Scouting Cal State Northridge

The Matadors are in their first year in the Big West Conference after earning the NCAA bid from the Big Sky Conference last year with a 22-10 overall record and 13-3 first-place league mark. Coach Bobby Braswell returns five lettermen and two starters from last year's squad. The Matadors have a 2-7 record this year with wins over Dominican University (101-47) and the University of Idaho (57-56). Cal State Northridge's seven losses have included three common BYU opponents in San Diego State (80-70), Wyoming (86-64) and Utah State (73-56). All three of those losses were on the road. The Matadors are 1-5 on the road overall, winning at Idaho last Saturday. They have only played three home games and are 1-2 at the Matadome. They are led by returning starter Markus Carr, 6-1, 180, Sr., G (8.7 ppg, 2.3 ppg last year), who is scoring 18.8 points per game and pulling down 4.9 rebounds per contest. He is the only Matador averaging double figures. Twelve different players have started for the Matadors this season and no one has started every game. Carr has made a team-high eight starts in their nine games. Ryan Sims grabs a team-leading 5.8 rebounds per game despite only averaging 16.4 minutes in eight games. He has four starts. As a team, the Matadors shoot 38.6 percent from the floor, 31.9 percent from three-point range, and 62.9 percent from the free throw line. They average 37.2 rebounds while allowing 44.8 and score 68.1 points per game while giving up 74.9.

Scouting Southern Utah

The Thunderbirds return nine lettermen and one starter from last year's 25-6 team that won the Mid-Continent Conference and earned an NCAA tournament bid. The Thunderbirds have a 3-8 record this year with wins over Fort Lewis (86-69), Adams State (67-57) and Idaho State (68-51). Among the eight losses are defeats at Stanford (81-63), at Oregon State (73-63), at Utah (71-47) and at Weber State (70-64). They have lost three straight since defeating Idaho State at home on Dec. 10. The Thunderbirds are 0-7 away from home and 3-1 in Cedar City. Dan Beus and Jay Collins lead the Thunderbirds with 12.2 and 11.8 scoring averages, respectively. As a team, SUU shoots 44.7 percent from the floor, 39.2 percent on threes, and 69.8 percent from the line. They grab 26.3 rebounds while allowing 33.5 boards and score 63.9 ppg while giving up an average of 68.2 points per contest.

Cougars Upset No. 13 Stanford in Las Vegas Showdown

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (December 22, 2001) – In a nationally televised game on ESPN, BYU defeated No. 13 Stanford 81-76 late Saturday night in the second game of the Las Vegas Showdown. Entering the season, most experts didn't expect much from a Cougar basketball team that lost four starters and three All-Mountain West Conference players from last year's MWC title team. But Saturday's upset over the defending Pac-10 champions may have people taking note of a BYU squad that is off to a 7-2 start. In perhaps the Cougars' biggest non-conference game of the Steve Cleveland era, senior Eric Nielsen had the best game of his career, leading the Cougars to a five-point victory over Stanford. Nielsen had 29 points on the night, shattering his previous career high of 19 points. "Eric doesn't play like that every night, but tonight he did," BYU head coach Steve Cleveland said. "He responded to the challenge, give Eric credit." Nielsen and Stanford All-American Casey Jacobsen traded blows, with Jacobsen finishing the game with 28 points. But Jacobsen went cold down the stretch and struggled throughout the game from the free throw line. With defensive stopper Travis Hansen on the bench with four fouls, sophomore Mark Bigelow matched up with Jacobsen for a key stretch in the final 10 minutes. "Mark made a huge difference on defense fronting Jacobsen for seven or eight minutes," Cleveland said. BYU entered the game leading the nation in free-throw percentage, and the Cougars needed it at the end of the game. Senior Matt Montague iced the game making six free throws in the final 34 seconds. Montague played nearly the entire game, missing just under a minute in the first half. He contributed eight points, four assists and a season-high seven rebounds. "It's nice to see the seniors step up," Cleveland said. Along with clutch free throw shooting, the Cougars shot a blistering 63.6 percent from behind the three-point line. BYU finished the game 7-11 from behind the arc, while Stanford finished the game 6-25. Trailing 63-61 with just under 10 minutes to play, BYU went on a decisive 13-2 run over the next eight minutes that proved too much for the Cardinal to overcome. BYU missed several opportunities to finish the game off in the final minutes, but made the free throws when they counted. "Coach Cleveland does a great job preparing us," Nielsen said. "I think this is our team's biggest non-conference win." BYU has quietly won five games in a row and continues to creep higher in the RPI rankings. BYU hadn't defeated a ranked opponent since 1998 when the Cougars knocked off No. 15 New Mexico in The Pit. That victory came in Cleveland's first season, but the Cougar head coach knows his team isn't satisfied with one win over a ranked opponent. "It's a big win, but it's still one game," Cleveland said. "I don't really talk to the team about wins, but about getting better. We are trying to get better every day. We can't contend for the conference championship unless we get better." BYU will take a quick break over Christmas before the Cougars host Cal State Northridge Thursday night at 7 p.m. The Cougars look to extend their current winning streak to six games and their home winning streak to 26 games.

Receiving Votes

This week BYU received votes for the first time this season in both the AP poll and the USA Today/ESPN poll. The Cougars are the top-ranked Mountain West team after receiving 18 points in the AP poll for a No. 37 ranking. BYU received four votes in the coaches poll (T-41st). Wyoming is the top MWC team in the coaches poll (32nd), followed by New Mexico (40th). Utah State (T-36th in coaches and 44th in AP) and Stanford (No. 15 by coaches and No. 16 by AP) are the other BYU opponents who received votes in the latest polls. BYU's win over then No. 13 Stanford was the Cougars' first win over a top-20 team since upsetting No. 15 New Mexico in The Pit in February 1998. Last year BYU lost to No. 13 USC, 70-67, at the Yahoo Sports Invitational in Laie, Hawaii, after leading by 18 at the half, 41-23. BYU played at No. 4 Arizona on Dec. 1, 1999 but lost 86-62. BYU took No. 11 Arizona to overtime in Provo on Nov. 24, 1998, before losing 78-74. BYU nearly won in regulation, but Arizona's Jason Terry hit a three-pointer to send the game to overtime.

First Half Success

BYU has led at the half in all eight of nine games this season, trailing only Stanford (41-40). BYU is outscoring its opponents in the first half 326-248 (36.2 – 27.5). BYU has shot 50 percent or better in the first half in six of their last eight games. The Cougars have scored more points in the second half but also yield more points. BYU has outscored its opponents 337-300 in the second half (37.4 – 33.3). BYU has been outscored 15-6 in one overtime period this year.

Hot Shooting at Home

In BYU's last two wins in the Marriott Center, BYU combined to shoot an amazing 63.2 percent from the floor as a team and 45.7 percent on threes. BYU continued to shoot well from the line as well, making 81.4 percent of its attempts. BYU coach Steve Cleveland played 13 players in those games and 11 of the 13 made better than 56 percent of their shots, with 10 of 13 making at least 60 percent of their attempts. Only Matt Montague (4-9, .444) and Jesse Pinegar (0-3, .000) failed to reach 50 percent shooting. Overall, BYU is shooting 52.6 percent from the floor in its five home games this year.

More Shooting Numbers

BYU is shooting 50.7 percent in its seven victories and 43.6 percent in its two losses. The Cougars are shooting about the same behind the arc (.441 in losses and .432 in wins. At home BYU is shooting 52.6 percent from the floor, 41.9 percent on threes, while on the road BYU makes 44.7 percent and 45.5 percent, respectively. Overall, BYU makes 49.0 percent of hits attempts, including 43.4 percent from behind the arc.

From Three-Point Range

Seven Cougars have made a three-point shot this season. Mark Bigelow has made a team-high 22 threes (22-46, .478). He has made a trey in all nine games. Daniel Bobik is 14-30 (.467) and Travis Hansen is 13-27 (.481). Bobik hit a career-best five threes in seven attempts BYU's last game in Provo (win over Idaho). Eric Nielsen made a career-high two threes vs. Stanford last Saturday in Las Vegas.

One-Two Punch

BYU's Mark Bigelow and Travis Hansen are the Cougars one-two scoring punch. Bigelow in double figures eight of nine games and Hansen seven of nine. Bigelow scores 17.2 ppg and Hansen 15.3 ppg on the year.

Third Scoring Threat

Senior Eric Nielsen scored a career-high 29 points vs. Stanford. He is averaging 11.3 ppg. Reserve guard Daniel Bobik is adding 9.6 ppg off the bench and has a high this year of 17 points. Freshman center Jared Jensen is averaging 8.0 ppg and has a high of 14 points.

Consistency at the Line

BYU has made 80 percent or more of its free throws in five of nine games this season, including four of the last six. BYU shot 7.65 percent vs. Stanford on Saturday. BYU is shooting 79.7 percent from the line for the year. Last year, BYU led the nation at 78 percent from the line. The Cougars are currently ranked third nationally this season.

More Free Throw Numbers

Four Cougars are shooting 80 percent or better from the free throw line and six are making 70 percent or better. Daniel Bobik makes a team-leading 90 percent (No. 1 among MWC players), followed by Mark Bigelow (.882), Jared Jensen (.833), Matt Montague (.806), Eric Nielsen (.773) and Travis Hansen (.729).

Top JC Center Signs with Cougars

Rafael Araujo, a 6-foot-11, 260-pound center at Western Arizona, in November signed an NCAA Letter-of-Intent to play at BYU. Considered one of the top five junior-college players in the country, Araujo was recruited by North Carolina, Illinois, UNLV and San Diego State among others. A physically strong athlete with great leaping ability, Araujo runs the floor well and has range on the perimeter. "We are thrilled to have Rafael decide to join the BYU basketball program," BYU coach Steve Cleveland said. "He is a great young man that people really enjoy being around. He's got legitimate NBA center size and has the potential to make a significant impact on the program. He's still got some things to learn, but he has all the tools to become an outstanding player at the Division I level." Araujo is averaging 21 points and 13 rebounds this year for No. 7-ranked Western Arizona, located in Yuma. He scored a season-high 35 points in 22 minutes in the season-opener and has totaled a season-high 17 rebounds. A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Araujo will enter BYU as a junior. He will enroll next fall.

Coaching Staff Additions

Former BYU player Andy Toolson and Pine View High School (St. George, Utah) coach John Wardenburg were hired as assistant coaches in May. Toolson joins Cleveland's staff after an 11-year professional career in Europe and the NBA, while Wardenburg comes to BYU with 11 years of coaching experience at the high school and junior college level. Former assistant coach Nathan Call was named director of basketball operations. Associate Head Coach Dave Rose remains in that capacity. Heath Schroyer, who had served alongside Cleveland, Rose and Call the past four seasons in Provo, left to accept an assistant position at Wyoming. Brian Santiago, Cleveland's administrative assistant the past four seasons, is BYU's assistant athletic director responsible for game operations.

Nielsen Named MWC Player of the Week

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (Dec. 24, 2001) - BYU senior forward Eric Nielsen was named the Mountain West Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week Monday after leading the Cougars to an 81-76 upset of 13th-ranked Stanford Saturday at the Las Vegas Showdown. It was Nielsen's first player of the week honor of his career. Nielsen, from Freemont, Calif. (Irvington HS) scored a career-high 29 points after making 11-of-16 shots from the floor (68.8 percent), including 2-for-2 from three-point range. He was also a perfect 5-for-5 from the free throw line and grabbed six rebounds, while dishing out two assists. Nielsen's two treys marked a career best and equaled the total number of threes he's made in the past two years combined. Nielsen scored 17 points in 18 first-half minutes, keeping BYU within one at intermission, 41-40. He added 12 points in the second half and helped the Cougars rebound Stanford, holding the Cardinal nine boards their season average. Nielsen also set career highs with the 16 field goal attempts, 11 field goals made and free throw percentage (1.000).

Home Winning Streak

BYU extended its home court winning streak to 25 games with its win over Idaho Saturday. BYU owns the fourth longest home-court streak in the nation. BYU went a perfect 15-0 in the Marriott Center last season. BYU's last loss in the Marriott Center was on Feb. 17, 2000 when New Mexico edged the Cougars 78-74.

Home Winning Streak 2

BYU has defeated 23 straight nonconference opponents in the Marriott Center. The last non-league foe to win in Provo was the California Bears, who edged BYU 71-70 on Dec. 19, 1998. BYU has a 29-6 home record against nonconference teams under Steve Cleveland. BYU is 22-0 vs. non-MWC teams at home since the conference was founded in 1999. The Cougars are the only MWC team with an unbeaten home nonconference mark.

From the Training Room

Reserve point guard Shawn Oponui will be out for approximately six weeks after reinjuring his left thumb Saturday vs. Idaho (torn ligaments). He originally suffered ligament damage in his thumb while playing three minutes at Utah State on Dec. 1. It is anticipated the freshman guard will be in a hard cast for the next four weeks and then a removable splint for two weeks.

BYU on Defense

Defensively, BYU has held its last four opponents at home below 36 percent field goal shooting. The Cougars held Stanford to 41 percent, five percentage points below their season average. On the year, BYU has held six of its nine opponents below 38 percent shooting. Only Stanford (40.9), Arizona State (45.5) and Utah State (50.9) have topped 38 percent on BYU. Overall, BYU holds opponents to a 38.8 field goal percentage and a 27.5 three-point percentage.

Hitting the Glass

BYU has done a good job on the boards this year. BYU averages 36.1 rebounds while its opponents grab on average 29.7. BYU has out boarded its opponents in seven games, including a 38-37 edge over Stanford, an is 7-0 in those games. The Cougars have only been out boarded once, 35-24 in its overtime loss to Utah State. The Cougars and UCSB each had 35 rebounds. BYU out boarded Fort Lewis, 47-17. BYU's 42-26 rebounding advantage over ASU was the third worst margin suffered by ASU coach Rob Evan's in his coaching career and his worst at ASU.

2001-02 Schedule Notes

BYU Record - Comparing Recent Starts

With its 7-2 record, BYU has a winning record after nine games for the third straight season. Last year BYU also got off to a 7-2 start and went on to a 24-9 record. In 1999-2000 the Cougars also started 7-2 and finished 22-11. BYU could equal its best start in the last three years with a wins against CS Northridge and Southern Utah this week. BYU was 7-3 after 10 games last year and 7-4 after 11 games. In 1999-2000, BYU was 8-2 after 10 games and 9-2 after 11 games. That team went on to a 12-2 mark before losing its third game.

BYU Opponents Start

The nine teams BYU has played so far have combined to win 60 percent of their games. Several of BYU's opponents this season have already recorded some big wins. Pepperdine, a 22-9 team last year that finished second to Gonzaga in the West Coast Conference, knocked off then No. 11 UCLA at Pauley Pavillion and Creighton, the champion of the Missouri Valley Conference, upset then No. 17 Western Kentucky. Weber State, who won the Big Island Invitational with wins over Louisiana State, Wisconsin and Colorado State and also handed Utah State its only loss.

Seven Conference Champions

Seven conference champions, including Pac-10 champion Stanford, and 12 games against teams who qualified for postseason play last year highlight BYU's 2001-02 men's basketball schedule. Other conference champions include Creighton of the Missouri Valley Conference, Utah State of the Big West, Cal State Northridge of the Big Sky (playing in Big West this year), Southern Utah of the Mid-Continent Conference and fellow co-champions Utah and Wyoming of the Mountain West Conference. Pepperdine and New Mexico also advanced to post-season play in the NIT tournament. Pepperdine placed second in the WCC behind NCAAqualifier Gonzaga and earned a 22-9 record, including an NIT win in Laramie over Wyoming. The Waves enter their first year under former NBA player and coach Paul Westphal. New Mexico also advanced in the NIT, losing in the second round to Pepperdine. Including two exhibition contests, BYU has 29 games, including 17 in the Marriott Center, on its schedule. The MWC tournament is Mar. 7-9, at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

Opponent Winning Percentage

BYU's 13 nonconference opponents earned a combined 234-156 (.600) record last year for an average record of 18-12. Instate rivals Utah State, Utah, Southern Utah and Weber State combined for an 87-38 record, winning nearly 70 percent of their games and earning two NCAA and one NIT berth. Nine teams who qualified for a postseason (five NCAA, four NIT).

Nonconference Notes

BYU will play seven nonconference opponents who were on the Cougars' schedule last year and six that are new to the schedule, including two first-time opponents. BYU had a 5-2 record last year against the seven teams it will play again this season, with home wins over UC Santa Barbara, Utah State, Idaho and Southern Utah and a road win at Weber State. The two losses both came during the first road trip of the season at San Francisco and Arizona State. Stanford, Creighton, Pepperdine, Cal State Northridge, San Diego and Fort Lewis are all new opponents this year, with San Diego and Fort Lewis playing BYU for the first time. BYU faces teams from seven different conferences in 2001-02.

Radio/TV

All BYU games will be carried live on the Cougar Sports Radio Network, originating from KSL Newsradio 1160 AM in Salt Lake City. BYU is featured six times this season in the Mountain West television package with ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Regional Television (ESPN+Plus) and ABC. The Cougars play twice on ESPN and four times on ESPN+Plus. An additional 12 BYU games are part of the SportsWest Productions' package and KBYU will produce two games for taped-delay broadcast. In all 21-of-27 regular season games are slated for television broadcast.

MATT MONTAGUE / 6-0 • 190 • senior • point guard

CAPSULE: Montague provides leadership at the point having started 57 times and played in all 92 games in his first three years ... Last year he started 12 games, primarily before Trent Whiting joined the team in December, but still lead the team in assists (2.9) while playing mostly a reserve role ... He has led the team in assists during each of his three seasons ... A hard-nosed competitor, he sees the floor well and is a great transition passer ... Career averages entering this year are 3.6 points and 3.8 assists.

Matt Montague had a season-high seven rebounds vs. Stanford and made a career-best eight free throws to seal the win for BYU. He set a career-high with 15 assists vs. Idaho in the last game in the Marriott Center. It was the most assists by a Cougar in the last 25 years. He was one shy of the BYU and Marriott Center record of 16 assists set by Mike May vs. Niagara in 1976. Montague averages a team- and MWC-leading 7.6 assists this year. He is tied for third in assists per game in the latest NCAA statistics. He is averaging 36.6 minutes per game. He played a season-low 19 minutes vs. Fort Lewis. He scored 11 points and had a game-high eight assists at USD in the season-opener. Montague reached double-digit points only once last year in 33 games, scoring 12 points at the University of San Francisco.

TRAVIS HANSEN / 6-6 • 210 • junior • guard/forward

CAPSULE: After playing a supporting role in his first season at BYU last year, Hansen is playing a more significant role in 2001-02 ... With his increase in playing time, he has the talent to become an all-conference player ... He is very athletic ... His explosiveness gives him great potential as a scorer and rebounder ... He is most effective when slashing to the basket but has range from the three-point arc ... He was fifth in scoring last year (5.5) and also grabbed 3.0 boards per game ... He earned a starting job midway through the year before missing nine games in the middle of MWC play because of a fractured right foot. He played primarily a reserve role to senior Nathan Cooper after returning from his injury ... He started nine games and the Cougars had a 7-2 record in those games with losses at Colorado State and Wyoming, where he suffered the foot injury ... He played his freshman year at Utah Valley State College before going on an LDS Church mission ... He sat out a year as a redshirt before joining the Cougars in 2000-2001.

Hansen leads BYU in rebounding (7.7 rpg) and is second in scoring (15.3 ppg). After taking 11 or more shots in the first four games, he has not taken more than eight attempts in the last five games. He played a key defensive role against first-team All-American Casey Jacobsen of Stanford Saturday while adding a team-high 9 rebounds. He also added 8 points. He had 11 points vs. Idaho and 15 points and seven rebounds in 19 minutes vs. Fort Lewis in the last two home games. He had a team-high 18 points on 5-7 shooting along with five boards in BYU's win over Creighton. Hansen scored a career-high 26 points against Utah State in BYU's overtime loss earlier this season. He went 10-15 from the floor, including a 3-5 from three-point range, and was 3-4 from the line. He added a team-high five rebounds and one assist in 38 minutes. His 10 field goals, three treys and 38 minutes were all career highs. He had his second straight double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds at UC Santa Barbara after 18 points and a career-high 15 rebounds to lead BYU over Arizona State. The two double-doubles are the first of his career.

MARK BIGELOW / 6-7 • 190 • sophomore • guard/forward

CAPSULE – Bigelow could be one of the Cougars top players and among the top performers in the Mountain West if he returns to his pre-mission form ... So far he has proved capable of returning to his pre-mission form ... He was BYU's leading scorer (15.0) and rebounder (6.3) in 1998-99 before going on a two-year LDS Church mission to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. ... He returned from his mission in June having grown an inch to 6-7 ... He could play the 2 or the 3 spot on the floor for the Cougars ... He is an excellent shooter and extremely intelligent player ... A gifted offensive player with a great mid-range game ... He moves well without the ball ... He was the 1999 WAC Pacific Division Freshman of the Year, All-WAC Second Team and All-Newcomer Team.

Mark Bigelow had 15 points and 5 rebounds vs. Stanford. He leads BYU in scoring at 17.2 ppg. He averaged 16.5 points in only 21.5 minutes during BYU's last two home wins. He took advantage of his time on the floor, making 66.7 percent (8-12) of his field goal attempts, including 50 percent (4-8) of this threes, and was perfect from the free throw line (13-13). He scored a game-high 19 points in 24 minutes against Idaho, going 4-7 from the floor, 3-6 on threes, and 8-8 from the line. Bigelow tallied 14 points in 19 minutes against Fort Lewis College, going 4-5 from the floor and 5-5 from the line. Bigelow has reached double-figure points in the last eight games and has totaled 14 or more points in every game but the season-opener when he scored nine points before fouling out. He scored a season-high 31 points against Arizona State in Provo.

ERIC NIELSEN / 6-9 • 215 • senior • forward

CAPSULE – A three-year starter, Nielsen will play a big role for the Cougars in 2001-02 with the loss of the team's other four starters ... An intelligent player with a good mid-range jumper, his 56.3 career field goal percentage ranks third all-time at BYU ... Nielsen and teammate Matt Montague were all freshmen members of the 1996-97 BYU team that finished 1-25 ... After returning from his mission, Nielsen has played the past two seasons for coach Cleveland, helping the Cougars earn a combined 46-20 record and two postseason tournament berths ... He is Academic All-MWC and a Cougar Scholar Athlete.

Nielsen is third on the team in scoring (11.3 ppg) and is second in rebounds (5.3 rpg). After scoring a season-low 2 points against Idaho in 25 minutes, taking only two shots, he scored a career-high 29 points Saturday vs. Stanford, taking a career-high 16 attempts while making a personal-best 11 shots. He had 4 points and 4 rebounds in 19 minutes vs. Fort Lewis. He had 9 points, 5 boards and 2 assists vs. Creighton. He has reached double-figure points in four games. He had 14 points, 8 boards and 2 assists vs. Weber State. He had 14 at Utah State and had a then career-high 19 points vs. ASU in BYU's home opener (his prior best was 17 against Utah at the Thomas & Mack Center in the 2000 MWC tournament in Las Vegas). This year against ASU, he went 8-11 from the floor. Last year the most shots he took in a game was eight, when he averaged 3.8 shot attempts per game. This year he is taking 7.6 shots per game. He ranks third all-time at BYU in career field goal percentage and is making 59.4 percent of his shots so far this year.

JARED JENSEN / 6-9 • 245 • freshman • center

CAPSULE: Jensen earned the 2001 Deseret News Mr. Basketball Award after scoring 25.8 points and pulling down 13 rebounds per game this past season at Fremont High School (Utah). He averaged 17 points and 10 rebounds per game as a high school junior when he also earned Salt Lake Tribune and Deseret News All-State honors. He is a talented offensive player in the low-post who can also score with his jumper. He should get the opportunity to play as a freshman with the loss of 2001 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year Mekeli Wesley in the post.

Jensen is averaging 8.0 points and 2.9 rebounds per game. He had 9 points vs. Stanford and scored 12 points in each of the last two games in the Marriott Center. He went 4-4 from the floor and 4-4 from the line vs. Idaho. He is shooting a team-best 66.7 percent from the floor. He had 12 points in 20 minutes vs. Idaho and 12 points in 16 minutes vs. Fort Lewis. He has reached double-figure points three times. He had a career-high 14 points on 4-5 shooting and 6-8 from the line at UCSB. He had a career-best 10 boards vs. Creighton, along with 4 points and 2 assists. He had 7 points vs. Weber State. In his first career start vs. Arizona State, he played 15 minutes and had 4 points, 2 rebounds and 1 assist.

DANIEL BOBIK / 6-6 • 205 • sophomore • guard

CAPSULE: Bobik averaged 3.5 points and 10.4 minutes while playing in 28 of 33 games last year as a freshman ... He has good offensive instincts and size on the guardline ... He will get playing time as a sophomore with the loss of BYU's all-conference guard line of Trent Whiting and Terrell Lyday ... He has good range and is a crafty passer with good court awareness ... He could play some point but is primarily a wing player ... He enrolled at BYU for his freshman season after returning from an LDS Church mission to the Dominican Republic ... He and Mark Bigelow were the first recruits to sign with BYU under Steve Cleveland.

Bobik plays the sixth-man role. He is averaging 22.6 minutes, 9.6 points and 37 rebounds. He shoots a MWC-best 90 percent from the line and has made 12 straight attempts. His last miss was in BYU's second game vs. Arizona State. He is fourth on the team in scoring. He has reached double-digit points four times, including 10 points vs. Stanford. He was 1-2 on threes vs. the Cardinal and also scored on a nice post move and on a dribble drive. He had a career high 17 points vs. Idaho in the last outing in the Marriott Center. He made 5-7 threes, both career highs. He had 7 points in 18 minutes vs. Fort Lewis and had 7 points and a career-best 8 rebounds vs. Creighton. He had 13 points at Utah State. He played a career-high 33 minutes with 12 points and four rebounds in the season-opener at USD.

BART JEPSEN / 6-9 • 235 • redshirt sophomore • forward

CAPSULE: Jepsen redshirted last season after returning from an LDS Church mission ... He had suffered a severe break of his leg on his mission ... He will likely play a significant role in the middle as a rebounder and defender who can run the floor well ... A strong physical presence and good rebounder, he could play a role similar to that of outgoing senior Nate Knight ... Before a two-year LDS Church mission, Jepsen started nine times while playing 27 games as a freshman in 1997-98 in Cleveland's first season ... He is the younger brother of former Cougar center Bret Jepsen.

Jepsen has appeared in all nine games off the bench, averaging 2.6 rebounds in 11.3 minutes per game. He played only four minutes vs. Stanford. He played a season-high 22 minutes at Utah State. He had a season-high 5 points vs. Fort Lewis. His rebound high is 6 vs. Arizona State. He takes just over one shot per game.

JESSE PINEGAR / 6-9 • 220 • redshirt freshman • forward

CAPSULE: Pinegar redshirted last year after coming to BYU as one of the Cougars' top recruits and the first of BYU's top-20 recruiting class to commit to the Cougars ... He was rated the top center in the West as a junior and sat out his senior year of high school after shoulder surgery ... An extremely skilled offensive player, he was expected to play a strong role for BYU this season but again injured his left (non dominant) shoulder in June ... He played for the first time last week, appearing in both games in a limited role ... He had not been able to practice since June ... His latest surgery should completely repair the injury but he still has some pain ... He is a mobile, athletic player, he can play several positions and has excellent range beyond the three-point line ... He is an outstanding passer and a very skilled young offensive post player ... He made significant strides in the weight room this past season before the injury He has the tools to play a significant role once healthy but is not in condition to compete at this point.

Redshirt Freshman Jesse Pinegar has played in two games since being cleared by doctors (shoulder surgery in June). It was his first action since his junior year of high school. He sat out his senior year after shoulder surgery and then redshirted last season at BYU. He injured his shoulder again this summer and had surgery in June. He played seven minutes with 1 rebound and 1 assist vs. Fort Lewis in his first career appearance.

DAN HOWARD / 7-0 • 225 • sophomore • center

CAPSULE: Howard played in 14 games last year in limited action ... The tallest player on the roster, he has a nice touch for a big man ... He entered the year having made 8-of-11 field goal attempts as a Cougar ... A hard worker, he has a knack for the ball and could be a factor in inside this year, especially with the Cougars' losses in the post ... He has not had the opportunity to play a lot of consistent minutes (he played a career-best 12 minutes at San Francisco last year) since last playing for his high school team in 1996.

Howard started the season-opener at USD, the first start of his career. He played seven minutes, with one rebound. He has appeared in seven games overall, playing 6.0 minutes per game. He played 2 minutes vs. Stanford with one rebound. He had 4 points and 5 boards vs. Fort Lewis and had 3 rebounds and 2 blocks vs. Idaho in the most action he has seen this year. He played a career-high 13 minutes in each game. Last year he played 12 minutes at San Francisco. He is a career 10-15 from the floor in his two seasons, including 2-4 this year.

JON CARLISLE / 6-10 • 260 • sophomore • center

CAPSULE: Carlisle is from Salt Lake City and last played on Utah's Final Four team in 1998 as the primary backup to current Cleveland Cavaliers center Michael Doleac. He averaging 2.4 points and 2.1 rebounds in 10.3 minutes per game. He averaged 17.3 points and 10.3 rebounds at Brighton High School in 1997 and was one of three players, including new Cougar teammate Jake Shoff (who is redshirting due to transfer rules), to earn Region 4 Tri-Player of the Year honors. He continues to work to get back into playing shape, having already taken off 40 pounds since returning from his mission. He is a talented post player who has the tools to be a strong contributor once he is in condition to play.

Carlisle has played in four games. He played a season-high 14 minutes, more than doubling his previous high, while making a significant contributin vs. Stanford. He played 10 minutes in the first half with Jared Jensen in foul trouble. He scored 2 points and had 2 rebounds and 1 block. He scored a season-high 6 points in seven minutes vs. Fort Lewis. He played six minutes vs. Idaho.

JACOB CHRISMAN / 6-8 • 225 • sophomore • forward

CAPSULE: A two-sport athlete, Chrisman is also a pitcher on the BYU baseball team ... He announced last spring that he will redshirt basketball this year to play a full season of baseball, but could still try to play both sports this season ... He started practicing with the basketball team in November after the completion of fall baseball workouts ... He could be a significant contributor if he does play basketball ... He is extremely mobile and a strong rebounder ... He is an athletic low post player who can score in multiple ways ... He has developed a nice perimeter game ... A hard worker, he has a knack for the game and finds a way to make plays both on offense and defense ... A slasher-type player who has a nice shooting touch, he could play both the three and four positions for the Cougars.

He is yet to play this year while working out. He could still redshirt the basketball season.

JIMMY BALDERSON / 6-6 • 200 • freshman • guard

CAPSULE: Balderson is a 6-foot-6 combo guard who averaged 34 points, 9.2 rebounds and 6.8 assists while leading Magrath High School in Alberta, Canada to a 32-3 record this past season ... He has excellent range from the three-point line and has good size ... He shot 54 percent from the floor and 91 percent from the free throw line at Magrath High ... A skilled young player, he could factor in on perimeter this year ... He plans to leave in the spring on a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Balderson has played in six games and averages 10.3 minutes. He did not play vs. Stanford. He scored a career-high 19 points to lead all BYU scorers against Fort Lewis. He played a team-high 22 minutes, going 8-10 from the floor. He also recorded career highs with 7 rebounds and 3 steals, sharing team-high honors in both categories. He has been able to score when he has gotten the playing time. He has played double-digit minutes in three games, averaging 15 minutes and 9.3 points. In the other three games he has averaged 5.6 minutes and 1.3 points. He could get some opportunities to play the point with Opunui out with an injury.

SHAWN OPUNUI / 5-11 • 170 • freshman • point guard

CAPSULE: Opunui averaged 21.7 points and 6.1 assists as an all-state point guard at Orem High School in 1999 before leaving for an LDS Church mission ... A strong offensive player and solid defender, Opunui shot nearly 91 percent from the free throw line, third best in state history, and 40 percent on three-point attempts ... His 401 assists put him on the state's top-10 all-time list ... He is an athletic point guard who has excellent open court passing skills and is an outstanding three-point shooter ... His ability to break defenses down with the dribble should create offensive opportunities for his teammates ... He loves pushing the ball up the floor as a true point guard with great court vision ... A super passer and great penetrator, Opunui should have the opportunity to play with the loss to graduation of all-MWC guards Trent Whiting and Terrell Lyday and loss to injury of Michael Vranes.

It is anticipated Opunui will be out for at least six weeks after reinjuring his left thumb vs. Idaho (torn ligaments). He originally suffered ligament damage in his thumb while playing three minutes at Utah State on Dec. 1. The freshman guard will wear a hard cast for the next four weeks and then a removable splint for two weeks. He had played in four games. His only significant playing time was against Fort Lewis when he played 20 minutes. It was his first action in three games after injuring his thumb at Utah State. He dished out a career-best 10 assists and had career highs with six points, four rebounds and three steals in 20 minutes vs. Fort Lewis. He had six assists in the first half in only seven minutes.

CAPSULE: Nashif is a freshman who served a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints after his senior year in 1999 at Evergreen High School in Vancouver, Wash. ... A smart player who can put down the three-pointer, he knows how to run a team and is an excellent distributor of the ball ... He could factor in at the point.

Nashif could see more playing time with the loss of Shawn Opunui. He has played in five games, including a brief appearance vs. Stanford at the end of the game. STEVE CLEVELAND / head coach

Steve Cleveland enters his fifth season at the helm of the Cougars in 2001-02. In his four seasons at BYU, Cleveland has proven to be a first-rate recruiter, an excellent coach and player developer, and above all, a winner.

Last year Cleveland guiding BYU to its first NCAA tournament bid since 1995, its first conference regular season title since 1993 and its first conference tournament championship since 1992. While rebuilding a program that finished 1-25 before his arrival, he has improved the Cougars each season, posting records of 9-21, 12-16, 22-11 and 24-9. The Cougars also improved upon an NIT season in 1999-2000 to earn an NCAA berth last year.

The past two seasons both rank among of the school's best year's ever in terms of wins dating back to the Cougars first season in 1902. In fact, only five BYU teams have ever recorded more wins than last year's 24-9 team and only seven have improved upon the 22-11 record in 1999-2000.

The Cougars have improved their conference record each year under Cleveland (4-10 first year; 6-8 second year; 7-7 third year, 10-4 last year). The Cougars are an impressive 29-2 at home the past two years and have improved on the road with 17 away/neutral wins the past two seasons. BYU was a perfect 15-0 in the Marriott Center last year.

Cleveland's teams have come on strong at the end of each season. Last year BYU won five straight games on the road to secure a share of the MWC regular season title and earn the automatic NCAA bid by claiming the MWC Tournament in Las Vegas. The Cougars won six of their last eight games the prior season, including two MWC tournament wins and two NIT victories. In Cleveland's first year, BYU completed a rare sweep of New Mexico and UTEP on the road to earn a WAC tournament berth. The road sweep of New Mexico and UTEP was the first for BYU since 1990-91 and the 83-62 upset of No.15-ranked New Mexico in the Pit ended the Lobos' 41-game home winning streak. In Cleveland's second season the Cougars had a blowout win over UTEP before a 90-74 conference tournament upset victory over TCU to achieve BYU's first conference tournament win since 1994. Cleveland has improved BYU each year in post season as well. After guided his team to the 2000 Mountain West Conference Tournament finals and the quarterfinals of the NIT in 2000, last year he coached the Cougars to the 2001 MWC Tournament Championship and an NCAA berth.

As a recruiter, Cleveland has made a similar impact on BYU's program. Cleveland recruits have proven they are not only committed to Cleveland's vision but also are the kind of players to help make that vision a reality in Provo. Cleveland and his staff have been able to attract top talent from Utah and beyond. BYU has had one of the conference's top players in each of his four seasons. Last year Trent Whiting transferred from Utah even though he had to give up a year of eligibility. He was named to the MWC Newcomer Team and earned All-MWC Second Team honors while averaging 14.2 points. In 1999-2000, Terrell Lyday was the MWC Newcomer of the Year and was fourth in the league in scoring with a BYU-best 17.1 ppg. He followed in the footsteps of Mark Bigelow, who led the Cougars in scoring (15.0) and rebounding (6.3) while being named the Western Athletic Conference Pacific Division Freshman of the Year and second-team All-WAC in 1998-99 before departing for a two-year LDS Church mission. Ron Selleaze transferred to BYU in Cleveland's first season and earned WAC

Newcomer of the Year and second-team all-conference honors.

He signed a multi-year contract extension in October. Before taking the helm at BYU on March 11, 1997, Cleveland compiled a 157-77 record at Fresno City College in Fresno, Calif. Cleveland was named coach of the year two times while at FCC and led the Rams to post-season playoffs in each of his seven seasons in Fresno. Cleveland coached 10 years at Fresno's Clovis West High School, compiling a 180-70 record.

PLAYING CAREER

Cleveland played college basketball at UC Irvine and was the Anteaters' MVP and leading scorer his senior season in 1975-76. Prior to attending UC Irvine, Cleveland was Fresno City College's Most Outstanding Player in 1973-74. Cleveland received a B.A. degree in social science from UC Irvine in 1976, and received a Master's in education administration from Fresno Pacific in 1979.

PERSONAL

Cleveland, 49, was born in the Los Angeles area and spent most of his life in Fresno, Calif. He served an LDS Church mission to England from 1971-73. Cleveland was the first head basketball or football coach at BYU to have served a church mission. Cleveland and his wife Kip have three children: sons Casey (23) and Skyler (20) and daughter Katie (11).
