UNLV Rebels

10-18 Overall, 6-8 MWC

LOOKING AT UNLV

Since starting 0-5 in MWC play, the Rebels bounced back going 6-3 in the conference since. During that stretch UNLV swept San Diego State and downed BYU in four games.

Plagued by injury and inconsistent play earlier this season, the Rebels suffered through a 10-match losing streak, as they started the season 4-14. In the six wins since, UNLV has swept its opponent four times.

The Rebels are led by a trio of attackers. Outside hitters Patricia Assuncao and Leiana Oswald set the tone with 2.76 (.227) and 3.18 (.177) kills per game respectively. Blair Wilkes is a force in the middle for UNLV as she averages 2.38 kpg with a team-high .296 attack percentage.

UNLV has had 15 players in its lineup and 14 players have seen action in at least 22 games. The Rebels are 6-6 at home this season and a combined 4-12 away from Las Vegas (2-3 neutral).

The Rebels returned all six starters from last year's 10-16 team that also finished with a 6-8 conference record and a No. 5 seed for the MWC Tournament.

SERIES RECORD

BYU is 10-2 all-time against UNLV. The Cougars only two losses to the Rebels have come in the past two seasons; one last season and one this season.

The Cougars have met the Rebels once before in a conference tournament match. BYU swept the Rebels in a Western Athletic Conference match Nov. 27, 1998, in Las Vegas.

FIRST MEETING VS. THE REBELS

LAS VEGAS (Sept. 28, 2002) – Behind a career-high 17 blocks by newly converted middle blocker Lindsey Metcalf, the BYU women's volleyball team clawed its way to a come-from-behind 29-31, 26-30, 30-24, 30-25, 19-17 win over UNLV Saturday night. The win improves the Cougars record to 6-9, 1-1 Mountain West Conference, while the Rebels drop to 4-11, 0-2.

"Everyone contributed tonight," BYU coach Karen Lamb said. "After we lost the first two games we bounced back and made plays when we needed them."

Playing in her second match as a middle blocker, Metcalf was especially effective against the Rebels. With middle blockers Lexi Brown and Laura Nielsen sidelined due to injury, Metcalf made the switch from outside hitter and debuted in her new position Friday against San Diego State.

The Cougars compiled 24.0 team blocks, the fourth highest in team history, while Metcalf's 17 blocks is the fourth-best all-time mark by a BYU player.

"Lindsey had an incredible match," Lamb said. "Especially considering we had to move her to a position she had never played before."

Metcalf also racked up 13 digs for a solid defensive double-double effort and she also chipped in five kills while hitting .267. April Varner had her team-leading fifth double-double of the year in recording career-high's with 19 kills and four blocks to go with 14 digs.

Larson recorded her first career double-double as a Cougar with 16 kills and career-high's of 10 blocks and four assists. Freshman outside hitter Kim Wilson set career-highs with 13 kills and nine digs. Carrie Bowers also reached double-digits in kills with 13 while also setting a career-high with two service aces.

BYU outblocked UNLV 24.0-11.0 while out hitting the Rebels .235 to .132. The win for the Cougars marks the first time this season they have come back from a 0-2 deficit to win a match, and they improve their record in five-game matches to 2-1 on the year.

SECOND MEETING VS. THE REBELS

PROVO, Utah (Oct. 25, 2002) – Beset yet again by injuries, this time to its top offensive threat, the BYU women's volleyball team dropped a Mountain West Conference match to upstart UNLV 30-17, 27-30, 18-30, 25-30 Friday in the Smith Fieldhouse. The loss snaps the Cougars' two-match win streak evening their record at 4-4 MWC and 9-13 overall, while the Rebels extend their win streak to three and stand at 3-5, 7-14.

Sophomore outside hitter April Varner, BYU's go to attacker, had led the Cougars in kills in each of their last four matches and was coming off a career-high 23 kills at Wyoming Saturday. Varner sprained her ankle in practice this week and is expected to be out two to three weeks.

"I am not one to make excuses," BYU coach Karen Lamb said. "But tonight our injuries really caught up with us. When you don't have all your players everybody has to play their best and tonight we struggled."

Compounding matters, sophomore outside hitter Lindsey Metcalf made her return to the lineup, but continues to be hobbled by a sprained ankle and is restricted in her movements. Junior middle blocker Carrie Bowers has two stress fractures in her feet and sat out of practices this week to play in this weekend's matches.

"Lindsey is still not 100%," Lamb said. She couldn't really move, she couldn't jump well, her ankle is still bothering her. So we tried to adjust with the players we have."

After two impressive wins over Colorado State and Wyoming last week, the Cougars came out a determined albeit depleted team.

"I don't feel bad about our team at all," Lamb said. "Under the circumstances I feel good about our players because they're doing their best."

With Varner out, and Metcalf and Bowers at less than 100%, Wilson, a native of Provo, shouldered the load with a team-high 31 attack attempts. Wilson finished the night with career-highs of 17 kills and a .387 attack percentage. Allison Larson also finished with double-digit kills as she had 12.

Defensively middle blocker Laura Nielsen picked up a career-high six blocks on the night and defensive specialist Uila Crabbe played a steady match putting up a match-high 18 digs.

2002 NOTES FROM LAST WEEK (NOV. 11-NOV. 16)

WEEK IN REVIEW

In the last weekend of Mountain West Conference play, BYU split its two matches. Friday night the Cougars defeated Wyoming in five long games after they had a 2-0 stranglehold on the match over the Cowgirls. On Saturday night, BYU came out a tired team and was out-matched and swept by a Colorado State team that was seeking to clinch the regular season conference crown.

INJURY REPORT

Injury update: April Varner sidelined since the week of Oct. 20 with a severely sprained ankle, return to practice on Monday. She remains questionable for the MWC Tournament. Lindsey Metcalf is still not 100% as she is still recovering from a severely sprained ankle sustained in early October. Lexi Brown, out since Sept. 10, is out for the season with a torn ACL.

COUGAR PERFECTION

With its win over Wyoming and in out hitting the Cowgirls .249 to .148 to Cougars improved their record to a perfect 10-0 when they have a higher attack percentage than their opponents.

HITTING PERCENTAGE OVERVIEW

In its 33 years of conference play BYU has never finished the regular season conference schedule with a winning percentage lower than .714 (2001), before this year in which it finished .500.

PUIKKONEN HELPERS

Two-time all-MWC Karina Puikkonen is climbing up the all-time BYU career assists list. She currently has 1,141 assists on the season bumping her career total up to 3,864 good for fifth all-time in school history. Puikkonen is 190 assists behind fourth place Mariliisa Salmi and 303 assists behind third place Tami Hamilton.

SETTING CAREER MARKS

Career bests: Three Cougars set career bests in kills with the BYU over Wyoming. Allison Larson led the charge with 20 kills, Kimberly Wilson had 18 kills and Lindsey Metcalf had 17 kills.

DIGGING QUEEN METCALF

Sophomore outside hitter Lindsey Metcalf led the team with 26 digs (3.25 dpg) last week. Against Wyoming, Metcalf fell one short of tying her career-high with 19 digs.

NIELSEN EFFICIENT

Laura Nielsen continues her offensive efficiency as she is second in MWC play with a .353 attack percentage. Other Cougars on the list are at No. 9 Allison Larson (.295) and at No. 11 Karina Puikkonen (.283). On the defensive side of the ball Laura Nielsen is No. 5 in the MWC with 1.40 bpg and Lindsey Metcalf is No. 7 with 1.32 bpg.

LARSON'S WEEK OF ATTACK

Allison Larson set a career-high in kills against Wyoming with 20. Her previous high was 18 kills, which she has had twice this season against Wyoming (10/19) and Air Force (11/2). She led the team in kills on both nights with 20 kills and 11 kills, respectively. Larson's offensive contribution was almost 25% of the team's total offensive output against the Cowgirls and 33% of the team's total output against the Rams. Larson led the Cougars with a .444 attack percentage and 3.88 kpg last week.

WOW

Larson has now led the team in kills 12 times this season, and has only led the team in attack attempts once.

COUGARS IN THE MWC

In the four seasons since the inception of the MWC, BYU has finished the season with more losses with successive each year. (5, 7, 9, 16 so far this season). Also after finishing first in the MWC regular season in 1999, the Cougars have finished second in 2000, third in 2001 and fourth in 2002.

NEXT WEEK

After the MWC Tournament BYU has two regular-season home matches remaining against No. 3 Hawai'i, Nov. 26, and No. 16 Arizona, Nov. 29.

2002 SEASON NOTESCOACH LAMB ON THE 2002 SEASON

"With the loss of four starters off of last year's team, we have a largely young and inexperienced team this year but we have some good talent on the roster. They are hardworking and will continue to improve as we progress through a very challenging schedule."

COACH LAMB ON THE FUTURE OF BYU VOLLEYBALL

"I am excited about the opportunity to be the head coach of a well-established and successful program. I have two excellent assistant coaches in Jason Watson and Mari Carpenter. We look forward to continuing the tradition of excellence Elaine Michaelis has established at BYU. Ultimately, our goal for the program is to win the national championship."

LAMB'S BYU HEAD COACHING DEBUT

Karen Lamb, the third BYU women's head coach in history, won in her Cougar debut as BYU defeated Gonzaga 3-1, in the Cougars' season opener at the Les Schwab Cougar Challenge at Washington State University, August 30.

TRANSFER SPARK

Long Beach State sophomore transfer April Varner opened her BYU career with two double-doubles. She had 13 kills and 13 digs against Gonzaga and 14 kills and 19 digs against Nevada. For the week of Aug. 26-31, she averaged 2.75 kills and 3.08 digs per game.

REVEALING REDSHIRTS

This season the Cougars will have three players redshirt. Sophomore setter/outside hitter Lauren Richards and freshman middle blocker Lindsay Lewis will sit out the season. Additionally, senior rightside hitter and All-America candidate Sunny Mahe will redshirt as she expects her first child in November. Freshman Kim Wilson was also slated to redshirt, but her excellent spring and practice play along with a Cougar need at the position has her on the court.

ALL-AROUND PUIKKONEN POWER

Puikkonen recorded her first career triple-double in a close loss to Texas A&M. She had career-highs with 11 kills and 15 digs to go with 54 assists. Puikkonen also led the team with five blocks and a .455 attack percentage.

STREAKING COUGARS

The Cougars have suffered four consecutive losses twice this season. The only other time BYU has lost four in a row was in 1980. BYU has not gone five matches without a win since recording three losses and two ties during the 1979 season. The only other time BYU has lost five straight was over two seasons, losing three to end the 1978 season and dropping its first two matches in 1979.

THE PROCESS OF REBUILDING A WINNER

Of the 13 active players on the BYU roster, only juniors Karina Puikkonen and Uila Crabbe are returning starters with a combined 350 games of experience coming into the season. The remaining 11 players on the active roster came into the season with a combined 117 games of experience (the rough equivalent of a normal season). Thus far this season the 11 returning non-starters have played in a combined 529 games. Due to a myriad of injuries on the team, more of the Cougars are seeing extended playing time. Ten of the 11 players have seen action in at least 30% or more of BYU's games. Nine of the 11 have seen action in 42% or more of the Cougars games.

RETURNING STRONG

This season only returning starters Karina Puikkonen and Uila Crabbe have played in all 92 games.

BYU ROSTER HIT HARD

Entering this season BYU had 16 players on its roster. Nine of those players have been affected in some way that has prevented them from playing or hindered their ability. All-America candidate Sunny Mahe is redshirting because of a pregnancy and Lauren Richards and Lindsay Lewis are also sitting out the season as redshirts. Carrie Bowers has been playing with two stress fractures in her feet and has been unable to practice. Lexi Brown tore her ACL in the eighth match of the season and is out until the spring. As well, Lindsey Metcalf, Becky Warnick, Laura Nielsen and April Varner have all been bitten by the injury bug this season. Twelve different Cougars have drawn starting assignments this season.

COUGARS LOSE TO TOP TEAMS

BYU has struggled to find consistency this season because of an injury-riddled lineup that has depleted its depth. A challenging non-conference schedule as well as play in the improving MWC has compounded matters for the Cougars. Five of BYU's losses have come to teams currently ranked in the USA Today/AVCA Coaches Top 25 Poll. The Cougars have lost to No. 1 USC, No. 3 Florida, No. 13 Washington State and No. 24 Utah.

In addition two more Cougar losses have come at the hands of unranked conference leaders Oral Roberts (Mid-Con) and Arkansas (SEC West). The cumulative record of the teams BYU has lost to this year is 221-105 (.678). The Cougars will also square off against current No. 2 and previous No. 1 Hawai'i (25-1), Nov. 26, and No. 16 Arizona, Nov. 29, in Provo.

DOWN AND OUT OF POLLS

Ranked 23rd in the preseason AVCA/USA Today Top-25 Poll, the Cougars tumbled out of the rankings Sept. 2 for the first time since 1996. In 1996 BYU was unranked for nine weeks (Sept. 17 - Nov. 12). The only other times the Cougars have been unranked are in 1984 for one week (Sept. 25) and 1989 for eight weeks (Oct. 3 - Final). The Cougars had been tied for sixth all-time with USC in being ranked for a total of 252 weeks.

COUGARS FEATURE ROBUST 2002 SCHEDULE

BYU features one of the top schedules nationally in 2002. Ten matches are scheduled against teams ranked in the top 25 at the start of the 2002 campaign.

Not including potential 2002 MWC tournament match-ups, BYU will play a minimum of 17 matches against teams that qualified for last year's NCAA tournament compared to the scheduled 12 matches against NCAA teams a year ago.

Overall, nine opponents were ranked in the top 25 at the end of last season, and 14 teams qualified for the NCAA Tournament with a combined tournament record of 20-14.

Among BYU's 2002 opponents, Arizona, ranked No. 6 in the final 2001 poll, reached the Final Four last year, and No. 3 USC and No. 7 Florida were regional finalists in the NCAA Tournament. Other top-25 teams from last year include Hawaii (No. 4), Utah (No. 13), Texas A&M (No. 17), Colorado State (No. 18) and Illinois (No. 19). Of the Cougars' 2002 opponents, BYU has a losing record against only two teams (Hawaii and USC). Against this year's nationally ranked opponents, BYU has an impressive 153-58-1 (.723) record.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

BYU is a member of the Mountain West Conference. The Cougars have a 42-14 regular season record in three years of MWC play after finishing fourth in 2002 with a 7-7 mark.

BYU won the inaugural regular season title in 1999 with a 13-1 record and finished second in 2000 with a 12-2 mark. BYU appeared in the MWC Tournament title match in each of the first two seasons, winning the title over Colorado State in Fort Collins in 2000 after losing the 1999 title to the Rams in Provo. Utah won the 2001 crown, also in Provo. Six of the eight MWC programs have competed in postseason action over the years. In 2001, four MWC teams earned NCAA bids. Since the MWC was founded in 1999, BYU, Colorado State and Utah have represented the conference in the NCAA tournament each season. Last year all three teams were ranked in the top-25 (CSU 10, Utah 15 and BYU 22). San Diego State returned to NCAA Tournament play last year after a four-year hiatus. Overall, BYU has made 20 NCAA appearances, followed by Colorado State and SDSU with 13, New Mexico with seven, and Utah and Wyoming with four.

BYU has a winning record over every MWC team with an overall conference winning percentage of .832. The 2002 MWC Tournament will be held in Fort Collins, Colo., Nov. 21-23.

MWC PRESEASON VOLLEYBALL COACHES POLL

In a vote of the eight head coaches in the Mountain West Conference, Utah is the favorite to win the 2002 title after earning six first-place votes and 48 points. Defending regular season champion Colorado State was second with 40 points, edging BYU with 39 points. San Diego State was picked fourth for the third straight year, followed by UNLV, Wyoming, New Mexico and Air Force.

MWC VOLLEYBALL NOTABLES

After ranking as one of the top leagues in the nation in its first three years, the Mountain West Conference will begin its fourth season of competition with aspirations for continued success on a national level. The MWC sent a record four teams to the 2001 NCAA Tournament and was one of just five conferences to have multiple teams in the Sweet 16 three straight years. Three MWC teams have been ranked in the final USA Today Top 25 poll the past two years, and after producing 11 All-Americans in three seasons, the MWC will look to build on its volleyball tradition in 2002.

MWC CHAMPIONSHIP BACK IN FORT COLLINS

The Mountain West Conference Championship returns to Fort Collins and Moby Arena in 2002. The Rams, who played in the tournament finals each of the past three seasons, hosted the 2000 MWC Championship. All eight MWC teams will meet at Moby Arena Nov. 21-23, and after producing three different conference tournament champions the past three years, the 2002 championship should be a good one.

"We're proud of the way our teams have performed against national and conference competition. We have set a standard of winning because of our talented coaches and student-athletes. We expect that standard to continue."

- BYU women's athletic director Elaine Michaelis

Karen Lamb is BYU's New Head Coach

Karen Curtis Lamb was named head coach of the BYU women's volleyball program on July 9, 2002, replacing the legendary Elaine Michaelis. An assistant to Michaelis the past eight seasons, Lamb brings to her new responsibilities 18 years of collegiate coaching experience, including nine years as a head coach, and two years coaching with the U.S. National Team.

Lamb is only the third person to head BYU's program, joining Michaelis (1962-2002) and JoAnne Calderwood (1956-61). Michaelis retired in May 2002 after 40 years at the Cougar helm ranked No. 2 all-time in NCAA Division I women's volleyball wins with an 887-225-5 (.796) record.

In nine years as a head coach, four in junior college and five at the Division I level, Lamb has totaled a 195-123 (.613) overall record while bringing success to each program. Her accomplishments include an NJCAA national championship and national coach of the year honors. As an assistant coach at BYU the past eight seasons, she helped coach seven All-Americans while the Cougars won five conference titles, achieved a 207-51 (.802) overall record, and played in eight NCAA tourna-

"Karen has made a tremendous impact on women's volleyball at BYU and is prepared to use her talents to take the program to the next level. She is an experienced recruiter and program administrator who is well respected, has tremendous passion for the sport and has exceptional knowledge of the game. As a player, she was a great athlete, who played almost every position. She is an intense competitor and a winner who will achieve great success as BYU's head coach."

ments, including three regional final appearances among five trips to the regional semifinals.

Lamb's opportunity at BYU is her first with a well-established program. In her five prior seasons as a Division I head coach, Lamb took over new or struggling programs and turned them into winners. She owns a 90-94 (.489) record in her five seasons as a Division I head coach at UNLV and Washington State.

Lamb began her coaching career in 1978, serving as an assistant to Michaelis after completing her All-American playing career (1974-77) at BYU. After teaching math at Casa Grande High School in Casa Grande, Ariz., for one year, Lamb took her first volleyball head coaching job in 1980 at Central Arizona College in Coolidge, Ariz. During her four years (1980-83) at the helm, she achieved a 105-29 (.784) record and was named 1983

NJCAA Coach of the Year after guiding her team to the 1983 NJCAA title.

In 1984, Lamb was hired at UNLV, accepting the challenge of restarting the Rebels' volleyball program after its three-year absence. She coached two seasons in Las Vegas, earning a 39-34 (.534) mark, including a 23-17 record in her first season in 1984. In 1986, she accepted another daunting task when she took over a Washington State program that was just entering the Pac-10 Conference after suffering through four consecutive single-digit victory seasons. In spite of the challenging circumstances, she posted a 51-60 (.460) record in her three seasons (1986-88) in Pullman, culminated with the program's first winning season in 10 years with a 22-17 record in 1988. Despite her success, Lamb decided to leave her position to care for her young family, moving to San Diego where her husband Barry was hired as an assistant football coach.

While in San Diego, Lamb worked as a clinician (1989), clinic director (1990) and assistant coach (1990-92) for the U.S.A. Women's National Team, which went on to earn the Bronze Medal in the 1992 Barcelona Summer Olympics. In 1994, Lamb returned to BYU as a volunteer assistant before being hired as an assistant coach in 1997.

In addition to her college and national-level coaching experience, Lamb has been a pioneer in developing grass-roots volleyball. She founded the first junior volleyball programs in both Arizona and Nevada and has served as the director and owner of Excel Volleyball Camps since the program's inception in 1975. Lamb's camps are administered each summer to more than 500 girls age 12 and older in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

As a player, Lamb was the top of her class. She holds the distinction of being BYU's first female scholarship athlete and was the school's first volleyball All-American, earning second-team honors in 1977. She still holds the BYU single-season hitting percentage record of .485 in 1976, and has a personal-best .777 single-match attack percentage. She once served 15 straight points to deliver a start-to-finish game victory against Weber State.

In 1989, Lamb was recognized by her alma mater for her many accomplishments, being inducted into the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame.

Lamb has served as a member of the BYU Coaches Advisory Committee and as an executive board member of Intermountain Volleyball Association High Performance since 1999. She also currently serves as an executive board member of the BYU Varsity Club, a position she has held since 1996. She served on the board of the Cougar Club from 1995-98 and in 1996 taught a volleyball class in the university's department of Health and Human Performance. From 1987-88 she was a member of the AVCA's Russell Advisory National Committee.

Lamb received a bachelor's degree in physical education with a coaching emphasis from BYU in 1978. She earned a master's degree in educational administration with an athletics emphasis from Arizona State in 1984. She has finished her PhD course work at BYU and is currently working on her dissertation.

A Safford, Ariz., native, Lamb is married to BYU assistant football coach Barry Lamb. They have three sons: Mackenzie (17), Tanner (14), Tucker (12). She is the daughter of Brooks and Myrna Curtis.

BYU COACH ELAINE MICHAELIS RETIRES AFTER 40 SEASONS

A proven winner, BYU's Elaine Michaelis retired as one of the nation's top volleyball coaches on May 28, 2002, to continue overseeing one of the country's most successful intercollegiate women's athletic programs. Elaine Michaelis served as BYU's women's volleyball 40 seasons. The past seven years she has simultaneously served as the director of women's athletics at BYU, responsibilities she will now conduct full time.

A legend in the coaching profession, Michaelis retired as the all-time leader in victories among female coaches in collegiate volleyball at any level with 887 wins (in 33 seasons since volleyball records were maintained at BYU in 1969). She ranks second overall in Division I women's volleyball victories, trailing only UCLA's Andy Banachowski (919 wins in 35 seasons). Only six other female coaches (all softball coaches) have ever achieved more wins than Michaelis in an NCAA Division I sport.

Michaelis led the Cougars to a 20-9 record in 2001, her 28th consecutive 20-win season. In addition, the Cougars qualified for their 20th NCAA Tournament. BYU's lone snub from the NCAA Tournament was in 1989, despite a 24-11 record.

Bringing in top-flight talent and teaching sound fundamental volleyball resulted in BYU players earning many honors under Michaelis. Under her guidance, 18 players earned 51 All-America awards for their outstanding play, including nine AVCA/CVCA First Team and six Volleyball Magazine First Team honors. Six players have earned national player honors, including Mariliisa Salmi, the 1986 CVCAPlayer of the Year. Four athletes have earned seven GTE Academic All-America awards.

Respected throughout the collegiate volleyball world for her extraordinary volleyball mind, Michaelis was always gracious and dignified before, during and after matches. Her teams were always well prepared for opponents and play under control during the matches. During Michaelis' tenure as head coach, her peers honored her as conference coach of the year eight times - once in the IAC, three times in the HCAC and four times in the WAC. She was named the Tachikara Northwest Region Division I Coach of the Year in 1987 and NCAA District 7 Coach of the Year in 1996.

In her home state, Michaelis has been inducted into the Utah Summer Games Hall of Fame in 1987, the Hall of Fame of the Utah Network of Women and Girls in Sport in 1990 and was one of three honorees of the Salt Lake City Old Time Coaches Association in 1993. She was the 1994 recipient of the Dale Rex Memorial Award, an honor given annually by the BYU Cougar Club to the person who has contributed the most to amateur athletics in the state of Utah.

For her years of dedication, Michaelis received the Volleyball Festival Distinguished Service to U.S. Volleyball Award in 1993. She also accepted the AVCA Founders Award at the Coach of the Year luncheon in 1996, which honors individuals who have been involved in the advancement of volleyball for at least fifteen years. USA Volleyball honored her with its All-Time Great Coach award in 2001.

KAREN LAMB TAKES OVER TRADITION-RICH BYU PROGRAM WITH INEXPERIENCED, BUT TALENTED TEAM

New Era Begins in 2002 with Retirement of Elaine Michaelis

There will be a new look to BYU volleyball in 2002, both on the court and along the bench. In May 2002, legendary coach Elaine Michaelis retired from coaching after 40 years guiding the Cougar program. Karen Lamb, a BYU assistant the past eight years who also has been a college head coach for nine seasons, takes over a program that returns very little on-court experience from last year's 20-9 team.

In 2002 BYU will be without the services of four key starters. Three time All-American Nina Puikkonen, fellow middle blocker Jackie Bundy and outside hitter Natalie Whittaker all graduated. In addition, senior rightside hitter Sunny Mahe, who was named the AVCA/Sports Imports National Player of the Week and twice honored as the MWC Player of the Week in 2001, will redshirt the 2002 season while expecting her first child in November.

Lamb takes over a Cougar team that enters the season without a returning All-American on the roster for the first time since 1995. Last year was the first season since 1989 that a Cougar did not receive All-America honors and only the fifth time BYU has not had an All-American since Lamb became BYU's first women's volleyball All-American in 1977.

A talented but inexperienced group, the 2002 team returns two starters in All-Mountain West Conference selections Karina Puikkonen and Uila Crabbe. Puikkonen has set the Cougar attack the past two seasons while Crabbe stepped up in 2001 to play a vital role on the back row. Other than sophomore outside hitter Lauren Richards, who played in 19 matches a year ago, no other player on the roster has spent consistent time on the court as a Cougar.

Despite the inexperience, the Cougars have a typically talented roster and extremely versatile lineup. The late summer addition of redshirt sophomore transfer April Varner, who started on the outside during the spring for Long Beach State, gives Lamb another talented option as she opens fall camp. In all, the 2002 Cougar roster is comprised of eight returning letterwinners, three transfers, two redshirt freshmen and two high school recruits.

On the outside Allison Larson, April Varner, Becky Warnick, Lauren Richards, Lindsey Metcalf and Kim Wilson will vie for playing time. In the middle Carrie Bowers and Lexi Brown are projected to get the bulk of the playing time with junior transfer Laura Nielsen involved in the mix. Karina Puikkonen returns as BYU's setter, but she could be pushed for playing time by the multi-talented Richards. Shoring up the defense for the Cougars are Uila Crabbe, Michelle Mahaffey and Sahara Castillo.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL RULES CHANGES FOR 2002

In the first year the NCAA is writing rules for collegiate women's volleyball, the NCAA Women's Volleyball Rules Committee approved several rules changes for the 2002 season. Most prominent among them is the use of the libero player with 12 substitutions. Important rules changes adopted for 2002 are:

- The use of the libero as a designated back-row player who cannot serve, attack or set inside the attack line. The libero is allowed to replace any player in a back-row position. Replacements involving the libero do not count as regular substitutions.
- The use of the pursuit rule allowing players to retrieve a ball that has crossed the centerline outside the court under certain circumstances.
- In a deciding game, teams must switch sides at eight points.
- Expulsion or disqualification of a player results in a loss of rally (point for the opposing team).
- Net sleeves will be allowed on the top of the net with adequate securing devices.

2001 SEASON NOTABLES

The BYU women's volleyball team continued its tradition of excellence in the 2001 season. A program rich in tradition, BYU continued its winning ways, as head coach Elaine Michaelis led the Cougars to their 28th consecutive 20-win season (20-9). At 887 wins, Michaelis stands first in wins among NCAA women's coaches.

With a talent-laden line up featuring All-American Nina Puikkonen and All-MWC players Jackie Bundy, Sunny Mahe and Karina Puikkonen, the defending 2000 Mountain West Conference champion Cougars were ranked as high as No. 11 during the season.

SENSATIONAL SEPTEMBER

The Cougars got off to a fast start in the first full month of the season. After losing to Texas to even its record at 1-1, BYU reeled off eight straight wins. Cougar victims included No. 23 Colorado and sweeps of No. 19 UC Santa Barbara and No. 21 Utah. The Cougars swept seven of their 10 matches and won 29 of 35 games.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Rightside hitter Sunny Mahe was selected as the AVCA/Sports Imports Division I National Player of the Week on Oct. 1. She was named for the first time in her career and was the third Cougar to ever garner the award. For the week, Mahe averaged 4.56 kills, 1.00 blocks, 1.78 digs, 1.11 assists and 0.44 service aces per game with a .554 attack percentage. Mahe was also twice recognized as the MWC Player of the Week (Sept. 3 and Oct. 1).

Nina Puikkonen was named co-MWC Player of the Week on Oct. 29, her seventh such honor. Puikkonen led BYU to three road wins over Sacramento State, Air Force and New Mexico averaging 5.00 kills, 2.30 digs, 2.30 blocks and hitting .438 for the week.

BUNDY, PUIKKONEN RECORDED RARE TRIPLE-DOUBLES

Nina Puikkonen and fellow senior middle blocker Jackie Bundy each recorded one triple-double in 2001. Bundy had her first career triple-double in BYU's win over No. 23 Colorado. She totaled 15 kills, 12 digs and a season-high 10 blocks on the night. Puikkonen had her fourth career triple-double with career highs of 32 kills and 20 digs along with a season-high 11 blocks vs. Cal Poly in Long Beach. Two of Nina's triple-doubles were recorded in 2000, both against the University of Utah.

RICHARDS ROCKS VS. 49ERS

Freshman outside hitter Lauren Richards set a career high with 20 kills vs. No. 1 Long Beach State Nov. 24. Recruited as a setter, she came out of a redshirt year to play outside after sitting out the first 10 matches.

NINA IN BYU ALL-TIME STATS

Nina Puikkonen finished fifth all-time at BYU in kills, second all-time in total blocks and block assists and is the school's all-time leader in blocks per game. Puikkonen recorded a team-leading 13 double-doubles in 2001 for BYU.

ALLCONFERENCE HONORS

Four BYU players were named to the 2001 All-Mountain West Conference Volleyball Team. BYU sisters Nina (MB) and Karina Puikkonen (S), and AVCA/Sports Imports National Player of the Week Sunny Mahe (RS/OH) earned all-conference honors for the second straight year. The Cougars' Uila Crabbe (DS) was a first-time honoree. Crabbe was named MWC Co-Defensive Specialist. Crabbe, hailing from Mililani, Hawai'i, totaled 118 digs in league play.

A season fraught with injury and sickness, the Cougars finished the year with a 20-9 record and a No. 22 final ranking in the AVCA Coaches Poll. BYU made its 20th overall and 12th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Cougars, one of only eight teams with 20 NCAA appearances, are 26-20 all time in NCAA Tournaments with one Final Four appearance (1993). The Cougars rank ninth in total NCAA tournament victories. BYU finished regular MWC play with a 10-4 record. In the conference tournament, the Cougars beat Wyoming in three games in the first match. Facing Utah in the semifinals, BYU fell in four close games.
