HOME SWEET HOMECOMING

After two straight losses on the road, the Cougars return to Provo where the team has won its last seven in a row. BYU will face undefeated Air Force for the Cougars' first taste of conference competition this season. Game time is scheduled for 1 p.m. (MT) and will be broadcast regionally on The mtn. The game will mark BYU's 2007 Homecoming. The Falcons are 3-0 under new head coach Troy Calhoun, including wins over Mountain West Conference foes Utah and TCU. The Cougars are 21-6 all-time against Air Force and 10-2 in Provo.

THE BYU-AIR FORCE SERIES

BYU opens its Mountain West Conference schedule against undefeated Air Force. The Cougars hold an all-time record of 21-6 against the Falcons, most recently taking a 33-14 victory at Falcon Stadium in 2006. Beginning with the first time the two teams played in 1956, BYU won 16 out of its first 17 matchups against Air Force. The Cougars won 12 in a row from 1983-94 but have gone just 5-5 against the Falcons since the 1995 season. BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall is 2-0 all-time against Air Force, winning both games by an average of 20 points per game. Both victories came against former Air Force head coach Fisher DeBerry. After 23 years at the helm, DeBerry retired after the 2006 season and was replaced by former Houston Texans offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Troy Calhoun. Air Force finished the 2006 season with a 4-8 overall record, losing six of its final seven games.

ON THE TUBE

Saturday's game will be broadcast live to a regional television audience on The mtn. The game will mark the first of six times BYU will be shown on the network during the 2007 season. The Cougars went a perfect 6-0 in games televised on the Mtn. in 2006. Veteran sportscaster Bill Doleman will call the action with former BYU quarterback Blaine Fowler lending expert analysis. Sammy Linebaugh will report from the sidelines. Doleman has called games for ABC, FOX, the NCAA, CSTV and ESPN. He has been a regular on ESPN's regional coverage of the Big12 men's basketball since 1994. As a member of the Cougars' 1984 National Championship team, Fowler has been around BYU for over 25 years. He has served as a play-by-play analyst for a number of regional networks, including the Blue and White Sports Network. Fowler is in his second year with the network. Linebaugh is a former news reporter for KSL-TV in Salt Lake City and has worked as a freelance reporter before joining The mtn. as a reporter.

LAST GAME RECAP

BYU sophomore quarterback Max Hall threw a Mountain West Conference record 537 yards and four touchdowns, but Tulsa racked up 595 yards of total offense of its own on its way to a 55-47 defeat of the Cougars. BYU committed 14 penalties and four turnovers in its second loss in as many games. Freshman running back Harvey Unga rushed 21 times for 100 yards, while Austin Collie, Michael Reed and Dennis Pitta each had over 100 receiving yards. Hall completed 34 of his 57 pass attempts. The game marked BYU's first-ever loss to Tulsa.

ROAD WARRIORS

Saturday's game at Tulsa marked the fourth time during the Bronco Mendenhall era the Cougars have had back-to-back road games during the regular season. In 2005, BYU played at San Diego State and at New Mexico in back-to-back weeks and at UNLV and Wyoming. Last season, the Cougars played at Air Force, followed by a game at Colorado State the following week. The Cougars are 3-1 in the second of two-straight road games. Following Saturday's game against Air Force, BYU will take to the road again playing at New Mexico and at UNLV.

OFF TO A QUICK START

For the first time since the 2004 season when BYU edged Notre Dame, 20-17, at LaVell Edwards Stadium, the Cougars won its season opener, 20-7, against Arizona. The Cougars lost at home to Boston College to start the 2005 campaign before dropping a 16-13 decision to Arizona on a last-second field goal to start the 2006 season. BYU won four straight season-openers from 2001-2004. Overall, the Cougars have won five of their last six home-openers.

HAVE BAGS; WILL TRAVEL

Interestingly, Hall of Fame Coach LaVell Edwards opened the season in Provo only nine times during his 29-year career. From 1978 to 1995, BYU opened the season on the road in 16 of 18 seasons. He was 5-4 in season-openers at Cougar Stadium.

SECOND STRAIGHT SELLOUT

For the second consecutive game, BYU ticket office officials have announced Saturday's game against Air Force is sold out. A crowd of over 64,045 is expected for the Cougars' Homecoming match-up against league leading Air Force. The game will mark the second consecutive sell-out at Edwards Stadium and the first time since November 20, 1999 the Cougars have had a sell-out in back-to-back games during the same season. A capacity crowd of 64,525 attended the Cougars' season-opening victory over Arizona on September 1. Since 1999, the Cougars are 8-4 in games with a sell-out crowd.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

The following is a list of BYU's future non-conference schedules:

- 2008: Nevada, at Washington, UCLA, at Utah State
- 2009: at Arizona State, Florida State, Utah State
- 2010: Washington, at Florida State, at Utah State
- 2011: at Washington, Arizona State, Utah State

NO PLACE LIKE HOME TO START THE SEASON

Dating back to the Cougars first season in 1922, BYU has posted a record of 29-11-1 when opening the season in Provo -- that's a winning percentage of 72 percent! In overall home-openers, the Cougars are 52-29-1 (64 percent) since 1922. Interestingly, BYU's longest home-opening win streak covers 10 seasons, dating from 1930 through 1939. Since 1998, the Cougars have posted a record of 8-2 (.777) in home-opening games.

RUSHING DOMINANCE

Entering Saturday's game, the Cougars own a record of 91-18 when rushing for 100 (or more) yards since the 1991 season. The Tulsa game marked only the fifth time since 1991 that the Cougars had gained over 150 yards rushing in a game and lost. (BYU is 72-5 since 1991 when rushing for 150 or more yards.) During the Bronco Mendenhall era, the Cougars are 14-3 when rushing for 100 or more yards.

RETIRING No. 14

Two of college football's all-time greatest quarterbacks, Gifford Nielsen and Ty Detmer, were honored together on Saturday, Sept. 1 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The No. 14 jersey, worn by both Nielsen and Detmer, was retired during halftime of the Cougars' season-opener against Arizona.

Throughout the history of BYU football, dating back to 1922, only three jerseys have ever been retired. Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie's No. 40 jersey, along with Marion Probert's No. 81 jersey and Steve Young's No. 8 jersey all hang from the pressbox at Edwards Stadium.

Nielsen, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and recipient of the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, passed for over 5,800 yards and collected 55 touchdowns throughout his career. Earning All-America honors in 1976, Nielsen led the NCAA in touchdown completions, ranked second in total offense and helped the Cougars to their first-ever national ranking. After what appeared to be a career-ending injury during his senior season, Nielsen went on to play six years for the Houston Oilers and remains the last quarterback to lead the team to the AFC finals. Nielsen and his wife, Wendy, are the parents of six children and reside in Houston.

Detmer, the winner of the 1990 Heisman Trophy, set nearly every passing record ever imagined during his time in Provo. A two-time Davey O'Brien Award winner, Detmer set 62 records during his career at BYU, including the NCAA record for career passing yards with 15,031. He was a consensus All-American in 1990 as the nation's leading passer and earned his second consensus All-American title in 1991 after leading the nation in total offense. He still holds the NCAA record for career touchdown completions with 121. Detmer played 14 seasons in the NFL and currently resides with his wife, Kim, and four daughters in Austin, Texas.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Currently BYU has four former players and a head coach enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Ind. Legendary coach LaVell Edwards was inducted in 2004 after serving 29 seasons as head coach, posting an amazing record of 257-101-3. Steve Young was inducted in 2001 with Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson and Gifford Neilsen earning Hall of Fame status in 1998, 1996 and 1994, respectively. With a long history of successful quarterbacks making their way to the College Football Hall of Fame, it seems only a matter of time before Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer receives an invitation to South Bend. BYU has produced more than just top-ranked quarterbacks over the years. Defensive lineman Jason Buck, offensive lineman Mo Elewonibi, offensive lineman Nick Eyre, running back Eldon Fortie, defensive back Kyle Morrell, punter Pat Thompson and tight ends Chris Smith and Gordon Hudson are also candidates for the Hall of Fame.

FOLLOWING A BOWL VICTORY...

In seasons following a BYU bowl victory, the Cougars have compiled a combined record of 66-21 (.758), averaging 9.4 wins per season. Of BYU's seven previous post-bowl victory teams, all but two teams have returned to a bowl game the following season.

NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

EASTERN WASHINGTON - After three straight MWC conference games, the Cougars will wrap up non-conference play when they play host to Eastern Washington. It will be the first meeting between the two schools. The Cougars have never lost to a Division I-AA opponent. The Eagles got off to a 1-0 start this season, defeating Montana Western 52-13 on August 31. EWU will play host to UC Davis on September 15.

SEASON-OPENERS

Since 1922, the Cougars have posted a 46-35-2 record in season-opening games, including a 20-7 victory over Arizona in the 2007 season-opening game.

"FAN" TASTIC FANS

Over 350,000 (363,146) fans attended six different home games at Edwards Stadium during the 2006 season, averaging 60,542 fans per game. BYU finished ranked fourth overall in the west behind USC (91,480), UCLA (64,955), California (64,318). BYU has annually been the top school in average attendance for teams from conferences that do not receive automatic BCS bowl bids. BYU has led the MWC in home attendance in all eight years of the league's existence. In fact, Edwards Stadium has been the site of the league's all-time top-10 crowds.

SEASON TICKET HOLDERS ARE FULLY INVESTED

BYU has sold over 53,500 season tickets for the 2007 season -- that's an increase of 7,900 over last year's total of 45,600. Interestingly, nearly 84 percent of the Edwards Stadium capacity will be occupied by season-ticket holders.

TALE OF THE TAPE

BYU's starting five offensive linemen weigh in at an average 318.4 pounds and average 6-feet-5. The front five will be going up against an Air Force defensive front that measures an average 6-feet-3, 265 pounds. Defensively, the Cougars' front three average 6-feet-2, 270 pounds, while the Falcons' offensive line tips the scales at an average 6-feet-3, 277 pounds per man.

Current members of the BYU football team who have previously served church missions speak a total of six different foreign languages, including Chinese, German, Japanese, Portuguese, Samoan and Spanish.

WHAT IS A MISSION, YOU ASK?

The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Mormon missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities. More than 50,000 missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at any one time. Most are young people under the age of 25, serving in nearly 350 missions throughout the world.

Missionaries can be single men between the ages of 19 and 25, single women over the age of 21 or retired couples. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 17 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Dominican Republic, England, Guatemala, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, Spain and South Korea.

A typical missionary day begins by waking at 6:30 a.m. for personal study. The day is spent proselytizing by following up on appointments, visiting homes or meeting people in the street or other public places. Missionaries end their day by 10:30 p.m. In some parts of the world, missionaries are sent only to serve humanitarian or other specialized missions. Those missionaries do not proselytize.

Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Contacts with family and friends during this time of service are limited to letters and occasional phone calls to family at special times. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

SCORING DOMINANCE

Not only did BYU lead the nation in home scoring margin in 2006, the Cougars also led the nation in overall scoring margin, defeating opponents by an average 22.1 points per game.

HEAD COACH BRONCO MENDENHALL

Bronco Mendenhall enters his third season as head coach at BYU. In his first season (2005), Mendenhall took a program that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001 and compiled a 6-5 regular-season record, a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference standings and earned a trip to a bowl game for the first time in three seasons.

Building on the success of his first-ever season as a head coach, Mendenhall and the Cougars posted a 10-2 record in 2006, winning the outright Mountain West Conference Championship with a perfect 8-0 record. As a result, BYU returned to the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl to represent the MWC—this time, as conference champions.

Along the way, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars' nine-game win streak was the third longest in the country and marked only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars had recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 323.54 yards per game. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fourth in the country in total offense, producing an average 465.46 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.7 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 167.08.

Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging 1.08 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 16th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.23) and 10th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 14.69 points per game -- the lowest per-game average for the Cougars since the 1985 season.

BYU outscored its opponents during the season by an average 36.7 to 14.69 (+22.01). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, Mendenhall and the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did BYU win each of its home games, it did so in record fashion. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominate team in the nation, but also they finished as the most dominate home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished the season behind the Cougars in 2006, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin.

In his first season, the Cougars finished second in the Mountain West Conference with a 5-3 record. Mendenhall and his staff coached an offense reminiscent of BYU's glory days, ranking second in the MWC in scoring and sixth in the nation in passing.

During his first season in Provo, Mendenhall engineered the nation's 14th-ranked defense, holding opponents to just 307 yards per game. Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing defense, giving up just 176.17 yards per game.

A native of Alpine, Utah, Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple have three sons.

BYU WELCOMES MARK WEBER TO ITS STAFF

During the off-season, BYU head football coach Bronco Mendenhall announced Mark Weber (last name is pronounced WEB-er) has been selected to coach the Cougars' offensive line.

"When rumors started circulating about an opening at BYU, I was immediately interested," Weber said. "We weren't going to take just any job. We were looking for a good program, a great community and an opportunity to work with great people. This is a great job--a great opportunity."

During his coaching career, including stops at Fresno State, UCLA, UNLV, Nevada and Oregon State, Weber has mentored several All-America, all-conference and NFL-caliber players. At Fresno State, Weber coached offensive tackle Logan Mankins, who earned All-America honors and was a first-round draft pick for the New England Patriots. Mankins went on to start all 16 games as a rookie for the Patriots. In 2002, all five offensive line starters earned post-season honors for the Patriots. In 2002, all five offensive line starters earned post-season honors for UCLA. Offensive tackle Mike Saffer earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors, as well as second- and third-team All-America honors. In his second year with the Bruins, Weber coached Outland Trophy winner and first-team All-American Kris Farris. In 1997, Chad Overhauser, earned first-team All-America honors for the Bruins.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The BYU coaching staff has four members who have played football in the National Football League or the old USFL. Associate Head Coach and running backs coach Lance Reynolds was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1978 and also played at Philadelphia. Offensive coordinator Robert Anae was drafted in the third round by the New Jersey Generals of the USFL. Quarterbacks coach Brandon Doman was drafted by the San Francisco 49'ers in 2002 and also played with the Washington Redskins. Steve Kaufusi also has NFL experience.

ROOKIE QB's AND BOWL GAMES

Sophomore quarterback Max Hall made his collegiate debut on September 1 against Arizona. Hall threw 26-of-39 for 288 yards and two touchdowns. The game marked Hall's first game in over four seasons. Hall is the first BYU quarterback to start the season without any previous experience since Steve Sarkisian started in 1995. Hall will also look to become the first quarterback since Brandon Doman to lead the Cougars to a bowl game in his first season as the regular starter. Since John Walsh led BYU to a Holiday Bowl appearance in 1993, Brandon Doman is the only quarterback to lead the Cougars to a bowl game in his first season as a regular starter.

Aulai allowed just one sack as a junior and did not allow a single sack against MWC opponents last season. Allen is an Academic All-Mountain West Conference performer who graduated with a degree in exercise science earlier this month. Allen racked up 420 yards receiving, averaging 32 yards per game. PLAYERS TO WATCH...

Matt Allen-WR

Allen returns as a leader of the outside receivers. The only senior with significant playing time in the deep unit, Allen returns after a stellar junior season. As a junior, Allen caught 27 passes (tops among all returners for BYU this year) for 420 yards and three touchdowns.

Austin Collie-WR

After returning from a mission in January, Collie will look to contribute similar numbers as those when he was a Freshman All-American in 2004. In the '04 season, Collie led BYU in receptions (58) and receiving touchdowns (8). Collie showed flashes of brilliance in spring football.

Dennis Pitta-TE

Like Collie, Pitta has also returned from a church mission during the offseason. Pitta also logged significant playing time as a true freshman in 2004. Pitta led all tight ends in receptions with 17 grabs while scoring two touchdowns.

Kelly Poppinga-LB

After a successful 2006 at outside linebacker, Poppinga will move to the middle to replace three-year starter and team captain Cameron Jensen. Last season, Poppinga played in all 13 games recording 36 tackles, two sacks, 3.5 tackles for loss and two interceptions.

Michael Reed-WR

Another experienced outside receiver, Reed returns to the Cougars for his junior season after logging significant playing time as a freshman and sophomore. Reed had 25 catches for 339 yards and three touchdowns a year ago.

Vic So'oto-TE

Coming off a redshirt year following an injury, So'oto will be part of a three-headed monster at tight end that will replace outgoing seniors Daniel Coats and Jonny Harline. So'oto, who played in 11 games as a true freshman in 2005, was a highly touted recruit coming out of high school.

Harvey Unga-RB

After missing the majority of the 2006 season with an injury, redshirt freshman Harvey Unga is expected to make a large and immediate contribution to the BYU offense. A large, yet quick runner, Unga has the ability to step in and make an immediate impact. Many believe Unga was the "surprise" of Fall Camp.

Max Hall-QB

Named the starter after spring practice heading into summer workouts, Hall has three years of eligibility left. The Arizona State transfer sat out last season due to transfer years. It was still a productive season for Hall as he had success quarterbacking the 2006 offensive scout team against a BYU defense that ranked 10th nationally in scoring defense.

Interestingly, in Hall's first shot at the Blue/White Game, he put up more impressive numbers than 2006 MWC Player of the Year John Beck did in any of his spring games. Hall completed 15-of-19 passes (.789 completion percentage) for 139 yards. Though used in a limited roll in 2006 spring game (2-of-5 passing, sacked twice), Beck completed 15-of-24 passes (.625) for 116 yards as a junior in 2005. Each was intercepted once.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS SNAPPED

College football's two longest active winning streaks were snapped on Saturday as Boise State fell to Washington, 10-24, and BYU lost to UCLA, 17-27. Boise State had won 14 straight prior to Saturday, and BYU's 11-game winning streak was its longest since the 2001 season. No. 5 Wisconsin now owns the NCAA's longest current winning streak at 11 games after toppling UNLV, 20-13 over the weekend.

HOME WIN STREAK CONTINUES

The Cougars' 20-7 victory over Arizona extended BYU's home win streak to seven straight games. The Cougars will look to win their eighth straight home game for the first time since winning 10 straight from Oct. 26, 2000 to Sept. 6, 2002.

UNDEFEATED AT HOME

BYU finished the 2006 season with a perfect 6-0 record at home. The last time BYU had a perfect record at home was 2001 when the Cougars went 6-0 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Since the stadium was built in 1964, BYU has gone undefeated at home 13 times:

- 2006: 6-0
2001: 6-0
1998: 6-0
1996: 7-0
1991: 6-0
1990: 6-0
1988: 6-0
1984: 6-0
1983: 5-0
1980: 6-0
1979: 5-0
1977: 5-0

SELLOUT

The Cougars saw a capacity crowd (64,045) for the season-opener against Arizona. The game marked the first home-opening sellout since the 2004 season when the Cougars opened in Provo against Notre Dame. Prior to the 2007 season-opener, BYU had had 10 opening-day sell-outs, dating back to 1982 -- the first year of the expanded stadium. Last week's game also marked the first opening-day sell out during the Bronco Mendenhall era. It was also the first sell out since November 19, 2005 when the Cougars played host to Utah. Since 1985, the Cougars are 8-3 (.727) when playing in Provo for the home-opener in front of a sold-out stadium.

FOOL ME ONCE ...

In the Bronco Mendenhall era, BYU is 5-2 in games following a loss during the regular season. Before last Saturday, the Cougars' only loss following a loss came on October 1, 2005 when BYU dropped a 31-10 decision at San Diego State following a 51-50 overtime loss against TCU.

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

Saturday's game at Tulsa marked the fourth time in the Bronco Mendenhall era the Cougars have played back-to-back road games. Prior to Saturday night's defeat, BYU was a perfect 3-0 when playing the second of two straight road games.

DON'T LOOK BACK

In the Bronco Mendenhall era, BYU is 17-4 when leading at halftime and 16-1 when taking a lead into the fourth quarter. Saturday's loss at Tulsa marked the first time since September 16, 2006 the Cougars lost the game after holding a halftime lead. BYU held a 34-31 lead against the Golden Hurricane; however, TU outscored the Cougars 24-13 in the second half to win the game, 55-47.

COLLIE BREAKS SCHOOL, MWC RECORDS

Against Tulsa, sophomore receiver Austin Collie was credited with 366 all-purpose yards, including 245 combined return yards and 121 receiving yards, to break Pete Van Valkenburg's 35-year-old school record. Van Valkenburg racked up 306 all-purpose yards in a 33-14 win over Wyoming on November 4, 1972. Collie's total also eclipsed Larry Ned's Mountain West Conference single-game record of 319 yards in San Diego State's October 6, 2001 victory over Eastern Illinois. Additionally, Collie's mark set the new MWC sophomore record, clipping Aaron Brown's mark of 285 yards in TCU's victory over Colorado State on November 25, 2006. Collie, a 6-foot-2, 212-pound sophomore from El Dorado Hills, Calif., also set the Mountain West Conference single-game individual and sophomore kick return yardage records with 237 yards on eight returns. Previously, Colorado State's George Hill held both records with 218 yards against Minnesota on September 10, 2005. Collie came up just three yards short of breaking Golden Richards' 36-year-old record of 247 combined return yards. Richards had 219 punt return yards and 28 kick return yards against North Texas during the 1971 season. Collie had 237 kick return yards and 8 yards on punt returns. Collie scored his first touchdown of the season with 8:19 remaining in the third quarter of the Cougars loss at UCLA, cutting the Bruins' lead to 20-10. The touchdown marked Collie's first since the 2004 season. Collie did not play in 2005 or 2006, serving a Church mission in Brazil. Collie scored again with 6:04 left in the third quarter to cut the Bruins' lead to just 20-17. Collie, a freshman All-American in 2004, caught seven balls for a game-high 79 yards and two touchdowns.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE

The Cougars currently have the 8th longest streak in the nation of consecutive games without returning a kickoff for a touchdown. BYU has been unable to accomplish the feat in 107 straight games.

YELLOW FEVER

For the second week in a row, the Cougars were plagued with penalties. BYU was flagged 14 times for 138 yards, while Tulsa was penalized just four times for 31 yards. BYU ranks 109th in the country, averaging 10 penalties for 83 yards per game.

TURNOVER WOES

The Cougars turned the ball over four times against the Golden Hurricane, leading to a total of 21 points. BYU was credited with one turnover; however, the team failed to capitalize on the Tulsa miscue. Brian Smith missed a 44-yard field goal attempt. Interestingly, Tulsa took advantage of the field position on Smith's missed field goal and scored three plays later to tie the game at 7-7. The Cougars currently rank 110th in the country in turnover margin.

SCORING NOTES

The Cougars posted a season-high 47 points on Tulsa, marking the most points scored since beating Wyoming 55-7 on November 9, 2006. The game marked the most points BYU has scored in a losing effort since falling to TCU in overtime, 50-51, on September 24, 2005. It's also the most points scored during regulation in a losing effort since losing to Utah State, 56-58, on October 30, 1993. Interestingly, since that game in 1993, the Cougars are 31-2 in games when the team scores 45 (or more) points.

DO I KNOW YOU?

Air Force junior WR Matt Davis and BYU freshman DL Matt Putnam are both Brigham City, Utah natives and graduates of Box Elder High School.

FLAG BEARERS

BYU has a tradition of selecting a player before each game to run the team flag onto the field. The white flag with a blue "Y" logo has been signed by each member of the team. Their signature reflects their commitment to uphold the tradition, spirit and honor of the BYU football program and to be a flag bearer of the University. The flag bearer is elected each week by his teammates. Following is a list of players who have been given the honor in 2007:

- vs. Arizona.....Joe Semanoff
- at UCLA.....Quinn Gooch
- at Tulsa.....Corby Hodgkiss
- vs. Air Force

TAKING UP TIME

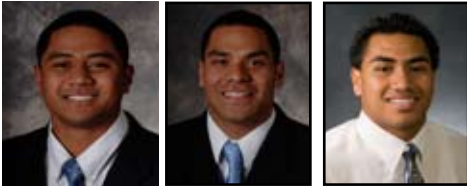

Harvey Unga's one-yard touchdown run with 10:05 remaining in the opening quarter at Tulsa marked the 12th time in the past 13 games the Cougars have scored first. Interestingly, the 3:48 drive was the second longest of the season and the longest scoring drive of the game. During the first half, both teams combined to score a total of six drives under two minutes in length and nine scoring drives under three minutes. In the second half, the two teams combined for four scoring drives under three minutes and just one scoring drive over three minutes.

MAKING ADJUSTMENTS

The BYU defense started the game by forcing Tulsa to punt on two straight drives and was credited with an interception to end the third drive. The Cougars held the Golden Hurricane to just 12 total yards in the first three drives. Tulsa made some adjustments and went on to score on its next five drives, including four touchdowns and a field goal during the first half.

THE TONGAN TWOSOME?

BYU's Tongan Trio, featuring running backs Manase Tonga, Fui Vakapuna and Harvey Unga, has been reduced to a twosome. Vakapuna broke his hand Sept. 15 against Tulsa and is expected to miss four to six weeks following surgery. The junior is averaging 7.6 carries per game and 3.2 yards per carry.

ON THE ROAD vs. RANKED OPPONENTS

The Cougars' 17-27 loss to No. 11 UCLA last Saturday marked the first road game against a ranked opponent since BYU knocked off No. 15 TCU in Fort Worth last season, 31-17. The victory over the Horned Frogs gave BYU its first win over a ranked opponent on the road since beating Arizona State, 13-10, on September 20, 1997. BYU is now 1-13 in games against ranked opponents, dating back to the 1999 season.

UNGA NAMED MWC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Running back Harvey Unga was 2007's inaugural Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week for after leading the Cougars to a 20-7 season-opening victory over Arizona.

Unga, a freshman from Provo, Utah, racked up a game-high 194 all-purpose yards, including a game-best 67 yards rushing and 127 yards receiving. Unga was also credited with two touchdowns, including a 27-yard pass and run with 6:02 left in the first quarter that gave the Cougars a 7-0 lead, and an 11-yard run in the fourth quarter that extended BYU's lead to 20-0.

Prior to Arizona's final drive of the game, Unga had totaled more offensive yards than the entire Arizona offense combined. For the game, Unga averaged 4.5 yards per carry and averaged over 14 yards per reception.

Unga's offensive total against the Wildcats marked the top performance by a freshman running back in the country.

YOU NEED A HALL PASS

BYU quarterback Max Hall made his Division-I debut against Arizona, marking his first action in over four years. The native of Mesa, Ariz., led the Cougars to a decisive 20-7 victory over the Wildcats. Hall completed 26-of-39 attempts for 288 yards and two touchdowns. Hall did not have any interceptions and was only sacked one time. Among members of BYU's Quarterback Factory, Hall's completion percentage (66.7) in his first career start ranks third behind Ty Detmer who completed 68.6 percent of his attempts in his first career start and Gary Sheide who completed 70.7 percent. Hall completed 26 passes in his first career start, the second most completions among the members of BYU's Quarterback Factory behind Sheide's 29 completions in his Cougar debut.

Through his first three career games, Hall has completed 90-of-148 pass attempts and has averaged 405.3 passing yards per game. In just his third career start at Tulsa, Hall threw for a career-high 537 yards and four touchdowns giving him a total of eight touchdown passes on the season.
