COUGARS SET TO DO BATTLE WITH AZTECS

Coming off of its first two-game winning streak in over two years, BYU returns to LaVell Edwards Stadium to take on San Diego State, losers of five straight games. Last week the Cougars got some much needed rest during their bye, while the Aztecs lost 51-28 to Utah at home. BYU edged the Aztecs 44-36 last season in San Diego in a game that was reminiscent of the shootouts the two team had played when they were members of the WAC.

SERIES INFORMATION

The Cougars lead the all-time series with the Aztecs 21-6-1, dating back to a 32-7 victory by San Diego State in 1947. An interesting fact about the series is that over the 29 games the two teams have played, the Aztecs have never won two games in a row. The longest streak by the Cougars was nine games stretching from 1976 to 1985. BYU has also won eight out of the last ten meetings between the two schools. One of the most memorable games between BYU and San Diego State was a 52-52 tie in 1991. The game featured reigning Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer and future NFL All-Pro Marshall Faulk. Detmer led BYU back from a 45-17 deficit with five minutes left in the third quarter to tie the score at 52 in the highest scoring tie in NCAA history. The two teams combined for over 1100 yards passing, including 599 by Detmer.

SUNNY SAN DIEGO

Twenty-three Cougars hail from the state of California. Of those 23, three are from the San Diego area. Wide receiver Todd Watkins is from San Diego and prepped at Helix High School. While at Helix, Watkins became only the second person in the 25-year history of the school to letter in four sports as a senior, including football, volleyball, soccer and track. Following his career at Helix, Watkins starred at Grossmont College, a San Diego area junior college. The Marquardt brothers, Daniel and Michael, also hail from the San Diego area. They are from Vista and attended Rancho Buena Vista High School.

BYU'S RECORD IN THE MWC

After defeating Air Force, the Cougars record in the MWC improved to 24-15. BYU has won one outright MWC title in football when it posted a 7-0 conference record in 2001, the only perfect conference record in the brief history of the MWC, and has tied for one championship (1999). In all sports, BYU has won an overwhelming number of MWC championships, bringing home 53 out of a possible 95 championship titles.

WATCH OUT FOR THESE GUYS

Four members of the 2004 BYU football team—Aaron Francisco, Brady Poppinga, Daniel Coats and Matt Payne—have been selected to various “watch lists” for post-season awards.

Aaron Francisco, 6-2, 215, Safety: Aaron Francisco has been selected to the Thorpe Award “watch list,” which honors the nation’s top defensive back. Last year he earned first-team All-MWC honors and was an honorable mention selection as a sophomore. Francisco is second on the team in tackles with 69, including five tackles for loss and one sack. He recorded back-to-back games of 16 tackles against No. 1 USC and No. 21 Boise State. Against Wyoming, Francisco recorded his first interception of the year, returning it 34 yards.

Brady Poppinga, 6-3, 257, Defensive End: Brady Poppinga has been selected to the Bronko Nagurski Award “watch list.” The award honors the nation’s top defensive player. Poppinga ranks third on the team in tackles with 58, including ten tackles for a loss and leads the team with seven sacks for a loss of 40 yards. Against Notre Dame, Poppinga was a one-man wrecking crew, leading the team in tackles with twelve while recording one sack on Irish quarterback Brady Quinn for a loss of 10 yards. He recorded his second double-digit tackle game of the season after recording 11 tackles against the Cowboys.

Daniel Coats, 6-3, 250, Tight End: Daniel Coats has been named to the John Mackey Award “watch list.” The John Mackey Award is given annually to the nation’s top tight end. On the season, Coats has hauled in 11 passes for 138 yards. He is sixth on the team in receptions and leads Cougar tight ends in both receptions and yards.

Matt Payne, 6-4, 234, Punter/Kicker: Matt Payne has been selected to the Lou Groza Award and Ray Guy Award “watch lists.” The Groza Award is given annually to the nation’s best place kicker, while the Ray Guy Award is given to the nation’s best punter. Payne punted nine times against the Irish, pinning them inside their 20 six times. He also kicked two field goals—a 44- and a 53-yarder. Payne followed up his excellent performance against the Irish with a solid day against Stanford, punting the ball four times for 180 yards which averages out to 45 yards a kick. In the third game of the season against USC, Payne punted eight times for 386 yards (48.3), including a MWC record 79-yard punt, which is also the second longest punt in BYU’s history. He also kicked a 46-yard field goal that gave BYU an early 3-0 lead. He kicked two field goals against BSU he punted seven times for an average of 44 yards and kicked two field goals. Payne kicked 52-yarder at CSU and punted five times, averaging 47.6 yards per kick. Payne made two field goals against UNLV—including a 50-yarder—and averaged 45.1 yards per punt. Against Wyoming, he tied the record for most consecutive field goals between 40-49 yards after he nailed a 46-yarder against the Cowboys. Payne had another excellent day at the office against Air Force, connecting on two field goals, including another 53-yarder. On the season, Payne has connected on 12 of 14 field goal attempts, including an amazing 10-10 from beyond 40 yards. He is currently seventh in the nation in punting (45.16) and third in net punting (41.24). Both marks lead the MWC.

COUGARS FACE TOUGH SCHEDULE

BYU was scheduled to play the ninth toughest non conference schedule based on opponents' winning percentage last season. The Cougars non conference schedule included games against Notre Dame, Stanford, co-National Champion and preseason No. 1 USC and Boise State who combined for a 34-16 record in 2003. The overall record of BYU's opponents including Mountain West Conference teams in 2003 was 82-54 (.603). Five of the Cougars' 11 opponents went to a bowl game last year. The teams finished with a 3-2 bowl record, including USC's victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl that earned the Trojans a share of the National Title. Following the tenth week of the season, BYU's opponents are 53-36 (.596), with their non-conference opponents posting a 25-7 (.781) record through Oct. 30. PAYNE AND BECK EARN MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

The Mountain West Conference selected senior punter Matt Payne and sophomore quarterback John Beck as the Special Teams and Offensive players of the week, respectively, following their performances against Air Force on Oct. 23. While it is the first time Beck has received the honor, the selection marks the fourth time Payne has received the weekly honor this season -- a MWC record seventh of his career.

With five extra points against Air Force, Payne set the BYU record of consecutive PAT's made at 65. The previous record of 62 was held by Owen Pochman. Payne also connected on his two field goal attempts, including a 53-yarder. Payne punted three times for an average of 42.3 yards per kick. His eleven points in that game brings his career total to 294, moving him into second place on BYU's all-time scoring list behind Owen Pochman.

Beck passed for 319 yards and four touchdowns against the Falcons, leading BYU to the come from behind victory. One of Beck's touchdown passes was a 70-yarder to Todd Watkins. It was the second time this season the two had hooked up for a touchdown pass of at least 70 yards. Beck also threw two touchdown passes to Dennis Pitta and one Austin Collie.

KING OF PAYNE

After eight games, Matt Payne is seventh in the nation in punting with an average of 45.6 yards per kick. He has pinned opponents inside the 20-yardline 19 times. In the third game of the season, Payne booted a career-long and a then MWC record 79-yard punt. Unlike most punters, Payne likes to get into the thick of it during kick coverage. He had two highlight-reel quality hits against Boise State kick returner Chris Carr. On the season, Payne has racked up seven tackles on special teams, including six solo takedowns. Payne is no slouch as a kicker either. The senior from North Ogden, Utah has booted 12 of 14 field goals, including a perfect 10 of 10 from 40-yards or greater. His 46-yarder against Wyoming was his 12th straight make between 40 and 49 yards, tying him with John Carney who kicked 12 straight from that distance between 1984-85. On the season, Payne has matched his career high of 53-yards twice, against Notre Dame and Air Force. He has also made all of his extra points this season. Payne has hit 65 straight point-after attempts, dating back to the 2002 season. Against Air Force he broke Owen Pochman's record of 62 consecutive extra points.

OH AUSTIN BEHAVE

Austin Collie is continuing to amaze during his freshman campaign. On the season, Collie has 43 passes for 519 yards and five scores. His 5.38 receptions per game leads all freshman in the nation, and his five touchdown passes leads the Cougars. Prior to his meager 14-yard reception against the Falcons, all of Collie's touchdowns had been at least 40 yards with a long of 57 against Boise State.

GOING DEEP

Junior College transfer Todd Watkins has made an immediate impact for the Cougars. He leads the team with 860 receiving yards on 44 receptions and is second on the team in touchdown catches with four. He has caught touchdown passes of 69, 70 and 79 yards on the season, leading Sports Illustrated to dub him the nation's top "deep threat." Watkins is first in the conference and eighth nationally in receiving yards per game with a 107.5 yard average.

GOOD GRIEF CURTIS BROWN

Despite a slow start, sophomore running back Curtis Brown has picked up the pace in his last four games. Over that stretch Brown has racked up 482 yards, including three straight games over 100 yards. His best performance came against Wyoming where he accumulated 230 yards (159 rushing, 40 passing and 31 receiving) and accounted for two of BYU's three touchdowns. On the season Brown has rushed for 585 yards and four touchdowns. Brown accounted for 230 of the Cougars' 416 total yards in the Cougars' 24-13 win over Wyoming. He carried 24 times for 159 yards, threw one time for 40 yards and had three receptions for 31 yards. He also scored one rushing touchdown on a nine-yard run in the fourth quarter to give the Cougars a 17-13 lead with 13:37 remaining in the game. Brown's touchdown run capped a nine-play, 80-yard drive. In the first quarter Brown accounted for 95 of the Cougars' 96 total yards, including 55 yards rushing and 40 yards passing. Brown connected with freshman receiver Austin Collie on a 40-yard touchdown strike to give the Cougars a 7-0. The game marked Brown's second straight 100-yard rushing performance -- the third of his career. He now has four career 100-yard games following his 128 yards against Air Force. He is averaging a team-leading 73.1 yards per game and is tied for the team lead in rushing touchdowns with four.

Included among the nine children are new additions to Manaia Brown's, Brady Poppinga's and Jason Kukahiko's families. Brown's wife Tupusina gave birth to Manaia Vaega Vaifoa on Aug. 9, while Poppinga's wife Brooke gave birth to their new daughter, Jasmine Rene, on Aug. 12. There will be two more additions to the Cougar family later this fall. Kukahiko's wife Kristin gave birth to the couple's first child Kate Anna on Sept. 7. Defensive back Brett Cooper and his wife, Diana, are expecting their first child in October.

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

The Cougars have experienced athletic success on a national level. Since 1970 when BYU captured its first NCAA title, the Cougars have won ten national championships, including four in cross-country and three in men's volleyball since 1997. BYU also won the national championship in football in 1984. BYU has also ranked high in the NACDA Director's cup, an award given to the nation's best athletic program. The Cougars have accumulated seven top-30 rankings in the directors cup since 1996-97. Below is a list of BYU's NCAA championship teams:

LAST GAME: BYU at Air Force

Quarterback John Beck led BYU to a 41-24 come-from-behind victory, Oct. 23 against Air Force. The Cougars were trailing 10-3 at the half before Beck led the rally. On the opening series of the second half, Beck hit Todd Watkins for a 70-yard touchdown pass. The Cougars took the lead for good later in the third quarter when Beck hit walk-on tight end Dennis Pitta for the first of his two touchdown receptions on the day. Beck finished the game throwing for 319 yards and four touchdowns, en route to his first MWC player of the week award. Running back Curtis Brown continued to shine, chalking up his third straight 100-yard rushing performance. Brown ended up with 128 yards on 22 carries.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

Eight games into the 2004 season, BYU's offense ranks third in the MWC in total offense, averaging 384.13 yards per game. A majority of those yards come through the air, where the Cougars rank 10th in the nation and first in the MWC in passing, averaging 283 yards per game. Since the beginning of conference play BYU has picked its rushing game, The Cougars, who at one point in the season ranked last in the country in rushing yards per game, have picked their average up to 101.13 yards per game. The Cougars improvement can be traced back to the improvement of Curtis Brown, who had no 100-yard rushing games in the first five games of the season, but who has rushed for over 100 yards in his last three. BYU will face a defense that ranks second in the conference in total defense, giving up 339.75 yards per game. The Aztecs rank sixth in the conference against the pass and second against the rush, giving up 226.63 and 113.13 yards respectively..

DEFENSIVE NOTES

BYU ranks fourth in the MWC in total defense through eight games of the 2004 season. The Cougars allow 370.38 yards per game (245.75 passing, 124.63 rushing). BYU will face off against one of the more potent passing offenses in the country. The Aztecs rank fourth in the conference in passing yards per game with an average of 256.88 yards per game. Quarterback Matt Dlugolecki leads the SDSU air attack, averaging a MWC best 20.50 completions per game. The Aztecs also boast on of the nation's top receivers in Jeff Webb, who is 17th in the nation in receiving yards per game, averaging 91.50 yards a contest.

GRIDDERS GET NEW, COMFORTABLE UNIFORMS

In an effort to provide the BYU football team different uniform combinations for both home and road games, BYU and Nike have been hard at work to produce a new look for the 2004 football season. The new uniforms feature traditional stripes over the shoulder pads and include subtle design changes that will allow the team to wear different combinations at home and on the road. The Cougars will now have the option of wearing all blue uniforms at home or a blue jersey with white pants. When playing on the road, the team will have the option of wearing an all white uniform or a white jersey with blue pants. In a process that has taken more than 18 months, BYU Equipment Manager Mick Hill said the new uniforms feature a style that will be more form fitting and comfortable for the players to wear. In addition, the new uniforms are made with a light-weight material that will prevent the uniform from becoming weighted down with perspiration or water.

1984 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP HONORED AT FIRST HOME GAME

Marking the 20th anniversary of the Cougars' 1984 National Championship the team was this year's sole induction into the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame. The induction ceremony took place Friday evening, Sept. 3, at the Wilkinson Center Ballroom. The team was honored the next day at Lavell Edwards Stadium during the BYU-Notre Dame game in pre-game and halftime ceremonies. Only two other Cougar teams have been inducted into the Hall of Fame: the 1951 NIT Championship Basketball team and the 1966 NIT Championship Basketball team. Cosmo, the Cougarettes and the BYU Marching Band played a part in the game-day festivities. There was also be an informal golf tournament Friday afternoon where some of the players participated as celebrity guests. In addition to the celebration in the stadium, a lithograph has been commissioned in honor of the '84 team. 1,984 numbered lithographs will be available for purchase. The artwork will feature individually autographed pictures of the 24 starters, including Vai Sikahema and Lee Johnson, along with a team picture and a picture of coach LaVell Edwards.

Familiar players like Glen Kozlowski, Vai Sikahema, Lee Johnson, Mark Bellini and Kelly Smith put Provo on the map in the world of college football. All-Americans like Robbie Bosco, Kyle Morrell, David Mills, Leon White and Marv Allen helped make the team a threat on both sides of the ball. In total, 15 players from the 1984 squad were drafted by 12 different NFL teams. Now, these players—hopefully all 120 of them—will be returning to LaVell Edwards Stadium to be recognized by their alma mater on the 20th anniversary of their epic season. After a perfect 12-0 season, the Cougars went on to defeat Michigan in the Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium. Robbie Bosco's heroic return from an early, second-quarter knee injury, along with a circus catch from Kelly Smith, was only part of the 13-game saga. Many fans remember the famous goal-line stand against Hawaii where Kyle Morrell soared over the offensive line to sack the Warrior quarterback and in the process kept their season unblemished.

ELECTION YEAR RECORD

Since 1972, BYU has posted an 82-28 (.745) record during election years, including 2004. Some of BYU's most significant moments on the gridiron have occurred while republicans and democrats are fighting for a seat in the oval office. During the 1972 presidential election, LaVell Edwards took over as BYU's head coach. In 1976, BYU was invited to its first bowl game, the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma State. The 1980 presidential election year brought the Cougars their first bowl victory and a 12-1 record. BYU won the national championship in 1984, and in 1996, the Cougars posted 14 victories and earned their first trip to a New Year's Day bowl game.

Head Coach Gary Crowton

Gary Crowton, entering his fourth season as the head coach at BYU, has guided the Cougars to a 21-17 record since arriving in Provo. This season Crowton will lead the Cougars against top teams such as Notre Dame, Stanford, USC and Boise State, as well as a tough league schedule.

In December 2000, Crowton took over a BYU program that had been under the direction of college football's sixth all-time winningest coach, LaVell Edwards, who posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over 29 seasons.

In his first season as head coach at BYU, Crowton constructed the nation's top-rated offense, posting a 12-2 record, including 10 straight victories to start his BYU career. For his efforts, he was named the MWC Coach of the Year as the Cougars won their first-ever, outright MWC championship.

Crowton, 47, came to BYU with a long and proven list of coaching accomplishments. Prior to serving as the offensive coordinator with the NFL's Chicago Bears, where his offense ranked third in the NFL in passing yardage during the 1999 season, Crowton was head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-1998. There he guided the Bulldogs to a 21-13 (.618) record over three seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 1997.

Competing as an independent for three straight years, Louisiana Tech recorded wins over the likes of Mississippi State, Cal and Alabama. Using its Crowton-designed, high-powered offense, the program also recorded impressive wins by scoring 50 or more points against eight different opponents, including games of 60 or more points in five different games. Crowton's offense ranked third in the nation, both in passing and total offense, while the Bulldogs racked up 12,746 yards passing in three years, an average of 4,249 yards per season. The prolific Tech offense also produced 115 touchdown receptions, averaging 38.3 TDs per season.

Under Crowton, NFL first-round draft pick Troy Edwards recorded a Tech-record 280 receptions and 4,352 yards receiving. Over a span of 34 games, Crowton's offense at Louisiana Tech engineered 22 different 300-yard passing games, including school-record 10, 300-yard outings during the 1998 season. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs combined for a school record 4,943 yards passing.

Crowton's coaching career actually began in 1982 as a student assistant under Edwards at BYU. While at BYU, he worked with current Seattle Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren and future NFL Hall of Famer Steve Young. From BYU, Crowton moved on to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he coached from 1983-86. While at Snow College, Crowton moved from defensive backs coach to offensive coordinator. Under his offensive leadership, the Badgers won the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship in 1985.

From Snow College, Crowton moved to Western Illinois, where he directed the Leathernecks' passing game for a single season. In 1988, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire, where the Wildcats were the top-rated passing team in the Yankee Conference from 1988-90.

In 1991, Crowton was hired as the quarterback coach at Boston College under head coach Tom Coughlin. There he helped develop quarterback Glenn Foley as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After three successful seasons with the Eagles, Crowton was hired as the co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where his offense led the Yellow Jackets to a No. 21 national ranking in his first and only season in Atlanta. In 1995, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he would become the head coach the following season.

Crowton was an all-league quarterback at Orem High School before earning All-American honors at Snow College. Crowton transferred to Colorado State, where he finished his career. Following an LDS Church mission to South Korea, Crowton attended Idaho State, where he ran track for the Bengals. After returning to BYU in 1982, Crowton earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983.

Crowton, who is the first-ever head football coach at BYU to serve an LDS Church mission, is married to the former Maren Peterson of Bountiful, Utah. The couple was married on August 3, 1985. The Crowtons have seven children, Dane (18), Tara (16), Jenessa (13), Quinn (10), Mikauli (8) Toriana (4) and Macloud (2).

EDWARDS SELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame has announced the 2004 College Football Hall of Fame Division I-A Class. Former BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards is among the list of 14 inductees to this year's class. A coaching icon, whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 21 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17 straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans—not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1985. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. Edwards becomes the fifth person affiliated with BYU football to be inducted in to the College Football Hall of Fame. It is no surprise that the four BYU players who are currently enshrined in the Hall of Fame often credit Edwards for their success. BYU's other College Football Hall of Famers include Steve Young (Class of 2001), Jim McMahon (Class of 1998), Marc Wilson (Class of 1996), Gifford Nielsen (Class of 1994). Edwards, who will turn 74 in October, recently returned from an LDS Church mission to New York City. Along with his wife, Patti, the Edwards' served as public affairs missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Northeastern United States, as well as Eastern Canada. The Edwards have been married for nearly 53 years and have three children, Ann, John and Jim. The Edwards have 14 grandchildren.

RECORD WATCH

After kicking two field goals and two extra points against Notre Dame, senior kicker Matt Payne moved past Jamal Willis and Kurt Gunther into third place on BYU's all-time scoring list. One of Payne's field goals was a 53-yarder that matched his career-high that was set in 2003 against USC. In the history of Cougar football there have only been five kicks of 52 yards or more. Matt Payne has three of those kicks. During his sophomore and junior campaigns, he led the team in scoring. After scoring 11 points against Air Force, Payne passed Luke Staley to become the Cougars second leading scorer of all-time. Safety Aaron Francisco currently has 311 career tackles. He trails former Cougar and current Indianapolis Colts linebacker Rob Morris by 34 tackles for ninth place on BYU's all-time career tackle list. Below are the top scorers and top tacklers in Cougar history:

Name	Career Points	Name	Career Tackles
1. Owen Pochman	333	1. Shad Hansen	408
2. Matt Payne	294	2. Ron Wood	394
3. Luke Staley	290	3. Larry Carr	389
4. Kurt Gunther	243	4. Glenn Redd	382
5. Jamal Willis	240	5. Rocky Biegel	371

8. Matt Belini	176	8. Shay Muirbrook	345
9. Eric Drage	174	9. Rob Morris	345

THE FEW, THE PROUD, THE PUNTERS/KICKERS

Matt Payne is one of just seven players in the country who punts, handles kickoff duties and kicks extra-point and field goals. The others are Andrew Wellock (Eastern Michigan), Dustin Bell (Houston), Ian O'Connor (Marshall), Mike Barrow (Idaho), John Deraney (N.C. State) and D.J. Fitzpatrick (Notre Dame).
