SAINT MARY'S LAST OUTING - MEN'S BASKETBALL TOO MUCH FOR RED RAIDERS

South Padre Island, TX - The Saint Mary's men's basketball team got a huge night from sophomore center Tim Williams who recorded his second career double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. Saint Mary's led by as much as 26 points early in the second half, as SMC cruised to a 88-68 victory over Texas Tech in the third game of the South Padre Island Invitational. As a team, the Gaels (6-0) shot an impressive 59.3 percent from the field, which included going 7-for-14 from 3-point range. But the real story was how SMC got it done down low. The Gaels finished the night with 48 points in the paint, which included 12 second chance points. Saint Mary's once again out-rebounded their opponent 32 to 23. Texas Tech (4-2) shot 43.1 percent from the field, going 22-for-51, but could not overcome the Gaels impressive first half. Williams 20 points led all scorers in the game, but he was joined by four other Gaels in double figures. Mickey McConnell finished the night with 18 points, going 6-for-11 from the field, including 2-for-3 from behind the arc. McConnell also dished out four assists. Rob Jones tallied 12 points on 4-of-8 shooting, including going 2-for-4 from 3-point range. Mitchell Young had an impressive night, with 10 points off a 5-for-6 shooting performance. Lastly, Matthew Dellavedova finished the evening with 10 points, going 3-for-8 from the field, including 1-for-3 from behind the arc and was a perfect 3-for-3 from the charity stripe. Dellavedova also finished two assists shy of a double-double, tallying eight on the evening. Texas Tech opened up the game on a 4-0 run, but from there it was all Saint Mary's. SMC went on a 20-2 run to take an early 20-6 lead. Leading the charge was the sharp shooting of McConnell who picked up five of his 14 first half points in the run. SMC kept up the pressure defensively the rest of the half, limiting the Red Raiders to just 23 points on 8-of-23 from the field. Texas Tech's Brad Reese and Robert Lewandowski combined for 19 of the Texas Tech's 23 first half points. Reese led the Red Raiders with 13 points on the night, going 3-for-9 from the field and 6-for-8 from the free throw line. Saint Mary's played nearly flawless basketball, shooting 71% from the field in the first half, going 20-for-28 from the floor, with most of the points coming in the key, as the Gaels were just 3-of-6 from 3-point range. Mitchell Young and Tim Williams combined for 15 points in the paint in the opening half. In the second half the Red Raiders came to life. Texas Tech's John Roberson scored all 11 of his points in the first nine minutes of the half, cutting the Gaels lead to 19 with 11:41 to play. The strong two-man play between Williams and Dellavedova continued in the second half, as the guard dished a nice behind the back pass to Williams who made a strong move to the basket on the pick and roll to put the Gaels back up 20, with 8:55 to play. With 4:01 to play the Gaels turned to the bench, with SMC up 23, 79-56. Dellavedova hit three free throws to essentially put the game on ice.

LAST TIME OUT - HARTSOCK HITS GAME WINNER VS. SOUTH FLORIDA

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, Texas (Nov. 26, 2010) - Tough defense and Noah Hartssock's game winner as time expired led BYU to a 77-75 double-overtime victory over South Florida in the South Padre Invitational on Friday. The Cougars will play for the South Padre Invitational title on Saturday at 7 p.m. CT against the winner of Texas Tech vs. Saint Mary's. The game will be televised live on Fox College Sports. With the score knotted 72-all in the second overtime, hit a three-pointer with 1:32 remaining to give the Cougars a three-point advantage. Augustus Gilchrist answered with a layup inside and Toarlyn Fitzpatrick hit 1-of-2 free throws with 22 seconds remaining to tie the score at 75-all. With a third overtime looming, Fredette drew a crowd in the paint and kicked out to Hartssock, who hit a baseline jumper as time expired for the win. Fredette and Jackson Emery each registered season-high point totals, with Fredette scoring 32 points and Emery 20. Fredette also tied a career high with five steals and Charles Abouo added eight points and a team-best eight rebounds. Fredette started off strong, scoring five of BYU's first six points. The Cougars led 19-16 with 3:17 remaining in the half but South Florida closed with a 12-4 run to lead 28-23 at the half. The Bulls used a 5-0 to start the second half to take their largest lead of the game at 33-23. Trailing by their largest deficit of the season, Fredette took over, scoring 10 points on six free throws and two layups in just under four minutes to pull the Cougars within one at 39-38. Trailing 42-40, Fredette hit a trey with 7:38 remaining that gave the Cougars their first lead of the second half, 43-42. From there it was all Emery for the Cougars, as he scored 14 of their next 15 points on two free throws and four threes, the last of which tied the score at 58-all with 1:20 remaining. Jawanza Poland answered on South Florida's next possession, nailing a three with 46 seconds remaining to give the Bulls a 61-58 lead. BYU would not be outdone as Charles Abouo - who had missed his previous four shots - calmly hit a three from the top of the key with 33 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime. Abouo came up big again in the first overtime, scoring a left-handed layup with 2:27 remaining to pull BYU within two at 66-64. Fredette tied the score with a layup and his three with 1:00 remaining game the Cougars a 69-66 lead. However, it was Poland who again answered for South Florida, hitting a three-pointer and tying the score at 69-all with 30 seconds left on the clock. BYU had a shot for the win but Fredette's jumper fell short and the game was extended for one more overtime session.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...BYU HEAD COACH DAVE ROSE

"It was fun to watch our guys compete. I think there are times when it is really easy to play hard. It's really easy when things are going well for you, when you're shooting the ball well, when you're making free throws or getting big stops but this was a game where we were having a lot of problems, we were missing a lot of free throws and not making shots and our guys had a real will to win the game."

"Tonight was a real gut check. These games are really hard on you when you lose because guys will say 'if I had made one more play' or this or that. But when you win a game like this, I think it can really help your team come together and hopefully that is what this win will do."

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAIDDICK VITALE, ESPN

"I'm telling you, that's a dangerous team in BYU. Why? Jimmer Fredette. Remember the name, Jimmer Fredette. Jimmer Fredette. The guy can flat-out score. Call Donovan up — 37 on the Gators. Forty-nine against Arizona. If he's stroking it, and they get to the free-throw line, and it's a close game, they're the best free throw shooting team in America."

HUBERT DAVIS, ESPN

"(On Fredette) He's been fun to watch this year. I think people are going to see probably the best scoring point guard in the country. He's terrific in a pick and role situation because if you go underneath he has the ability to knock down a perimeter jump shot. If you go over and force him into the lane he has the ability to use the nice floater. He can take it to the rim, he can use both hands, he's crafty. Ever time I watch him he reminds me more — I'm not saying he's Steve Nash — but the way that he approaches the game in terms of dribble penetration and keeping the ball alive, he looks like Steve Nash. He does a terrific job of passing the basketball."

TIM MILES, COLORADO STATE

"Fredette is a special player and his numbers are remarkable. We tried multiple defenders, we tried traps and he still finds ways to hurt you."

JIM CHRISTIAN, TCU

"Jimmer Fredette's one of the top players in the country. Period. He's a guy that's never rattled. He's never out of control. He sees the floor extremely well. He makes shots. But I also think the thing that's not talked about nationally is how good the team is. When you've got that many pieces around you it enables you to have an open floor and to make plays. You've got to make decisions because they have so many good players and they can hurt you in so many ways and that obviously adds to his strength."

STEVE FISHER, SAN DIEGO STATE

"Jimmer is the best in the league. He is hard to stop, but I felt like we did a pretty good job against him during certain parts of the game. But he is as good a guard as I have seen in this league, period."

SETH DAVIS, SPORTSILLUSTRATED.COM

"Jimmer Fredette is a superb setup man, and his 49-point explosion at Arizona ranks as the single best individual performance of the season."

SEAN MILLER, ARIZONA

"I have to give credit where credit is deserved. I can't say much post-game that I didn't say pre-game about BYU. The fact that they're not ranked gives almost no credibility to the rankings. I look at them and they're definitely a top-25 team, and I believe they will be competing for a high seed in the tournament."

"Jimmer Fredette played a great game. Did we have something to do with that? Yes. We struggled to defend the other team's best perimeter player. Their victory tonight was largely thanks to his play. He reminds me a lot of Mark Price, who played at Georgia Tech and had a long career in the NBA. I'm not an NBA manager, but I would put Fredette against a lot of guards in the country."

JIM LES, BRADLEY

"Jimmer Fredette is a very special player. He is special in his demeanor on the floor and is special in his skill on the floor so it's not surprising that BYU has been so successful during his tenure here."

JIM BOYLEN, UTAH

"I think he's the best player in the league in a long time. I haven't been in this league that long but he's the best player we've played against this year and we've played a heck of a schedule. He's a terrific player, a terrific competitor. He's a great kid. I think he represents BYU with a lot of class and pride. You should be proud of him. He's a great player."

PRESEASON MWC POLL

DENVER (Oct. 12, 2010) – BYU guard Jimmer Fredette received Mountain West Conference Preseason Player of the Year honors at the league's media day being held today at The MountainWest Sports Network studios. Kyle Collinsworth was also named the Preseason Freshman of the Year and the Cougars were picked to finish second in the MWC by the league's media.

Fredette, a preseason first-team All-American and national player-of-the-year candidate, repeats as the league's preseason player of the year. Also named to the preseason all-conference team, Fredette is a two-time All-MWC First Team honoree and last season led the league in scoring at 22.1 points per game while adding 4.7 assists.

Collinsworth is a versatile guard out of Provo High School who was named Utah's Mr. Basketball and the state's Gatorade Player of the Year as a senior. At Provo he helped the Bulldogs win two state titles and was a three-time first-team all-state honoree.

San Diego State was picked to finish first in the league and garnered 21 first-place votes compared to five for the Cougars. Last season, BYU was picked to finish first in the league and finished the season second in the regular season standings while setting a program record with 30 wins and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

This marks the third time the Cougars were picked to finish second in the preseason media poll — the other years being the 2006-07 and 2008-09 seasons. BYU finished first in the MWC regular season in 2007 and tied for first in 2009.

Since becoming head coach of the BYU men's basketball program on April 11, 2005, Dave Rose has guided the Cougars to an impressive array of on-the-court awards and accolades while his unassuming approach to service and the community has been recognized at the top of his profession.

With a 129-40 record, Rose has produced a five-year resume that is nearly unmatched. His five-year resume ranks among the best in the history of NCAA Division I basketball. His 129 victories place him fifth for best career starts by wins in NCAA history, ahead of the likes of Jerry Tarkanian, Jim Boeheim and Thad Matta. He currently holds the school record for winning percentage (.763) and the MWC record for winning percentage in league games (.800).

Equally committed to excellence off the court, Rose was honored on April 6, 2008, by the National Association of Basketball Coaches with its Game Pillar Award for Service, one of only four Pillar Awards (Education, Leadership, Service and Advocacy) that the Association annually bestows on the most deserving among its vast membership. While Rose has never sought such attention, his actions and accomplishments — both on the court and in the community — have commanded the praises of faithful followers and casual observers alike. In April 2008 Rose became the 63rd recipient of the Dale Rex Memorial Award, given annually to the person who has done the most for amateur athletics in the state of Utah. Another evidence of Rose's commitment to excellence is that his basketball program ranks in the top 10 percent nationally in multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores. As a result, the NCAA honored BYU with Public Recognition awards for three-straight seasons (2007 to 2010) for their high academic achievement. BYU is the only program in the nation to earn public recognition from the NCAA and an NCAA Tournament bid in each of the last four seasons.

Cougar fans have had plenty to "Rise and Shout" about with Rose at the helm. A tireless worker, gifted motivator and talented strategist, Rose has returned BYU to the national stage with four-straight seasons appearing in the top-25 polls and four-straight trips to the NCAA Tournament — both firsts in program history. In his first season, Rose and his staff produced the nation's second-most improved team by turning a 9-21 squad that finished tied for last with three wins in the Mountain West Conference into a 20-9 NIT qualifier and 12-4 second-place MWC finisher. Under his tutelage from 2007 to 2009, the Cougars achieved the MWC's first two-time outright league championships (2007 and 2008) while adding to the streak with a share of the regular season title in 2009 to make it three-consecutive. In 2010, BYU set a program record with 30 victories and defeated Florida in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the programs first tournament victory since 1993. In addition to the record-setting win total, the 2009-10 Cougar squad set program records for winning percentage, scoring margin, field goals, three-point field goals, turnover margin and steals. Nationally, BYU finished the season first in free throw percentage, second in scoring offense, scoring margin and three-point field goal percentage.

The only BYU men's basketball coach to ever win top conference coaching honors in back-to-back seasons, Rose was named MWC Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2007. In his second season, Rose coached the 2006-07 Cougars to a 25-9 overall record and NCAA berth after winning the MWC regular-season title with a 13-3 mark. In his first season, Rose received conference and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year accolades as well as honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com.

Rose first came to BYU as an assistant in 1997 to help newly hired head coach Steve Cleveland rebuild the Cougar program after a 1-25 season. Rose served eight seasons with Cleveland, including the last five as Associate Head Coach, before being promoted to BYU's head job just two days after Cleveland announced his departure. Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, including defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. His efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 11 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 13 years Rose has been in Provo. Seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year after fellow Cougar and second-team Freshman All-American Trent Plaisted received the same honor in 2006. In 2010 Tyler Haws was named third-team All-MWC as a freshman and set the BYU record with 48-consecutive free throws without a miss.

With 27 years of coaching experience including 15 seasons as a head coach at the Division I, junior college, and high school levels, Rose has a proven record of constant success. Prior to coming to BYU as an assistant in 1997, Rose compiled a 167-57 record at Dixie State College (St. George, Utah) while guiding six of his seven teams to top-20 rankings, including a national ranking as high as No. 2. He earned three conference titles and was honored by his peers as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as long-time NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU, Rose has coached six players who have received All-America recognition—Mekeli Wesley (2001 AP honorable mention), Rafael Araujo (2004 Basketball Times Second Team, AP honorable mention), Trent Plaisted (2006 Scout.com Freshman Second Team), Keena Young (2007 AP honorable mention), Lee Cummar (2008 AP honorable mention, FOXSports.com Fourth Team) and Jimmer Fredette (2010 third-team Sporting News and NABC, AP Honorable Mention and Lute Olson All-America team)—and two players who have been selected in the NBA Draft—Travis Hansen (2003) and Araujo (2004).

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose is the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, before the Texas native returned to his hometown, transferring to the University of Houston where he completed his degree and was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished as the national runner-up after suffering a buzzer-beating defeat to North Carolina State in the NCAA Championship game. Rose spent three years at Houston, playing in 1980-81, redshirting in 1981-82 and concluding his career in 1982-83.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Rose followed Steve Cleveland as the second BYU head coach to have served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Rose served in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie State College.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Currently the Honorary Chairman of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation, Rose works with his wife, Cheryl, and the team to annually serve and comfort local families who endure the challenges of raising a child who has cancer. The National Association of Basketball Coaches honored Rose with its Game Pillar Award for Service in April 2008. While at Dixie State College, Rose became the first coach in the State of Utah to participate in the American Cancer Society's nationwide Coaches vs. Cancer campaign and served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. He has also been a volunteer coach for youth groups. Dave and Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community, receiving the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005.

The fight against cancer became more personal for the family when Dave was diagnosed with pancreatic neuroendocrine tumor cancer in June 2009. Since the emergency surgery to remove the tumor, no other cancer has been found. Scans since the surgery by doctors at the Huntsman Cancer Institute have all come back clear. The United States Basketball Writers Association recognized Rose for his efforts with its Most Courageous Award.
