VERMONT'S LAST OUTING – BALANCED ATTACK LEADS MEN'S HOOPS TO BEST START SINCE 1956-57

BURLINGTON, Vt. – Four Catamounts reached double figures led by 18 points and 10 rebounds from senior Evan Fjeld as the Vermont men's basketball team defeated Yale 82-78 on Saturday afternoon at Patrick Gym. The Catamounts improve to 6-1 overall for the first time since the 1956-57 season with the win.

A 3-pointer from senior Joey Accaoui with 6:42 left put Vermont on top 62-59, as the Catamounts would lead for the remainder of the contest. Yale (3-4) would make it a two-point game at 80-78 after three straight free throws from Austin Morgan, but Accaoui was fouled with 3.2 second left and hit both to ice the win.

After a scoreless first half, Accaoui netted 17 in the second, while sophomore Brendan Bald and junior Matt Glass each added 14 points apiece for the Catamounts. Vermont shot a blistering 65.2 percent from the floor after halftime to win their fifth straight overall.

"That was a good game for us, kind of like what I expected, a close, hard-fought win," said Vermont head coach Mike Lonergan. "I am happy we won and hopefully those end of game situations will help us in the future, but it was nice to win at home in front of our best crowd this year."

Vermont jumped out to an early 9-3 lead to open the game, but Yale went on a 15-2 run to go on top 18-11 with 11:44 left in the first half. The Bulldogs started out hot from three, making their first five attempts from long range. With the visitors leading 26-20, the Catamounts countered with eight in a row as freshman Brian Voelkel assisted on three of the four hoops to make it 28-26 UVM with 4:13 remaining.

A layup from Glass and a steal and layup from freshman Sandro Carissimo gave UVM a 32-30 lead with 20 ticks on the clock, before Yale's Morgan hit a long jumper just beating the clock to make it 32-32 at the half. Glass led the Cats with 11 at the half, while Voelkel grabbed eight boards and handed out six assists in the frame.

The Cats opened the second half on a 9-3 run to take a 41-35 lead early on. Yale answered with six in a row to tie it at 41-41 with 14:48 left, as neither team would lead by more than six the remainder of the way.

Trailing 51-50, Carissimo stole the ball and sent it ahead to Accaoui for a layup and after a Yale miss, Accaoui hit a floater in the lane on the next possession to give UVM a 54-51 lead with 9:29 left.

Voelkel finished the game with 10 rebounds, eight assists, four points and two blocks for Vermont, while freshman Luke Apfeld added six points off the bench. The Cats shot 55.6 percent overall for the game, owned a 48-20 scoring edge in the paint and held a 36-28 rebounding edge.

Yale was led by Morgan's game-high 25 points, while Greg Mangano (14) and Porter Braswell (12) each reached double figures. The Bulldogs were hot from three, finishing the game 10-for-16 from long distance.

LAST TIME OUT - BYU BRINGS THE ENERGY IN SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE CITY (Dec. 4, 2010) – Hard-nosed defense and a pair of unlikely players pushed No. 21 BYU to a 78-57 win over Hawaii on Saturday at EnergySolutions Arena.

Coming off the bench, junior Stephen Rogers and senior Logan Magnusson both set new career highs, with Rogers scoring 13 points, including three treys, with five rebounds, two assists and one steal in 19 minutes. Magnusson shot 5-of-7 from the field for a career-best 11 points, all in the first half.

On the defensive end, BYU held Hawaii to eight field goals and under 30-percent shooting in the first half and an even 30-percent shooting for the game. The Warriors gave up 16 turnovers and were held to just six assists as a team.

"We got some great minutes from Logan Magnusson and Stephen Rogers because we had Noah Hartssock and Brandon Davies get into foul trouble," Rose said. "And that's good. Every time you get guys that go in there and they feel comfortable and confident and make shots and make plays for your team, it makes you deeper and helps you down the road."

The two teams played close until Rogers and Magnusson sparked BYU on a 13-4 run late in the first half. Rogers came off the bench to eight points during the run, including two three-pointers, leading all scorers at halftime with 11 points.

Magnusson followed up with three points of his own to keep the run going, eventually contributing nine points, shooting 4-for-5, and grabbing three rebounds in the first half as BYU pushed ahead by its biggest margin up to that point at 43-27 going into halftime.

Senior point guard Jimmer Fredette, who led all scorers with 16 points, scored six-straight early in the second half. BYU never lost control, maintaining at least a 12-point lead throughout the half. BYU went up by 21 points with 5:12 remaining in the game after sophomore Brandon Davies dove for a loose ball, getting it to senior Jackson Emery who drove the length of the court and dished a no-look pass to freshman Kyle Collinsworth for the dunk, giving BYU a 67-46 lead.

Emery scored six points with four assists and three rebounds. Collinsworth contributed an additional eight points, three assists, two rebounds and one steal.

BYU's big guys came out early in the contest, with Noah Hartssock and Brandon Davies scoring four points apiece to start the game for the Cougars on a 10-2 run. Hartssock added four rebounds, an assist and a block in the same span before both players were forced to quickly sit after getting into foul trouble.

Both players came back in the second half, with Davies ending the game with nine points, four rebounds and three assists and Hartssock finishing with eight points, a team-high seven rebounds and two blocks.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...*BYU HEAD COACH DAVE ROSE

"I thought we did a really good job of switching their handoffs and screens. We did a really good job of attacking. We shot 50 percent from the field, but we could really improve on rebounding. They really outrebounded us. They had a lot of good execution defensively, but we didn't finish the possession with a rebound and that caused us to not be able to get out of the transition the way we'd like to."

"We got some great minutes from Logan Magnusson and Stephen Rogers because we had Noah [Hartssock] and Brandon [Davies] get in foul trouble. And that's good. Every time you get guys that go in there and they feel comfortable and confident and make shots and make plays for your team, it makes you deeper and helps you down the road."

"It's bad news not to be able to play the guys who started and you want to play, but it's really good news for them to know that there's guys that can come in and pick them up. Because the bottom line is, you have to be really aggressive defensively in order to be good."

BYU NOTES FROM LAST OUTING*PLAYER NOTES

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID*DICK VITALE, ESPN

"I'm telling you, that's a dangerous team in BYU. Why? Jimmer Fredette. Remember the name, Jimmer Fredette. Jimmer Fredette. The guy can flat-out score. Call Donovan up — 37 on the Gators. Forty-nine against Arizona. If he's stroking it, and they get to the free-throw line, and it's a close game, they're the best free throw shooting team in America."

HUBERT DAVIS, ESPN

"(On Fredette) He's been fun to watch this year. I think people are going to see probably the best scoring point guard in the country. He's terrific in a pick and role situation because if you go underneath he has the ability to knock down a perimeter jump shot. If you go over and force him into the lane he has the ability to use the nice floater. He can take it to the rim, he can use both hands, he's crafty. Ever time I watch him he reminds me more — I'm not saying he's Steve Nash — but the way that he approaches the game in terms of dribble penetration and keeping the ball alive, he looks like Steve Nash. He does a terrific job of passing the basketball."

TIM MILES, COLORADO STATE

"Fredette is a special player and his numbers are remarkable. We tried multiple defenders, we tried traps and he still finds ways to hurt you."

JIM CHRISTIAN, TCU

"Jimmer Fredette's one of the top players in the country. Period. He's a guy that's never rattled. He's never out of control. He sees the floor extremely well. He makes shots. But I also think the thing that's not talked about nationally is how good the team is. When you've got that many pieces around you it enables you to have an open floor and to make plays. You've got to make decisions because they have so many good players and they can hurt you in so many ways and that obviously adds to his strength."

STEVE FISHER, SAN DIEGO STATE

"Jimmer is the best in the league. He is hard to stop, but I felt like we did a pretty good job against him during certain parts of the game. But he is as good a guard as I have seen in this league, period."

SETH DAVIS, SPORTSILLUSTRATED.COM

"Jimmer Fredette is a superb setup man, and his 49-point explosion at Arizona ranks as the single best individual performance of the season."

SEAN MILLER, ARIZONA

"I have to give credit where credit is deserved. I can't say much post-game that I didn't say pre-game about BYU. The fact that they're not ranked gives almost no credibility to the rankings. I look at them and they're definitely a top-25 team, and I believe they will be competing for a high seed in the tournament."

"Jimmer Fredette played a great game. Did we have something to do with that? Yes. We struggled to defend the other team's best perimeter player. Their victory tonight was largely thanks to his play. He reminds me a lot of Mark Price, who played at Georgia Tech and had a long career in the NBA. I'm not an NBA manager, but I would put Fredette against a lot of guards in the country."

JIM LES, BRADLEY

"Jimmer Fredette is a very special player. He is special in his demeanor on the floor and is special in his skill on the floor so it's not surprising that BYU has been so successful during his tenure here."

JIM BOYLEN, UTAH

"I think he's the best player in the league in a long time. I haven't been in this league that long but he's the best player we've played against this year and we've played a heck of a schedule. He's a terrific player, a terrific competitor. He's a great kid. I think he represents BYU with a lot of class and pride. You should be proud of him. He's a great player."

PRESEASON MWC POLL

DENVER (Oct. 12, 2010) – BYU guard Jimmer Fredette received Mountain West Conference Preseason Player of the Year honors at the league's media day being held today at The MountainWest Sports Network studios. Kyle Collinsworth was also named the Preseason Freshman of the Year and the Cougars were picked to finish second in the MWC by the league's media.

Fredette, a preseason first-team All-American and national player-of-the-year candidate, repeats as the league's pre-season player of the year. Also named to the preseason all-conference team, Fredette is a two-time All-MWC First Team honoree and last season led the league in scoring at 22.1 points per game while adding 4.7 assists.

Collinsworth is a versatile guard out of Provo High School who was named Utah's Mr. Basketball and the state's Gatorade Player of the Year as a senior. At Provo he helped the Bulldogs win two state titles and was a three-time first-team all-state honoree.

San Diego State was picked to finish first in the league and garnered 21 first-place votes compared to five for the Cougars. Last season, BYU was picked to finish first in the league and finished the season second in the regular season standings while setting a program record with 30 wins and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

This marks the third time the Cougars were picked to finish second in the preseason media poll — the other years being the 2006-07 and 2008-09 seasons. BYU finished first in the MWC regular season in 2007 and tied for first in 2009.

Since becoming head coach of the BYU men's basketball program on April 11, 2005, Dave Rose has guided the Cougars to an impressive array of on-the-court awards and accolades while his unassuming approach to service and the community has been recognized at the top of his profession.

With a 135-40 record, Rose has produced a five-year resume that is nearly unmatched. His five-year resume ranks among the best in the history of NCAA Division I basketball. His 127 victories through five seasons place him fifth for best career starts (through five seasons) by wins in NCAA history, ahead of the likes of Jerry Tarkanian, Jim Boeheim and Thad Matta. He currently holds the school record for winning percentage (.771) and the MWC record for winning percentage in league games (.800).

Equally committed to excellence off the court, Rose was honored on April 6, 2008, by the National Association of Basketball Coaches with its Game Pillar Award for Service, one of only four Pillar Awards (Education, Leadership, Service and Advocacy) that the Association annually bestows on the most deserving among its vast membership. While Rose has never sought such attention, his actions and accomplishments — both on the court and in the community — have commanded the praises of faithful followers and casual observers alike. In April 2008 Rose became the 63rd recipient of the Dale Rex Memorial Award, given annually to the person who has done the most for amateur athletics in the state of Utah. Another evidence of Rose's commitment to excellence is that his basketball program ranks in the top 10 percent nationally in multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores. As a result, the NCAA honored BYU with Public Recognition awards for three-straight seasons (2007 to 2010) for their high academic achievement. BYU is the only program in the nation to earn public recognition from the NCAA and an NCAA Tournament bid in each of the last four seasons.

Cougar fans have had plenty to "Rise and Shout" about with Rose at the helm. A tireless worker, gifted motivator and talented strategist, Rose has returned BYU to the national stage with four-straight seasons appearing in the top-25 polls and four-straight trips to the NCAA Tournament — both firsts in program history. In his first season, Rose and his staff produced the nation's second-most improved team by turning a 9-21 squad that finished tied for last with three wins in the Mountain West Conference into a 20-9 NIT qualifier and 12-4 second-place MWC finisher. Under his tutelage from 2007 to 2009, the Cougars achieved the MWC's first two-time outright league championships (2007 and 2008) while adding to the streak with a share of the regular season title in 2009 to make it three-consecutive. In 2010, BYU set a program record with 30 victories and defeated Florida in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the programs first tournament victory since 1993. In addition to the record-setting win total, the 2009-10 Cougar squad set program records for winning percentage, scoring margin, field goals, three-point field goals, turnover margin and steals. Nationally, BYU finished the season first in free throw percentage, second in scoring offense, scoring margin and three-point field goal percentage.

The only BYU men's basketball coach to ever win top conference coaching honors in back-to-back seasons, Rose was named MWC Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2007. In his second season, Rose coached the 2006-07 Cougars to a 25-9 overall record and NCAA berth after winning the MWC regular-season title with a 13-3 mark. In his first season, Rose received conference and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year accolades as well as honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com.

Rose first came to BYU as an assistant in 1997 to help newly hired head coach Steve Cleveland rebuild the Cougar program after a 1-25 season. Rose served eight seasons with Cleveland, including the last five as Associate Head Coach, before being promoted to BYU's head job just two days after Cleveland announced his departure. Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, including defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. His efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 11 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 13 years Rose has been in Provo. Seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year after fellow Cougar and second-team Freshman All-American Trent Plaisted received the same honor in 2006. In 2010 Tyler Haws was named third-team All-MWC as a freshman and set the BYU record with 48-consecutive free throws without a miss.

With 27 years of coaching experience including 15 seasons as a head coach at the Division I, junior college, and high school levels, Rose has a proven record of constant success. Prior to coming to BYU as an assistant in 1997, Rose compiled a 167-57 record at Dixie State College (St. George, Utah) while guiding six of his seven teams to top-20 rankings, including a national ranking as high as No. 2. He earned three conference titles and was honored by his peers as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NUCAA All-Americans as well as long-time NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU, Rose has coached six players who have received All-America recognition--Mekeli Wesley (2001 AP honorable mention), Rafael Araujo (2004 Basketball Times Second Team, AP honorable mention), Trent Plaisted (2006 Scout.com Freshman Second Team), Keena Young (2007 AP honorable mention), Lee Cummar (2008 AP honorable mention, FOXSports.com Fourth Team) and Jimmer Fredette (2010 third-team Sporting News and NABC, AP Honorable Mention and Lute Olson All-America team)--and two players who have been selected in the NBA Draft--Travis Hansen (2003) and Araujo (2004).

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose is the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, before the Texas native returned to his hometown, transferring to the University of Houston where he completed his degree and was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished as the national runner-up after suffering a buzzer-beating defeat to North Carolina State in the NCAA Championship game. Rose spent three years at Houston, playing in 1980-81, redshirting in 1981-82 and concluding his career in 1982-83.

PERSONAL

Rose is of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Rose followed Steve Cleveland as the second BYU head coach to have served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Rose served in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie State College.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Currently the Honorary Chairman of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation, Rose works with his wife, Cheryl, and the team to annually serve and comfort local families who endure the challenges of raising a child who has cancer. The National Association of Basketball Coaches honored Rose with its Game Pillar Award for Service in April 2008. While at Dixie State College, Rose became the first coach in the State of Utah to participate in the American Cancer Society's nationwide Coaches vs. Cancer campaign and served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. He has also been a volunteer coach for youth groups. Dave and Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community, receiving the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005.

The fight against cancer became more personal for the family when Dave was diagnosed with pancreatic neuroendocrine tumor cancer in June 2009. Since the emergency surgery to remove the tumor, no other cancer has been found. Scans since the surgery by doctors at the Huntsman Cancer Institute have all come back clear. The United States Basketball Writers Association recognized Rose for his efforts with its Most Courageous Award.
