Brad Cattermole Head Coach

Brad Cattermole begins his 16th season as the head coach of BYU gymnastics. Cattermole has quietly built the Cougar program into a respected national nower

After taking over the program midway through the 1988 season, he promptly led the Cougars to the first 185 in school history. He has since guided the Cougars to school records in nine of the next 12 years, missing record marks only with 1994, 1995 and 1998, when injuries and more stringent scoring kept numbers down.

In 1998, the Cougars broke the 196 barrier for the first time, hitting a 196.325 against Utah in the final meet of the season in Provo. In 2000, once again in Provo, Cattermole's squad broke 196 for the second time, pulling off an upset victory over the University of Utah by a score of 196.05 to 195.975 in the last meet of the season. In 2001, the Cougars shattered all school records, surpassing the 196 mark five different times, a mark they had only reached three times in history. On March 16, 2001 against Utah State at home, BYU reached the 197 mark for the first time in history with a 197.325. Then one week later they broke that record again with a 197.375 at Utah, a full 1.450 points higher than any score they had received on the road. In the record-setting season, BYU set new team highs in each event and in the all-around.

Before conference meets were eliminated in 1994, Cattermole's teams were league runner-ups five times and seven athletes earned 10 all-conference honors. Seven gymnasts have earned 16 NCAA All-America awards under his tutelage.

His recruiting efforts have netted five U.S. National Team members, five Canadian National Team members and numerous Junior Olympic National and Elite champions.

As vault coach, he led Christy McAdams to the Cougars' first perfect 10.0 score. In 2003, Kari Dye-Lords scored a perfect 10.0 on balance beam and Brogan Jacobsen scored a perfect 10.0 on her scintillating floor routing against Southern Utah, Utah State and Central Michigan. In 2004, Jaime Mabray scored BYU's secondperfect 10.0 on vault under Cattermole's direction.

Along with his duties at BYU, Cattermole owns and operates All-American Gymnastics in Orem. Highly successful since he established it in 1976, All-American has earned more State Class I and Class II championships than any other club in Utah. Several athletes - former stars Marianne Williams Squires, Kelli Rose-Rhyssman, Korie Jackman, Cristen Cosgrave-Barlow, Angela Gunnell Anderson and Jessica Nelson-Taylor earned national club honors while competing for All-American gymnasts.

Born in Stormlake, Iowa, Cattermole grew up in Los Angeles. He competed on the 1971 BYU men's gymnastics team. Following his freshmen year, he left school to serve an LDS mission to Peru. His competitive career ended when he broke his hand in practice shortly after his return from his mission. He was a part-time assistant women's gymnastics coach at BYU and part-time coach at Provo Gymnastics during the 1975-76 season while he continued his schooling at BYU.

He is married to Dawn Niedert and they have three boys - Brad 26, Brett 23, and Mark 19. Brett recently returned from an LDS mission in Brazil and Brad recently returned from England. Mark is currently serving an LDS mission in Iceland.

Dawn Cattermole Assistant Coach

After working with her husband Brad at All-American Gymnastics since he established the club in 1976, she joined him as Assistant Coach at BYU when he was named head coach 16 years ago

An experienced coach and judge, Dawn Niedert Cattermole has been a respected member of the gymnastics community for more than 25 years.

An expert in beam and floor exercise, Dawn has coached many National Champions on beam and floor at the Junior Olympics and at Elite Nationals.

At BYU, her 1992 floor team earned the Cougars first-ever event score of 49.00. They bettered that in 1993 with a 49.15, tying the beam squad for the highest BYU event score at that time. For the next two years, the floor team continued its highscoring tradition, and last year, it again broke a school record for best event score with a 49.35. In 2001, the Cougars surpassed the 49.100 mark seven of the eleven meets and finished with a new record of 49.625 on the floor. BYU did even better in 2002, scoring a new school record of 49.650 against Southern Utah and breaking the 49,000 mark in nine of 12 meets.

Floor scores of 9.90 or better have become common for the Cougars under her guidance and last year, six gymnast recorded scores of 9.90 or higher, with three going over the 9.95 mark, including a new school record of 9.975 by Kim Little and a 9,975 by Kari Dve Lords.

Since adding the role of recruiting coordinator to her duties, Dawn Cattermole has been key in bringing several future stars into the Cougar fold.

A native of Elgin, Illinois, Dawn has attended the 1979 World Championships, 1986 World Championships, Canadian National Championships since 1997, and the Commonwealth Games in Manchester, England in July 2002.

Shauna Mertz Assistant Coach

In her 11th year with the Cougars, Shauna Sudbury Mertz works mainly with the beam squad, while helping with the other events as well.

During her seven-year stint as beam coach, the team has steadily improved. In 1992, it set a school record of 48.90 and bettered that with a 49.15 in 1993. That score was tied with the floor team for the highest event score in school history until the 2000 season, when the bars and floor teams recorded higher marks. BYU passed the 49 mark three times in 2001, setting a new team high on the beam with a 49.275 in the last two meets.

In 1993 she helped Juliet Bangerter to a Second Team All-America award and a school record 9.95. In 1997, Rose eclipsed that record with a 9.975 and earned First Team All-America honors. Under Mertz's guidance, Kari Dye scored a perfect 10.0 in the meet against Utah in 2003.

During her standout competitive career at BYU, Mertz scored highs of 9.75 on bars and 9.85 on beam.

A Sandy, Utah, native, Mertz graduated from BYU in 1993 with a degree in health education. She is married to Brad Mertz and they have four children – McKay, 8, Nichole, 6, Natalie, 3 and Austin, 8 months.
