SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

BYU are 13-5 overall and 2-1 in Mountain West Conference play after having its nation-best 44 game homecourt victory streak snapped by Utah last Saturday. The Cougars opened MWC play with a home win over UNLV and a road triumph at San Diego State. New Mexico falls to 7-10 overall and 1-3 in the MWC after losing to UNLV late Monday night on ESPN. Despite a 40-point performance by Ruben Douglas and a nine-point halftime lead, the Lobos were unable to hold off the Rebels. New Mexico defeated San Diego State at home and lost at CSU and Wyoming in its other MWC games. The loss at Wyoming came in overtime. BYU leads the all-time series between the two teams, 62-47, and has won five of the last six games, including the last two meetings in Provo.

NEW MEXICO LOBOS

New Mexico is 7-10 overall and 1-3 in the MWC after a 75-66 setback to UNLV, despite 40 points from senior guard Ruben Douglas. The Lobos defeated San Diego State at home for its lone MWC win but also suffered a tough loss at league-leader Wyoming, dropping a four-point decision in overtime. The Lobos have won two of their last three. They are 7-5 at home and 0-5 on the road. New Mexico has dropped 12 straight road games with the last victory away from Albuquerque being at Colorado State on Jan. 28, 2002. The last time New Mexico lost 13 straight away games was in a 14-game slide during the 1980-81 and 1981-82 seasons. Ritchie McKay (Seattle Pacific '87) is in his first season at New Mexico . He has also headed the programs at Portland State (1996-98), Colorado State (1998-2000) and Oregon State (2000-02). He has a career record of 90-99. While at Mountain West Conference member CSU, McKay led the Rams to the 1999 NIT. McKay was 1-1 in his career against BYU while coaching at Colorado State. He replaced Fran Fraschilla at UNM. Fraschilla was 55-41 in three seasons, from 1999-2002. The Lobos are led by senior guard Ruben Douglas , who is enjoying one of the most prolific offensive seasons in New Mexico's history. He is averaging 31 ppg over the past 5 games and is third in the nation in scoring overall at 26.2 ppg. He should become the first Lobo to average more than 20 points a game for an entire season since Hunter Greene in 1986-87. Highlighted by Douglas, the Lobos return three starters but only one is currently starting for coach McKay and is no longer able to play because of a series injury. Lobo senior guard Sengue Carey (East Palo Alto, Calif.) had surgery Jan. 27 to remove a disc between vertebrae in his neck. The procedure took place at the Stanford Medical Center and his rehabilitation could take up to 18 months. Carey suffered a spinal cord injury on Nov. 25 in a game against Northwestern (La.) State. After 13 days of paralysis in his legs from Nov. 25-Dec. 7, Carey attended a Lobo practice on Sunday, Dec. 8, and walked with assistance. Carey played in all 30 games last season after transferring from the University of Washington. He started 20 games overall, including the final 16. Carey's absence has left the Lobos with just 10 players, including two walk-ons. Seven of the 10 players are in their first year at UNM. McKay used a different starting linuep in its first 12 games and 14 separate units in the first 15 contests but has used the same starting five in its past three games: Ruben Douglas, Jamaal Williams, Javin Tindall, Ryan Ashcraft and David Chiotti. Williams is the only other Lobo in double figures at 13.1 ppg. Douglas pulls down 5.9 rebounds with Williams grabbing 5.8 and Mark Walters 5.7. Chad Bell (6-11, 255, So.), who had some starting experience last year, has five starts this year. Eleven of 12 Lobos to play this year have started a game. New Mexico is shooting 42 percent from the floor, 34.6 percent on threes and 69.5 percent from the line. The Lobos are allowing opponents to shoot .466 on field goals, including .333 on threes. They average 70.2 ppg while being slightly outscored at 70.4. New Mexico has been out-rebounded by an average of 2.7 boards per game. New Mexico has taken good care of the ball, committing only 12.9 turnovers per game, which ranks 28th in the nation. The Lobos have an all-time record of 1,189-938 (.560).

SERIES TIDBITS

This will be the 110th game in the series that started in the 1949-50 season. BYU has won five of the last six games after New Mexico had won 8 of th prior 9 contests. BYU had a string of four straight wins come to an end with UNM's victory at The Pit last January. The Lobos had their own four-game streak in the series prior to BYU's. New Mexico's last win in Provo was a 78-74 win in in 2000, which was BYU's last loss in the Marriott Center prior to starting its 44-game nation-leading homecourt victory string that was ended Saturday vs. Utah. BYU has won the last two games in Provo but is only 4-6 at home vs. the Lobos in the last 10 outings in the Marriott Center. BYU is 41-16 in Provo overall and leads the all-time series, 62-47. # LAST GAME - BYU STAGES COMEBACK TO DOWN LOBOS

PROVO, Utah (Feb. 16, 2002) - BYU came out on top over New Mexico 68-62 at the Marriott Center Saturday afternoon in a seesaw battle that saw the Cougars repeatedly battle back from behind to win their 33rd straight home game. Down 51-39 with 13 minutes remaining in the game, BYU went on a tear outscoring the Lobos 29-11 to come away with the victory. Before the victory, BYU had not come back to win a game when trailing with five minutes left (0-6 for the season entering the game). New Mexico led 57-53 with five minutes remaining today. Cougar Travis Hansen led the comeback, scoring 14 in the second half to finish with a gamehigh 20 points. Hansen also spurred his teammates on with four assists, one shy of his career high of five. Mark Bigelow also came around in the second half as he scored 10 points in the last period. He finished with 14 points, marking his fifth consecutive game in double figures. In contrast to Hansen and Bigelow, Eric Nielsen led all scorers at the half with 10 points but didn't score at all in the second and only took one shot. The Cougars as a team shot 49 percent from the field but only 20 percent from three-point range for the game. Matt Montague led all players with eight assists as he continues to be a national leader in assists per game (apg). He averages 7. 5 apg which is good for third nationally. Cougar center Dan Howard again provided solid play off the bench, scoring three points and grabbing two rebounds in 12 minutes of play. Against SDSU, Howard had eight points and seven rebounds in 17 minutes, making this backto-back performance the most impressive of his career. The outcome of the game was never clear as each team scored in spurts. Down 7-4, BYU went on a 10-3 run to go up 14-10 with 12:27 left in the first half. New Mexico then went on an 11-4 run to make the score 21-18 at the 6:31 mark of the first half. Another Cougar run, 7-4, brought them into the lead, 25-24, before the teams ultimately ended the half in a tie, 34-34. New Mexico started the second half with a 17-5 run of their own to make the score 51-39 with 13 minutes left in the game. From there, BYU battled back with their impressive run of 29-11 to defeat the Lobos for the fifth time in six meetings. The win gives the Cougars a split with New Mexico for the season as BYU lost 73-58 down at The Pit in Albuquerque Jan. 19.

WHAT COACH STEVE CLEVELAND HAD TO SAY IN PROVO LAST YEAR ...

"This game said something about the character of the team. I told our players after the game that this may be the most gratifying win of the season. I was really pleased with the way Travis and Mark made big baskets toward the end. We played really, really intelligent ball in the last minutes of the game."

LAST YEAR AT UNM - BIG LOBO SECOND HALF TOO MUCH FOR BYU

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (Jan. 19, 2002) - BYU fell 73-58 to New Mexico at The Pit Saturday. The Cougars took a one-point lead into the locker room at the half but were outscored 42-26 to lose the game by 15, their worst loss of the season. BYU (12-4, 2-1) fell victim to a hot-shooting New Mexico team that made 53 percent from the field for the game. The Lobos (12-4, 2-0) got solid contributions from their guards, with Ruben Douglas, Eric Chatfield and Tim Lightfoot each scoring 13 points in the contest. A bright spot for the Cougars continues to be Jared Jensen, who had a game-high 15 points in 24 minutes of play. Jensen got little help from the outside, however, as BYU struggled from the floor. BYU was 24for-54 from the floor and made only 3-of-13 three-pointers. Mark Bigelow failed to extend his BYU record of 22 consecutive games with a three-pointer. Bigelow also ended his string of 14 straight games in double figures. He was 2-7 with four points, a season low. "It was tough," said Jensen. "Obviously, we're disappointed a little bit but we still have unity, we're still going to go out and compete. We've got to keep this thing rolling." The Cougars came out aggressive and sharp in the first half, going toe-to-toe with the sharp-shooting Lobos. Cougar forward Eric Nielsen was 2-2 from beyond the arc, equaling the career-best effort he had against Stanford this season. He finished the game with 10 points, his fifth straight game in double figures. Travis Hansen had six early points, including an authoritative one-handed dunk over Lobo center Chad Bell. But Hansen - like the rest of the Cougars - cooled off in the second half, not scoring again until 6:47 remained in the game. New Mexico went on a 12-2 run to start the second half, going up 43-34 and never looking back. The hot-shooting Lobos shot nearly 60 percent in the second half, compared to BYU's 41 percent. Free throws also plaqued the Cougars as they only shot 58 percent from the line on 7-for-12 shooting, their worst effort since Jan. 13, 2001, when they shot 50 percent against SDSU. BYU guard Daniel Bobik, however, pushed his free throw streak to 24 on 2-for-2 shooting, passing Hansen's previous season high of 23. Senior guard Matt Montague dished out 11 assists, his fourth double-digit assist game this year and second-highest total behind the career-high 15 assists he had against the University of Idaho. He also grabbed six boards to lead the team in rebounding for the second time in the last three games.

WHAT COACH STEVE CLEVELAND HAD TO SAY AT NEW MEXICO LAST YEAR ...

" They made shots tonight, even when they were contested. Offensively, they had good balance. We competed with a lot more energy in the first half than in the second. Part of making plays is making shots when the game is on the line."

BYU'S LAST GAME - HOME VICTORY STREAK ENDS AS UTES PREVAIL

PROVO, Utah (January 25, 2003) -- BYU fell to the University of Utah at home last Saturday, 79-75, snapping the nation's longest homecourt winning streak at 44 games. On hand was the Cougars' largest crowd of the year -- 21,412. BYU's last loss in the Marriott Center was a 78-74 victory by New Mexico on Feb. 17, 2000. Utah guard Mark Jackson hit four free throws in the final 18.7 seconds to seal the victory for the Utes, who played the game without head coach Rick Majerus. The Utah coach was attending the funeral of former Utah player Andre Miller's stepfather. Jackson led Utah in scoring with 17 points, including 13-for-13 from the free throw line. "It felt really good to win this game. Coach Majerus did a great job putting together a game plan and the players executed it well," said Utah assistant coach Kerry Rupp, who guided the Utes in Majerus' absence. In a game so closely played, neither team held a lead of more than seven points. It came down to the free throw line where the Utes eventually put the game away. "I've never seen Utah play better this season than they played today at both ends of the floor," said BYU head coach Steve Cleveland. "I will give them full credit." The Utes held on to a three-point lead courtesy of a Nick Jacobson trey in the final seconds. Jacobson led the way for Utah in the first half, scoring the team's last seven points of the half. The second half was as tightly played as the first. The two teams traded buckets most of the final period leading up to the dramatic finish and Jackson's four charity tosses. The Cougars cut the Utah lead to two, 77-75, on a jam by Araujo, but had to foul and Jackson knocked down two more for the Utes. Travis Hansen led BYU with his second double-double of the season with 21 points and 12 rebounds. Hansen made a career-high 14 free throws, missing only once, making many of those late in the game to counter Ute baskets. Rafael Araujo was one rebound away from a doubledouble performance of his own with 19 points and nine boards. Mark Bigelow added three more treys to his total (148) and scored 16 points while Ricky Bower added 10. "I didn't feel like we played poorly at any time, I just felt like there were times late in the game when we didn't take care of the ball," Cleveland said. "You have got to do those things to win close ball games." Utah big man Tim Frost scored 16 points including two big threes, stretching BYU's defense. Jacobsen finished with 13 and Britton Johnsen totaled 12 points and 12 rebounds. Utah freshman forward Bryant Markson played only seven minutes but scored six points in the second half to help the Utes stay on top. With the win Utah improves to 14-4 overall and 2-1 in the MWC. Utah also takes a one-game lead in the overall series record against BYU at 117-116.

UP NEXT FOR BYU

BYU will host Air Force Monday at 8:30 p.m. The game is not being televised. The Falcons enter a Saturday night game at Utah with a 10-7 record and 1-3 mark in the MWC. The Falcons have played well, dropping two 2-point road losses at CSU and Wyoming and gaining a home victory over UNLV. They opened MWC play with a home loss to San Diego State. Air Force leads the nation in scoring defense, yielding only 54 points per game. The Falcons are No. 8 nationally in three-point shooting.

COMBO GUARD MICHAEL ROSE SIGNS WITH COUGARS

During the early signing period in November, BYU signed Michael Rose, a 6-foot-1 combo guard out of Spring Woods High School in Houston Texas. A four-year starter, Rose averaged 16.3 points, five rebounds and three assists playing shooting guard as a junior. A preseason All Greater Houston First Team selection, Rose will play point guard his senior season. He has earned first-team All-District 21 5A honors the past two seasons and was the team MVP in 2002. He has helped his team to secondplace District 21 finishes the past two years. In is first season, he was named District 21 Freshman of the Year. Rose has played four years on the Houston Hoops summer AAU team that also features top-five recruits Ndidi Eby and Kendrick Perkins. As the team's starting shooting guard, Rose averaged 14 points and helped the team earn a No. 1 national rating for much of the summer. The team placed second at two of the nation's larger invitational tournaments, finishing as the runner-up at both the Nike Peach Jam in Augusta, Ga., and Nike Super Showcase in Orlando, Fla. A great shooter, Rose is one of the 16 finalists still alive in Cuttino Mobley's Clutch City Shootout. Sponsored by the Houston Rockets and generating more than 300 participants, the Shootout allows Houston-area 4A and 5A high school basketball players the opportunity to compete in a series of three-point shooting contests. Rose is scheduled to shoot at halftime of the Rockets' Jan. 13 game. Earlier this month, he connected on 14 consecutive three-point shots during a scrimmage while scoring 56 points. Rose possesses a strong academic resume, ranking second in his class of 365 seniors. He was recruited by Houston, St. Louis, Utah State, Colorado State, Texas Christian, Texas A&M, Tennessee and Illinois. Rose was the only player to sign with BYU during the early signing period. He is the nephew of BYU Associate Head Coach Dave Rose.

BYU'S NATION-LEADING HOME WINNING STREAK COMES TO AN END

BYU won a school-record 44 straight home games in the Marriott Center before losing to Utah, 79-75 last Saturday. The streak was the longest active streak in the country over part of last season and this season. BYU's last home loss prior to the steak starting was on Feb. 17, 2000 when New Mexico edged the Cougars 78-74. BYU defeated 18 straight MWC teams during the streak, which began with an 83-82 win over UNLV on Feb. 19, 2000. BYU continues its string of non-conference home wins. The Cougars have defeated 34 straight nonconference opponents in the Marriott Center since starting the streak with a 61-59 win over Utah State on Jan. 2, 1999. The last non-league foe to win in Provo was the California Bears, who edged BYU 71-70 on Dec. 19, 1998. BYU went 16-0 at home last season and was 15-0 the prior year. BYU has had a perfect home record seven seasons since the Marriott Center opened for the 1971-72 season. The past two years, however, marks the first time it has happened in back-to-back seasons. Last year's team tied the BYUsingle-season record with 16 home wins and was only the fourth Cougar squad to win more than 14 home games in a season. The 1987-88 Ladell Andersen squad went 16-2 in the Marriott Center.

BIGELOW SETS CAREER THREE-POINT RECORD AT SAN DIEGO STATE

Junior swingman Mark Bigelow equaled his career-best 5 triples in a game at San Diego State to surpass BYU assistant coach Andy Toolson (141) as BYU's career three-point leader. Bigelow now has 148 treys. Bigelow leads BYU with 39 threes this year while shooting a career-best 46.4 percent from long range. He has made a combined 42.2 percent (148-351) overall on threes.

BIGELOW, HANSEN MOVING UP SCORING CHARTS

Mark Bigelow become the 34th Cougar and only ninth junior to reach 1,000 career points vs. SUU. He moved into a tie for 26th place with John Fairchild (1,106) with his 16 points vs. Utah, passing Mark Handy (1,099), and Terrell Lyday (1,105). He needs three points to pass Gary Earnest (1,109), which would put him among BYU's top-25 scorers, 12 points to overtake Joe Richey (1,117) and 23 points to surpass Steve Schreiner (1,128). Senior Travis Hansen has 884 career points despite an injury-shortened first season at BYU as a sophomore. He will become the 35th Cougar to reach 1,000 points before the end of the regular season if he continues his team-leading scoring pace.

He went 11-for-20 from the field (55 percent) and registered a career-high three steals. The 17 boards and 11field goals are both currently tied for the second-highest output by an MWC player this year. Araujo led the Cougars in scoring for the second straight game with 17 points on 8-of-11 field goals and seven boards in the 93-60 win over Southern Utah.

MWC TEAMS HAD STRONG NON-CONFERENCE SEASON

During non-league play the Mountain West Conference proved that the predictions are true of this being the best, top-to-bottom, the league has been in its four years. Frank Burlison, the respected national college basketball writer for Foxsports.com, was quoted by Steve Guiremand in the Las Vegas Sun, stating, "To me it's pretty clear-cut that (the Mountain West Conference) is the best conference in the West this year. It's better than the Pac-10." Six of eight MWC teams had 10 or more wins and seven have at least nine wins. The league's worst record was New Mexico's 5-8 mark but the Lobos have one of the top players in the league in Ruben Douglas and showed at Tennessee in a closely contested defeat that they are not going to be push-overs. Five teams had 11 or more wins, including 12-3 Wyoming, who won nine straight before losing at No. 14 Kansas. Playing a greater percentage of non-conference road games than the Big East, SEC, Pac-10, Big Ten, Big 12 and ACC, MWC teams achieved a 14-18 road record (44 percent) - the highest non-conference road winning percentage in the league's history. The non-league road record ranked third nationally behind only the Big 12 (16-8) and ACC (6-6).

BYU PLAYED MAJORITY OF NON-CONFERENCE GAMES AWAY FROM HOME

BYU played eight games away from home and seven in the Marriott Center during the non-conference schedule, earning an 11-4 overall record with a perfect 7-0 home mark and a 4-4 record away from Provo. Wyoming was the only Mountain West team to play as many road games during the preseason as BYU. The Cowboys were also the only MWC team to win more non-league games away from home, going 5-3. The Cougars earned their 4-4 record playing the toughest non-league schedule of any MWC team. Air Force played seven road games, going 3-4; Utah played six, going 3-3; SDSU, UNLV and CSU all played half as many road games as BYU, earning 3-1, 3-1 and 0-4 records, respectively. New Mexico played the fewest road games, going winless in three games away from The Pit.

BYU ON THE ROAD

BYUIs 2-3 on the road this year, with a three-game road losing skid sanwiched between victories at Arizona State and San Diego State. Counting neutral court games, BYU is 5-4 away from the Marriott Center. With its three wins at the Paradise Jam – BYU achieved its first win streak away from home since the end of the 2001 season.

BYU VS. ITS CONFERENCE PEERS

BYU was picked to finish fourth this year in the Mountain West Conference by the league's media members. BYU has a won 58.3 percent (420-300) of its games all-time vs. MWC opponents. As an overall athletic program, BYU has dominated the Mountain West in its first three seasons, winning 63 percent of all MWC titles, including the 2001 men's basketball championship.

CLEVELAND'S CONFERENCE RECORD

After opening MWC play with two wins, BYU coach Steve Cleveland has evened his conference (WAC/MWC) record before falling to 36-37 with the loss to Utah. Taking over after BYU's 1-25 season, Cleveland improved BYU's conference record in each of his first four seasons and exceeded many expectations with only one returning starter on last year's team that finished fourth with a 7-7 record. Cleveland has had a .500 conference record five times (1-1, 2-2, 29-29, 34-34, and 36-36). He has had an overall winning conference record twice (1-0, 2-1). Cleveland is 23-19 (.548) in MWC games only.

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF BYU BASKETBALL

BYU is celebrating 100 years of basketball. Since the first season of BYU basketball in 1903, BYU entered this season having achieved a 1440-927 (.608) overall record with 21 different coaches at the helm. The combined efforts of these men have provided the Cougars with 80 winning seasons in 100 years. BYU has won 25 conference titles and made 28 postseason tournament appearances with 19 NCAA bids and nine NIT berths. The Cougars won the 1951 and 1966 NIT titles and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA tournament in 1981, highlighted by Danny Ainge's length-of-the-court dash to defeat Notre Dame at the buzzer. Ainge was named the nation's top player as the John Wooden Award and Eastman Award winner. Twenty-three players have received All-America recognition while NBA teams have selected a Cougar 41 times in its annual draft. BYU has the nation's 11th longest rivalry, dating back to 1909, against the University of Utah. BYU has the series for only the third time with its win this year, holding a one-game edge at 117-116. For more information on BYU's 100-year history, please consult the 2002-03 BYUmedia guide.

BYU AMONG TOP-40 AII-TIME WINNINGEST BASKETBALL PROGRAMS

With its all-time record of 1440-927 (.608), BYU is the ranked 40th all-time in winning percentage among all Division I basketball programs. In terms of total wins, BYU is in the top 25. The Cougars have had 80 winning seasons in their 100-year basketball history and have made 28 postseason appearances, including 19 NCAA bids, and won 25 conference championships.

TRAVIS HANSEN / 6-6 • 210 • senior • guard/forward

 Hansen is an MWC Player of the Year candidate and BYU's lone senior. He is an extremely athletic and explosive player who can create his own shot or knock down the three. Last year he was the team's best player when he led the Cougars in scoring (15.6) and rebounding (6.2), earning second-team All-MWC honors.

• Hansen's wife LaRee gave birth to their first child, Ryder Scott, on Jan. 23. He was 6 pounds, 8 ounces and 18 inches long. • This year Hansen leads BYU in scoring (15.8) and assists (2.8) and is second in rebounding (5.0). He usually draws the assignment to guard the opponent's top perimeter player and is strong enough to also switch over and guard the four position.

• He has had three of his top-five career assist games this season with a career-tying 5 assists vs. Toledo, UCSB and Pepperdine. • He has scored in double figures a team-leading 17 times this year, including 14 straight games, and has led BYU in scoring eight games, last with his 21 points vs. Utah. He failed to score in double figures for the only time this year with 9 points vs. Rice, ending 11 straight double-digit games dating back to last season.

• He reached 20 points for the fourth time this year vs. Utah, making a career-best 14 free throws on 15 attempts while recording his second double double (also 12 pts, 12 rbs vs. SBU) of the year with 12 boards. He had a solid all-around game, adding 4 assists, 2 steals and a career-high 3 blocks, including a crowd-pleasing swat a Britton Johnsen drive to the hoop.

• He contributed in nearly every way vs. Pepperdine with 17 points, 6 boards, 5 assists, 2 blocks and 2 steals. One block was a spectacular rejection of a fast-break dunk attempt that Hansen controlled himself to keep the ball from going out of bounds. He equaled a career high for threes made in a game when he connected three times from long range vs. SUU.

• He scored eight of BYU's final 12 points and assisted two of the other four points in a win at ASU, going 8-11 from the floor and 7-8 from the line to score a season-high 23 points.

MARK BIGELOW / 6-7 • 195 • junior • forward/guard

• Bigelow is an all-MWC candidate who was honorable mention All-MWC last year after being BYU's leading scorer (15.0) and rebounder (6.3) and WAC Pacific Division Freshman of the Year and All-WAC Second Team in 1998-99 before going on a mission to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. He is an excellent shooter and moves well without the ball.

This year he has reached double digits in 14 games and is the second-leading scorer (13.3) and tied for third in rebounds (3.6).
He tied his season-high 21 points in the first two MWC games, the fourth time in his career and first time this year he has had back-to-back 20-point outings. He made four triples at Creighton, scoring a season-high 21 points. With BYU trailing 30-22, he made three consecutive treys to give BYU the lead at 31-30. He made 10 straight points for BYU vs. USU, the second time he has scored 10 straight Cougar points this year (also at Creighton).

• He tied a career-high 5 treys and became BYU's career three-point leader at SDSU, scoring 21 points on 8-16 shooting. He went 7-7 from the line and made 4 treys on his way to 21 points vs. UNLV.

• He has a team-leading 39 threes. With 148 career treys, Bigelow is BYU's career leader, passing current BYUassist coach Andy Toolson (141). He did not attempt a three for the first game of his career at ASU, ending 11 straight games with a three dating back to last season. He has made a three in his last eight games. He holds the BYU record for consecutive games with a three at 22 (carrying over freshman season to his sophomore campaign).

• Against SUU, he became the 34th Cougars and only ninth junior to reach 1,000 career points.

· He had a season-high 8 rebounds and 5 assists vs. USD.

JARED JENSEN / 6-9 • 250 • sophomore • forward/center

• Jensen is an all-conference candidate who earned MWC Co-Freshman of the Year honors last year while finishing first in the Mountain West Conference with a team-leading 59.1 field goal percentage. He is a talented offensive player in the low-post who can also score with his jumper.

• This year Jensen is fourth on the team in scoring (8.1) and tied for third in rebounding (3.6).

He has started in all but two games. He didn't start vs. St. Bonaventure due to its guard-oriented pressing defense, but scored a team-high 15 minutes with 6 rebounds, including many key plays in the final minutes. He didn't start at Weber State in an effort to keep either him or Araujo on the floor, but he played only 14 minutes and equaled a season-low 2 points.
He returned to the starting lineup vs. Rice and had 18 points in 18 minutes on 6-for-6 shooting (first Cougar in nearly two years to be perfect with at least six attempts - Jake Shoff later went 6-6 vs. Pepperdine and Mark Bigelow 7-7 vs. UNLV).
He scored 7 straight points vs. Rice to give BYU a 13-point lead as part of an 18-1 first-half run that blew open the game.

• He had his fourth straight double-digit scoring game at ASU and got BYU going early with 10 first-half points. Since the four straight double-figure games, he has only reached double-digits twice in the last 13 games, including eight straight until scoring 11 points vs. UNLV. His scoring production has dipped primarily because he has not gotten the same number of shots, due in large part to the emergence of center Rafael Araujo. He has shot 50 percent or better in 15 of 18 games.

He had his worst shooting night of the season going 1-7 at SDSU but contributed with five points from the line, 3 rebounds and a career-high 3 assists. He played only nine minutes vs. Utah because of foul trouble, going 2-2 from the floor and line.
He had a season-high 7 boards vs. Idaho State. He is 26-36 (.722) in the Marriott Center this year. He went 5-5 from the line vs. Utah State. Both of his buckets and three of his four attempts vs. Oklahoma State were mid-range jumpers.

• He is shooting 89 percent from the line, 45 percent on threes and 46 percent from the floor. • He played a key role in his only start vs. St. Bonaventure, helping handle the Bonnies pressure defense.

• He made 13 consecutive free throws over eight games before missing the second of four attempts vs. SUU. He went 6-6 from the line late vs. Utah State to keep the Cougars on top.

• He equaled season highs with five rebounds, four assists and two threes vs. SUU, scoring nine points in 22 minutes. His trey with 1:49 left vs. SUU was BYU's 14th of the game, a new school record.

• He hit a big shot in the corner at ASU during a BYU run.

• He was the sub of the game with 9 points and 2 assists in 15 minutes vs. Oklahoma State.

• He had his fourth double-figure scoring game with 10 points vs. Utah. He had a career-high 13 points in only 10 minutes vs. Idaho State, making a season-best 4 triples.

• This year Jepsen has played in 11 games. He has not played in the last three games and four of the last five. He missed his first game since his freshman season vs. St. Bonaventure. He had played in 32 straight games since not playing vs. Tulsa as a freshman in the 1998 WAC Tournament in Las Vegas.

• He grabbed three rebounds in back-to-back games vs. SUU and Pepperdine despite playing no more than seven minutes in either game. He scored 5 points and had 3 rebounds and 1 steal in 7 minutes vs. SUU after not seeing action in the two prior games.

TERRY NASHIF / 5-10 • 165 • sophomore • point guard

 Nashif appeared in 21 of 30 games last year, averaging 2.9 minutes as a reserve behind senior point guard Matt Montague. He played a season-high 10 minutes twice last year. A smart player and good distributor of the ball, he has a nice shot from three-point range and is perhaps BYU's best ballhandler.

This year Nashif has played in every game and started in the last four.
He set career highs in points (11), field goals made (3), threes made (3), threes taken (3), field goal percentage and three-point percentage (3-3), and minutes played (30) at SDSU in BYU's win. He helped BYU get out to a fast start, hitting three treys as BYU hit its first seven threes of the game. His 3-3 treys was the first time a Cougar has been perfect on at least three attempts since Daniel Bobik went 4-4 at Memphis in the 2002 NIT. It was the first time he had made more than one three in a game and the first time he had taken more than two trey attempts.

• Drawing the assignment to guard the UNLV's Marcus Banks, he had career highs of 2 blocks and 7 assists with only 1 turnover, with 4 boards and 2 points.

• He got his first-ever start vs. Idaho State, playing 27 minutes, hitting a trey and dishing out 3 assists with 3 rebounds.

• He played 23 minutes vs. St. Bonaventure and had a key steal and bucket to help BYU claim the Paradise Jam title.

• He reached double figures for the first time with 10 points vs. Rice, adding a personal-best five rebounds and five assists and two steals. He sparked BYUoff the bench vs UCSB and SUU. He scored 9 points on 3-4 shooting vs. UCSB and had 6 points and tied career highs with 2 steals and had 5 assists on some crowd-pleasing passes in 17 minutes vs. SUU.

LUIZ LEMES / 6-3 • 180 • junior • combo guard

• A combo guard and outstanding outside shooter, Lemes is a junior at BYU after transferring from Eastern Oklahoma State College in Wilburton, Okla. He earned first-team NJCAA All-Region 2 honors last season at EOSC, leading the Mountaineers to back-to-back Region 2 Tournament runner-up finishes with records of 23-8 and 25-7. He played point guard as a freshman before being moved to the wing to take advantage of his shooting ability. He made 66 threes last season from the wing.

 This year Lemes has played mostly limited minutes. He received the most playing time vs. SUU, Pepperdine and Rice. · He played 18 minutes with 3 points vs. Southern Utah after not appearing at USF.

• He played the point for the first time this season vs. Pepperdine and logged a season-high 21 minutes, starting the second half after hitting two threes during a 16-7 BYU run to end the half.

• After not having taken a shot in BYU's first three games, he logged 20 minutes in the home-opening win over Rice, scoring his first points as a Cougar with 7 points on 3-4 shooting. He sparked BYU's decisive first-half run vs. Rice when he stole a Rice pass and went the length of the court for a layup for his first bucket. On the next offensive possession, he connected on his first three-point attempt of the year giving the Cougars a 23-17 lead.

• At Creighton, he had one assist and hit his only attempt, a trey, to start a 12-3 Cougar run that included four three-pointers, three by Mark Bigelow, to help BYUregain the lead at 31-30 in the first half.

• He is 5-11 on threes this year but hasn't taken a field goal attempt in the last two games he has played.

Steve Cleveland is in his sixth year at the helm of the Cougars. During his tenure at BYU, Cleveland has proven to be a first-rate recruiter, an excellent coach and player developer, and above all, a winner.

Last year Cleveland guiding BYU to its third postseason tournament appearance in the last three years, advancing to the second round of the NIT before losing at eventual champion Memphis. In 2001, Cleveland guided BYU to its first NCAA tournament bid since 1995, its first conference regular season title since 1993 and its first conference tournament championship since 1992. While rebuilding a program that finished 1-25 before his arrival, he has posted records of 9-21, 12-16, 22-11, 24-9 and 18-12. Last year's team earned a victory over No. 13 Stanford and advanced to the NIT despite having lost four starters, six of its top seven players and 75 percent of its point production from the year before.

The 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 seasons both rank among of the school's best years ever in terms of wins. In fact, since BYU's first season in 1903, only five BYU teams have ever recorded more wins than the 24-9 team in 2000-01 and only seven have improved upon the 22-11 record in 1999-2000.

Cleveland has brought the magic of the Marriott Center back in Provo. The Cougars enter the 2002-03 season with the nation's longest home victory streak at 36 games, including back-to-back unbeaten seasons of 15-0 and 16-0. Cleveland's teams have traditionally been prepared to play their best at the end of the season. Last year BYU earned its third straight postseason tournament bid, winning in the first round of the NIT before losing at eventual NIT champion Memphis. In 2000-01, BYU won five straight games on the road to secure a share of the MWC regular season title and earn the automatic NCAA bid by claiming the MWC Tournament in Las Vegas. The Cougars won six of their last eight games the prior season, including two MWC tournament wins and two NIT victories. In Cleveland's first year, BYU completed a rare sweep of New Mexico and UTEP on the road to earn a WAC tournament berth. The road sweep of New Mexico and UTEP was the first for BYU since 1990-91 and the 83-62 upset of No.15-ranked New Mexico in the Pit ended the Lobos' 41game home winning streak. In Cleveland's second season the Cougars had a blowout win over UTEP before a 90-74 conference tournament upset victory over TCU to achieve BYU's first conference tournament win since 1994.

Cleveland's teams have advanced to the finals of the MWC tournament in two of the three seasons the event has been played, winning the title in 2001.

As a recruiter, Cleveland has made a similar impact on BYU's program. Cleveland's recruits have proven they are not only committed to Cleveland's vision but also are the kind of players to help make that vision a reality in Provo. Cleveland and his staff have been able to attract top talent from Utah and beyond.

Cleveland has a string of top conference newcomers. Six players have earned conference newcomer honors in Cleveland's five years as the Cougar coach, including four who have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year.

- Jared Jensen (2001-2002 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-2001 MWC Newcomer Team, 2nd Team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year, All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd Team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Selleaze (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd Team AII-WAC)

In October 2001, Cleveland signed a multi-year contract extension with BYU. Before taking the helm with the Cougars on March 11, 1997, Cleveland compiled a 157-77 record at Fresno City College in Fresno, Calif. Cleveland was named coach of the year two times while at FCC and led the Rams to post-season playoffs in each of his seven seasons in Fresno. Cleveland coached 10 years at Fresno's Clovis West High School, compiling a 180-70 record.

PLAYING CAREER

Cleveland played college basketball at UC Irvine and was the Anteaters' MVP and leading scorer his senior season in 1975-76. Prior to attending UC Irvine, Cleveland was Fresno City College's Most Outstanding Player in 1973-74. Cleveland received a B.A. degree in social science from UC Irvine in 1976, and received a Master's in education administration from Fresno Pacific in 1979.

PERSONAL

Cleveland, 50, was born in the Los Angeles area and spent most of his life in Fresno, Calif. He served a full-time mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to England from 1971-73. Cleveland was the first head basketball or football coach at BYU to have served a church mission. Cleveland and his wife Kip have three children: sons Casey (24) and Skyler (21) and daughter Katie (12).
