BYU PLAYS AT WAKE FOREST TUESDAY

BYU will head to ACC country to play at Wake Forest on Tuesday in the first meeting between the two teams since 1969. The Cougars (11-3) and Demon Deacons (10-3) will tip off at 7 p.m. ET (5 p.m. MT) as BYU attempts to become the first team to defeat Wake Forest at Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum this year. Tuesday's game will be broadcast online via ACCSelect. For more information go to the following link: <http://acc.playonsports.tv/wfu/>. The radio broadcast can be heard on KSL Newsradio 102.7 FM and 1160 AM out of Salt Lake City and on the Internet at KSL.com beginning with the pregame show at 6 p.m. ET (4 p.m. MT).

UP NEXT

BYU will open conference play on Saturday, Jan. 12 hosting Colorado State at 4 p.m. in the Marriott Center. The game will be televised on The Mtn. Fans who purchase two tickets to the game will receive two tickets of equal or lesser value to the BYU vs. SDSU game on Wed. Jan 23 or the BYU vs. TCU contest on Wed. Feb. 6.

COUGAR QUICK HITS

- BYU currently owns the nation's second-longest active home win streak 39 straight wins in the Marriott Center, one victory behind Memphis. The Cougars went 17-0 at home last year and are 8-0 at home this year.
- After five straight weeks in the top-25 polls, BYU dropped out of both polls in the Dec. 31 rankings after a 73-70 loss at Boise State. The Cougars' entrance into the national rankings on Nov. 26 marked the program's earliest appearance in the national polls since the 1980-81 season. With a ranking as high as No. 21 last year, BYU has now been ranked in back-to-back season for the first time since 1980-81 and 1981-82.
- Two-time reigning MWC Coach of the Year Dave Rose helped make BYU the second-most improved program in the nation in his first season with a 20-9 record and guided the Cougars to the outright MWC title and a top-25 ranking in his second campaign in Provo as the Cougars went 25-9 last season.
- BYU has been picked in the preseason poll to finish first in the MWC race this year by the league's media.
- This year's BYU squad returns two starters among seven lettermen from last year's outright league leaders (13-3 MWC record) as well as returned missionary Chris Miles, who made six starts as a freshman in 2004-05. Headlining BYU's top returners in 2007-08 are MWC Player of the Year candidate Trent Plaisted, a two-time All-MWC Second Team selection in his first two seasons; versatile junior guard Lee Cummard, who earned All-MWC Third Team honors one year ago; and sophomore sharpshooter Jonathan Tavernari, who followed Plaisted's lead the prior season by being named the MWC Freshman of the Year in his first campaign as a Cougar.

LOOKING AT WAKE FOREST

The Demon Deacons are off to a 10-3 start this season having won their last five games, including a 78-67 victory over Air Force. Wake Forest is also 9-0 at home this year. The Demon Deacons return four starters among 10 letterwinners from last year's team that finished 15-16 under head coach Skip Prosser, who passed away during the offseason. Freshman forward James Johnson leads the team in both scoring and rebounding with 13.5 points per game and 8.7 rebounds per contest. The Cheyenne, Wyo., native shoots 45.9 percent from the field and has posted 18 blocks on the year. Sophomore guard L.D. Williams is second for the Demon Deacons in scoring (10.9) and rebounding (4.9) while shooting 46.3 percent from the field, also second on the team. Junior guard Harvey Hale has started seven games this year and rounds out the Demon Deacon double-figure scorers with 10.3 points per game. Sophomore guard Ishmael Smith, who has started every game this season along with Johnson and Williams, dishes out 4.5 assists per contest while adding 7.7 points and 3.9 rebounds per game. As a team, the Demon Deacons are averaging 70.8 points per game on 41.8 percent shooting from the field. Wake Forest opponents are averaging 61.6 points per contest on 39.8 percent shooting from the floor. The Demon Deacons outrebound their opponents 38.2-36.5 on the year.

WAKE FOREST'S LAST OUTING — WAKE FOREST DOWNS PRESBYTERIAN, 70-58

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (Jan. 2, 2008) - James Johnson scored a game-high 18 points as Wake Forest fended off stubborn Presbyterian for a 70-58 win on Wednesday night. L.D. Williams and Jeff Teague each added 14 points for the Demon Deacons (10-3), who posted their Atlantic Coast Conference-best 13th straight home court win despite trailing the underdog Blue Hose by a point early in the second half. Ishmael Smith handed out a season-high 11 assists. Al'Lonzo Coleman scored 12 of his 16 points in the second half to lead Presbyterian (1-17), which suffered its ninth straight loss. Bryan Bostic added 13 and Ryan Lamb 12 for the Blue Hose, who are in their first season of NCAA Division I competition. After clinging to a two-point halftime lead and trailing briefly in the early stages of the second half, Wake Forest took charge for keeps with just under 10 minutes left. Johnson's three-point play with 9:41 remaining gave the Demon Deacons a 50-47 lead, and L.D. Williams followed with driving dunks on Wake Forest's next two possessions. Jeff Teague's 3-point shot capped the 10-0 spurt and put the Demon Deacons in front 57-47 with 8:15 to play. The Demon Deacons grabbed the upper hand early by scoring 16 unanswered points en route to a 22-6 lead. The Blue Hose fueled the run by missing five shots - all from 3-point range - and committing five turnovers. But Wake Forest's fast start couldn't keep Presbyterian down. The Demon Deacons failed to score on seven straight possessions, and the Blue Hose got back into the game with a 15-4 run. Bostic's transition layup that just beat the buzzer left Presbyterian trailing 31-29 at the half. Bostic scored 13 first-half points to lead the Blue Hose, including three shots from 3-point range. James Johnson scored 13 to lead Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons played the first half without 7-foot center Chas McFarland, who entered the game with 18:05 remaining and contributed seven points and six rebounds down the stretch. Wake Forest shot 52 percent from the floor and committed just eight turnovers. Presbyterian shot 42 percent, including 10-of-30 from 3-point range. The teams finished even in rebounding with 29 apiece.

SERIES HISTORY

Tuesday's game marks the first meeting between BYU and Wake Forest since Dec. 30, 1969, a 108-93 Demon Deacon win at the Quaker City Invitational. Wake Forest leads the overall series, 2-1, including a 1-0 record in Winston-Salem, N.C. The series began with an 84-58 BYU victory at the 1952 Dixie Classic before the Demon Deacons responded with an 86-80 home win in 1955. The Cougars have scored at least 80 points in all three meetings.

VS. THE ACC

Wake Forest will be the second ACC team BYU will face this season, including a 73-63 loss to No. 1 North Carolina at the Las Vegas Invitational on Nov. 24. The Cougars also played two ACC teams in 2004-05, a neutral court loss to UNC and a home setback to N.C. State, for the first time in nearly 50 years. Prior to that, the last time BYU had a schedule with two ACC teams was the 1955-56 season when the Cougars played at both NC State and Wake Forest. BYU's last victory against an ACC school was an NCAA Tournament triumph, 61-48, over Virginia on March 14, 1991 in Salt Lake City. BYU lost in the next round to Arizona, 76-61, to finish the year with a 21-13 record. The only ACC school BYU has never played is Maryland.

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"I haven't seen a lot of Wake Forest this year. Just the tradition and history of where we're going to play will get our guys excited. You don't go beat an ACC team on the road without that excitement and intensity."

BYU'S LAST OUTING — BARRAGE OF THREES HELPS BYU TO VICTORY

PROVO, Utah (Jan. 3, 2008) – BYU junior forward Lee Cummmard led the Cougars to their 11th victory of the season Thursday night as BYU came out on top of the visiting Loyola Marymount 91-62 thanks in part to 18 points from Cummmard. The Cougars are now 11-3 on the year while the Lions dropped to 3-12. The Cougars tied an all-time BYU record as they attempted 33 three-pointers and hit 12 of them. The leading man from beyond the arc was Jonathan Tavernari, who hit on five of his 10 attempts to help him finish with 17 points off the bench. The Cougars saw contributions from every player who checked in as 12 BYU players made it into the scoring column. BYU was able to get out to a quick start as Cougar center Trent Plaisted was double teamed just outside the paint and found the wide-open Chris Collinsworth, who laid in it for the first points of the game. Plaisted not only dished out three helpers on the night but also continued his streak of reaching double-digit scoring in all 14 games this season as he finished with 12 points. The Cougars continued to build upon their quick start as they started the game off with a 12-4 run in the first 4:44. This early BYU run was highlighted by Cougar guard Ben Murdock, who hit his first two attempts from beyond the arc. Loyola came back with an impressive run of its own to echo the Cougars' early success. The Lions tightened up the game with a 9-2 run to close the gap to 14-13 with 11:19 left in the first half. But an alley-oop dunk by Cummmard from Jimmer Fredette at the 10:59 mark of the first half sparked the crowd and also proved to ignite the Cougars as they rattled off 12 more points in the next 1:48 to extend their lead to 26-17. Cummmard finished the first half as the leading scorer for BYU as he hit on 4-for-6 from the field to record 12 points before the break. The Cougars went into the locker room up nine, 35-26. Just over six minutes into the second half, BYU opened up a 49-31 lead; the 18-point advantage was the largest Cougar margin to that point. BYU hit four three-pointers to help reach the lead, including three from Sam Burgess. Orlando Johnson hit a three-pointer with 11:02 left in the game to close the gap to 51-37. Johnson came into the game averaging 12.6 points an outing and finished the game with a team-high 19 points against the Cougars. With 8:41 left in the game BYU opened up a 67-38 lead on two consecutive trips down the court that saw Tavernari hit three-pointers. These Tavernari threes capped off a 16-1 BYU run over a 2:21 span. The Cougars continued to build upon their lead throughout the remainder of the game. Another play that caused an eruption in the Marriott Center came with 5:40 left as Chris Miles slammed home a Fredette three-point miss. The dunk brought the crowd of over 10,000 to their feet. After only forcing five turnovers in the first half, BYU was able to create 14 Lion turnovers in the second half. The Cougars' defense kept Loyola to 31 percent shooting from the field.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...*BYU Head Coach Dave Rose

— "I was pleased with two things tonight. I thought we shared the ball well. We got 21 assists and had opportunities for a lot more with good shots that we didn't convert. Defensively, the intensity was a lot more consistent throughout the game than we had the other night against Boise State."
— "I just wanted to make sure we were getting the best shots we could. We played a little conservative until we broke it open in the second half. Then the guys loosened up a little, and we played even better."
— "I am pleased with the win tonight. We have three or four players that were here when they beat us here last time. It is something we discussed before the game but not something we dwelled upon."

LMU Head Coach Rodney Tenton

— "The better team by far won tonight. BYU is a great team, and we give them a lot of credit."
— "I thought we got better for about 25 minutes, but we couldn't maintain it. A team like BYU is going to take advantage of you when you make mistakes... I don't see any reason why they're not a top 25 team."
— "I think in the first half we really competed because we took care of the ball. We executed well in the first half as well, but the game is 40 minutes long and we need to figure out a way to sustain ourselves the entire game."

BYU NOTES FROM LAST OUTING

— Individual Career Highs: Nick Martineau – 6 points; 4 assists.
— Team Season Highs: Three-point field goals attempted – 33 (tied program record).
— With the win, BYU improved its Marriott Center win streak to 39 games, tied for the longest active home court victory streak in the nation.
— With the 29-point win, BYU is now outscoring its opponents by 16.5 points on the year. That margin jumps to 22.7 points in the Cougars' 11 wins.
— With the 91-62 win, BYU is now 11-1 when scoring at least 70 points in a game and 8-1 when holding opponents under the 70-point mark. The Cougars are also 6-0 when scoring at least 80 points.
— Including a game-high lead of 34 points against the Lions, the Cougars have posted a double-digit lead in 13 of 14 games and have led by more than 20 points in nine games and more than 30 points in three contests. The lone exception to the double-digit leads came against No. 1 North Carolina when the game-high BYU lead was two points.
— Including 12 three-point makes against Loyola Marymount, BYU has made double-digit treys in four games this year. The Cougars have made at least six threes in every games this season except against SUU when they made five. With (120) makes from long range already this year and at least 18 games left to play, BYU is on pace to break the single-season three-point record the Cougars set last year with 256.
— The Cougars tied the program record with 33 three-point attempts against Loyola Marymount. BYU also shot 33 three-pointers at UNLV in 1998 and against Louisiana State in 1992.
— With 12 points against Loyola Marymount, Plaisted remains the only Cougar to score in double figures in every game this season. Cummmard has posted double-digit points in 12 of 14 games.
— With a 35-26 halftime lead against Loyola Marymount, the Cougars have now led at halftime in 13 of 14 games this year, including 10 double-digit leads. The Cougars are now 11-2 when holding a halftime advantage while outscoring opponents by an average of 12.2 points in the first half.
— BYU has held all 14 of its opponents this year under 40 points in the first half while holding foes under 30 points in the first period of 10 games. BYU has scored at least 30 first-half points in every game this season.
— Cummmard scored in double figures for the 12th time this season and the 28th time in his career with a game-high 12 points in the first half. Cummmard finished the game with 18 points.
— With a 4-for-4 performance from the free-throw line, Cummmard improved his efficiency from the charity stripe to 89.7 percent (35-of-39) on the year. Cummmard has been perfect from the line in seven of the 10 games in which he has attempted free throws.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ...

RICK PITINO, LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH

"Tavernari was terrific. He takes a lot of challenged shots. If you have a guy making big shots like that, it is a big help. BYU is a very good team. We were looking forward to play UNC too, but I think that BYU is a better team."

ROY WILLIAMS, NORTH CAROLINA HEAD COACH

"BYU is a big-time basketball team ... It was a hard-fought game all around. BYU is very sound fundamentally. They were able to box out on the boards just as well as anyone we have seen so far."

"Plaisted was sensational in the second half. Our plan coming out of the locker room was not to double team in the post because he is a good passer too, but he took it to us with a superb second half."

"I told both Tavernari and Plaisted that they are big-time players. I can admire the way that Tavernari plays. You look at Plaisted's numbers, 24 and 17, those are big-time numbers."

TOM IZZO, MICHIGAN STATE HEAD COACH

"I am very impressed with BYU ... This was a good road win versus a very quality opponent that I fully expect to be in the NCAA Tournament. This is a very good BYU team. I think they can go a long way, and I am sure they will."

DICK VITALE, ESPN ANALYST

"I'll tell you what my friends, he (Trent Plaisted) is the best big man in America nobody knows about. Remember that name, Trent Plaisted, Trent Plaisted, Trent Plaisted."

"(Plaisted's) been dominant on the glass, scored big in the second half and showed an assortment of moves. I gotta believe he's going to be the best big player in the Mountain West Conference. I can't believe anyone could be better."

"Dave Rose, a former Houston Cougar, is doing a heck of a job now at BYU ... They're going to have another big year this year ... What an outstanding basketball team. I don't care what the score ends up here ... that club is going to be a factor (in the NCAA Tournament)."

"When you look at BYU, they're one of the most outstanding teams in America nobody knows about. They have some outstanding players who can really run the court."

"Tavernari can flat out shoot the jumper ... Tavernari has done a great job."

"Cummard really fills up the stat sheet. Nothing spectacular, just steady play."

"I love the way they move the basketball. They share it, and it's a team concept."

DAN SHULMAN, ESPN ANALYST

"After tonight, he (Plaisted) is going to be the big man in America that everyone knows about."

"The score will not reflect how close this game was tonight."

BYU AND THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

The BYU men's basketball team fell out of the top-25 polls released on Dec. 31 after a 73-70 road loss at Boise State and is receiving votes in both polls this week. The Cougars had appeared in the top-25 rankings the previous five weeks. In the Dec. 24 polls, BYU was ranked 20th in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll and 21st in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll. This season BYU first entered the national rankings on Nov. 26, earning the program's earliest appearance in the national polls since the 1980-81 season when the Cougars entered the rankings at No. 21 in the AP Poll and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll.

In his third year guiding the program, Rose has seen his team earn the respect of the national voters for the second consecutive season. Last year, BYU entered the polls on Feb. 19 to receive the program's first national ranking since 1993. BYU finished last year ranked No. 24 in the final AP Poll, something a Cougar team had not accomplished since 1988.

BYU has now been ranked in back-to-back season for the first time since 1980-81 and 1981-82. The Nov. 26 entry into the national rankings marks the earliest the Cougars have been included in the polls since receiving a No. 18 ranking in the 1980-81 AP preseason poll. It also marked the first time BYU's football and men's basketball teams have been nationally ranked the same week in the AP poll since Dec. 28, 1992.

The Cougar basketball program has now been ranked in the AP Poll during 16 seasons since its first national ranking in 1950-51 (see list below).

BYU AS A RANKED TEAM

BYU owns a 136-57 record as a ranked team. The Cougars are 79-12 at home, 36-28 on the road and 21-17 at neutral sites when nationally ranked after their 73-70 loss at Boise State. BYU's victory at Portland on Dec. 1 marked the Cougars' first road win as a ranked team since an 84-63 victory at UTEP on March 4, 1993 when BYU was ranked No. 21. BYU is 8-5 as a ranked team under Dave Rose including three wins and three losses last year. The Cougars were ranked as high as No. 21 last year and finished the year ranked No. 24 in the Associated Press Poll.

VS. RANKED TEAMS

BYU's victory over No. 6 Louisville marked the highest-ranked team the Cougars have defeated since beating No. 2 St. Joseph's, 103-83, on Dec. 21, 1965. BYU is now 50-111 all-time against teams ranked in the Associated Press Poll and 1-2 this season including a 73-63 loss to No. 1 North Carolina in the championship game of the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Invitational and a 68-61 loss to No. 9 Michigan State at EnergySolutions Arena in Salt Lake City. Prior to the UNC game, the Cougars had not faced the nation's top-ranked team since Dec. 23, 1992, an 89-66 loss to No. 1 Duke at the Maui Invitational. The Cougars were 3-3 in their games vs. ranked teams last year with a 78-70 loss at then-No. 25 and eventual Sweet-16 participant UNLV in the MWC Tournament Championship game, a 62-58 victory at then-No. 20 Air Force, a 90-63 win over then-No. 25 UNLV, a 61-52 win over then-No. 13 Air Force, an 82-69 loss at then-No. 5 UCLA and a 76-61 neutral court loss against then-No. 25 Michigan St.

PLAYING THE BEST

BYU's game against No. 9 Michigan State was its third game in three weeks against a top-10 opponent, including a victory over No. 6 Louisville on Nov. 23 and a loss to No. 1 North Carolina on Nov. 24. BYU has played at least three regular-season games against top-10 opponents in a season just six times previously in program history with the last coming in 1983-84. Only twice previously have the Cougars played three top-10 teams during a three-week stretch, once in 1990-91 with a loss to No. 9 Utah on March 2, a win over No. 8 Utah on March 9 in the WAC Tournament and a loss to No. 8 Arizona on March 16 in the NCAA Tournament and once in 1980-81 with a victory over No. 9 Utah on March 7 in the WAC Tournament, a win over No. 10 UCLA on March 14 in the NCAA Tournament, a victory over No. 7 Notre Dame on March 19 in the NCAA Tournament and a loss to No. 5 Virginia on March 21 in the NCAA Tournament.

COMPARING THE COUGARS

BYU concluded nonconference play last year with a 10-4 record before finishing the season 25-9. This year, the Cougars play their last nonconference game at Wake Forest with an 11-3 record through 14 games. Below is a statistical comparison of last year's BYU team and this year's squad through 14 games.

COUGARS BY THE NUMBERS

3 Number of top 10 teams BYU has played this season - No. 1 North Carolina, then-No. 6 Louisville and then-No. 9 Michigan State. The Cougars beat the Cardinals, 78-76, before falling, 73-63, to the Tarheels despite battling UNC through six second-half lead changes. BYU held a double-digit halftime lead against the Spartans before losing, 68-61.

4 Number of games in which BYU has scored at least 90 points, tying last year's total for the most since 1995-96. The Cougars currently lead the Mountain West Conference in scoring at 79.9 points per game.

7 Number of games in which Lee Cummard has been perfect from the free-throw line out of 10 games in which he taken free throws. Cummard has made his last 12 straight free throws and had made 19 straight prior to a miss against Southern Utah. He ranks 20th nationally shooting 89.7 percent from the free-throw line.

7 Number of statistical categories in which Lee Cummard ranks among the top 10 in the MWC including field-goal percentage (1st - .609), free-throw percentage (3rd - .897), scoring (3rd - 16.1), offensive rebounds (4th - 2.14), total rebounds (7th - 6.1), assists (16th - 3.57) and blocked shots (10th, 0.93).

T7th Rank in BYU program history of Jonathan Tavernari's 12-game streak with a made three-pointer to start the season.

9 Number of statistical categories in which a BYU player ranks among the top three in the MWC out of the 12 categories tracked by the league.

9 Number of points Trent Plaisted needs to surpass Keena Young, last year's Mountain West Conference Player of the Year, on BYU's all-time career scoring list. Plaisted currently has 1,060 career points.

10 Number of times this season BYU has held its opponents under 30 points in the first half. The Cougars have scored at least 30 first-half points in every games this season while racking up halftime leads in 13 of 14 games, including 10 by double digits.

13 Number of games this season Lee Cummard and Jonathan Tavernari have each made a three-pointer. Sam Burgess has made a trey in 11 of 14 games this year.

13 Number of games in which BYU has led by double digits. The Cougars have also led by at least 20 points in nine contests and 30 points in three. BYU has led wire-to-wire in six games this year.

14 Number of starts made this season by Sam Burgess after the senior made just one start in his two prior seasons as a Cougar. Fellow senior Ben Murdock has also started all 14 games after not starting last year in his first season in Provo.

15 Trent Plaisted's longest career streak of consecutive double-figures scoring games, achieved during his freshman season in 2005-06. Plaisted has scored in double figures in all 14 of BYU's games this season.

22.7 The Cougars' average margin of victory in their 11 wins this season. BYU has won seven games by more than 20 points, including two by more than 30. The Cougars' 40-point win at Long Beach State to begin the year was BYU's largest margin of victory over a Division I opponent since defeating Morgan State by 41 points (110-69) on Dec. 28, 1995.

39-4 Combined record of the three teams BYU has lost to this season - North Carolina (15-0), Michigan State (13-1) and Boise State (11-3) [as of Jan. 5].

DEFENDING THE HOME COURT

With 39 straight wins in the Marriott Center, the Cougars currently own the nation's second-longest active home victory streak, just one win behind No. 2 Memphis. The Cougars are 8-0 at home this year and won 17 home games last season after going 14-1 at home in 2005-06. BYU's last home loss was in the 2005-06 season opener against Loyola Marymount. BYU has since won 23 straight over nonconference opponents and 16 consecutive over MWC foes since losing its season finale in 2005 to UNLV. BYU is 410-116 (.779) all-time in the Marriott Center. The Cougars' longest home winning streak came from Feb 19, 2000 to Jan 16, 2003 when BYU won 44 straight in the Marriott Center.

Active Homecourt Winning Streaks (As of Jan. 6, 2008)

Wins	Team	This year	Next home game
40	Memphis	8-0	Jan. 9 vs. East Carolina
39	BYU	8-0	Jan. 12 vs. Colorado State

ON THE ROAD

The Cougars are 2-1 in true road games this year. With a 1-2 record on neutral courts, BYU is 3-3 this season away from home. BYU won five of its last seven games on the road last season including a win at then-No. 20 Air Force (62-58), snapping the Falcons' 30-game home winning streak. BYU was 6-7 on the road last year and 5-3 in conference play, becoming the only Mountain West Conference team with a winning record on the road in league play last year.

MAGIC NUMBER: 70

BYU is 11-1 when scoring at least 70 points this season and 9-1 when holding opponents under the 70-point mark while averaging 79.9 points and allowing just 63.4 ppg. The Cougars have scored 90 or more points in four games this season, reaching 100 against Jackson State, and are 6-0 when scoring over 80 points on the year. Overall, BYU leads the Mountain West Conference in scoring and scoring margin (+16.4)

CLEANING THE GLASS

BYU has won the battle of the boards in 11 of 14 games this year with the only deficits coming against No. 6 Louisville (39-37), No. 9 Michigan State (37-29) and Boise State (36-34). BYU is besting opponents by an average of 7.2 boards per contest, which ranks 26th nationally. The Cougars posted a season-high +19 rebounding margin (38-19) against Hartford as four Cougars pulled down at least five rebounds. BYU began the season with a 55-40 rebounding advantage at Long Beach State, matching last year's season high of 55 boards against Seton Hall. Five Cougars posted at least six rebounds in BYU's win over Lamar, marking the first time since Jan. 8, 2005 that feat has been done.

BALANCED SCORING

BYU has had five players score in double figures in a game three times this season, already matching last year's total of three games in which at least five players reached double digits. Four different Cougars have led the team in scoring this year with Lee Cummond pacing BYU a team-best seven times. Team-high rebounding honors have been shared by four players and team-best assist accolades by five.

CRUNCHING CUMMOND'S NUMBERS

Lee Cummond has scored 20 or more points four times this season, including three of the last five games. He is averaging 20.8 points, 7.0 rebounds, 5.2 assists, 2.0 blocks and 1.6 steals over the last five games while shooting 63.9 percent (39-of-61) from the floor, 47.8 percent (11-for-23) on threes and .938 percent (15-for-16) at the line. He has made 73.7 percent (28-for-38) of his two-point attempts over the five-game stretch.

• In his last road outing, Cummond led BYU with a game-high 26 points at Boise State on Dec. 29 on .643 shooting from the floor (9-for-14) and a perfect 6-for-6 night at the free-throw line. He added six rebounds, two assists and a game-best two blocked shots. Defensively, he held BSU senior swingman Tyler Tiedeman well below his season averages. Tiedeman came in averaging 11.9 points on 48.8 percent shooting from the floor and a team-best 45.1 percent from behind the arc. Cummond held him to only five points on 2-for-9 shooting in 33 minutes.

• In his last home outing, Cummond filled the stat sheet vs. Loyola Marymount with a team-high 18 points, six rebounds, three assists and one block. Five of his six boards came on the offensive glass as BYU posted a 21-11 margin in second-chance points.

FROM DOWNTOWN

After setting a program record with 256 three-pointers last season, the Cougars are on pace to break that record this year having already made 120 treys so far. BYU has posted double-digit triples in a game four times this year with 12 against Loyola Marymount, 11 against Lamar, 12 at Long Beach State and 13 vs. Hartford, marking just the sixth time in program history that the Cougars have posted at least 13 threes in a game, including a record 15 against UNLV last season. The Cougars have made at least six three-pointers in every game this season except vs. SUU when they made five. The Cougars tied the program record with 33 three-point attempts against Loyola Marymount. Individually, both Lee Cummond and Jonathan Tavernari have made a three-pointer in 13 of 14 games this season while Sam Burgess has done so in 11 of 14 contests. Cummond is currently riding an eight-game streak with a make from long range while Tavernari's 12-game streak to begin the year is tied for seventh all-time in BYU history.

BURGESS COMIN' UP BIG

Senior co-captain Sam Burgess is making the most of his final BYU campaign as he is fourth on the team in scoring (9.5), third in field-goal shooting among players with at least 30 attempts (.473) and third in assists (2.4) while leading the team in three-point shooting (.481). He has increased his scoring total from last season by 5.9 ppg while averaging 16.2 more minutes per game. His six double-figure scoring games this year has already surpassed last year's mark of four double-digit scoring outings. Burgess has started all 14 games this season after starting just one game in his two prior seasons as a Cougar.

FOUR FRESHMEN

Four Cougar freshman are making an impact this year as Chris Collinsworth, Jimmer Fredette, Michael Loyd, Jr. and Nick Martineau have made their respective BYU debuts with results that bode well for the future. All four saw their first action in the Cougars' season opener at Long Beach State and have continued to make a difference for BYU. Collinsworth and Fredette are both averaging over 16 minutes per game at 16.8 and 16.4 mpg, respectively, while Loyd is posting 8.9 and Martineau has seen an average of 7.4 minutes of action per contest. Fredette is fifth on the team in scoring with 6.5 ppg while tying for second with 18 steals. Collinsworth is fourth for BYU with 4.5 rebounds per game and has started the last five contests. Martineau is eighth in the Mountain West Conference in assist/turnover ratio at 2.60.

FOR STARTERS

After using the same starting lineup in the first nine games of the season, Cougar head coach Dave Rose has started freshman forward Chris Collinsworth in the last five games. Seniors Ben Murdock and Sam Burgess along with juniors Lee Cummond and Trent Plaisted have started all 14 games this year while sophomore Jonathan Tavernari has made nine starts.

BYU PLAYER OF THE WEEK

JONATHAN TAVERNARI (JAN. 5) — Sophomore forward Jonathan Tavernari recorded game highs of eight rebounds and three steals while scoring 17 points in 18 minutes off the bench Thursday in BYU's win over Loyola Marymount. The Sao Bernardo, Brazil, native connected five times from behind the three-point arc while making 50 percent of his long-range attempts (5-for-10). He set up two teammate baskets while going 6-of-13 on his own attempts from the floor overall. Tavernari started in the second half and contributed 11 points and five rebounds to help the Cougars turn a nine-point halftime advantage into a lead that grew to as many as 34 points in the final 20 minutes. Tavernari's five triples are the most he has made in a game since converting six three-pointers against No. 1 North Carolina on Nov. 24 in the championship game of the Las Vegas Invitational. He also made five treys in BYU's win over then No. 6 Louisville.

PLAISTED REACHES 1,000-POINT MILESTONE

With 22 points against Lamar, junior Trent Plaisted became the 37th member of BYU's elite 1,000 Point Club, joining such Cougar greats as Danny Ainge, Michael Smith, Devin Durrant, Fred Roberts, Kresimir Cosic and Andy Toolson to score at least 1,000 points in their Cougar careers. Plaisted now has 1,060 career points. Keena Young was the most recent addition to the club as he posted 1,068 points during his three-year BYU stint from 2005-07. Of four-year players, Plaisted is just the 10th Cougar to reach the 1,000-point milestone as a junior. The last four-year player to reach 1,000 points as a junior was Mark Bigelow with 1,312 following the 2002-03 season. Plaisted also has 550 career rebounds, making him just the 21st player overall and fifth junior among four-year players to record at least 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds.

WORTHY OF MENTION

- BYU's 20-point club this year includes Trent Plaisted, Lee Cummond and Jonathan Tavernari. Plaisted and Cummond have scored 20 points or more in four games while Tavernari has done so once. Among Plaisted's top scoring nights were 21 points against No. 6 Louisville and a season-high 24 points against No. 1 North Carolina. Cummond had a career-high 27 points against Lamar and 26 at Boise State while Tavernari totaled a career-best 29 vs. No. 6 Louisville.
- BYU has had six individual double-double performances this year with Plaisted accomplishing the feat four times and Cummond on two occasions. Cummond became the first Cougar to record a double-double this season with 13 points and 10 rebounds against Idaho State. He added his fifth career double-double with 27 points and 10 rebounds against Lamar. Plaisted had 21 points and 12 rebounds against No. 6 Louisville before tallying 24 points and 17 rebounds against No. 1 North Carolina. He totaled 14 points and 15 rebounds vs. Weber State and had 18 points and a career-high-tying 18 rebounds against Pepperdine.
- Trent Plaisted is the lone Cougar to score in double figures in all 14 games this season. His longest streak of consecutive double-figures scoring games is 15 during his freshman season in 2005-06 when he reached double digits in 25 of 29 games. Plaisted has scored in double figures in 60 of 82 games during his career.
- Senior point guard Ben Murdock dished out a personal-best 10 assists with only two turnovers at Portland as the lone Cougar to reach double-digit assists in a game this year. He has dished out five or more assists in a game five times this year. He currently ranks 38th nationally with a 2.64 assist/turnover ratio.
- Freshman guard Jimmer Fredette made three three-pointers and scored 11 points during his 21 minutes at Boise State. He has hit from behind the arc in eight games this season. Fredette is one of four true freshman playing for the Cougars this year, joining forward Chris Collinsworth and guards Michael Loyd and Nick Martineau. Collinsworth has started the last five games.
- BYU leads all MWC teams in scoring (79.9), scoring margin (+16.4), field-goal percentage defense (.379), rebounds (41.3), rebounding margin (+7.3), assists (18.4), three-pointers made (8.57) and defensive rebounds (29.3).
- BYU has led at the half in 13 of 14 games this year, including 10 double-digit leads. The Cougars' only deficit came when they trailed 38-31 against No. 1 North Carolina. The Cougars are outscoring opponents by 12.1 points in the first period of play.

WINNING BIG

The Cougars' 11 victories this year have come by an average margin of 22.7 points, including a season-opening 40-point road win at Long Beach State (74-34). The win over the 49ers marked BYU's largest margin of victory over a Division I opponent since defeating Morgan State by 41 points (110-69) on Dec. 28, 1995. Including BYU's three losses, the Cougars still boast a scoring margin of 16.4 points this year, which ranks 28th nationally. BYU won 17 games by double-digits last year, including seven by 20 or more points, and was the only team in the Mountain West Conference to not have a regular-season game decided by less than four points. With an average scoring margin of +9.1 last season, the Cougars posted their largest margin of victory since 1993 over the course of the year.

THIS YEAR'S LOSSES

BYU's three losses this year have come on neutral floors against No. 1 North Carolina and No. 6 (then No. 9) Michigan State and on the road at Boise State. All tough defeats, BYU held double-digit leads over both Michigan State and Boise State and battled the top-rated Tar Heels through six second-half lead changes. North Carolina (15-0), Michigan State (13-1) and Boise State (11-3) have a combined 39-4 record this year for a .907 winning percentage as of Jan. 6.

HITTING THE MARK

BYU is shooting 48.1 percent from the field this season while allowing opponents to shoot just 37.9 percent from the floor (No. 1 in the MWC). Overall, the Cougars have shot above 50 percent in six games this year. BYU has shot above 50 percent in the first half of six games this season and in the second half of seven contests, totaling 13 halves of play out of 26 with a shooting percentage of 50 percent higher, including three above 60 percent. The Cougars posted a season-high 60.4 percent efficiency against Hartford bolstered by a 63.6 percent second-half shooting mark (14-for-22). Individually, Lee Cummard and Trent Plaisted rank one and three among MWC players in field-goal percentage at 60.9 and 57.2 percent, respectively, and 23rd and 49th, respectively, in the national rankings.

HALFTIME REPORT

The Cougars are 11-2 this season when leading at the half with 10 of the 13 advantages coming by double digits. BYU suffered its first loss of the year after holding a halftime lead with a 68-61 defeat against No. 9 Michigan State after a 35-25 lead at the break. The Cougars led by 11 points at the half at Boise State but fell by three points to the Broncos. No. 1 North Carolina was the only team this season to post a halftime lead against BYU with a 38-31 advantage at the break. The Cougars are besting opponents by an average of 12.1 points in the first period of play after while scoring at least 40 points in the first half of seven of 14 games this season. BYU has scored at least 30 points in the first half of every game this season while holding opponents under 30 points 10 times. The Cougars' 36-12 lead at the break at Long Beach State marked their largest halftime advantage since being up by 28 points (51-23) against Western Oregon on Dec. 22, 2006. The 12 points given up by BYU in the first 20 minutes of the game at LBSU marked the fewest points allowed in a half by the Cougars since allowing a record-low 10 points against Air Force in 2003. BYU has topped 40 points in the second half of seven games this year while surpassing the 50-point mark in the second half three times.

(102.7 FM and 1160 AM)

The "Voice of the Cougars" is KSL Newsradio 1160's Greg Wrubell. He is in his 12th season as the play-by-play voice of BYU basketball. Wrubell, also the voice of BYU football, is joined by former Cougar lettermen Mark Durrant or Andy Toolson as color analysts. Durrant is in his 11th year teaming with Wrubell while Toolson, a former Cougar assistant coach, begins his first season as an analyst for select broadcasts. In addition to live coverage of every Cougar game, the following programs can be heard each week on KSL Newsradio.

Greg Wrubell

COACH ROSE ON KSL NEWSRADIO ...

- Coach's Corner with Dave Rose Mondays at 8:45 a.m.
- The Dave Rose Show Mondays from 7-8 p.m.

THE DAVE ROSE SHOW ON KSL-TV

BYU coach Dave Rose's weekly television show airs on Sunday evenings at 11 p.m. on KSL-TV, channel 5 in Salt Lake City and will be rebroadcast on the mtn. (check weekly listings for scheduled air times).

PAINTING THE TOWN

The Cougars have outscored their opponents in the paint in 10 of 14 games this year, recording a +8.4 margin in that category. BYU has posted a double-digit margin in seven games, including a season-best +38 margin (54-16) against Jackson State. All three of BYU's losses on the season have come when the Cougars have been outscored in the paint.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE MISCUE

Despite recording just 0.1 fewer turnovers than their opponents on the year, the Cougars have outscored foes in points off of turnovers in 11 games this season, posting a +7.9 scoring margin in that category. BYU scored a season-best 26 points off of turnovers in its last outing against Loyola Marymount.

FAST AND FURIOUS

BYU has dominated on the fast break this season, outscoring opponents in that category in 12 of 14 games by an average margin 7.0 points per contest. The Cougars scored a season-best 20 fast-break points against Jackson State while tying their season high with a +16 margin. BYU's only two deficits in that category came in losses against No. 1 North Carolina (0-4) and No. 9 Michigan State (0-4).

FROM THE BENCH

BYU's reserves have outscored the opposition's bench only five times this year but they have done it in each of the last three games after seven straight games in a scoring deficit off the bench. In BYU's first nine games with Jonathan Tavernari starting, BYU's bench was outscored by an average of 1.6 points. BYU's reserves have averaged 6.6 more points than the opposition in the five games since Tavernari has been coming off the bench. Overall, the BYU bench has out scored opponent reserves by 1.3 points per game this season, tallying 312 points or 22.3 points per game to opponents' 294 points.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

Including a game-high lead of 34 points against Loyola Marymount in BYU's last outing, the Cougars have posted a double-digit lead in 13 of 14 games and have led by more than 20 points in nine games and more than 30 points in three contests. The lone exception to the double-digit leads came against No. 1 North Carolina when the game-high BYU lead was two points. The Cougars have led wire-to-wire in six games this season.

PRESEASON MWC POLL

The Mountain West Conference released its men's basketball preseason media poll and all-conference team at the league's media day held at the The Mtn. studios in Littleton, Colo. Conference media selected defending regular-season champion BYU to repeat as the MWC men's basketball champion. The Cougars' Trent Plaisted was named to the five-member preseason team and BYU newcomer Jimmer Fredette was tabbed the top freshman. "Obviously, these picks are a compliment to our team as well as to Trent and Jimmer," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "I think this is a tribute to how hard our guys have worked and speaks to the credibility of our program." BYU returns seven lettermen and two starters from last year's 25-9 team that finished the year ranked No. 24 in the final Associated Press Poll. BYU captured 15 of 22 first-place votes and 181 points for the top spot in the preseason media poll. Five MWC teams earned at least one first-place vote. 2007 MWC Tournament champion UNLV (146 points) and Utah (142 points) each earned two first-place votes to finish second and third, respectively, while New Mexico garnered two first-place votes and 128 points to tie for fourth with San Diego State, who received one first-place vote and 128 points. Wyoming collected 120 points to finish sixth, followed by TCU in seventh with 58 points. Air Force was chosen eighth with 54 points, while Colorado State rounded out the poll in ninth place with 33 points. BYU and UNLV earned NCAA Tournament berths last season, while Air Force and San Diego State were NIT participants. The Cougars captured the regular-season Mountain West title with a 13-3 mark and received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament following a runner-up finish in the MWC Tournament. UNLV posted a second-place finish in regular-season play (12-4) and became the second Mountain West team in three years to advance to the Sweet 16, earning the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament after capturing the MWC Tournament crown on their home floor with a win over the Cougars. Overall, the MWC has had 18 NCAA Tournament appearances the past eight years. Since 2003, all nine MWC teams have participated in postseason play at least once.

SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE MWC ...

- BYU has had six 20-win seasons in the first eight seasons, leading all MWC schools. Utah has had five, UNLV four, Air Force, Wyoming and San Diego State three and New Mexico two.
- BYU has had the league's top RPI three times, been second twice and third on three occasions. The Cougars were second last year (18) behind UNLV (10).
- BYU has played the toughest schedule on average of any team in the MWC. Last year, BYU's schedule was rated third behind Utah and UNLV. BYU had the league's toughest schedule in two of the previous three seasons.
- BYU has the second-most overall wins (173, Utah leads at 175).
- BYU is second in conference wins (73, Utah has 75).
- BYU has the second-most MWC regular-season titles (three). Utah leads with four.

IVANOVIC TABBED FOR SERBIAN NATIONAL TEAM

BYU senior Vuk Ivanovic was selected to play on the Serbian National Team for the European Championship. The 6-foot-10 forward/center was one of 32 players on the Serbian roster, including NBA veterans Marko Jaric (Minnesota Timberwolves), Darko Milicic (Memphis Grizzlies) and Sasha Pavlovic (Cleveland Cavaliers). "Vuk answered my call while he was in the lab and couldn't believe that I was calling him to play for the national team," said newly appointed Serbian coach Zoran Slavnic in an interview reported by PA SportsTicker. "We need that kind of patriot, those who love their country, who are ready to play for it and who are great players." Serbia played in Group A of the EuroBasket, which began on Sept. 3, along with defending-champion Greece and Russia. Due to his commitment to the National Team, Ivanovic did not participate in BYU's foreign tour to France Aug. 15-25.

SUMMER FOREIGN TOUR A SUCCESS

The BYU men's basketball team completed a five-game, 11-day foreign tour of France and Monaco in August with a perfect 5-0 record. The Cougars impressed the opposition by scoring 89.2 points per game for a 23.4 average margin of victory. "It was a great trip," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "From a coach's perspective it went just as we wanted. Everyone got to play, and we really played well and shot the ball well." Sophomore forward Jonathan Tavernari paced the team in the scoring column, pouring in 21.4 points per game. Junior forward/center Trent Plaisted followed in point production after his injury-shortened final outing dropped his scoring average of 20.6 over the first three games to 17.5 points for the trip. Tavernari shot 47.8 percent on the trip, including .439 accuracy on threes while making a team-high 15 triples. He added 5.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. Plaisted converted a blazing 65.1 percent of his field-goal attempts and pulled down a team-best 10.3 rebounds per game. Junior guard Lee Cumnard recorded three double-double outings and nearly posted a triple-double while averaging 14.4 points and 9.8 rebounds. Cumnard added 4.6 assists per contest while shooting 60.9 from the floor. He had highs of 19 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists. Senior guard Sam Burgess scored in double figures in every contest, including 22 points on 10-of-12 shooting to lead the team in its last game, which BYU played without Plaisted while he nursed an ankle sprain. Burgess averaged 15 points, 3.6 rebounds and a team-leading 5.2 assists while shooting .615 from the field and .421 from long range. Senior Ben Murdock ran the point while averaging 9.4 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists and made a team-best .474 from behind the three-point arc. Junior forward/center Gavin MacGregor had a strong showing with averages of 10 points, 8.2 rebounds and a team-high .710 shooting percentage. Recently returned missionary Chris Miles, a sophomore forward/center, added 4.2 ppg and 4.2 rpg while senior point guard Chase Ulicny pitched in 0.8 ppg, 1.6 rpg and 1.2 apg. BYU started the trip by defeating the Paris All-Stars, 90-68, on Aug. 17 before earning an 89-59 victory over Lyon BBC on Aug. 20. The next night the Cougars played again in Lyon, defeating Saint Etienne, a Pro B level squad, by a score of 92-73. BYU downed Golfe-Juan in Cannes, 89-68, on Aug. 23 before finishing with an 86-61 victory over AS Monaco on Aug. 24. The team also had the chance to do some sightseeing in France and Monaco. The Cougars spent time in Paris visiting the Eiffel Tower and other sites such as the Louvre Museum and Notre Dame Cathedral. They enjoyed the opportunity to attend Church in Paris. The Cougars also visited Cannes and Monaco before returning home. "The trip was great," Tavernari said. "We got a lot closer as a team, and we got to see some sites. But most important was that we got to practice and play games and get an early start on the season as we get ready to defend our Mountain West Conference title."

MEN'S BASKETBALL HONORED FOR HIGH ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The NCAA honored the BYU men's basketball team with a public recognition award for the Cougars' Academic Progress Rate scores. BYU posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all men's basketball teams in the country. "The athletes have really worked hard at striving to be good students," said E.J. Caffaro, Student Athlete Academic Center director and men's basketball academic coach. "We've worked hard to put together a strong academic program. Their high score is a result of their hard work and the success of that program." Out of the 336 Division I men's basketball programs in the country, BYU is one of 35 to be honored by the NCAA and the only basketball team from Mountain West Conference to receive the recognition. The Cougars are also one of only 10 teams to earn high academic achievement and also qualify for the past year's NCAA Tournament. Other NCAA Tournament teams who also received public recognition awards were Belmont (NCAA No. 15 seed), Holy Cross (No. 13 seed), Davidson (No. 13 seed), Illinois (No. 12 seed), North Carolina (No. 1 seed), Notre Dame (No. 6 seed), Pennsylvania (No. 14 seed), Villanova (No. 9 seed) and Xavier (No. 9 seed).

BURGESS, CUMMARD, PLAISTED NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

BYU men's basketball head coach Dave Rose has announced that senior Sam Burgess and juniors Trent Plaisted and Lee Cummard have been selected to serve as captains on this year's team. "Each of our captains have qualities we really want in all of our players," Rose said. "Sam is a hard worker and tough competitor who leads by example. Trent and Lee have proven their leadership ability both on and off the court over the past two years." Both Cummard and Plaisted are two year starters who received all-conference accolades last season after helping the Cougars win their first outright league title since 1988 and achieve their first national ranking since 1993. A two-time All-MWC Second Team selection and Freshman All-American, Plaisted was second on the team last year in both scoring (12.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.2 rpg). The junior forward/center from San Antonio scored in double figures 21 times while posting three double-doubles on the year in 33 starts. Cummard was named to the All-MWC Third Team last season after starting every game for the Cougars. He averaged 9.4 points, third on the team, on a team-best .553 shooting mark from the field. The junior guard from Mesa, Ariz., also led the team in steals and minutes, was second in assists and blocks and was third in rebounds with 5.6 per contest. He ranked among the top 15 in the conference in seven statistical categories. After redshirting the 2005-06 season, Burgess provided a spark off the bench for the Cougars last year, playing in 31 of 34 games and averaging 3.6 points and 1.5 rebounds in 10.2 minutes of action. The senior guard from Alpine, Utah, came on especially strong during BYU's run to the conference championship, playing double-digit minutes in eight of the Cougars' last 12 outings. The best-conditioned perimeter player on the team the past two seasons, Burgess averaged 15.0 points and 5.2 assists per game while shooting .615 from the floor during BYU's successful tour of France over the summer.

SIGNING DAY

Forward Noah Hartssock and guard/forward Charles Abouo (pronounced a-BOO-oh) have signed National Letters of Intent while guard Jackson Emery has signed a scholarship agreement to return to the Cougars. Hartssock, who previously signed with BYU out of high school, and Emery, who played for the Cougars as a freshman in 2005-06, are both currently serving as missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. "I feel really good about this group of players," Rose said. "Jackson was an important part of our success as a freshman and got a lot of good experience that he will build upon when he returns. Noah and Charles are both talented student-athletes who will add a lot to our program." A native of Bartlesville, Okla., the 6-foot-8 Hartssock had the third-best scoring average in the state with 27.6 points per game as a senior at Bartlesville High School in 2005-06 while earning 6A Coaches Player of the Year and Tulsa World Player of the Year honors. Oklahoma's Jim Thorpe Award winner and a McDonald's High School All-America nominee, Hartssock added 8.0 rebounds and 3.7 blocks per contest as a senior. An extremely athletic wing from Logan, Utah, Abouo is averaging double figures, including a team-high 17 points in his last outing, for Brewster Academy (Wolfeboro, N.H.) this year after helping Logan High School win Region 11 titles in each of his three varsity seasons. The 6-foot-4 swingman was named the 3A MVP by the Deseret Morning News last spring after averaging 21.1 points, 10.2 rebounds and 3.2 steals per game as a senior at Logan High School. Described as explosive and athletic, Abouo was a two-time first-team all-state selection at LHS who also earned All-Valley Player of the Year honors as a junior in 2005-06 when he averaged 15.6 ppg, 7.7 rpg and 1.1 bpg. Known for his competitiveness and clutch play, Emery is a quick player and solid defender with outstanding leaping ability. The Alpine, Utah, native provided a consistent spark for BYU and was a top perimeter defender as a true freshman in 2005-06, playing in 28 of 29 games with six starts. He averaged 2.8 points and 1.5 rebounds while scoring in double figures twice and leading BYU in rebounds and assists once each. A good shooter from long range, Emery also has the athleticism and creativity to convert inside when going to the basket. The 6-foot-3 guard out of Lone Peak High School was named the top player in Class 4A in 2005 and received the 2005 Mr. Basketball Award (Deseret Morning News), given to the athlete considered to be the top high school player in Utah.

INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS AT BYU

- Including junior transfer Archie Rose, 27 international players have played basketball at BYU.
- The Cougars have had an international player on their varsity roster in 36 of the past 56 years.
- In the last six years, BYU has rostered seven international players, including three on this season's team – Vuk Ivanovic (Serbia), Jonathan Tavernari (Brazil) and Archie Rose (Bahamas).
- Foreign players at BYU have received eight all-conference citations, two conference player of the year awards (Timo Saarelainen – 1985, Rafael Araujo – 2004) and eight All-America citations (Kresimir Cosic – 1972 and 1973, Rafael Araujo – 2004).
- According to a book about basketball in Finland by Mikko Simon, BYU has the distinction of being the first NCAA Division I school to have an overseas player on its roster when Timo Lampen, a native of Lahti, Finland, took the court for the Cougars in 1960-61.
- BYU also boasts the first foreign All-American in Kresimir Cosic, whose BYU jersey was retired on March 4. The Zadar, Yugoslavia, native played on the Cougar varsity team from 1971-73 and earned six All-America citations and three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference awards. He is the only BYU player to be inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame. Cosic passed away in 1995.
- During the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, CBS Television analyst Billy Packer singled out Cosic during a discussion of the quality of international players now playing college basketball. Said Packer, "Kresimir Cosic, who played for BYU, was really the first great international player to play basketball in the United States."

COUGARS BRING CHRISTMAS CHEER TO LOCAL FAMILIES

PROVO, Utah (Dec. 19, 2007) – For the ninth year, the BYU men's basketball team joined the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation in an effort to raise money for families who have children with cancer and participate in the Foundation's annual Christmas party for those families. The Foundation has been collecting monetary donations and unwrapped toys since the beginning of December. One hundred percent of all donations to the Foundation went directly towards the Christmas party, which was held Wednesday for more than 90 families who have children with cancer living primarily in Utah County. A large portion of the money donated purchased hundreds of toys that will enable these parents to have gifts under the Christmas tree for their children. In addition to all of these toys, there was food, free entertainment, such as games and ornament decorating, and local celebrities including Santa, Cosmo and the BYU men's basketball team. This is the ninth year BYU coaches, players and their families have volunteered for the Christmas party. BYU head coach Dave Rose served as Honorary Chairman for the third year. "This has always been a cause I feel strongly about," said BYU coach Dave Rose. "It has been such a positive experience for the coaches, players and families and is a tremendous opportunity for community members to be involved in brightening the holiday season for these children." Cheryl Rose, vice chairman of the Foundation and wife of coach Rose, discussed the challenges these families face financially and how the Foundation hopes to help these families now and in the future. "For many of these families, it is financially impossible to always have food on the table, a roof over their heads or even have Christmas," Cheryl Rose said. "We want to create a Christmas experience that they will never forget and hopefully in the future help families meet those basic needs that they can't on their own." In addition to the presents the families received, Rose said the event is also a blessing for all of those involved. "This is the most exciting part of my job as the coach's wife," she said. "It's such a joy to be involved. Our lives are blessed so much by what happens here. We love these families and these children." Of course, the party, which started with just 15 families 10 years ago, would not be possible without the donations made by community members. "The support we get from the community makes this event possible," Cheryl Rose said. "We couldn't serve these children without the donations of time, money and gifts we receive. We even had some school children this year who drew pictures for the kids because they didn't have any money to donate but wanted to help. It's such an amazing experience to see the outpouring of love and support we get from the community. It really helps these parents know that they're not fighting this fight alone."

A tireless worker, gifted motivator and strong strategist, Dave Rose has guided BYU to consecutive 20-win seasons and the program's first national ranking since 1993 after succeeding Steve Cleveland as BYU Men's Basketball Head Coach on April 11, 2005.

Rose coached last year's team to a 25-9 overall record and the MWC regular-season title (13-3) while earning his second consecutive MWC Coach of the Year award. He was district and conference coach of the year in his first season at the Cougar helm in 2005-06. Taking over a 9-21 team, Rose's Cougar squad was picked to finish last in his first season in the Mountain West Conference (preseason poll of MWC media members) but BYU instead earned a 20-9 record and NIT bid in 2005-06.

06 under Rose's tutelage, including a 12-4 conference mark to tie for second place. His team ranked second nationally for the most improvement over the year before.

Rose was named the USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year and received honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com. He was named MWC Coach of the Year by the league's media and coaches and by CollegeInsider.com. In a column on ESPN.com, Pat Forde listed Rose as one of the top first-year coaches in the nation, ranking Rose No. 3 among the nearly 40 first-year coaches in college basketball in 2005-06.

Rose, who served the prior eight seasons as Cleveland's lead assistant in Provo, was promoted to BYU's head job two days after Cleveland announced his resignation to take the head-coaching position at Fresno State. Rose served as BYU's associate head coach for five seasons and took over the Cougar program with 22 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach at the junior college and high school levels.

Since coming to Provo in 1997 with Cleveland, Rose played a vital role in rebuilding BYU's program from an inherited 1-25 team into a regular NCAA Tournament participant and 20-game winner. BYU has qualified for postseason play in seven of the past eight seasons, including four NCAA bids, while claiming three MWC titles. As associate head coach, Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, and his efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Rose was the team's defensive coordinator and worked with the post players. He possesses a complete knowledge of the game and worked hard in developing the team's defensive game plans. An outstanding teacher, he coached defensive skill development and implemented the defensive game plan. BYU was the top defensive team in the Mountain West Conference two of the four seasons Rose oversaw the defense.

A strong evaluator of talent with a vast network of coaching connections across the country, Rose managed BYU's recruiting efforts during his eight seasons as an assistant. Rose's success as a recruiter was evidenced by his being named one of the top 25 college basketball recruiters in 2004 by Rivals.com. The 2004 class was rated No. 17 nationally and No. 3 in the West by Rivals.com. The 2000 recruiting class also ranked in the top 20 nationally. Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 10 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 10 years Rose has been in Provo. Including Rafael Araujo being named the league's top newcomer by the MWC media members in 2003 (the MWC discontinued the newcomer award that year), seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year. The following is the list of player honors earned the last 10 seasons by Cougar recruits in their first seasons in Provo.

- Jonathan Tavernari (2006-07 MWC Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Plaisted (2005-06 MWC Freshman of the Year, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Mike Hall (2003-04 MWC Defensive Player of the Year, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Rafael Araujo (2002-03 Newcomer of the Year, MWC media poll, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Jared Jensen (2001-02 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-01 MWC Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year, All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Sellaize (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)

Rose has also worked closely with scheduling. BYU has played many of the nation's top teams over the past several years thanks in part to relationships Rose has developed with programs across the country. His efforts have helped the Cougars receive invitations to tournaments like the 2004 EA SPORTS Maui Invitational where BYU faced that season's NCAA Champion North Carolina.

Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was head coach at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, where he compiled a 167-57 record in seven seasons. Rose guided six of his seven teams to national top-20 rankings, including a ranking as high as No. 2, while earning three conference titles. His peers honored him as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as longtime NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU he has recruited and coached two NBA Draft picks in Rafael Araujo and Travis Hansen.

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose becomes the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie College before transferring to Houston, where he was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished second in the NCAA Tournament. At Houston, Rose played in 1980-81, redshirted in 1981-82 and played his final year in 1982-83.

At Dixie, Rose was first-team all-league in both basketball and baseball. Rose was also the Region 18 batting champion, hitting .421 as a center fielder. While playing basketball for Houston's Northbrook High School, he led the District 16AAAA in scoring, was selected first-team all-district and All-Greater Houston and was named team MVP.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Daughter Chanell played forward on the BYU women's basketball team from 2000-03 and is married to Brock Reichner. Rose's wife Cheryl is actively involved in helping families who have children with cancer as vice chairperson of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. Rose served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie College. His son Garrett returned in August 2005 from a two-year mission in Little Rock, Ark., and married his wife Brooke in November 2006. Rose also has a daughter, Taylor, who is a seventh grader at Centennial Middle School.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dave Rose was one of the first coaches in Utah to become involved with Coaches vs. Cancer. He helps the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation and has been a volunteer coach for youth groups. He served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. Dave and his wife Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community. She received the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005. After Dave got her involved, she now serves as the Vice Chairperson for the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation.

COMMENTING ON ROSE

"Dave Rose is one of the best coaches I have ever known. He is not only the best at preparing you to succeed against your opponent by preparing game plans but also the greatest motivator I have ever been around. He has a special way to communicate with the players and instill confidence that enables you to play at the highest level every game. When my career at BYU came to an end, he continued to help me choose an agent, go to NBA camps and NBA workouts and begin my professional career. He never stopped supporting and believing in me. I will always be grateful for what he has done for me and continues to do for me now."
 - Travis Hansen, Former BYU Cougar and Atlanta Hawk, playing professionally in Russia

"I have never been around a coach who had a feel for what makes each player tick like Coach Rose. The game plans he prepared were usually right on, and if we executed them we won the game. He is a coach that you not only want to play for but also would sacrifice almost anything for. He has been one of the most influential people in my basketball career, and I will forever benefit from his lessons on basketball and life. I've never seen any other coach like him."
 - Mark Bigelow, Former BYU Cougar, playing professionally in Spain

"Dave Rose has done an outstanding job of establishing BYU as one of the premier programs in the Western United States. He's an outstanding teacher of the game, and equally important, is an outstanding person who demands the most out of his players both on and off the court. He's a credit to the coaching profession, and BYU is very fortunate to have him as its coach."
 - UCLA Head Coach Ben Howland

"I'm impressed with the preparation of BYU and the poise they demonstrate. That's definitely a credit to Dave Rose and his coaching staff. Rose looks young, but he's got a lot of experience. He's done a nice job as a head coach ... He has experience at the highest levels of college basketball, both as a player and a coach."
 - ESPN Game Analyst Steve Levin

WORTH NOTING

- Dave Rose has a .741 winning percentage as a college head coach (223-78), including an 11-3 record this season, a 25-9 (.735) mark last year, a 20-9 (.690) season in his first year at BYU and a 167-57 (.746) record in seven seasons at Dixie State College.
- Dave Rose was named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year each of his first two seasons, becoming the first-ever BYU men's basketball coach to win back-to-back league coach-of-the-year honors.
- BYU was the second-most improved team in the nation in 2005-06 under Rose and his coaching staff in their first season.
- The BYU coaching staff has more than 60 years of combined coaching experience.
- The BYU coaching staff has playing experience in NCAA Final Fours, including a National Championship.
- The BYU coaching staff has played with or coached 27 NBA players.

PLAYER SUMMARY: A 2007 All-Mountain West Conference Third Team selection, Cummard is a good athlete with a natural feel for the game who started all 34 games for the Mountain West Conference Champion Cougars as a sophomore. An all-around contributor, he led the team in shooting, steals and minutes while ranking second in assists and blocks and third in scoring and rebounds. He also ranked among the top 15 in the MWC in seven statistical categories. Cummard contributed significantly for the Cougars in his first season, making 14 starts, after some experts rated him as the top shooting guard prospect in the West in 2004. Known as a fierce competitor, Cummard has good ball-handling skills, excellent shooting range and the toughness to rebound and finish in traffic.
