Media Information

Credential Requests: All media outlets that wish to cover Savannah State Football games at T. A. Wright Stadium must submit their request for credentials in writing, either via e-mail or via fax, at least one week prior to the home contest, unless requesting a season pass. Single game press credentials can be picked up in the Savannah State Athletic Media Relations Office during the week of a home contest. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times, as there will be staff verifying credentials. All credentials are non-transferable. Your credential will get you access to the stadium, press box, sidelines, and post-game interview area in front of the locker rooms in the north end of T.A. Wright Stadium.

Phone Lines: Any phone lines needed for a particular game must be requested at least 72 hours prior to the game. All-long distance costs associated with the phone line are the responsibility of the media member/outlet utilizing them.

Internet Access: For those with laptop computers that have wireless capabilities, Savannah State University's campus is equipped with wireless internet access. Please know that the University server does track all internet usage, including in the press box, for inappropriate use.

Interview Protocol: After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Earnest Wilson will be available for members of the media. The Tiger locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located in front of the locker rooms in the north end of T. A. Wright Stadium. Requested players and Coach Wilson will be brought to an area designated by the home team, or just outside the Tigers locker room facility. Player requests should be directed to Opio Mashariki.

Tigers on Radio: All Tiger football games can be heard on WHCJ 90.3 FM in the Savannah area. Toby Hyde is in his fourth year handling the play-by-play duties while Curtis Foster will be handling the color commentary.

TIGER BITES

- SSU is fourth in the conference in punt returns with a 13.1 yard average. S.C. State leads the MEAC averaging 18.9 yards per return.
- For the past three games, the Tigers have used a dual quarterback system with sophomore Leon Prunty and freshman Tino Smith sharing time as the signal callers. Prunty, who has played in five games this season, is expected to get his third consecutive start against BYU.
- In the game against Howard, freshman QB Tino Smith ran for his first collegiate touchdown, a 57-yarder. He finished the night with 101 rushing yards, becoming the first SSU player to run for at least 100 yards since the 2011 season. He finished the game accounting for two touchdowns; one rushing and one passing.
- SSU standout linebacker Marquis Smith suffered a season-ending leg injury against S.C. State. Prior to the injury, Smith led the team in tackles; was fourth nationally and 2nd in the MEAC in tackles for loss; 12th nationally and 3rd in the MEAC in sacks; and was 11th nationally and 2nd in the conference in forced fumbles.
- Michael Wallace was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to preseason camp. Wallace was the Tigers defensive coordinator from 1995-97.

Following Dad's Footsteps

Four players on the team are the sons of former SSU players. Raydell Martin is the son of Isaac Caesar, Jaylen McGriff is the son of Wesley McGriff, Blake Gerido is the son of Steve Gerido and K'Lon Lovett is the son of Neeley Lovett.

Head Football Coach

Earnest Wilson III

Earnest J. Wilson III was hired as Savannah State's 24th head football coach on June 7, 2013. Entering his 24th year of coaching, Wilson brings a plethora of coaching experience to the Tigers.

Wilson enters his second season as the head coach and will also handle the play calling duties as the team's offensive coordinator. A position he held at several previous institutions.

Wilson comes to SSU from fellow Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) member Hampton University, where he has served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach since 2012.

Before joining Hampton, Wilson worked at Jackson State University (JSU) as offensive coordinator, quarterback coach and wide receiver coach for two years (2010-12). While at JSU, Wilson's offense led the South Western Athletic Conference (SWAC) in scoring offense, total offense, pass offense, pass efficiency, first downs and fourth down conversions. Under his tutelage, JSU led the nation in total offense averaging almost 500 yards a game. JSU also had the 9th highest scoring offense in the nation and averaged 35 points per game.

Prior to JSU, Wilson served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico State (2005-09). Wilson coached the number two passer in the nation while at New Mexico State and a team that lead the nation in total offense and was 3rd in the nation in passing (2010 and 2011) for NCAA Division I. He successfully recruited two players that continued on to play in the NFL.

Before Mexico State, Wilson was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Benedict College (2003-04) for two seasons. He led the team to its first winning season with a first team All-Academic quarterback.

Wilson's coaching background includes a stint as the head coach and director of football operations for the Carolina Rhinos (2001-02) and Jacksonville Tomcats (1999-2001) of Arena League Football 2 (AFL2). In his first season as head coach in 2000, the Rhinos posted a 10-8 record. The next year, Wilson led the Rhinos to a 13-5 record and advanced to the semifinals of the playoffs. Wilson took over at Jacksonville in 2002, leading the Tomcats to an 8-8 record (second place).

Wilson also served as the head coach of the Dayton Skyhawks of the Indoor Football League (1999). He led the team to the semifinals of the playoffs.
