MEN'S TENNIS TO HOST NEW MEXICO STATE AND OREGON

PROVO, Utah (Jan. 28, 2003) – The No. 64 BYU men's tennis team (2-3) will be looking to get some big wins this weekend as they host New Mexico State on Friday at 6 p.m. and No. 73 Oregon on Saturday at 4 p.m. in Provo.

After a tough road trip to California last week, BYU head coach Jim Osborne said his team is anxious to be playing at home in a familiar environment.

"Last weekend was a bit of a wake-up call for us," Osborne said. "We we're kind of hurting by the third day. The guys were pretty beat up. But now they know that they need to get in better shape."

BYU ended last weekend with a 1-2 record. The Cougars were able to beat Loyola Marymount 4-3 before losing to UC Irvine 3-4 and to seventh-ranked USC 0-7. In all three matches, the Cougars were unable to win the doubles point.

"We have got to win the doubles point," Osborne said. "If we want to compete in and win the conference championship this year, we need to be more consistent in doubles. I'm confident in our pairings and I know we can play. We're going to focus on winning the doubles point this weekend."

New Mexico State will be opening up their regular season against the Cougars on Friday. They are not currently ranked but they have a tough lineup. Last year, the Cougars beat the Aggies 7-0 in New Mexico so they will be looking to get back at BYU.

"New Mexico State is a solid team with good players all the way down the line," Osborne said. "We need to be prepared for them because I know they will come ready to play."

The Cougars are especially looking forward to playing Oregon. The Ducks are currently No. 73 in the nation with a 1-1 record. They were able to beat Idaho 7-0 before falling to New Mexico 5-2 last weekend. Last year BYU, lost to Oregon 4-3 in a hard fought match.

"Oregon beat us last year in a close match at their place, so I think our guys are really pumped up for them," Osborne said. "This weekend will be a great early test for us at home this season."

This week's matches will be played at the BYU tennis courts or the indoor courts in case of inclement weather.

2002-2003 BYU MEN'S TENNIS SEASON OUTLOOK

After a successful 2001-2002 season that saw the Cougars finish with a 14-9 record, a trip to the MWC finals and a No. 69 final ranking, the BYU men's tennis team is looking to continue that success this year.

But both the team and head coach Jim Osborne know that to be successful this year, they will need someone to step up and fill the big holes that have been left by the departing seniors.

"We have lost three of our top six players from last year," Osborne said. "The loss of Gert Vilms at No. 1, Nic Lossee at No. 3 and Jeff Harbach at No. 6 is pretty significant. But we have a good, solid team with some great experience."

Osborne, who is entering his fifteenth year at BYU, accredits last year's success partly to the strength of the doubles teams. Of the three doubles teams from last season, each one had one of the seniors that are now gone.

"This year we need to rebuild some doubles teams," Osborne said. "We need some guys to step up and fill the positions in both doubles and singles."

Osborne will be looking to senior Carlos Lozano to take the lead at the No. 1 position this season. Lozano finished last season with an 11-9 record in singles, playing primarily at the No. 1 and 2 spots and was named to the All-MWC and All-American Teams.

"Carlos Lozano has been an All-American and I think he is ready to play at the No. 1 spot," Osborne said. "We need him to step up and fill that position for us this year."

Junior Erik Nyman will also fill an important role on the team in singles and will be paired with Lozano as the No. 1 doubles team. He and Lozano start the season ranked No. 13 in the nation.

"Erik has a great game," Osborne said. "He had wins over top-100 players last year. He and Lozano will be at the top of our lineup."

"After the top two positions, it is pretty much wide open," Osborne said. "It is going to come down to who wants it the most and who is ready to play hard."

The other seniors on the team, Jeff Olsen and Anton Rudjuk, will be pushing each other for the No. 3 and No. 4 singles spots. They both bring with them great leader-

Mountain West Conference

BYU is one of the original members of the Mountain West Conference. The MWC was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions - Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming - met in Denver and decided to form a new conference.

The cornerstone of the conference's formation was the maintenance of long standing athletic rivalries among its member institutions. Hence the Mountain West Conference was formed.

The Conference officially began operations on July 1, 1999. Prior to opening its doors, an executive committee was established and named Craig Thompson commissioner. Thompson had less than one-year to name the new league, settle on a city to serve as the league's headquarters, hire staff and develop a logo.

The MWC is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful geography in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the unparalleled Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Air Force, BYU, Colorado State and Utah). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,000 feet) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the west), the balmy weather and Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State and southwestern flavor of New Mexico.

Olsen, who finished the year with a 5-9 record in singles, has played a lot in the off season and has really improved his game.

"Jeff Olsen seems to have a lot more maturity in his game this season," Osborne said. "He could play high up in the lineup for us. I think he is going to have a great year."

Anton Rudjuk started off last season on a 5-2 tear in the fall. But once the real season started in January, Rudjuk went 5-6 in singles play.

"Anton has always been one of our best players in the fall," Osborne said. "We need to get him playing his best tennis at the end of the year. I think he could play high up in the lineup if we can get him to peak at the right time."

Of the remaining letterwinners returning to the team, coach Osborne hopes to get significant play from Paul Heapy, Jose Luis Lechuga and Jeremy Price.

The Cougars also welcome two newcomers - Freshman Rob Sperry and junior college transfer Alonso Medina.

"We don't know where the newcomers will fit into the lineup, but they may push those guys at the top position," Osborne said.

Coach Osborne said he feels last year's success will help this year's team.

"Hopefully, the guys will come back ready to play and we won't have to start at square one," he said. "We want to build on last year and get things going quickly."

As for this season's schedule, Osborne said it will be a good one filled with matches that will challenge the team.

"Early on this season, we play last year's national champions, USC, on a road trip," Osborne said. "That will give us a good feel for how our team is. We have a strong schedule this year."

Coach Osborne is especially looking forward to conference play.

"Our conference battles are always tough," he said. "It is going to be a tough conference. We lost the conference finals last year to San Diego State, so we'd like to be there again this year and win."

"Our goal ultimately is to have a top-20 team," Osborne said. "I thought we were real close last year, we just ran into some bad luck. We got off to a slow start last year, so hopefully we can do better this year."

Jim Osborne

Head Coach

Jim Osborne, a former member of the U.S. Davis Cup Team, is in his 15th season at the helm of BYU men's tennis program.

In his 14 seasons at BYU, Osborne has an overall record of 150-143. While serving as head coach of the men's team, he has coached four All-Americans, Johnny Mattice and David Harkness in 1988 and Gert Vilms and Carlos Lozano in 2002. In 2001, Osborne was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year.

The Hawaii native came to BYU in 1988 after serving as director of tennis and head professional at Salt Lake City's Fort Douglas Country Club for 13 years.

A 1969 graduate of the University of Utah, Osborne won All-American honors three times as a collegian. He was enshrined in Utah's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991 and served as an assistant coach at the University of Utah in 1970, 1974 and 1982.

Osborne played the professional tour from 1968-1972 and was ranked in the top-10 during that span. At one time, he and doubles partner Jim McManus were ranked second in the United States.

During his career, which included playing on Wimbledon's famed Centre Court, Osborne recorded wins over such names as Arthur Ashe, Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roy Emerson, Rod Laver, Ilie Nastase and Jimmy Connors.

Osborne played on many U.S. National teams, including the victorious Davis Cup team in 1968 and won a bronze medal for the United States at the Mexico City Olympic Games that same year.

Still active in senior tennis, Osborne played on the U.S. Dubler Cup team, which won the 45-and-over World Championship in Sydney, Australia. He was formerly ranked No. 1 in the nation in singles and doubles in the 35-and-over division. A few years ago he won the national 50-and-over Grass Court Doubles Championship in Philadelphia.

Osborne is active off the court as well. For the last 14 years he has been the National Awards chairman for the Intercollegiate Coaches Association. He has also served on the NCAA and ITA National Operating and Regional Advisory Committees.

He married the former Kimberly Hansen, and they have two daughters, Libbie and Allie.

The Osborne File:

- Was ranked in the Top Ten in the world while playing on the professional tour from 1968-72
- Won a bronze medal in the 1968 Olympics at Mexico City
- Member of the 1968 victorious Davis Cup team
- Eight National Senior Championships

Brad Pearce

Assistant Coach

After a successful career on the professional tour that included seven career titles and a quarterfinal appearance at the 1990 Wimbledon Championship, Brad Pearce begins his fourth season as a part-time assistant to coach Jim Osborne.

Pearce joined the professional tour after playing two seasons of collegiate tennis at UCLA. He was a two-time All-American and the PAC-10 singles and doubles champion in 1986. He was a semifinalist in the NCAA tournament, as well as a gold and bronze medalist in the 1986 Goodwill Games.

In 1990, Pearce was selected as a traveling member of the U.S. Davis Cup Team. He was also the No. 5 junior player in the world in 1984.

A native of Provo, Pearce graduated from Timpview High School and is a 1999 graduate of BYU with a Bachelor's of Independent Studies degree.

He is married to the former Cindi Abbott. The couple has five children, Jordan, 14, Tara, 11, John, 8, Matthew, 7 and Joshua Pearce was born on December 21, 2000.
