 20th complete game after striking out five batters.

In the top of the fourth inning SDSU got on the board with a double down the left field line. Carly Duckworth's throw to third bounced off an Aztec's runner's helmet as she was sliding into third, going into the stands and out of play. The error allowed the runner to take the extra base and the 1-0 lead.

BYU didn't wait long to answer back, scoring two runs to take the lead in the bottom half of the same inning. Delahoussaye broke up the no-hitter with a single to center and Messerschmidt beat out a bunt for a single to put runners at first and second. Freshman JC Clayton followed with a single up the middle to score Delahoussaye.

Two batters later, Clayton scored from third on a sacrifice fly from senior Caschjen Atagi to give the Cougars a 2-1 edge.

San Diego State tied it up on a solo home run in the top of sixth inning, but Delahoussaye and Messerschmidt answered again in the bottom half of the sixth with a lead-off walk and another bunt-single to get on.

Both runners moved over to second and third on a ground out before Jessica Fitu hit a long double off the left-field wall to score both runners and put the Cougars permanently back on top 4-2.

Threatening in the top of the seventh, the Aztecs led off with a triple to right field. Affleck got SDSU to ground into back-to-back outs to Cougar first baseman Stacie Graham to hold the runner at third, then picked up a ground out to third to seal the victory.

UNLV (W, 16-0)

PROVO, Utah (April 29, 2011) - Senior Jessica Fitu hit a grand slam and drove in seven runs as the Cougars beat UNLV 16-0 on Friday at Gail Miller Field on Senior Night.

With the win BYU improves to 31-15 overall and a conference-best 7-1 in the Mountain West. The Rebels fall to 22-18 and 4-5 in league play.

Fitu's grand slam gives her five for her career, putting her third all-time in the NCAA record book. Senior Caschjen Atagi also hit a solo home run on Senior Night, while senior Kristin Delahoussaye added two hits, three runs, three RBI and two walks and senior Paige Affleck pitched four shutout innings for the win.

After scoring six runs in the first inning, the Cougars tacked on seven more in the fourth after hitting back-to-back-to-back home runs. Fitu started the streak with her grand slam before Atagi hit a line-drive shot over the left field fence. Sophomore Alexandra Hudson followed with a shot to center, her first home run of the season.

BYU didn't have to put a ball in play to pick up an early lead in the first inning. The Cougars loaded the bases in the first on a leadoff walk to Delahoussaye, junior Tiffany Messerschmidt was hit by a pitch and freshman JC Clayton walked.

Fitu took the third walk of the inning to score a run. After a strikeout, back-to-back walks to junior Delaney Willard and freshman Carly Duckworth forced in Messerschmidt and Clayton for two more runs.

Junior Jessica Dugas picked up the first hit of the game on an infield single to second base to bring home Fitu. With two outs in the inning Delahoussaye came up for the second time and singled to left to score two more to give BYU a 6-0 lead on just two hits.

In the bottom of the third Duckworth reached on an infield single and Dugas laid down a perfect bunt to get on and move Duckworth to second. Delahoussaye walked to load the bases. After a force out at home Clayton hit another infield single to score Dugas.

Fitu came to the plate later in the inning with the bases loaded again and delivered, hitting a single to right field to drive in two runs and give the Cougars a 9-0 lead.

SOFTBALL TO JOIN THE WAC

PROVO, Utah (Jan. 27, 2011) — Brigham Young University and the Western Athletic Conference today announced that BYU will join the WAC for softball beginning with the 2011-12 athletic season.

On Sept. 1, 2010, BYU announced its football program would go independent and the Cougars would join the West Coast Conference in the majority of its other sports. Because the WCC does not sponsor softball, the BYU athletic administration has been actively exploring other options for conference affiliation.

“As a softball program, we are excited to compete in the WAC,” said BYU head softball coach Gordon Eakin. “It has been a nationally competitive league, and we are looking forward to contributing to the success of the conference.”

The Cougars are coming off the most successful season in school history and are ranked No. 16 heading into 2011. BYU claimed its second-straight conference title in 2010, finishing the season ranked No. 15 with a 46-13 record—the most wins in program history.

“Our softball program has been very successful under the direction of Coach Eakin,” said BYU director of athletics Tom Holmoe. “Last spring the team advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time in school history, and we are excited about the future of the program. Commissioner Karl Benson and his staff have been very accommodating and we look forward to having our softball program compete in the WAC.”

Beginning with the 2012 softball season, BYU will compete in the WAC against seven other schools including Fresno State, Hawai’i, Louisiana Tech, Nevada, Mexico State, San Jose State and Utah State.

“The WAC looks forward to working with BYU and its softball program and expects this partnership to be a ‘win-win’ for all involved, especially all of our student-athletes,” Benson said.

BYU was a founding member of the WAC in July 1962. The Cougars competed in the conference for 37 years before joining the Mountain West Conference in July 1999. Currently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports—eight men’s and 11 women’s.

CURRENT COUGAR STREAKS

Sophomore JC Clayton is currently on an eight-game hit streak while senior Kristin Delahoussaye is on a nine-game hit streak. Delahoussaye also has scored at least one run in nine-straight games, scoring 16 runs in that span, and has an eight-game streak of drawing at least one run, totaling 13 walks during the streak.

ON FIRE FROM THE CIRCLE

Paige Affleck has only allowed four earned runs in her last 64.2 innings pitched, three of which came in an 11-3 win over New Mexico. Affleck has gone 7-1 with one save in that time while earning two MWC Pitcher of the Week awards.

ALL-TIME CONFERENCE WINS LEADER

Already the record holder in all BYU career pitching categories, senior Paige Affleck became the winningest pitcher in Mountain West Conference history on Mar. 19, winning the 74th game of her career over No. 9 California in the Hawaii Spring Fling Tournament championship game. Affleck has now won 86 games in her career.

TAKING MORE

BYU has 13 players with at least one stolen base so far this year, led by junior Jessica Dugas with 12 steals. Eight players have four or more. The Cougars have 68 stolen bases overall, one more than the previous team record of 67 set in 2008.

GOTTA SCORE

BYU is 22-0 when scoring at least six runs and 28-0 when leading after five innings. In addition, 12 of BYU’s 15 losses have come by three runs or fewer.

HOME RUN HITTER

Junior right fielder Delaney Willard hit five home runs in four games recently against Seattle, Loyola Marymount and a doubleheader vs. Southern Utah. Willard’s four-game home run streak was the longest for a BYU player since Stephanie Hopkins hit one out in four straight in April 2008. Her five homers are the most in a four-game span since Angie Quioco hit six out of the park also in April 2008.

NEVER BEEN DONE BEFORE

Senior catcher Jessica Fitu became the first BYU player in history to record five hits in a game, going 5-for-5 against Cal State Northridge earlier this season. Fitu hit a grand slam and had four singles on her way to finishing with six RBI and one run.

GRAND RECORDS

Senior catcher Jessica Fitu hit the fifth grand slam of her career and second of the season at home vs. UNLV, moving her into third place in NCAA history for career grand slams. Fitu's fourth grand slam earlier this year against Cal State Northridge set a new BYU career record.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

Senior Kristin Delahoussaye racked up 11 total bases (two home runs and a triple) versus Utah State on Mar. 29, tying for the fifth-most total bases in a game by a Cougar in program history and equaling the most in a game for BYU since Angie Quioco had 12 off three home runs against UNLV on May 7, 2010.

WIN STREAKS

The Cougars have compiled 30 win streaks of five games or more in program history, including their recent 12-game win streak, tied for third longest in school history. In 2010, BYU matched a season high with five such streaks, tying the 2005 Cougars. BYU set a program-high streak of 16 consecutive wins in both 2007 and 2009.

TWO COUGARS WIN MWC WEEKLY HONORS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (May 3, 2011) – BYU catcher Jessica Fitu has been named Mountain West Softball Player of the Week, while BYU senior Paige Affleck has been named Pitcher of the Week, for games played from April 25-May 1.

BYU was 3-0 on the week, including 2-0 in conference competition. It is the third weekly honor for Fitu and the sixth of her career, while it is the second time this season Affleck has been honored and the fifth time in her career.

Currently first in the MWC standings with a record of 7-1 and 32-15 overall, this is the 10th and 11th time a BYU player has been honored by the conference this year, the most of any team in the conference and tied for the most by a BYU team in a single year with the 2009 squad.

Fitu, a 5-9 senior from Walnut, Calif., led the Cougars to a 3-0 record last week with a .500 batting average in games against Idaho State, San Diego State and UNLV. Fitu eased into the week, reaching base twice, stealing a base, and registering 12 putouts in a 2-0 win over Idaho State on Tuesday. She came back with two hits, including a double, and two RBI against San Diego State on Thursday. Fitu hit the game-winning double in the bottom of the sixth, driving in the two runs that would prove the difference in a 4-2 win. The win gave BYU the sole lead atop the Mountain West standings and gave BYU the series advantage over SDSU.

The next day against UNLV on Senior Night, the Fitu totaled seven RBI, tied for the second-most in a game in BYU history and the most of any Conference player in any game this season, doing so in a game that lasted just five innings. Fitu earned four of those RBI in one swing, hitting her second grand slam of the season in the fourth inning. The grand slam was also the fifth of Fitu's career, third-most by any player in NCAA history. The grand slam followed an RBI-walk and a run scored by Fitu in the first inning and a two-RBI single in the third. For the game, a 16-0 win, Fitu had seven RBI, two hits, two runs, one walk and six putouts.

Affleck, a 6-1 senior from New Harmony, Utah, went 3-0 on the week in BYU's three games, pitching all but the final inning in a 16-0 win over UNLV. Affleck pitched 18 innings, giving up just one earned run for a 0.39 ERA. She totaled 20 strikeouts while holding opponents to just a .154 batting average.

Affleck pitched a complete-game, seven-inning 2-0 shutout against Idaho State while also combining with Hannah Howell for a shutout against UNLV. Against Idaho State, Affleck struck out 11 batters in the snow to earn the shutout win. Affleck gave up just three hits and only one walk for the game. Pitching a 4-2 complete game two days later against San Diego State, Affleck gave up one earned run with six strikeouts to earn her second win over SDSU this season and put BYU on top of the Mountain West standings. The next day on Senior Night against UNLV, Affleck pitched four shutout innings for her third win of the week, giving up no runs with only one hit and five strikeouts, becoming the first pitcher in the MWC this season with 20 wins.

FITU SHINES ON USA FUTURES TEAM

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (July 26, 2010) - Named as the final selection to the USA Softball Women's Futures National Team less than a month ago, BYU catcher Jessica Purcell-Fitu earned a starting role and provided the key hit in a win over Canada at the 2010 KFC World Cup of Softball last weekend.

After sitting out the Futures' first game, a 3-2 loss to the Japanese National Team the day before, Purcell-Fitu made her USA debut on Friday, July 23, as the starting catcher against the Canadian National Team.

With the Futures down 4-2 going into the bottom of the sixth inning, the BYU All-American hit a game-tying, two-RBI single to center field off a 2-1 pitch by the reigning USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Danielle Lawrie. Purcell-Fitu advanced to second on the throw.

The BYU senior-to-be's hit also led to the game-winning run after Niki Williams came in as a pinch runner for Purcell-Fitu and scored one batter later.

"She did a terrific job behind the plate," said Futures head coach Kate Drohan of Fitu according to a USA Softball press release. "She only had three days to get to know our pitchers, learn our game plan and get comfortable. Then for her to come up with a huge at bat, battle it out and get a huge hit with two strikes; that's a big time play for us."

Purcell-Fitu also excelled on the defensive end, stopping a potential run with a play at the plate in the fourth inning.

Purcell-Fitu and the USA Futures played two games on Saturday, July 24. Starting again at catcher, Purcell-Fitu went 0-for-2 with four putouts and one assist in a 1-0 loss to the world champion USA National Team. It was a rare chance for Purcell-Fitu to be in the opposing dugout to her usual coach, BYU head coach Gordon Eakin, an assistant on the National Team.

EAKIN, ALVEY NAMED TO USA COACHES POOL

PROVO, Utah (Feb. 1, 2011) - BYU head coach Gordon Eakin and associate head coach Vaughn Alvey were both selected to the USA Softball Women's National Team Coaching pool.

Eakin and Alvey are two of 24 coaches who may be selected as assistant coaches for the Women's and Junior Women's National team events this summer. BYU is the only school to have two coaches in the pool.

"We are thrilled to have a great cross section of coaches for the Women's National team program for the next two years," said ASA and USA Softball Executive Director Ron Radigonda. "With the ISF change of World Championships every two years, we are excited to assist coaches in gaining international experience and opportunities."

The placement is a stamp of approval for Eakin, who was the USA National Team hitting coach last summer. In 2010, Eakin helped the USA win tournaments around the world, including the World Championship in Venezuela and the World Cup in Oklahoma.

A two-time Mountain West Coach of the Year, Eakin has led the Cougar softball program since 2003, compiling a 331-142 (.700) record and the highest winning percentage in MWC history.

Alvey, BYU's top assistant and pitching coach for the last eight seasons, was selected to the coaching pool for the first time. At BYU, Alvey has coached Paige Affleck and Christie Zinanti, two of the most accomplished pitchers in BYU history, helping the Cougars win four conference championships in the last six years.

Alvey is a member of the Utah Sports Hall of Fame and coached at Alta High in Utah for 17 seasons, leading the Hawks to eight state titles. He also coaches girls summer programs, winning the AFA National Championship in 1992.

BYU HEAD COACH GORDON EAKIN

BYU head coach Gordon Eakin is entering his 10th season as the Cougars' head coach and his 12th season at BYU overall.

Eakin was named head coach in July 2002 after working as an assistant coach since the softball program's inception in 2000. Since that time he has led the Cougars to four Mountain West Conference championships and six NCAA tournament appearances.

The MWC Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2009, Eakin has coached eight All-Americans, seven MWC Players of the Year and three MWC Freshmen of the Year during his tenure.

In 2010, Eakin guided the Cougars to 46 wins, the most in school history, as BYU advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time ever with wins over East Carolina and host Texas before ending its season at national runner-up Arizona.

Known as one of the best hitting coaches in the country, Eakin helped the Cougars finish second in the country in batting average, seventh in scoring and ninth in slugging percentage as a team last season. Overall BYU has finished in the top-ten nationally in slugging percentage six times, home runs per game six times, batting average four times and scoring four times.

In addition to his duties at BYU, Eakin has also been an assistant coach and the hitting coach for the USA National Team since 2009. In the summer of 2010, Eakin helped guide the National Team to a 17-2 record as USA won the World Championship in Venezuela, the World Cup in Oklahoma and the Japan Cup championship in Sendai, Japan.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Eakin was a successful baseball and softball player. After playing collegiate baseball at the University of Utah, Eakin signed with the Oakland Athletics organization where he played for three years.

Eakin went on to join the United States All-Star team, playing in three U.S. Olympic sports festivals in 1986, 1993 and 1994, winning bronze, silver and gold, respectively. While on the team, Eakin was honored on the ISC All-World First Team and was an ASA All-American.

He would later go on to play shortstop on the internationally ranked Larry H. Miller Toyota Fast Pitch team, eventually earning induction into the Utah Fast Pitch Hall of Fame in 1998.

Eakin grew up in Holladay, Utah, and graduated from Granite High. He currently resides in Sandy, Utah, and is married to Barbi. They are the parents of three children (Alicia, Ryan & Parker) and have four grandsons.

BYU GAINS MULTIPLE MWC WEEKLY HONORS

Seven BYU players has claimed 11 MWC Player or Pitcher of the Week honors so far this season, the most players and awards won by any single MWC school this season. Senior catcher Jessica Fitu has won three while senior Paige Affleck and freshman pitcher Tori Almond have won two apiece.

All three Cougar pitchers have claimed at least one award as have all four BYU senior captains: pitcher Paige Affleck, third baseman Caschjen Atagi, second baseman Kristin Delahoussaye and Fitu. Junior first baseman Stacie Graham has also been honored by the MWC this season, as has sophomore pitcher Hannah Howell.

ATAGI, ALMOND COMBINE FOR MWC HONOR

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (Apr. 26, 2011) - BYU third baseman Caschjen Atagi and University of Utah designated player Brittany Parker have been named Mountain West Softball Co-Players of the Week, while BYU freshman Tori Almond has been named Pitcher of the Week, for games played from April 18-24.

BYU was 4-0 last week, including 3-0 in conference action, and are tied with Utah atop the MWC standings at 5-1. It is the first weekly honor of Parker and Atagi's careers and the second honor for Almond this season.

GRAHAM & AFFLECK EARN CONFERENCE HONORS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (Apr. 19, 2011) - BYU first baseman Stacie Graham was named Mountain West Conference Softball Co-Player of the Week along with University of New Mexico shortstop Stefanie Carramusa while BYU senior Paige Affleck has been named Pitcher of the Week for games played from April 11-17.

The honor is the first for Graham in her career and the fourth-career honor for Affleck. Affleck joins BYU pitchers Hannah Howell and Tori Almond in earning MWC Pitcher of the Week this year, the third time in conference history that three pitchers from the same school have claimed the honor in the same season.

HOUSE CLAIMS MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (Apr. 5, 2011) - BYU second baseman Kristin Delahoussaye has been named MWC Softball Player of the Week for games played from March 28-April 3.

Delahoussaye, a 5-4 senior from Las Vegas, Nev., led the Aztecs to a 4-0 record in a home game against in-state rival Utah State and a three-game sweep through the Pre-Conference Round-up in Las Vegas. Delahoussaye started off the week against Utah State with three hits, three runs scored, and four RBI off a triple and a career-high two home runs and 11 total bases. Between the RBI and the runs she scored herself, Delahoussaye contributed seven of the Cougars' nine runs in the 9-0 win.

BYU MARKS HISTORIC SEASON IN 2010

The 2010 softball season for BYU was arguably the best in program history as the Cougars set new team and individual marks all across the board, highlighted by a first-ever trip to the NCAA Super Regional, a school-best 46-13 record, and a final No. 15 ranking, the highest ever for the Cougars.

After claiming their sixth Mountain West Conference title since the program began in 2000, the Cougars traveled to Austin, Tex., to compete in an NCAA Regional for the sixth time. BYU would sweep the Regional, defeating East Carolina before knocking off the host, No. 7-seeded Texas, and beating East Carolina again to move on to the Super Regional.

BYU faced powerhouse Arizona in Tucson Super Regional, falling 2-1 in the first of a three-game series before losing again the next day to finish the season.

"It was a journey we knew we had potential to finish the way we finished," said BYU head coach Gordon Eakin, "but we had a lot of challengers where it made the season more sweet. Peaking at the right time and playing the way we knew we were capable was a nice capstone."

BYU was led by Mountain West Conference Player of the Year Angeline Quiocho. In her senior season, Quiocho tallied numbers never before seen in BYU and MWC history. Quiocho led the NCAA averaging 0.47 home runs per game, 1.53 RBI per game, and 90 RBI. She also finished second in the nation with 1.29 runs per game and was third in country with 28 home runs, 173 total bases and a .956 slugging percentage.

Quiocho led the MWC in home runs, runs, walks, RBI, total bases, slugging percentage and on-base percentage while trailing only freshman teammate J.C. Clayton in hits and batting average. The senior leader finished atop the BYU and MWC records in numerous game, season and career records.

But Quiocho was not alone in BYU's success. The Cougars led the MWC with six All-Conference selections. Quiocho, Clayton, junior pitcher Paige Affleck, junior second baseman Kristin Delahoussaye, junior catcher Jessica Purcell-Fitu and senior first baseman Andrea Ramirez were all named to the team while Clayton also picked up MWC Freshman of the Year. Head coach Gordon Eakin won his second-straight MWC Coach of the Year award after leading BYU to a school-record 46-13 mark and a 12-3 conference record.

In addition, Ramirez, Delahoussaye and Quiocho were named to the NFCA/Louisville Slugger Pacific All-Region First Team while Affleck and Purcell-Fitu were placed on the second team.

BYU ran off a seven-game win streak, including a walk-off grand slam by sophomore Delaney Willard against San Jose State, to begin the season before facing a preseason schedule full of top-ranked teams, including nine teams that would advance to the NCAA tournament. At No. 19 Texas A&M's tournament in early March, BYU beat the host team twice in two days.

After 31 games on the road, BYU hosted its first home game with a 12-2 win over Southern Utah. In a 12-1 win over Idaho State, Ramirez and Caschjen Davis-Atagi hit two home runs apiece. Just a few days later, Davis-Atagi hit another walk-off grand slam for the Cougars, this one defeating UNLV, 7-3.

Quiocho hit the first of her BYU record-tying three grand slams in a season in an 11-5 win over Idaho State, a game in which she also hit a solo homer. The senior later hit her second career three-homer game late in the season against UNLV, the first of which gave Quiocho the BYU season home run record.

Other highlights included senior Amanda Vance-Kellum hitting a grand slam to end a contest against Colorado State through the mercy rule, 12-4, and a 20-0 win over Utah Valley, the most runs BYU has scored in a game since April 2008.

In a close race for the MWC championship late in the season, junior pitcher Paige Affleck bested SDSU ace Samantha Beasley, leading the Cougars to a 2-1 victory and earning her 27th win of the season, a new BYU record.

On Senior Day against New Mexico, Christie Zinanti pitched a complete game, striking out seven while giving up just one hit for her final home win. Seniors honored after the game included Zinanti, Quiocho, Ramirez, Vance-Kellum, catcher Amy Holt and utility player Whitney Nix-Thomas.

BYU AIMING TO BUILD ON LAST YEAR'S SUCCESS

After the most successful season in the history of the program in 2010, BYU softball will aim to build on its growing reputation as one of the best programs in the country in 2011.

BYU made its first-ever NCAA Super Regional appearance last year after sweeping three-straight games at Austin, Texas, in the Regional, including two wins against East Carolina and a victory over No. 7-seed Texas. The Cougars ended the season at Arizona in the Super Regional, the eventual national runner-up, but not before earning the most wins in school history with a 46-13 record and achieving their highest ranking ever, finishing 15th in the country.

The Cougars also claimed their second-straight Mountain West Conference title with a 12-3 conference record, the fourth championship in the last six years for BYU.

BYU lost MWC Player of the Year Angeline Quiocho, who smashed multiple BYU records and finished in the top 10 nationally in half a dozen categories. Combining her numbers with fellow graduate Andrea Ramirez, the Cougars lose a combined 47 home runs and 41-percent of their RBI production from last season.

But BYU head coach Gordon Eakin isn't concerned about the lost production or a dip in rising national prominence thanks to a deep, multi-talented squad in 2011.

"The home runs certainly won't be to the point they were last year," Eakin said. "Any time you lose 50 home runs in two players, which is essentially what we did, that's going to dent your lineup. But I wouldn't think we'll be too far off of last year's total. We'll score with the long ball, we'll score with the short game and we'll score with speed."

BYU returns 11 letterwinners from last year's squad, including seven starters. The Cougar seniors, including three-year starting pitcher Paige Affleck, catcher Jessica Fitu, second baseman Kristin Delahoussaye and power hitter Caschjen Atagi will look to cap off their careers at BYU with another conference championship and deep run into the postseason.

Known for her expertise on and off the field, Affleck enters her final season already as BYU's career leader in wins, strikeouts and innings pitched—passing former teammate Christie Zinanti who graduated last season. An All-Region, All-MWC and Academic All-District pick last year after winning a school-record 32 games, Affleck is an All-American and Academic All-American candidate who will carry the majority of the load in the circle for BYU while also finishing up her master's thesis in just her fourth year of school.

With the loss of Zinanti, BYU brings in freshman Tori Almond, a two-time Utah Gatorade Player of the Year who will play a significant role, while sophomore Hannah Howell also returns after seeing considerable time in 2010.

Reprising her role as the best catcher in the league last season, Fitu returns for BYU after batting .374 with 65 hits in addition to a stint during the summer on the USA Futures National Team. This year, the senior hopes to get back to her sophomore-year form when she was named an All-American after racking up 17 home runs and 16 doubles.

"With her summertime experience with the Futures team, I expect Jessica to have a banner year," Eakin said. "She's motivated, she's gained more confidence and more experience, and I think she'll have a very good year."

Other catchers on the team include Delahoussaye, who will spell Fitu mainly on five-game weekends, and senior April Thorson, a transfer from BYU-Hawaii.

At first base, freshman Katie Manuma and junior Stacie Graham will battle for the starting spot following Ramirez's graduation. Manuma, the Hawaii Gatorade Player of the Year, is a great defensive stop who will take up some of the power BYU lost. Graham is an NJCAA All-American transfer from Salt Lake Community College and one of the best all-around athletes on the team who can play multiple positions in the infield.

A stalwart at second base, Delahoussaye returns as the emotional leader for the Cougars. A clutch hitter with an outstanding glove, BYU has high expectations for "House."

"I think House is an All-American talent," Eakin said. "A lot of the things we do defensively are around House. I think she's the best second baseman in the country. If we have a cornerstone or a focal point we work around, it's Kristin at second base."

Continuing around the bases, sophomore JC Clayton played one of the best freshman seasons in conference history after leading the conference in batting average (.430), hits (80) and on-base percentage (.476) in 2010. Starting the bulk of the season at shortstop, Clayton's production led to the newcomer earning MWC Freshman of the Year and All-MWC honors.

Clayton, freshman Madisen Robb, junior Krista Hicks and Atagi are all in the mix to gain playing time at shortstop and third base in 2011. Robb, a Vernal, Utah, native, was an All-State honoree who is already pushing for playing time. Hicks, a defensive specialist, returns, while Atagi may see time at the corner or in her usual spot at left field.

Junior Tiffany Messerschmidt looks to be a regular in the lineup again after nagging injuries limited her last season. In 2008, Messerschmidt batted .357 with 55 hits.

"Tiffany is going to be an offensive force this year," Eakin said. "Her speed and what she does in the short game is irreplaceable. I think she's going to have a breakout year for us."

Sophomore Alexandra Hudson, who batted .319 last season, and junior Jessica Dugas, a mid-year insert into the starting lineup who led the MWC with a perfect fielding percentage in center field, will also vie for playing time in the outfield.

Junior Delaney Willard will start for the Cougars in right field. Willard is one of the best pure hitters on the team and has stepped up as one of BYU's upperclassmen.

"She's shown signs this year already that she's improved her leadership skills and her confidence levels," Eakin said. "I expect Delaney to have a great year."

Freshmen outfielder Carly Duckworth, infielder Jenna Engel and outfielder Lacey Millett each join BYU right out of high school and will look for playing time while junior outfielder Bailie Hicken, a transfer from Dixie State, will redshirt in 2011.
