Oct. 10, 2001

2001 Season – Release #7

No. 14 BYU Hosts San Diego State, UNLV

BYU's 14th-ranked women's volleyball team hosts 10-4 San Diego State Friday in a battle for second place in the Mountain West Conference before facing 5-7 UNLV Saturday. Both matches begin at 7 p.m. Friday's match with San Diego State will be televised on KBYU-TV, channel 11, and BYU-TV, which is available on Dish Network 500, DirectTV, and some cable systems.

The Cougars, 10-2 and 4-1 in the Mountain West Conference, enter the week with an 18-match home win streak, including a perfect 7-0 record in the Smith Fieldhouse this year. BYU is coming off a road split last week, defeating Wyoming before having its nine-match victory string snapped at then-No. 9 Colorado State.

Like BYU, San Diego State is 4-1 in conference play and will be looking for its first win over BYU since 1996. The Cougars lead the overall series with a 23-13 record, including an 11-4 record in Provo. The Aztecs split their matches last week, losing to No. 15 Pepperdine before defeating UNLV.

UNLV is 2-3 in MWC play this year. The Rebels are coming off two losses last week vs. San Diego and San Diego State. In the overall series, BYU has a perfect 8-0 record against UNLV, with four wins at the Smith Fieldhouse.

"This week we face two good teams in San Diego State and UNLV," BYU coach Elaine Michaelis said. "We didn't play very well last week on the road so hopefully returning home in front of our fans will help us play better. We are still young in some areas but I think we will be ready. I feel good about our young players."

LOOKING AT THE AZTECS

San Diego State is 10-4 this year and 4-1 in the Mountain West Conference. Like BYU, the San Diego State's lone conference loss was to unbeaten Colorado State. The Aztecs suffered the 0-3 setback at home to the Rams, however, while BYU lost in three games in Fort Collins. Both teams have league wins over Air Force, New Mexico and Wyoming while San Diego State has a win over UNLV and BYU has its fourth win over Utah. The Aztecs other losses have come against Southern Methodist, Loyola Marymount and No. 15 Pepperdine. San Diego is 3-2 away this year, 6-1 at home and 1-1 at a neutral site. San Diego State averages 10.2 aces per match in league contests, including an MWC season-high 14 vs. UNLV. San Diego State hits .255 as a team.

SERIES INFO

The Cougars lead the overall series with a 23-13 record, including an 11-4 record in Provo. BYU has won nine straight in the series. The Aztecs last win (3-2) was in San Diego in 1996. BYU has also won the last nine meetings in Provo, with SDSU last winning 3-1 in an NCAA First Round match in Provo in 1990.

LOOKING AT THE REBELS

UNLV is 5-7 overall and 2-3 in the Mountain West Conference. The Rebels have lost four straight to end a four-match winning streak. The Rebels' two league wins are over Air Force and New Mexico, with losses to Colorado State, Wyoming and San Diego State. Sheila Ocasio-Clemente is the nation's leading blocker with an average of 2.16 blocks per game. She posted 10 block assists vs. San Diego last week, followed by nine block assists vs. San Diego State the next night. As a team, UNLV is out blocking its opponents 140.5 to 79 this season. As a team, the Rebels are hitting .213. UNLV plays No. 18n Utah on Friday.

SERIES INFO

BYU has a perfect 8-0 record against UNLV, with four wins at the Smith Fieldhouse.

BYU BRIEF OUTLOOK

The 2001 Cougars are led by first-team AVCA All-American middle blocker Nina Puikkonen and NCAA All-West Region rightside hitter Sunny Tonga Mahe. Mahe is a junior in 2001 while Puikkonen is one of three seniors returning with significant court experience. She is joined by fellow seniors Jackie Bundy, an All-MWC middle blocker who finished 12th nationally in blocking last year, and Natalie Whittaker, BYU's top reserve last season. The Cougars also return setter Karina Puikkonen, who earned all-conference honors last year as a freshman. While Michaelis returns four all-conference starters, she will need to replace the services of starting outside hitters Melissa Layton and Kalani Tonga. Reserve middle blocker Alyssa Barrus and backup setter Martha Brinton also won't return in 2001. Both players decided to leave on an 18-month mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, with Barrus to serve in Washington, D.C. and Brinton in Switzerland. Whittaker, junior transfer Allison Holsten Larson and the redshirt freshman tandem of Lindsey Steele and Becky Warnick all are talented players with the potential to fill the void left on the outside. Freshman Lauren Richards could play outside or setter. A solid freshmen recruiting class join sophomore Carrie Bowers (middle blocker/rightside hitter), sophomore Uila Crabbe (defensive specialist) and junior Michelle Mahaffey (defensive specialist) to provide Michaelis with a strong supporting cast. Last year, the Cougars were ranked second nationally in blocking and eighth in hitting and should continue to excel in those categories in 2001. With Karina Puikkonen having a year of experience on her resume and setting many of the same hitters, BYU's offense should again be one of the nation's most potent. The Cougar block could be the nation's best with Puikkonen and Bundy in the middle.

BYU LAST WEEK

BYU went 1-1 last week, losing its first conference match of the year at No. 9 Colorado State Saturday. It was the first regular season conference loss since losing at then No. 16 Utah last year on Oct. 6, 2000. All-American Nina Puikkonen shared team-high honors for kills last week with Sunny Mahe, both putting down 22 kills in two matches (3.67 kpg). Sunny Mahe hit a team-best .413 attack percentage for the week. Mahe, who was named the AVCA Sports Imports National Player of the Week for her play the week before, had a match-high 15 kills with only two hitting errors in 24 attempts in BYU's win over Wyoming. She also added six blocks and four digs. Lauren Richards came out of a redshirt year. She had eight kills in her first two matches playing outside hitter.

THE LOW DOWN

BYU had its second lowest attack percentage of the season (.181) vs. CSU Saturday. The Cougars also recorded season lows of 40 kills, 23 digs and only two blocks while not serving an ace for the first time this year.

1,100 AND COUNTING

BYU coach Elaine Michaelis coached her 1,100th recorded (since 1969) match at CSU last Saturday. She has won 79.7 percent of those matches, with 877 wins. She is second in all-time Division I victories.

STREAKS END

BYU had its nine match win streak end with its loss at CSU. The Cougars also had a string of six straight 3-0 wins ended. Colorado State also ended a string of six straight matches in which BYU held its opponents under a .200 hitting percentage. No team had hit better than .236 (Washington in first match of the year) on the Cougars this year until the Rams hit an impressive .534 Saturday.

STREAKS CONTINUE

The Cougars are 7-0 at home this year and own a 18-match home winning streak dating back to last season. The last team to defeat BYU in the Smith Fieldhouse was nationally ranked Arizona on Sept. 15, 2000.

THREE AND OUT

BYU has only had three matches all year go beyond three games. The Cougars have eight 3-0 wins and have been swept once. BYU is 1-1 in five-game matches and 1-0 in four-game contests.

POINTS

On the year, Nina Puikkonen leads the Cougars with 199.5 points (4.87 ppg), followed by Sunny Mahe with 198.0 (4.83 ppg) and Jackie Bundy with 170.5 (4.15 ppg).

DOUBLE-DIGITS

Nina Puikkonen has recorded double-digit kills in all 12 matches this year, while Sunny Mahe has reached double figures in 10 of 12, including a streak of 10 straight. Jackie Bundy has reached double-digit kills seven times, including four of the last six matches.

FILLING OUTSIDE SPOTS

With four all-conference starters returning, BYU coach Elaine Michaelis has had to replace her two starting outside hitters from last season. Senior Natalie Whittaker has filled one spot, playing in all 41 games, while three different Cougars have seen action at the other spot. Freshman Lauren Richards came out of her redshirt season last week to play her first two matches of the year. Redshirt freshman Becky Warnick (22 games) and junior college transfer Allison Larson (15 games) have also seen time on the left side. Sophomore defensive specialist Uila Crabbe has played back row in all 41 games this year.

KARINAPUIKKONEN

Sophomore setter Karina Puikkonen hit .000 last week with five kills. It was the first week this year in which she failed to hit a .400 hitting percentage. She had entered the week among conference and national leaders in hitting with a .473 attack percentage. She set a career high .667 attack percentage against Utah, with eight kills in 12 dump attempts with no errors. Karina has hit .500 or better in seven of BYU's 12 matches this year and leads the Cougars with a .408 season hitting percentage. She set a career high with 10 kills vs. Colorado while hitting a match-high .529 with only one error in 17 attempts.

NINAMOVING UP CAREER CHARTS

Nina Puikkonen moved into second place on BYU's all-time block assist and total blocks lists in BYU's last home matches. She surpassed former All-American and U.S. National Team player Amy Steele Gant in block assists vs. UC Santa Barbara and then overtook Gant in total blocks vs. Air Force. She needs five more block solos to pass Gant into fourth place in that category. Puikkonen has 705 career total blocks, including 609 block assists. Even though Puikkonen is by far BYU's all-time leader in blocking average (1.91 bpg), she needs another 184 blocks to overtake total blocks leader Dylann Duncan (1985-88) because volleyball teams played more matches each year during Duncan's career. Duncan is second in average (1.63 bpg). Even if BYU played all 35 possible matches this season, Duncan will have played in 29 more matches than Puikkonen during their respective four-year careers. Earlier this year, she moved past former Cougar All-American Gale Johnson into fifth place on BYU's all-time kills list with her third kill in BYU's win over Rhode Island.

TRIPLE-DOUBLE

Senior middle blocker Jackie Bundy recorded her first career triple-double in BYU's win over No. 23 Colorado. She totaled 15 kills, 12 digs and a season-high 10 blocks on the night.

LAST HOME MATCHES

BYU extended its home winning streak to 18 matches with three 3-0 victories over then-No. 19 UC Santa Barbara, New Mexico and Air Force. BYU hit .367 as a team in its three wins while holding the opposition to a .110 attack percentage. BYU was dominating, averaging 18.44 kills and 15.22 digs compared to its opponent's 10.89 kills and 11.11 digs. BYU also averaged 2.78 blocks per game to 1.39 by its opponents. Three Cougars averaged four kills or better per game during the week. Sunny Mahe would earn AVCA Player of the Week honors with 41 kills (4.56 kpg) and Nina Puikkonen and Jackie Bundy each had 36 (4.00 kpg). Natalie Whittaker averaged a team-best 3.22 digs per game this week while hitting .304 with 19 kills (2.11 kpg). All 10 available players saw action during BYU's three wins. Sophomore middle blocker Carrie Bowers was out with a foot injury.

MAHE NAMED AVCA AND MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK Mahe Becomes Third Cougar to Ever Earn the National Honor

Sunny Mahe, a 6-2 junior right side/opposite hitter for the 14th-ranked BYU Cougars (9-1), was selected the AVCA/Sports Imports Division I National Player of the Week on Oct. 1. Mahe also garnered Mountain West Conference Player of the Week honors for the second time this year and the third time during her career.

Mahe hit a team-best .554 attack percentage to guide the Cougars to three 3-0 victories last week with wins over then-No. 19 UC Santa Barbara, New Mexico and Air Force. She averaged 4.56 kills, 1.00 blocks, 1.78 digs, 1.11 assists and 0.44 service aces per game. For the week, she tallied 41 kills with just five attack errors on 65 swings.

Mahe charted 12 kills, five blocks, six digs and six assists against UC Santa Barbara while hitting .357. She added 13 kills as part of a .647 attack percentage versus New Mexico, followed by a MWC season-high .750 hitting percentage with a match-best 16 kills on 20 attacks against Air Force. Mahe has topped the .600 hitting percentage mark in a match four times this year.

Mahe has tallied double-digit kills in each of the last nine matches and ranks third in MWC matches for kills per game (4.33) and hitting percentage (.550).

The native of Allen, Texas, is the third BYU player to win the AVCA National Player of the Week award. Current teammate Nina Puikkonen and former Cougar Amy Steele Gant also have won the award, both winning it twice. A first-team AVCA All-American, Puikkonen was the only player in the country to receive the honor twice last season. Gant was recognized in 1996 and 1997.

BYU'S MAHE EARNS FIRST MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARD

BYU junior outside hitter Sunny Mahe was named the Mountain West Conference Volleyball Player of the Week Sept. 3, marking the second time overall she has earned the award. A native of Allen, Texas (Allen HS), Mahe led BYU with 45 kills (3.75 per game) and a .330 hitting percentage (45k-11e-103a) as the Cougars posted a 2-1 record at the Washington Tournament in Seattle last weekend. Mahe, who earned all-tournament honors, posted her best numbers of the week in a four-game win against Purdue with a career-high 22 kills, 12 digs, five total blocks and a .724 hitting percentage. She also had nine kills in a sweep of Washington and 14 kills in a five-game loss to Texas. For the week, Mahe racked up 23 digs, (1.92 per game), 13 total blocks (1.08 per game), four aces (.33 per game) and 56.5 points, which ranks second in the MWC.

ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS

BYU's Sunny Mahe earned Mizuno Classic MVP honors while Nina Puikkonen, Jackie Bundy and Karina Puikkonen were selected to the all-tournament team along with Rese McNatt of Southwest Missouri State and Elizabeth Gower and Monique Gerlach of Colorado. Mahe and Nina Puikkonen also were named to the Point Huskies Invitational All-Tournament Team.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

BYU is a member of the Mountain West Conference. Six of the eight MWC programs have competed in postseason action over the years while the other two programs have only been in competition since 1996. Since the MWC was founded in 1999, BYU, Colorado State and Utah have represented the conference in the NCAA tournament both seasons. Last year all three teams were ranked in the top 20. Overall, BYU has made 19 NCAA appearances and Colorado State has made 12. The reigning Mountain West Conference Tournament Champions, BYU will again be among the top contenders for the MWC title. The Cougars are a slight favorite to edge Colorado State, according to the MWC preseason coaches poll. The Cougars have a 25-3 regular season record in two years of MWC play after finishing second in 2000 with a 12-2 mark. The Cougars won the inaugural regular season title in 1999 with a 13-1 record before finishing second to Colorado State at the MWC tournament. The Rams won the regular season title last year with a 13-1 record, with the lone loss coming at BYU. The Cougars went on to win last year's MWC Tournament title in Fort Collins, Colo., avenging both regular season conference losses with wins over Utah and Colorado State, ending the Rams' nation-best 44-match home winning streak. The Cougars, Rams and Utes were all top-20 teams in 2000 and should again compete for the conference title. San Diego State was on the bubble of the NCAA tournament last year and could factor into the title hunt. BYU will host the 2001 MWC Tournament, Nov. 15-17, at the Smith Fieldhouse in Provo.

MWC PRESEASON VOLLEYBALL COACHES POLL

In a vote of the eight head coaches in the Mountain West Conference, BYU is the favorite to win the 2001 MWC title after earning five first-place votes and 46 points. Colorado State, which finished with three first-place votes and 45 points in the poll, is second, followed by Utah, San Diego State, UNLV, New Mexico, Wyoming and Air Force. Last year's preseason poll foreshadowed the tight race between BYU and Colorado State, which tied for first in the 2000 poll. Colorado State captured the regular season MWC title with a 13-1 record, but the Cougars won a thrilling five-game match over the Rams in the championship match of the McLeod USA MWC Championship to earn the league's first-ever NCAA automatic bid.

ELAINE MICHAELIS/coaching profile

Now in her 40th year at the helm of the BYU program, Elaine Michaelis also enters her seventh year as Director of Women's Athletics. A proven winner, Michaelis is second all-time in Division I victories with an 877-218-5 record (since records were kept in 1969) and has the most wins ever by a female coach. With BYU's 26-7 record last season, Michaelis posted her 27th consecutive 20-win season and her 29th in 32 years since records have been kept at BYU beginning in 1969. She has never had a losing season. Her team won last year's Mountain West Tournament title after winning the previous season's inaugural MWC regular season title. She has the distinction of winning the inaugural championship in each of the five leagues in which BYU has been a volleyball member. Michaelis is 25-3 in MWC play in two years and now has an overall conference mark of 350-34. She has guided her team to the NCAA tournament 19 times in the 20-year history of NCAA control of the sport, including 11 straight appearances. Her teams have participated in 29 of 32 national tournaments. BYU's two wins last year in the NCAA tournament improved Michaelis' national tournament record to 73-43 (.629). Michaelis is 26-19 (.578) in the NCAA tournament.

SCHEDULE

BYU boasts a typically strong schedule that includes many of the nation's top teams. BYU's schedule included 10 teams that qualified for last year's NCAA tournament in a minimum of 12 matches during their 2001 regular season schedule. Two of those matches were canceled because of the terrorist attacks on the United States. BYU will not play its matches in Hawaii vs. Loyola Marymount and the University of Hawaii, who advanced to the NCAA Final Four last year. Of the eight NCAA teams left on the schedule, seven earned a tournament victory last year. UC Santa Barbara had its run end with a regional final loss to Hawaii while Long Beach State and Colorado State each earned regional semi-final appearances. Utah, Cal Poly, Colorado, and Utah State made it to the second round while Sacramento State earned a spot in the big dance. Other 2001 non-conference opponents include Texas, who has appeared in 17 of 20 NCAA tournaments and is sixth all-time with 38 NCAA tournament wins, Washington, Purdue, Rhode Island and Southwest Missouri State.

RULE CHANGES

Women's volleyball will take on a different look in 2001 with several new rule changes. The National Association for Girls and Women in Sports, the official rules-making body for women's collegiate volleyball, released the changes in its "2001-2002 NAGWS Official Rules, Interpretations & Officiating Rulebook." The most noticeable difference this season will be the move from sideout volleyball to a rally scoring format where each play will result in a point. The first four games will be scored to 30 points, with the winner holding a two-point lead. The fifth and deciding game will be played to 15 with the winner leading by two points. Other significant changes involve the serve. Players must serve the ball within eight seconds after the referee authorizes service and will not be allowed a second toss for service. Further, the collegiate game will mimic the international game with the let serve. A served ball will remain in play if it hits the net and continues its path to the opposition's court. A service ace can be earned if the ball falls to the opposition's side of the court on the serve, despite contact with the net on service. The international pursuit rule was also added as an experimental rule for the upcoming season, and can be implemented in a match by agreement of both coaches. The rule allows for a player to retrieve a ball (on second contact) that has crossed the plane of the net to the opponent's free space, provided that player does not touch the opponent's court and sends the ball back to their court, over or outside the antennas, for an opportunity for the third contact.

2000 SEASON SUMMARY

The Cougars won the Mountain West Conference Tournament and were ranked as high as No. 10 in 2000 while advancing to the NCAA Regional Semifinals for the fifth straight season, finishing 26-7. The tournament appearance was BYU's 11th straight and its 19th in the 20 years of the NCAA tournament. With its ninth-place tie in the tournament, BYU recorded its 20th overall top-10 national finish in the 32 years the Cougars have competed at the national level. All seven Cougar losses in 2000 were to teams ranked in the top 20 during the season, including a season-ending loss to No. 5 Arizona in the NCAA Central Regional Semifinals in Lincoln, Neb. BYU had won 13 straight matches entering the NCAA Central Regional in Lincoln. Junior middle blocker Nina Puikkonen was named to the AVCA All-America First Team and earned AVCA Sports Imports National Player of the Week honors twice (Sept. 11 and Nov. 20) during the season. She was the only player to earn the award more than once last season. Four BYU players earned All-MWC honors, including juniors Jackie Bundy (MB) and Nina Puikkonen (MB), sophomore Sunny Tonga (MB) and freshman Karina Puikkonen (S). Nina Puikkonen is a two-time All-MWC selection and three-time all-conference player (All-WAC as a freshman). Nina also earned four Mountain West Conference Player of the Week awards (Sept. 11, Oct. 16, Nov. 6, Nov. 20) while sophomore rightside hitter Sunny Tonga earned one MWC Player of the Week award (Oct. 30). Second all-time in division I wins, BYU coach Elaine Michaelis achieved her 850th career win with a 3-0 win over San Diego State on Sept. 23. Michaelis finished the season with an 867-216-5 overall record in 32 seasons since records were kept. She has won an amazing 80 percent of her matches and is the all-time leader in women's volleyball victories among female coaches. The Cougars defeated teams ranked No. 1, No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4 last season with wins over No. 1 Stanford, No. 2 Long Beach State and two wins over Colorado State when the Rams were ranked third and fourth. BYU's last win over the Rams was for the Mountain West Conference Tournament title and ended CSU's nation-best 44-match home court winning streak. The Cougars had a chance to beat a No. 5 team but dropped their bid losing to fifth-ranked Arizona in the NCAA Central Region semifinals. BYU played 14 matches last season against a ranked team. BYU had a 9-5 record in those matches with wins over Stanford, LBSU, Colorado State (2), Utah (2) and Kansas State, UCSB and Utah State. BYU has also played two matches, both losses, against teams who were not ranked at the time but later moved into the top 25 (Notre Dame and Utah State). The Cougars finished the year with an active streak of 11 straight home victories.
