After trailing Pepperdine, 0-2, in Saturday's MPSF Championship match, the third-ranked BYU men's volleyball team rallied to win three straight games and knock off the No. 1 Waves to capture the league's automatic bid to the NCAA National Championships in Long Beach, Calif. By virtue of winning the MPSF Tournament, the Cougars (22-6) will enter this week's competition as the No. 1 seed, and will face No. 4 Penn State (26-5) on Thursday, May 1. Match time is slated for 8:00 p.m. (PDT) at the Pyramid—the site of BYU's last National Championship run in 2001. The winner of Thursday's match will play for the National Championship on Saturday, May 3, beginning at 4 p.m. (PDT).

The Cougars will enter this week's NCAA National Championship tournament as the top-seeded team for the second time in their three appearances. In 1999, BYU posted a 28-1 record entering the tournament to garner top-seed honors. In 2001, the Cougars suffered a semi-final loss in the MPSF Tournament, and was selected as the at-large team for the Final Four.

Thursday's match will be broadcast (tape delayed) on ESPN 2, beginning at 8 a.m. (PDT) on Friday, May 2. The championship match will be broadcast live on ESPN2.

The Cougars have earned a 22-6 overall record on the season, including key victories over Hawai'i and Pepperdine in the MPSF Tournament. BYU's 17-5 MPSF record earned it the second spot in the final conference rankings behind Pepperdine. The Cougars' .346 percentage ranks sixth-best in the nation and third in the MPSF. As a team, The Cougars finished among the top-five in the MPSF in aces and blocking. Two Cougars, Rafael Paal and Jonathan Alleman, have earned National Player-of-the-Week honors this season. Alleman is among the top-20 nationally, averaging 3.93 kills per game, while Paal has the highest service ace mark in the MPSF, averaging .41 per contest. Sophomore middle blocker Michael Burke is ranked third in the league for individual hitting percentage, average .458 per game, and adds a team-leading 1.34 blocks per contest. Middle blocker Chris Gorny and setter Carlos Moreno are among the national and conference leaders in blocks and assists, respectively.

The Cougars enter this week's NCAA Championship tournament with a perfect, 4-0, record in Final Four action. BYU won the 1999 NCAA tournament, defeating Long Beach State, 3-0, at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion. The Cougars advanced to the championship match by knocking off Penn State, 3-1. In 2001, the Cougars returned to the Final Four, this time as an at-large selection. In semi-final action, BYU upended Penn State again, 3-1, to advance to the championship match. Once again, the Cougars were crowned National Champions after blanking top-ranked UCLA, 3-0, at the Pyramid in Long Beach.

- The Cougars beat Long Beach State (1999) to win the National Championship on the home court of the UCLA Bruins. Two years later, BYU beat UCLA on the home court of the Long Beach State 49'ers to win the National Championship.

- The Cougars are a perfect 4-0 in Final Four action, posting a 12-2 single-game record.

- Penn State is the only team to win a game against BYU in Final Four action. The Cougars have defeated the Nittany Lions, 3-1, in both matchups in NCAA semi-final round action.

- Since 1999, the Cougars have made three appearances to the Final Four, and have won more NCAA Championships in that span than any other school.

In 1999: BYU swept Hawaii and Pacific then beat USC, 3-1, for the MPSF tournament championship and automatic berth to the NCAA tournament. In their first-ever appearance at the Final Four, the Cougars played Penn State on May 6 in the first round of the national tournament and won, 3-1. The Cougars then met Long Beach State—the only team to defeat BYU during the regular season—in the finals for a 3-0 win and their first-ever national title.

In 2001: After losing to Hawaii in MPSF Tournament semi-final action, the Cougars' fate was up to the selection committee. A 21-4 record was good enough for the committee and an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. BYU again faced Penn State in the first round of the Final Four and again beat the Nittany Lions, 3-1. The Championship featured BYU and top-ranked UCLA. The Cougars weren't deterred, however, and pulled off another, 3-0, victory to win their second national title in just three years.

In 2003: Entering the semi-finals of the MPSF tournament, the Cougars faced a difficult challenge. In order to hope for an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, they would need to beat Hawaii—the second-ranked team in the nation. After a 3-0 thumping, mission accomplished. For the automatic bid, BYU would then need to beat No. 1 Pepperdine. After falling behind, 2-0, things didn't look so good for the Cougars. However, a stellar come-from-behind effort calmed the Waves and BYU went on to a 3-2 win and received the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Championship tournament. For the third time in five years, BYU will face Penn State in the first round of the tournament. BYU's first-year head coach Tom Peterson coached the Nittany Lions to their first and only National Championship in 1994. Interestingly, 1994 was Peterson's last year coaching NCAA men's volleyball before returning to BYU this season. Peterson now faces his ex-assistant in Mark Pavlik, now head coach at Penn State. If BYU wins this year, it will be akin to back-to-back championships for Peterson in men's NCAA competition, just nine years apart.

Five current BYU players were part of the 2001 NCAA National Championship team, including Fernando Pessoa, Jonathan Alleman, Luka Slabe, Jaime Mayol and Shawn Olmstead. Pessoa is the only starter from 2001 remaining on this year's team, while Slabe, Mayol and Alleman played key rolls of the bench.

Thursday's first-round match marks the third time BYU and Penn State have competed against each other in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. BYU won the previous two NCAA Tournament matches, 3-1, and went on to win the Championship. This season, the two teams split a pair of matches in Provo. On March 7, Michael Burke recorded a season-high nine blocks and three different Cougars registered double-digit kills to come back from a first-game loss and win the match, 3-1. On March 8, four Cougars tallied double-digit kills, and as a team out-blocked Penn State, 13.5 to 10.0, but five Nittany Lions hit in double figures, including Norman Keil who hit 15 kills with a .737 attack percent to outlast the Cougars for a 3-2 win in the second match. In their competitive history, Penn State leads the series 5-3.

In one of the Cougars' biggest rivalries, BYU and Pepperdine have battled 29 times since their first meeting in 1990. The Waves own a 12-17 record, however the Cougars have won 6 of the past 11 meetings. Pepperdine welcomed BYU to the collegiate ranks back in 1990 with a dominating, 3-0, victory. The Waves went on to win six straight matches over the Cougars. Finally, in 1993, BYU recorded its first win over Pepperdine, 3-2 in Provo. Interestingly, since the 1993 match, the Cougars have produced a 12-11 record over the Waves, including two come-from-behind victories this season.

BYU MEN'S VOLLEYBALL COACH Tom Peterson

On May 28, 2002, Tom Peterson was named the head coach of the BYU men's volleyball program, replacing legendary coach Carl McGown.

"Tom has been a winner wherever he has coached," BYU athletic director Val Hale said. "He has won a national championship and has built many programs from the ground up. Men's volleyball at BYU is an NCAA sport mainly due to Tom's efforts when he coached our club team in the '80s. We are confident Tom will continue BYU's outstanding volleyball tradition, and we are thrilled he again wants to be a Cougar.

Peterson, a native of Orem, Utah, comes to BYU with over 20 years of volleyball coaching experience, including 17 years of collegiate head coaching experience. After five years as the head coach of the BYU club program, from 1984-1988, Peterson led the Penn State men's volleyball team to five NCAA Final Four appearances, including a National Championship in 1994. While at Penn State, Peterson guided the Nittany Lions to a 127-49 (.722) overall record.

"It is both a privilege and a thrill for me to be considered for this opportunity to come back to my alma mater," Peterson said. "BYU has always been near and dear to my heart. I have a lot of history here, more than just volleyball. My wife and I look forward to being a part of this wonderful program and university."

Peterson holds a doctoral degree in physical education administration, curriculum and instruction from BYU (1992). He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from BYU in 1978 and a master's degree in curriculum development with a minor in educational psychology from BYU in 1982.

While working on his master's degree, Peterson served as an assistant coach on the University of Utah women's volleyball team from 1981-82. In 1983, he returned to BYU as an assistant under current women's head coach Elaine Michaelis. In 1984, Peterson took over the head-coaching duties of the BYU men's volleyball club team. After five seasons at BYU, Peterson was hired as the head men's volleyball coach at Penn State.

Most recently, Peterson served for one season as the head coach of the University of New Mexico women's volleyball program. Prior to UNM, he coached at Utah State for two seasons, leading the USU women's program to a 22-10 record in only his second year. The Aggies advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and finished ranked no. 21, marking the program's first-ever top-25 ranking.

Peterson also spent three seasons as the head women's coach at Salt Lake Community College, posting an 80-38 record from 1996-1998. During his tenure at SLCC, Peterson guided the Bruins as high as no. 7 in the national junior college rankings.

Peterson will take over a program that has been under the direction of Carl McGown, who led BYU to two National Championships in a span of three years. McGown posted 205 victories in just 13 seasons, averaging nearly 22 victories per season over the past six years. Peterson has both played and coached under McGown since attending BYU in the late '70s.

"No one will ever replace Carl," Peterson said. "In my opinion, he is the most brilliant mind in volleyball. He has trained volleyball players better than anyone else in the world. It is going to be an ominous task to keep up the tradition he has established over the years."

Peterson is married to the former Sheryl Rice of Bakersfield, Calif. Sheryl is also active in the volleyball circle, having served as the director of the Lobo Volleyball League in Albuquerque, one of the largest recreational volleyball programs in the country.

- Making his sixth NCAA Final Four appearance as a head coach
- 1994 National Coach of the Year
- Coached the first non-California team to an NCAA Championship (1994; Penn State)
- Completing 18th year of collegiate volleyball coaching experience
- Served for six seasons as the head coach of BYU's men's club volleyball program (1983-1988.)
- Head women's coach at Utah State and New Mexico
- Led Aggies to a 22-10 record in his second season, earning the program's first-ever top-25 ranking
- Head men's coach at Penn State and BYU
- Holds a Ph.D. in physical education administration, curriculum and instruction from BYU with a minor in educational psychology (1992)
- Earned a master's degree from BYU in professional leadership (1982)
- Graduated from BYU with a bachelor's degree in physical education and a secondary teaching certificate (1978)
