COUGARS TRAVEL TO UTAH STATE

Rejuvenated after its only bye week of the season, BYU (2-2) will take to the road for its third of four straight road games, traveling to Utah State on Friday, Oct. 4. After opening the season with wins over Syracuse and Hawaii, the Cougars will enter the in-state battle having lost two straight, including a 28-19 loss at Georgia Tech on Sept. 21. The Aggies, who will be hosting their third home game of the season, will enter Friday's contest with a record of 1-4. Utah State lost on Saturday at Boise State, 63-38. The game will mark the 76th contest between the two teams with BYU owning a 39-33-3 record since the teams first met on Oct. 7, 1922.

BROADCAST PLANS

Saturday's game will be broadcast live to a local television audience on KSL, Ch. 5, beginning at 7 p.m. (MDT). Dave McCann will call the action, with Blaine Fowler lending color analysis. Fans can also tune to KSL 1160-AM with Greg Wrubell calling the action and Marc Lyons lending expert analysis. Bill Riley will report from the sidelines. The game will be re-broadcast Monday, Oct. 7 on BYU-TV at 8 p.m. (MST) and on KBYU at 10:30 p.m. (MST).

TRAVEL INFORMATION

The Cougars will depart Provo on Thursday, Oct. 3 at approximately 6 p.m. (MDT), arriving in the Logan area at 8:30 p.m. (MST). The team will stay in Wellsville Canyon at the Best Western Sherwood Hills. BYU will return to Provo via bus charter immediately following the game.

BYU vs. UTAH STATE

Friday's game will mark the 76th meeting between the two schools. The Cougars own a 39-33-3 record in the series, dating back to Oct. 7, 1922. In Logan, the Aggies own an 18-12-2 record over BYU, however the Cougars have won 8 of the last 10 games at Romney Stadium, including a 34-31 overtime victory in the two team's last meeting in Logan during the 1999 season. Friday's game will mark only the fifth game between the two teams in Logan since the 1989 season. Interestingly, Friday's game will mark the last time the two teams will play until the 2005 season, marking the longest gap in the rivalry since World War II interrupted the series between 1943 and 1945. Currently, BYU has won six straight games in the rivalry, including last season's 54-34 win in Provo. The Cougars have won 19 of the last 21 games between the two teams. Utah State last won in 1993, knocking off BYU, 58-56, in Logan.

A BAND OF BROTHERS

Three sets of brothers will be squaring off against one another this weekend, including Brady (BYU) and Casey (USU) Poppinga, Brandon (BYU) and Jason (USU) Stephens and Gabriel (BYU) and Jared (USU) Reid. BYU's Stephens is a reserve offensive lineman, while the Aggies' Stephens plays tight end. The Cougars' Poppinga leads the roster with nine tackles for loss, including five sacks. USU's Poppinga has nine receptions for 73 yards as the Aggies' starting tight end. BYU's Reid has eight receptions for 60 yards at tight end, while USU's Reid has seen action on special teams.

A LOOK BACK (BYU 54, USU 34)

BYU's Luke Staley racked up a career-high 207 yards rushing and five touchdowns in helping BYU to a 54-34 victory over Utah State last season. Not to be overshadowed, quarterback Brandon Doman threw for 293 yards on 24-of-34 attempts, including four touchdown completions. With the win, Doman improved to 7-0 as a starter, marking the first BYU quarterback to win seven straight games since Robbie Bosco in 1984. The 20-point victory was a lot closer than the final score indicated. The Aggies took a 27-21 lead at the half, and with 12:41 left in the third quarter, Utah State extended the lead to 34-21 on a 14-yard touchdown pass to Chris Stallworth. The 13-point margin marked BYU's largest deficit of the season. The drive began when Utah State kicker Dane Kidman recovered his own kickoff to open the second half. Kidman's extra point, following the Stallworth touchdown, would be the Aggies final point of the game. Staley led the Cougar comeback by scoring a 37-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-three play on the next drive. The Cougars had two fourth-down conversions on that drive alone. Jernaro Gilford intercepted an errant Jose Fuentes pass and returned it 62 yards on the Aggies next possession. Staley would score on the next two BYU possessions while the Cougar defense buckled down. Staley's five touchdowns tied the BYU record for most touchdowns and most points in a game.

NOT SO FAST

Entering Friday's game, the Cougars have lost two straight games, marking the first time since the 2000 season BYU has lost two straight games during the same regular season. The Cougars have not lost three straight regular-season games (during the same season) since 1993. Interestingly, BYU lost four straight during the 1993 campaign, including a 58-56 defeat at Utah State. BYU has not lost three consecutive games, either during the same season, or over a span of seasons, since losing to Wyoming, Utah and Marshall to end the 1999 season. The Cougars dropped the season-opener against Florida State in 2000, marking the team's fourth straight loss. BYU entered this season with two straight losses (at Hawaii, vs. Louisville), but ended the chances of a third straight defeat with a season-opening win over Syracuse, 42-21.

BYE-WEEK SUCCESS

Since 1922, the Cougars have posted a 33-25-2 (.562) record following an off week, including a mark of 16-6 since the 1984 season. BYU is 2-0 following a bye week during the Crowton era.

NATIONAL RANKING SHORT LIVED

Following the Cougars' 35-32 victory over Hawaii on Sept. 6, BYU climbed from among the unranked to No. 24 in the Sept. 8th USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll. After a 31-28 loss at Nevada, the Cougars fell from the top-25. BYU has been ranked in the top-20 or top-25 polls in 23 of the last 27 seasons. The only years in which BYU has never been ranked during the season (since 1976) were 1978, 1987, 1998 and 2000. Last season BYU broke into the top-25 on Sept. 9, following a 44-16 win at Cal. The Cougars climbed as high as No. 7 in the USA Today/Coaches' Poll and No. 8 in the AP Top-25 poll.

PENALTY SITUATION IMPROVING

In the first three games of the season, the Cougars were flagged a league-leading 37 times for 325 yards, including 13 times for 140 yards at Nevada. The Cougars averaged 12.3 penalties for 108.3 yards per game. Against Georgia Tech, the penalty situation improved for the Cougars. BYU was flagged just seven times for only 31 yards. On the season, BYU still averages 11 penalties for 89 yards. The school record for most yards penalized during a single season came during the 1980 campaign when the Cougars were flagged for 1,319 yards over 12 games.

THE STREAK IS STILL ALIVE ... 342 GAMES AND COUNTING

With Matt Payne's 48-field goal in the second quarter (at Georgia Tech), BYU extended its NCAA record streak to 342 games without being shutout. BYU was last shutout during the 1975 season (Sept. 27, 1975 vs. Arizona State.) The Cougars don't have a single person on their 2002 roster that was alive the last time BYU was shut out.

ON THE AIR

The exclusive home of BYU Football and radio flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is 50,000-watt KSL Newsradio 1160 in Salt Lake City--celebrating 80 years of broadcasting in 2002.

The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, entering his second season in the broadcast booth. A 1990 BYU graduate, Wrubell joined the on-air team in 1992, reporting from the sidelines and lockerroom, in addition to hosting the "Cougar Countdown Show." He has called BYU Basketball games since 1996.

Wrubell's broadcast partner is former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons, entering his 21st season as game analyst. Lyons, a math teacher at Olympus High School, also contributes to KSL's comprehensive pregame and postgame shows.

Bill Riley, now in his second year as an on-air personality at KSL will join the broadcast team from the sidelines. Riley, who anchors "Sports Final" nightly on KSL, also hosts the midweek "Gary Crowton Show" and "Coordinators Corner".

KSL Chief Engineer John Dehnel begins his 17th season on the BYU broadcast crew, while longtime spotter Doug Martin and veteran statistician Ralph Sokolowsky round out KSL's lineup in the booth.

Following the game, KSL presents the "Cougar Postgame Scoreboard Show," "Cougar Lockerroom Show," "Cougar Postgame Coach's Show", "Cougar Replay" and "Cougar Call-In Show."

KSL's in-week coverage of BYU Football includes the "Gary Crowton Show," and the Coordinators Corner with Mike Borich and Ken Schmidt.

Internet broadcasts of BYU Football can be heard via the KSL Newsradio 1160 website at www.ksl.com. KSL is also the flagship station of the Cougar Sports Network. Stations on the network include:

ROAD WOES

BYU is 0-2 on the road this season, having lost by an average 6.0 points per game. The Cougars have lost at Nevada (31-28) and Georgia Tech (28-19). Friday's game will mark the third straight road game for BYU of the season. Following this weekend's game at Utah State, BYU will travel to Colorado State to take on Air Force in the Cougars' MWC opener. BYU is 6-3 in road games under head coach Gary Crowton. The Cougars have lost three straight regular-season road games, dating back to a loss at Hawaii last season.

COUGARS RECORD 10th STRAIGHT HOME VICTORY

With a 35-32 victory over Hawaii on Sept. 6, the Cougars extended their home win streak to 10 straight games. The current home win streak dates back to Oct. 26, 2000 (vs. Wyoming). Since Cougar Stadium was renamed LaVell Edwards Stadium on Nov. 18, 2001, the Cougars have never lost a game in Provo, posting a 9-0 record. The current streak marks the longest home win streak for the Cougars since winning 17 straight from Oct. 7, 1989 to Nov. 23, 1991.

COUGARS STUNG AT GEORGIA TECH, 28-19

The Cougars felt the sting at Georgia Tech on Saturday, Sept. 21 as the Yellow Jackets defeated BYU before a sold-out crowd at Bobby Dodd Stadium, 28-19. Both teams were coming off painful losses, including the Cougars' 31-28 loss at Nevada. After starting the game 5-for-5, BYU quarterback Bret Engemann had a tough time sustaining things in the first half. He was 11-of-18 for 92 yards, but he was sacked twice, threw two interceptions and fumbled, all in just the first quarter. Head coach Gary Crowton turned the Cougar offense over to Lance Pendleton after the first drive of the second quarter. Pendleton finished the game 17-of-39 for 274 yards passing, 44 yards rushing on 12 carries and two touchdowns. Wide receiver Reno Mahe led all receivers with five receptions for 67 yards. The Yellow Jackets and Cougars both suffered injuries to their star running backs during the game. BYU's Marcus Whalen carried the ball four times for 13 yards and caught five passes for a total of 39 yards before leaving the game with a groin injury the second quarter. Georgia Tech running back Tony Hollings dominated the ground game, carrying the ball 36 times for 189 yards and three touchdowns. Hollings, who leads the nation in points per game at 16, went down in the fourth quarter with a season-ending knee injury. Yellow Jacket quarterback A.J. Suggs recorded 117 yards on 11-of-26 passing while leading the Yellow Jackets to the win. BYU cornerback Brandon Heaney recorded two interceptions off of Suggs, who was picked off three times during the game. Suggs had only thrown one interception in the first two games of the season. The Rambling Wreck took a second-quarter 7-0 lead on a Hollings one-yard run, however the Cougars struck back posting 10 unanswered points to take a 10-7 halftime lead. In the third quarter, Tech's backup running back, Ajenavi Eziemefe, posted a one-yard run to give Georgia Tech the back at 14-10. After a Matt Payne field goal and Mahe touchdown in the third quarter, the Cougars again took the lead 19-14. However, in the end, it was too much Tony Hollings, as the bruising running back posted two more touchdowns to give the Yellow Jackets the 28-19 victory.

HIT THE ROAD

Friday's game will mark the third straight road game for the Cougars. Since hitting the road on Saturday, Sept. 14 (at Nevada), the Cougars will not return to the friendly confines of LaVell Edwards Stadium until Saturday, Oct. 19. During that stretch the Cougars play at Nevada, Georgia Tech, Utah State and Air Force. After an Oct. 19 home game against UNLV, the Cougars will take to the road yet again for a league game at Colorado State. Over a span of seven weeks, BYU will play just one home game.

CROWTON HITS MINI-MILESTONE

Gary Crowton, now in his second season at BYU -- his fifth as a college head coach -- coached his 50th career game this season (vs. Hawai'i). In his first year at BYU, Crowton led the Cougars to a 12-2 season, marking a five game improvement over the Cougars' 6-6 record in 2000. With a five-game improvement, Crowton's success ranked fifth overall in the nation, and tops among first-year coaches. Since arriving in Provo, Crowton has led the Cougars to a 14-2 (.875) record.

HOME SWEET HOME

With a perfect 6-0 record in Provo last season, the Cougars have recorded 12 undefeated home seasons since the 1967 campaign. In fact, since the stadium was expanded to 65,000, the Cougars have posted eight different seasons without losing a game in Provo. The 2001 perfect home season marked the first since 1998.

THE CROWTON FILE

In 2001, Gary Crowton, a native of Orem, Utah, took over a BYU program that had been under the direction of college football's sixth all-time winningest coach, LaVell Edwards (257-101-3; .716). In his first season, Crowton guided the Cougars to an impressive 12-2 season, climbed as high as No. 9 in the national polls, lead the nation in scoring and yards-per-game average, won the MWC title and earned a trip to the 2001 Liberty Bowl.

Crowton, 45, came to BYU with a long and proven list of coaching accomplishments. Prior to serving two seasons as the offensive coordinator with the NFL's Chicago Bears, where his offense ranked third in the NFL in passing yardage during the 1999 season, Crowton was head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-1998. There he guided the Bulldogs to a 21-13 (.618) record over three seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 1997. Competing as an independent for three straight years, Louisiana Tech recorded wins over the likes of Mississippi State, Cal and Alabama. Using its Crowton-designed, high-powered offense, the program also recorded impressive wins by scoring 50-or-more points against eight different opponents, including games of 60-or-more points in five different games. Crowton's offense ranked third in the nation, both in passing and total offense, while the Bulldogs racked up 12,746 yards passing in three years, an average of 4,249 yards per season. The prolific Tech offense also produced 115 touchdown receptions, averaging 38.3 TDs per season. Under Crowton, Louisiana Tech engineered 22 different 300-yard passing games, including a school-record 10, 300-yard outings during the 1998 season. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs combined for a school-record 4,943 yards passing.

Crowton's coaching career actually began in 1982 as a student assistant under Edwards at BYU. While at BYU he worked with current Seattle Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren and future NFL Hall of Famer, Steve Young. From BYU, Crowton moved on to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he coached from 1983-86. While at Snow College, Crowton moved from defensive backs coach to offensive coordinator. Under his offensive leadership, the Badgers won the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship in 1985. From Snow College, Crowton moved to Western Illinois for one season, before taking over as the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire.

In 1991, Crowton was hired as the quarterbacks coach at Boston College under head coach Tom Coughlin. There he helped develop quarterback Glenn Foley as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After three successful seasons with the Eagles, Crowton was hired as the co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where his offense led the Yellow Jackets to a No. 21 national ranking in his first and only season in Atlanta. In 1995, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he would become the head coach the following season.

Crowton, who is the first-ever head football coach at BYU to serve an LDS Church mission, is married to the former Maren Peterson of Bountiful, Utah. The couple was married in 1985 and have seven children.

IT'S NO COINCIDENCE

While at Louisiana Tech, Gary Crowton recorded three straight seasons with a scoring average of 33 points per game or better. In 1996, the Crowton-led Bulldogs averaged 36.4 points per game, but dropped off to a mere 33.1 points per game in 1997. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs published a 41.1 points-per-game average. During the 2001 season, his first year at BYU, Crowton and the Cougars lead the nation with an amazing 46.7 points per game average.

CROWTON NOTABLES

- Crowton is the first coach in BYU history to win more than seven games in his first season.
- In only his fourth year as a Division-IA coach, Crowton recorded his 30th career victory — a 56-34 victory over Sonny Lubick and the Colorado State Rams.
- In his fifth season as a collegiate head coach, Crowton coached in his 50th career game, defeating Hawaii, 35-32.
- Crowton became only the second coach in BYU football history to win 12 games in a single season after defeating Mississippi State, 41-38, during the 2001 season. LaVell Edwards accomplished the feat three different times during his 29-year career, including a 14-win season during the 1996 campaign. Crowton's previous single-season best win total was 9-2 at Louisiana Tech during the 1997 season.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS

Each Wednesday BYU and Tucanos Brazilian Grill will host the weekly Tucanos BYU Football Media Luncheon in the Cougar Room at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Regularly-credited media are invited to attend the weekly luncheon. Please contact Jeff Reynolds in the Media Relations office for more information.

A WHALE OF A TALE

After redshirting the 2001 season, sophomore running back Marcus Whalen is doing his best to answer the question, "How will BYU deal with the loss of Doak Walker Award winner Luke Staley?" In the season-opener (vs.Syracuse), Whalen turned in 140 yards on 19 carries, averaging 7.4 yards per carry. Whalen was credited with a career-high 58-yard run to the goal line, then bullied his way in to the endzone on the very next play for his first TD of the season. Against Hawaii, Whalen was credited with a career-high 30 carries, racking up 141 yards and two more touchdowns. In the third game of the season, Whalen turned in 135 yards on only 14 carries, averaging 9.6 yards per carry. During the first quarter, Whalen broke loose for what appeared to be a 92-yard touchdown run, but was returned to the 21 yardline after a illegal block was called on the Cougars. Whalen was officially credited with a career-long 71 yard run on the play. In his last outing, Whalen played through the first quarter at Georgia Tech before being forced to sit the remainder of the game with a pulled abductor muscle. Prior to leaving the game, Whalen produced 14 yards on four carries. On the season, Whalen ranks second in the MWC (23rd nationally) with a 107.2 yards-per-game average, and ranks fourth in overall scoring, averaging 6.0 points per game. Whalen is on pace to produce 1,300 yards this season. With his 100-yard performance at Nevada, Whalen became the first running back in BYU history to start a season with three straight 100-yard outings.

COUGS PERFECT IN PAYBACK OPPORTUNITIES SINCE 1998

Since 1980, BYU has had 62 different opportunities to repay an opponent for a previous loss. When the Cougars face an opponent, having lost in the previous meeting, they have recorded a 41-21 (.661) record. Since Nov. 7, 1998, BYUhas not lost to an opponent in a payback situation, posting a perfect 15-0 record. BYU knocked off Syracuse on Aug. 29, the held off Hawaii on Sept. 6 for two straight payback opportunities this season. Following is a look at the Cougars' payback victories since the 1998 season:

INJURY REPORT

Even before the 2002 season began, the Cougars lost three players to season-ending injuries. Redshirt freshman C.J. AhYou was lost on the first day of Fall Camp, suffering a torn ACL. AhYou, who was slated to start at defensive end missed the majority of last season also with a torn ACL. Just under two weeks prior to the Cougars' season-opener, senior offensive tackle Ben Archibald was lost for the season after suffering a mid-shaft compound fracture. Archibald, an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award candidate, is expected to apply for a sixth-year following the 2002 season. Reserve senior cornerback Todd Barker injured his surgically-repaired shoulder and will be unable to return for his final season at BYU. Cornerback Mike Sumko suffered a torn abductor muscle (against Hawaii) and has been listed as probable for Friday's game. Sophomore running Marcus Whalen suffered a pulled abductor muscle at Georgia Tech. Whalen will be re-evaluated this week and has been listed as a game-time decision. Cornerback James Allen has been hampered by a high ankle sprain all season. Allen has received significant rest over the past two weeks and will be evaluated by team trainers this week. His status has yet to be determined.

WHAT A PAYNE

BYU kicker Matt Payne has been pulling double duty this season, serving as the Cougars' punter and kicker. Admitting he likes to punt more than kick, Payne unloaded for a total of 402 yards on seven punts in the Cougars' 31-28 loss at Nevada. Against the Wolfpack, Payne averaged a season-high 57.4 yards per punt. During the game, Payne was credited with a career-long 72 yard punt, surpassing his previous long by eight yards. Currently, Payne leads the Mountain West Conference and ranks second in the nation with a 47.43 per-game average. Payne leads the nation in net punting, averaging 44.14 yards per punt. In the kicking department, Payne is 3-for-5 on field goal attempts, including a two-for-two outing at Georgia Tech. On PATs, Payne is 13-of-16 on the season.

DRIVIN' THE DISTANCE

On Aug. 29, the Cougars drove 99 yards (vs. Syracuse) to set a BYU record for the longest scoring drive in school history. The drive, which lasted nine plays and took 2:59 off the clock, was highlighted by a 58-yard run by sophomore running back Marcus Whalen. Against the Orangemen, the Cougars racked up drives of 99, 92, 80, 73 and 71 yards. Against Hawaii, the Cougars posted long-distance drives of 65, 80 and a game-high 95-yard drive in the third quarter that produced the go-ahead touchdown. At Nevada, BYU posted its fourth 90-yard drive of the season, recording a 92-yard scoring march in just five plays. During the 2001 season, BYU produced 20 different 80-yard drives. In the first game of the 2002 season, the Cougars produced two 90-yard scoring drives, equaling last year's entire season total. On the season, BYU has recorded four 90-yard scoring drives.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

Of all the members of the BYU roster, 70 players have served a full-time, two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (63.3 percent). Over 60 percent of those returned-missionaries, 60 percent speak a foreign language, including 23 players who speak Spanish as a second language. 96 players on this year's roster are members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (87.3 percent). Interestingly, 43 different players are married (40.9 percent). Of the 43 married players, there are eight couples with children and five couples expecting children in the near future. Reserve offensive lineman Nike Mali leads the group with two children, while receiver Reno Mahe has a son and is expecting a daughter in November. The average of the Cougars' 22 starters is 22 years old.

28 STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS AND COUNTING

Following a 63-33 win over Air Force on Oct. 20, 2001, the Cougars claimed their 28th straight non-losing season. BYU has not had a losing campaign since posting a 5-6 mark in 1973—former head coach LaVell Edwards' second season as head coach. The Cougars' streak of 28 straight seasons ranks 11th all-time at the NCAA Division I-A level and is currently the third longest non-losing streak in the nation. (Nebraska ranks No. 1 with 40 straight seasons without a losing campaign.)

ATTENDANCE FIGURE RANKS NATIONALLY

The Cougars' season-opener against Syracuse drew a capacity crowd of 65,612 fans at LaVell Edwards Stadium, marking the 56th sellout at the stadium (since it was expanded in 1982.) That crowd also marked the 15th largest gathering in the nation on opening weekend. Michigan hosted a national leading 111,491 fans in the Wolverine's season-opener victory against Washington. Interestingly, BYU ranked 12th nationally in accumulated capacity. Edwards Stadium was filled to 100.94 percent of its capacity. In two home games this season, the Cougars are averaging a league-leading 64,349 fans per game.

POPPINGA PREFERS PAPER AND PLASTIC

In the first game of the 2002 season (vs. Syracuse), the Cougars allowed just one sack, while producing three sacks against the Syracuse offense for a combined loss of 13 yards. Sophomore defensive end Brady Poppinga had one of the team's sacks, forcing a SU fumble in the process. In the Cougars' 31-28 loss at Reno, BYU produced a season-high five sacks. Poppinga led the team with two sacks for a combined loss of 11 yards. Against Georgia Tech, Poppinga was again credited with a sack, marking his MWC-leading fifth QB stuff of the season. Through four games, Poppinga is averaging 1.25 sacks per game. He also leads the Mountain West with nine tackles for a combined loss of 39 yards. Last season, the BYU offense gave up 24 sacks, averaging 1.8 sacks per game. Defensively, BYU recorded 25 sacks, averaging 1.9 sacks per game. This season, the Cougars have tallied nine sacks, averaging 2.25 sacks per game. Offensively, BYU has allowed seven sacks through the first four games.

ENGEMANN BY THE NUMBERS

Nearly two years after being sidelined with a shoulder injury, junior quarterback Bret Engemann made his return to the field in the Cougars' season-opener against Syracuse. In his first start since Sept. 30, 2000, Engemann led BYU to a season-opening victory, recording three touchdown completions and running for another in the Cougars' 42-21 victory over Syracuse. Engemann completed a career-high 35-of-54 (.648) attempts for 386 yards, marking the second 300-yard game of his career. In his come-back performance against the Orangemen, Engemann was responsible for four touchdowns on the evening, including a career-high three TD completions and a three-yard run. The 6-foot-5 Provo, Utah, native started things off with an 11-for-15 (.733) performance in the first quarter, racking up 111 yards and a six-yard touchdown strike to Andrew Ord. In the second quarter, Engemann racked up another 105 yards, 10 more completions, and a two-yard pass to Toby Christensen to put the Cougars up 14-7. During the second quarter, he also engineered a school-record 99-yard scoring drive to give BYU a 21-7 lead with 4:53 remaining in the first half. After the half, Engemann kept up his blistering assault on the Syracuse defense, posting 12 more completions on 15 attempts (.800) for 80 more yards. After the Orangemen had tied the score at 21-21, Engemann led the Cougars on a 10-play, 92-yard drive and scored the go-ahead touchdown on a three-yard run. On the night, Engemann produced scoring drives of 99, 92, 80, 73 and 71 yards. Against Hawaii, Engemann racked up 26 yards on 21-of-46 attempts, including a touchdown pass to Toby Christensen. Trailing by 10 in the final minutes of the second quarter, Engemann got the Cougars on the board with an 11-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 19-yard strike to Toby Christensen in the endzone. In the third game of the season, Engemann ran into a tough Nevada defense. Engemann completed just 6-of-16 attempts before turning things over to reserve QB Lance Pendleton in the second half. During the first half, Engemann found Andrew Ord for a 31-yard touchdown pass, marking his fifth TD pass of the season. At Georgia Tech, Engemann got off to a blistering pace, going 5-for-5 to start the game. However, the Yellow Jacket defense settled down to force two interceptions and a fumble, all in the first quarter. Engemann battled to complete 11-of-18 attempts for 92 yards before being sidelined. On the season, Engemann has produced 784 yards on 73-of-134 attempts. He has completed five touchdown passes, and has given up four interceptions.

THE TETON TERROR

Known over the past 20+ years for its All-American quarterbacks, BYU is quickly becoming known for its outstanding tight ends. Senior tight end Spencer Nead is making a solid case to join the ranks of BYU's long line of outstanding tight ends, including Gordon Hudson, Chad Lewis, Itula Mili and Doug Jolley. Nead started the 2002 campaign with a career-high 80-yard performance in the Cougars' 42-21 win over Syracuse. Nead was one of three different receivers with five receptions on the night. All totaled three different BYU tight ends, including Gabe Reid and Aisaac Aiono accounted for 133 yards on 11 receptions. Against Hawaii, Nead recorded three receptions for 41 yards, including a team-high 22-yard reception. After just one reception at Nevada for 12 yards, Nead returned to form at Georgia Tech, recording three receptions for 21 yards. He was the only tight end with a reception against the Yellow Jackets. On the season, Nead ranks fourth on the BYU roster with 12 receptions for 154 yards, averaging 38.5 yards per game. He is just one of four receivers with over 100 receiving yards on the season.

MACKEY WATCH LIST

In addition to being named among those being considered for the Lombardi Award, senior tight end Spencer Nead has been listed as a candidate for the John Mackey Award, which honors the top tight end in the country. Nead is the Cougars' top returning tight end after recording 22 receptions for 266 yards as a junior last season. Nead averaged 12.1 yards per reception and scored five touchdowns as a junior.

LOMBARDI WATCH LIST

Three BYU players were originally named to the preseason Rotary Lombardi Award watchlist, which annually honors college football's top lineman. Senior offensive lineman Ben Archibald was on the list, but due to a season-ending injury has been removed. His capable bookend, left tackle Dustin Rykert (6-foot-7, 315) is also a candidate for the Lombardi Award. Senior tight end Spencer Nead has also been listed as a candidate for the prestigious award.

THIRD-DOWN WOES

Against Syracuse, BYU converted 11-of-18 (.611) third-down attempts, including five-straight conversions on the Cougars' first drive of the game. All totaled BYU reeled off seven straight third-down conversions before the Orangemen were able to stop BYU on a third-and-22 attempt early in the second quarter. Against Hawaii, the Cougars were a mere 7-of-20 on third down attempts, including an 0-for-4 start in the first quarter. In Week No. 3, the Cougars continued to struggle on third down, converting just 4 of 14 attempts. Week 4 proved no different. Battling humid conditions at Georgia Tech, the Cougars were a sluggish 4 of 17 on third-down attempts. On the season, the Cougars are 26-of-69 (.377) on third-down conversions. Over the past two games, BYU has converted just 8 of 31 (.258) third-down attempts.

BEST IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

In the three-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have posted a 16-5 record against league opponents. The Cougars are tied with Colorado State for the best league record, however BYU has posted a 2-1 mark against Colorado State over the past three seasons. Following is a look at the cumulative MWC league standings, dating back to 1999:

TEAM	W	L	Pct.	League Titles
Brigham Young	16	5	.762	2* (1999, 2001)
Colorado State	16	5	.762	2* (1999, 2000)
Utah	12	9	.571	1* (1999)
Air Force	11	11	.500
New Mexico	10	12	.455
UNLV	8	13	.381
San Diego State	8	13	.381
Wyoming	6	19	.316

2001 COUGARS CLAIM SECOND MWC TITLE

BYU captured its second MWC championship in the past three years after a thrilling come-from-behind win (24-21) over Utah on Saturday, Nov. 17, 2001. The victory marked the first outright title for the Cougars since the 1996 season and became the first-ever MWC team to win the league title with a perfect 7-0 record. Since winning its first conference title in 1965, BYU has won a total of 22 league titles, including 10 straight championships from 1976-1985. Of the 22 conference titles, BYU has won the championship outright 14 times.

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM

On November 18, 2001, Cougar Stadium was forever changed, honoring the man who built BYU's football tradition from the ground up. President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Gordon B. Hinckley, announced the historic name change prior to Edwards' final home game (vs. New Mexico). Now known as LaVell Edwards Stadium; the stadium has been home to 120 games since it was expanded to 65,000 seats in 1982. BYU has produced a 98-22 (.817) record in the Stadium since the 1982 season, including a 37-13 victory over New Mexico in Edwards' final game in the stadium. Fittingly, Edwards retired with a perfect record (1-0) in LaVell Edwards Stadium. Since 1972, BYU has posted an impressive 140-22 (.864) record in Provo. The Cougars have won 10 straight in Provo, including a stretch of nine straight games since the stadium was renamed.

TOP RECRUITS

The BYU coaching staff managed to assemble one of the nation's top recruiting classes this past season. This year's list of signees was rated No. 22 in the nation and tops in the Mountain West Conference. This year's class was highlighted by the signing of the nation's top high school quarterback, Ben Olson. While it is uncertain if Olson will redshirt this season, incoming signees James Allen (CB), Curtis Brown (RB), Chad Barney (CB), Jake Kuresa (OL), Travonne Jackson (CB) and Shaun Nua (DL) are expected to contribute in the season-opener against Syracuse. To date, James Allen, Curtis Brown, Chad Barney and Shaun Nua have all contributed to the Cougars' 2-1 start.

UNLUCKY No. 13

Many people have long been superstitious of the number 13. Starting quarterback Bret Engemann wore the number during his sophomore campaign before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury against Syracuse. He has switched to No. 5 this season. Interestingly, 13 days prior to the season-opener (against Syracuse), senior offensive lineman Ben Archibald suffered a season-ending compound fracture in his left leg.

COUGARS SET SINGLE-SEASON SCORING RECORD

Through 13 regular-season games in 2001, BYU produced 608 points, averaging a nation's best 46.7 points per game and the best regular-season scoring average in BYU football history. The 2001 Cougars broke the 21-year-old record by just .1 point per game. The 1980 Cougars averaged 46.6 over 12 games. Army holds the NCAA scoring average record, posting 56.0 points per game during the 1944 season. Nebraska holds the NCAA record for most points scored in a single season with 624 over 12 games, set during the 1983 season. With two games of the 2002 season already in the books, the Cougars rank 24th nationally. Kansas State leads the nation, averaging 58 points per game.

OVERTIME FACTS

Since the NCAA instituted overtime in 1996, the Cougars have played four overtime games, posting a perfect 4-0 record. Of the 31 teams which have played four or more overtime games, the Cougars are the only team to post a perfect 4-0 record. Interestingly, the Cougars have never played an overtime game in Provo. Following is a list of BYU's four overtime games:

OVERTIME GAMES

Game	Date	Score
BYU vs. Wyoming*	Dec. 17, 1996	W, 28-25
BYU at SMU	Sept. 27, 1997	W, 19-16
BYU at Utah State	Oct. 1, 1999	W, 34-31
BYU at Virginia	Sept. 2, 2000	W, 38-35

* WAC Championship Game (at Las Vegas, Nevada)

BYU AND THE NCAA

During the 2001 season, BYU averaged a nation-leading 46.8 points per game. That scoring average was the highest in the NCAA since Kansas State posted an average 48.0 points per game during the 1998 season. BYU also led the nation in total offense, averaging 542.9 yards per game. Junior running back Luke Staley led the nation with an average 15.45 points per game. Staley scored 28 TDs on the season, including 24 rushing touchdowns. Staley also ranked third with a 143.82 yards-per-game average.

BYU BREAKS 12-YEAR-OLD NCAA RECORD

During the 2001 season, BYU racked up a total of 7,057 yards of total offense, becoming the first team in NCAA history to ever eclipse the 7,000-yard mark. The Cougars eclipsed a 12-year-old record set by the University of Houston during the 1989 season. The "other" Cougars posted 6,874 yards during the 1989 campaign.

JV NOTES

Sixth-ranked Snow College racked up 488 total yards en route to a 38-27 rain-drenched win against the BYU-junior varsity squad on Saturday. The win marked the Badgers' first of the season, and their sixth straight, dating back to last season. Snow scored first on its third possession of the game when Paul Peterson, brother of former BYU quarterback Charlie Peterson, engineered a 54-yard drive that ended with a 13-yard pass to Ameen Shaheen. Snow missed an opportunity earlier when they had the ball on the BYU-JV 14 yard line after a fumble, but an interception gave the ball back. The Cougars matched the Badger score after Matt Berry led the offense on an 80-yard drive, capped by a 28-yard strike to tight end Andy Hadfield. Hadfield, a junior tight end, was the favorite target all afternoon for the BYU-JV quarterbacks as he accounted for nearly 200 of the 298 yards receiving. Snow College answered back with two touchdowns on an 11-yard pass from Peterson to Ben Anderson and then a 14-yard pass to Nate Meikle. The Badgers missed the first PAT and then missed the two-point conversion after the second touchdown, leading 19-7 midway through the second quarter. Mid-way through the second quarter, BYU defender David Johnson picked off a Peterson attempt, returning it 35-yards for the touchdown. Trailing 19-14, the Cougars then gave up 19 unanswered points in the driving rain before they were able to put more points on the board. The Badgers scored with 6:58 remaining in the third on another Peterson to Anderson strike that covered 30 yards. Those two teamed up again at the 3:30 mark of the quarter on a three-yard strike. Both PAT's failed, but Snow College led 31-14 going into the final quarter of play. Peterson threw his sixth touchdown of the game when he found Shaheen open in the end zone early in the fourth quarter from ten yards out. The PAT was good and the Badgers were ahead for good 38-14. The Cougars made a run late in the fourth quarter, scoring on a Steve Later three-yard touchdown run with 6:43 remaining. Todd Mortensen threw a ten-yard pass to another junior, Jay Omer for the final touchdown with 1:19 left on the clock. The two-point conversion failed. Saturday's game marked the final game for the BYU-JVsquad. The Cougars finished their abbreviated season with a 1-1 record, including a hard-fought 21-14 win over top-ranked Dixie State College.

A WINNING TRADITION

Over the past two decades, BYU has consistently ranked as one of the nation's top winning programs. During the 1990s, BYU ranked 16th nationally with an 86-40-2 record (.670). In the 80s, the Cougars won 102 of 128 games to rank third nationally. Since the 2000 season, BYU has posted an impressive 20-9 (.690) mark, including a 12-2 record during the 2001 campaign.

FUTURE FACTS

- BYU will play at USC and Notre Dame in 2003. The Cougars' home schedule will include games against Boise State, Georgia Tech and Stanford.
- The Cougars will have as many as 15 of 22 starters returning for the 2003 season, including 10 defensive starters.

GILFORD AMONG NATIONAL INTERCEPTION LEADERS

Entering the 2002 season, cornerback Jernaro Gilford ranked 12th among active players with seven career interceptions. Louisville's Anthony Floyd led with 17. Gilford recorded a career-high six interceptions last season, marking the most interceptions in a single season since Jason Walker picked off six in 1998. Gilford has been slowed by a knee injury and did not play in the Cougars' first two games of the season. He saw limited action against Nevada and Georgia Tech and is expected to see increased action at Utah State.

UP OR DOWN

The following personnel will be coaching from the sidelines: Gary Crowton (head coach), Robbie Bosco (quarterbacks), Lance Reynolds (offensive line), Ken Schmidt (linebackers), Steve Kaufusi (defensive line) and Brian Mitchell (cornerbacks) and Paul Tidwell (running backs). Mike Borich (wide receivers), Mike Empey (tight ends) and Barry Lamb (safeties) will be in the pressbox.

TURNIN' IT UP FIELD

In the Cougars' season-opener against Syracuse, quarterbacks Bret Engemann and Lance Pendleton combined for 397 yards passing. Of the 397 yards, BYU receivers were responsible for 175 yards after the reception. Sophomore receiver David Christensen led all receivers with an average 9.4 yards after each of his five receptions. In the Cougars' 35-32 win over Hawaii, the Cougars totaled 226 yards passing. Of the 226 yards, Cougar receivers were responsible for 112 yards after the reception. At Georgia Tech, the Cougars posted 116 yards after the catch, marking the most yards gained after the catch since the season-opener against Syracuse. Following is a look at this season's YAC stats:

COUGARS LEAD MWC IN HOME ATTENDANCE

BYU, which boasts the largest on-campus home stadium in the Mountain West Conference, has led the MWC in home attendance in all three years of the league's existence, averaging over 63,500 fans per game since the 1999 season. In fact, Edwards Stadium has been the site of the league's all-time top-eight crowds.

Top Home Crowds in MWC	History
Date	Teams	Attendance
Nov. 17, 1991	Utah at BYU	66,149
Nov. 20, 1999	Utah at BYU	65,942
Sept. 9, 1999	Washington at BYU	65,726

HOME BODIES

With six home games during the 2002 season, and two other games within the state of Utah, the Cougars will play a total of eight games in Utah. With the exception of road battle at Georgia Tech, the Cougars will also play three other road games that will require a quick, one-hour flight. In fact, BYU did not stay in Reno the night before the Nevada game. Since 1980, the Cougars have posted a record of 119-25 (.826) when playing in the state of Utah, including games in Provo, Salt Lake City (U of U) and Logan (Utah State).

PICK A RECEIVER, ANY RECEIVER

Throughout the 2001 season, the Cougars used a single-season record 20 different receivers, including a season-high 12 different receivers against Nevada. In BYU's season-opening game against Syracuse, the Cougars used a combination of 10 different receivers. Junior Toby Christensen led all receivers with six receptions for 98 yards. Tight end Spencer "The Teton Terror" Nead was close behind with 80 yards on five receptions. Of the 10 receivers BYU used against Syracuse, six different receivers had four or more receptions. Against Hawaii, the Cougars used only nine receivers, led by senior Reno Mahe. Mahe accounted for eight receptions for 83 yards, averaging 10.4 yards per reception. Four different receivers had two or more receptions against the Warriors. Against Nevada, BYU used a season-low eight receivers. At Georgia Tech, BYU equaled its season high using 10 different receivers. On the year 13 different players have caught passes, including just five receivers who have recorded 10 or more receptions.

BY A SLIM MARGIN

Throughout the 2001 season, the Cougars tallied 608 points, averaging a nation's best 46.8 points per game. BYU allowed 396 points, giving up an average 30.5 points per contest. Overall, the Cougars registered a +16.3-point margin of victory. The Cougars won four games on the season by 30 or more points, including a season-high 45-point win over Nevada on Sept. 1. The 2002 season got off to a similar start, with the Cougars posting 42 points on Syracuse. BYU outdistanced the Orangemen by 21 points. In the second game of the season, (vs. Hawaii), the Cougars held on for a three-point victory. The margin narrowed to just +7 after falling to Nevada, 31-28. After losing a second straight game (at Georgia Tech), the Cougars' scoring margin dropped to +3.

TURNOVER A NEW LEAF

In the Cougars' season-opener against Syracuse, the Cougars and Orangemen were all even in the turnover category. The Cougars recovered on SU fumble, and were credited with two interceptions. Syracuse forced two fumbles and were credited with one interception. In the second week of the season, things were a little different. The Cougars won the turnover battle by an overwhelming 4-0 margin. BYU defenders recorded four interceptions, including two by walk-on Kip Nielsen. Two of the Cougars' four turnovers led to 14 points. In the Cougars' 31-28 loss at Nevada, BYU recorded two fumble recoveries and an interception, winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Despite losing the turnover battle at Georgia Tech, 4-3, the Cougars forced three opponent turnovers for the fourth straight game this season. Junior cornerback Brandon Heaney was credited with two interceptions against Tech.

ULTIMATE EXPOSURE

Dating back to 1980, the Cougars have appeared on national television an average three times per season, including a single-season record six national television appearances during the 2000 season. Since its first national television appearance in 1974, BYU has posted a 49-32-2 (.602) while playing on national television, including a 23-16 (.590) mark on ABC and a 29-18-2 (.612) mark on ESPN. Current assistant coach Robbie Bosco led the Cougars to a 20-14 win over Pittsburgh in the first live ESPN College Football broadcast in 1984. BYU was 5-2 last season when playing on national television, and are already off to a 2-0 start this season. The Cougars have a total of four national television appearances scheduled this season (all on ESPN or ESPN2).
