COUGARS SET TO BATTLE UTES

The Cougars, bowl eligible for the first time since 2001 after Saturday's win over Wyoming, are 6-4 overall and 5-2 in the Mountain West Conference. BYU has also clinched a share of second place in the conference. Colorado State and New Mexico could equal the Cougars' conference record but BYU holds the advantage over both teams. The Cougars will conclude their regular season at home against in-state rival Utah. BYU defeated Wyoming 35-21 behind a solid defensive effort and a methodical offensive attack. The Cougars ran for 267 yards, including 153 by Curtis Brown, on a season-high 50 rushes while John Beck completed 20-of-29 passes for 173 yards and two touchdowns to Jonny Harline. Justin Luettgerodt led a defensive attack that forced five turnovers by recovering three fumbles and intercepting one pass to go along with seven tackles, including one for an 11-yard loss.

A LOOK AT THE UTES

Utah is coming off a 31-27 loss against New Mexico and is currently 5-5 overall and 3-4 in the MWC. The Utes led the Lobos for much of the game until New Mexico scored on a fumble return with just under eight minutes remaining. Utah was shutout in the second half and fell for the fourth time in the last six games. Quinton Ganther ran 15 times for 98 yards and Brian Johnson threw for 360 yards and four touchdowns before suffering a season-ending knee injury in the fourth quarter. The Utes turned the ball over five times, including twice in the fourth quarter. For the season, Ganther has rushed for 869 yards and six touchdowns. Johnson was one of the top quarterbacks in the conference before the injury, passing for 2,892 yards and 18 touchdowns while only throwing seven interceptions. Brett Ratliff, who replaced Johnson against New Mexico, will get the start on Saturday. The Utes need a win over the Cougars to become bowl eligible.

SERIES INFORMATION

Saturday's game will be the 81st meeting between BYU and Utah. The Cougars trail the Utes 28-48-4 overall and 13-16-1 in Provo. Last season, the Utes won 52-21 in Salt Lake to complete a perfect 11-0 regular season. The Cougars kept the score close in the first half, trading touchdowns with the Utes. Down 7-0 in the second quarter, John Beck completed a five-yard touchdown pass to Todd Watkins to tie the score. After a Utah touchdown, Curtis Brown scored on a six-yard run late in the second quarter to even the score at 14-all. The Utes found the endzone once more before the half and outscored BYU 31-7 in the second half to secure the victory. Beck finished the game with 213 passing yards and two touchdown passes, including a 16-yarder to Austin Collie in the third quarter. Brown ran for 84 yards and one score. Quinton Ganther led Utah with 122 rushing yards on 11 carries.

BYU IN THE STANDINGS AND BOWL ELIGIBILITY

With Saturday's 35-21 victory over Wyoming, BYU improved to 6-4 on the season and 5-2 in the MWC. With the win, the Cougars clinched at least a share of second-place in the conference. With the victory on Nov. 12, the Cougars improved to 6-4 on the season and moved two games over the .500 mark for the first time since opening the 2002 season with back-to-back wins. BYU has won its last five conference games, defeating New Mexico, Colorado State, Air Force, UNLV and Wyoming during the streak. It is the Cougars' first five-game conference win streak since 2001, when BYU went undefeated in the MWC. With six wins on the season, the Cougars are bowl eligible. BYU was last bowl eligible in 2001. The Cougars will wrap up the season in Provo against in-state rival Utah.

FIVE MORE TAKEAWAYS

Against Wyoming, Corby Hodgkiss picked off a Corey Bramlet pass with just over a minute left in the first half. It was the third turnover of the half the Cougars forced. It marked the third-consecutive game BYU forced at least three turnovers. Wyoming ended up turning the ball over five times, including three fumbles and two interceptions. The Cougars forced five turnovers against Air Force and three against UNLV and have only turned the ball over twice in those three games, both against the Falcons. BYU has forced 22 turnovers this season, and given up 17 for a +5 turnover margin, good for second best in the conference. Going into the Air Force game, the Cougars were last in the conference and 101st in the nation in turnover margin at -6.

STAT WATCH

John Beck and the Cougar offense are among national and conference leaders. Beck currently ranks fifth nationally in passing yards per game (304.8 p/g) and is third in total passing yards (3,048). He leads the Mountain West Conference in both categories. He leads the conference and is tied for eighth nationally with 22 touchdown passes. BYU's passing offense is eighth in the nation and first in the conference while its total-offense average of 461.8 yards per game is second in the conference and 13th in the nation. Beck is second in the conference and 11th nationally in total offense (305.7 yards p/g). Curtis Brown is third and Jared McLaughlin is fourth in the conference in scoring (8.0 and 7.4 pts/g, respectively). As a team, the Cougars are second in the conference in points per game and 23rd in the nation at 33.4. Brown is fourth in the conference in rushing yards per game (94.2). As a team, the Cougars lead the conference in third-down conversions (45.5 percent), blue zone offense (88.5 percent) and first downs (261). They are second in the conference in turnover margin (+5).

TURNOVER MACHINE/MWC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (NOV. 13)

Justin Luetterodt was credited with four of BYU's five turnovers, including three fumble recoveries and a late, game-clinching interception to lead the Cougars to a 35-21 victory over Wyoming. He totaled seven tackles (four solo) in the game, including one tackle for a loss of 11 yards. Luetterodt had one turnover in each quarter, with BYU converting his three fumble recoveries into 21 points. His third fumble recovery came at the Cougar 6-yard line with 1:59 remaining in the third quarter when Wyoming was threatening to tie the score at 28 apiece. Luetterodt's interception came on the Cowboys' final drive, which sealed the BYU victory. On the season, Luetterodt leads the Cougars with 9.0 tackles for a combined loss of 47 yards, including 4.5 sacks. He also leads the BYU roster with three interceptions and three fumble recoveries.

MWC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (NOV. 13)

Brown rushed for 153 yards on 25 carries (6.1 yards per carry) and had two touchdowns in BYU's 35-21 win at Wyoming. His first touchdown gave the game at 14 and his second gave the Cougars a 21-14 advantage. He also had two receptions for 24 yards. Brown tied a BYU record with his 10th 100-yard performance and is only the second Cougar running back, along with Luke Staley, to accomplish the feat during his junior season.

ON PACE

With 942 yards on the season, averaging 94.2 yards per game, Curtis Brown is on pace to run for over 1,036 yards this season. With 58 yards next week against Utah, Brown would reach the 1,000 yard mark. The last time a BYU back had 1,000 rushing yards in a season was in 2001, when Luke Staley had 1,582.

BIG RUN BECK

In the third quarter against Wyoming, facing a third-and-five from the BYU 25, John Beck avoided a Cowboy blitz and ran for 45-yards. Beck ran for 40 yards on the game.

STADIUM SELLOUT

Saturday's game at Edwards Stadium has been sold out. A crowd of over 64,045 is expected. While the Cougars are averaging a league-high 56,982 fans per game, Saturday's game will be the first sellout of the season. It will also mark the third sellout in the past two seasons, and the first time a capacity crowd attended last year's game against UNLV.

TOUCHDOWN PASSES

John Beck threw two touchdown passes against Wyoming, both to Jonny Harline, Beck now has 22 touchdown passes for the season, tied with Cody Bramlet for fifth most in the MWC for a single season. He also has 42 in his career, third best in the MWC for career touchdowns and five from tying Alex Smith for second most.

WHERE'S THE BEEF?

The BYU offensive line doesn't order salads when it goes out to eat. Each starter weighs over 300 pounds for an average of 325 and a total of 1,625 pounds. They will be going up against a Utah defensive line that weighs an average of 304.4 pounds. The Ute offensive line weighs on average of 305.2 pounds while BYU's defensive line weighs an average of 285.25 pounds.

NOVEMBER TO REMEMBER

Since 1972—LaVell Edwards first year as a head coach at BYU—the Cougars have posted an impressive 92-25-1 (.784) record in the month of November. There have been a total of 17 times over that span that BYU has gone undefeated during the month of November, including a stretch of seven straight seasons where the Cougars did not lose a single game in the month of November (1979-1985). Throughout his 29 seasons, Edwards won over 81 percent of his games during the month of November, including a record of 84-19-1 from 1972 until his final season in 2000. During that span, the Cougars had only three losing records during the month of November.

Since Edwards' retirement in 2000, the Cougars have tallied a 8-6 (.571) record in the month of November. During Gary Crowton's first season as head coach, BYU went 3-0 in November to finish as the first MWC team to sweep its league schedule. Since that time, the Cougars have gone 3-6 over the next three seasons during the month of November. Entering November this year, BYU needed to win two of its final three games to become bowl eligible. The Cougars defeated UNLV 55-14 and Wyoming 35-21. BYU now plays Utah at home to finish the season. Since 1922, BYU is 25-20-1 against Utah during November. The Cougars are bowl eligible for the first time since 2001, when they went to the Liberty Bowl.

200 RUSHING YARDS

Against Wyoming, the Cougars ran for over 200 yards for the third-consecutive game and the fourth time this season. BYU had 267 on 50 carries and is 4-0 in those games. The Cougars had 274 yards at Colorado State, 300 against Air Force and 224 at UNLV.

GOOD GRIEF CURTIS BROWN

Junior running back Curtis Brown ran for 153 yards and scored two touchdowns on 25 carries against Wyoming, giving him 10-career 100-yard games. Brown, a junior, is now tied with Luke Staley, Jamal Willis, John Ogden and Lakei Heimuli for most career 100-yard games in BYU history. Brown and Staley are the only two backs to reach the 10-game mark during their junior seasons. Interestingly, both touchdown runs for No. 6 went for six yards. It was his fourth multiple-touchdown game of the year. He scored two against Colorado State, four against Air Force, two against UNLV and two against Wyoming. All four games have come in a five-game span. Brown now has 13 touchdowns on the season, 12 rushing and one receiving.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

The Cougars scored touchdowns after recovering Wyoming fumbles in the first, second and third quarters. In the last three games, BYU has scored 52 points off opponent turnovers. Against Air Force, the Cougars scored 10 points off turnovers and had 21 off turnovers against UNLV.

LONGEST DRIVE

In the second quarter, Curtis Brown scored his second touchdown against Wyoming to complete a 17-play, 89-yard drive that lasted 8:21. The drive was the longest of the season as far as time (8:21) and the 17 plays were the most for any drive. The 89 yards makes the drive the third longest of the year. Later in the game, the Cougars had a 94-yard, 10-play drive that lasted 5:46, marking the longest (yardage) drive of the season. The previous long was a 93-yarder against New Mexico.

BRONCO MENDENHALL

After 16 seasons as an assistant coach, including the past two years as the defensive coordinator for the Cougars, Bronco Mendenhall was promoted to head football coach at Brigham Young University on December 13, 2004. Mendenhall becomes the 14th head coach since the University first officially recognized football as an intercollegiate sport in 1922.

Mendenhall (38)--one of the youngest NCAA Division I-A head coaches in the country--has served the past two seasons as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Cougars. During his first season in Provo, Mendenhall engineered the nation's 14th-ranked defense, holding opponents to just 307 yards per game. Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing defense, giving up just 176.17 yards per game.

In 2004, the Cougars ranked third in the Mountain West in rushing defense, allowing 149.3 yards per game. The Cougars also ranked second in the league, with 34 sacks for a combined loss of 232 yards.

A native of Alpine, Utah, Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to the former Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple have three sons: Cutter (5), Breaker (3) and Raeder (18 mo.).

John Beck, 6-2, 210, Quarterback: John Beck has been selected to the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award watch list, which honors the nation's best quarterback. Beck started 10 of 11 games his sophomore year and threw for 2,563 yards and 15 touchdowns. He averaged an MWC best 261.0 yards per game against league opponents. Beck earned second-team All-MWC honors as a sophomore.

Manaia Brown, 6-4, 310, Defensive Line: Manaia Brown has been named to the Lombardi Award watch list. Brown started eight of 11 games in 2004, registering 26 tackles, nine for a loss of 48 yards. He also registered 4.5 sacks. He was named All-MWC Honorable Mention.

Curtis Brown, 6-0, 210, Running Back: Curtis Brown has been named a Doak Walker Award candidate. In 2004, Brown had over 100 yards in four-straight games, including a season-high 159 against Wyoming. Against the Cowboys, he threw a 40-yard touchdown pass and ran for the score that put the Cougars ahead for good. He is only the fourth BYU player to crack the 1,000-yard rushing mark during his sophomore year.

Daniel Coats, 6-3, 250, Tight End: Daniel Coats has been selected to the John Mackey Award watch list. He played all 11 games for BYU as a sophomore, catching 13 passes for 160 yards. Jake Kuresa, 6-5, 330, Offensive Line: Jake Kuresa has been named to the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award watch lists. He has started every game (23) in his two year career. As a freshman, he played both guard and tackle and played exclusively at tackle as a sophomore. Cameron Jensen, 6-5, 330, Linebacker: Cameron Jensen has been named to the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Butkus Award and Lombardi Award watch lists. He started all 11 games in 2004 and led the team in total tackles with 103, solo tackles with 49 and assisted tackles with 54. His 12.0 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries tied him for first on the team and he added two interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown against UNLV.

Lance Reynolds, 6-3, 293, Offensive Line: Lance Reynolds has been named to the Rimington Trophy watch list. He started every game in 2004 at center. He helped anchor an offensive unit that averaged 24.3 points, 105.8 yards rushing and 279.5 yards passing per game in 2004.

Todd Watkins, 6-3, 194, Wide Receiver: Todd Watkins has been named to the Biletnikoff watch list. He led the Mountain West Conference with 1,042 yards receiving in 2004 and set a league single-season record, averaging 94.7 yards per contest. He also caught 52 passes and six touchdowns, four of which were for 68, 69, 70 and 79 yards.

BECK NOTES:

- With 179 yards against Wyoming, Beck moved into second all-time in the MWC for the most career passing yards. He has 6,475 yards.
- With 383 yards passing against Air Force, Beck has nine career 300-yard games.
- With 42 career touchdown passes, Beck is in third place on the Mountain West Conference career touchdown completions list and five out of second.
- With 517 yards against TCU, Beck became only the third player in league history to pass for over 500 yards in a game.
- Beck has passed for 3,048 yards this season, averaging 304.8 yards per game. Beck is on pace to pass for over 3,350 yards in 2005. While that total does not crack the single-season top-10 for a Cougar quarterback, Beck already ranks ninth all-time at BYU for career passing yards with 6,475.

QUARTER-BY-QUARTER SCORING

Against UNLV, BYU outscored its opponent in all four quarters. The Cougars posted a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, a 20-7 advantage in the second quarter, a 14-0 spread in the third quarter and posted a 14-7 margin in the final quarter against the Rebels.

ROOKIE HEAD COACHES

Bronco Mendenhall became BYU's 14th head coach, the 13th man to hold the job, on Dec. 13, 2004. Cougar coaches have had varied levels of success in their first year at the helm. Four head coaches have enjoyed winning records at the beginning of their tenures, including Eddie Kimball (twice), LaVell Edwards and Gary Crowton. Two coaches won half of their games while the rest had losing seasons. In their debut games, rookie coaches are 7-7. Following is a list of BYU football coaches' first year records.

HALFTIME LEAD

The Cougars led 28-14 at the half against Wyoming. It was the sixth time this season BYU led at the half. The Cougars are 5-1 in games when leading at halftime. In those six games, BYU's average lead at the half is 18 points.

RUSHING DEFENSE

BYU held UNLV to just two yards rushing on the day, tying Air Force for the best performance by a rush defense this season. The Falcons held the Rebels to two yards. That total is a season-best and marks the fourth time this season the Cougars have held an opponent to 70 yards (or less) rushing. The Cougars held Notre Dame to just 44 yards rushing, gave up just 30 yards against Colorado State and 70 against Eastern Illinois. The two yards rushing by UNLV is the least allowed by BYU since 1988 when the Cougars held Colorado State to minus 26.

BROTHERS DON'T SIT, BROTHERS GOTTA PLAY

BYU has a long tradition of several members from the same family suiting up to hit the gridiron. Brothers Lance, Jr. and Dallas Reynolds have started all 10 games this season. Lance, a senior, is on the watch list for the Rimington Trophy, awarded to the top center in the nation. Dallas, a freshman, was heavily recruited out of high school and joined the Cougars this season after serving an LDS mission in Seattle, Washington.

DOUBLE DUTY IN THE ENDZONE

Curtis Brown and Jonny Harline both scored two touchdowns against Wyoming. Harline's TD's came off passes from John Beck, while Brown scored one two six-yard runs. Harline now has four touchdowns on the year while Brown has 13.

PUNT RETURN FUTILITY

Saturday's game against Wyoming marked the 102nd-straight game that the Cougars have not scored a touchdown on a punt return. The streak dates back to Oct. 18, 1997 when Jaron Dabney returned a punt 83 yards in the Cougars' 17-3 win at Hawaii. BYU has a streak of 279 punt returns without a return for touchdown.

KICK RETURN FUTILITY

Saturday's game against Wyoming marked the 90th-straight game that the Cougars have not returned a kickoff for a touchdown, marking a string of 285 kick returns without a touchdown. Mike Rigell was the last BYU player to return a kickoff (96 yards), leading the Cougars to a 31-9 win against Hawaii on Oct. 17, 1998 in Provo.

HIGHEST SCORING REGULATION GAME

With 103 combined points in BYU's 62-41 win over Air Force, Saturday's game was the highest scoring regulation game and second highest scoring game in the NCAA this season, behind Ball State's 60-57 overtime-win over Western Michigan. The Cougars were also part of the third highest scoring game of 2005 in their 51-50 loss to TCU. The last time BYU scored 62 points was in 2001 when the Cougars defeated Air Force 63-33 on October 20. The 62 points is the second highest total ever allowed by the Air Force. The Cougars' 63-point outing in 2001 marked the most points ever allowed by an Air Force team.

SCORELESS QUARTERS

Against Wyoming, BYU shut the Cowboys out in the second and fourth quarters. The Cougars now have 12 quarter shutouts on the season.

IN GOOD COMPANY

Through his freshman and sophomore years, John Beck compiled 3,427 passing yards. Only two BYU quarterbacks passed for more yards in their first two years of college football. Heisman trophy winner Ty Detmer recorded 5,812 yards in 1988-89, while John Walsh had 4,678 yards from 1991-93. He threw for 857 in 1992 before going down with a shoulder injury and being granted a medical redshirt. Eight games into his junior season, Beck has thrown for 6,475 career yards, including 3,048 yards this season. Following lists each players' total yards through ten games as a junior.

SLOW START, GOOD FINISH

Since 1974, BYU has opened 13 seasons with a loss, including 2005. In those 13 seasons, the Cougars have had winning records in 12 and were .500 in the other. The last time BYU opened the season with a loss and had a losing record was 1973 when the team finished 5-6. On the other hand, BYU opened with a win from 2002-04 and finished with a losing record. The following is a list of the 13 seasons since 1974 BYU opened with a loss:

THE RANKED TEAMS

The Cougars' loss at No. 9 Notre Dame was their second against a ranked opponent this season. BYU started the season with a loss to then No. 22 Boston College. The Cougars are now 0-12 against ranked teams since defeating No. 23 Colorado State, 34-13, on Sept. 16, 1999. During that streak BYU is 0-3 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. BYU has not defeated a ranked opponent on the road since beating Arizona State, 13-10, on Sept. 20, 1997.

IT'S AUTOMATIC ... ALMOST

BYU, known traditionally for its high-octane offenses, rarely gets shutout. Until the Cougar's 3-0 loss to the University of Utah to end the 2003 season, BYU had scored in 361-consecutive games, which remains an NCAA record, dating back to the 1975 season. The Cougars started a new streak in 2004, scoring in every game and extending the streak to 21 games against Wyoming, Nov. 12, 2005. Since October 3, 1975, BYU has scored in 382-of-383 games. Below is a list of the 12-longest streaks of teams scoring in consecutive games.

MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK (Sept. 25)

John Beck was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week after posting a MWC record 517 yards passing in BYU's 51-50 loss to TCU. He completed 30-of-51 (.588) attempts, and became just the third player in league history to pass for over 500 yards in a game. Beck also tied a MWC single-game record with five touchdown passes. His third-quarter strike found wide receiver Todd Watkins for a 67-yard touchdown, marking the Cougars' longest score of the season. On the first play of the overtime period, Beck went to the corner of the end zone to find Watkins for a 25-yard touchdown, giving BYU a 50-44 lead in overtime.

MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK (Oct. 8)

John Beck was named the MWC Player of the Week after completing 34-of-44 passes (77.3 percent) for 371 yards and three touchdowns in BYU's come-from-behind 27-24 victory at New Mexico. Trailing 24-13 with over seven minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, Beck put together two different scoring drives that led to 14 unanswered points. The comeback started on a 13-play, 93-yard drive that cut the Lobo lead to 24-19. During the drive, Beck was 8-of-10 for 94 yards. With the Cougars still down by five points with 2:48 remaining in the game, Beck drove BYU 80 yards in five plays, connecting on five straight pass attempts, including a 23-yard pass to Matt Allen for the game-winning touchdown. This marks his second player of the week award this season and the third of his career.

HARLINE EARNS NATIONAL TIGHT END WEEKLY HONOR (Oct. 12)

After totaling over 100 yards receiving in back-to-back games against San Diego State and New Mexico, and helping BYU to a come-back win over New Mexico, tight end Jonny Harline was named the national John Mackey Tight End of the Week by the Nassau County Sports Commission (10/12/05). Against New Mexico, Harline grabbed a career-high 10 receptions and equaled a career-high 123 yards. A week earlier he had seven receptions for 123 yards against San Diego State. Harline is the first BYU tight end to record 246 yards over two games since Chris Smith totaled 284 yards over two games in 1990. Smith had 125 yards on eight receptions against Utah and eight receptions for 159 yards against Utah State. Gordon Hudson holds the tight end record for receiving yardage over a two-game stretch, posting 396 yards in two straight games during the 1981 season. He totaled 137 yards against Colorado State, followed by 259 yards against Hawaii the following week.

MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK (Oct. 29)

Curtis Brown was named MWC Co-offensive Player of the Week for his performance against Air Force. He ran for a career-high 219 yards on 25 carries (8.8 yards per carry) and career-best four touchdowns in BYU's 62-41 victory over Air Force. Three of his four touchdowns came in the fourth quarter. Brown was named MWC Offensive Player of the Week in 2002 after his 217-yard, three-touchdown performance against Utah State.

CAREER HIGHS AND SINGLE-GAME RECORDS

When John Beck completed a 37-yard pass to Jonny Harline against TCU, he had 420 passing yards, surpassing his career high of 390, which came against Boise State in 2004. He finished the day with a Mountain West single-game record 517 yards. Beck also set a new career high and tied a MWC record for touchdown passes with five when he completed a 25-yard scoring strike to Todd Watkins in overtime. Watkins finished with 176 yards and tied an MWC record with three touchdowns.

THE 100-YARD CLUB

Michael Reed's 50-yard reception in the fourth quarter against Air Force put him over the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career. He is the third Cougar to record over 100-yards receiving this season. Todd Watkins had 176 yards against TCU while Jonny Harline has recorded 100 or more yards three times, including 123 at San Diego State, 123 at New Mexico and 100 at Notre Dame. Should Reed have another 100-yard game this season, he will become only the second freshman receiver in BYU history to produce two 100-yard games during his freshman season. Matt Bellini is currently the only BYU receiver to have two 100-yard games during his freshman season (1987).

OPENING DRIVE SCORE

Corey Bramlet of Wyoming found Jovon Bouknight for a 21-yard touchdown pass on the first drive of the game. It was the first time this season a BYU opponent scored on the game's opening drive. Colorado State also scored on its opening drive following a BYU touchdown. It was only the third time all season the Cougars have not scored first.

MOST YARDS SINCE...

With 383 passing yards and 300 rushing yards, BYU accumulated 683 yards of total offense against the Falcons. The combined total surpasses the 614 the Cougars had against TCU earlier this season and is the most yards BYU has amassed since November 1, 2001 when the Cougars had 694 in a 56-34 win over Colorado State. In that game, BYU had 410 rushing yards and 284 passing yards. The 300 rushing yards was the most for the Cougar since the 2001 Colorado State game.

MILESTONE VICTORY

The Cougars' 62-41 victory over Air Force marked the 250th all-time home victory for BYU. It also marked the 460th victory in the program's 83-year history.

PARTY LIKE ITS 1999 ... or 98

Several Cougars began their BYU football careers before the start of the 21st century, including Spencer White, Fahu Tahi, Nate Soelberg, Brian Sanders, Chris Hale and Matt Berry, who joined the team in 1999 before serving missions. But they aren't the oldest Cougars. That honor belongs to Ryan Beck, who was born in 1979. Hale and Tahi both made big impacts in 1999. Hale made the game-winning 38-yard touchdown reception in the season opener against Washington at home. Tahi led the team in rushing yards, totaling 445 yards on 102 carries.

CALLED TO SERVE

There are currently 62 returned missionaries (59 percent) on the BYU roster who have served full-time, two-year missions for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in over 21 countries. Members of this year's team have served missions in Australia, Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, England, Germany, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Philippines, Portugal, Russia, Samoa, Spain, Tonga, United States and Uruguay. Members of this year's team can communicate fluently in at least 12 different languages. The Church of Jesus Christ operates more than 330 missions around the world with approximately 56,000 missionaries. There are four lettermen from last year's team who are currently serving missions, including Matt Bauman (Harrisburg, Pa.), R.J. Willing (Albuquerque, N.M.), Dennis Pitta (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic) and Freshman All-American receiver Austin Collie (Buenos Aires, Argentina).

LONGEST GAME

The game versus TCU lasted 4 hours and 42 minutes. While the NCAA has been unable to verify the length of the longest game in history, it is believed that the BYU vs. TCU game is the longest. Arkansas has played in two, seven-overtime period games. The most recent was against Kentucky in 2003 and lasted 4 hours and 30 minutes. The other was against Ole Miss in 2001 and lasted 4 hours and 12 minutes. BYU's game versus Hawai'i in 2001 lasted 4 hours and 24 minutes.

SCORING FIRST

BYU jumped out to a 7-0 lead over UNLV when Fahu Tahi scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter. It was the fifth consecutive game the Cougars scored first and the seventh time in nine games this season. BYU is 5-2 in those seven games.

YOUNG GUN

While Mendenhall has 16 years of assistant coaching experience, he is now a head coach for the first time in his career. Despite his extensive experience, he is the fourth youngest coach in NCAA Division I-A football at the age of 39. Mike Gundy of Oklahoma State is 38 and is one year, five months and 22 days younger than Mendenhall.
