COUGARS NEED VICTORY IN FINAL REGULAR-SEASON GAME

After losing at home to New Mexico for the first time in 30 years, the Cougars will need a victory over Utah in the regular-season finale in order to keep their bowl hopes alive. While the Utes have been eliminated from post-season consideration with an overall 4-6 record, BYU is just one win away from reaching the necessary 6 wins in order to qualify for post-season bowl consideration. The Utes enter Saturday's game riding a two game win streak, while the Cougars, after winning two straight, lost on Saturday against New Mexico. This year's "Holy War" -- the 78th meeting since 1922 -- will kickoff at 1 p.m. in Rice-Eccles Stadium (45,634). The game will be produced by ESPN+Plus and will be broadcast locally on KJZZ-TV, Ch. 14.

BATTLE FOR THE BOOT

First instituted in 1971, the Beehive Boot is the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah. Estimated to be over 100 years old, the Beehive Boot is an authentic piece of Utah history. Unlike other rivalry trophies across the country, the Beehive Boot is presented to the team with the best record against in-state opponents. After Utah State held the boot for a couple years, BYU began a dominating run, claiming the boot 19 times in the past 27 years, including a stretch of five straight years from 1983 to 1987. Utah and Utah State are tied for second, having won the boot six times each. The Boot currently resides at BYU where the Cougars are looking to add to the two-year stretch it has resided in Provo. With both teams recording victories over Utah State earlier in the season, the Cougars and Utes will battle on Saturday for the coveted Beehive Boot.

THE BYU-UTAH RIVALRY

Saturday's in-state battle between Utah and BYU will mark the 78th meeting between the two schools, dating back to 1922. Utah owns a 45-28-4 lead in the 77-year rivalry. Prior to 1922, Utah and then B.Y. Academy met six times, posting an identical 3-3 record. (The two teams met three times in 1896, twice in 1897 and once in 1898 before the Academy disbanded its football team.) Utah also owns a 14-30-3 record against BYU in Salt Lake City. However, the Cougars have won 12 of the last 15 meetings in Salt Lake City, including three straight dating back to 1996. Prior to BYU's 24-21 victory in Provo last season, the visiting team had won six straight games. Since 1980, the Cougars have posted a 9-2 record in Salt Lake City, including a mark of three straight wins over the Utes on their home field. In the past five seasons, no team has won by more than 7 points. Over that time span, the average margin of victory is just 4.2 points per game. Three of the past five games have been decided by three points or less. No team has won more than nine straight games. Utah reeled off nine straight wins from 1929 to 1937, and while it took some 50 years, BYU managed to win nine straight from 1979 to 1987. BYU head coach Gary Crowton is 1-0 against Utah, while Ute head coach Ron McBride has posted a 5-7 record against the Cougars. No other Ute coach has won more games against BYU since Ray Nagel won 6 games from 1958-1965. In fact, only three other coaches in Utah football history have won more than five games against BYU.

SIBLING RIVALRY

A little known fact ... both the University of Utah and Brigham Young University were originally founded by Utah's first governor -- Brigham Young. Although, when first established in 1850, the University of Utah was originally called the University of Deseret; and Brigham Young University, founded 25 years later in 1875, was originally called the Brigham Young Academy. It wasn't until later that both Deseret University and B.Y. Academy were re-named to the now familiar University of Utah and Brigham Young University. The UofU did not begin playing football until 1892, playing just one game that season -- a 0-12 loss at Utah State. The Academy fielded teams in the late 1800s, playing Utah three times in 1896, twice in 1897 and once in 1898. For various reasons, including the death of a player, the Academy did not field a team again until 1922, then known as Brigham Young University.

ON THIS DATE

Saturday's game will mark the fifth time BYU and Utah have met on Nov. 23, dating back to their first Nov. 23rd meeting during the 1974 season. The Cougars own a 4-0 record when playing on Nov. 23.

REGULAR-SEASON FINALE

It wasn't until the 1969 season that BYU and Utah started playing each other at the end of the season, as opposed to earlier in the year. For many years, the Utah-Utah State game marked the end of the Ute's regular season. However, since 1969 the two teams have met 23 different times in the regular-season finale (for one or both teams). This year's game will mark the regular-season ending for both teams. The Cougars own an 18-6 record against Utah when playing in the final game of the regular season, including a stretch of 13 straight victories from 1974 to 1992. Since 1993 however, McBride and the Utes have posted a 5-3 mark against the Cougars when playing in the regular-season finale.

A LOOK BACK (BYU 24, UTAH 21)

With less than four minutes left in the game, and trailing 21-10, BYU's hopes for a perfect season and an outright MWC title seemed dim. However, running back Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory -- BYU's second-straight come-from-behind victory over the Utes. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown run with just over a minute to play. Utah QB Lance Rice did his best Brandon Doman impression, leading Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jernaro Gilford intercepted the ball and returned it 50 yards to seal the game. Reno Mahe was the unsung hero of last year's game. He led the Cougars with five receptions for 94 yards, none bigger than his 23-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter to cut the Utah lead to 14-10. Only five days earlier, Mahe had been hospitalized while doctors performed an emergency appendectomy.

STILL BOWL HOPING

Despite a 20-16 loss against New Mexico on Saturday, the Cougars (5-6, 2-4) remain in contention for one of the Mountain West Conference's four post-season bowl opportunities. Two MWC teams have already achieved the required six wins to become bowl-eligible, including Colorado State (9-2, 5-0) and Air Force (8-3, 4-2). Two additional teams, including BYU and New Mexico are still alive, while UNLV (4-7, 2-4), San Diego State (3-8, 3-3), Utah (4-6, 2-4) and Wyoming (2-9, 1-5) have been eliminated from post-season bowl consideration. The Cougars have won five games on the season, and with just one game remaining, must defeat Utah on Saturday to qualify for bowl consideration. With its win in Provo on Saturday, New Mexico is also very much alive in the bowl hunt. The Lobos are 6-5 on the season, but with a 13-game schedule, they must win one of their final two games. New Mexico plays at Colorado State on Nov. 23 and will wrap-up the regular-season on Nov. 30 in Albuquerque against Wyoming. The winner of the Mountain West Conference will travel to Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 31 to take on the Conference USA champion in the Liberty Bowl. The Las Vegas Bowl will have second choice among the league's bowl-eligible teams. The MWC selection will face the Pac-10's fifth selection. The game will be played at Sam Boyd Stadium in Las Vegas on Christmas Day. The third MWC selection will travel to the first-ever San Francisco Bowl on Dec. 31. The Mountain West selection will face a Big East opponent at Pac Bell Park. Finally, a fourth MWC selection will travel to the second-annual Seattle Bowl, facing a sixth selection from the ACC. The game will be played at the new Seahawk Stadium on Dec. 30.

28 STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS ON THE LINE

A win on Saturday would ensure the Cougars of their 29th straight non-losing regular-season, while a loss at Utah would mark the first losing season at BYU since the Cougars posted a 5-6 mark in 1973 -- LaVell Edwards second season at the helm. Following a 63-33 win over Air Force on Oct. 20, 2001, the Cougars claimed their 28th straight non-losing season. The Cougars' streak of 28 straight seasons ranks 11th all-time at the NCAA Division I-A level and is currently the third longest non-losing streak in the nation. (Nebraska ranks No. 1 with 40 straight seasons without a losing campaign.)

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF

As in the 2000 season, the Cougars enter their final regular-season game at Utah with a 5-6 record. Like the 2000 season, BYU needs a win to preserve a non-losing campaign. Interestingly, like the 2000 season, BYU was 3-4 after seven games, 3-5 after eight games, and 4-5 after nine games in 2002. In another possible case of history repeating itself, BYU head coach Gary Crowton is on the brink of recording a losing campaign in his second season as the head coach. Interestingly, LaVell Edwards had a losing campaign at the end of his sophomore season as the head coach of the Cougars.

LOBOS END 30-YEAR WINLESS DROUGHT IN PROVO

New Mexico kept its bowl hopes alive with a 20-16 victory over BYU on Saturday, marking the first Lobo victory in Provo since 1971. Credited with 13 of the Cougars' 16 points, the BYU defense had another strong outing. Jon Burbidge picked off his second pass of the year, returning it 80 yards for a touchdown. The defense also produced one sack, eight hurries, two interceptions, one fumble recovery, a touchdown, denied the Lobos a two-point conversion, and forced New Mexico to go three-and-out seven different times. On the other end of the ball, the Cougar offense struggled to get things going. The Cougars managed just 188 yards, including 94 yards rushing and 94 yards passing. BYU quarterback Matt Berry was an uncharacteristic 9-of-26 passing for 81 yards, two interceptions and no touchdowns. Running back Marcus Whalen recorded 60 yards on the night on 17 carries, leaving him 79 yards short of the 1,000-yard mark for the season. BYU jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, but this time it was the defense that provided much of the BYU momentum. With 7:12 left in the first quarter, Burbidge picked off New Mexico's quarterback Casey Kelly and returned the ball 80 yards to put BYU up 7-0. The Cougar offense capitalized on a Lobo fumble and scored with a 32-yard Matt Payne field goal with 00:15 left in the first quarter. The second quarter belonged to the Lobos as they outscored the Cougars 14-3 and to take the lead going into half time 14-13. An interception set up the Lobos' first score of the game, a one-yard run by Dontrell Moore to bring the Lobos within three after the extra point. With the clock winding down in the first half and the Cougars facing fourth and three, Payne faked a punt and took it 28 yards for the first down. Payne's run would set up the Cougars' lone score of the quarter, a career long field goal from 52 yards out that brought BYU within one at 14-13 to end the half. In the third quarter, Payne connected from 37 yards out on his third consecutive field goal of the night to give the Cougars back the lead at 16-14. After being held scoreless in the third quarter, the Lobos fired back in the fourth scoring on a two-yard run by Moore that put New Mexico up 20-16, and failing the two-point attempt left the score at 20-16.

THE CROWTON FILE

In 2001, Gary Crowton, a native of Orem, Utah, took over a BYU program that had been under the direction of college football's sixth all-time winningest coach, LaVell Edwards (257-101-3; .716). In his first season, Crowton guided the Cougars to an impressive 12-2 season, climbed as high as No. 9 in the national polls, lead the nation in scoring and yards-per-game average, won the MWC title and earned a trip to the 2001 Liberty Bowl.

Crowton, 45, came to BYU with a long and proven list of coaching accomplishments. Prior to serving two seasons as the offensive coordinator with the NFL's Chicago Bears, where his offense ranked third in the NFL in passing yardage during the 1999 season, Crowton was head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-1998. There he guided the Bulldogs to a 21-13 (.618) record over three seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 1997. Competing as an independent for three straight years, Louisiana Tech recorded wins over the likes of Mississippi State, Cal and Alabama. Using its Crowton-designed, high-powered offense, the program also recorded impressive wins by scoring 50-or-more points against eight different opponents, including games of 60-or-more points in five different games. Crowton's offense ranked third in the nation, both in passing and total offense, while the Bulldogs racked up 12,746 yards passing in three years, an average of 4,249 yards per season. The prolific Tech offense also produced 115 touchdown receptions, averaging 38.3 TDs per season. Under Crowton, Louisiana Tech engineered 22 different 300-yard passing games, including a school-record 10, 300-yard outings during the 1998 season. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs combined for a school-record 4,943 yards passing.

Crowton's coaching career actually began in 1982 as a student assistant under Edwards at BYU. While at BYU he worked with current Seattle Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren and future NFL Hall of Famer, Steve Young. From BYU, Crowton moved on to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he coached from 1983-86. While at Snow College, Crowton moved from defensive backs coach to offensive coordinator. Under his offensive leadership, the Badgers won the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship in 1985. From Snow College, Crowton moved to Western Illinois for one season, before taking over as the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire.

In 1991, Crowton was hired as the quarterbacks coach at Boston College under head coach Tom Coughlin. There he helped develop quarterback Glenn Foley as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After three successful seasons with the Eagles, Crowton was hired as the co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where his offense led the Yellow Jackets to a No. 21 national ranking in his first and only season in Atlanta. In 1995, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he would become the head coach the following season.

Crowton, who is the first-ever head football coach at BYU to serve an LDS Church mission, is married to the former Maren Peterson of Bountiful, Utah. The couple was married in 1985 and have seven children.

IT'S NO COINCIDENCE

While at Louisiana Tech, Gary Crowton recorded three straight seasons with a scoring average of 33 points per game or better. In 1996, the Crowton-led Bulldogs averaged 36.4 points per game, but dropped off to a mere 33.1 points per game in 1997. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs published a 41.1 points-per-game average. During the 2001 season, his first year at BYU, Crowton and the Cougars lead the nation with an amazing 46.7 points per game average.

CROWTON NOTABLES

- Crowton is the first coach in BYU history to win more than seven games in his first season.
- In only his fourth year as a Division-I coach, Crowton recorded his 30th career victory — a 56-34 victory over Sonny Lubick and the Colorado State Rams.
- In his fifth season as a collegiate head coach, Crowton coached in his 50th career game, defeating Hawaii, 35-32.
- Crowton became only the second coach in BYU football history to win 12 games in a single season after defeating Mississippi State, 41-38, during the 2001 season. LaVell Edwards accomplished the feat three different times during his 29-year career, including a 14-win season during the 1996 campaign. Crowton's previous single-season best win total was 9-2 at Louisiana Tech during the 1997 season.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS

Each Wednesday BYU and Tucanos Brazilian Grill will host the weekly Tucanos BYU Football Media Luncheon in the Cougar Room at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Regularly-credited media are invited to attend the weekly luncheon. Please contact Jeff Reynolds in the Media Relations office for more information.

POST-GAME NOTES

- Attendance at Saturday's game vs. New Mexico (60,764) marked the sixth largest home crowd of the season. The Cougars are averaging a league-leading 62,175 fans per game.
- Safety Jon Burbidge intercepted his second pass of the season and returned it 80 yards for a touchdown against the Lobos. Burbidge's first pick came in the first game of the year (vs. Syracuse). His interception marked the first interception returned for a touchdown since Isaac Kelly returned one 60 yards for a TD against San Diego State last season. Burbidge's return was the longest since Brian Mitchell recorded a 97-yard interception return against New Mexico in 1989.
- The Cougars' 13 points scored off turnovers marked the fifth consecutive game BYU has scored as a result of a turnover. This season, the Cougars have scored a total of 102 points off turnovers. There has been only two games all season where BYU has not scored off an opponent turnover; Utah State and Air Force.
- With 10 points scored in the first quarter against New Mexico, the Cougars brought their entire first-quarter scoring total to 30 points on the season. BYU has scored in the first quarter in only four games this season, averaging just 2.7 first-quarter points per game.
- Besides causing two turnovers that resulted in the Cougars' first 10 points, the BYU defense also recorded one sack for a loss. The defense also recorded eight hurries, two interceptions, one fumble recovery, a touchdown, denied the Lobos a two-point conversion, and forced UNM to go three-and-out seven different times.
- Saturday's loss marked the first defeat to New Mexico in Provo since the 1971 season. The Lobo defeated BYU 14-0 with current head coach Rocky Long starting at quarterback. With the loss, the Cougars' four-game win streak against the Lobos came to an end. BYU has won 28 of the last 31 meetings, including 20 of the last 22.
- The BYU offense managed to record only 94 yards passing on the night. The last time BYU threw for less than 100 yards was in 1997 against Utah when the Cougars tallied just 70 yards passing.

THE STREAK IS STILL ALIVE ... 349 GAMES AND COUNTING

With Jon Burbidge's 80-yard interception return for a touchdown in the first quarter against New Mexico, BYU extended its NCAA record streak to 349 games without being shutout. BYU was last shutout during the 1975 season (Sept. 27, 1975 vs. Arizona State.) The Cougars don't have a single person on their 2002 roster that was alive the last time BYU was shut out.

ROAD WOES

After losing four straight road games, dating back to the Cougars' loss at Hawaii last season, BYU defeated Utah State in Logan on Friday, Oct. 4 to record its first road win since upending Mississippi State in Starkville, Miss., on Dec. 1, 2001. The Oct. 24 loss at Colorado State marked the Cougars' fourth road loss of the season, against only one victory -- a 35-34, come-from-behind thriller at Utah State. The Cougars are 8-6 overall on the road during the Gary Crowton era, and 4-2 against MWC opponents on the road. The CSU game marked the fifth road game over a six week span. When on the road, BYU has been outscored by an average 16.2 points per game. Saturday's game at Utah will mark the Cougars' first road trip since traveling to Fort Collins on Oct. 24. BYU is 1-4 on the road this season, including losses at Nevada, Georgia Tech, Air Force and Colorado State.

PAYNE NAMED MWC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK - AGAIN

For the second time in the past three weeks, sophomore kicker/punter Matt Payne has been selected as the MWC Special Teams Player of the Week. Against the Lobos, Payne connected on a career-long 52-yard field goal to cut the New Mexico first-half lead to just 14-13. Payne set up his own field goal attempt with a 28-yard rush on a key fourth-down attempt. Facing a fourth-and-three, Payne tucked the fake-punt attempt and rambled for 28 yards to the New Mexico 36-yard line. Four plays later, Payne booted the career-long 52-yard field goal. On the night, Payne was three-for-three, connecting on field goals of 32, 52 and 37 yards. Payne was responsible for 10 of the Cougars' 16 points against

New Mexico. In the punting department, Payne had 8 punts for a total of 355 yards, averaging 44.4 yards per punt. He had a long of 56 yards. Following the Cougars' 34-10 victory over San Diego State, Payne was named the MWC Special Team Player of the Week. He connected on four punts for a season-high average 58.0 yards per punt, including a career-high 76 yarder. That punt ranks fourth longest in BYU history. Payne also nailed two 47-yard field goals to help BYU to a 20-0 halftime lead. Admitting he likes to punt more than kick, Payne unloaded for a total of 402 yards on seven punts in the Cougars' 31-28 loss at Nevada. Against the Wolfpack, Payne averaged 57.4 yards per punt. During the game, Payne was credited with a 72 yard punt, surpassing his previous long by eight yards. At Utah State, Payne had three punts for 136 yards, averaging 45.3 yards per punt, including a 51 yarder. Against Air Force, Payne averaged 41.5 yards per punt. Against Wyoming, Payne had just one punt for 63 yards. Currently, Payne leads the Mountain West Conference and ranks second in the nation with a 47.6 per-game average. In the kicking department, Payne is 8-for-111 on field goal attempts. Until missing a 51-yard attempt against Wyoming, Payne had connected on 8 straight field goals, including back-to-back 47-yarders against SDSU. Payne is a perfect 7-for-7 from 0-39 yards and 3-for-5 from 40-49 yards. On PATs, Payne is 27-of-30 (.900) on the season.

AMONG BEST OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

In the three-year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have posted an 18-9 (.667) record against league opponents. Entering the season, BYU was tied with Colorado State for the best league record, however, three league losses dropped the Cougars three games behind the Rams in the all-time standings. Interestingly, the Cougars have posted a 2-2 record over Colorado State since 1999 -- the first year of the Mountain West Conference. Following is a look at the cumulative MWC league standings, dating back to 1999:

INJURY REPORT

Even before the 2002 season began, the Cougars lost three players to season-ending injuries. Redshirt freshman C.J. AhYou was lost on the first day of Fall Camp, suffering a torn ACL. Just under two weeks prior to the Cougars' season-opener, senior offensive tackle Ben Archibald was lost for the season after suffering a mid-shaft compound fracture. Archibald, an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award candidate, is expected to apply for a sixth-year following the 2002 season. Reserve senior cornerback Todd Barker injured his surgically-repaired shoulder and will be unable to return for his final season at BYU. Since the season began, cornerbacks Brandon Heaney and Mike Sumko have also been lost with season-ending injuries. Following is this week's injury update. Probability projections are subject to change:

Player	Injury	Status
Brady Poppinga	Knee	Probable
Mike Tanner	Shoulder	Probable
Marcus Whalen	Shoulder	Probable
Gabriel Reid	Shoulder	Probable

BERRY LEADING BYU OFFENSE

Redshirt freshman quarterback Matt Berry was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Cougars to a 35-31 victory over Wyoming on Nov. 9. The 6-foot-6, right-hander completed a career-high 31-of-45 (.689) attempts for 360 yards. Berry completed three touchdown passes against the Cowboys, including the game-winning toss to tight-end Spencer Nead. Trailing 31-28, Berry orchestrated a 12-play, 64-yard drive late in the fourth quarter to give BYU the go-ahead touchdown. Facing fourth-and-inches at the Wyoming 8-yard line, Berry drove through the middle on the quarterback-keeper to pick up the crucial first down. Two plays later, Berry found Reid in the end-zone for the game-winning touchdown. Berry's 300-yard performance marked the Cougars' first 300-yard passing performance since Bret Engemann opened the season with 386 yards against Syracuse. Berry leads the BYU roster with 7 touchdown completions, and has thrown for 1,150 yards, averaging over 267 yards per game. Following his collegiate debut -- a respectable 6-of-8 performance for 95 yards against Air Force, BYU head coach Gary Crowton announced Berry would be the Cougars' starting quarterback against UNLV. The Redmond, Wash., native became the first red-shirt freshman to start at quarterback since Ty Detmer back in 1988. Berry is also the first starting quarterback to wear jersey No. 8 since Steve Young. In his first start since his senior season at Redmond (Wash.) High School, back in Nov., 1998, Berry completed 14-of-27 (.519) attempts for 186 yards against the Rebels. In his second start, against Colorado State, Berry got off to a respectable pace, connecting on 7 of his first 7 attempts for 82 yards. He did not throw an incomplection until the 9:34 mark of the third quarter. In the second half, he was 10-of-19 for 66 yards, finishing the night with a 65.4 completion percentage. In the second quarter, Berry led the Cougars on an 84-yard drive, capped by a one-yard run -- his first career rushing touchdown. In his third career start, Berry led BYU to a commanding 34-10 victory over league co-leader San Diego State. He threw for 280 yards on 19-of-31 (.613) attempts and completed 3 touchdown completions, including a 37-yard strike to Jason Kukahiko in the first quarter, a 4-yard screen pass to Reno Mahe in the third quarter, and a 27-yard, game-clinching 27-yard completion to Reid. Against New Mexico, Berry ran in to a stingy Lobo defense. Berry struggled to complete 9-of-26 attempts for just 81 yards. Berry gained valuable experience during the JV season, completing 12-of-23 attempts for 144 yards against top-ranked Dixie State College, including a touchdown pass to Kish Beverley. Against Snow College, Berry led the Cougar offense on an 80-yard drive, finishing with a 28-yard touchdown pass to tight end Andy Hadfield.

"34" — THE MAGIC NUMBER

When the Cougars score 34 or more points, they have posted a perfect 5-0 record. BYU has registered wins over Syracuse (42-21), Hawaii (35-32), Utah State (35-34), San Diego State (34-10) and Wyoming (35-31). When BYU scores 28 or less points, the Cougars are 0-6.

DRIVIN' THE DISTANCE

On Aug. 29, the Cougars drove 99 yards (vs. Syracuse) to set a BYU record for the longest scoring drive in school history. The drive, which lasted nine plays and took 2:59 off the clock, was highlighted by a 58-yard run by sophomore running back Marcus Whalen. Against the Orangemen, the Cougars racked up drives of 99, 92, 80, 73 and 71 yards. Against Hawaii, the Cougars posted long-distance drives of 65, 80 and a game-high 95-yard drive in the third quarter that produced the go-ahead touchdown. At Nevada, BYU posted its fourth 90-yard drive of the season, recording a 92-yard scoring march in just five plays. At Utah State, the trend continued with scoring drives of 82, 80, 70 (twice) and 53 yards. Against San Diego State, the Cougars posted their ninth 80-yard scoring drive of the season. During the 2001 season, BYU produced 20 different 80-yard drives. In the first game of the 2002 season, the Cougars produced two 90-yard scoring drives, equaling last year's entire season total. On the season, BYU has recorded four 90-yard scoring drives and 10 different 80-yard drives. BYU opponents have scored on 8 drives of 80 yards or more.

MORE SCORING DRIVE INFORMATION

The Cougars' 84-yard scoring drive in the second quarter against Colorado State marked BYU's longest scoring drive in over five games. Matt Berry's 1-yard run capped a 9 play, 84-yard drive, marking the longest scoring drive since the 14:54 mark of the second quarter at Nevada. That drive, a 5-play 92-yard drive, was capped by a 31-yard touchdown pass from Bret Engemann to Rodney Wilkerson.

OPPONENT FACTOR

BYU's opponents for the 2002 season had a combined 70-70 record in 2001. Four of those teams, including Syracuse, Georgia Tech, Colorado State and Utah, recorded bowl game victories last season. The Cougars open the season against two teams that posted a combined 19-6 record. In fact, three of BYU's first four opponents had eight or more wins during the 2001 campaign. Following the first 11 weeks of competition, BYU opponents have posted a combined record of 63-65 (.492) on the season.

DROPPING BELOW .500

After starting the season with back-to-back wins, BYU has won just three of its last nine games to post a 5-6 record on the year. After dropping two games below the .500 mark (with a 37-10 loss at Colorado State), the Cougars moved back to the all-even mark with a 35-31 win over Wyoming, but dropped one-game below the .500 mark with a 16-20 loss against New Mexico. The Cougars' current winning percentage (.455) marked the first time BYU has posted a sub-.500 record over 11 games since posting a 5-6 record during the 2000 season. Ironically, the Cougars finished the season by winning three of their last four games to finish 6-6 on the year. BYU's sub-.500 record marks only the second time since the 1975 season the Cougars have not posted a winning record through 11 games.

A WHALE OF A TALE

In the season-opener (vs. Syracuse), Marcus Whalen's first career start, he turned in 140 yards on 19 carries, averaging 7.4 yards per touch. Whalen was credited with a career-high 58-yard run to the goal line, then bullied his way in to the endzone on the very next play for his first TD of the season. Against Hawaii, Whalen was credited with a career-high 30 carries, racking up 141 yards and two more touchdowns. In the third game of the season (at Nevada), Whalen turned in 135 yards on only 14 carries, averaging 9.6 yards per carry. During the first quarter, Whalen broke loose for what appeared to be a 92-yard touchdown run, but was returned to the 21 yardline after a illegal block was called on the Cougars. Whalen was officially credited with a career-long 71 yard run on the play. At Georgia Tech, Whalen played through the first quarter before being forced to sit the remainder of the game with a pulled abductor muscle. He did not play against Utah State while still recovering from the muscle injury. In his first game action since Sept. 21, Whalen carried the ball nine times for 41 yards against Air Force, averaging 4.6 yards per carry. Against UNLV, Whalen was back to true form, carrying the ball 22 times for 105 yards -- his fourth 100-game of the season. At Colorado State, Whalen ran into a stingy CSU defense, but still managed 77 yards on 18 carries, including a 39-yard run that would eventually lead to a BYU touchdown. In the Cougars' 34-10 victory over San Diego State, Whalen totaled 75 yards on just 13 carries, averaging a bullish 5.8 yards per carry. Whalen did not have a single carry for negative yardage and scored on a 4-yard run in the second quarter, marking his first touchdown since scoring on a 30-yard run at Nevada back on Sept. 14. Against Wyoming, Whalen racked up 124 yards on 26 carries, marking the most yards since posting 135 yards on 14 carries at Nevada. It was also the fifth time this season Whalen has produced 100-or-more yards rushing. Whalen also scored on a 6-yard run, tying the game at 7-7. Whalen also had four receptions for 25 yards. Against New Mexico, Whalen had just 17 carries, running for 53 yards against the Lobos. On the season, Whalen ranks fourth in the MWC with a 90.4 yards-per-game average. Whalen is on pace to eclipse the 1,000 yard mark this season, needing just 96 more yards. With his 100-yard performance at Nevada, Whalen became the first running back in BYU history to start a season with three straight 100-yard outings.

Should Whalen eclipse the 1,000-yard barrier, he would become the seventh different (eighth overall) BYU ball carrier to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season. It would also mark only the second time in BYU football history that the Cougars have had two different ball carriers run for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

YELLOW FEVER

For only the fifth time this season, the Cougars managed to keep their penalties in single digits. After being penalized five times last week, BYU had the hanky dropped six times against New Mexico. Entering Saturday's game, BYU had been penalized an average 8.5 times per game, averaging 67.0 yards per contest. Against the Lobos, BYU was penalized for 29 yards, marking only the third time this season BYU had less penalty yards than its opponent, while the San Diego State game marked the sixth time that the Cougars had been flagged 10 or more times. Against the Aztecs, the Cougars were flagged 11 times for 96 yards, while a week earlier, BYU was penalized just twice for 12 yards at Colorado State, marking the fewest penalties in a game this season. Prior to the Colorado State game, the Cougars' season-low was 3 penalties (at Air Force). In the first three games of the season, the Cougars were penalized a league-leading 37 times for 325 yards, including a season-high 13 times for 140 yards at Nevada. On the season, the Cougars rank fifth in the MWC, averaging 63.5 penalty yards per game. The Utes enter Saturday's contest ranked last in the league, averaging 69.5 penalty yards per game.

INSIDE THE FRIENDLY CONFINES

Entering the 2002 season, the Cougars had won 8 straight games at LaVell Edwards Stadium, dating back to Oct. 26, 2000 (vs. Wyoming). A season-opening victory against Syracuse, and a win over Hawaii a week later, extended that streak to 10 straight games, marking the longest home win streak for the Cougars since winning 17 straight from Oct. 7, 1989 to Nov. 23, 1991. A 24-3 loss against UNLV on Oct. 19 ended the Cougars' 10-game home winning streak. Since Cougar Stadium was renamed LaVell Edwards Stadium on Nov. 18, 2001, the Cougars had never lost a game in Provo, posting a 9-0 record before losing to the Rebels. With a perfect 6-0 record in Provo last season, the Cougars have recorded 12 undefeated home seasons since the 1967 campaign. In fact, since the stadium was expanded to 65,000, the Cougars have posted eight different seasons without losing a game in Provo. The 2001 perfect home season marked the first since 1998. In 2002, BYU is 4-2 at Edwards Stadium, and has won 12 of its last 14 games at home.

FOURTH AND GO FOR IT

Including a season-low one fourth-down attempt at Colorado State, BYU is 16-of-39 (.410) on fourth-down attempts this season. Against Wyoming, BYU converted a crucial fourth-down attempt late in the game, and two plays later, scored the game-winning touchdown. BYU recorded a season-high 4 fourth-down conversions at Utah State. Against Nevada, the Cougars were a perfect 3-for-3 on fourth-down attempts. In a 16-20 loss against New Mexico, BYU converted one of three fourth-down attempts, including a fourth-and-three from the Cougars' own 36 yard line. Punter Matt Payne kept the ball and ran up the middle for a 28-yard going. The successful conversion led to a 52-yard field goal. On the season, BYU is averaging 1.5 fourth-down conversions on 3.5 attempts per game.

COUGS PERFECT IN PAYBACK OPPORTUNITIES

Since 1980, BYU has had 62 different opportunities to repay an opponent for a previous loss. When the Cougars face an opponent, having lost in the previous meeting, they have recorded a 41-21 (.661) record. Since Nov. 7, 1998, BYU has not lost to an opponent in a payback situation, posting a perfect 15-0 record. BYU knocked off Syracuse on Aug. 29, then held off Hawaii on Sept. 6 for two straight payback opportunities this season.

NATIONAL RANKING SHORT LIVED

Following the Cougars' 35-32 victory over Hawaii on Sept. 6, BYU climbed from among the un-ranked to No. 24 in the Sept. 8th USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll. After a 31-28 loss at Nevada, the Cougars fell from the top-25. BYU has been ranked in the top-20 or top-25 polls in 23 of the last 27 seasons. The only years in which BYU has never been ranked during the season (since 1976) were 1978, 1987, 1998 and 2000. Last season BYU broke into the top-25 on Sept. 9, following a 44-16 win at Cal. The Cougars climbed as high as No. 7 in the USA Today/Coaches' Poll and No. 8 in the AP Top-25 poll. The Falcons represent the first ranked team BYU has faced this season, and the first game against a ranked opponent since taking on No. 22 Louisville on Dec. 31 in the 2001 Liberty Bowl.

COUGARS ENDS THREE-GAME LOSING STREAK

After losing three straight games from Oct. 12 (at Air Force) to Oct. 24 (at Colorado State), BYU ended the three-game skid with a 34-10 win over San Diego State on Nov. 2. A week later, the Cougars made it two straight with a 35-31 win over Wyoming. The Cougars overcame a 14-point run by the Cowboys in the second half, and added a late fourth-quarter touchdown to regain the lead. Quarterback Matt Berry found tight end Gabe Reid for a 4-yard touchdown strike with 3:28 remaining to give the Cougars the game-winning touchdown. The BYU defense then held Wyoming on four straight plays to take over on downs at the BYU 17-yard line with 1:45 remaining. Berry finished with a strong performance, completing 31-of-45 passing for a career-high 360 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. The three-game losing streak marked the longest single-season losing streak since dropping three straight games at the conclusion of the 1999 season.

FUTURE FACT

• BYU will play at USC and Notre Dame in 2003. The Cougars' home schedule will include games against Boise State, Georgia Tech and Stanford.

THE UPPER-CLASSMAN DIFFERENCE

Since the 1990 season, when BYU starts the season with a junior or senior quarterback, the Cougars have posted a 72.8 winning percentage. In that same time frame, when BYU starts the season with an under-classman, the Cougars win just 54.1 percent of their games. Since the 1990 campaign, BYU has only started an under classman in three different seasons, including 1992, 1993 and 2000.

IN A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN

For the first time since the 1973 season -- LaVell Edward's second season as head coach -- the Cougars got off to an 0-3 start in league play. As in 1973, the Cougars snapped the three-game losing streak with a victory in the fourth league game of the season. (In 1973, BYU defeated New Mexico 56-21 to end the three-game skid.) With a win over San Diego State on Nov. 2, the Cougars avoided the longest conference losing streak since 1968. With a current MWC record of 2-4, BYU will finish the season with either a 2-5 or 3-4 league record, marking the worst league loss total since losing four league games in 1997.

COUGARS WIN FIRST SATURDAY CONTEST

The Cougars' 35-31 win over Wyoming on Nov. 9 marked only the Cougars' second Saturday win of the season. Entering the San Diego State game, BYU had posted an 0-4 record when playing on Saturday, including losses at Nevada, at Georgia Tech, at Air Force and against UNLV. On the season, the Cougars are 2-5 when playing on Saturday, including a 16-20 loss against New Mexico. BYU posted a 1-1 record on Thursdays and a 2-0 record on Fridays.

NOT SO FAST

After scoring 10 points against San Diego State on Nov. 2, the Cougars equaled their entire first-quarter season total. However, that one-game trend was snapped against Wyoming as the Cougars failed to score in the opening quarter for the seventh time in 10 games this season. Against New Mexico, the Cougars against managed 10 points in the first quarter. Prior to the 10 points in the SDSU and UNM games, BYU had scored just 10 points in the first quarter over the first eight games. On the season, the Cougars have been outscored 71-30 in the first quarter, including a difference of 41-23 in MWC action. After scoring 10 first-quarter points against SDSU, the Cougars racked up 10 more points in the second quarter to take a 20-0 lead into the half. Matt Payne's 35-yard field goal with 11:40 remaining in the first quarter at Air Force marked the first first-quarter points scored by the Cougars since posting seven first-quarter points in the season-opener against Syracuse. Through 11 games, BYU has scored just 30 points in the first quarter of play. Prior to Payne's field goal at Air Force, the Cougars had not scored in the first quarter since recording a 6-yard touchdown pass from Bret Engemann to Andrew Ord with 8:14 remaining in the first quarter against Syracuse. Prior to the Air Force contest, the Cougars had 16 different first-quarter possessions, and had crossed midfield only six different times. Over that four-game span, BYU's average first-quarter field possession was its own 46 yard line. Over the past 10 games, including Saturday's game against Wyoming, the Cougars have entered the Red Zone only twice during the first quarter. Following is a quarter-by-quarter breakdown of BYU's scoring:

	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	Total	Avg.
BYU	30	106	73	57	266	24.2
Opponent	71	115	45	89	320	29.1

TOP RECRUITS

The BYU coaching staff managed to assemble one of the nation's top recruiting classes this past season. This year's list of signees was rated No. 22 in the nation and tops in the Mountain West Conference. This year's class was highlighted by the signing of the nation's top high school quarterback, Ben Olson. While Coach Crowton has indicated Olson and Jake Kuresa (OL) will redshirt this season, incoming signees James Allen (CB), Curtis Brown (RB), Chad Barney (CB), and Shaun Nua (DL) have made significant contributions.

BYU vs. NATIONALLY RANKED OPPONENTS

Since the 1979 season, the Cougars have posted a 16-20 (.444) mark against nationally-ranked opponents (not including bowl games).

OVERTIME FACTS

Since the NCAA instituted overtime in 1996, the Cougars have played four overtime games, posting a perfect 4-0 record. Of the 31 teams which have played four or more overtime games, the Cougars are the only team to post a perfect 4-0 record. Interestingly, the Cougars have never played an overtime game in Provo. Following is a list of BYU's four overtime games:

TURNOVER A NEW LEAF

In the Cougars' season-opener against Syracuse, the Cougars and Orangemen were all even in the turnover category. The Cougars recovered an SU fumble, and were credited with two interceptions. Syracuse forced two fumbles and were credited with one interception. In the second week of the season, things were a little different. The Cougars won the turnover battle by an overwhelming 4-0 margin and came up with a 35-32 win. BYU defenders recorded four interceptions, including two by walk-on Kip Nielsen. Two of the Cougars' four turnovers led to 14 points. In the Cougars' 31-28 loss at Nevada, BYU recorded two fumble recoveries and an interception, winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Despite losing the turnover battle at Georgia Tech, 4-3, the Cougars forced three opponent turnovers for the fourth straight game this season. Junior cornerback Brandon Heaney was credited with two interceptions against Tech. Against UNLV, 21 of the Rebels 24 points came after a BYU turnovers -- all in the second half. At Colorado State, the Rams scored 14 quick points off back-to-back first-quarter turnovers to take a quick 17-0 lead. In the Cougars' home-finale against New Mexico, the Cougars won the turnover battle, but lost the game. Jon Burbidge recorded the first of three turnovers for the Cougars, picking off a Casey Kelly pass and returned it 80 yards for a touchdown. His interception return marked the longest return for a touchdown since Brian Mitchell recorded a 97-yard interception return against New Mexico in 1989. All totaled, BYU recorded 13 points on turnovers, marking the most points on turnovers since posting 17 points against Colorado State. On the season BYU has scored 105 points off turnovers.

THE TETON TERROR

Known over the past 20+ years for its All-American quarterbacks, BYU is quickly becoming known for its outstanding tight ends. Senior tight end Spencer Nead is making a solid case to join the ranks of BYU's long line of outstanding tight ends, including Gordon Hudson, Chad Lewis, Itula Mili and Doug Jolley. Nead started the 2002 campaign with a career-high 80-yard performance in the Cougars' 42-21 win over Syracuse. He was one of three different receivers with five receptions on the night.

All totaled three different BYU tight ends, including Gabe Reid and Aisac Aiono accounted for 133 yards on 11 receptions. Against Hawaii, Nead recorded three receptions for 41 yards, including a team-high 22-yard reception. After just one reception at Nevada for 12 yards, Nead returned to form at Georgia Tech, recording three receptions for 21 yards. He was the only tight end with a reception against the Yellow Jackets. Against Utah State, Nead played a major roll in the come-from-behind victory, recording a team-leading 6 receptions for 47 yards. A week later, Nead again led BYU with 5 receptions for 77 yards (at Air Force). Against UNLV, Nead had 2 receptions for 21 yards. At Colorado State, Nead had only one reception for 24 yards, setting up a Matt Payne field goal to pull BYU to within 7 points late in the second quarter. In the Cougars' 34-10 win over San Diego State, Nead was credited with 2 receptions for 10 yards. Against Wyoming, Nead registered a team-high 6 receptions for 72 yards, averaging 12 yards per reception. Nead also picked up his first touchdown of the season, grabbing a 15-yard pass from Matt Berry in the back of the endzone to give the Cougars a 14-7 lead. In the Cougars' 16-20 loss against New Mexico, Nead had three of the Cougars' 11 receptions, totaling 17 yards. On the season, Nead ranks second on the BYU roster with 37 receptions for 422 yards, averaging 38.4 yards per game. He is just one of three receivers with over 300 receiving yards on the season.

THAT'S TIGHT

BYU tight ends have accounted for 638 yards receiving on the season, averaging over 58 yards per game. Tight ends Gabe Reid and Spencer Nead have recorded 6 of the Cougars' 16 touchdown receptions on the season. Nead ranks second on the BYU roster with 422 yards on 37 receptions, while Reid has recorded 17 receptions for 183 yards. Reid is averaging one touchdown catch every 3.4 receptions.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

Of all the members of the BYU roster, 70 players have served a full-time, two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (63.3 percent). Over 60 percent of those returned-missionaries, 60 percent speak a foreign language, including 28 players who speak Spanish as a second language. BYU players have served missions all over the world. Members of this year's team have served on all seven continents, including head coach Gary Crowton, who served a mission in Korea. 96 players on this year's roster are members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (87.3 percent). Interestingly, 43 different players are married (40.9 percent). Of the 43 married players, there are 11 couples with children and one couple expecting children in the near future. Spencer Nead, Mike Tanner, Marcus Whalen all became fathers during the season. The average age of the Cougars' 22 starters is 22 years old. Following is a breakdown of the different languages spoken by members of this year's team:

Language	Language
28-Spanish	3-Tagalog
2-Portuguese	1-French
