BYU Team Gets Top 25 Ranking

For the first time since the 2002-03 season, BYU's women's basketball team and its 13-1 record breaks into this week's 01/16/06 AP Poll at the no. 23 spot, and also rank 23rd in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Coaches Poll. The team's last top 25 ranking came during the 2002-03 year when the Cougars had tallied a 5-1 record before losing at George Washington who was ranked 22nd, on 12/11/02. BYU also finished ranked 17th after its first-ever Sweet Sixteen finish in 2001-02.

For the week beginning Jan. 23, BYU jumped to the no.20 spot in both polls.

The week of Jan.30, the team is ranked 19th by both polls.

The week of Feb. 6, the Cougars are ranked 18th in both polls.

Feb. 13, BYU was ranked 19th by AP Poll, and stayed 18th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Coaches Poll.

Cougars dropped from no. 19 to no. 21 in the AP Poll on Feb. 20, 2006.

Anderson Joins 1,000-Point Club

After the 14 points scored by Ambrosia Anderson in the game at Wyoming on Jan. 18., she becomes one of only 18 players in BYU women's basketball history to eclipse the 1,000 point mark. As of Feb. 20, she has tallied, 1,139 total points in her four-year career.

Last Game Recap vs. Wyoming - Sat. Feb. 18, 2006, in Provo

In a game that needed the full 40 minutes to decide a winner, the Wyoming Cowgirls (18-6, 8-5) stunned No. 18 BYU (20-3, 10-2) Saturday, upsetting the Cougars 57-56.

According to Coach Judkins, BYU must get more players who are offensive minded. Only Dani Kubik and Ambrosia Anderson scored in double figures for the Cougars with 21 and 19 points, respectively. Next in line was Shawnee Slade with four points.

The Cougars came out sluggish in the first half, and Wyoming capitalized by never allowing BYU to gain more than a four-point advantage at any point during the half.

Both teams got off to a slow start with neither team connecting for the first three minutes. Wyoming's Hanna Zavec put the Cowgirls on the board first with a three pointer, but Jennie Keele immediately responded with a layup for BYU.

The Cougars went on a 6-0 run six minutes into the game off a long two-pointer from Anderson, a three pointer from Nancy Seljaas and two free throws from Kubik, giving BYU its first lead of the game, 11-8.

Michelle Taylor of Wyoming hit a jump shot over BYU's Lauren Riley with just over seven minutes left in the half to tie the game at 16 points apiece. Riley quickly responded by converting two free throws. Megan McGuffey then nailed a three pointer and bucketed another shot to give Wyoming a 21-19 lead. With just over a minute remaining in the half, Kubik netted a layup to give BYU a one-point lead, 26-25. On Wyoming's last possession of the half, Erin Hicks was fouled on the dribble and converted the front end of a one-and-one to tie the score at 26 points going into the break.

BYU looked as if it was going to open up a lead in the opening minutes of the second half, receiving quick buckets from Anderson and Melinda Johnsen, but then Taylor scored back-to-back-to-back buckets to give Wyoming a 32-30 lead, a lead it would not lose.

Wyoming's largest lead of the game came with just over 11 minutes remaining when Taylor scored a layup to give the Cowgirl's a seven-point lead, 45-38.

The Cougars then went on a 5-0 run off two buckets by Shawnee Slade and a free throw from Kubik with 10:59 left in the game, closing the lead to two points, 45-43.

Wyoming responded with back-to-back three pointers from Annie Gorenstein and Zavacz to extend their lead to 51-43. The Cougars stepped into another gear with 3:52 remaining in the game. BYU's full-court pressure proved to be dominating as the Cowgirls couldn't inbound the ball. On their first attempt, Anderson tipped the inbound pass. Johnsen almost came up with a steal on their next try to inbound the ball, and Wyoming was forced to call a timeout or face a five-second violation on the third attempt. After the timeout Anderson stole the inbound pass and was fouled on her drive to the basket. She converted both free throws to bring the Cougars within two, 51-49.

A defensive breakdown by BYU on Wyoming's next possession gave Hicks a wide-open layup, but Kubik instantly responded with a layup of her own. Anderson was then fouled on a drive to the basket, hitting one-of-two free throws to bring the score within one, 53-52.

With 1:50 left, the Cougars again had a defensive breakdown on the inbound, leaving Zavecz open for a layup and extending Wyoming's lead to three, 55-52.

Anderson then attempted a turn-around jumper with 1:03 left, converting both free throws to again close the gap to one, 55-54.

On Wyoming's next possession, Dominique Sisk was fouled on the dribble and hit the front end of a one-and-one. Kubik came right back for the Cougars and hit two free throws, tying the game at 56 points apiece with 36 seconds left in the game. Zavacz quickly brought the ball up the court was fouled on her way to the basket, hitting one-of-two free throws to give Wyoming a one-point lead with 13.4 seconds left in the game.

Johnsen brought the ball up the floor and found Anderson, who was unable to get a good look at the basket as time expired. Kubik led all scorers with 21 points and posted eight rebounds. Zaveca scored 20 points for the Cowgirls, while Gorenstein added 10.

Head Coach - Jeff Judkins
Overall Record: 97-49

Jeff Judkins is in his fifth year as head coach after serving one year as the Director of Basketball Operations at BYU. He was also the scheduling coordinator. He has been involved in coaching for 16 years.

* as an assistant to the men's team

The longtime University of Utah coach and player came to Provo with a proven record of success dating back to his high school days at Highland High School in Salt Lake City. An all-state selection in basketball, football and baseball, Judkins went on to play for the University of Utah from 1974-78.

While playing at Utah, Judkins helped lead the Utes to one conference championship and two berths in the NCAA tournament. He was a second-team academic All-American and three-time District VII academic selection. He also earned three first team All-WAC honors and was a member of the 1977 United States World Games team that captured the gold medal.

Judkins also played five years in the National Basketball Association for the Boston Celtics, Portland Trailblazers, Detroit

Pistons and Utah Jazz. He was a second-round pick of the Celtics in 1978, the same year the Celtics selected Larry Bird with the sixth pick overall. He made second-team all-rookie in 1979 with the Boston Celtics.

After his NBA career, he returned to Utah in 1989 and was an instrumental part of the program's success during his 10 years with the program, recruiting such players as Keith Van Horn, Andre Miller, Mike Doleac, Hanno Mottola, Alex Jensen, Trent Whiting, Garner Meads, Jeff Johnsen and Britton Johnsen.

Judkins, graduated from the University of Utah in 1978 with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife Mary Kaye are the parents of five children: Jessica (25), Jordan (23), Jenna (21), Jaime (18), and Jaxson (15).

Nearing 100 Wins Mark

With the 55-51 win at UNLV on Sat., Feb. 11, 2006, Head Coach Jeff Judkins has 97 total wins in his fifth season as head coach of BYU. He's just four victories away from reaching 100-wins coaching milestone.

This Week's Cougar Opponents

San Diego State

In the final two weeks of regular season MWC games, SDSU is in last place with an 0-13 league record after losing to UNLV 48-64 at home and then dropping a 49-80 game at TCU. Head Coach Beth Burns is in her first season at the helm of the program. The Aztecs have only won three games this season, vs.

Portland State, Boise State and UC Davis. The team returns two starters and five letterwinners from last year's team that compiled an 8-20, 2-12 record. Senior forward Michelle Strawberry tops the list in scoring and in rebounding with 13.7 points and 5.6 rebounds per game. Veronica Shaw, a senior guard, follows with 9.1 points and 3.5 rebounds per game. The team is shooting 35 percent from the field, 62 percent at the line, and 25 percent from behind the three-point arc. SDSU is averaging 53.7 points per game while opponents are scoring an average of 68.6 points a game.

TCU

Newcomer TCU has not played in the Marriott Center since the 2002-03 season when they lost to BYU 79-74. In the most recent MWC standings, the Horned Frogs are tied for third place with New Mexico both tallying 8-4 league record. They host CSU on Wed., Feb. 22, before playing at BYU on Saturday.

Head Coach Jeff Mittlie is in his seventh season with the Frogs. Junior guard Natasha Lacy is one of three players scoring in double figures for TCU with 14.5 points and team high 7.4 rebounds per game. Another guard, sophomore Adrienne Ross follows with 12.6 points and 2.7 rebounds. Ashley Davis rounds out the scoring with her 11.1 points while grabbing 3.7 boards a game. The team is shooting 39 percent from the field, 70 percent at the line and 26 percent from three-point range. After 23 total games, TCU is averaging 68.7 points per game and allows opponents 66.5 points.

Series Record: 4-2 favoring BYU

Last time this season: Played in Fort Worth, Texas on Jan. 25, 2006

Behind the play of senior Ambrosia Anderson, No. 20 BYU came up big when it mattered, defeating TCU, 67-64. The Horned Frogs showed confidence and dominance in the opening minutes of the game, jumping out to an early 11-3, but BYU came storming back under Anderson's leadership. She scored back-to-back layups, followed by a Melinda Johnsen three pointer and two more three-point buckets from Anderson. The run gave BYU its first lead of the game, 14-11. For the remainder of the first half, both teams battled back and forth with the Horned Frogs earning a seven-point advantage by the half, 35-28.

TCU had numerous opportunities in the second half, but every time TCU seemed like it was going to dominate, the Cougars immediately came right back. With eight minutes on the clock, Mallery Gillespie fired and nailed a much needed three-pointer to tie the score at 51 points apiece. Minutes later, BYU took the lead off a three pointer from Anderson, followed by a Dani Kubik lay-up and yet another three pointer from Anderson, giving the Cougars a lead they would not lose.
