 IN SAN DIEGO: BYU leads 9-5-1
 LAST MEETING: BYU won, 47-17, at LaVell Edwards Stadium

REGULAR SEASON ENDS IN SAN DIEGO

No. 19 BYU (9-2, 6-0) travels to San Diego, Calif., to face San Diego State (4-7, 3-4) in a game that was originally to take place last October. However, emergency action surrounding the Southern California wildfires forced the postponement of the game to this Saturday, Dec. 1. Having secured the Mountain West Conference Championship outright last week against Utah, the Cougars hope to wrap up their second consecutive undefeated season against the MWC when they face the Aztecs at 3:30 p.m. (PT). BYU has won an MWC record 15 straight league games, dating back to a 31-17 road victory over No. 15 TCU last season. It is the longest conference win streak for the Cougars since winning 25 straight from November 20, 1982 to October 19, 1985. Head coach Bronco Mendenhall is 1-1 against SDSU since taking the reins of the BYU football program. San Diego State has lost its last two games by an average of 22 points per game.

THE BYU-SDSU SERIES

Saturday's contest will be the 32nd all-time between BYU and San Diego State. The Cougars have won five of the last six games against SDSU, including a 47-17 victory last season at LaVell Edwards Stadium. In the series that dates back to 1947, BYU enjoyed its longest winning streak against San Diego State from 1976-85 when it defeated the Aztecs nine straight times. Since the 1985 season the Cougars have not won more than five consecutive games against SDSU, while the Aztecs have never beaten BYU twice in a row. The two teams played to a 52-all tie in 1991, the only draw in the history of the series.

A LOOK BACK: BYU 17, UTAH 10

Reminiscent of its' last-second victory against Utah (8-4, 5-3) in the 2006 season, No. 19 BYU (9-2, 7-0) defeated its archrival on a final drive to take a 17-10 win Saturday in front of a sellout crowd at LaVell Edwards Stadium. With the win the Cougars became the outright Mountain West Conference Champions for the second season in a row. Defeating Utah marks the first time since the 2000-2001 seasons that the Cougars have recorded back-to-back wins over their in-state rivals. It also marks their first win against Utah in Provo since 2001. BYU has now won its last eight games as well as its last 15 conference games. Freshman running back Harvey Unga surpassed 1,000 yards on the season after rushing for 144 yards on 23 carries against the Utes, becoming the first freshman at BYU to reach the mark. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie caught five balls for 126 yards, including a game-saving 49-yard reception on the Cougars' final drive. Following the game, the Cougars were awarded the MWC Championship trophy.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

Saturday's game will be broadcast live to a regional television audience on The Mtn. It will be the last of six broadcasts on the network for BYU this season.

2007 OPPONENT CAPSULE: SAN DIEGO STATE

Table with columns: Date, Opponent, Result. Lists games from Sept. 8 to Dec. 1 against Washington State, Arizona State, Portland State, Cincinnati, Colorado State, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, UNLV, Air Force, TCU, and BYU.

WHAT THE GAME MEANS

A win against San Diego State would give the Cougars their second straight 10-win season, including their ninth straight victory overall. BYU has recorded 11 total 10-win seasons in its history.

A victory would also give the Cougars their second straight perfect 8-0 league season, extending the team's MWC record win streak to 16 straight to mark the longest conference win streak for the Cougars since winning 16 straight from Nov. 15, 1983 to Oct. 19, 1985. That 16-game streak was actually part of a school-record, 25-game league win streak that dated from Oct. 2, 1982 until Oct. 19, 1985.

A loss against SDSU at Qualcomm Stadium would put an end to those conference streak and would mark BYU's second straight loss in San Diego.

BOWL ELIGIBLE

With a win against Colorado State, the Cougars picked up their sixth win of the season and have qualified to participate in their third straight bowl game for the first time since the 1994 season. BYU has not played in three straight bowl games since playing in the 1992 Aloha Bowl, the 1993 Holiday Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. From 1978 through 1994, the Cougars participated in a school record 17 straight bowl games.

A WIN'S A WIN

BYU's 17-10 win over Utah marked the fewest points the Cougars have scored in a winning effort since beating New Mexico 10-7 on September 13, 2003.

SIX STRAIGHT SELLOUTS

The Utah game marked the sixth consecutive sell-out at La Vell Edwards Stadium and the first time since the 1991 season the Cougars have had six sellouts during the same season. BYU also posted a perfect record of 6-0 during the 1991 campaign. Since 1999, the Cougars are 12-4 in games with a sell-out crowd. The BYU-Utah game is sold out, marking the sixth straight sellout at Edwards Stadium.

COMPARE THE STATS

Table comparing stats for BYU and SDSU across categories like Scoring, Points Per Game, First Downs, Rushing Yardage, etc.

ROAD WARRIORS

While BYU has posted an impressive 12-game home win streak, the Cougars have been equally impressive on the road. BYU has won 8 of its last 10 road games, including four straight road games this season. With a 35-10 victory at Wyoming, the Cougars extended its MWC road win streak to 10 straight games, dating back to the 2005 season. The Cougars will close out the regular season on the road at SDSU.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Following is a list of BYU's future non-conference schedules:

- 2008: Nevada, at Washington, UCLA, at Utah State
2009: at Arizona State, Florida State, Utah State
2010: Washington, at Florida State, at Utah State
2011: at Washington, at Army, Arizona State, Utah State
2012: Army, Washington, Utah State

OFF TO A QUICK START

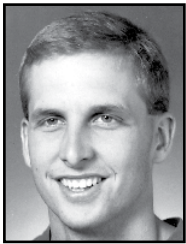

For the first time since the 2004 season when BYU edged Notre Dame, 20-17, at LaVell Edwards Stadium, the Cougars won its season opener, 20-7, against Arizona. The Cougars lost at home to Boston College to start the 2005 campaign before dropping a 16-13 decision to Arizona on a last-second field goal to start the 2006 season. BYU won four straight season-openers from 2001-2004. Overall, the Cougars have won five of their last six home-openers. Bronco Mendenhall is 1-2 in season-opening games, including a mark of 1-1 in Provo.

COUGARS CONTINUE TO WIN

With a 17-10 victory over Utah, the Cougars have won 19 of their last 21 games, dating back to last season. BYU is currently on an eight-game win streak that includes a 25-point win on the road at Wyoming, a win over TCU, a 19-point victory over CSU, a 35-point victory over Eastern Washington, a 25-point win over Air Force, and road wins over New Mexico and UNLV. BYU holds the nation's second longest win streak.

RETIRING No. 14

Two of college football's all-time greatest quarterbacks, Gifford Nielsen and Ty Detmer, were honored together on Saturday, Sept. 1 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The No. 14 jersey, worn by both Nielsen and Detmer, was retired during halftime of the Cougars' season-opener against Arizona.

Throughout the history of BYU football, dating back to 1922, only three jerseys have ever been retired. Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie's No. 40 jersey, along with Marion Probert's No. 81 jersey and Steve Young's No. 8 jersey all hang from the pressbox at Edwards Stadium.

Nielsen, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and recipient of the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, passed for over 5,800 yards and collected 55 touchdowns throughout his career. Earning All-America honors in 1976, Nielsen led the NCAA in touchdown completions, ranked second in total offense and helped the Cougars to their first-ever national ranking. After what appeared to be a career-ending injury during his senior season, Nielsen went on to play six years for the Houston Oilers and remains the last quarterback to lead the team to the AFC finals. Nielsen and his wife, Wendy, are the parents of six children and reside in Houston.

Detmer, the winner of the 1990 Heisman Trophy, set nearly every passing record ever imagined during his time in Provo. A two-time Davey O'Brien Award winner, Detmer set 62 records during his career at BYU, including the NCAA record for career passing yards with 15,031. He was a consensus All-American in 1990 as the nation's leading passer and earned his second consensus All-American title in 1991 after leading the nation in total offense. He still holds the NCAA record for career touchdown completions with 121. Detmer played 14 seasons in the NFL and currently resides with his wife, Kim, and four daughters in Austin, Texas.

A BYU COACHING FIRST

With a 35-16 win over Colorado State, the Cougars picked up their sixth win of the season, qualifying for their third straight bowl game. BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall became the first coach in BYU history to qualify for three straight bowl games in his first three years. Mendenhall currently ranks second behind LaVell Edwards with the most post-season appearances in BYU football history.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME TO START THE SEASON

Dating back to the Cougars first season in 1922, BYU has posted a record of 29-11-1 when opening the season in Provo -- that's a winning percentage of 72 percent! In overall home-openers, the Cougars are 52-29-1 (64 percent) since 1922. Interestingly, BYU's longest home-opening win streak covers 10 seasons, dating from 1930 through 1939. Since 1998, the Cougars have posted a record of 8-2 (.777) in home-opening games.

RUSHING DOMINANCE

Entering Saturday's game against San Diego State, the Cougars own a record of 239-40-1 when rushing for 100 (or more) yards since the 1972 season. The Tulsa game marked only the fifth time since 1991 that the Cougars had gained over 150 yards rushing in a game and lost. (BYU is 76-5 since 1991 when rushing for 150 or more yards.) During the Bronco Mendenhall era, the Cougars are 22-3 when rushing for 100 or more yards and 14-2 when rushing for 200 or more yards.

THE 200-YARD MARK

After racking up 221 yards rushing against Eastern Washington, BYU has won 59 straight games when rushing for 200 or more yards in a game, dating back to the 1985 season. The Cougars' last loss when rushing for 200 or more yards in a game came on October 26, 1985 (vs. UTEP).

SEASON TICKET HOLDERS ARE FULLY INVESTED

BYU has sold over 53,500 season tickets for the 2007 season -- that's an increase of 7,900 over last year's total of 45,600. Interestingly, nearly 84 percent of the Edwards Stadium capacity will be occupied by season-ticket holders during the season.

TALE OF THE TAPE

BYU's starting five offensive linemen weigh in at an average 318.4 pounds and average 6-feet-5. The front five will be going up against a San Diego State defensive front that measures an average 6-feet-3, 261 pounds. Defensively, the Cougars' front three average 6-feet-3, 267 pounds, while the Aztecs' offensive line tips the scales at an average 6-feet-3, 296 pounds per man.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Currently BYU has four former players and a head coach enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Ind. Legendary coach LaVell Edwards was inducted in 2004 after serving 29 seasons as head coach, posting an amazing record of 257-101-3. Steve Young was inducted in 2001 with Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson and Gifford Nielsen earning Hall of Fame status in 1998, 1996 and 1994, respectively. With a long history of successful quarterbacks making their way to the College Football Hall of Fame, it seems only a matter of time before Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer receives an invitation to South Bend. BYU has produced more than just top-ranked quarterbacks over the years. Defensive lineman Jason Buck, offensive lineman Mo Elewonibi, offensive lineman Nick Eyre, running back Eldon Fortie, defensive back Kyle Morrell, punter Pat Thompson and tight ends Chris Smith and Gordon Hudson are also candidates for the Hall of Fame.

FOLLOWING A BOWL VICTORY...

In seasons following a BYU bowl victory, the Cougars have compiled a combined record of 75-23 (.765), averaging 9.4 wins per season. Of BYU's seven previous post-bowl victory teams, all but two teams have returned to a bowl game the following season.

HIGH ON A MOUNTAIN TOP

With a 17-10 win over Utah, the Cougars remain atop the MWC with a 7-0 record. BYU has won a MWC record 15 straight league games, dating back to a 31-17, road victory over No. 15 TCU last season. The streak includes a record 10 straight road victories against league opponents. The Cougars' 15-game league win streak is the longest since winning 25 straight October 2, 1982 to October 19, 1985. BYU owns a league-best 45-20 record against Mountain West opponents since the league began in 1999. The Cougars are the only team to record two different undefeated league seasons in the eight years since the beginning of the Mountain West Conference. BYU became the first undefeated MWC team with a 7-0 league record in 2001 and went undefeated again last season with a perfect 8-0 record against Mountain West opponents.

HEAD COACH BRONCO MENDENHALL

Bronco Mendenhall enters his third season as head coach at BYU. In his first season (2005), Mendenhall took a program that had not enjoyed a winning season since 2001 and compiled a 6-5 regular-season record, a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference standings and earned a trip to a bowl game for the first time in three seasons.

Building on the success of his first-ever season as a head coach, Mendenhall and the Cougars posted a 10-2 record in 2006, winning the outright Mountain West Conference Championship with a perfect 8-0 record. As a result, BYU returned to the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl to represent the MWC—this time, as conference champions.

Along the way, BYU climbed the national polls by winning nine straight games to finish the regular season. As a result, the Cougars earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings. The Cougars' nine-game win streak was the third longest in the country and marked only the seventh time in BYU football history the Cougars had recorded at least nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 323.54 yards per game. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fourth in the country in total offense, producing an average 465.46 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.7 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 167.08.

Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging 1.08 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 16th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.23) and 10th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 14.69 points per game -- the lowest per-game average for the Cougars since the 1985 season.

BYU outscored its opponents during the season by an average 36.7 to 14.69 (+22.01). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, Mendenhall and the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did BYU win each of its home games, it did so in record fashion. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominate team in the nation, but also they finished as the most dominate home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979. LSU finished the season behind the Cougars in 2006, posting a +31.9 home-field scoring margin.

In his first season, the Cougars finished second in the Mountain West Conference with a 5-3 record. Mendenhall and his staff coached an offense reminiscent of BYU's glory days, ranking second in the MWC in scoring and sixth in the nation in passing.

During his first season in Provo, Mendenhall engineered the nation's 14th-ranked defense, holding opponents to just 307 yards per game. Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing defense, giving up just 176.17 yards per game.

A native of Alpine, Utah, Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season, he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple have three sons.

CALLED TO SERVE

There are 28 members of the BYU football program currently serving two-year church missions in 12 different countries, including Argentina, Australia, Bulgaria, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Germany, Japan, Madagascar, Mexico, Sweden and the United States.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES

Of the 105 players on the Fall Camp roster, over 70 have served a church missions in a total of 19 different countries around the world, including Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, England, Germany, Honduras, Hong Kong, Nicaragua, Puerto Rico, Samoa, Spain, Taiwan, Uruguay and Venezuela. Current members of the team have served missions in 16 different states within the United States, and members of the team who have previously served church missions speak a total of six different foreign languages, including Chinese, German, Japanese, Portuguese, Samoan and Spanish. Current offensive lineman RJ Willing served his mission in Albuquerque.

WHAT IS A MISSION, YOU ASK?

The Church's missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Mormon missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities. More than 50,000 missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at any one time. Most are young people under the age of 25, serving in nearly 350 missions throughout the world.

Missionaries can be single men between the ages of 19 and 25, single women over the age of 21 or retired couples. Missionaries receive their assignment from Church headquarters and are sent only to countries where governments allow the Church to operate. Missionaries do not request their area of assignment and do not know beforehand whether they will be required to learn a language.

Prior to going to their assigned area, missionaries spend a short period of time at one of 17 missionary training centers throughout the world. There they learn how to teach the gospel in an orderly and clear way and, if necessary, they begin to learn the language of the people they will be teaching. The largest training center is in Provo, Utah, with additional centers in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Dominican Republic, England, Guatemala, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, Spain and South Korea.

A typical missionary day begins by waking at 6:30 a.m. for personal study. The day is spent proselytizing by following up on appointments, visiting homes or meeting people in the street or other public places. Missionaries end their day by 10:30 p.m. In some parts of the world, missionaries are sent only to serve humanitarian or other specialized missions. Those missionaries do not proselytize.

Missionary work is voluntary. Missionaries fund their own missions — except for their transportation to and from their field of labor — and are not paid for their services. Contacts with family and friends during this time of service are limited to letters and occasional phone calls to family at special times. Missionaries avoid entertainment, parties or other activities common to this age-group as long as they are on their missions, so they can focus entirely on the work of serving and of teaching others the gospel of Jesus Christ.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Seniors Bryan Kehl, Kelly Poppinga, Matt Allen and Sete Aulai have been selected by their teammates to serve as captains for the 2007 football season. Kehl and Poppinga are top linebackers for the Cougars, while Allen is a veteran wide receiver and Aulai is the team's starting center.

Collectively, the group has racked up 131 games of experience, including Kehl who has played in 45 career games and Allen who has played in 41. Aulai started and played in 12 games during the 2006 season, while Poppinga saw action in all 13 games for the Cougars last season.

Aulai is a 2006 Mountain West Conference second-team performer and has been tapped as an honors candidate for the 2007 season. Aulai allowed just one sack as a junior and did not allow a single sack against MWC opponents last season. Allen is an Academic All-Mountain West Conference performer who graduated with a degree in exercise science earlier this month. Allen racked up 420 yards receiving, averaging 32 yards per game. Kehl is also an Academic All-Mountain West Conference performer. He ranked third on the BYU roster last season with 70 tackles, including eight tackles for a combined loss of 33 yards. Poppinga, also an Academic All-Mountain West Conference performer and recent BYU graduate, totaled 36 tackles during his junior season, posting two sacks and two interceptions.

CONSECUTIVE SELLOUTS

The Cougars' 17-10 victory over Utah in front of a capacity crowd of 64,749 - the second largest crowd at Edwards Stadium since the seating reconfiguration in 2003 - marked the sixth consecutive sell-out at Edwards Stadium and the first time since the 1991 season the Cougars have had six sell-outs during one season. A crowd of 64,525 attended the Cougars' season-opening victory over Arizona on September 1, while attendance for Saturday's game against Air Force was listed at 64,502. The attendance against EWU was listed at 64,522, while 64,411 attended the CSU game. Since 1999, the Cougars are 13-4 in games with a sell-out crowd.

FIRST-HALF DOMINANCE

The Cougars held a 3-0 lead at halftime against Utah, marking the 10th time in 11 games this season BYU has held the lead at intermission. It also marks the seventh time in 11 games that the Cougars have held their opponent to seven or fewer points in the opening half. BYU has led at halftime in 23 of the last 24 games. During those 23 games, the team is 20-3.

ROOKIE QB'S AND BOWL GAMES

Sophomore quarterback Max Hall made his collegiate debut on September 1 against Arizona. Hall threw 26-of-39 for 288 yards and two touchdowns. The game marked Hall's first game in over four seasons. Hall is the first BYU quarterback to start the season without any previous Division-I experience since Steve Sarkisian started in 1995. Hall will also look to become the first quarterback since Brandon Doman to lead the Cougars to a bowl game in his first season as the regular starter. Since John Walsh led BYU to a Holiday Bowl appearance in 1993, Doman is the only quarterback to lead the Cougars to a bowl game in his first season as a regular starter.

"MAX" IMUM EFFORT

Sophomore quarterback Max Hall totaled 269 yards passing on 17-of-40 attempts in BYU's 17-10 victory over Utah to clinch the Cougars' second straight outright MWC championship. Hall, playing in his first-career game against Utah, led BYU to a fourth quarter comeback victory. With just 1:34 left in the game and BYU trailing 9-10, Hall took the Cougars up the field in a nine-play, 56 second drive that was capped by a 14-yard touchdown run by Harvey Unga. On a critical fourth-and-18, Hall found Austin Collie running down the right sideline for a 49-yard hookup that kept the game alive. On the season, Hall has completed 59.3 percent of his attempts (258-435) and is averaging a league-leading 308.2 yards per game. Hall is on pace to pass for nearly 3,700 yards on the season and rank among the top-10 single-season performances in BYU football history.

FIRST BLOOD

Freshman kicker Mitch Payne booted a 22-yard field goal with 4:47 remaining in the first half to give BYU a 3-0 lead. The score marked the 21st time in the last 23 games BYU has scored first. BYU is 19-2 in those 21 games.

MARGIN OF VICTORY

Max Hall barreled into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown run with 3:14 remaining in the third quarter against Eastern Washington to put the Cougars ahead 35-7. The 28-point margin marked the largest lead BYU has had at any point this season, and the largest margin since a 29-yard touchdown pass from Hall to Unga gave the Cougars a 24-0 lead over Air Force. The game's final score of 42-7 marked BYU's largest margin of victory of the season.

SEEING PITTA FROM THE POCKET

Sophomore tight end Dennis Pitta ranks fifth in the nation among all tight ends. Pitta is averaging nearly 70 yards per game and has produced four touchdowns on the season. Pitta caught five receptions for 114 yards last month against Air Force and racked up 113 receiving yards against Tulsa. The last BYU player to have two consecutive games with 100+ yards receiving was Jonny Harline in 2006. Harline totaled 118 yards against Utah and racked up 181 receiving yards the following game against Oregon in the 2006 Las Vegas Bowl. Pitta was credited with four receptions for 70 yards in the Cougars' 35-16 victory over Colorado State. So far this season, Max Hall and Dennis Pitta have teamed up on 50 balls for 728 yards. Pitta is averaging over 66 yards receiving per game.

BALANCED ATTACK

The Cougars have scored 41 touchdowns on the season. Of the 41 TD's, 21 have been scored via the passing game while 20 have been scored on the ground. Running back Harvey Unga leads the team with 13 touchdowns, including 10 rushing touchdowns while sophomore receiver Austin Collie has a team-leading five touchdown receptions.

NEAR SHUTOUTS

In three of the Cougars' nine games this season, BYU has held its opponents scoreless in three of four quarters. The Cougars held Arizona scoreless through 59 minutes. The Wildcats scored with just under a minute remaining in the game. Against Air Force, the BYU defense pitched a shutout through the better part of three quarters. The Falcons scored with 3:31 left in the third quarter, but would not score again. Interestingly, Air Force is the only team in the Mountain West Conference the Cougars have never shut out for an entire game. Shaun Carney's eight-yard touchdown run in the third quarter ended the Cougars' chances of their first-ever shutout against the Falcons. BYU has had 11 shutouts since the 1984 season. Interestingly, three of those shutouts were against New Mexico. (1984, 1988, 1992). The Cougars have only been shut out twice in the past 402 games.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS SNAPPED

College football's two longest active winning streaks were snapped on September 8 as Boise State fell to Washington, 10-24, and BYU lost to UCLA, 17-27. Boise State had won 14 straight prior to Saturday, and BYU's 11-game winning streak was its longest since the 2001 season. After losing to Tulsa, the Cougars have rebounded to win eight straight games which ranks as the second longest active win streak in the country.

HOME WIN STREAK CONTINUES

The Cougars' 17-10 victory over Utah extended BYU's home win streak to 12 straight games. The last time the Cougars won 12 consecutive home games was 16 seasons ago when the team won 17 in a row from October 7, 1989 to November 23, 1991.

MWC ROAD WARRIORS

BYU's victory at Wyoming marked the third road win of the season and extend the Cougars' conference road win streak to 10 straight MWC road victories. The current streak started with a 27-24 win at New Mexico during the 2005 season. The streak marks the most consecutive road wins in league play since the Cougars won 10 straight from Oct. 17, 1992 to Oct. 22, 1994.

ON THE ROAD vs. RANKED OPPONENTS

The Cougars' 17-27 loss to No. 11 UCLA marked the first road game against a ranked opponent since BYU knocked off No. 15 TCU in Fort Worth last season, 31-17. The victory over the Horned Frogs gave BYU its first win over a ranked opponent on the road since beating Arizona State, 13-10, on September 20, 1997. BYU is now 1-13 in games against ranked opponents, dating back to the 1999 season.

BEST OF THE BUNCH

Following the 2004 season, Bronco Mendenhall was one of 13 men who received their first head football coaching job at the Football Bowl Subdivision (Division I-A) level. UNDEFEATED AT HOME

For the second straight season, BYU finished with a perfect 6-0 record at home. The last time BYU had a perfect record at home prior to 2006 was 2001 when the Cougars went 6-0 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Since the stadium was built in 1964, BYU has gone undefeated at home 14 times. The win against Utah marks the first time since the 1990 and 1991 seasons that BYU has back-to-back undefeated home seasons.

OPENING-GAME SELLOUT

The Cougars saw a capacity crowd (64,045) for the season-opener against Arizona. The game marked the first home-opening sellout since the 2004 season when the Cougars opened in Provo against Notre Dame. Prior to the 2007 season-opener, BYU had had 10 opening-day sell-outs, dating back to 1982 -- the first year of the expanded stadium. The Arizona game also marked the first opening-day sell out during the Bronco Mendenhall era. It was also the first sell out since November 19, 2005 when the Cougars played host to Utah. Since 1985, the Cougars are 8-3 (.727) when playing in Provo for the home-opener in front of a sold-out stadium.

COLLIE BREAKS SCHOOL, MWC RECORDS

Against Tulsa, sophomore receiver Austin Collie was credited with 366 all-purpose yards, including 245 combined return yards and 121 receiving yards, to break Pete Van Valkenburg's 35-year-old school record. Van Valkenburg racked up 306 all-purpose yards in a 33-14 win over Wyoming on November 4, 1972. Collie's total also eclipsed Larry Ned's Mountain West Conference single-game record of 319 yards in San Diego State's October 6, 2001 victory over Eastern Illinois. Additionally, Collie's mark set the new MWC sophomore record, clipping Aaron Brown's mark of 285 yards in TCU's victory over Colorado State on November 25, 2006. Collie, a 6-foot-2, 212-pound sophomore from El Dorado Hills, Calif., also set the Mountain West Conference single-game individual and sophomore kick return yardage records with 237 yards on eight returns. Previously, Colorado State's George Hill held both records with 218 yards against Minnesota on September 10, 2005. Collie came up just three yards short of breaking Golden Richards' 36-year-old record of 247 combined return yards. Richards had 219 punt return yards and 28 kick return yards against North Texas during the 1971 season. Collie had 237 kick return yards and 8 yards on punt returns. Collie scored his first touchdown of the season with 8:19 remaining in the third quarter of the Cougars loss at UCLA, cutting the Bruins' lead to 20-10. The touchdown marked Collie's first since the 2004 season. Collie did not play in 2005 or 2006, serving a Church mission in Argentina. Collie scored again with 6:04 left in the third quarter to cut the Bruins' lead to just 20-17. Collie, a freshman All-American in 2004, caught seven balls for a game-high 79 yards and two touchdowns.

Poppinga's performance marked the most number of tackles by a BYU defender in a single game since Rob Morris registered 17 tackles against San Diego State during the 1998 season. Overall, the Evanston, Wyo., native was credited with seven solo and 10 assisted takedowns, a four-yard tackle for loss, a QB hurry and a 22-yard interception. SAN DIEGO STATE CONNECTIONS

WELCOME TO MIAMI

San Diego State sophomore wide receiver Jon Toledo's brother, Joe, is a current teammate of former BYU quarterback John Beck on the Miami Dolphins. Toledo was selected by Miami in the fourth round of the 2006 draft, while Beck was the Dolphins' second round pick in this past year's draft.

BACK IN THE DAY

San Diego State assistant head coach and defensive coordinator Bob Elliott was the secondary coach of the Iowa team that faced BYU in the 1991 Holiday Bowl. The Cougars and Hawkeyes played to a 13-13 tie.

OLD STOMPING GROUNDS

Prior to joining BYU's staff, outside linebackers coach Barry Lamb was the defensive coordinator at SDSU from 1989-93.

HIGH SCHOOL REUNIONS

Cougar sophomore defensive lineman Ian Dulan, freshman tight end Kaneakua Friel, sophomore offensive lineman R.J. Willing and Aztec sophomore tight end Waika Spencer all went to Kamehameha High School in Hawaii. Interestingly, all were teammates of each other at some point in their high school careers, with the exception of Friel and Willing who missed being teammates by one year.

BYU senior linebacker Markell Staffieri attended Torrey Pines High School in San Diego, Calif. Torrey Pines is the same school SDSU freshman offensive lineman Austin Bice went to.

Vic So'oto, the Cougars' sophomore tight end and Aztec senior wide receiver Brett Swain were teammates at Carlsbad High School in Carlsbad, Calif.

San Diego State wide receivers Marcus Montgomery and Roberto Wallace were teammates of BYU defensive lineman Russell Tialavea at Oceanside High School in Oceanside, Calif. Montgomery graduated one year ahead of Tialavea and Wallace. Graduating from Oceanside before all of them was Jose Perez, the Aztecs' redshirt freshman defensive back.

Saturday's game will feature another pair of former teammates on opposite sides of the ball. Cougar freshman defensive back G Pittman and Aztec freshman wide receiver Vincent Brown both played for Rancho Cucamonga High School in Rancho Cucamonga, Calif. Both graduated in 2006.
