 THE SERIES: UCLA leads 7-1
 NEUTRAL SITE: UCLA leads 1-0
 LAST MEETING: UCLA won, 27-17, at the Rose Bowl (Sept. 8, 2007)

FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR, BYU IS VEGAS BOUND

After winning its second straight league championship with a perfect 8-0 record, the 17th ranked BYU Cougars have accepted an invitation to play UCLA in the 16th Annual Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl on Saturday, Dec. 22. The invitation marks the third straight appearance for the Cougars in Las Vegas and the team's 26th overall bowl appearance since the 1974 season. BYU owns the second-longest active win streak in the country with nine consecutive victories. The Cougars and Bruins met earlier this season with UCLA earning a 27-17 win over BYU at the Rose Bowl back on September 8.

THE BYU-UCLA SERIES

The 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl will mark the ninth meeting between BYU and UCLA, dating back to the 1983 season. UCLA owns a 7-1 advantage over BYU, including a 27-17 win at the Rose Bowl on September 8 this season. The game will also mark the first time the two teams have met in a bowl game since facing each other in the 1986 Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, Calif. Behind Gaston Green's 266 yards rushing, the Bruins handed BYU a 31-10 loss in the third-annual Freedom Bowl. Following are brief highlights of each BYU/UCLA game:

- Oct. 1, 1983 -- BYU 37, UCLA 35 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.
Steve Young threw 25-36 for 270 yards and two touchdowns.
- Sep. 7, 1985 -- UCLA 27, BYU 24 at Cougar Stadium in Provo, Utah
BYU failed to hold on to a 3-point halftime lead, allowing 11 fourth quarter points.
- Dec. 30, 1986 -- UCLA 31, BYU 10 at Anaheim Stadium in Anaheim, Calif.
The Bruins won their second straight game over the Cougars in the two teams' first Freedom Bowl appearances.
- Sep. 7, 1991 -- BYU 23, UCLA 27 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.
UCLA TB Kevin Williams rushed for 132 yards on 13 carries, including the game-winning TD.
- Sep. 19, 1992 -- UCLA 17, BYU 10 at Cougar Stadium in Provo, Utah
Daron Washington, another Bruin TB, scored two rushing touchdowns in this narrow UCLA win.
- Oct. 9, 1993 -- BYU 14, UCLA 68 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.
Bruins Derek Ayers (174 yards) and James Milliner (113 yards) rushed for a combined 287 yards, while the UCLA defense had 11 sacks on the day.
- Sep. 9, 1995 -- UCLA 23, BYU 9 at Cougar Stadium in Provo, Utah
BYU QB Steve Sarkisian's 305 passing yards were not enough to overcome a 17-point UCLA third quarter outburst that put the game away.
- Sep. 8, 2007 -- BYU 17, UCLA 27 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.
Despite racking up 435 yards of total offense, including 391 yards passing, BYU saw its 11-game winning streak come to an end, as No. 13 UCLA beat the Cougars 27-17 in front of 72,986 fans.

2007 OPPONENT CAPSULE: UCLA

Table with columns: Date, Opponent, Result. Lists games from Sep. 1 to Dec. 1 against various opponents like Stanford, BYU, Utah, Washington, Oregon State, Notre Dame, California, Washington State, Arizona, Arizona State, Oregon, and USC.

WHAT THE GAME MEANS

- A win against UCLA would give the Cougars their second straight bowl win, including their ninth bowl victory overall.
• A win against UCLA would mark the first time since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl that BYU has had a win in back-to-back bowl appearances.
• BYU enters the game with the nation's second longest active win streak at nine straight games.
• A victory would also give the Cougars just their second ever win against the Bruins.
• A win over UCLA would mark the second straight season BYU has finished the season ranked in among the nation's top-25 programs.

BECOMING BOWL ELIGIBLE

With a win against Colorado State on November 3, the Cougars picked up their sixth win of the season and qualified to participate in their third straight bowl game for the first time since the 1994 season.

ANOTHER 10-WIN SEASON

The Cougars' 48-27 victory over San Diego State on December 1 improved the team's record to 10-2 on the season, marking the second-straight 10-win season and the 13th since the 1979 campaign.

SIX STRAIGHT SELLOUTS

The Cougars' victory over Utah on November 24 marked the sixth consecutive sell-out at La Vell Edwards Stadium, and the first time since the 1991 season the Cougars have had six sellouts during the same season.

COMPARE THE STATS

ROAD WARRIORS

While BYU has posted an impressive 12-game home win streak, the Cougars have been equally impressive on the road. BYU has won 9 of its last 11 road games, including four straight road games this season.

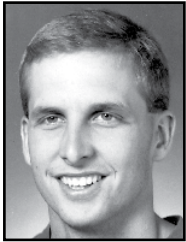

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Following is a list of BYU's future non-conference schedules:

- 2008: at Washington, UCLA, at Utah State
2009: at Arizona State, Florida State, Utah State
2010: Washington, at Florida State, at Utah State
2011: at Washington, at Army, Arizona State, Utah State
2012: Army, Washington, Utah State

RETIRING No. 14

Two of college football's all-time greatest quarterbacks, Gifford Nielsen and Ty Detmer, were honored together on Saturday, Sept. 1 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The No. 14 jersey, worn by both Nielsen and Detmer, was retired during halftime of the Cougars' season-opener against Arizona.

Throughout the history of BYU football, dating back to 1922, only three jerseys have ever been retired. Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie's No. 40 jersey, along with Marion Probert's No. 81 jersey and Steve Young's No. 8 jersey all hang from the pressbox at Edwards Stadium.

Nielsen, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and recipient of the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, passed for over 5,800 yards and collected 55 touchdowns throughout his career. Earning All-America honors in 1976, Nielsen led the NCAA in touchdown completions, ranked second in total offense and helped the Cougars to their first-ever national ranking. After what appeared to be a career-ending injury during his senior season, Nielsen went on to play six years for the Houston Oilers and remains the last quarterback to lead the team to the AFC finals. Nielsen and his wife, Wendy, are the parents of six children and reside in Houston.

Detmer, the winner of the 1990 Heisman Trophy, set nearly every passing record ever imagined during his time in Provo. A two-time Davey O'Brien Award winner, Detmer set 62 records during his career at BYU, including the NCAA record for career passing yards with 15,031. He was a consensus All-American in 1990 as the nation's leading passer and earned his second consensus All-American title in 1991 after leading the nation in total offense. He still holds the NCAA record for career touchdown completions with 121. Detmer played 14 seasons in the NFL and currently resides with his wife, Kim, and four daughters in Austin, Texas.

OFF TO A QUICK START

For the first time since the 2004 season when BYU edged Notre Dame, 20-17, at LaVell Edwards Stadium, the Cougars won its season opener, 20-7, against Arizona. The Cougars lost at home to Boston College to start the 2005 campaign before dropping a 16-13 decision to Arizona on a last-second field goal to start the 2006 season. BYU won four straight season-openers from 2001-2004. Overall, the Cougars have won five of their last six home-openers. Bronco Mendenhall is 1-2 in season-opening games, including a mark of 1-1 in Provo. The Cougars season-opening victory over Arizona not only avenged last season's opening-day loss in Tucson, but also it gave BYU back-to-back wins over teams from the Pac-10. (BYU beat Oregon, 38-8, in the 2006 finale at the Las Vegas Bowl.)

COUGARS CONTINUE TO WIN

With a 48-27 victory over San Diego State, the Cougars have won 20 of their last 22 games, dating back to last season. BYU is currently on a nine-game win streak that includes a 25-point win on the road at Wyoming, a win over TCU, a 19-point victory over CSU, a 35-point victory over Eastern Washington, a 25-point win over Air Force, and road wins over New Mexico and UNLV. BYU holds the nation's second longest active win streak. Over the past 25 games, the Cougars have posted a record of 21-4.

A BYU COACHING FIRST

With a 35-16 win over Colorado State on November 3, the Cougars picked up their sixth win of the season, qualifying for their third straight bowl game. BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall became the first coach in BYU history to qualify for three straight bowl games in his first three years. Mendenhall currently ranks second behind LaVell Edwards with the most post-season appearances in BYU football history.

Coach	Bowl Games
LaVell Edwards (1972-2000)	22
Bronco Mendenhall (2005-present)	3
Gary Crowton (2001-2004)	1

NO PLACE LIKE HOME TO START THE SEASON

Dating back to the Cougars first season in 1922, BYU has posted a record of 29-11-1 when opening the season in Provo -- that's a winning percentage of 72 percent! In overall home-openers, the Cougars are 52-29-1 (64 percent) since 1922. Interestingly, BYU's longest home-opening win streak covers 10 seasons, dating from 1930 through 1939. Since 1998, the Cougars have posted a record of 8-2 (.777) in home-opening games. BYU beat Arizona 20-7 in the 2007 home-opener, marking the second-straight home-opening victory for Mendenhall's Cougars.

RUSHING: KEY TO COUGARS' SUCCESS

Including a dominating rushing performance against San Diego State, the Cougars improved to 240-40-1 when rushing for 100 (or more) yards since the 1972 season. The Tulsa game on September 15 marked only the fifth time since 1991 the Cougars have gained over 150 yards rushing in a game and lost. (BYU is 77-5 since 1991 when rushing for 150 or more yards. During the Bronco Mendenhall era, the Cougars are 23-3 when rushing for 100 (or more) yards and 15-2 when rushing for 200 (or more) yards.

THE 200-YARD MARK

After racking up 313 yards rushing against San Diego State on December 1, BYU has won 60 straight games when rushing for 200 or more yards in a game, dating back to the 1985 season. The Cougars' last loss when rushing for 200 or more yards in a game came on October 26, 1985 (vs. UTEP).

SEASON TICKET HOLDERS ARE FULLY INVESTED

BYU sold over 53,500 season tickets for the 2007 season -- that's an increase of 7,900 over last year's total of 45,600. Interestingly, nearly 84 percent of the Edwards Stadium capacity was occupied by season-ticket holders during the season.

TALE OF THE TAPE

BYU's starting five offensive linemen weigh in at an average 318.4 pounds and average 6-feet-5. The front five will be going up against a UCLA defensive front that measures an average 6-feet-3, 272 pounds. Defensively, the Cougars' front three average 6-feet-3, 267 pounds, while the Bruins' offensive line tips the scales at an average 6-feet-4, 284 pounds per man.

FOLLOWING A BOWL VICTORY...

In seasons following a BYU bowl victory, the Cougars have averaged 9.4 wins per season, compiling an overall record of 76-23 (.768). Of BYU's seven previous post-bowl victory teams, all but two teams have returned to a bowl game the following season.

“FAN”TASTIC FANS

Over 386,980 fans attended six different home games at Edwards Stadium during the 2007 season, averaging 64,497 fans per game. BYU finished ranked fourth overall in the west behind USC (87,476), UCLA (76,379) and Washington (67,732). For teams that play in conferences that do not have an automatic bid to the BCS, the Cougars again led the nation in total and average attendance. BYU has led the MWC in home attendance in all nine years of the league’s existence. In fact, Edwards Stadium has been the site of the league’s all-time top-10 crowds. Through six home games this season the Cougars averaged 100.71 percent of the stadium’s 64,045 capacity, which ranks 17th overall in the nation and is second only to Oregon (when comparing MWC and Pac-10 schools.)

HOMELAND SECURITY

The Cougars’ victory over Utah on November 24 ran BYU’s consecutive home winning streak to 12 games, dating back to last season. Over that span, the Cougars have beaten their opponents by an average of 26.3 points per game. During that stretch, BYU is allowing just 11.2 points per game. The Cougars have allowed seven points or less in six of the last 12 home games. In six home games this season, the Cougars outscored opponents by an average 17.3 points per game and allowed an average of just 11.3 points per game. BYU’s current win streak is the longest since posting a 17-game home win streak from Oct. 7, 1989 to Nov. 23, 1991.

A 17-10 victory over Utah marked the 12th straight victory at Edwards Stadium – the longest home win streak since winning 17 straight from October 7, 1989 to November 23, 1991. BYU is 14-3 in Provo during the Bronco Mendenhall era. In addition, the Cougars are 7-1 in games in Provo following a road game under Mendenhall.

BEST HOME TEAM IN THE COUNTRY — PERIOD.

The Cougars finished the 2006 regular season as the most dominant home team in the nation. In posting a perfect 6-0 record in Edwards Stadium, BYU defeated its opponents by an average 35.2 points per game. LSU finished second in home scoring margin, averaging a 31.2-point margin in 2006.

HEAD COACH BRONCO MENDENHALL

Since becoming the head football coach at BYU on December 13, 2004, Mendenhall (41) has held fast to the vision of restoring BYU to national prominence by requiring a higher level of commitment on and off the field through accountability, effort and discipline. Equally significant in the restoration process, Mendenhall has emphasized the importance of honoring the coaches and players who have established a proud football tradition at BYU—a program of national prominence. Finally, by implementing a mission statement that outlines core values, Mendenhall has turned the tide at BYU by embracing tradition, spirit and honor.

Concluding his third season as the head coach at BYU, Mendenhall has taken a program that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001 and has turned it back into the Mountain West Conference's premier football program, and is steadily rebuilding the national prominence the Cougars once enjoyed. After posting a 6-6 record in 2005, Mendenhall's Cougars have won 21 of their last 25 games over the past two seasons.

In his first season, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl – the team's first post-season bowl appearance in three seasons. Since then, he has coached the Cougars to back-to-back, 10-win seasons and claimed consecutive MWC titles with a combined record of 16-0 against league opponents. Under his direction, the Cougars have not lost a league game – at home or on the road – in two years and has finished the regular-season ranked among the nation's top-20 programs in the Bowl Championship Series standings.

With an invitation to attend the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl, Mendenhall became the first coach in BYU football history to take a team to a bowl game in three straight seasons during his first three years as a head coach. On November 17, 2007, Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 35-10 victory over Wyoming to record his 25th career win. With the victory, Mendenhall became the only coach in BYU football history to win 25 games in his first 35 attempts.

Building on the success of his first-ever season as a head coach in 2005, Mendenhall and the Cougars posted a 10-2 regular-season record in 2006, winning the outright Mountain West Conference Championship with a perfect 8-0 record. As a result, BYU returned to the Las Vegas Bowl to represent the MWC. In dominating fashion, and with a swagger similar to that of the glory years of BYU football, the Cougars handed Oregon a 38-8 defeat in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Throughout the 2006 season, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars' nine-game win streak was the third longest in the country and marked only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars had recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

The 2007 season started out in similar fashion, winning just one of the team's first three games; however, under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars rebounded to win the final nine games of the season, and like the previous year, garnered the attention of local, regional and national voters. BYU finished the regular season ranked No. 17 in the final BCS standings – three places higher than the 2006 Cougars.

Like the 2006 season, BYU ranked among the nation's leaders in several statistical categories. The Cougars led the MWC and ranked 13th in passing offense, averaging 304 yards per game. The Cougars also led the league and ranked 15th in total offense, averaging 457.6 yards per game.

Defensively, the Cougars ranked 10th nationally in total defense, allowing just 307.2 yards per game. During the season, the Cougars did not allow a single 100-yard rusher and held teams to an average 92.1 yards rushing per game to ranked 9th in the nation. One of Mendenhall's jobs as the head coach and defensive coordinator is to manage points. Defensively, BYU ranked 13th in the nation, allowing just 18.8 points per game.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall has stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo during the 2005 season, Mendenhall and the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006 and another perfect, 6-0 mark in 2007. In 2006, the Cougars finished the season as the most dominate home team in the country, and the most dominate home team in BYU football history, winning games by an average 35.16 points per game. In 2007, the Cougars outscored opponents at Edwards Stadium by an average 17.3 points per game. BYU allowed just 11.3 points per game, marking the best scoring defense effort since the 1988 season when BYU held opponents to just 10.2 points per game.

A native of Alpine, Utah, Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple has three sons.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Seniors Bryan Kehl, Kelly Poppinga, Matt Allen and Sete Aulai have been selected by their teammates to serve as captains for the 2007 football season. Kehl and Poppinga are top linebackers for the Cougars, while Allen is a veteran wide receiver and Aulai is the team's starting center. Collectively, the group has racked up 135 games of experience, including Kehl who has played in 46 career games and Allen who has played in 42.

HIGH ON A MOUNTAIN TOP

With a win over San Diego State on December 1, the Cougars improved to 8-0 against league opponents, marking the second-straight undefeated conference season. The Cougars are the only team in Mountain West Conference history to win back-to-back outright league titles and to record back-to-back undefeated league records. BYU has won a record four Mountain West Conference championships since the league's inception, including the 1999, 2001, 2006 and 2007 titles. The Cougars have recorded a league-best 46-20 record against MWC opponents since 1999. Utah ranks second with a 42-24 record and New Mexico is third with a 38-28 mark.

BEST IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Since the Mountain West Conference was formed in 1999, BYU has posted a record of 46-20 against league opponents, marking the most wins of any other conference opponent. The Cougars have also won a league-best four MWC titles (1999, 2001, 2006 and 2007). Listed below is the all-time MWC standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
BYU	46	20	.697
Utah	42	24	.656
New Mexico	38	28	.576
Colorado State	38	30	.559

CALLED TO SERVE

There are 28 members of the BYU football program currently serving two-year church missions in 12 different countries, including Argentina, Australia, Bulgaria, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Germany, Japan, Madagascar, Mexico, Sweden and the United States. Members of the BYU football program who are currently serving missions cover six of the globe's seven continents. Members of the BYU football program who are currently serving missions speak a total of seven different foreign languages, including Bulgarian, German, Japanese, Malagasy, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES

Of the over 100 players on the Bowl roster, over 70 have served a church missions in a total of 19 different countries around the world, including Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, England, Germany, Honduras, Hong Kong, Nicaragua, Puerto Rico, Samoa, Spain, Taiwan, Uruguay and Venezuela. Current members of the team have served missions in 16 different states within the United States, and members of the team who have previously served church missions speak a total of six different foreign languages, including Chinese, German, Japanese, Portuguese, Samoan and Spanish.

WHAT IS A MISSION, YOU ASK?

The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. "Mormon" missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities. More than 50,000 missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at any one time. Most are young people under the age of 25, serving in nearly 350 missions throughout the world. Missionaries can be single men between the ages of 19 and 25, single women over the age of 21 or retired couples. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language. Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 17 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Dominican Republic, England, Guatemala, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, Spain and South Korea. A typical missionary day begins by waking at 6:30 a.m. for personal study. The day is spent proselytizing by following up on appointments, visiting homes or meeting people in the street or other public places. Missionaries end their day by 10:30 p.m. In some parts of the world, missionaries are sent only to serve humanitarian or other specialized missions. Those missionaries do not proselytize. Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Contacts with family and friends during this time of service are limited to letters and occasional phone calls to family at special times. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

CONSECUTIVE SELLOUTS

The Cougars' 17-10 victory over Utah in front of a capacity crowd of 64,749 - the second largest crowd at Edwards Stadium since the seating reconfiguration in 2003 - marked the sixth consecutive sell-out at Edwards Stadium and the first time since the 1991 season the Cougars have had six sell-outs during one season. A crowd of 64,525 attended the Cougars' season-opening victory over Arizona on September 1, while attendance for Saturday's game against Air Force was listed at 64,502. The attendance against EWU was listed at 64,522, while 64,411 attended the CSU game. Since 1999, the Cougars are 13-4 in games with a sell-out crowd.

FIRST-HALF DOMINANCE

The Cougars held a 20-13 lead at halftime against San Diego State, marking the 11th time in 12 games this season BYU has held the lead at intermission. The Cougars have held their opponent to seven or fewer points in the opening half seven times in 12 games. BYU has led at halftime in 24 of the last 25 games. During those 24 games, the team is 21-3.

INTERCEPTION NOTES

Kayle Buchanan intercepted SDSU's Kevin O'Connell with 7:51 left in the second quarter, marking the 11th straight game for the Cougars with at least one interception and the 15th pick for BYU this season. The play marked Buchanan's third pick of the season. Buchanan is one of three players on the BYU roster with at least three interceptions this year. Hodgkiss picked off Eastern Washington's Matt Nichols on the game's opening drive and ran it back 39 yards for the touchdown. The pick-six marked Hodgkiss' second career interception and his first of the season. The play also marked the second time this season that the BYU defense has returned an interception for a touchdown on the game-opening drive. Senior linebacker Bryan Kehl did it against New Mexico on Sept. 29. Earlier in the season, Kehl was credited with at least one interception in three straight games.

ROOKIE QB'S AND BOWL GAMES

Sophomore quarterback Max Hall made his collegiate debut on September 1 against Arizona. The game marked Hall's first game in over four seasons. Hall is the first BYU quarterback to start the season without any previous Division-I experience since Steve Sarkisian started in 1995. Leading the Cougars to a 10-2 regular-season record and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl, Hall became the first quarterback since Brandon Doman led the Cougars to a bowl game in his first season as the regular starter. Since John Walsh guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl appearance in 1993, Doman and Hall are the only quarterbacks to lead the Cougars to a bowl game in their first season as a regular starter. Brandon Doman currently serves as the quarterbacks coach at BYU.

"MAX" IMUM EFFORT

Sophomore quarterback Max Hall totaled 269 yards passing on 17-of-40 attempts in BYU's 17-10 victory over Utah to clinch the Cougars' second straight outright MWC championship. Hall, playing in his first-career game against Utah, led BYU to a fourth quarter comeback victory. With just 1:34 left in the game and BYU trailing 9-10, Hall took the Cougars up the field in a nine-play, 56 second drive that was capped by a 14-yard touchdown run by Harvey Unga. On a critical fourth-and-18, Hall found Austin Collie running down the right sideline for a 49-yard hookup that kept the game alive. On the season, Hall has completed 60.1 percent of his attempts (277-461) and is averaging a league-leading 301.4 yards per game. Hall has passed for 3,617 yards on the season and ranks among the top-four single-season performances in BYU football history.

FIRST BLOOD

Freshshman Harvey Unga's 8-yard touchdown reception gave BYU an early 7-0 lead with 9:55 left in the first quarter. The play marked the 22nd time in the last 24 games BYU has scored first. BYU is 20-2 in those 22 games.

MARGIN OF VICTORY

Max Hall barreled into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown run with 3:14 remaining in the third quarter against Eastern Washington on October 20 to put the Cougars ahead 35-7. The 28-point margin marked the largest lead BYU has had at any point this season, and the largest margin since a 29-yard touchdown pass from Hall to Unga gave the Cougars a 24-0 lead over Air Force. The game's final score of 42-7 against EWU marked BYU's largest margin of victory of the season.

SEEING PITTA FROM THE POCKET

Sophomore tight end Dennis Pitta ranks fifth in the nation among all tight ends. Pitta is averaging nearly 65 yards per game and has produced five touchdowns on the season. Pitta caught five receptions for 114 yards on September 22 against Air Force and racked up 113 receiving yards against Tulsa. The last BYU player to have two consecutive games with 100+ yards receiving was Jonny Harline in 2006. Harline totaled 118 yards against Utah and racked up 181 receiving yards the following game against Oregon in the 2006 Las Vegas Bowl. Pitta was credited with four receptions for 70 yards in the Cougars' 35-16 victory over Colorado State. So far this season, Max Hall and Dennis Pitta have teamed up on 54 balls for 775 yards. Pitta is averaging over 64.5 yards receiving per game.

BALANCED ATTACK

The Cougars have scored 48 touchdowns on the season. Of the 48 TD's, 24 have been scored via the passing game while 24 have been scored on the ground. Running back Harvey Unga leads the team with 17 touchdowns, including 13 rushing touchdowns while sophomore receiver Austin Collie has a team-leading six touchdown receptions.

NEAR SHUTOUTS

In three of the Cougars' 12 games this season, BYU held its opponents scoreless in three of four quarters. The Cougars held Arizona scoreless through 59 minutes. The Wildcats scored with just under a minute remaining in the game. Against Air Force, the BYU defense pitched a shutout through the better part of three quarters. The Falcons scored with 3:31 left in the third quarter, but would not score again. Interestingly, Air Force is the only team in the Mountain West Conference the Cougars have never shut out for an entire game. Shaun Carney's eight-yard touchdown run in the third quarter ended the Cougars' chances of their first-ever shutout against the Falcons. BYU has had 11 shutouts since the 1984 season. Interestingly, three of those shutouts were against New Mexico. (1984, 1988, 1992). The Cougars have only been shut out twice in the past 402 games.

HOME WIN STREAK CONTINUES

The Cougars' 17-10 victory over Utah extended BYU's home win streak to 12 straight games. The last time the Cougars won 12 consecutive home games was 16 seasons ago when the team won 17 in a row from October 7, 1989 to November 23, 1991.

MWC ROAD WARRIORS

BYU's victory at San Diego State marked the fourth road win of the season and extend the Cougars' conference road win streak to 11 straight MWC road victories. The current streak started with a 27-24 win at New Mexico during the 2005 season. The streak marks the most consecutive road wins in league play since the Cougars won 10 straight from Oct. 17, 1992 to Oct. 22, 1994.

DON'T LOOK BACK

In the Bronco Mendenhall era, BYU is 26-4 when leading at halftime and 25-1 when taking a lead into the fourth quarter. The loss at Tulsa marked the first time since September 16, 2006 the Cougars lost a game after holding a halftime lead. BYU led 34-31 at halftime against the Golden Hurricane; however, TU outscored the Cougars 24-13 in the second half to win the game, 55-47.

BALL HOGS

BYU finishes the regular season ranked fourth in the nation in time of possession, averaging 33:09 minutes per game. In the Cougars' last game, BYU owned the ball for 34:20 compared to San Diego State's 25:40 total possession time. The game marked the 10th time out of 12 games this season that the Cougars finished the game with a greater time of possession than their opponent. During the game BYU's longest drive took 5:57 off the clock.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE

The Cougars currently have the 10th longest streak in the nation of consecutive games without returning a kickoff for a touchdown. BYU has been unable to accomplish the feat in 117 straight games. Mike Rigell is the last Cougar to return a kickoff for a touchdown. Rigell turned in a 96-yard touchdown in a 31-9 victory at Hawaii on October 17, 1998.

YELLOW FEVER

Throughout the 12 games of the season, the Cougars have been plagued with penalties, ranking 100th with regular-season an average of 7.42 penalties per game. Of the Cougars' 89 penalties on the season, the offense has been flagged for 56 infractions while the defense has been penalized 21 times. Special teams has accounted for 12 of the Cougars' 89 penalties.

MORE PLAYERS TO WATCH...

Matt Allen-WR

A sure-handed possession receiver, Allen is athletic and a solid route runner. He has 27 receptions for 295 yards and three touchdowns. Allen is averaging 26.8 yards per game. Allen is also a finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy, an award presented to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

Michael Reed-WR

Another experienced big, physical outside receiver, Reed returns to the Cougars for his junior season after logging significant playing time as a freshman and sophomore. Reed had 25 catches for 339 yards and three touchdowns a year ago. An athletic receiver, Reed ranks fourth on the roster with 35 receptions for 391 yards and three touchdowns. Reed was credited with a season-high 132 yards and one touchdown against Tulsa.

ON THE ROAD vs. RANKED OPPONENTS

The Cougars' 17-27 loss to No. 11 UCLA marked the first road game against a ranked opponent since BYU knocked off No. 15 TCU in Fort Worth last season, 31-17. The victory over the Horned Frogs gave BYU its first win over a ranked opponent on the road since beating Arizona State, 13-10, on September 20, 1997. BYU is now 1-13 in games against ranked opponents, dating back to the 1999 season.

BEST OF THE BUNCH

Following the 2004 season, Bronco Mendenhall was one of 13 men who received their first head football coaching job at the Football Bowl Subdivision (Division I-A) level. Of those 13 coaches, Bronco Mendenhall has compiled the best overall record to date. Following is a list of the coaches and their current records.

Head Coach, School	Record
Bronco Mendenhall, BYU	27-10
Kyle Whittingham, Utah	23-14
Charlie Weis, Notre Dame	22-15
Bill Cubit, Western Michigan	20-16

Greg Robinson, Syracuse	7-28
Mike Sanford, UNLV	6-29
Brent Guy, Utah State	6-29

UNDEFEATED AT HOME

For the second straight season, BYU finished with a perfect 6-0 record at home. The last time BYU had a perfect record at home prior to 2006 was 2001 when the Cougars went 6-0 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Since the stadium was built in 1964, BYU has gone undefeated at home 14 times. The win against Utah marks the first time since the 1990 and 1991 seasons that BYU has back-to-back undefeated home seasons.

2007: 6-0	1984: 6-0

MILESTONE MEN

Freshman running back Harvey Unga rushed 23 times for 141 yards against Utah, becoming the first freshman running back in BYU history to rush for more than a 1,000 yards in a season.

Sophomore quarterback Max Hall threw for 269 yards against Utah, setting a new single-season MWC sophomore record for total offense.

THE TONGAN TRIO

BYU's Tongan Trio, featuring running backs Manase Tonga, Fui Vakapuna and Harvey Unga, was back in action against Eastern Washington. Vakapuna broke his hand Sept. 15 against Tulsa and missed the next three weeks following surgery. The junior carried the ball 15 times for 37 yards against the Eagles. Tonga, Unga and Vakapuna have combined for 1,743 rushing yards and 881 yards receiving through the first 12 games, averaging 218.7 all-purpose yards per game.

COLLIE BREAKS SCHOOL, MWC RECORDS

Against Tulsa, sophomore receiver Austin Collie was credited with 366 all-purpose yards, including 245 combined return yards and 121 receiving yards, to break Pete Van Valkenburg's 35-year-old school record. Van Valkenburg racked up 306 all-purpose yards in a 33-14 win over Wyoming on November 4, 1972.

FLAG BEARERS

BYU has a tradition of selecting a player before each game to run the team flag onto the field. The white flag with a blue "Y" logo has been signed by each member of the team.

Table listing flag bearers for various games: vs. Arizona (Joe Semanoff), at UCLA (Quinn Gooch), at Tulsa (Corby Hodgkiss), vs. Air Force (Kayle Buchanan), at New Mexico (Judd Anderton), at UNLV (Andre Saulsberry), vs. Eastern Washington (Chris Bolden), vs. Colorado State (Sean Sullivan), vs. TCU (Dustin Gabriel), at Wyoming (Ben Criddle), vs. Utah (Max Hall), at San Diego State (Markell Staffieri).

SCORING NOTES

The Cougars posted a season-high 48 points on San Diego State, marking the most points scored since putting up 55 points against Wyoming on November 9, 2006. The Cougars broke the 40-point mark three different times during the season, including a 42-7 win over Eastern Washington and a 47-55 loss at Tulsa. That game marked the most points BYU has scored in a losing effort since falling to TCU in overtime, 50-51, on September 24, 2005. It's also the most points scored during regulation in a losing effort since losing to Utah State, 56-58, on October 30, 1993. Interestingly, since that game in 1993, the Cougars are 32-2 in games when the team scores 45 (or more) points.

A FAMILY TRADITION

Several members of the football team have a relative that played a sport for the Cougars. The following is a list of players and their relative:

UNGA CLAIMS TOP FRESHMAN HONORS

Freshman running back Harvey Unga rushed 23 times for 161 yards at San Diego State giving him a season total of 1,211 yards rushing on the season. Unga, who is BYU's all-time rushing freshman, also scored a career-high four touchdowns. Unga was credited with 190 total yards against the Aztecs, including three receptions for 29 yards. Unga is the first running back in BYU history to turn in seven 100-yard rushing games during his freshman season. Against Eastern Washington, Unga was credited with 21 carries for 145 yards and one touchdown, averaging 6.9 yards per carry. Unga also totaled a team-high 57 yards receiving on four receptions, including a 22-yard touchdown to give BYU a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. Unga totaled a game-high 202 all-purpose yards, marking the second straight game he had produced over 200 all-purpose yards. Unga has a team-leading 1,211 yards rushing on the season, averaging 100.9 yards per game. All totaled, Unga accounts for 49 percent of BYU's total rushing attempts and 66 percent of the team's total rushing yards.

WHAT HAS BYU DONE THAT NO OTHER TEAM HAS DONE?

BYU is the only team in the nation that has not allowed a 100-yard rusher. Following is a look at the top rusher for each of the Cougars' 12 opponents:

Table listing opponents and their top rushers: San Diego State (O'Connell, 61 yards), Utah (Mack, 56 yards), Wyoming (Seldon, 28 yards), TCU (Dalton, 60 yards), Colorado State (Johnson, 72 yards), Eastern Washington (Morris, 33 yards), UNLV (Summers, 50 yards), New Mexico (Ferguson, 87 yards), Air Force (Smith, 47 yards), Tulsa (Hall, 79 yards), UCLA (Adams, 79 yards), Arizona (Bell, 79 yards), Arizona (Jennings, 27 yards).

WHERE THEY RANK NATIONALLY

Several BYU players rank nationally in various statistical categories:

- Max Hall: Total Offense: 14th (303.2 yards per game), Passing Efficiency: 28th (137.97)
Austin Collie: Kickoff Returns: T-38th (25.4 yards per return), Receiving yards: 62nd (69.9 yards per game), All-purpose yards: 62nd (124.4 yards per game)

- Harvey Unga: Rushing yards: 31st (100.9 yards per game), All-purpose yards: 21st (153.3 yards per game), Scoring: T-31st (8.5)

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK HONORS

December 3, 2007 -- Helping lead the Cougars to a 48-27 win over San Diego State on Saturday, freshman running back Harvey Unga and sophomore defensive end Jan Jorgensen were named the Mountain West Conference Offensive and Defensive players of the week, respectively.

Unga, a freshman from Provo, Utah ran for 161 yards on 23 carries, averaging 7.0 yards per carry. He totaled a career-high four touchdowns, including three rushing TD's. Unga was also credited with three reception for 29 yards, totaling 190 all-purpose yards in the contest. His 24 points against the Aztecs set the MWC single-game record for scoring by a freshman. The game marked Unga's third straight 100-yard rushing performance and seventh overall this season. Unga has rushed for 1,211 yards in 2007, marking the most yards for a BYU player since Doak Walker Award-winner Luke Staley racked up 1,582 yards during the 2001 campaign. Unga's single-season rushing mark currently ranks fourth all-time in BYU history. He needs just six yards to become the MWC's all-time leading freshman rusher.

Jorgensen, a sophomore from Helper, Utah, finished the game with a team-leading seven tackles, including five solo stops and a sack in the Cougars' 21-point win over SDSU. Jorgensen leads the league with 11.5 sacks on the season. He anchored a defensive unit that held the Aztecs to just 68 yards rushing. Eliminating the 61 yards rushing by quarterback Kevin O'Connell, the BYU defense allowed just seven yards rushing on the night. The game marked the 12th straight time the Cougars have not allowed a 100-yard rusher.

November 26, 2007 -- Playing critical rolls in No. 19 BYU's 17-10 win over in-state rival Utah, freshman running back Harvey Unga and freshman kicker Mitch Payne were named the Mountain West Conference Offensive and Special Teams Players of the Week, respectively.

With 38 second remaining in the game, trailing 10-9, the freshman All-America candidate scored the most important touchdown of the season, and of his career -- a game-winning, 11-yard run to give the Cougars a 15-10 lead. (Max Hall completed a pass in the pass of the endzone to Austin Collie for the two-point conversion to give BYU a 17-10 lead.) Unga's game-winning touchdown helped BYU secure its second straight, outright Mountain West Conference Championship. Unga carried the ball 23 times for 141 yards, averaging 6.1 yards per carry against the Utes. During the game, Unga became the first freshman running back in BYU football history to record over 1,000 yards rushing in his first season. In addition, Unga was credited with his sixth 100-yard game of the year, including his third 100-yard performance against a Mountain West Conference opponent. Unga also had one reception for 27 yards, finishing the day with 168 total yards.

Payne, a freshman from North Ogden, Utah, connected on a career-best three field goals in the Cougars' victory. Payne's field goals of 22, 23 and 35 yards gave BYU a 9-3 advantage late into the fourth quarter. His three field goals marked the first time a BYU kicker has had three field goals in a game since BYU's double-overtime loss at Boston College last season.

November 19, 2007 -- Sophomore quarterback Max Hall totaled 331 yards passing on 26-of-37 attempts and was credited with three touchdown completions in BYU's 35-10 victory over Wyoming on Saturday. The win helped secure at least a share of the Cougars' second-straight Mountain West Conference title. The 6-foot-1, 200-pound native of Mesa, Ariz., eclipsed the 3,000-yard mark during Saturday's game to become the Mountain West Conference's all-time sophomore passing leader, breaking Wyoming's Casey Bramlet's previous mark of 3,069 yards. Hall set the record on a 10-yard touchdown completion to Michael Reed to give BYU a 28-3 lead with 10:46 left in the third quarter. With 3,121 yards on the season, Hall is the nation's top sophomore quarterback. Hall finished the day completing over 70 percent of his attempts and was credited with three touchdown completions, including a three-yard completion to Matt Allen in the second quarter that would prove to be the game-winning touchdown. After taking a 35-10 lead with 11:42 left in the fourth quarter, Hall did not play the remainder of the game. His 331-yard outing was the first time this season Wyoming had allowed an opponent to pass for over 300 yards. Comparing Hall to BYU's Quarterback Factory, he ranks third behind Ty Detmer and Robbie Bosco with 3,121 yards and 21 touchdown completions through his first 10 games as a starter. Detmer posted 3,868 yards and 26 touchdowns in his first 10 games while Bosco, who went 10-0 in his first 10 games, racked up 3,170 yards and 29 touchdowns.

November 12, 2007 -- Senior linebacker Kelly Poppinga was named the Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Week after recording a career-high 17 tackles in the Cougars' 27-22 win over TCU. Poppinga's performance marked the most number of tackles by a BYU defender in a single game since Rob Morris registered 17 tackles against San Diego State during the 1998 season. Overall, the Evanston, Wyo., native was credited with seven solo and 10 assisted takedowns, a four-yard tackle for loss, a QB hurry and a 22-yard interception. Holding a 17-9 lead early in the third quarter, Poppinga intercepted an Andy Dalton pass and returned it 22 yards to the TCU 3-yard line. One play later, Harvey Unga scored on a three-yard run, giving the Cougars' what would be the game-winning touchdown. The play marked Poppinga's first interception of the season. Poppinga was most effective against the TCU rushing attack, recording 11 tackles on plays that had a net gain of five yards or less. (Nine stops were for four yards or less and six tackles were for three yards or less.) Poppinga leads the Cougars with 77 tackles, including 32 stops in the last two games.

October 1, 2007 -- Senior linebacker Bryan Kehl helped lead BYU to a 31-24 victory at New Mexico on Saturday, posting 10 tackles, a sack, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and an interception with a 36-yard return for a touchdown. Kehl, a defensive co-captain, scooped up a deflected Donovan Porterie pass on the fourth play of the game and returned it 36 yards to give the Cougars an early 7-0 lead with 13:06 left in the first quarter. The play marked Kehl's first career interception. With just under 10 minutes left in the third quarter, Kehl stripped the ball from Porterie and recovered the fumble to give BYU a first-and-10 at the Cougars' own 41-yard line. Kehl was also credited with a sack and a tackle for a loss on the play. Three plays later, BYU quarterback Max Hall connected with Austin Collie for a 59-yard touchdown to give the Cougars a 21-6 lead with 9:23 left in the third quarter. The 6-foot-3, 231-pound senior leads the BYU roster with 42 tackles on the season, including a team-best 25 solo tackles. He has recorded five tackles for loss, including two sacks on the season. Kehl's performance helped the Cougars improve to 3-2 on the season and now sit alone atop the MWC standings with a 2-0 league record. BYU has won 10 straight league games, and extended its Mountain West Conference road win streak to eight straight games.

September 3, 2007 -- BYU running back Harvey Unga was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Cougars to a 20-7 season-opening victory over Arizona. Unga racked up a game-high 194 all-purpose yards, including a game-best 67 yards rushing and 127 yards receiving. Unga was also credited with two touchdowns, including a 27-yard pass and run with 6:02 left in the first quarter that gave the Cougars a 7-0 lead, and an 11-yard run in the fourth quarter that extended BYU's lead to 20-0. Prior to Arizona's final drive of the game, Unga had totaled more offensive yards than the entire Arizona offense combined. For the game, Unga averaged 4.5 yards per carry and averaged over 14 yards per reception. Unga's offensive total against the Wildcats marked the top performance by a freshman running back in the country.

GETTING AN EARLY START

ALL-TIME BOWL RESULTS

Saturday's game will mark the Cougars' 26th all-time bowl appearance. BYU has posted a post-season bowl record of 8-16-1 and is currently riding a one-game win streak entering the 16th Annual Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl after a 38-8 victory over Oregon in the 2006 Las Vegas Bowl. The Cougars have not won back-to-back bowl games in consecutive years since beating Missouri in 1983 and Michigan in 1984. (BYU defeated Oklahoma in 1994 and Kansas State in 1996.)

Table listing all-time bowl results from 1974 to 2007, including opponent, result, and score.
