BYU HOSTS LOYOLA MARYMOUNT FRIDAY IN REGULAR-SEASON OPENER

After two exhibition victories, BYU coach Dave Rose will put his team on the floor to open the regular season Friday against Loyola Marymount University. The game is set to tip at 7:05 p.m. MST in the Marriott Center in Provo, Utah.

The game will be broadcast live on KSL Newsradio, which can be heard on 102.7 FM or 1160 AM. Greg Wrubell and Mark Durrant will call the game, which is also available online at KSL.com.

"It was a good experience for our team to play two pretty disciplined teams in our exhibition games." BYU coach Dave Rose said. "Loyola Marymount is an experienced team with two senior starters, plus a redshirt JC starter and two redshirt juniors. They have good perimeter players. Loyola likes to push the ball and get it up and down the floor. It should be an exciting game."

The Lions are coached by Rodney Tention, who is in his first year after eight seasons as an assistant to Lute Olson at Arizona.

In BYU's two exhibition wins, a freshman led the team in scoring. Redshirt freshman Trent Plaisted led BYU against Seattle Pacific with 27 points while Lee Cummard paced the Cougars with 23 points against Victoria. Plaisted added 12 rebounds in BYU's 86-72 win over Seattle Pacific. Cummard made 10-of-16 shots while adding five rebounds, four assists and two steals in 27 minutes in an 81-54 victory over the University of Victoria.

UP NEXT

BYU will play its road opener on Tuesday (8 p.m. MST) against Washington State. The game will be played in Spokane at Spokane Arena, which is where the Cougars faced Connecticut in the 2003 NCAA Tournament.

LOOKING AT LOYOLA MARYMOUNT

The Lions return 12 of 13 players from last season's 11-17 team that finished 8th in the West Coast Conference, including four starters and four seniors. Junior forward Matthew Knight is back after leading LMU with 15.4 points per game last year while earning Honorable Mention All-WCC honors. The 6-foot-8 Australian was sixth in the league in field goal percentage last season, hitting 51.2 percent of his shots from the floor, and 11th in rebounding, averaging 5.9 per game. He scored 21 points and pulled down eight rebounds in the Lions' exhibition win over Cal State San Bernardino. Knight will be joined on the court by junior point guard Brandon Worthy, who led all scorers with 22 points while dishing out 10 assists in LMU's win over the Coyotes. Worthy, a 6-foot-2 California native, was fifth in the conference in assists last year, averaging 3.74 per contest, and second in steals with 2.00 per game while scoring 11.8 ppg. LMU also returns its second-leading rebounder from last season in junior forward Daryl Pelgram, who pulled down 4.3 boards per game. Senior Chris Ayer, a 6-foot-10 center, should also help the Lions this season as he recorded eight rebounds and 13 points in just 20 minutes of action against CSSB. The Lions will be without the services of graduated guard Charles Brown, who was third on the team in scoring with 10.4 ppg. As a team, LMU scored 67.8 ppg on 41.4 percent shooting from the field last season while allowing opponents to score 70.6 ppg. The Lions were outrebounded 36.3 to 33.6 but led the league in steals, averaging 8.71 per game. Rodney Tention begins his first season as head coach of the Lions in 2005-06 after eight years as an assistant at Arizona.

LAST OUTING - Lions Roar in Exhibition Win

LOS ANGELES (Nov. 12, 2005) - Loyola Marymount debuted its new up-tempo offense Saturday night in an 86-72 exhibition win over Cal State San Bernardino. The Lions were led by four players in double figures, including junior Brandon Worthy with 22 points and 10 assists, while junior Matthew Knight added 21 points and eight rebounds. Knight and senior Chris Ayer, who added 13 points with eight rebounds to the score-sheet, used their size down low to outscore the Coyotes 42-26 in the paint. "We will take an ugly win," said first-year LMU head coach Rodney Tention. "Every game we want to establish the inside and it was even more of a focus tonight as we had an advantage down low. We did a good job in using our size as an advantage." The size also helped the Lions on the boards as they finished with a 44-23 edge in rebounding. The Lions finished with 12 offensive rebounds that led to 18 second-chance points. "We are committed to rebounding," said Tention. "That is an important part of us establishing the inside game." LMU jumped out early, taking a lead as large as 20 with 1:47 left in the first half after a Wes Wardrop, who finished with 11 points, six rebounds and five assists, three-pointer. The Lions went into the locker room with a 46-30 lead. The Coyotes climbed back into thanks in large part to 24 turnovers by the Lions. Rummel Clark-Watts cut the Lions once double-digit lead to just seven, 79-72, with 4:24 remaining. "We turned the ball over a little too much," said Tention. "We showed that we can score some points. The biggest thing for us is to cut down on the turnovers." With the lead at just seven, the Lions defense stiffened and did not allow a point the rest of the way. Knight picked up one of his three offensive rebounds and put in a lay-up with 3:29 remaining to make it a nine-point game, 81-72, and he then hit a pair of free throws with 1:54 to put the lead back to double figures.

EXHIBITION NUMBERS

The Cougars made nearly half of their overall attempts in their two exhibition games, going 66-of-133 for a .496 field-goal percentage. They shot .385 from long range, going 10-for-26. From the line, BYU shot .658 while making 38 trips to the charity stripe in the two outings. While BYU has only played two unofficial exhibitions to date, the Cougars seem to be responding well to the new attacking-style offense in terms of assist/turnover ratio compared to last season. The Cougars averaged 21 assists per game in their two exhibitions, compared to 12.3 assists last season (and 16.5 in last year's two exhibition wins). BYU averaged 12.0 turnovers in this year's exhibitions compared to 14.6 turnovers per game last year (and 17.5 turnovers in last year's two exhibitions).

AINGE TURNS IN SOLID ASSIST/TURNOVER RATIO

Junior guard Austin Ainge recorded eight assists against Seattle Pacific with only one turnover, which came with 16 seconds left in the game.

BLOCKED SHOTS

BYU recorded six blocks in each of its two exhibition games. The Cougars only reached that mark once all of last season with seven against Utah State.

FRESHMEN SHOW PROMISE IN EXHIBITION WINS

Both of the Cougars' exhibition games showcased rising stars as two freshmen led the team in scoring. Trent Plaisted led BYU against Seattle Pacific with 27 points while Lee Cummard paced the Cougars with 23 points against Victoria.

COUGARS FINISHING STRONG IN SECOND HALF

BYU used a 19-4 second-half run to build a 60-39 cushion and cruise to the 81-54 victory over Victoria. After a 39.4 percent shooting performance in the first half, the Cougars warmed up to sink 60 percent of their shots from the floor in the second half. In BYU's second exhibition win over Seattle Pacific, the Cougars scored 53 points in the second half, their highest point output (though unofficial) in a half since Dec. 31, 2004 when they scored 59 in the second half against Santa Clara.

SCORING FOR THE COUGARS

In BYU's two exhibition wins, Trent Plaisted and Jimmy Balderson were the two Cougars to score in double figures in both outings. By average, Plaisted averaged 19 points and Balderson 11.5 over those two games. Lee Cummard, who boasts a 15.5 average in the two games, with a 23-point performance and an eight-point effort, is the third Cougar to average double figures in the two exhibition wins.

NEWCOMERS PLAY WELL IN EXHIBITION OPENER

A trio of newcomers helped BYU open exhibition play with an 81-54 victory over the University of Victoria at the Marriott Center in front of 8,407 fans. Freshman Lee Cummard led the way for the Cougars with 23 points in his debut, fueling a second-half surge that turned a tight first half into a blowout. With 19 of his game-high total coming in the second frame, Cummard paced BYU to outscore the Vikes by 23 points in the final 20 minutes while adding five rebounds, four assists and two steals. Trent Plaisted, a freshman who received a medical redshirt last season after playing in five games, showed his return to full health by posting 11 points and six rebounds as the starting center. Junior-college transfer Fernando Malaman made his presence felt early, scoring seven points in his first 2:20 of playing time while adding a rebound and a block. The 6-foot-7 junior from Limeira, Brazil, finished with 11 points on 5-of-6 shooting and had two blocks.

NOTABLES FROM VICTORIA GAME

- Freshman Lee Cummard didn't take long to get involved in the Cougar offense, compiling two assists in the first 1:40 of the contest. Cummard earned the first assist on the first possession when he dished to Trent Plaisted for the first points of the game. On BYU's second possession Cummard scored on a tip-in off of a Plaisted miss. That was only the beginning for the freshman as he finished with 23 points as the game's leading scorer.
- Junior Keena Young led the Cougars with three steals.
- Four players led BYU with six rebounds each. Junior guards Austin Ainge and Jimmy Balderson shared honors with the redshirt freshmen post players Trent Plaisted and David Burgess. Burgess led BYU with 11 rebounds at Cougar Tipoff.
- Senior Brock Reichner dished out a team-best five assists while adding eight points.

SAM BURGESS TO REDSHIRT

Junior guard Sam Burgess will redshirt the upcoming season. The 6-foot-3 guard from Alpine, Utah, is one of nine juniors on the roster this year. Junior Vuk Ivanovic will also redshirt while he sits out the season due to NCAA transfer rules. Burgess scored a game-high 21 points at Cougar Tipoff, the team's annual blue-white scrimmage. He went 7-for-12 from the floor, including 4-for-6 on threes, and was 3-of-4 from the line while adding five rebounds, one assist and one steal in 33 minutes on the floor.

"As a coach there are guys you love to coach and Sam is that kind of player," Rose explained. "He has a competitive spirit, is a good athlete and plays to win. He also has the mental toughness to use this year the best. He will work hard and improve and still help our team this season (in practice). He is plenty good enough to play this year but with so many players in this class, we needed to address that situation. As a staff, we feel this will help our team in the long run and also be good for Sam. We want to invest in Sam and commit to him another year. In that third year, he's going to be a player who will really help us."

In the last eight seasons Dave Rose was serving as an assistant at BYU, the Cougars were 7-1 in season openers and 4-0 when opening at home.

BYU'S LAST OUTING — Plaisted Leads BYU to Exhibition Win over Seattle Pacific

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 10, 2005) – Trent Plaisted had a double-double while leading BYU to an 86-72 roller-coaster victory over Seattle Pacific University in an exhibition game Thursday night. BYU head coach Dave Rose said the Cougars showed resilience in coming from behind to beat the feisty Falcons. "I thought initially we didn't do so well but we responded and came back," Rose said. "I like how we were able to play through an adverse situation." SPU led much of the game, putting together several runs to get a pair of double-digit leads. But depth prevailed as the Falcons ran out of gas and BYU ran away with the victory. The win improved the Cougars' exhibition record to 2-0. The Falcons are now 1-1 in exhibition games. Led by Dustin Brememan, who scored nine first-half points, Seattle Pacific started the game on a 15-3 run in the first 3:20 of the first half. BYU countered with its own 8-1 run triggered by two Keena Young blocks on one SPU possession that energized the Cougars and turned into a fast break and a Jimmy Balderson three-pointer on the other end. Lee Cummard's fast-break dunk cut the Falcons' lead to one at 20-19. Seattle Pacific remained steady throughout the first half and didn't give up its lead until the 6:19 point in the first half when Jackson Emery's two foul shots gave the Cougars a 21-20 lead. The one-point margin was only BYU's second lead of the game and its first since the 19:23 mark. SPU, led by Robbie Will, answered back with six consecutive points to regain the lead and take a 35-33 advantage into halftime. The Falcons lead marked the first time since 2002 that the Cougars went into halftime trailing in an exhibition game. Like the start of the game, SPU came out in the second half firing on all cylinders. Brememan nailed a three-pointer to cap a 12-2 run while extending the Falcons' lead to 47-35 and forcing the Cougars to take a time out. BYU countered with a 14-1 run of its own capped by a Plaisted three-point play to turn a two-point deficit into a one-point lead. When Balderson nailed a three-pointer with 10:42 remaining, the Cougars grabbed a 54-53 lead, which BYU would never relinquish as the Cougars pushed it to a game-high six points when Rashaun Broadus went coast-to-coast to put BYU ahead 59-53 and force an SPU timeout. Plaisted led all scorers and rebounders with 27 points and 12 boards. He is the first Cougar to record a double-double since Derek Dawes scored 14 points and grabbed 10 rebounds against New Mexico last January. Balderson added 13 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the field. "I was really pleased with Trent," Rose said. "You want to have young guys have big breakout games." SPU was led by the one-two punch of Will and Brememan who combined for 41 points and 15 rebounds.

Dave Rose was named to succeed Steve Cleveland as BYU Men's Basketball Head Coach on April 11, 2005.

Rose, who has served the past eight seasons as Cleveland's lead assistant, was promoted to BYU's head job two days after Cleveland announced his resignation to take the head-coaching position at Fresno State. A tireless worker, gifted motivator and strong strategist, Rose served as associate head coach the past five seasons and takes over the BYU program with 22 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach at the junior college and high school levels.

Since coming to Provo in 1997 along with Steve Cleveland, Rose has played a vital role in rebuilding BYU's program from an inherited 1-25 team into a regular NCAA Tournament participant and 20-game winner. BYU has qualified for postseason play five of the past six seasons, including three NCAA bids, while claiming two MWC titles. As associate head coach, Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under coach Cleveland and his efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Rose was the team's defensive coordinator and worked with the post players. He possesses a complete knowledge of the game and worked hard in developing the team's defensive game plans. An outstanding teacher, he coached defensive skill development and implemented the defensive game plan. With Rose overseeing the defense, BYU has been the top defensive team in the Mountain West Conference two of the past four seasons.

A strong evaluator of talent with a vast network of coaching connections across the country, Rose has managed BYU's recruiting efforts the past eight seasons. Rose's success as a recruiter is evidenced by his being named one of the top 25 college basketball recruiters in 2004 by Rivals.com. Each year the Cougars have brought in talented newcomers to contribute to and take advantage of the BYU program. The 2004 class was rated No. 17 nationally and No. 3 in the West by Rivals.com. The 2000 recruiting class also ranked in the top-20 nationally.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, eight recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major conference award in their first season as a Cougar in the eight years Rose has been in Provo. Including Rafael Araujo being named the league's top newcomer by the MWC media members in 2003 (the MWC discontinued the newcomer award that year), five BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Mike Hall was named the 2004 MWC Defensive Player of the Year. Below is the list of player honors earned the last eight seasons by Cougar recruits in their first seasons in Provo.

- Mike Hall (2003-04 MWC Defensive Player of the Year; third-team All-MWC)
- Rafael Araujo (2002-2003 Newcomer of the Year by MWC media poll, third-team All-MWC)
- Jared Jensen (2001-2002 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-2001 MWC Newcomer Team, second-team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year; All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year; Newcomer Team, second-team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Selleaze (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year; Newcomer Team, second-team All-WAC)

Rose has also worked closely with scheduling. BYU has played many of the nation's top teams over the past several years, thanks in part to relationships Rose has developed with programs across the country. His efforts have helped the Cougars receive invitations to tournaments like the 2004 EA SPORTS Maui Invitational, where BYU faced eventual NCAA Champion North Carolina.

Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was head coach at Dixie College in St. George, Utah. Rose compiled a 167-57 record in seven seasons as head coach at Dixie. Rose guided six of his seven teams to national top-20 rankings, including a ranking as high as No. 2, while earning three conference titles. His peers honored him as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as longtime NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU he recruited and coached two future NBA Draft picks in Rafael Araujo and Travis Hansen.

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose becomes the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 372-254 record from 1949-1972 and also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER:

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie College before transferring to Houston, where he was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished second in the NCAA tournament. At Houston, Rose played in 1980-81, redshirted in 1981-82, and played his final year in 1982-83.

At Dixie, Rose was first team all-league in both basketball and baseball. Rose was also the Region 18 batting champion hitting .421 as a center fielder. While playing basketball for Houston's Northbrook High School, he led the District 16AAAA in scoring, was selected first team all district and All-Greater Houston, and was named team MVP.

PERSONAL:

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose, 47, is married to the former Cheryl Lang and they have three children and one granddaughter. Daughter Chanell played forward on the BYU women's basketball team from 2000-2003 and is married to Brock Reichner, who is a guard on the BYU team. Rose's wife Cheryl is actively involved in helping families who have children with cancer as vice chairperson of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. Rose follows Cleveland as the second returned missionary to serve as BYU men's basketball head coach. Rose served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie College. His son Garrett returns in August 2005 from his two-year mission in Little Rock, Ark.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dave Rose was one of the first coaches in Utah to become involved with Coaches vs. Cancer while at Dixie State College. He helps the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation and has been a volunteer coach for youth groups. He served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. Dave and his wife Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community. She received the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005. After Dave got her involved, she now serves as the Vice Chairperson for the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. She served on the Utah State Substance Abuse Committee of Higher Education and was on the Washington County Substance Abuse Prevention Team. She spoke across the region about substance abuse while fulfilling an appointment by the U.S. Department of Education as the Regional Coordinator for the Network of Colleges and Universities Committee to the Elimination of Drug and Alcohol Abuse on Campus, serving Utah, Arizona and Nevada. Cheryl has also served on the Women's Conference Board, including a stint as Charwomen in 1995. Other involvements have included the Washington County Fair Queen Pageant Committee and being the longtime chairwomen for the Miss Santa Clara Pageant.

COMMENTING ON ROSE

"Dave Rose is one of the best coaches I have ever known. He is not only the best at preparing you to succeed against your opponent by preparing game plans but also the greatest motivator I have ever been around. He has a special way to communicate with the players and instill confidence that enables you to play at the highest level every game. When my career at BYU came to an end, he continued to help me choose an agent, go to NBA camps and NBA workouts and begin my professional career. He never stopped supporting and believing in me. I will always be grateful for what he has done for me and continues to do for me now."

- Travis Hansen, Former BYU Cougar and Atlanta Hawk, who played in Spain last year

"I have never been around a coach who had a feel for what makes each player tick like Coach Rose. The game plans he prepared were usually right on, and if we executed them we won the game. He is a coach that you not only want to play for but also would sacrifice almost anything for. He has been one of the most influential people in my basketball career, and I will forever benefit from his lessons on basketball and life. I've never seen any other coach like him."

- Mark Bigelow, Former BYU Cougar, currently playing professionally in Spain

"Coach Rose is one of the main reasons why I came to BYU. He saw me play in junior college, and because of his great vision and recruiting skills, I came to BYU. I enjoyed working with Coach Rose. He taught me a lot. He's a great coach."

- Rafael Araujo, Former BYU Cougar and current Toronto Raptor
