SAN DIEGO ST ATE AZTECS

San Diego State (12-9, 3-5 M W C) adds some talented newcomers to three returning starters and six lettermen from last year's 21-12 team that advanced to the NCAA tournament after winning the M ountain W est Conference Tournament title. The Aztecs got off to their best start since 1996-97 at 11-4, including a 2-0 mark in the M WC, before losing five of their last six games, beginning with the loss to BYU in San Diego. The Aztecs started league play at 2-0 for the first time since the 1995-96 season (first time in seven seasons). The Aztecs completed the first half of M ountain W est Conference play with a 3-4 record. Coming off a loss at Utah Saturday, the Aztecs are now 4-3 on the road this season and have won seven of their last 11 road games. Throw in neutral site games and SDSU has won nine of the last 13 away from Cox Arena. The Aztecs haven't fared well in the state of Utah, however. Only twice have the Aztecs so much as split the trip - defeating BYU in the first game of the 1984-85 swing and winning at Utah in the first game of the 1981-82 trip and SDSU has never won both games. In fact, the Aztecs have never won the second game of the swing, going 0-21. The Aztecs sport one of the nation's most experienced backcourts in seniors Tony Bland and Deandre M oore. B oth have played in more than 100 career games and are among the conference leaders in many categories. Bland scores a team-leading 16.0 ppg while M oore adds 8.0 ppg and 4.3 assists per outing. San Diego State's inside game is led by senior M ike M ackell. He averages a 15.7 ppg , and 4.8 rebounds. The reigning M W C Player of the W eek, Aerick Sanders has started all 21 games this season at the power forward spot. The junior is third in the league in rebounding at 8.6 rpg and posts 6.6 ppg . He has produced 13 games with nine or more rebounds. The fifth starting spot had been largely determined by match-ups, being filled by wing players freshman Steve Sir and M cDonald's All-American freshman E van Burns or sophomores Tommy J ohnson and Travis Hanour. SDSU scores 71.2 ppg while allowing 68.3. The Aztecs shoot . 449 on field goals, including . 347 on threes, and convert . 676 from the free throw line. Defensively, the Aztecs surrender a . 434 percentage to its opponents, including . 352 on threes. On the boards, SDSU averages 36.4 to its opponents 30.5.

SAN DIEGO (J anuary 20, 2003) -- BYU got a big night from M ark Bigelow as the Cougars beat the San Diego State Aztecs, 80-69, at Cox Arena M onday. With the win, the Cougars improved to 13-4 overall and 2-0 in M WC play. With 15:51 in the first half, Bigelow tied BYU assistant coach Andy Toolson with his 141st career three-pointer. M inutes later at 13:59, Bigelow became BYU's all-time leader on another bomb assisted from Terry Nashif following a steal by Rafael Araujo. Bigelow put down three more triples on the night to equal his single-game career high of five and bring his career total to 145 threes. BYU hit its first seven three-pointers and was 8 -of-10 in the first half to build a lead as large as 19 points. After trailing 7-5 early, the Cougars went on a $25-4$ run over the next seven minutes and earned its largest lead of the game at 30-11 on a Ricky Bower trey with 9:28 to play first half. SDSU fought back, outscoring BYU 20-11 the rest of the first half, including a Deandre M oore three just before the buzzer, to cut the Cougar lead to 10 at the break. The Aztecs out-rebounded BYU and held Araujo and J ared J ensen to 15 points combined with constant double and triple teaming, but could not overcome the Cougars' hot outside shooting. With Araujo on the bench in foul trouble, BYU looked to its perimeter shooting. The Cougars shot 10-17 from behind the arc for 58.8 percent for the game. Overall BYU shot 48.9 percent from the field. Bigelow scored over 20 points for the second straight game by equaling his season high of 21 points. For Bigelow, it's the fourth time in his career he has produced back-to-back 20 -point games. Travis Hansen spent most of the game in foul trouble but played the last 10 minutes with four fouls. Hansen finished the game with 14 points and four rebounds. Guard Terry Nashif got the start again, guiding the Cougar offense and turning in a career-high 11 points on the strength of 3 -for- 3 threepoint shooting. BYU scored 80 points for the fourth time this season -- winning all four games. The Cougars are 26-4 under Cleveland when they score over 80 points. Senior guard Tony Bland led the Aztecs with 25 points. Center Mike M ackell took advantage in the paint while Araujo was on the bench scoring 18 points and grabbing six rebounds. The Aztecs dropped to 11-5 overall and 1-1 in MWC play.

WHAT BYU COACH STEVE CLEVELAND HADTOSAY AFTER THE FIRST MEETING THIS YEAR ... "W e knew SDSU would double team the post and leave our shooters open. Anytime you score 80 points on the road that's pretty good in this league."

WHAT SDSU COACH STEVE FISHER HADTOSAY AFTER THE FIRST MEETING THIS YEAR ... "We got whipped by a pretty good team tonight."

LAST YEAR IN PROVO-JENSEN LIFTS BYU TOWIN TO OPEN MWC PROVO, Utah (J an. 12, 2001) - BYU began its conference season with a solid $75-64$ win over San Diego State in Provo. The Cougars (11-3, 1-0) trailed 4-0 early on but took the lead 5-4 at the 16:45 mark of the first half and never trailed again. San Diego (10-5, 0-1) stuck close to $B Y U$, however, trailing only 63-59 with 3:18 remaining in the game. The Cougars secured the win with solid ball handling and 9 -of-11 shooting from the free throw line in the last three minutes. BYU got a lift from the 19,411 fans who crowded into the M arriott Center. The Cougars were sparked by the solid play of center J ared J ensen, who contributed 17 points and played solid defense. The Cougars' scoring was balanced, headed by BYU guard Travis Hansen's 19 points. Mark Bigelow added 13 points and extended his streak of continuous games with a three pointer to 21, tying former Cougar Terrell Lyday's record set at the start of the 1999-2000 season. Eric Nielsen added 11 points while point guard $M$ att $M$ ontague led the team with eight rebounds and six assists. M ontague also scored eight points, three of those coming from a stunning NBA-distance three pointer to beat the shot clock with 5:26 to play in the first half. The first half saw BYU consistently maintain a 10 -point lead as the two teams battled back and forth throughout. The Cougars had a seven-point edge at halftime, a lead they pushed to 54-37 with 12 minutes remaining in the game. The Aztecs battled back with scrappy play and solid rebounding, grabbing a total of 44 rebounds against BYU's 28. Four consecutive points by Aztec forward Randy Holcomb, who led all scorers with 21 points, brought the Aztecs within four with 3:18 remaining, but they would not get any closer.

WHAT BYUCOACH STEVE CLEVELAND HAD TO SAY IN PROVOLAST YEAR ...

"The first thing that comes to mind is that tonight's game is the way a conference game is and this was a really, really good team that we played. They are talented, they are well coached and they are very difficult to guard. These are tough games and I just can't say enough about how important the last four or five minutes of ball possession meant to us. We got great energy from the crowd and we got a great effort from our iron men down the stretch. They have a lot of players that can hurt you, and J ared's (J ensen) effort tonight was probably the difference maker in the game."

WHAT SDSU COACH STEVE FISHER HADTOSAY IN PROVOLAST YEAR ...

"We still had chances and I think we still have to do a better job - all of us. Against a good team like BYU, if you don't play close to your best, you're not going to win. At halftime we talked about the ' $X$ ' factor being J ensen. Y ou can't let him get double figures in the first half."

BYU'S LAST GAME - POOR SHOOTING, TURNOVERS DOOM COUGARS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (February 14, 2003) -- The UNLV Runnin' Rebels didn't show any love to BYU Valentine's night in Las Vegas, handing the Cougars their first conference road loss of the season 61-54. "Turnovers and missed shots are a bad combination; you can't do that on the road and expect to win," said BYU head coach Steve Cleveland. BYU played well defensively and outrebounded UNLV 47-31 on the night, but its 23 turnovers were the most since the team lost at Creighton 74-64 earlier this season. BYU held UNLV to 40 percent shooting in their own gym, including 25 percent from behind the three-point arc. The Cougars' poor shooting and a season-high-equaling 23 turnovers led to their lowest scoring output of the season. BYU shot a seasonlow 34.5 percent as a team from the field and 25 percent from the three-point line. Marcus Banks and Dalron J ohnson led UNLV with 19 points apiece. J ohnson did most of his scoring before intermission, while Banks took over in the second half. Travis Hansen led BYU with 18 points. The only other Cougar in double figures was J ared J ensen with 12 points. Cleveland said the team looked tired, having played their third game in seven days. "We haven't practiced very much this week, and obviously it caught with us tonight," Cleveland said. The game was tied at 27 after one half, and featured six lead changes and six ties. UNLV scored first in the second half, and never trailed the rest of the game. The Rebels pushed the lead to 16 in the second half before the Cougars cut it to seven to end the game. J unior forward $M$ ark Bigelow was held scoreless in the first half, and finished the game with only four points, on 1-14 shooting (0-6 three pointers). Bigelow came in shooting 45 percent from the floor and 51 percent on threes in league games, and 44 percent on field goals and 48 percent on threes overall. The loss drops BYU to 6-2 in conference play and 17-6 overall.

The Cougars won five straight games overall to open this season, the longest overall streak since winning eight straight games last year in preseason. The Cougars won four straight away from home ( 3 neutral, 1 away) to open the year. The four wins away from home was the team's best streak away from home since BYU's 2001 NCAA team won five consecutive games (2 away, 3 at the M WC tournament) in M arch 2001. BYU has lost back-to-back games only once this year (vs. Oklahoma State and at W eber State). BYU had defeated 18 straight M W Cteams at home prior to the loss to Utah. The Cougars have won 34 straight home games over a non-conference opponents. BYU has made a three-point shot in 202 consecutive games since going 0-9 in a 75-67 loss to CS Fullerton on Nov. 22, 1996. Travis Hansen has scored in double figures in 19 straight games. M ark Bigelow's string of 12 straight games with a trey came to an end at UNLV. Bigelow has converted 18 straight free throws.

BYU finished the 1992-93 season with a 25-9 record, tied for the WAC title and advanced to the NCAA tournament, going 1-1 with a win over SMU before a loss to Kansas. This year was also the first time since the 1992-93 Front Range sweep that BYU even won the first of the two games on the trip. W yoming had won five straight times over BYU in Laramie and CSU had won six straight games over the Cougars in M oby Arena prior to this season. BYU's last victory in Laramie was in 1996 and its last in Fort Collins was in 1994.

- Hansen is an MWC Player of the Year candidate and BYU's lone senior. A thletic and explosive, he can create his own shot or knock down the three. Last year he was the team's best player when he led BYU in scoring (15.6) and rebounding (6.2), earning second-team All-M WC honors.
- Hansen's wife LaRee gave birth to their first child, Ryder Scott, on J an. 23. He was 6 pounds, 8 ounces and 18 inches long. - This year Hansen leads BYU in scoring (16.5) and assists (2.7) and is second in rebounding (4.8). He usually draws the assignment to guard the opponent's top perimeter player and is strong enough to also switch over and guard the four position. He held CSU's Brian Green to 2 points, more than 11 points below his average and shut down UNLV's J ermaine Lewis (2-11 for 4 points). - He has had three of his top-five career assist games this season with a career-tying 5 assists vs. Toledo, UCSB and Pepperdine. - He has scored in double figures a team-leading 22 times this year, including 19 straight games, and has led BYU in scoring 12 times, including the five of the last six games. He failed to score in double figures for the only time this year with 9 points vs. Rice, ending 11 straight double-digit games dating back to last season.
- He reached 20 points for the fifth time this year at CSU with a season-high 27 points. Against Utah, he made a career-best 14 free throws on 15 attempts while recording his second double-double (also 12 pts, 12 rbs vs. SBU) of the year with 12 boards. Steve Cleveland is in his sixth year at the helm of the Cougars. During his tenure at BYU, Cleveland has proven to be a first-rate recruiter, an excellent coach and player developer, and above all, a winner.

Last year Cleveland guiding BYU to its third postseason tournament appearance in the last three years, advancing to the second round of the NIT before losing at eventual champion M emphis. In 2001, Cleveland guided BYU to its first NCAA tournament bid since 1995, its first conference regular season title since 1993 and its first conference tournament championship since 1992. While rebuilding a program that finished 1-25 before his arrival, he has posted records of 9-21, 12-16, 22-11, 24-9 and 18-12. Last year's team earned a victory over No. 13 Stanford and advanced to the NIT despite having lost four starters, six of its top seven players and 75 percent of its point production from the year before.

The 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 seasons both rank among of the school's best years ever in terms of wins. In fact, since BYU's first season in 1903, only five BYU teams have ever recorded more wins than the 24-9 team in 2000-01 and only seven have improved upon the 22-11 record in 1999-2000.

Cleveland has brought the magic of the M arriott Center back in Provo. The Cougars enter the 2002-03 season with the nation's longest home victory streak at 36 games, including back-to-back unbeaten seasons of 15-0 and 16-0. Cleveland's teams have traditionally been prepared to play their best at the end of the season. Last year BYU earned its third straight postseason tournament bid, winning in the first round of the NIT before losing at eventual NIT champion Memphis. In 2000-01, BYU won five straight games on the road to secure a share of the M WC regular season title and earn the automatic NCAA bid by claiming the MWC Tournament in Las Vegas. The Cougars won six of their last eight games the prior season, including two MWC tournament wins and two NIT victories. In Cleveland's first year, BYU completed a rare sweep of New M exico and UTEP on the road to earn a WAC tournament berth. The road sweep of New $M$ exico and UTEP was the first for BYU since 199091 and the 8362 upset of No.15-ranked New Mexico in the Pit ended the Lobos' 41-game home winning streak. In Clevelands second season the Cougars had a blowout win over UTEP before a 90-74 conference tournament upset victory over TCU to achieve BY U's first conference tournament win since 1994.

Cleveland's teams have advanced to the finals of the M WC tournament in two of the three seasons the event has been played, winning the title in 2001.

As a recruiter, Cleveland has made a similar impact on BYU's program. Cleveland's recruits have proven they are not only committed to Cleveland's vision but also are the kind of players to help make that vision a reality in Provo. Cleveland and his staff have been able to attract top talent from Utah and beyond.

Cleveland has a string of top conference newcomers. Six players have earned conference newcomer honors in Cleveland's five years as the Cougar coach, including four who have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year.

- Ron Selleaze (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Y ear, Newcomer Team, 2nd Team All-WAC)

In October 2001, Cleveland signed a multi-year contract extension with BYU. Before taking the helm with the Cougars on M arch 11, 1997, Cleveland compiled a 157-77 record at Fresno City College in Fresno, Calif. Cleveland was named coach of the year two times while at FCC and led the Rams to post-season playoffs in each of his seven seasons in Fresno. Cleveland coached 10 years at Fresno's Clovis W est High School, compiling a 180-70 record.
