SAN DIEGO STATE'S LAST OUTING - NO. 6 AZTECS PULL AWAY FROM FALCONS, 70-58

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) - Once they had dispatched of feisty Air Force, the sixth-ranked San Diego State Aztecs were free to focus on BYU, the only team to beat them this year.

They talked about cleaning up all that went wrong in a 13-point loss to the Cougars last month. Atop that list ...

"We have to try to keep Jimmer under 43," cracked Aztecs point guard D.J. Gay, recalling Jimmer Fredette's point total in that Jan. 26 game in Provo, Utah.

The Aztecs, who lead the nation in wins (27) and winning percentage (96.4), have six days to prepare for the big rematch against the nation's leading scorer and seventh-ranked BYU.

"This game we really want," Thomas said. "We want to show that we're one of the best in the nation."

They warmed up by holding off Air Force 70-58 Saturday and setting a school record with its 27th win. Malcolm Thomas posted his seventh double-double of the season with 20 points and 13 rebounds, and Kawhi Leonard posted his 19th double-double with 18 points and 15 boards as the Aztecs (27-1, 12-1 Mountain West) beat the Falcons (13-12, 4-8) for the seventh straight time.

Air Force, which was led by Michael Lyons' 18 points, was beaten on the glass 50-27 and allowed 21 offensive rebounds. The Falcons fell to 0-30 against top-10 opponents and 1-71 all-time against ranked teams.

But they sure made a game of it before fading down the stretch.

Fow's pair of 3-pointers served as the Falcons' only points in the first eight minutes of the second half as the Aztecs began to find a rhythm.

Even with their 21-8 spurt spanning halftime, the Aztecs weren't able to pull away until the final 10 minutes.

With 9:52 left, Adam Brakeville was whistled for an intentional foul as Billy White had a breakaway to the basket, and Brakeville's technical foul shots made it 52-44. On the ensuing possession, Leonard sank two more freebies to make it a double-digit lead.

Although Air Force surprisingly outscored the athletic Aztecs 10-0 on the fastbreak, they were outscored 19-2 by San Diego State on second-chance points.

SERIES NOTES

BYU leads the all-time series against San Diego State, 47-22. The Cougars are 29-3 against the Aztecs at home and 17-17 in San Diego (7-7 at Viejas). BYU is 9-4 against San Diego State under Dave Rose.

LAST TIME VS. SAN DIEGO STATE - FREDETTE'S 43 CARRY COUGARS TO VICTORY

PROVO, Utah (Jan. 26, 2011) - Senior guard Jimmer Fredette scored 43 points to lead the No. 9 BYU Cougars over the No. 4 San Diego State Aztecs 71-58 in front of a sellout crowd at the Marriott Center on Wednesday night.

Fredette led all scorers on the night, hitting 14-of-24 shots from the field, including five-of-eight from behind the arc. His 43 points are the most ever scored by a Cougar in the Marriott Center. Sophomore Brandon Davies helped out with 14 points and five rebounds.

The Cougars and Aztecs started the game off trading baskets for the first five minutes of play with SDSU holding an 8-6 lead with 14:28 until halftime. BYU would go on a 5-0 run to pull back ahead 13-12 with just over 11 minutes left before the break but would continue to fight with the Aztecs as the score was knotted up at 19 with 6:44 on the first-half clock

SDSU sophomore Kawhi Leonard hit a three-point shot with three seconds until halftime to send the Aztecs into the locker room holding a 31-30 lead. Fredette led all scorers with 20 points heading into the break, including BYU's last 15. Davies chipped in eight and Anderson helped out on the defensive end with two blocked shots and a steal.

After going back and forth for the first few minutes of the second half, Fredette hit a three-pointer to put BYU back on top 40-38 with 16:40 left to play to electrify the Cougar crowd. The senior guard would drop in another easy two pointer on BYU's next possession to extend the lead.

With the shot clock ticking down to single digits, Fredette hit a well-contested deep three to give the Cougars a 50-46 lead with 12:29 remaining. Senior Jackson Emery got a steal on the next SDSU possession and finished with a fast-break dunk to give BYU a six-point advantage.

Emery kept the Cougars on top 58-52 with under five minutes in the game with two made free throws. Junior Noah Hartsock would follow on the next possession with an offensive rebound and put-back to give BYU an eight-point lead with just over four minutes to play.

Fredette's consistent free-throw shooting helped build BYU's lead to 67-56 with under two minutes to go. Fredette, who made 10-of-11 from the line on the night would help seal BYU's victory by making all seven attempts in the closing minutes

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME BYU HEAD COACH DAVE ROSE

"That was quite a game. I thought both teams played hard. It was a physical game; both teams went on scoring runs and the other team answered. I'm really impressed with Steve Fisher's team. They played really hard and played together, but I'm also really proud of our guys because we played consistently for 40 minutes, got to their shooters and battled them for rebounds. They had 18 offensive rebounds but they could've had 30.

"Jimmer has a relentless mindset toward scoring the ball which you might think everyone has, but his is unique. But he's also playing with guys that want to get the best shot possible on every possession and I think you can see that when Jimmer's got a hot hand and is rolling pretty good that his teammates really look for him.

SAN DIEGO STATE HEAD COACH STEVE FISHER

"That is a really good team we just played. They are led by as good a player as I have ever coached against; he is just sensational and extremely hard to guard. But the team is very good and the crowd got really into it. We allowed too much separation there at the end and missed too many easy ones. Once the lead got to 10 we were not going to get back in it.

"We really wanted to come out and compete. We wanted to work the ball inside. But in the end we just need to make shots and take advantage of our good looks.

"Fredette scored every time he got the ball there for a stretch. Then we got too worried about getting bumped and didn't seem to finish near the basket. It was a physical game and we stayed with them for about 35 minutes, but we just couldn't hold on for 40."

LAST TIME OUT - DAVIES, FREDETTE AND FREE THROWS HELP COUGARS WIN

PROVO, Utah (Feb. 23, 2011) – Free-throw shooting helped the No. 7/7 BYU men's basketball team defeat the Colorado State Rams 84-76 on Wednesday night in the Marriott Center.

The Cougars made 35-of-43 free throws for the game while shooting 38.6 percent on 22-of-57 shooting from the field. Senior Jimmer Fredette scored 34 points to lead all scorers and passed Devin Durrant for third all-time in scoring in BYU history and now has 2,299 career points.

Sophomore Brandon Davies picked up his third double-double of the season, scoring 14 points and grabbing 15 rebounds - a career high. BYU would outrebound the Rams 48-29 for the game and grab 18 offensive boards. Senior Jackson Emery scored 11 points and had four steals while junior Noah Hartsock added 10 points and six rebounds

Hartsock got BYU on the board with a layup after nearly two minutes of play and junior Charles Abouo hit a threepointer on BYU's next possession to tie the score at 7-7.

Fredette drilled his first three-pointer of the game with 9:59 left in the first half. The senior guard was also fouled on the play and made his free throw for the four-point play. Davies would make one free throw on the next possession as part of a 14-0 run by the Cougars to give them a 27-13 lead.

Over a four-minute span, Fredette would score 10-straight points to keep the lead at 44-36 at halftime. Fredette led all scorers at the break with 18 points. BYU shot 42.4 percent on 14-of-33 shooting in the half. Emery scored eight points while Davies helped out on the boards, grabbing seven rebounds and chipping in four points.

The second half started out slow for the Cougars as Colorado State was able to trim the BYU lead to two points at 48-46 after four minutes of play. BYU was sparked by a one-handed dunk from Davies to put the Cougars on top 54-48 with 13:37 left in the game.

Free throws would help BYU on an 11-2 run to stretch the lead to 69-56 with 9:02 remaining on the clock. BYU made 7-of-8 free throws during the run.

Both teams would get comfortable at the charity stripe for much of the second half with both teams entering the bonus early on. The Cougars would make 9-of-13 free throws over the final nine minutes and Colorado State would make 4-of-7 of their own down the stretch.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...

BYU HEAD COACH DAVE ROSE

"The game was exactly how we thought it would play out as far as how physical it was and how competitive it was. Both teams played with a lot of emotion.'

"Both teams were extremely active on the boards and it was a really important game. Both teams played that way and I was glad we were able to make a few plays down the stretch and were able to win the game.

Brandon played with a lot of energy and a lot of passion. Their frontline is very good. They were physical with him but he just kept playing. He got himself to the free throw line and converted. The way he rebounded was impressive.'

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID

STEVE FISHER, SAN DIEGO STATE

"That is a really good team we just played. They are led by as good a player (Fredette) as I have ever coached against; he is just sensational and extremely hard to guard."

KEVIN DURRANT TWEET

"Jimmer Fredette is the greatest scorer in the world!!"

JOHN WALL TWEET

"Jimmer Fredette is cold #respect"

DELL CURRY

"He has wonderful form. Regardless of where he's at on the court, every shot is the same. He has unlimited and unbelievable range. That's what makes him so dangerous. You can't let your guard down at all. He's very crafty and he knows when and how he wants to shoot it. I may be biased but any time you can shoot the basketball there should be a place for you on a team. In the NBA, you don't see a lot of shooters. I think Steph is more of a point guard but in the right system. [Fredette] is a guy who can shoot the basketball and there will be a place for him in the league."

JIM CHRISTIAN, TCU COACH

"Jackson Emery is the most underrated player in the league. To me, Emery was the key. I told Coach Rose before the game that if I could trade for anyone in the league, I'd want Jackson Emery."

ANDY KATZ, ESPN.COM

"As sensational as Walker and Sullinger have been, as much as Kyrie Irving's toe injury was and is a storyline at Duke and throughout the sport, as much as Michigan State's implosion and Bruce Pearl's suspension have been constant subplots, the face of the sport right now is unquestionably Jimmer Fredette.

EAMONN BRENNON, ESPN.COM

"Consider this your last and final warning, America. If you don't go out of your way to check out what the Cougars and Fredette do on a nightly basis -- their crazy, uptempo, let's-chuck-fromanywhere, oh-my-goodness-what-a-shot approach to every single game they play -- you're missing out on the most entertaining show college hoops has to offer. Call your cable provider, find a shady Internet site, find highlights on an obscure satellite TV channel, do whatever."

REGGIE WITHERSPOON, BUFFALO COACH

"Going down the stretch, the last 12 minutes, he got going. Some of those — it wasn't that anything backfired — it was like, Jimmer Fredette, that's a first-team All-American and some of those we were in great position and he pulls and fires. If you do a bad job on him, he gets 50. I said before the game I was trying to recall there being a better visiting college player to this area and I don't think I have a debate now. He's a bad dude. The guy can play."

DICK VITALE, ESPN

"I'm telling you, that's a dangerous team in BYU. Why? Jimmer Fredette. Remember the name, Jimmer Fredette. Jimmer Fredette. The guy can flat-out score. Call Donovan up — 37 on the Gators. Fourly-nine against Arizona. If he's stroking it, and they get to the free-throw line, and it's a close game, they're the best free throw shooting team in America."

SEAN MILLER, ARIZONA

(In 2010) "He (Jimmer Fredette) is a terrific guard. Today was just another example of how well he can play offensively. He makes everything easier for his team and we just had no answer for him today. We tried to guard him as a team but he is clever with the ball in his hands and has a good supporting cast."

JIM BOYLEN, UTAH

"I think he's the best player in the league in a long time. I haven't been in this league that long but he's the best player we've played against this year and we've played a heck of a schedule. He's a terrific player, a terrific competitor. He's a great kid. I think he represents BYU with a lot of class and pride. You should be proud of him. He's a great player."

FREDETTE NAMED A NAISMITH TOP 30 CANDIDATE

ATLANTA (Feb. 11, 2011) -- The top 30 candidates for the Naismith Trophy, one of the most prestigious awards in college basketball, were named today by The Atlanta Tipoff Club's Board of Selectors, and BYU senior Jimmer Fredette and San Diego State sophomore Kawhi Leonard were included on the list. Composed of the players who will compete for this season's player of the year award, the list is based on individual performances from the first half of the 2010-11 season.

Fredette, a Glens Falls, N.Y., native, is averaging a NCAA-best 27.5 points, while contributing 4.3 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game for the seventh-ranked Cougars. He is shooting 47.3 percent from the field, including a 42.1 percent mark from beyond the arc, and has an 89.8 percent efficiency on free throws. In 10 Mountain West contests, Fredette has led BYU to a 9-1 mark by averaging 32.6 points per game while shooting 48.2 percent from three-point range.

Leonard has led the sixth-ranked Aztecs to a program-best 24-1 start this season and a 9-1 record in Conference play. The Riverside, Calif., native is averaging 14.9 points, 10.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.4 steals per game. Leonard, who is shooting 44.7 percent from the field, has tallied 17 double-doubles this season.

The Naismith Trophy, presented by AT&T, will be awarded at the 2011 NCAA Men's Final Four in Houston. Each year, the Atlanta Tipoff Club's board of selectors narrows the pre-season watch list of 50 players to 30, then chooses the four finalists who will make up the final ballot.

The board, comprised of leading basketball journalists, coaches and administrators from around the country, bases its criteria on player performance for the season. Since 2005, presenting sponsor AT&T has set the standard in allowing fans to participate in determining the trophy winner. Through text messaging, fan voting will account for 25 percent of the final results – more than any other national college basketball award.

PRESEASON MWC POLL

DENVER (Oct. 12, 2010) – BYU guard Jimmer Fredette received Mountain West Conference Preseason Player of the Year honors at the league's media day being held today at The MountainWest Sports Network studios. Kyle Collinsworth was also named the Preseason Freshman of the Year and the Cougars were picked to finish second in the MWC by the league's media.

Fredette, a preseason first-team All-American and national player-of-the-year candidate, repeats as the league's preseason player of the year. Also named to the preseason all-conference team, Fredette is a two-time All-MWC First Team honoree and last season led the league in scoring at 22.1 points per game while adding 4.7 assists.

Collinsworth is a versatile guard out of Provo High School who was named Utah's Mr. Basketball and the state's Gatorade Player of the Year as a senior. At Provo he helped the Bulldogs win two state titles and was a three-time first-team all-state honoree.

San Diego State was picked to finish first in the league and garnered 21 first-place votes compared to five for the Cougars. Last season, BYU was picked to finish first in the league and finished the season second in the regular season standings while setting a program record with 30 wins and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

This marks the third time the Cougars were picked to finish second in the preseason media poll — the other years being the 2006-07 and 2008-09 seasons. BYU finished first in the MWC regular season in 2007 and tied for first in 2009.

Since becoming head coach of the BYU men's basketball program on April 11, 2005, Dave Rose has guided the Cougars to an impressive array of on-the-court awards and accolades while his unassuming approach to service and the community has been recognized at the top of his profession.

With a 153-42 record, Rose has produced a five-year resume that is nearly unmatched. His five-year resume ranks among the best in the history of NCAA Division I basketball. His 128 victories through five seasons place him fifth for best career starts (through five seasons) by wins in NCAA history, ahead of the likes of Jerry Tarkanian, Jim Boeheim and Thad Matta. He currently holds the school record for winning percentage (.785) and the MWC record for winning percentage in league games (.817).

Equally committed to excellence off the court, Rose was honored on April 6, 2008, by the National Association of Basketball Coaches with its Game Pillar Award for Service, one of only four Pillar Awards (Education, Leadership, Service and Advocacy) that the Association annually bestows on the most deserving among its vast membership. While Rose has never sought such attention, his actions and accomplishments — both on the court and in the community — have commanded the praises of faithful followers and casual observers alike. In April 2008 Rose became the 63rd recipient of the Dale Rex Memorial Award, given annually to the person who has done the most for amateur athletics in the state of Utah. Another evidence of Rose's commitment to excellence is that his basketball program ranks in the top 10 percent nationally in multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores. As a result, the NCAA honored BYU with Public Recognition awards for three-straight seasons (2007 to 2010) for their high academic achievement. BYU is the only program in the nation to earn public recognition from the NCAA and an NCAA Tournament bid in each of the last four seasons.

Cougar fans have had plenty to "Rise and Shout" about with Rose at the helm. A tireless worker, gifted motivator and talented strategist, Rose has returned BYU to the national stage with four-straight seasons appearing in the top-25 polls and four-straight trips to the NCAA Tournament — both firsts in program history. In his first season, Rose and his staff produced the nation's second-most improved team by turning a 9-21 squad that finished tied for last with three wins in the Mountain West Conference into a 20-9 NIT qualifier and 12-4 second-place MWC finisher. Under his tutelage from 2007 to 2009, the Cougars achieved the MWC's first two-time outright league championships (2007 and 2008) while adding to the streak with a share of the regular season title in 2009 to make it three-consecutive. In 2010, BYU set a program record with 30 victories and defeated Florida in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the programs first tournament victory since 1993. In addition to the record-setting win total, the 2009-10 Cougar squad set program records for winning percentage, scoring margin, field goals, three-point field goals, turnover margin and steals. Nationally, BYU finished the season first in free throw percentage, second in scoring offense, scoring margin and three-point field goal percentage.

The only BYU men's basketball coach to ever win top conference coaching honors in back-toback seasons, Rose was named MWC Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2007. In his second season, Rose coached the 2006-07 Cougars to a 25-9 overall record and NCAA berth after winning the MWC regular-season title with a 13-3 mark. In his first season, Rose received conference and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year accolades as well as honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com.

Rose first came to BYU as an assistant in 1997 to help newly hired head coach Steve Cleveland rebuild the Cougar program after a 1-25 season. Rose served eight seasons with Cleveland, including the last five as Associate Head Coach, before being promoted to BYU's head job just two days after Cleveland announced his departure. Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, including defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. His efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 11 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 13 years Rose has been in Provo. Seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year after fellow Cougar and second-team Freshman All-American Trent Plaisted received the same honor in 2006. In 2010 Tyler Haws was named third-team All-MWC as a freshman and set the BYU record with 48-consecutive free throws without a miss.

With 27 years of coaching experience including 15 seasons as a head coach at the Division I, junior college, and high school levels, Rose has a proven record of constant success. Prior to coming to BYU as an assistant in 1997, Rose compiled a 167-57 record at Dixie State College (St. George, Utah) while guiding six of his seven teams to top-20 rankings, including a national ranking as high as No. 2. He earned three conference titles and was honored by his peers as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as long-time NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU, Rose has coached six players who have received All-America recognition–Mekeli Wesley (2001 AP honorable mention), Rafael Araujo (2004 Basketball Times Second Team, AP honorable mention), Trent Plaisted (2006 Scout.com Freshman Second Team), Keena Young (2007 AP honorable mention), Lee Cummard (2008 AP honorable mention, FVASports.com Fourth Team) and Jimmer Fredette (2010 third-team Sporting News and NABC, AP Honorable Mention and Lute Olson All-America team)--and two players who have been selected in the NBA Draft--Travis Hansen (2003) and Araujo (2004).

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose is the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, before the Texas native returned to his hometown, transferring to the University of Houston where he completed his degree and was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished as the national runner-up after suffering a buzzer-beating defeat to North Carolina State in the NCAA Championship game. Rose spent three years at Houston, playing in 1980-81, redshirting in 1981-82 and concluding his career in 1982-83.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Rose followed Steve Cleveland as the second BYU head coach to have served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Rose served in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie State College.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Currently the Honorary Chairman of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation, Rose works with his wife, Cheryl, and the team to annually serve and comfort local families who endure the challenges of raising a child who has cancer. The National Association of Basketball Coaches honored Rose with its Game Pillar Award for Service in April 2008. While at Dixie State College, Rose became the first coach in the State of Utah to participate in the American Cancer Society's nationwide Coaches vs. Cancer campaign and served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. He has also been a volunteer coach for youth groups. Dave and Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community, receiving the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005.

The fight against Cancer became more personal for the family when Dave was diagnosed with pancreatic neuroendocrine tumor cancer in June 2009. Since the emergency surgery to remove the tumor, no other cancer has been found. Scans since the surgery by doctors at the Huntsman Cancer Institute have all come back clear. The United States Basketball Writers Association recognized Rose for his efforts with its Most Courageous Award.
