BYU CONTINUES ROAD TRIP AT NO. 26 CREIGHTON SATURDAY

180

Jr.

Off to its best start since the 1991-92 season, BYU (5-0) travels to face Creighton (5-0) Saturday in a 2 p.m CST (1 p.m. MST) start. Both teams are coming off road wins Wednesday, with BYU defeating the Pac-10's Arizona State while Creighton won its Missouri Valley Conference opener at Northern Iowa. Saturday's game is not being televised. The radio broadcast can be heard on KSL Newsradio 1160 and the Cougar Sports Network, beginning at 1 p.m. CST (Noon MST) with a onehour pregame show. KSL's Greg Wrubell will call the play-by-play action with Mark Durrant providing game analysis. A live internet audio link is available on the basketball page of the official BYU athletics website, byucougars.com.

The Cougars are coming off a 64-60 victory at Arizona State that ended the Cougars' 11-game road losing streak. BYU opened last season with a road win at San Diego but lost its final 11 road games of the year. BYU returns eight lettermen and three starters from last year's 18-12 NIT team, led by second-team All-Mountain West Conference guard Travis Hansen. The Cougars currently own the nation's longest homecourt winning streak at 37 games. BYU opened this season with three wins at the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands to claim the 2002 title. BYU's current four-game winning streak away from the Marriott Center is the team's longest since winning five straight on the road in March 2001.

Creighton is ranked 26th nationally in both polls and is coming off a 65-52 win at Northern Iowa on Wednesday after defeating Notre Dame on Nov. 26 to win the Guardians Classic in Kansas City, Mo.

CREIGHTON BLUEJAYS

Creighton (5-0) returns 10 of 12 lettermen and all five starters from last season's 23-9 team that reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bluejays have made the NCAA tournament the past four seasons. Last year Creighton knocked off No.17 Western Kentucky during the regular season and No.14 Florida in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to No. 16 Illinois in the second round with virtually the same team it has this year. Dana Altman was named MVC Coach of the Year, Kyle Korver was named MVC Player of the Year and Terrell Taylor was named the MVC's Sixth Man of the Year. Taylor, who scored 12.6 ppg, is the team's biggest loss. The Jays have been picked to win their third consecutive Missouri Valley Conference title this season, led by the senior trio of DeAnthony Bowden, Larry House and Korver. Korver, Joe Dabbert, Brody Deren, Mike Grimes and Michael Lindeman give CU plenty of returning depth in the frontcourt, while Nate Funk, Tyler McKinney, Kellen Milliner and Brandon Sims all share time on the perimeter with House and Bowden. Creighton crushed its first three opponents with easy wins over Texas-Arlington (106-50) and Furman (82-57) at home and IUPUI (99-52) at the Guardians Classic in Kansas City, Mo. The Jays claimed the Guardians Classic championship, defeating Notre Dame 80-75 in the final. Korver won MVP honors after a career-best seven three-pointers and a season-high 24 points against Notre Dame. Though Notre Dame came within two on five occasions, they never led in the second half. Tyler McKinney made three clutch plays down the stretch and finished with a career-best 14 points for CU. Notre Dame went on to clobber No. 10 Marquette in its next game. After an eight-day layoff, the Jays opened their conference season at Northern Iowa Wednesday, winning 65-52 with House scoring a game-high 20 points. Korver leads CU on the year at 18.0 ppg, followed by House at 10.4 and Deren at 9.2. Deren pulls down a team-leading 6.6 rebounds per game while Korver adds 4.4. Five players have double-digit assists this year as the Jays spread it around averaging 18.2 assists as a team. Korver hit five or more treys in each of the first four games and was 2-4 at Northern Iowa Wednesday, despite scoring only eight points. On the year he is shooting an incredible 65.8 percent on threes (25-38), having taken more three attempts than any other Jays player has attempted field goals, except House who has taken 49 shots, second to Korver's 52. Korver is shooting 57.7 percent overall and is 5-6 from the line. In the first four games, the Jays shot an incredible 58 percent from the floor, including 56 percent from three-point range. Overall, CU is shooting 54.3 percent, including 50.9 percent on threes, in its five wins. While they are hot from the floor, they are only shooting 59.2 percent from the free throw line. Creighton's Dana Altman (Eastern New Mexico, 1980) is in his ninth year as head coach of the Bluejays. He owns a 150-95 (.612) mark at CU and a career record of 233-162 (.590) in his 14th year as an NCAA Division I head coach. Altman has been named conference coach of the year eight times in his 17 years as a head coach, including recognition in 2001 and 2002 from the Missouri Valley Conference. Altman has led Creighton to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments and his teams have played in the postseason in eight of the past 11 years.

SERIES TIDBITS

This will be the eighth meeting between the two teams. BYU leads the series 5-2 and has five of the last six games after defeating Creighton in Provo last year. Last year's game was the first meeting since 1973 when Creighton won for the last time, 99-86, at home. BYU is 2-2 at Creighton and 2-0 at home with a 1-0 neutral court mark. Steve Cleveland is 1-0 against Creighton. The overall series dates back to 1931. The teams met three times between 1931 and 1935 before the next meeting in 1964, followed by games in 1971 and 1973 prior to last year's contest in Provo.

QUOTING BYU COACH STEVE CLEVELAND

"This is a very challenging road trip, playing at Arizona State and then at Creighton. Both are very good teams. I fully expect Creighton to end up in the top-20 rankings. They have good players and are well coached. Coach Altman is a class act. He has good depth and he has some great shooters. They are tough to play anywhere but it will be especially tough playing them at home. I like the way our guys are competing right now and with our added depth this year it gives us a better chance to be competitive on the road. In order for us to be a good team we have to win on the road. We went up against a quality team in ASU Wednesday. It was nice to get a win, but we know this isn't the end of our work by a long shot. We've got the toughest preseaosn schedule we've had since I've been at BYUand the Mountain West Conference will be the strongest it has ever been. And Creighton may be the best team on our preseason schedule."

UP NEXT

After Saturday's game at Creighton, BYU will fly home that evening. The Cougars' next opponent is the University of San Diego. That game will be played in the Marriott Center on Wednesday at 7 p.m. MST. The Toreros are currently 3-1, including a win at preseason nationally ranked UCLA.

LAST YEAR'S BYU-CREIGHTON OUTING IN PROVO

PROVO, Utah (Dec. 8, 2001) -- On a brisk night in Provo, BYU turned on the defensive heat to defeat the Creighton Bluejays 61-52 at the Marriott Center for the Cougars' 23rd straight home victory. The Cougar defense kept the pressure on Bluejay shooters all night, holding a team that came in averaging 86.2 points a game to just 52 points on 19-of-55 shooting from the field. The Cougars, led by a career-high 10 boards from true freshman Jared Jensen and a career-best eight rebounds by Daniel Bobik, outrebounded Creighton 36-29. Creighton's leading scorer, Kyle Korver, came in averaging over 19 points per game but was limited to just four points on 1-for-10 shooting from the field (1-of-3 from the line). The defensive effort ended 13 straight games Korver had reached double figures scoring dating back to the prior season. The Cougar offense was led by Travis Hansen, who finished 5-of-7 from the field with 18 points and Mark Bigelow, who shot 5-of-11 on the night for 17 points. The game was won for BYU at the free throw line, where the Cougars went 20-for-25, marking the third straight game the team had shot over 80 percent from the charity stripe. With their 26-23 lead at the half, the Cougars went into the locker room on top in each of their first six games. The victory pushed BYU's record to 4-2 on the season and dropped Creighton's record to 3-2 on the year.

WHAT THE COACHES HAD TO SAY ...

CREIGHTON HEAD COACH DANA ALTMAN:

"We had some trouble finishing some plays tonight. Our execution wasn't good, we missed some free throws and they outrebounded us. We didn't feel the flow and they outplayed us. At times we played well defensively, but we weren't in the game. The arena and the atmosphere was great, we just didn't shoot the ball."

BYU HEAD COACH STEVE CLEVELAND:

"I was really proud of our defensive effort tonight. They got a few open looks and offensive rebounds but we must have contested 95 percent of their shots. Eric Nielsen and Travis Hansen both did a really good job. I was really pleased because this is a team that lives off of execution and they are very disciplined. To play defensively the way we did tonight, I was really proud of our young men. A game like this is going to be like a boxing match and it was a situation where we don't believe we ran one play that they weren't calling out instructions to stop us. We went to a box set in the second half and we got a little more success. This was one of those ball games where both teams were taken out of their game. We were taking them out of what they want to do. I have a great deal of respect for teams like Creighton. I have respect for their program and what they've done this year."

COUGARS WIN AT ARIZONA STATE WEDNESDAY

TEMPE, Ariz. (Dec. 4, 2002) -- BYU improved to 5-0 on the year and ended its 11-game road losing streak Wednesday by beating the Arizona State Sun Devils, 64-60, at Wells Fargo Arena in Tempe, Ariz. The win also ended a seven-game road losing streak against Pac-10 teams that spanned 13 years. The Cougars never trailed after taking a 20-18 lead with 10:36 to go in the first half on a Jared Jensen dunk made possible by a steal by reserve quard Ricky Bower. BYU's largest advantage was 12 but ASU twice tied the game in the second half and had BYU's lead cut to one-point with just over two minutes to go. A Rafael Araujo free throw stretched BYU's advantage to three points with under a minute to play. Following the free throw, ASU's Curtis Millage, missed a desperation three-point attempt. The rebound was controlled by BYU's Kevin Woodberry; he was fouled and went to the line. Woodberry knocked down one of two shots with nine seconds left and the Cougars held on for a four-point victory. Center Jared Jensen carried BYU in the first half scoring 10 of his 12 points to pace the Cougars as they built a 10-point halftime lead at 35-25 The game was tied at 20-20 when BYU went on a 14-2 run to help build its double-digit advantage at the break. In the second half, ASU shot 48.5 percent from the floor to cut into the BYU lead. The Cougars shot a sizzling 66.7 percent in the first half but only shot 37.5 percent in the final half. Forward Travis Hansen led all scorers with 23 points on 8-of-11 shooting. Hansen took the game over hitting big buckets for BYU down the stretch. Jared Jensen ended the game with 12 points and six rebounds. Araujo was one point away from a double-double with nine points and 11 rebounds, along with three blocks and three assists. Four ASU players scored in double figures led by freshman Ike Diogu with 15 points and eight rebounds. Forward Tommy Smith chipped in 13 points. Jamal Hill scored 12 and Curtis Millage added 11. ASU falls to 4-2 on the season with its only other loss coming against Kentucky at the Maui Invitational. While improving to 5-0, BYU coach Cleveland earned his 90th win at the helm in Provo.

WHAT BYU COACH STEVE CLEVELAND HAD TO SAY ...

"We need to win on the road to be distinguished as a good team. We were able to withstand their runs and we got stops when we needed to. We did some really good things in the last few minutes

NATIONAL POLLS

BYU received votes in the national polls (Nov. 25) for the first time since last season's eight-game winning streak that included a win over No. 13 Stanford. BYU received four votes (T-41st) in the latest ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. BYU received two votes (49th) in the lastest Associated Press Poll. Creighton is rated just out of the top-25 in both polls, ranking 26th with 64 votes in the coaches poll and 26th in the AP poll with 125 votes.

SAGARIN RATINGS

BYU is rated 17th nationally in the latest Sagarin ratings, updated after Wednesday's results. The Cougars are the top-rated Mountain West Conferenc school with an 86.61 rating. UNLV is rated 39th (83.37), Wyoming 64th (81.12) and Utah 68th (80.91). Creighton is rated fith in the nation in the latest Sagarin system with an 89.15 rating. The Mountain West is rated eighth as a league while the Missouri Valley is ranked 11th.

BEST START SINCE 1991-92

After starting the season 2-0 for the fourth straight year, BYU was able to win its third contest for the first time since the 1991-92 season. At 5-0, BYUis off to its best start since the 1991-92 team won seven straight out of the gate. That team, like this year's team, was picked to finish fourth in the conference. The 1991-92 team went on to win the Western Athletic Conference title and finish 25-7 after losing to LSU and Shaquille O'Neal in the NCAA tournament.

STREAKING

BYU has won its last four games away from the Marriott Center, the team's best streak since BYU's 2001 NCAA team won five consecutive games (2 away, 3 at the MWC tournament) in March 2001. The Cougars have won five straight games overall, the longest overall streak since the Coagars won eight straight games last year during its preseason schedule. BYU defeated Creighton at home last year in the second game of the streak, which was highlighted by an upset victory over No. 13 Stanford at the Las Vegas Showdown. BYU's streak came to an end in an overtime loss at Pepperdine.

COUGARS CRUISE IN WIN OVER RICE IN HOME OPENER

Scoring 95 points against Rice Saturday, BYU improved to 8-0 under Steve Cleveland when the Cougars have scored 90 or more points. BYUdefeated Rice 95-56 thanks to an 18-1 first-half run that blew the game open. Saturday's 39 point victory over Rice is the largest win for the Cougars since BYU defeated Fort Lewis College by 49 points on Dec. 12, 2001.

HANSEN STARTS SENIOR SEASON STRONG

BYU's lone senior, guard Travis Hansen, is off to a strong start in his final campaign. He leads BYUin scoring (17.0 ppg) and assists (3.0 apg) and is second in rebounding (5.4 rpg), despite being ejected with 8:48 to go in BYU's win over Kansas State. Hansen is shooting 54.2 percent (26-48) from the floor, 50 percent (5-10) from behind the three-point line (which was extended to the experimental rules distance of 20 feet, 6 inches at the Paradise Jam), and 82.4 percent (28-34) from the free throw line. He scored a season-high 23 points at ASU Wednesday, including several big shots late to help the Cougars to the win.

RECORD DEFENSE

BYU set the Paradise Jam tournament record for fewest average points allowed by giving up only 59 points per game in its three tournament wins. The previous record was LaSalle's 62.7 points allowed over three tournament games last year. In the championship game, BYU held St. Bonaventure, who came into the title showdown having scored 91 and 89 points in its first two games, to 57 points and 28 percent shooting. BYU held Toledo to 34.6 percent shooting and 56 points and allowed only 40.4 percent shooting and 64 points by Kansas State. Combined, BYU's Paradise Jam opponents shot 33.9 percent from the floor, including 31.8 percent on threes.

MORE DEFENSE

BYU has all five opponents below 42 percent shooting, and has held three of its five opponents below 35 percent shooting (ASU .413, Kansas State .404). BYU held its first four opponents below 30 percent shooting in the second half this year. ASU shot 48.5 percent in the final 20 minutes Wednesday but only 33.3 percent in the first half. BYU has held four of its five opponents this year to 60 points or less (Kansas State scored 64). BYU is 45-3 under Steve Cleveland when holding its opponents below 60 points. Against Rice Saturday, BYU held 2002 WAC Freshman of the Year forward Michael Harris, who came in averaging 13.7 points and 10.3 rebounds, including a 14-point, 10-rebound night on 7-10 shooting at Stanford, to 11 points and four boards. ASU's freshman sensation Ike Diogu was held five points below his season average.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

BYU coach Steve Cleveland is expected to play a larger rotation this year with a deeper bench available. With junior forward Jake Shoff seeing his first playing time of the year against Kansas State, all 12 players who are expected to play this year have already received playing time. Shoff hadn't played in any of BYU's exhibition contests or the opening game with Toledo due to back problems. He has had limited practice time as well since practices started in October. Sophomore guard Marc Roberts and guards Austin Ainge and Jermaine Odjegba are planning to use the season to redshirt. Ainge broke his thumb during practice three days before BYU's season opener. He had surgery in Phoenix and isn't expected to practice for another 4-6 weeks.

FROM BEHIND ARC

Prior to Wednesday's ASU game, BYU had shot 50 percent or better from three-point range in three of its first four games this year. At ASU, BYU hit only one three while attempting a season-low seven treys. All eight players to attempt a three have connected, with six players making 50 percent or better. Among those six, Mark Bigelow is 7-13, Travis Hansen 5-10, John Allen 4-6, Ricky Bower 3-5, Luiz Lemes 1-2 and Bart Jepsen 1-1. Kevin Woodberry is 4-19 and Terry Nashif 2-5 from three point range. BYU played at the experimental three-point distance of 20 feet, six inches during the Paradise Jam. BYU is shooting 44.3 percent (27-61) as a team on threes.

COUGARS BOAST STRONG SCHEDULE

Seventeen games against teams who qualified for postseason play last year and spots in the University of The Virgin Islands Paradise Jam (U.S. Virgin Islands) and Touchstone Energy All-College Classic (Oklahoma City) highlight BYU's 2002-03 men's basketball schedule. BYU's non-conference schedule includes teams from 10 different conferences. Overall, 12 teams earned post-season bids last season, seven advancing to the NCAA tournament and five playing in the NIT. Six teams earned a conference regular season or league tournament title and 12 placed in the top three in their league standings. In all, the schedule includes a total of 29 regular season games and two exhibitions. The Cougars will play 14 regular season games in the Marriott Center, where BYU owns the nation's longest active home-court victory streak at 36 games. Excluding the MWC Tournament, BYU plays 15 road games, including 11 away contests and four neutral site games. The 2003 MWC Tournament takes place March 12-15 at the Thomas and Mack Center in Las Vegas. The Pac-10, Big 12, Atlantic 10, Big Sky, Big West, Mid-American, Mid-Continent, Missouri Valley, West Coast and Western Athletic are represented on the non-league schedule. Nine teams -- Arizona State, Creighton, San Diego, UC Santa Barbara, San Francisco, Utah State, Southern Utah, Weber State and Pepperdine -- were also on last year's nonconference schedule. BYU earned a 6-3 record in those games, losing at UCSB and dropping overtime games at both Utah State and Pepperdine.

"This year's preseason and conference schedule will be the toughest and most challenging we've encountered since my arrival at BYU. All of our games in the preseason will be against veteran teams, many with postseason experience, and eight of those games will be on the road. This is definitely the strongest and most competitive the Mountain West has been since its formation."

- BYU Coach Steve Cleveland

BYU ON TELEVISION

The Cougars will be featured in 15 television broadcasts in 2002-03, including five times as part of the Mountain West Conference television package with ESPN. BYU will appear on ESPN2 vs. Oklahoma State in the Touchstone Energy All-College Classic in Oklahoma City on Jan. 4 and on ESPN "Big Monday" at Utah on Feb. 24. BYU appears three times on ESPN+Plus, hosting Utah Jan. 25 and New Mexico Feb. 1 before facing reigning MWC champion Wyoming in Laramie on Feb. 8. BYU will also be featured in nine SportsWest Production telecasts and on Fox Sports Net Arizona. The Mountain West Conference television agreement with ESPN will provide 32 national and regional television broadcasts on ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPN+Plus in 2002-03, including 14 appearances on ESPN, two on ESPN2, two on ABC and 12 on ESPN+Plus as the featured "Mountain West Conference Game of the Week". ESPN+Plus games in Utah are aired on KJZZ-TV, channel 14. An additional 20 MWC games are scheduled to be aired on SportsWest as point-to-point broadcasts by local affiliates, while local institutional packages will add a minimum of another 19 games in 2002-03. For the fourth consecutive season every game of the EAS Mountain West Conference Men's Basketball Championship will be televised by ESPN or ESPN+Plus.

HOME WINNING STREAK

BYU has a 37-game home court winning streak. The streak, which is a school record topping the 24 straight won between March 1994 and January 1996, is the longest current streak in the nation. BYU went 16-0 at home last season and was 15-0 the prior year. BYU has had a perfect home record seven times since the Marriott Center opened for the 1971-72 season. The past two years, however, marks the first time it has happened in back-to-back seasons. Last year's team tied the BYU single-season record with 16 home wins and was only the fourth Cougar squad to win more than 14 home games in a season. The 1987-88 Ladell Andersen squad went 16-2 in the Marriott Center. BYU's last home loss was on Feb. 17, 2000 when New Mexico edged the Cougars 78-74. BYU has won 17 straight at home over MWC teams. BYU has defeated 28 straight nonconference opponents in the Marriott Center. The last non-league foe to win in Provo was the California Bears, who edged BYU 71-70 on Dec. 19, 1998.

BREAKING THROUGH ON THE ROAD

While BYU entered this season with the nation's longest active home winning streak at 36 games (now 37), the Cougars also finished last season having lost their last 10 games away from the Marriott Center and their last 11 straight games on an opponent's home court, including three in overtime. This year, BYU has snapped both losing streaks. With its three wins at the Paradise Jam – BYU's first win streak away from home since the end of the 2001 season, BYU ended the 10-game skid and with BYU's victory at ASU Wednesday the Cougars got the 11-game road losing streak off their backs. Last year BYU won only twice away from home. Last year's road wins were a neutral court 81-76 upset over No. 13 Stanford at the Las Vegas Showdown on Dec. 22, 2001 and a season-opening win at San Diego, 70-59, on Nov. 17.

NEUTRAL RECORD

BYU is 12-7 on a neutral court under Steve Cleveland. Last year BYU was 1-1 on a neutral floor. Prior to the Paradise Jam, BYU's last neutral court game was a 62-51 loss to San Diego State at the 2002 MWC Tournament. BYU's prior neutral win was over No. 13 Stanford, 81-76, at the Las Vegas Showdown. The Cougars have won seven of their last nine neutral court contests.

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF BASKETBALL

BYU is celebrating 100 years of basketball. Since the first season of BYU basketball in 1903, BYU entered this season having achieved a 1432-922 (.608) overall record with 21 different coaches at the helm. The combined efforts of these men have provided the Cougars with 80 winning seasons in 100 years. BYU has won 25 conference titles and made 28 postseason tournament appearances with 19 NCAA bids and nine NIT berths. The Cougars won the 1951 and 1966 NIT titles and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA tournament in 1981, highlighted by Danny Ainge's length-of-the-court dash to defeat Notre Dame at the buzzer. Ainge was named the nation's top player as the John Wooden Award and Eastman Award winner. Twenty-three players have received All-America recognition while NBA teams have selected a Cougar 41 times in its annual draft. BYU has the nation's 11th longest rivalry, dating back to 1909, against the University of Utah. BYU and Utah have the 10th longest rivalry in terms of games played with 232 contests. Amazingly, the series is tied at 116-116. For more information on BYU's 100-year history, please consult the 2002-03 BYU media guide.

HANSEN, BIGELOW EARN PARADISE JAM AWARDS

Leading BYU to the University of the Virgin Islands Paradise Jam title, Travis Hansen and Mark Bigelow were named to the Paradise Jam All Tournament Team. Others selected to the team were Pervis Pasco of Kansas State, Nick Moore of Toledo, Terry Taylor of Virginia Tech and tournament MVPMarques Green of St. Bonaventure.

PARADISE JAM OFFERED OFF COURT MEMORIES

During their week in the Virgin Islands, the Cougars were able to do more than just win three games to claim the Paradise Jam title. While the coaches and players weren't able to fully take advantage of the beautiful beaches and other opportunities available on St. Thomas, the team was able to go on a Catamaran Tour, that included snorkeling, the day before its first game. One of the highlights of the trip was on Sunday. With BYU not practicing or playing that day, the entire team and extended traveling party attended church services at the local branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The Cougar contingency helped boost the branch attendance from its usual 20-25 to 138. It was the largest group to ever attend church services in the branch. Later that evening, the entire team returned to participate in a church fireside. During the day, BYU coach Steve Cleveland, Travis Hansen, Mark Bigelow, Dan Howard, Terry Nashif and Ricky Bower all spoke and the entire team mingled and spent time with the local members. Many church members attended BYU's games during the week, giving the Cougars a nice fan base in the 3,000-seat Sports and Fitness Center. BYU, along with the other teams in the Paradise Jam, participated in the Paradise Jam Dockside Jamboree on the evening before the tournament began. The festival, located near the dock were cruise ships come to port, included local bands, steel drum bands, mocko jumbies, local food, arts, crafts and shopping. The players had opportunities to sign autographs and Coach Cleveland was able to talk about the team and university on a live radio program being broadcast remotely from the event.

BYU VS. ITS CONFERENCE PEERS

BYU is picked to finish fourth this year in the Mountain West Conference. BYU has a won 58 percent (418-299) of its games vs. its MWC opponents. As an overall athletic program, BYU has dominated the Mountain West, winning 63 percent of the titles in the league's first three seasons.

COUGARS SIGN COMBO GUARD MICHAEL ROSE

During the early signing period in November, BYU signed Michael Rose, a 6-foot-1 combo guard out of Spring Woods High School in Houston Texas. A four-year starter, Rose averaged 16.3 points, five rebounds and three assists playing shooting guard as a junior. A preseason All Greater Houston First Team selection, Rose will play point guard his senior season. He has earned first-team All-District 21 5A honors the past two seasons and was the team MVP in 2002. He has helped his team to secondplace District 21 finishes the past two years. In is first season, he was named District 21 Freshman of the Year. Rose has played four years on the Houston Hoops summer AAU team that also features top-five recruits Ndidi Eby and Kendrick Perkins. As the team's starting shooting guard, Rose averaged 14 points and helped the team earn a No. 1 national rating for much of the summer. The team placed second at two of the nation's larger invitational tournaments, finishing as the runner-up at both the Nike Peach Jam in Augusta, Ga., and Nike Super Showcase in Orlando, Fla. A great shooter, Rose is one of the 16 finalists still alive in Cuttino Mobley's Clutch City Shootout. Sponsored by the Houston Rockets and generating more than 300 participants, the Shootout allows Houston-area 4A and 5A high school basketball players the opportunity to compete in a series of three-point shooting contests. Rose is scheduled to shoot at halftime of the Rockets' Jan. 13 game. Earlier this month, he connected on 14 consecutive three-point shots during a scrimmage while scoring 56 points. Rose possesses a strong academic resume, ranking second in his class of 365 seniors. He was recruited by Houston, St. Louis, Utah State, Colorado State, Texas Christian, Texas A&M, Tennessee and Illinois. With guard Travis Hansen being the only senior on this year's roster, Rose is expected to be the only player to sign with BYU during the early signing period. He is the nephew of BYU Associate Head Coach Dave Rose.

MARK BIGELOW / 6-7 • 195 • junior • forward/guard

CAPSULE: Bigelow is an all-conference candidate and with player-of-the-year abilities ... Despite being hampered last season by conditioning in first year back from a two-year mission layoff, Bigelow showed signs of why he was BYU's best player prior to his mission ... He put on a 31-point performance in a win over Arizona State while averaging 14.9 points and earning honorable mention All-MWC recognition in 2001-02 ... Bigelow was BYU's leading scorer (15.0) and rebounder (6.3) and WAC Pacific Division Freshman of the Year and All-WAC Second Team in 1998-99 before going on a two-year LDS Church mission to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. ... A threat from long range, Bigelow led the Cougars last year in three-pointers made with 65 on 42.2 percent shooting and set the BYU record for consecutive games with a trey (22) ... He is an excellent shooter and extremely intelligent player ... A gifted offensive player with a great mid-range game ... He moves well without the ball.

2002-03: Bigelow reached double digits the first four games and is second on the team at 13.2 ppg... He is second on the team in assists with 12 ... He has made a team-high seven threes, including two games with multiple treys ... He had connected from long range in 11 straight games dating back to last season prior to Wednesday's victory at ASU when Bigelow did not attempt a three for the first time in his career ... He took only six shots on the night as ASU, as the Sun Devils remembered the 31 points he scored on them last year.

JARED JENSEN / 6-9 • 250 • sophomore • forward/center

CAPSULE: Jensen enters his sophomore season as a viable all-conference candidate ... He came to BYU as the most prized high school recruit from the state of Utah and proved why while earning MWC Co-Freshman of the Year honors in 2001-02 ... He is a talented offensive player in the low-post who can also score with his jumper ... He finished first in the Mountain West Conference with a team-leading 59.1 field goal percentage last year and was fourth on the team in scoring and rebounding at 8.6 points per game and 3.5 rebounds per contest ... He had season highs of 20 points and 10 rebounds while starting in 25 games ... With a year under his belt he should play a bigger role for the Cougars in 2002-03 ... At Fremont High School he earned the 2001 Deseret News Mr. Basketball Award, scoring 25.8 points and pulling down 13 rebounds per game.

2002-03: Last week Jensen shot 76.9 percent from the floor, making 10-of-13 attempts, and made 81.3 percent of his free throw attempts, going 13-for-16 from the line, to average a team-leading 16.5 points per game in BYU's victories over St. Bonaventure and Rice ...He didn't start vs. St. Bonaventure due to their guard-oriented pressing defense, but scored a team-high 15 minutes with 6 rebounds, including many key plays in the final minutes ... He returned to the starting lineup last Saturday vs. Rice and had 18 points in 18 minutes on 6-for-6 shooting while grabbing 5 boards ... He scored seven straight points to give BYU a 13 point lead as part of an 18-1 first-half run that blew open the game for the Cougars ... The last time a Cougar was perfect from the field with at least six attempts was Eric Nielsen on Feb. 24, 2001 at Utah when he also went 6-6 from the field ... He had his fourth straight double-digit scoring game at ASU and got BYU going early with 10 first-half points ... He has made 12 of his last 15 attempts from the floor and is shooting 65.5 percent on the year.

BART JEPSEN / 6-9 • 235 • junior • forward

CAPSULE: Jepsen was a key reserve who was one of seven players to appear in all 30 games last year ... The redshirt junior has valuable experience and excellent athletic ability ... He is a solid rebounder and defender who runs the floor extremely well for a big man ... He averaged 0.9 points and 1.4 rebounds in 7.8 minutes per game last year and 1.2 points and 2.1 rebounds in 11.9 minutes as a freshman in Steve Cleveland's first season in 1997-98 while playing in 27 of 30 games, including nine starts.

2002-03: Jepsen missed his first game since his freshman season vs. St. Bonaventure due to the Bonnies guard-oriented pressing defense the entire game ... He had played in 32 straight games since not playing vs. Tulsa in the 1998 WAC Tournament in Las Vegas ... He saw limited action in BYU's first two games before playing a season-high 12 minutes vs. Rice, going a career-best 3-3 and tying his career high with 7 points ... He made the second three-pointer of his career and his first since his freshmen season in 1997-98 when he connected on his only attempt vs. Rice ... DAN HOWARD / 7-0 • 225 • junior • center

CAPSULE: Howard played a key role in the second half of the season in 2001-02 and should continue to be a key contributor in the post in 2002-03 ... He appeared in 21 games, including four starts, averaging 1.8 points and 2.2 rebounds in 9.5 minutes per game last year after playing in 14 games as a freshman in limited action ... The tallest player on the roster, he plays with energy and has been a valuable defensive and rebounding presence ... He has a nice touch for a big man, shooting a career 21-33 (.636) from the floor in his two seasons, including 13-22 (.591) last year when he shared top field goal percentage honors with Jared Jensen ... Last year was his first real extended playing time since playing for Davis High School in 1996.

2002-03: Howard played a key role vs. Toledo, coming off the bench to give BYU a solid post effort with a career-high 11 points with starters Jared Jensen and Rafael Araujo both in foul trouble and ineffective ... In the first two games, Howard set or equaled career bests in seven different categories (points, field goals, field goals attempted, free throws, free throws attempted, assists and blocked shots) ... He went 2-4 vs. Rice, including a dunk, to score 4 points in his 10 minutes ... played two minutes at ASU with 2 rebounds, one on the offensie glass.

AUSTIN AINGE / 6-1 • 175 • freshman • point guard

CAPSULE: Ainge returned from a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in August A smart player and good leader, he is an outstanding three-point shooter with a crafty Jeff Hornacek-like runner in the lane ... He is a point guard who has a total understanding of the game and the unique ability to distribute the ball to teammates when they are ready to score ... He is the son of former BYU and NBA great and former Phoenix Suns coach Danny Ainge ... he prepped at Highland High Schol in Gilbert, Ariz., prior to serving his mission.

2002-03: Ainge will redshirt this year ... He broke his thumb the day before the team departed for the Paradise Jam ... He had surgery in Phoenix and will be out another four to six weeks.

JERMAINE ODJEGBA / 6-6 • 210 • junior • guard/forward

CAPSULE: Jermaine Odjegba is a true freshman who prepped at Palm Beach Gardens High School in 2001-02 ... A 6-foot-5 shooting guard, he averaged 18 points, 8 rebounds and 5 assists while earning first-team all-conference and honorable mention all-state honors.

2002-03: Odjegba will redshirt this year.

Steve Cleveland enters his sixth year at the helm of the Cougars. In his five seasons at BYU, Cleveland has proven to be a first-rate recruiter, an excellent coach and player developer, and above all, a winner.

Last year Cleveland guiding BYU to its third postseason tournament appearance in the last three years, advancing to the second round of the NIT before losing at eventual champion Memphis. In 2001, Cleveland guided BYU to its first NCAA tournament bid since 1995, its first conference regular season title since 1993 and its first conference tournament championship since 1992. While rebuilding a program that finished 1-25 before his arrival, he has posted records of 9-21, 12-16, 22-11, 24-9 and 18-12. Last year's team earned a victory over No. 13 Stanford and advanced to the NIT despite having lost four starters, six of its top seven players and 75 percent of its point production from the year before.

The 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 seasons both rank among of the school's best years ever in terms of wins. In fact, since BYU's first season in 1903, only five BYU teams have ever recorded more wins than the 24-9 team in 2000-01 and only seven have improved upon the 22-11 record in 1999-2000.

Cleveland has brought the magic of the Marriott Center back in Provo. The Cougars enter the 2002-03 season with the nation's longest home victory streak game home winning streak. In Cleveland's second season the Cougars had a blowout win over UTEP before a 90-74 conference tournament upset victory over TCU to achieve BYU's first conference tournament win since 1994.

Cleveland's teams have advanced to the finals of the MWC tournament in two of the three seasons the event has been played, winning the title in 2001.

As a recruiter, Cleveland has made a similar impact on BYU's program. Cleveland's recruits have proven they are not only committed to Cleveland's vision but also are the kind of players to help make that vision a reality in Provo. Cleveland and his staff have been able to attract top talent from Utah and beyond.

Cleveland has a string of top conference newcomers. Six players have earned conference newcomer honors in Cleveland's five years as the Cougar coach, including four who have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year.

- Jared Jensen (2001-2002 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-2001 MWC Newcomer Team, 2nd Team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year, All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd Team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Selleaze (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd

In October 2001, Cleveland signed a multi-year contract extension with BYU. Before taking the helm with the Cougars on March 11, 1997, Cleveland compiled a 157-77 record at Fresno City College in Fresno, Calif. Cleveland was named coach of the year two times while at FCC and led the Rams to post-season playoffs in each of his seven seasons in Fresno. Cleveland coached 10 years at Fresno's Clovis West High School, compiling a 180-70 record.

PLAYING CAREER

Cleveland played college basketball at UC Irvine and was the Anteaters' MVP and leading scorer his senior season in 1975-76. Prior to attending UC Irvine, Cleveland was Fresno City College's Most Outstanding Player in 1973-74. Cleveland received a B.A. degree in social science from UC Irvine in 1976, and received a Master's in education administration from Fresno Pacific in 1979.
