COUGARS LOOK TO REBOUND AGAINST COWBOYS

Following a close loss last week to UNLV, the Cougars look to pick up a win against conference rival Wyoming Oct. 16 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The Cowboys are coming off of a 20-10 victory over San Diego State and are currently 4-1 and are tied with Utah atop the MWC standings. Wyoming's only loss came against Texas A&M, and they own a victory over Mississippi of the Southeastern Conference. Last season the Cowboys defeated BYU 13-10 in Laramie. The Cougars' comeback hopes were dashed last year when a Matt Berry pass was tipped and intercepted late in the fourth quarter.

SERIES INFORMATION

The Cougars hold a 36-30-3 edge in the series against Wyoming, dating back to BYU's inaugural football season in 1922. The Cougars won that game to earn their first-ever football win. BYU owns a 23-12 advantage in Provo, including a hard-fought 35-31 shootout in 2002 the last time the two teams squared off at LaVell Edwards Stadium. In that game, quarterback Matt Berry, starting as a redshirt freshman, threw for a career-high 360 yards and three touchdowns.

TIES TO WYOMING

Two members of BYU's squad hail from Wyoming. Starting linebacker and Nagurski Award candidate Brady Poppinga is from Evanston and prepped at Evanston High School. While playing at Evanston, Poppinga earned all-state honors as both a linebacker and tight end. Also hailing from Wyoming is reserve defensive lineman Kyle Tew. Tew is from Gillette and prepped at Campbell County High School. While at Campbell, Tew was a unanimous all-state selection at linebacker while helping to lead his team to a 5A state championship.

BYU'S RECORD IN THE MWC

After losing to the Rebels, the Cougars record in the MWC fell to 22-15. BYU has won one outright MWC title in football when it posted a 7-0 conference record in 2001, the only perfect conference record in the brief history of the MWC, and has tied for one championship (1999). In all sports, BYU has won an overwhelming number of MWC championships, bringing home 53 out of a possible 95 championship titles.

WATCH OUT FOR THESE GUYS

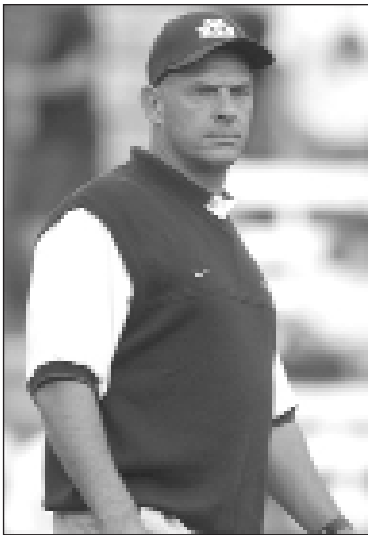

Four members of the 2004 BYU football team—Aaron Francisco, Brady Poppinga, Daniel Coats and Matt Payne—have been selected to various “watch lists” for post-season awards.

Aaron Francisco, 6-2, 215, Safety: Aaron Francisco has been selected to the Thorpe Award “watch list,” which honors the nation’s top defensive back. Francisco is a three-year starter, who led BYU in tackles and interceptions as a junior and was second in tackles as a sophomore. Last year he earned first-team All-MWC honors and was an honorable mention selection as a sophomore. Francisco is second on the team in tackles with 55, including four tackles for loss and one sack. He recorded back-to-back games of 16 tackles against No. 1 USC and No. 21 Boise State.

Brady Poppinga, 6-3, 257, Defensive End: Brady Poppinga has been selected to the Bronko Nagurski Award “watch list.” The award honors the nation’s top defensive player. Poppinga earned first-team All-MWC honors last season after ranking among the league leaders in tackles with 55 for the season, including 34 solo take downs and a team-leading six sacks. Poppinga ranks third on the team in tackles with 41, including eight tackles for a loss and is tied for the team-lead with five sacks for a loss of 31 yards. Against Notre Dame, Poppinga was a one-man wrecking crew, leading the team in tackles with twelve while recording one sack on Irish quarterback Brady Quinn for a loss of 10 yards.

Daniel Coats, 6-3, 250, Tight End: Daniel Coats has been named to the John Mackey Award “watch list.” The John Mackey Award is given annually to the nation’s top tight end. Last season as a freshman, Coats recorded 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns, while earning freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News. On the season, Coats has hauled in 10 passes for 112 yards. He is fifth on the team in receptions and leads Cougar tight ends in both receptions and yards.

Matt Payne, 6-4, 234, Punter/Kicker: Matt Payne has been selected to the Lou Groza Award and Ray Guy Award “watch lists.” The Groza Award is given annually to the nation’s best place kicker, while the Ray Guy Award is given to the nation’s best punter. Payne is a three-year starter as both a punter and kicker. As a sophomore in 2002, Payne was second in the nation in punting with a 47.6 yard-per-punt average, earning an honorable mention All-America nod. Last year, Payne was selected to both the Lou Groza and Ray Guy “watch lists.” Payne punted nine times against the Irish, pinning them inside their 20 six times. He also kicked two field goals—a 44- and a 53-yarder. Payne followed up his excellent performance against the Irish with a solid day against Stanford, punting the ball four times for 180 yards which averages out to 45 yards a kick. In the third game of the season against USC, Payne punted eight times for 386 yards (48.3), including a MWC record 79-yard punt, which is also the second longest punt in BYU’s history. He also kicked a 46-yard field goal that gave BYU an early 3-0 lead. He kicked two field goals against BSU he punted seven times for an average of 44 yards and kicked two field goals. Payne kicked 52-yarder at CSU and punted five times, averaging 47.6 yards per kick. Payne made two field goals against UNLV—including a 50-yarder— and averaged 45.1 yards per punt. He is currently fifth in the nation in punting (46.23) and second in net punting (42.95).

Head Coach Gary Crowton

Gary Crowton, entering his fourth season as the head coach at BYU, has guided the Cougars to a 21-17 record since arriving in Provo. This season Crowton will lead the Cougars against top teams such as Notre Dame, Stanford, USC and Boise State, as well as a tough league schedule.

In December 2000, Crowton took over a BYU program that had been under the direction of college football's sixth all-time winningest coach, LaVell Edwards, who posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over 29 seasons.

In his first season as head coach at BYU, Crowton constructed the nation's top-rated offense, posting a 12-2 record, including 10 straight victories to start his BYU career. For his efforts, he was named the MWC Coach of the Year as the Cougars won their first-ever, outright MWC championship.

Crowton, 47, came to BYU with a long and proven list of coaching accomplishments. Prior to serving as the offensive coordinator with the NFL's Chicago Bears, where his offense ranked third in the NFL in passing yardage during the 1999 season, Crowton was head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-1998. There he guided the Bulldogs to a 21-13 (.618) record over three seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 1997.

Competing as an independent for three straight years, Louisiana Tech recorded wins over the likes of Mississippi State, Cal and Alabama. Using its Crowton-designed, high-powered offense, the program also recorded impressive wins by scoring 50 or more points against eight different opponents, including games of 60 or more points in five different games. Crowton's offense ranked third in the nation, both in passing and total offense, while the Bulldogs racked up 12,746 yards passing in three years, an average of 4,249 yards per season. The prolific Tech offense also produced 115 touchdown receptions, averaging 38.3 TDs per season.

Under Crowton, NFL first-round draft pick Troy Edwards recorded a Tech-record 280 receptions and 4,352 yards receiving. Over a span of 34 games, Crowton's offense at Louisiana Tech engineered 22 different 300-yard passing games, including school-record 10, 300-yard outings during the 1998 season. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs combined for a school record 4,943 yards passing.

Crowton's coaching career actually began in 1982 as a student assistant under Edwards at BYU. While at BYU, he worked with current Seattle Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren and future NFL Hall of Famer Steve Young. From BYU, Crowton moved on to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he coached from 1983-86. While at Snow College, Crowton moved from defensive backs coach to offensive coordinator. Under his offensive leadership, the Badgers won the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship in 1985.

From Snow College, Crowton moved to Western Illinois, where he directed the Leathernecks' passing game for a single season. In 1988, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire, where the Wildcats were the top-rated passing team in the Yankee Conference from 1988-90.

In 1991, Crowton was hired as the quarterback coach at Boston College under head coach Tom Coughlin. There he helped develop quarterback Glenn Foley as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After three successful seasons with the Eagles, Crowton was hired as the co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where his offense led the Yellow Jackets to a No. 21 national ranking in his first and only season in Atlanta. In 1995, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he would become the head coach the following season.

Crowton was an all-league quarterback at Orem High School before earning All-American honors at Snow College. Crowton transferred to Colorado State, where he finished his career. Following an LDS Church mission to South Korea, Crowton attended Idaho State, where he ran track for the Bengals. After returning to BYU in 1982, Crowton earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983.

Crowton, who is the first-ever head football coach at BYU to serve an LDS Church mission, is married to the former Maren Peterson of Bountiful, Utah. The couple was married on August 3, 1985. The Crowtons have seven children, Dane (18), Tara (16), Jenessa (13), Quinn (10), Mikauli (8) Toriana (4) and Macloud (2).

PAYNE EARNS THIRD MWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

Matt Payne was named the MWC Special Teams Player of the Week for the third time in five weeks. Payne connected on a 52-yard field goal to give BYU an early 3-0 lead with 9:55 left in the second quarter against CSU and split the uprights on four point-after attempts on the night. He was also credited with another bone-jarring tackle in kickoff coverage. Payne has scored 269 career points, including a team leading 32 points this season. Payne ranks third on BYU's all-time scoring list, needing 22 points to pass Luke Staley for second on that list. Payne averaged 47.6 yards per punt, marking his highest average since posting 48.3 yards per punt against top-ranked USC. Only two of his five punts were returned for a combined total of five yards, establishing a 46.6 net punting average. Three of Payne's punts were downed inside the 20-yard line, including two punts inside the five-yard line. As a result, Colorado State was forced to start five drives with an average field position from their own 14-yard line.

His 52-yard field goal was the second longest of the season. Payne is a perfect 6-for-6 from 40 yards or more on the season, and 2-for-2 from over 50 yards. With four PAT's on the night, Payne has connected on 55 straight PAT's, dating back to the Cougars' season-opening victory against Syracuse in 2002. His streak currently ranks as the 10th longest in the country. Payne has made 11 consecutive point-after attempts this season. This is the sixth time Payne has been named special teams player of the week in his career.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Running backs coach Lance Reynolds is one of the few coaches in the country who have the opportunity to coach along side their sons at the collegiate level. Lance's son, Lance Jr., is the starting center for the Cougars this year. The younger Lance is a converted linebacker, who had to pack on about 40 pounds to play offensive line. The elder Reynolds is a former all-conference offensive lineman for the Cougars and is entering his 22nd year coaching at BYU. Lance Jr. is just the first in a long line of Reynolds boys that could play at BYU for their father. Lance's son Dallas signed a letter of intent in 2003 to play for BYU, but is currently serving an LDS church mission in Seattle, Wash. Below is a list of college coaches who currently coach their sons:

Father	Son	School
Kevin Willis, Defensive Line	Keith Willis, DE	Boston College
Rick Nelson, Offensive Line	Nick Nelson, QB	Northern Iowa
Lance Reynolds, Running Backs	Lance Reynolds Jr., C	BYU
Craig Wederquist, Defensive Line	Nate Wederquist, DB	UNLV

GOING DEEP

After six games, Todd Watkins is currently second in the MWC and ninth nationally in receiving yards per game, averaging 109.2 yards per contest. Through six games, Watkins has accumulated 655 yards, which is more than last year's leader, Toby Christensen, had all season. Watkins has touchdown receptions of 69 and 79 yards and was referred to as possibly the nation's best "deep threat" by Sports Illustrated. He scored the Cougars' only offensive touchdown against UNLV, stretching above Rebel defenders to make the seven yard grab. He is tied for the team lead with three touchdown receptions

THE HOUSE OF PAYNE

Six games into the 2004 season Ray Guy award candidate Matt Payne has punted 40 times for 1,849 yards, including a 79-yarder against USC. He leads the MWC in punting and is fifth in the nation with a 46.23 yards-per-punt average. Payne also wreaks havoc on punt and kick coverage, recording two highlight-reel-quality hits on Boise State punt returner Chris Carr as well as on an unsuspecting kick returner for Colorado State. Payne also hasn't been a slouch when kicking field goals or extra points. The Lou Groza award candidate has scored a team-leading 40 points, including three field goals 50 yards or greater. He is a perfect 8-8 from 40-plus yards. Payne has hit all 13 of his extra points this season and 9 of 11 field goals.

GOING DEEP PART II

Freshman wide receiver Austin Collie has caught 34 passes on the season for an average of 10.7 yards per catch and three touchdowns. His three touchdown receptions have all been 40 yards or greater with a long of 57 coming against Boise State.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

Of the 105 players who participated in fall camp, 35 are married. The 35 married players have a total of eight children. Included among the nine children are new additions to Manaia Brown's, Brady Poppinga's and Jason Kukahiko's families. Brown's wife Tupusina gave birth to Manaia Vaega Vaifoa on Aug. 9, while Poppinga's wife Brooke gave birth to their new daughter, Jasmine Rene, on Aug. 12. There will be two more additions to the Cougar family later this fall. Kukahiko's wife Kristin gave birth to the couple's first child Kate Anna on Sept. 7. Defensive back Brett Cooper and his wife, Diana, are expecting their first child in October.

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

The Cougars have experienced athletic success on a national level. Since 1970 when BYU captured its first NCAA title, the Cougars have won ten national championships, including four in cross-country and three in men's volleyball since 1997. BYU also won the national championship in football in 1984. BYU has also ranked high in the NACDA Director's cup, an award given to the nation's best athletic program. The Cougars have accumulated seven top-30 rankings in the directors cup since 1996-97. Below is a list of BYU's NCAA championship teams:

LAST WEEK: BYU vs. UNLV

UNLV forced six fumbles recovering four and intercepted one pass en route to a 24-20 victory over the Cougars Oct. 8 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The Cougars beat UNLV in almost every statistical category except the one that matters most, scoring. The Rebels were able to take advantage of BYU's five turnovers, usurping any momentum the Cougars gained during the game. Quarterback John Beck attempted a BYU and MWC record 67 passes, completing 34 of them for 356 yards for his second 300-plus yard performance of the season. Also of note, kicker Matt Payne kicked a 47- and 50-yard field goal in the game. He has now hit his last three from beyond 50 yards and his last 11 from 40-49 yards.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

The Cougars enter this week's game against the Cowboys ranked sixth in the conference in total offense, averaging 355 yards per game. Despite improvements over the last two weeks, which saw BYU rush for over 200 yards against Colorado State and have its first 100-yard rusher of the season against UNLV, the Cougars rank last in the nation in rushing offense with 66.5 yards per game. BYU has fared better through the air, ranking second in the MWC and 12th nationally in passing offense. The Cougars average 288.5 yards passing. BYU will face a Cowboy defense that ranks second in the MWC and 35th in the nation, but they only rank seventh in the conference in pass defense, yielding 262.2 yards per game through the air. Wyoming ranks second in the conference in rushing defense and 32nd nationally, allowing 113.2 yards per game. Overall the Cowboys rank fourth in the MWC in total defense.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

Defensively, the BYU ranks fifth in the conference and 74th nationally in total defense, allowing 379.8 yards per game. The Cougars rank 8th in the MWC against the pass and third against the rush. The Cougars face a Wyoming offense that ranks fifth in the conference in total offense, averaging 363 yards per game. The Cowboys average 150.8 yards on the ground and 212.2 through the air.

GRIDDERS GET NEW, COMFORTABLE UNIFORMS

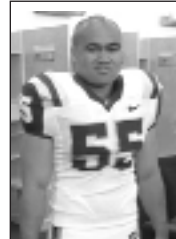

In an effort to provide the BYU football team different uniform combinations for both home and road games, BYU and Nike have been hard at work to produce a new look for the 2004 football season. The new uniforms feature traditional stripes over the shoulder pads and include subtle design changes that will allow the team to wear different combinations at home and on the road. The Cougars will now have the option of wearing all blue uniforms at home or a blue jersey with white pants. When playing on the road, the team will have the option of wearing an all white uniform or a white jersey with blue pants. In a process that has taken more than 18 months, BYU Equipment Manager Mick Hill said the new uniforms feature a style that will be more form fitting and comfortable for the players to wear. In addition, the new uniforms are made with a light-weight material that will prevent the uniform from becoming weighted down with perspiration or water.

1984 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP HONORED AT FIRST HOME GAME

Marking the 20th anniversary of the Cougars' 1984 National Championship the team was this year's sole induction into the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame. The induction ceremony took place Friday evening, Sept. 3, at the Wilkinson Center Ballroom. The team was honored the next day at Lavell Edwards Stadium during the BYU-Notre Dame game in pre-game and halftime ceremonies. Only two other Cougar teams have been inducted into the Hall of Fame: the 1951 NIT Championship Basketball team and the 1966 NIT Championship Basketball team. Cosmo, the Cougarettes and the BYU Marching Band played a part in the game-day festivities. There was also be an informal golf tournament Friday afternoon where some of the players participated as celebrity guests. In addition to the celebration in the stadium, a lithograph has been commissioned in honor of the '84 team. 1,984 numbered lithographs will be available for purchase. The artwork will feature individually autographed pictures of the 24 starters, including Vai Sikahema and Lee Johnson, along with a team picture and a picture of coach LaVell Edwards.

Familiar players like Glen Kozlowski, Vai Sikahema, Lee Johnson, Mark Bellini and Kelly Smith put Provo on the map in the world of college football. All-Americans like Robbie Bosco, Kyle Morrell, David Mills, Leon White and Marv Allen helped make the team a threat on both sides of the ball. In total, 15 players from the 1984 squad were drafted by 12 different NFL teams. Now, these players—hopefully all 120 of them—will be returning to LaVell Edwards Stadium to be recognized by their alma mater on the 20th anniversary of their epic season. After a perfect 12-0 season, the Cougars went on to defeat Michigan in the Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium. Robbie Bosco's heroic return from an early, second-quarter knee injury, along with a circus catch from Kelly Smith, was only part of the 13-game saga. Many fans remember the famous goal-line stand against Hawaii where Kyle Morrell soared over the offensive line to sack the Warrior quarterback and in the process kept their season unblemished.

ELECTION YEAR RECORD

Since 1972, BYU has posted a 80-28 (.741) record during election years, including this 2004. Some of BYU's most significant moments on the gridiron have occurred while republicans and democrats are fighting for a seat in the oval office. During the 1972 presidential election, LaVell Edwards took over as BYU's head coach. In 1976, BYU was invited to its first bowl game, the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma State. The 1980 presidential election year brought the Cougars their first bowl victory and a 12-1 record. BYU won the national championship in 1984, and in 1996, the Cougars posted 14 victories and earned their first trip to a New Year's Day bowl game.

EDWARDS SELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame has announced the 2004 College Football Hall of Fame Division I-A Class. Former BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards is among the list of 14 inductees to this year's class. A coaching icon, whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 21 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17 straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans—not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1985. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. Edwards becomes the fifth person affiliated with BYU football to be inducted in to the College Football Hall of Fame. It is no surprise that the four BYU players who are currently enshrined in the Hall of Fame often credit Edwards for their success. BYU's other College Football Hall of Famers include Steve Young (Class of 2001), Jim McMahon (Class of 1998) , Marc Wilson (Class of 1996), Gifford Nielsen (Class of 1994). Edwards, who will turn 74 in October, recently returned from an LDS Church mission to New York City. Along with his wife, Patti, the Edwards' served as public affairs missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Northeastern United States, as well as Eastern Canada. The Edwards have been married for nearly 53 years and have three children, Ann, John and Jim. The Edwards have 14 grandchildren.

RECORD WATCH

After kicking two field goals and two extra points against Notre Dame, senior kicker Matt Payne moved past Jamal Willis and Kurt Gunther into third place on BYU's all-time scoring list. One of Payne's field goals was a 53-yarder that matched his career-high that was set in 2003 against USC. In the history of Cougar football there have only been four kicks of 53 yards or more. Matt Payne has two of those kicks. During his sophomore and junior campaigns, he led the team in scoring. After scoring eight points against UNLV, he needs 13 more points to catch Luke Staley, who is currently second on BYU's all-time scoring list. Safety Aaron Francisco currently has 297 career tackles. He trails former Cougar and current Indianapolis Colts linebacker Rob Morris by 48 tackles for ninth place on BYU's all-time career tackle list. Below are the top scorers and top tacklers in Cougar history:

THE FEW, THE PROUD, THE PUNTERS/KICKERS

Matt Payne is one of just 10 players in the country who punts, handles kickoff duties and kicks extra-point and field goals. The others are Matt Prater (UCF), Brian Huffman (Northwestern), Andrew Wellock (Eastern Michigan), Tony Yelk (Iowa State), Rhys Lloyd (Minnesota), Ian O'Connor (Marshall), Mike Barrow (Idaho) and John Deraney (N.C. State) and D.J. Fitzpatrick (Notre Dame)
